New Parking Law Passed by Council

From the Editor's Corner

In this issue of the Chronicle there is a small ad that says "Watch for the Liquor Proposal." As most of you know, there is no liquor proposal in Tuscola County this year.

This advertisement was run in a number of Michigan weeklies throughout the state in a subtle attempt to bring out a bigger vote . . . not by either political party but by an individual at a cost of many hundreds of dollars.

While his method may be of dubious value, his reasoning is, unfortunately, sound. In Michigan, and especially in Tuscola County, a liquor issue will bring more persons to the polls than an election to name the president of the United States.

Tuesday's election, in our opinion, will not approach the number who voted in the county at the last general election. True, at that time there was a president to elect which heightened interest, but competent observers agree that many county residents voted only to express their opinion on the Sunday closing law that was submitted in 1956.

It isn't too long now before hunters will be making their annual northern trek for deer. Persons who have been caught in the traffic jam before opening day would naturally believe that hunting is a major tourist attraction.

It isn't so, says the Michigan Tourist Council. In fact, hunting as an attraction ranks next to the bottom of the list. Only three per cent of the total are hunters.

Sightseeing accounts for 57 per cent of the visitors and fishing 23 per cent. Quiet relaxation is the attraction for 22 per cent, while swimming and water sports occupy the attentions of 20 per cent. Other major interests are visiting relatives, 19 per cent, and camping seven per cent. At the bottom of the list is hiking which one per cent enjoys the most.

If you've taken the trouble to add these percentages, you'll find they total over 100. That's because some persons interviewed named more than one attraction.

Complete Final Plans for UNICEF Drive Thursday

Children in grades two through six who are between the ages of seven to 12 will meet at Cass City School Thursday night at 6 p. m. to prepare for a collection for UNICEF.

All children will receive identification badges and containers and be divided into groups under the direction of an adult leader. At a meeting Monday evening at the Evangelical United Brethren Church, adult representatives of area churches were assigned territories to canvass with the children.

Authorities said that every penny will do yeoman duty to help the children of the world. A penny, they say, provides the vaccine to protect a child from tuberculosis; a nickel will provide penicillin to cure a child of the crippling tropical disease, yaws, and a dime will provide 50 glasses of milk . . . vital for health. Area residents are asked to be on the lookout Thursday for boys and girls with the UNICEF badge. Each home will be contacted only once in the drive.

Supervisors Spread Taxes as Session Ends

Although the tax rate for Tuscola County increased only .15 of a mill from 5.85 this year to six mills in 1959, total tax revenue in the county jumped from $1,649,151.66 this year to $1,732,324.15 in 1959 . . . an increase of nearly $100,000.

The taxes were spread by the Tuscola County Board of Supervisors as they concluded their October session last week.

Total taxes for Elkland Township are $130,551.54 as compared to $123,458.89 for this year. Novesta Township Total taxes in Novesta Township were also slightly down. This year $36,910.06 was raised and in 1959 $35,786.97 will be collected.

The spread: county, $10,065.52; county nursing home, $2,454.55; school operating, $13,420.70; special school operating, $16.59; school special debt, $1,272.98; school building and site, $8,556.69.

Tax Commission Dale Campbell, a member of the state tax commission, appeared before the supervisors and reported that the reappraisal of the county's tax structure would be concluded on page 12.

Farm Bureau Elects Directors Thursday

Directors for five districts were elected at the annual meeting of the Tuscola County Farm Bureau in Akron Thursday, Oct. 23.

Named were Clarence Wildner of Unionville, Akron and Columbia townships; Erhardt Korthals of Reese, Denmark and Tuscola townships; Robert Bush of Caro, Almer and Indianfields townships; Bruce Ruggles of Kingston, Wells, Kingston and Koylton townships, and Carl Middleton of Mayville, Vassar and Watertown townships.

Nine resolutions were presented by the resolutions committee of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Lotter, Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Eastman and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Schenbers. They were approved.

An estimated 300 persons attended to hear James Tanner, mayor of Bay City, speak. The executive board was to have been named at a meeting Wednesday evening, authorities said.

Coming Auctions

Thursday, Nov. 6—S. J. McCree and son will sell 40 head of registered cattle and milking equipment at the farm, eight miles west and a quarter of a mile north of Cass City.

Stevens Named to Committee of State Bar of Michigan

A. J. Stevens of Cass City has been appointed a member of the public relations committee for the State Bar of Michigan, it was announced this week by authorities.

Mr. Stevens said that the committee is formulating plans to furnish speakers that will talk on legal questions before various civic groups and community organizations throughout the state.

The Cass City State Bank and The Pinney State Bank will be closed Nov. 4, election day. adv. 11

SKATING FAMILY—Three generations of the LaFave family are skaters. Grandfather in the trio is Martin Koenig of Saginaw. Mrs. Paul LaFave is a Gold Bar skater and daughter, Cindy, 22 months, is already following in her mother's footsteps.

Skating A Family Affair for LaFaves

Ralph Dormey of Cass City Arena likes to point to the Paul LaFave family of Saginaw when he says that skating is a family affair.

Led by Mrs. LaFave, the entire LaFave family are skaters. Sunday at a special open house at the arena, Mrs. LaFave, Cindy, 22 months, Debbie, 4, and Jeanne, 3, were all at the rink. Also present was Martin Koenig of Saginaw, Mrs. LaFave's father.

Mrs. LaFave is easily the best of Cass City area skaters. Mr. Dormey said. She has earned her Gold Bar in amateur skating . . . next to Gold Medal, the highest award possible to earn on roller rinks.

Mrs. LaFave has been a skater for 10 years and "loves it". She credits skating with keeping her figure trim.

Before she married she was very active on Detroit rinks and entered skating competition for a year. "Then I got married," she said, "and I was unable to continue."

However, Mrs. LaFave says that she plans to continue skating now and work towards the top award, the Gold Medal.

When you practice the dances as prescribed to earn the various awards, she explained, it is possible to go into any approved rink in the country and do any of the dances with any other qualified skater without ever having seen your partner before.

Chamber Sponsors Free Party for Children Friday

The Cass City Chamber of Commerce has arranged for a full evening of entertainment for children of the community under 12 years old on Halloween night, Friday.

The children will be treated to a free movie at the Cass Theatre and popcorn will be served at a stand on Main Street.

The popcorn will be purchased by the Chamber and the Elkland Township Fire Department is co-operating by operating the machine for the kids.

In other business, the Chamber is supporting the Christmas Pageant and home decorations. The group also is urging new and better street decorations.

To defray the cost of the program, Chamber members will be asked for a donation of $10 each, President B. A. Calka said.

Gunthers Find Two Eggs in One

Two for the price of one . . . that's what the John Gunther family received recently when they opened an egg at their home.

Inside the outer shell of the egg was another small egg, perfectly formed and complete with shell. The egg was broken by the Gunthers' daughter, Marilyn, and both were good.

The egg was purchased from Gordon Anthes and Mr. Gunther reports that about half of the eggs he has bought recently have had double yolks.

Light Vote Forecast For Tuscola County

Play at Yale Friday

Hawks Romp Over Cros-Lex, 57-6

Cass City played its last Thumb B Conference football game with Croswell-Lexington, who is leaving the league this season, and the Hawks rolled over the visitors with ridiculous ease, 57-6. The game was never in doubt shortly after the opening kickoff.

Cass City started its touchdown parade when they received the opening kickoff and ran it back to their own 31. Two first downs placed the ball on the Cros-Lex 29. Alex Lopez dashed for nine yards and Chuck Auvil went 20 to score.

The visitors fumbled on their own 14 after receiving the kickoff and the Hawks recovered. They scored four plays later. Key play was a pass that covered 11 yards. Forrest Walpole scored from the four-yard line.

The next drive covered 59 yards. Walpole picked up 33 of the yards in one dash. Lopez smashed the center from a yard out to score. At the end of the first period, Cass City led 19-0.

Cass City's next drive started from its own 41 as the alert Hawks pounced on another fumble. They covered the 61 yards in four plays.

The payoff play was a 15-yard pass from Fred Leeson to Lopez that covered 22 yards. That ended the scoring in the first half and the Hawks led at the intermission 25-0.

The Hawks added only one marker in the third period. The drive covered 60 yards. After two first downs brought the ball to the Cros-Lex 22, Walpole dashed over to score. Leeson's kick made it 32-0.

In the fourth period, the second string took over and scored with a drive starting on the visitors' 23. Dick Kloc, Bob Wright, Bill Gage and Tim Anthes alternated on running plays to push across the touchdown with Gage getting credit for the marker when he went the final six yards.

Dave Wilson set up the next Hawk score when he intercepted a Cros-Lex pass and ran it back to the visitors' 26. A roughing penalty moved the ball to the nine from where the Hawks went over in three plays. Wright smashed over from inside the one.

Cros-Lex fumbled twice and Cass City once in four plays after the next kickoff and the Hawks ended with the ball on the Croswell 23. A pass from Leslie Severance to Wright picked up a first on the 13 and Gage romped over on the next play to make it 57-0.

Cros-Lex scored their only touchdown of the game a moment later when a pass from Roy Johnson to Jim Strausser covered 44 yards to make the final score 57-6.

Top ground gainer in the game was Auvil who picked up 126 yards in 10 carries for a 12.6 average. Best defensive efforts, Coach Mike Yedinak said, were turned in by Wilson, Kloc and Roy Tuckey.

Friday the Hawks will reign as prohibitive favorites to defeat Yale when they travel to St. Clair County in their next to final game of the season.

The game should be a tune-up for the championship game Friday, Nov. 7, when Bad Axe plays at Cass City Recreational Park. Both clubs are undefeated in conference competition.

The statistics:	Cass City C. L.
First downs	18 4
Yards rushing	384 49
Passes attempted	12 9
Passes completed	7 4
Fumbles	6 4
Own recovered	4 0
Penalties	50 36

Elect Mrs. Little Chairman of Farm Bureau Women

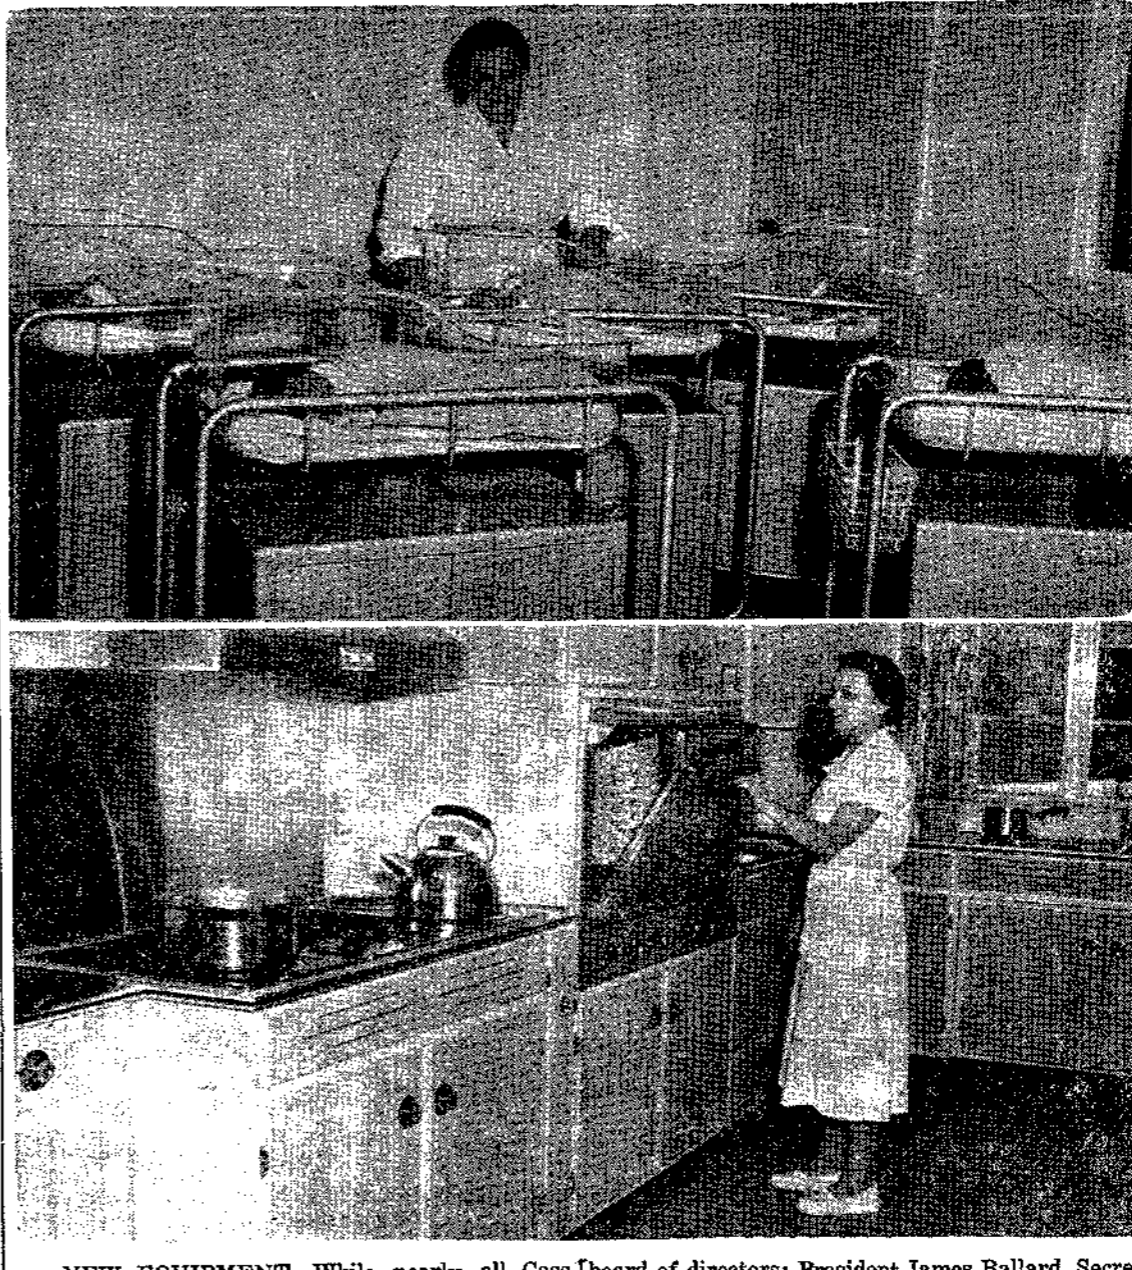

Mrs. Mack Little of Cass City was installed as chairman by Vice-chairman Mrs. Frank Satchell of Caro in an impressive ceremony at the Tuscola County Farm Bureau Women's committee meeting Friday at the 4-H building in Caro.

Mrs. Little then installed Mrs. Clara Carpenter as the new secretary of the committee. Fifteen groups were represented by the 27 ladies present.

Mrs. Little also appointed committees for the year including chairmen for the citizenship, safety, legislature, Korean boy project and publicity committees.

Plans were completed to attend the annual state Farm Bureau meeting of the women's committee in Lansing Nov. 10. The group also decided to donate $50 to 4-H achievement winners to help

NEW EQUIPMENT—While nearly all Cass City area residents are excited by the new Cass City Community Hospital, one of the community's present facilities, the Cass City Hospital, has been steadily improving facilities for patient care. The equipment and building are owned by Mrs. Bertha Hildinger who leases it to a nonprofit organization which runs it under the direction of a board of directors: President James Ballard, Secretary-treasurer Almer Krueger, James Gross, Russell Leeson and Edward Rusch.

A considerably lighter vote is forecast for Tuscola County than was recorded in the last general election when some 16,000 voters cast their ballots in the county, experts predicted this week.

In the '56 election, voters' interest was increased by a presidential election and a county-wide Sunday sale of beer and wine issue.

Without these added incentives for voters to go to the polls, the vote Tuesday may be as comparatively light as it was in the primary this year.

Top interest in the county will center on the race for governor where Paul D. Bagwell, Republican, will try to upset Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Another close race is expected in the battle for representative in congress for the 7th District. Robert J. McIntosh will seek his second term under the Republican banner. Opposing him will be James G. O'Hara, who became the Democratic candidate for the office following a recount of the primary vote.

Seeking re-election as U. S. Senator is Charles E. Potter, Republican. He will be faced by Philip A. Hart, Democratic protégé of Gov. Williams.

Other candidates for offices on the state level for the Democratic party are: John E. Swainson for lieutenant-governor, James M. Hare for secretary of state, Paul L. Adams for attorney general, Sanford A. Brown for state treasurer, Frank S. Szymanski for auditor general and Earl J. Scott for state senator.

Opposing these men will be the following Republicans: Donald A. Brown for lieutenant-governor, Raymond A. Plank for secretary of state, Jason L. Honigman for attorney general, Allan G. Weatherwax for state treasurer, John V. Clements for auditor general and Arthur A. Dehmel for state senator.

County Candidates Heading the race for offices on the county level is R. Allison Green, incumbent Republican state representative from Tuscola district. He will be faced by Frank J. Balcer Sr.

Other Republicans seeking reelection to county offices are: James J. Epskamp for prosecuting attorney, William Tomlinson for sheriff, Fred Mathews for county clerk, Arthur M. Wilkitts for county treasurer, William J. Profit for register of deeds, Free-land Sugden for county drain commissioner and J. Benson Colton and Melvin Weissenborn for coroner.

Opposing these Republicans will be the following Democratic nominees: David N. Andreychuk for prosecuting attorney, Robert Russell for sheriff, Wilbur H. Servis for county clerk, Charles S. Main for county treasurer, John Farnum for register of deeds and Leon Van Steenhout for county drain commissioner.

Constitutional Convention Of interest to voters will be a vote to decide whether to call a constitutional convention.

If the measure passes, a convention will be called with the express purpose of arranging a new constitution for Michigan. Before the new constitution would become effective it would have to be submitted to a vote at a later election.

On the nonpartisan ballot, Bates Willis is running for one of the circuit court commissioner posts.

Sentence Gorney To Probation In Circuit Court

Floyd Valentine Gorney was sentenced to probation for two years and ordered to pay a fine and costs of $100 each by Judge T. C. Quinn Wednesday, Oct. 22, in Tuscola County Circuit Court in Caro.

Mr. Gorney had pleaded guilty when arraigned to breaking and entering the Ed Anderson garage at Millington where he stole a lawn mower. Payment of the fine and costs will be at $10 per month.

Several domestic cases were also heard Wednesday. Deloris Faye Rondo was divorced from Clayton Rondo. Custody of minor children was given to Mrs. Rondo and alimony set at $10 per week per child. A dollar was granted in lieu of dower.

Robert Walker was found guilty of contempt. The case was continued to Jan. 1, providing that he pays $25 weekly alimony with the first payment Nov. 1.

188 Bee Apiaries In Tuscola County

According to information made available to the Cooperative Extension Office by Lee VanAllen of Caro, Tuscola County has 3,827 colonies of bees in 188 apiaries or owners of bees scattered throughout every township in the county. Mr. VanAllen is employed by the Michigan Department of Agriculture to do apiary inspection service. During 1958, 108 apiaries were inspected covering 1,593 colonies. Seventeen of the colonies inspected were found to be diseased or a percentage of 1.06 per cent. The county board of supervisors has helped to maintain an adequate apiary inspection service for the control of foul brood in bee colonies, said Alfred Ballweg, county extension director. The honey bee is known to be responsible for over 80 per cent of insect pollination. Bee colonies in Tuscola County make a large contribution to the pollination of seed and fruit crops in the county. While in the process of pollinating, the bees produce from eight to sixteen million pounds of honey, and 175,000 pounds to 350,000 pounds of beeswax which has an annual marketing value of 1 1/2 to 3 million dollars. This ranks Michigan near the top in honey production.

O'HARA FOR CONGRESS

"Jim O'Hara, nominee for Congressman, is a young aggressive Democrat, interested in good government."

Jim O'Hara has proven his stamina, courage and coolness under fire in our recent primary election. And now, more than ever, JIM O'HARA knows, wants, and must establish himself as the true representative of all the people.

"We Owe Him That Opportunity!"

"It's easy to say the world is in a state of confusion and blame the Republicans for the mess."

But JIM O'HARA, in his campaign, has boldly presented a program to the people.

We are confident that O'HARA will be the first Democratic Congressman in 7th District history. By making it a unanimous victory, we give him added courage and enthusiasm to continue his fight for us, and bring our message closer to the government.

A vote for JIM O'HARA is a vote for good honest government, which is our most vital challenge to Russia and to the world.

Sincerely,
Steve Modla

Michigan Mirror News In Brief

By Elmer E. White
 Michigan Press Association
 Political ghosts of 1948 are coming back to haunt Democrats and give Republicans new verve in the 1958 campaign.
 They both remember the miracle of the underdog Democrat, G. Mennen Williams, who came from nowhere.
 This year, Democrats everywhere are fighting that lethal attitude of all parties—apathy. Republicans are fighting for their life. For everyone, the question is: "Will Success Spoil Gov. Williams?"

Democrats have signed up for billboards along the highways, have bought television time and they tour the byways in style.
 Republicans are the challengers again, using amateur help and enthusiasm in lieu of money in the most energetic attack in Michigan by the "outs" in decades. However, there is still room for much enthusiasm and a need for unity within the GOP.
 Williams is campaigning in places seldom seen by any official ranked above justice of the peace or county drain commissioner.
 Republicans have a comparative unknown, especially in Wayne County, heading the ticket. He is Paul D. Bagwell, a speech professor on leave from Michigan State University whose best experience is a campaign for auditor general two years ago. He is plugging hard, but his task is tremendous.

 That is what makes the 1958 campaign look like the other side of the political coin of 1948. It was the year that Williams, a young former liquor commissioner and assistant attorney general, started stumping the state against Republican Gov. Kim Sigler.
 Perhaps he didn't know or worry when the odds were prohibitive. But he gambled, worked with a handful of enthusiastic amateurs and won. For a decade, he has held the executive office in Lansing.
 Nailing down his gains, Williams now with a solid top-to-bottom party organization operated by State Chairman Neil Staebler — has brought in his full slate of state officials.

Republicans, faced with losing control of even the House of Representatives, also remember 1948. Bagwell relates to their party like Williams did to his in 1948. The heavy contributors have stopped backing Republicans in the wake of repeated defeats at the polls.
 Bagwell, running on a shoe-string, has hit all 83 counties, and so has most of his slate of unknowns. Williams, with apprehension this year, has done the same thing. Michigan voters are getting the most energetic slam-bang campaign in modern history.

In 1948 Williams won handily over Sigler — a feat that political experts are trying to assess even yet.
 Bagwell, now a Republican underdog who enjoys old-line party support through tradition and loyalty but counts on his amateurs for his success, hopes he can repeat Williams' miracle.

Major issues are changing as the campaign progresses.
 Democrats counted on Michigan's unemployment crisis of the past year and the Sherman Adams incident in Washington to rub off on Michigan Republicans. The Adams reaction has waned and men are starting to go back to work. Labor-management contracts have been signed and production is resuming.

Republicans cite Michigan's fiscal plight after Williams' 10 years in office. The state is headed toward an $80,000,000 deficit.

financial next spring unless taxes are raised or new ones found.
 A Senate investigating committee is finding things it says show lax administration under Williams. The fact that some of the findings are open to dispute does not detract from the impact.

Actually, the campaign issues are more gray than black or white. As examples:
 Financial status — Republicans controlling the legislature enact taxes, but Williams must approve them with his signature.
 Mackinac Bridge: Williams fought for the span, but Republicans had to set up the financing and approve the project in the legislature.
 Highways: Democrats are building the system, but Republicans had to approve financing in the legislature and authorize a large number of specific improvements.

"Economic climate" is also an issue.
 Republicans argue that industry does not want to move into Michigan because of its belief in a Williams-Rutherford connection; because of recent Supreme Court rulings which will boost workman's compensation costs tremendously; because it feels that in any future issue in state government they will not get a fair shake.

One person said, "An industry looking for a new home is like an individual. In both instances the person wants to feel he is moving into an area where he can live in harmony with his surroundings. Michigan does not have that atmosphere under Williams."

Democrats deny this thinking

Check the nutrient level in fields of new legume seedlings. Unusually high yields of wheat and oats have taken a lot of plant food out of the soil, say soils specialists at Michigan State University.

Home Extension

Agent's Corner

Frances T. Clark
County Home Demonstration Agent

On October 15 the home economics extension groups of the Caro area furnished homemade cookies for the United Community Fund Drive solicitors. The following groups furnished around 10 dozen cookies each: West Caro, Darbee, Caro I, North Almer and South Almer. The cookies that were left over were all sent out to the county infirmary so the people out there could have a party. The groups that furnished cookies were listed as the donors.

The reports that have come back to my office have been many and showed how much the solicitors appreciated the women's thoughtfulness.

In a few weeks now, the people connected with the CROP drive will be around to see you. The home economics groups in the past have supported this drive very well. I hope that each group will bring CROP up for discussion in their groups and find a way to support this worthwhile community service.

Are you a breakfast skipper? I hope that you are not. If you are a homemaker that sees that her family is fortified with a good breakfast, keep up the good work. Actually breakfast is the most important meal of the day. It starts the right pattern for the day.

Growing children need a good breakfast to provide energy during the morning school hours. Children who go to school without breakfast become restless, inattentive and the attitude toward school is not conducive for best results.

Mother and Dad need breakfast, too. Even though they are watching the waistline pretty carefully, they will find it will be easier to curb the appetite and hunger pain more easily if they eat breakfast. That craving for snacks between meals will practically vanish. And, so will the temptation to dip in the "Sweet bar." Let us make breakfast more than a cup of coffee and a glass of orange juice. A good basic pattern to follow for breakfast is: fruit, in season; cereal, milk for cereal and beverage; egg, with ham, bacon or sausage, if desired; toast, buttered or dry; coffee.

Breakfast can be the best meal of the day. The family will not be able to resist the many surprises you can cook up for them quickly and easily.

Hot muffins - use a prepared mix to save time. Take your choice, blueberry, orange, cornmeal, bran or plain ones. Or, add some grated apples to a plain muffin mix.

For a change, how about pancakes or cornmeal mush browned in butter and served with maple syrup or honey.

Simpler yet, how about a switch in the kinds of toast. The bread shelf at your grocer's offers a wide variety - cinnamon, whole wheat, rye, Vienna, French or cracked wheat to name just a few.

With just a little thought and imagination, breakfast can become a meal eagerly anticipated by all of the family.

Use of daylight savings time was first advocated in England in 1907.

Daniel Defoe, creator of "Robinson Crusoe," wrote some 30 books in the last four years of his life.

HUMAN NATURE
It's true that there is nothing new under the sun—even the making of mistakes are imitations.

ONE MAN'S OPINION
The most glaring fault of some men is that they can have self-respect without half trying.

... "MY BLESSING, NOT MY DOOM"

Henry Van Dyke, who died back in the depression days, wrote those words. I think of them often these days when I read of traffic accidents. A good car is a blessing to most of us and it always seems to me such a tragedy that a car does spell doom to so many people each year.

Traffic experts tell us that many of the accidents that happen each year are classed as "avoidable." In other words that many of the accidents are the result of careless driving habits or of lack of attention to the safety equipment on the car.

Take brakes for example, if they're a bit out of balance, you can swerve into another car. If brakes are not up to standard efficiency, you may not have enough stopping power to stop before hitting something or somebody.

Brakes are vitally important to your safety... and to your peace of mind. It takes only a few minutes to have brakes checked in our modern service center... and if they require adjustment, that too takes only a few minutes... and the cost is low.

Bring your car in today for a brake check... and then make it a point to have brakes checked at regular intervals. Brakes, steering, lights and horn are all important safety features that should be checked. Ask about our special safety check before you go on a trip. Even short trips should always be a blessing, not a trip of doom.

Simon—Donnelly United in Gagetown

St. Agatha Church, Gagetown, was the scene of the Saturday morning, Oct. 18, marriage of Miss Mary Agnes Donnelly and Emil Joseph Simon. Rev. Fr. Glen Cronkite read the rites for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Donnelly of Cass City and a son of Mrs. Frances Simon of Remus and the late Henry Simon.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. A mandarin collar and wrist point sleeves accented the fitted lace bodice and the chapel skirt was embroidered with lace medallions. A coronet of seed pearls and sequins held her fingertip illusion veil and she carried a white prayer book centered with miniature red roses.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of tulle and taffeta and matching headpieces with short veils. Mrs. Martha Bott of Bay City, matron of honor, wore yellow as did Miss Darlene Simon, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Joyce Donnelly, sister of the bride, wore mint green and all carried bronze chrysanthemums.

William Sigourney of Remus was best man and Patrick Simon, a brother of the groom, and Doyle Simon, a cousin, were ushers. Honorary ushers were William Himmelsbach of Pontiac, a cousin of the bride, and Bernard Simon of Sebewaing, a brother of the groom.

Amos Quinn of Mecosta, a friend of the groom, was vocalist at the wedding Mass, and sang a hymn to the Blessed Virgin while the bride placed a bouquet of white chrysanthemums at the altar.

The bride's mother wore a lace over taffeta dress and a feathered hat in matching cadet blue. The groom's mother wore a navy dress with a touch of white and navy accessories and both wore pink carnations.

Immediately following the wedding, breakfast was served to 60 relatives and friends at the Gagetown school dining room.

Miss Grace Donnelly, sister of the bride, assisted at the afternoon reception held at the Gagetown school. Two hundred relatives and friends from Big Rapids, Lansing, Remus, Pontiac, Saginaw, Mt. Pleasant, Flint, Uby, Mecosta, Blanchard and Cass City came to honor the new couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan and following the bride's graduation from nursing school in December will make their home in Big Rapids.

Jane Hunt and Jack Hool Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hunt announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Jack Hool, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hool of Gagetown.

Miss Hunt graduated from Alma College and from the Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School, New York City, in June. Mr. Hool graduated in June from Assumption College at Windsor, Ontario. He is teaching and coaching at Assumption High School in Windsor.

No date has been set for the wedding.

TOO MUCH HINDSIGHT

Many a man who watches for trouble in the rear bumps into trouble up ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Steinkraus

The Cass City Methodist Church was decorated with palms, candelabra and mums when Miss Faith Elaine Parrott became the bride of William E. Steinkraus, Saturday, Oct. 18.

Rev. Ernest Robinson and Dr. Evan Welsh of Wheaton College officiated at the double-ring ceremony at four o'clock before 250 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Parrott of Cass City are the bride's parents. The groom is the son of Mrs. Malvina Steinkraus of Prescott, Ariz.

Mr. Parrott gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a princess-style gown of white bridal satin featuring an empire waistline and

Carolan-Finkbeiner Vows Exchanged

Miss Evelyn Marie Finkbeiner of Saginaw and Paul A. Carolan of Gagetown were married Saturday, Oct. 25, at 11 o'clock mass in St. Agatha Church, Gagetown. Father Glenn Cronkite performed the ceremony.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white mums and palms.

The bride's gown of perma sole over taffeta was styled with a fitted bodice, shirred at the waistline in cummerbund fashion. It was accented by a scooped neckline trimmed with Venice lace embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. The sleeves were brief and shirred. The full, sweeping skirt fell to a chapel train and featured embroidered lace at the back, giving a bustle effect. A shell hat of pleated tulle embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins held her silk illusion veil. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid, baby mums and lily of the valley streamers.

Miss Elaine Matuzak of Saginaw was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lynn Agar of Owendale, the bride's niece, and Miss Eleanor McDonald of Millington.

The bride's attendants wore dresses of red velvet sculptured satin styled with fitted bodice, scooped neckline and capped sleeves. The bell-shaped skirts were intermission length. Matching hats completed their ensembles and they carried white fur muffs with red rose corsages.

John Kappan of Cass City was best man and ushers were Gary Carolan, the groom's brother, and Joyce Wood, both of Gagetown.

A wedding dinner was served to the immediate families at the American Legion Hall in Unionville. About 900 guests attended a reception in the same hall in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carolan will live in Gagetown following their trip to northern Michigan.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carolan, is a farmer. Mrs. Carolan was formerly a bookkeeper for New York Life Insurance Company in Saginaw. She is the daughter of Mrs. Gordon Finkbeiner of Owendale.

Robert Warner, 84, Succumbs Monday

Cass City lost one of its pioneer residents Monday when Robert Warner, 84, died after an illness of three months. Mr. Warner was born in Novesta Township Sept. 28, 1874, where he lived until 1920 when he moved to Cass City.

He was manager of the Cass City Oil and Gas Co. for several years and later managed the Associated Oil Co.

His stories of early pioneer days appeared serially in a daily newspaper and he was regarded as an authority of early anecdotes of the community.

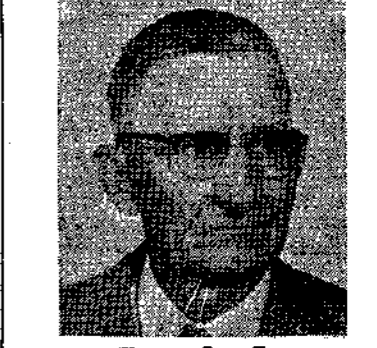

He was an active member of the Novesta Church of Christ and a leader in community affairs until his health failed.

He was married to the former Elizabeth Walker at Yale in 1901. His wife preceded him in death.

Surviving are: a brother, Stanley of Mikado; two sons, Hilton of Marysville and Harold of Oaklawn, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Andley (Charlotte) Horner of Cass City; 10 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. at the Novesta Church of Christ.

Burial will be in Novesta Township Cemetery.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

These new 1959 cars they is putting out remind me of a razor-back hog in reverse. I've saw many a razor-back hog that was so front heavy you had to tie a rock to his tail to keep him from tipping over in front. These new cars has got so much fin-tail hardware on the back that they'll have to tie a rock to the engine to keep it from getting airborne.

And looking at 'em at a distance, it's hard to tell the hood from the trunk. It's like these new-fangled haircuts the wimmen is getting. It's hard to tell whether you're walking behind a man who needs a haircut or a woman that's just had one.

One thing, though, I note is that they seem to have thicker bumpers. I figger the folks that designed 'em is expecting a tougher bunch of pedestrians this year.

Our preacher said Sunday that things is getting better all the time. He says folks is getting more and more religion ever day, and he based it on the fact that there ain't near as much cussing and profanity as they used to be. I ain't no feller to argue with my preacher, but he ain't even close to the reason we ain't got the expert cussers we used to have. The passing of the mule has got folks out of practice in the cussing business.

The stubbornness and cussedness of a mule would make a feller rip off cuss words that could be heard three and four farms down the road. A farmer, mad at the contrariness of his mule, would cuss until his face got purple and he fell in the hog trough in a fit. Naturally, his wife and children would hear all this cussing and they would turn out to be pretty good cussers themselves.

But today when a farmer gits to the point of distraction because his tractor won't run, he just picks up his phone and calls a mechanic.

If cussing was bad fer religion, I reckon the pore old mule will have to take most of the blame. My preacher, I'm afeared, is confusing the scarcity of mules with the increase in religion.

I see by the paper this morning where one of them junketing Congressman asked a Arab what the chief industry of his country was. "Foreign aid," replied the native. At least, them Arabs tell the truth.

Yours truly,

Uncle Tim

Redman Group

The ladies of the Grand Methodist Church WSCS entertained the Redman WSCS Thursday, Oct. 23. After a ham dinner at noon, President Mrs. Clair Profit welcomed guests and the program included readings about Bolivia, Cuba and Mexico. The program was in conjunction with "World's Week of Self Denial and Prayer."

A duet was presented by Mrs. Profit and Mrs. Manley Enders. Joe Br. J. Hasket Blair read a poem, "The Day We Entertained Redman," written especially for the day by Mrs. Manley Enders.

In a business meeting held after the departure of the visiting ladies, it was decided to change the meeting date from Thursdays to Wednesdays and to send a magazine to boys from Grand Church who are in the service.

The next meeting will be Nov. 5 with Mrs. Profit.
