

Lansing Debates Graham Case

A legislative hearing held Tuesday morning to determine whether action would be taken to remove Tuscola County Probate Judge Henderson Graham from office "turned out very favorably for the judge," according to a source close to Judge Graham.

The two-hour session held in Lansing ended after testimony by Graham and Representative Allison Green.

According to Mrs. John Graham, the judge's sister-in-law, Green testified after Rep. Walter G. Nakkula, R-Gladwin, asked if there had been any opposition. Nakkula is chairman of the committee.

Green told the committee that he had received over 600 letters, petitions with over 3,000 names and numerous telephone calls, all in favor of Judge Graham.

He reported that he had received one letter and a petition signed by county lawyers in opposition.

Meredith Doyle, Supreme Court administrator, asked for an opportunity to present a rebuttal and Nakkula scheduled a rebuttal session for Wednesday morning.

As of press time, no decision had been rendered.

Graham's ouster is being sought by the Supreme Court on charges that he allegedly attempted to borrow $20,000 from an estate under his jurisdiction.

Mrs. Sylvia Goszkowski, Detroit, told the court Graham attempted to borrow the money without collateral from an estate she administered on behalf of her sister, Mrs. Edwina Dering Green, who was a minor when their parents died in 1953.

Mrs. Goszkowski also alleged that Graham threatened to increase her $3,000 bond unless she loaned him the money.

She called the State Attorney General's office into the matter when the request was made.

Graham, in a recent statement, said that the court had failed to prove that he was guilty as charged.

He indicated that much of his present difficulties stemmed from the desire by state lawyers to have the Probate Court run only by lawyers.

From the Editor's Corner

Signs of spring: The United States Coast Guard reminds owners that many motorboats are displaying identification number of the wrong size, type or color contrast. Northern trout streams are expected to be generally higher than a year ago on the April 28 opener, the Michigan Department of Conservation reports. "What Every Driver Must Know," a colorful new booklet on requirements for safe driving is under distribution to driver license examining stations and driver education classes throughout Michigan according to Secretary of State James Hare. Dave Mathews of Deford prepares to go smelt fishing. John Haire, Gerald Priekorn and Aldeen Asher prepare to go trout fishing.

Mike Yedinak said this week, "Please tell the people that I did not advocate sports practice after school. My statement to the board was for extra money if the work had to be done after school. Actually, I believe more results can be had if the work is dovetailed with the regular classroom schedule."

Mike went on to say that he has had several phone calls from irate parents thinking that he inaugurated the new program.

Friday Unlucky for Gagetown Man

Friday, April 13, was a black day for Joe Gretz, 42, Gagetown. Gretz was sentenced Friday to seven days in jail when he could not pay a fine of $25.00 and costs after pleading guilty in Justice Court to driving an automobile without an operator's license.

He was ticketed by Cass City officer Edward Anthes on February 5. Investigation by Anthes revealed that Gretz had not had a valid operator's license for the past six years.

Work Underway on Telephone Building

Ground breaking work has been started on the new $225,487.00 Cass City General Telephone central dial office, according to H. F. Janson, district manager. The figure includes the cost of dial conversion equipment.

Completion of the building, being constructed directly behind the present equipment office at 4463 Seeger Street, is slated for sometime in July. The old equipment building will be either moved away or torn down, Janson stated.

The new building will house the equipment to be used to change Cass City's manual service to dial operation. Installation of the equipment is to start in August and conversion to dial should be in December, Janson reported.

General contractor for the project is the John W. Strahn Construction Company and architectural work is by Smith, Hinkman and Grylls, Detroit.

In conjunction with the conversion to dial, Cass City exchange users will be given seven digit numbering and direct distance dialing.

Janson stated that there would be no change in employment with the completion of the new building. He also announced that tentative plans do not call for incorporation of the firm's business office on Main street into the new building.

The new 50x42-ft. building will contain a cable vault, equipment room, mechanical room, restrooms and a small office.

When the conversion is completed, users will be able to dial direct to any number in the exchange. Calls out of the exchange will be billed under the same tolls now in effect. The toll station will be in Saginaw.

With the direct distance dialing, users will be able to dial direct to any place in the nation that has direct distance dialing.

Both the construction of the building and the dial conversion coincide with a recent minimum rate hike and are part of an over-all $16 million project.

Janson said that the project is also in line with the General Telephone's program designed to achieve 100 per cent automatic dial operation by the end of 1962.

A special lighted runway, erected in front of the auditorium stage, will bring the models closer to the audience.

Supervisors Conclude Session

Valuations Rise In Tuscola County

Holidays, hunting, heat and ever present reports kept Tuscola County Supervisors in session four days during the past week, according to a report from Archie Hicks, county clerk.

County courthouse employees will no longer have to wonder about what days the courthouse will be closed.

According to a policy submitted by Clayton Hunter, chairman of the legislation committee, and approved by the Supervisors, the courthouse will be closed on New Year's Day, Lincoln and Washington's birthdays, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Also to be observed are all state and national elections, a half day on Thursday of County Fair Week and a half day for the annual picnic. When the holidays fall on a Sunday, the courthouse will be closed on Monday.

Sunday Hunting

No action was taken, pending further investigation, on a request by James Pruett, Koylton township, seeking permission to allow Sunday hunting on a shoot preserve he operates.

A current ruling states that there shall be no hunting allowed in Tuscola county on Sunday.

The supervisors felt the matter was out of their jurisdiction and further information on whether the county, conservation department or the State can give permission was to be obtained before a decision was rendered.

Standby Boiler

Purchase of a standby boiler for the County Nursing Home was ordered by the supervisors. The new furnace will be the same type as the present furnace and both can be fired separately or together.

The request for the furnace stems from an incident last winter when trouble with the existing furnace jeopardized the 144 patients in the hospital.

Financial Reports

Tuscola County Road Commission Clerk Orville Kitzinger gave the commission's 1961 expenditure report. According to the report, the commission went $1,402.22 in the red.

Total expenditures for the year were $1,054,771.28 as compared to the $1,053,369.06 the commission was allocated.

A report from equalization committee chairman, Shuford Kirk, set the county's evaluation figure at $135,991,809 as compared to last year's $135,515,533 for a $476,276 increase.

Broken down, the figure includes a personal property evaluation of $133,253,654 and a real property evaluation of $122,738,654.

Current operating money on hand, according to a report by Art Haley, financial committee chairman, totals $1,460,890.33.

Ambulance Service

A schedule for payment of ambulance service for indigent persons involved in accidents was ordered by the supervisors. At present, when a county official calls for an ambulance for indigent persons involved in accidents, ambulance owners are left with the bill if the patient can't pay.

Under the new schedule, the county will foot the bill per person and per mile when the call for the ambulance is made by a county official such as a deputy sheriff.

A Cass City man was ticketed for following too close early Sunday afternoon when the car he was driving slammed into the rear of another car a mile and a half south of Rescue on Elkton Road.

According to a report filed by Bad Axe State Police Troopers Marvin Algeyer and Bryon Cluckey, Mike D. Hnatuk, 19, Cass City, was ticketed for following too close when his car collided with the rear of another driven by Mickey S. Hatlas, 18, Owendale.

The report stated that Hatlas was slowing down when the accident occurred and Hnatuk couldn't stop on the slippery pavement.

Farm Bureau Ladies Told CD Program

Farm Bureau women were informed on the farmer's part in the Civil Defense program last Thursday, April 12, at their regular meeting at the Farm Bureau Center in Caro.

Thirty-four persons heard
Fr. Frank McLaughlin, Gagetown, explain the purpose and the plans of the Civil Defense in Tuscola county. "Through the clash of ideologies in the world, the need to be prepared for an attack is far greater," he told the group.

Fr. McLaughlin traced the volunteer help needed for emergency mass care in case of need.
He also stated that it will be the farmer who will be vitally important to house and feed the city dwellers when they are forced to flee the cities.

Frank Kroswek, director of Civil Defense in Tuscola County, was present and explained the survival plan for the county.

He stated that 183 buildings within the county have been designated as emergency shelters.

The state director of Civil Defense, Mr. Green, Lansing, said that 200,000 civilian and military personnel are involved in the program.

He gave methods of alert within the state and in the counties.

Miss Mary Mackija of Tanganyika, East Africa, a guest in the Fred Black home in Akron, spoke briefly. Miss Mackija is in the county as part of her training at MSU.

During the business meeting the group voted to again sponsor the Korean boy for the ninth year. The committee will pay $150, to help with his educational expenses.

An invitation was extended to Farm Bureau women to attend the Northwest Camp at Traverse City, June 5-7. The committee voted to pay the camp fee of all Farm Bureau women who will attend.

The next meeting of the group, May 10, will be the annual Rural-Urban Day program. Farm Bureau women are urged to invite a city friend to attend this all-day meeting.

1st Graders Visit Parrott's Farm

An estimated 100 Cass City Elementary School first grade boys and girls visited Parrott's dairy farm recently.

While at the farm, the children were shown the dairy herd and milking procedures. They were also shown how ice cream is made and each child was given a

Couple Feted on 25th Anniversary

An open house, celebrating their 25th anniversary, was held Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond, rural Cass City. The affair was given by their three daughters, Bette Lou, Karen and Susie.

The couple were married April 10, 1937, by Rev. Paul Allured in Cass City. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jackson were their attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond were presented with a white boutonniere and a red rose corsage and Mr.
and Mrs. Jackson wore a yellow boutonniere and a yellow mum corsage, respectively, at Sunday's fete.

A special feature of the open house was a four-tiered wedding cake. Mixed nuts, mints, cake, ice cream, punch and coffee were also served. The couple received many gifts.

Guests from Beulah, Detroit, Lapeer, Peck, Sandusky, Pontiac, Tyre, Caro, Pigeon, Bay City, Owendale, Uby, Cass City, and Windsor, Ont., attended the affair.

"TIS OUR THINKING MAKES IT SO"

The most frustrating of the many problems faced by conscientious automobile salesmen is trying to answer a customer's objection that he knows is really an illusion.

This is the illusion of the "the better offer." It may not be a better offer at all, but if the salesman's prospect THINKS it is, that is what really matters.

If a 'better offer' is for a similar make and year of a used car, for instance, there might be a difference of 30,000 miles in mileage, or $200 difference in extras and features and an even greater difference in the model referred to.

Many a reputable quality dealer, delivering what he knows to be the most automobile value possible for the price, has lost a sale - and the customer has lost money - because of this mistaken identity.

Fleet cars and wrecked cars and taxis and police cruisers are worth less - often substantially less - model for model and year for year, than a car whose reserve of life remains intact. UNUSED mileage and wear is what you have to measure.

Here's your check list of protection at Bulen Motors: we never knowingly misrepresent a car to be something it is not; we never sell retail former taxicabs or police cruisers unless they are specified such and priced accordingly; we never sell cars which have been in a major collision; all cars are plainly priced with the optional equipment specified; the name and address... of the former owner is available on request.

With the "Boss" away on vacation, we're dealing wild! Come on in and let's talk cars! This invitation comes from those two wild Irishmen: Kelley and Greenlee.

Boy Found in Area Wilderness

The Louis Gordon family came to Michigan from Canada in 1861. A Mr. Sommerville and his son John assisted the Gordons in moving from Forestville to their new home in Section 28 of Greenleaf Township where they experienced the vicissitudes of pioneer life.

Brown and black bears were numerous and wolves howled around the Gordon farm buildings at night. Indians were common callers, especially two men who called themselves "Yellow Jacket" and "Straight Arm
Jack."

Material for the history may be mailed to "Pages From The ## Question: After Lumber What?

Tuscola County in its beginning based its economy on the lumbering operations. In the late 70's as the output of lumber was diminishing, concern was expressed in the question: "After lumber, what then?" Similar questions have arisen from time to time in the history of man.

The answer in Tuscola County, for this particular problem, was found in agricultural expansion.

The county's first industry, lumbering, had its inception in 1836 when the first saw mill was built on Perry Creek in the present township of Tuscola. However, general lumbering operations did not commence until about ten years later. No statistics of output are available prior to the organization of the Huron Boom Company in 1864. That year the company ran out 40,000,000 feet of logs. The peak was reached in 1873 when 100,458,140 feet of logs were rolled out. By 1879 the crop was rolled out 7,000,000 and it was then the question
"After lumber, what?" began to be asked.

boy's disappearance, a man named Marshall, who lived near the west bank of the Cass River, east of Cass City, was awakened by a peculiar noise. He thought it was the whimpering of a young wild animal. Quickly dressing, he took his gun and stepped to the door to listen.
More perplexed than ever about the sound, he crossed the Cass River in his boat and found a little boy lying against a large log. The child was exhausted, scratched, torn and sobbing hysterically. Mr. Marshall took the little boy into his house across the river. Finding himself encompassed by human care, the little fellow soon was asleep.
The following morning, dressed in clothing borrowed from the Marshall's son Wilbur, the boy was delivered to his once mourning but now joyful parents. He had wandered several miles through the almost impenetrable swamps.
(Contributed by Anna Mac-Kichan, granddaughter of the pioneer Louis Gordon.)

Thinclads in 99-10 Win Over Sandusky

Although Cass City swamped Sandusky 99-10 in the opening dual meet for both clubs, Coach Mike Yedinak said that this year's track team is the weakest in several seasons.

Cass City has monopolized the track crowns in Thumb B competition since the league was organized and will be one of the favorites to win this year.

Times were slowed by weather conditions at last week's opening meet at Cass City and the thinclads were below par in the relays and in field events, according to Yedinak.

As expected, Roger Parker led the thinclads with 14 1/4 points. Jim Rawson was second with 11 1/4 points. Cass City won every first (13), nine seconds and seven thirds.

Cass City's placing: 120-yard high hurdles, won by Hempton, Parker, Yedinak, 17.4.

880-yard relay: won by Cass City's Rawson, Rienstra, Creason and Parker, 1:41.2.

Mile: won by Harmon, Bohnsack and Holik, 4:58.7.

100-yard dash: won by Rawson, Rienstra, third, 1:12.

880-yard dash: won by Rienstra, Shaw, Robinson, 2:16.5.

440-yard dash: won by Rienstra, Livingston, Bullock, 58.4.

180-yard low hurdles: won by Parker, Ross, 2:33.

220-yard dash: won by Rawson, Rienstra, 2:56.

Junior Wranglers In Regular Meet

Tests on 20 safety rules for handling horses were given to 20 4-H Junior Wranglers present at a club meeting Wednesday, April 11, at the club house, according to Mike Bryant, reporter.

The tests were given by Lee Smith. Smith also gave a report on recent inspections of the members' barns and complimented each on how clean they were.

The members were graded accordingly.

A horse show scheduled to take place in Caro in the near future was discussed but no decision was made.

Refreshments were served to the members after the meeting adjourned. Dave Bullock presided during the meeting.

Mile relay: won by Cass City's Harmon, Shaw, Reid and Bryant, 3:59.8.

Shot-put: won by Seeley, Shagena, 41 feet, three inches.

Broad jump: won by Bryant, Creason, 17 feet, 5 3/4 inches.

High jump: won by Parker, Rienstra, third, Five feet, five inches.

Pole vault: three way tie for first, Powell, Izydorek and Groombridge, Nine feet, six inches.

Hawks Cop First Diamond Tilt Of New Season

Cass City won a nonleague tune-up game Thursday when neighboring Owengage came to town for a diamond contest played in typical high school baseball weather. . . cold and windy. The score was 9-3.

Both teams showed the effects of the weather and more than the usual number of first game errors were made. Cass City committed seven errors and Owengage, four.

Cass City jumped into a four-run lead in the opening inning. Two errors, two walks, a double by Larry Robinson and a single by Roger Karr accounted for the markers.

Cass City made it 6-0 in the bottom of the second with a pair of markers on a walk, stolen base, wild pitch and a couple of more hits by Karr and Robinson.

Owengage broke the ice with a run in the fourth on three errors and a single.

In the last half of the inning, Cass City got the run back as Hillaker pounded a double, moved to third on an error and scored on a sacrifice fly by Robinson.

In their final turn at bat, the Hawks added their final two runs of the game. Three walks and a single by Marvin Irer netted the counters.

Owengage made its best offensive push of the game in their final turn at bat. They pushed over two runs on four hits.

Leading hitters for Cass City were: Robinson, two for three; Karr, two for four; Hillaker, one for three; Dillon, one for four, and Irer, one for one.

Wayne Brown hurled the first five innings. He gave up one run on three hits. Jim Champion pitched the sixth. He walked two, but fanned three and allowed no runs.

Norm Sawicki pitched the final inning and was touched for two runs on four hits.

The line score:

120 Sign up for Driver's Training

An estimated 120 Cass City School students have enrolled in driver's training courses, according to Superintendent Willis Campbell.

Last year's enrollment for the summer course was 135 students.

Normally, the courses start after school is let out in June. This year, however, because one of the teachers, Bob Sickle, has a free period in the morning, the course will start Monday, April 23.

Also teaching the course will be Jim Seals.

The State reimburses the school $25.00 for each student enrolled in the courses.

Wheeler Announces Candidacy for Treasurer's Post

Alex Wheeler, former supervisor of Argyle Township, and lifelong resident of Sanilac County, this week announced that he will be a candidate for the office of Sanilac County Treasurer at the Republican primary in August.

Wheeler, 51 years old, lives on a farm in Argyle township with his wife and five children. During the past twenty years he has been a leader in civic activities in his area.

He served nine years as secretary of his school board and was supervisor of the township for 12 years. He served as a director on the Sanilac County Farm Bureau board, is a director of the Northwest Sanilac County ABA group and is a director of DHIA No. 2 in the county.

Wheeler pointed out that he had served on all of the major committees of the board of supervisors during his more than 10 years on the board and he was familiar with the workings of all of the offices in the courthouse.

80th ANNIVERSARY

A letter from Curtis W. McPhail, written April 18, 1924, states that he organized The Cass City State Bank on April 18, 1882, in the Wilsey McPhail building, which was located on the site of the present Gamble Store. That same year he built the building now occupied by The Cass City State Bank. Probably our first and most important claim to fame lies in the fact that Larry McPhail of baseball renown was born above the bank.

Our second claim to fame, which was heralded far and wide at the time, was the fact that The Cass City State Bank was the first recognized bank in the State of Michigan, after the 1932 depression, to pay all customers their deposits in full together with interest and likewise, at the same time, to repay all stockholders their assessments in full together with interest.

A third claim is that, during the past many years, the bank, without fanfare, has paid a full three per cent interest to all its savings depositors. In the last five years this has amounted to $123,322.83 extra interest.

A fourth claim is the age of its employees. The President has now been with the bank fifty years. He was brought to realize this rather forcibly when Jill said solemnly, "Grandpa, you're an old, old man, but it isn't nice to say so, is it?"

Buz, the Cashier, has been with the bank forty-two years, Irene twenty-six years, Gertrude twenty years, Fred thirteen years, and Sherry three years.

The bank feels it has four obligations:

1. To its depositors in maintaining security and paying the highest rate of interest which legality and its earnings permit.
2. To its community in financing its members whenever feasible and reasonable.
3. To its employees in paying a just remuneration.
4. And to its stockholders in maintaining a sound institution and paying a reasonable dividend.

No Bullfighting on Cass City Streets

By Dave Kraft

I wish Cass City would do something about its streets!

Especially Main Street. It's so wide.

I know that sounds ridiculous, but if you're not used to wide streets, they can do a great deal to destroy your self confidence. True, they are ideal for the driver, but for the pedestrian, it's like having two strikes against you before you leave the curb.

As I have mentioned before, I came to Cass City from Vassar. Vassar is more considerate of its pedestrians. They have narrow streets.

I used to get a real kick out of seeing how close I could walk to the passing cars on M-15, which runs through the center of Vassar.

It was something akin to bullfighting, but not quite as dangerous. On a few occasions, I even tried a couple of what the bullfight enthusiast calls the "Veronica."

It involved standing as far over the yellow line as I dared, with my clipboard out at arm's length as a cape. At the last moment, with the car charging down on my clipboard, I'd twirl daintily out of the way.

I never had any trouble, until one day some smart aleck going by in a convertible grabbed my clipboard just as I was half-way through my twirl. At $1.29 a clipboard, it could have gotten pretty expensive.

The point is, I'd never think of trying it on Main Street. It is an effort to get enough nerve to cross the street, much less throw in any theatrics.

I try to be brave about it, I really do. I start across head up, chin out, the picture of complete confidence.

It always seems, however, that when I reach the yellow line, with the sidewalk seemingly a block away, a car comes along.

It's always the same.

The car invariably slows down and I get the terrible feeling that the driver is sighting me in on his hood ornament.

I stop dead still... it's a war of nerves... Which one of us will panic? I do.

I break and run for the curb, the one I just left. It doesn't make any difference which curb I'm closest to, I always run for the one I just left. I feel safest there, I guess.

I have everything under control now, though. At approximately 9:30 a.m., this little old lady (the same one that opened the post office door when I was stuck) crosses the street.

I drop whatever I'm doing, rush out and take her by the arm. That way it looks like I'm helping her across the street.

One hour later, at 10:30 a.m., she returns. That means I have to get done with what I'm doing and be at the corner at 10:30 a.m. (I don't ask her what she does during the hour... it's really none of my business... my main concern is getting back across that street.)

If anything ever happens to that little old lady, I think I'd go crazy. I've got enough trouble in this world without having to worry about how I'm going to get across Main Street.

One more point I'd like to bring up about Cass City's streets. How come, no matter which way I'm going, the arrows on the two one-way alleys always point in the other direction?

After two recent "after midnight" fires, Elkland township firemen, returning bleary-eyed and with their fire hoses dragging, were overjoyed to find piles of hot donuts and pastries waiting for them.

The goodies were supplied courtesy of Sommers' Bakery and John Sommers. The firemen supplied their own coffee and, as I understand it, were mighty glad to do so.

Compensations for volunteer firemen are few and something like this is always appreciated.

on Purina Calf
Startena Checkers

Recent Purina Farm test on 21 calves gives Calf Startena in new Checker form edge over Calf Startena Meal.

New Purina Calf Startena Checkers was developed over four years of research at the Purina Farm Dairy Unit, Gray Summit, Mo. This new product has several big advantages:

1. It's easy to handle and feed... makes feeding a calf ration easier than ever before.
2. Each calf gets exactly the right amount of essential ingredients... can't select some ingredients and leave others.
3. There's less waste in pails or trough, no fines... so it's economical to feed.
4. Test calves fed new Startena Checkers were 17 lbs. heavier at four months than calves grown on Calf Startena Meal... and Calf Startena Meal calves are far heavier than average!

Come see us. We want to tell you more about Purina Calf Startena Checkers.

Prove to yourself... Purina feeding costs you less.

Studies show less pecking in "organized" flocks...

Every flock of chickens has a social order called "peck" order. In a small flock, every hen fights every other hen, learns which she can peck and which she had better dodge. Scientific studies show pecking is nearly cut in half when the flock becomes "organized"—when each hen knows where she stands in the order. If you mix flocks or add new birds, this process is repeated to establish a new order.

Have new birds debeaked. Debeaking won't stop fighting, but it reduces possibility of serious injury. Debeaking is the answer when birds are lost from pecking. It also stops losses from "blowouts." Temporary eversion of the oviduct is normal with egg laying. It becomes a "blowout" if the oviduct remains hanging externally. This is likely to happen in flocks where vents have been damaged by excessive vent pecking.

Kill Rats.... Use Purina Rat-Kill

Purina Rat-Kill is an entirely different kind of killer for rats and mice. It's a "carry-home" bait. Rats haul it back to the nest... distribute it themselves... feed Rat-Kill to the whole family till they're dead.

Rat-Kill has these extra advantages:

- *Highly palatable and bulky
- *Kills fast in 5 to 15 days
- *Low priced

See us for Purina Rat-Kill right away. We're at the Red and White Checkerboard Store in town.

Here's what happens to rats that eat Purina Rat-Kill. They're dead in 5 to 15 days. Rats love Rat-Kill. It's effective and economical, too.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

I see by the papers where President Kennedy and our lawmakers are engaged in the usual sparring contest over a number of bills up for debate. I been thinking for a long time we ought to quit calling it our Capitol and refer to it as our Bowling Alley On the Potomac. In ever administration as long back as I can recollect, the President has been setting 'em up at one end and them Congressmen has been trying to knock 'em down at the other.

Ed Doolittle says the way the President and the Congress tries to sneak up on each other with certain legislation reminds him of a feller gitting ready to throw a brick at a cat. The feller makes like he don't see the cat, the cat makes like he don't see the feller, but the feller is watching the cat like a hawk watching a chicken, and the cat is watching the feller like Zeke Grubb's preacher watching the collection plate.

With all this hauling and pulling going on it's no wonder the voters back home has a hard time separating the statesmen from the politicians along the Potomac. Somebody said once the difference between a statesman and a politician was the statesman tries to make history and the politician tries to rewrite it. It seems to me what we been gitting lately is mostly a rewrite job.

For instant, I was reading last week where one Senator told the Congress taxes has gone as high in this country as it's safe for them to go. Now I'd call that Senator a statesman. If he can peg taxes permanent at any level, he has made history. But, for advocating such treason, he'll git throwed in the dog house by the politicians afore Congress adjourns.

We was discussing these matters at the country store Saturday night and the fellers was all agreed that television has spoiled our politicians. Clem Webster allowed as how, when he was a boy, a politician would git up at the meeting and give you some old fashioned, long-tail oratory, put on a spell-binder for two or three hours. Like the hoop skirt of them days, says Clem, his speech covered everything and touched nothing. But now-a-days, he claims, they git up and give you 10 minutes between soap commercials. And the speech still don't touch nothing, says Clem.

Well, Mister Editor, I see where things has got so big in the Pentagon building that the Government Printing Office has had to put out a special telephone directory for that one building. The piece said the directory had 200 pages and listed over 10,000 telephones. And I'll bet they ain't a party line in the house.

Yours truly
Uncle Tim

KHRUSHCHEV'S GOAL: An Egg a day for every Russian by 1980

We hear a lot these days about our "farm problems". Yet how many of us realize that American agriculture—problems and all—is the envy and the wonder of the world?

Witness Mr. Khrushchev's recent 7 hour speech to the Communist Central Committee. He openly admitted that Soviet agriculture has fallen critically short of its goals—in spite of concentrated efforts. He also made a sweeping promise and set an heroic goal for Soviet farms: an egg a day for every Russian by 1980. Significantly, he refrained from such a rash commitment on milk and dairy products.

Witness a few more facts: (1) Our farmers make up only 3% of our population, yet they produce abundant food for all of us at the lowest cost in history. Russian farmers represent 45% of the population, yet there is a constant threat of food shortage. (2) Food takes less of our income than ever before—only 20%. In Western Europe food takes 30% to 50% of the average income—in Russia, 60%.

Does this mean that the United States has no farm problems at all? Of course not. Fortunately, however, ours are not problems of shortage and near-famine.

Let's keep this in mind next time we read about our "farm problems". Let's remember, too, that "farm problems" are not altogether "farmers' problems". At stake, don't forget, is the food supply of 180 million Americans. You and me.

Let's not take our egg a day, our quart of milk entirely for granted.

Agent's Corner

Frances T. Clark
County Home Demonstration Agent

I would very much like to talk about physical fitness, starting from the ground up; in other words, feet. Would you guess that eight out of ten people have some kind of foot trouble? Well, they do and the major causes are ill-fitting shoes and hosiery.

Many people may not even recognize that they have a foot problem or that it can be corrected or avoided with proper shoes or hose. But the foot specialists caution against becoming a "bathroom surgeon!"

Feet that are in real trouble should be taken to a doctor. Lesser troubles can be eased or cured with a little common sense and care.

What are some of the most common foot defects? I'll list six of them; 1. corns and calluses are very familiar problems. These masses of compacted, hardened skin are signs of abnormal friction and pressure. Hard corns form where the skin is dry, and soft corns appear between the toes where moisture and warmth combine to prevent hardening. A properly fitted shoe with a pliable leather upper, and which is shaped to avoid pressure on a tender spot may be enough to correct the trouble. If not, professional advice is in order.

2. Bunions, painful enlargements of the joint of the great toe, can be caused by shoes that are too short or by extremely high heels. Or they may be the result of weakness in the ligaments or muscles of the foot and leg. Sufferers should consult a foot specialist for proper treatment.

3. Ingrown toenails are often the result of improper toenail cutting, shoes that are too narrow or shoes and stockings that are too short. They are best prevented by cutting the toenails straight across and wearing correctly fitted shoes.

4. Athlete's foot is a ringworm of the foot, marked by itching, smarting and "weeping". In its earliest stages the disorder can be cured by washing and drying the feet thoroughly, especially between the toes where the ringworm lives, and then applying a proper fungicide.

Keeping the feet dry is the key to prevention since ringworm thrives in a warm, dark and moist environment.

5. Flat feet may be a condition at birth or it may be hastened by poorly fitted shoes, shoes that have been worn out of shape, or shoes that do not give adequate support. Other causes are long continued standing, overweight and poor nutrition; especially in children. Flat feet are followed by poor posture and an awkward walk and eventually, by fatigue and pain that may even reach the hip. A doctor should always be consulted for this condition.

6. Bad odor may be a problem. Measures that help prevent it are wearing cotton stockings or socks or hose with cotton toes. Also, using an astringent such as alcohol, witchhazel or alum water to shrink pores; dusting feet, socks and shoes with a powder to eliminate friction will help. Changing shoes and socks often as well as airing shoes well between wearings will help to cut down on bad odor.

Services Held for

Mrs. Martin, 93

Funeral services were held Friday, April 13, for Mrs. Jennie Martin, 93, area resident, who died Tuesday, April 10, at Huron County Community Health Center. Death was attributed to complications from a broken hip suffered six weeks previously.

Born in Ontario, Canada, February 25, 1869, she had lived most of her life in Huron county except for an 18-year period when she lived in Cass City.

She married Albert A. Martin, September 9, 1889. It was after his death in 1918 that she moved to Cass City.

Mrs. Martin was a member of the Cass City Methodist Church and a life member of the WSCS of that church.

Surviving are: six daughters, Mrs. Herman (Grace) Charter, Cass City; Mrs. Eva Moore and Mrs. Donald (Beatrice) Milljue, both of Gagetown; Mrs. Earl (Gertrude) Beyette, Caro; Mrs. Haskett (Hazel) Blair, Bad Axe; and Mrs. Edith Harris, Bay City, and three sons, Clifford and Howard, both of Cass City, and Claude, Gagetown.

Also surviving are: a sister, Mrs. Mary Newton, Pontiac, 81 grandchildren, 61 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the Grant Methodist Church with the Rev. Frank Greer officiating. Interment was in Elkland Cemetery, Cass City.

Be quick to study a new idea, but go slow in forsaking a proven principle.

WANDERING WITH WARREN

I Feel at Home In Missouri Now

By Ilene Warren

Literally wandering the first week in April, I found myself in Missouri again, land of those lovely birds: the cardinals.

After four visits, I'm beginning to feel quite at home in Independence, Missouri, which is (as well as for other reasons) well-known as the hometown of President Truman. I visited the Truman Library in 1958 and saw Mr. Truman in 1961 - but it took a couple of women from Bad Axe to achieve the ultimate (?) meeting and talking with Harry Truman. Bea Sternberg and Margaret Walker were being taken on a tour of the town by Bill Lewis (a former resident of Bad Axe). Just as Bill drove past Truman's home (Bea had instructions from her sons to be sure to see this home), who should come out of the big white domicile but Harry, himself. Bill stopped the car and said, "Here are a couple of ladies from Michigan who want to meet you." Margaret averred that Mr. Truman was friendly and gracious and when she told him they were from a Republican county, he wryly commented, "Oh, I do have friends in both parties!"

*** **

The following is an excerpt from "April" written in 1926 by Nicholas Breton. "It is now April, and the Nightingale begins to tune her throat against May: the Sunny showers perfume the air, and the Bees begin to goe abroad for honey: the Dewe, as is Pearles, hangs upon the tops of the grasse, while the turtles sit billing upon the little green boughes . . . the Garden banks are full of gay flowers, and the Thorne and the Plumme send forth their faire Blossomes . . . the Larke and the Lambe looke up at the Sun, and the labourer is abroad by the dawning of the day."

It is indeed "now April" - further, the Easter season is here. The time has come - forsooth, is almost past - to plan Easter baskets, choose pretty bonnets, color eggs and tell pleasant fantasies about the mythical bunny who hides the well-filled baskets for children to find on Sunday morning. Joyce Kilmer wrote a little poem titled "Easter": "The air is like a butterfly with frail blue wings. The happy earth looks at the sky and sings."

Yet, our happiness at Easter-time is achieved from something more than sheer loveliness and from something more than the pleasure received from the mundane activities of the holiday - for along with these is sensed the deep and abiding awareness of the true meaning, the true hope of Easter.

As I consider these, many remembrances come flying to my mind on fragile wings - most of them not my own, but thoughts gleaned from Scriptures - from poems - from hymns. I should like to share a few lines from two of my favorite hymns: "Upon the cross of Jesus mine eye at times can see the very dying form of One who suffered there for me; and from my stricken heart with tears two wonders I confess - the wonders of redeeming love, and my unworthiness." And, "Today the heavens are open to souls prepared to hear the wondrous revelation of Christ, who's ever near. The Savior of the ages will live with us today, if we but try to know Him and seek to find His way."

THE BREAK-THROUGH

Most experts say progress moves in cycles—just a tactful way of saying we are running in circles most of the time.

BAKED TABLERITE HAM

Place ham, fat side up in shallow baking pan, on rack if possible. Bake in slow (325°) oven, uncovered. (A TableRite ham is a tenderized ham and has merely to be heated through.) Remove from oven 20 minutes before completely baked. With sharp knife, score fat into diamond shapes. Insert clove into center of each diamond.

To glaze ham, spread entire surface with mixture of prepared mustard, brown sugar, and honey. Return to oven (375°) until surface is glazed, about 30 minutes. Baste a few times to make sure glaze catches. Serve hot with mashed or boiled potatoes and your choice of vegetable.
