Noah Parmer brought down a deer in the Thumb last week and wished that he hadn't. Noah scored a direct hit with the right front fender of his car on a large doe on the Bay City-Forrestville road, about three miles west of M-19.

The deer darted in front of his car and caused so much damage that he was unable to use it in his work early this week. The Sanilac County Sheriff's Department was called and they took the deer to Sandusky for free distribution to the needy and Noah ended up with no car and no deer.

Our first letter to Santa appears in this issue. The Chronicle has again made arrangements with jolly old Saint Nick to mail each issue of the paper between now and Christmas direct to Santa at the North Pole.

We promise to print all Santa letters received in one of the papers between now and Dec. 25 so that Santa will know just what every area boy and girl wants for Christmas.

Hint to all program chairmen: one of the finest programs we've seen in many a moon was presented Tuesday by Ed Mantey. It is built around slides of a September trip to Russia and iron curtain countries, with the emphasis on agriculture. Some of the details are presented in a story elsewhere in this issue. We don't know whether Mr. Mantey makes a practice of speaking, but if he does you'd better get him.

Banner Yule Program Set

It will be a banner holiday season for Christmas shoppers in Cass City.

The Cass City Chamber of Commerce board has completed plans for a Christmas that will include free bikes. free refreshments and regular visits by Santa Claus with candy and goodies for all the kiddies.

Retail members of the Chamber are now giving away tickets for another series of free drawings for bicycles. The first drawing will be Friday, Dec. 7. Others will be held Friday, Dec. 14, and Friday, Dec. 21. Merchants can secure their tickets to give away from Bill Hunter at Hunter's 5c to $1.00 Store.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce want local shoppers to feel at home in Cass City. Under the direction of Ken Eisinger, who is in charge of this phase of the program, arrangements have been made with restaurants who are Chamber members to give free coffee and donuts in the village all day Saturday, Dec. 1. The Chamber will pick up the bill. Chamber authorities said that the hours and days of the visits by Santa will be announced at a later day . . . well in advance of his scheduled appearances. A Cass City driver was ticketed Tuesday following an accident on East Main at the Suneco gas station.

David Lee Nichols, 22, was ticketed for driving on an expired operator's license when his car struck a car driven by Marvin Sumner, 30, Bay City. Nichols was reportedly turning into the service station and Sumner was backing from the curb when the accident happened.

Cass City Police Chief Carl Palmateer investigated.

In other traffic news, Owen Weisenbach, 48, Sebewaing, paid fine and costs of $80.35 in Cass City Justice Court after pleading guilty to driving under the influence of liquor.

Weisenbach was arrested Monday afternoon by Chief Palmateer and jailed overnight.

Besides paying the fine, Weisenbach surrendered his operator's license to the court. Damage was slight in an ac-

Young Emmons was helping an older brother, Richard, 18, haul wood on a trailer when the vehicle hit a bump and he was thrown off. He broke both bones in his leg just above the ankle.

John Hunter, 16, escaped serious injury Thursday, Nov. 15, when he slammed into a steel bar on the school playground. The bar caught Hunter between the upper lip and his nose.

He was taken to Hills and Dales Hospital and released the following day.

According to Dr. H. T. Donahue, attending physician, the youth suffered no fractures and was treated for bruises and abrasions. Donahue commented that had the youth struck the pipe higher or lower, the injuries would have been more serious.

BUCK LUCK

First woman hunter to report a kill was Mrs. Ray Surbrook who shot a six-point, 160-pound buck Thursday, Nov. 15, southeast of Cass City. It was her first deer.

Glen Shagena, Ubly, shot a 12point, 300-pound buck near L'Anse, Upper Peninsula, on opening day, for the largest deer reported locally. The buck dressed out at 206 pounds and had a 22-inch horn spread.

Peter Schmidt shot an eightpoint buck on his farm, four miles east and one mile north of Cass City, early opening day afternoon.

Frank and Glen Meiser both shot six-point bucks in area two, north of Alger on opening day. Duane Chippi, Cass City, brought down a five-point, 145pound buck and his hunting partner, Maurice Adair of Argyle, shot an eight-point, 175-pound buck near Marion on opening day. Both shot their deer within the same hour. Ed Zmierski of Warren dropped an eight-point buck near Roscommon and his brother, Walter Zmierski of Cass City, shot a doe.

Watson Hudson shot a 185pound, six-point buck Thursday, Nov. 15, west and south of Cass City.

A six-point buck was shot by Alan Guilds, Cass City, two miles east and a mile north of Cass City at 2:30 p.m. opening day.

Three area hunters bagged bucks in an area near Iron River. Stan Edzik Jr. shot an eightpoint, 175-pound back Tuesday, Nov. 13, and Lee Moffet shot a four-point, 140-pound buck Friday, Nov. 16. John Juhasz, in the same hunting party, shot a sixpoint, 160-pound buck on Sunday, Nov. 11.

Caro Farmer Reports

Russia's Farming 20 Years Behind U. S.

Russia's agricultural practices are the same as practices in the United States about 20 years ago, Ed Mantey of Caro told members of the Cass City Rotary Club Tuesday noon at the New Gordon Hotel.

Mantey illustrated with slides that depicted life behind the Iron Curtain, taken on his trip to Europe Sept. 8-28.

When Russia says that their farms are completely mechanized, they mean they no longer farm by hand, Mantey explained. Their farm practices are such that they produce only about a third to a half as much per acre as the United States. The big collectivised farms have not been too successful. Although only three to four per cent of the farm land in the nation is farmed for private gain, this minute percentage produces about 50 per cent of all the produce sold in the country, the guest speaker explained.

There are plenty of horses and bikes for transportation. In Russia there are very few cars and Mantey said that he saw only one ancient rubber tired tractor there during the entire trip. Only one phase of Russia's farm operation impressed Mantey. He showed slides of their swine and said they compared favorably with any in the United States. Despite extreme hardships by United States' standards, the Russian farmer is happy it's a better life than they ever had under the Czars prior to 1917, Mantey reports, and many of them still recall the incredible conditions of those days. In other sidelights of his trip, Mantey showed slides of Moscow and the Berlin Wall. One interesting shot showed a woman brushing snow from the streets in Moscow with a very small broom. Although the Russian capital has about three feet of snow on the level each winter, all of the snow is disposed of in this manner, Mantey said. Mantey was introduced by Dr. H. T. Donahue, program chair-

Responsibility for the 24 months or 24,000 miles warranty that replaces last year's 12 months or 12,000 mile guarantee is shifted directly to the manufacturer in place of the dealer as was the case in 1962.

The terms of the warranty state that the company stands behind vehicles "delivered to the original retail purchaser by an authorized dealer." Industry observers state that this could mean that buyers who purchase their cars from discount houses, for instance, could have their warranty claims denied. This is considered bound to be so in the case of major claims. in any event, the dealer from who you buy will continue to play a decisive.. part in expediting customer claims. Under these circumstances, customers who think twice about where they buy their new car will be using wisdom.

New car sales on '63 models in many cases are double last year and all indicators point to a banner, if not record, year on '63 models. This year's models promise to create the most public acceptance of all time.

Coupled with the fact that the used car prices are at their highest in nine years, this is plainly the time to buy a new car. If you buy it from our garage you will receive a bonus of reliable, low-cost service in addition to a high trade-in allowance.

Pneumonia Takes Two Area Infants

Two Cass City area infants have died less than a week apart, presumably from the same causes, according to attending physicians.

The children, Charlene Marie Proper, seven-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Proper, Colwood, and Arn Richard Turner, six-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turner, Cass City, both are believed to have died of "fulminating" or sudden pneumonia.

The disease, according to doctors, strikes without warning and is prevalent among infants. Born September 24, she is survived by her parents, a sister, Mary Lou, and two brothers, John and Duane, both at home. Also surviving are: her grandparents, Mrs. Gertrude Proper, Pigeon, Mrs. Carl Cosens, Akron, and Eldon Bills. Caro. Rev. Paul R. Lehner officiated at the services and interment was in Fairgrove. Turner Services

Services for the Turner infant were held Friday at Little's Funeral Home with Rev. Fred Johnson officiating. The child died Thursday, Nov. 15, at his home in Evergreen township. He was born September 29.

Surviving, besides his parents, are: three sisters, Scheyne, Ann and Holly, all at home; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Blaine Sickles, Traverse City, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Edward Weinand, Mayfield.

State Forests Bring Big Returns

State forests are paying a big dividend to the people of Michigan State forests are paying a big dividend to the people of Michigan ---an estimated $67 million annually in wages, salaries, and business. Timber operations lead the march of these income dollars, accounting for some $51 million. On its journey from stump to consumer, state forest timber yields about $62 of new income within Michigan for every dollar it was worth before cut-ting. Conservative estimates indicate that sportsmen using state forests contribute $10.5 million to the yearly sales of sport shors. For the state of the sport shops, gas stations, drug stores, etc. State forest deer hunters add some $5.7 million to northern Michigan tills; fisher-men and small game hunters spend about $4.1 million and $700, 000, respectively. State forests offer a wealth of additional values which cannot be measured in dollars and cents. Call them esthetic values or whatever, they have real worth and are accounted for in the Conservation Department's multiple-use management of state forests.

Do you wonder, as you read about fallout, just what the poisons are? From a column in one of the Detroit papers, the Rev. James Laird of Central Methodist Church of Detroit lists the following: "The strontium can cause bone cancer and leukemia, cesium can cause genetic damage and the iodine (Iodine 131) can cause acute glandular disturbances." Some of the nation's citizens are exposed to danger from the recent tests. The scientists and officers responsible for the atomic testing program are not able to judge the results, healthwise, of the "atomic garbage" often left in the air after such testing. There is real danger that while we test so as not to fall behind in military capabilities, we might accidentally cause the loss of human lives. I have never felt that the way to save Americans is to poison the air they breathe.

* * * * Which reminds us that at the beginning of November, while we were hot in political campaigns, the US touched off its fourth successful high altitude nuclear explosion. It is estimated that it went 30 to 40 miles in height. Although it was a sub-megaton test (having the power of less than a million tons of TNT) it was visible in Honolulu, 750 miles northeast of the test range. But death comes, in an atomic age, in technicolor, for the fireball was white, then green, red and the gray of clouds. Good show, what?

* * * * The mighty Casey (Stengel, that is), the manager for 12 vears of the Yankees, has written a book -- which I have not seen. In his 12 years with the Yanks, they won 10 pennants and seven world series! Of the book, Casev says: "It's all very instruction-

The 800,000 members of the EUB denomination seek some way to do this without losing identity in the larger (10 million) Church. Target date is 1966! Our own Samnel Wurtz was there, explaining the lack of opposition by reporting, "I had to step out for a minute. The "blitz" took place before I could find my way back in." * * * *

May Be Only Start of Political Battles By Elmer E, White Michigan Press Association Fight Begins

The victory of George Romney in the Michigan gubernatorial race may well prove to be just a beginning of his contests in state government.

Many political observers are predicting bigger battles lie ahead for the new Governor in his dealings with the all-Demo-State Administrative cratic Board and the Legislature. Republican gains in the Legislature, however, would seem to indicate he will have less trouble in this area than anticipated. 323 The other state officers, all elected on the Democratic ticket, have pledged their cooperation with the new chief of state. Any break in this pledge is likely to bring Republican legislators into closer sympathy with their titular leader than might be possible if he were working with a GOP Administrative Board.

Romney will be assured some measure of cooperation with Democratic Ad Board members since he will have considerable power over the budgets for their departments being considered in the Legislature.

GOP budget writers who have been keeping the purse-strings tight for years are not going to let up to any great amount next year. But the new Governor is likely to get more ready acceptance of his budget recommendations than his Democratic predecessor could. ziczicz)

Forecasts of a fight over a state income tax likely will never be borne out.

The nuisance tax package adopted by the Legislature this year is in considerable amounts, boosting the revenue supply. Continuation of the increase in revenue during the next fiscal the state. year most likely will mean Romney won't have to ask for a state income tax.

If he does propose total fiscal reform, including a state income tax, Democrats in the Legislature would be under heavy pressure to support it since they screamed so loudly in favor of such a program when their party was in power in Iron Mountain. the executive office. 1, 1, 2,

Findings of this research will be watched by traffic officials throughout the country as well as in Michigan.
