

From the Editor's Corner

Cass City will have one less physician Mar. 1 when Dr. Earl G. Nelson will leave for South Dakota to practice.

Although this community is short of physicians, its need is evidently not as acute as the community where the Nelsons are headed. Dr. Nelson will take over a clinic already built. He will be the only doctor in the town.

The community lost two long-time residents this month. Both were familiar figures on Main Street.

Fred Maier, a lifelong resident of Cass City, worked 50 years at Gross & Maier. He worked as an employee for 17 years for Harry Young.

He then became a partner in the business with Young for 17 years and after this with Jim Gross, the present owner, for another 16 years.

Don MacLachlan's business career started here in 1939 with a three-man partnership with Dave Mathews and the late Leonard Urquhart.

In 1941 Mathews and MacLachlan started their present business and Urquhart continued as Ideal Plumbing and Heating.

Both of these men have added much to the community in their business and civic endeavors. They will be missed.

We called Coach Wayne "Speed" Wilson about 9:30 a.m. Monday morning for information and found that they were not yet out of bed.

Before we had an opportunity to raise an eyebrow, Speed explained that he and his wife were up to 5 a.m. the previous day.

The Wilsons were casualties of the weather. Stuck on the way home from a cage meeting, the pair had to walk three-quarters of a mile in the sub-zero weather and then wait two hours before help became available.

"In an authority on the snow route between here and Bay City," Speed reports.

Dillon Judged In Default; to Pay $5,525.64

A former Tuscola county deputy sheriff was ordered to pay $5,525.64 following two default judgments rendered against him by Circuit Court Judge Timothy Quinn in a court session Wednesday, Jan. 16.

Ordered to pay the money was William Patrick Dillon, Caro. Dillon was first ordered to pay $4,000 plus $891.40 in interest to Mary England. He was also ordered to pay costs of $27.20. Dillon reportedly borrowed $4,000 from Mrs. England in October, 1959.

In the second case, Dillon was ordered to pay $583.04 on the balance of a $1,000 loan secured from Willard Comet in July, 1960. He was also ordered to pay costs of $24.00.

Frank White, Caro, was ordered to pay $785 to Miss Kathleen Nickerson, a minor, in a $5,000 suit seeking damages in an automobile accident last July on M-24 near Frank Street, Caro. White was also ordered to pay costs of $27.20.

Services Held for Donald MacLachlan

Donald A. MacLachlan, 53, Cass City businessman since 1939 and a partner in the M & M Plumbing firm, died in his home Saturday night following a long illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. John Hall Fish officiated, assisted by retired minister, the Rev. M. R. Vender. Burial was in Elkland cemetery.

In addition to his Presbyterian church membership, Mr. MacLachlan was a past worshipful master of Tyler Lodge No. 317 F&AM.

Son of Mrs. Sarah MacLachlan of Cass City and the late Donald MacLachlan, he was born in Detroit Feb. 25, 1909. He and Miss Olive Hegler were married at Detroit June 10, 1939.

He leaves his wife; two daughters, Miss Sue MacLachlan, who teaches at Bridgeport, and Jane, at home; his mother; and one brother, Angus MacLachlan of Boston, Mass.

SNOWBANKS on North Cemetery Road are usually among the highest in the area. Recent storms have piled drifts three-quarters of the height of the posts.

However, snow conditions have to get a lot worse before they approach conditions in 1947 when area residents recall drifts that completely covered these same utility poles. (Chronicle photo)

Lions-Rotary To Sponsor All-Male Wedding

"A Womanless Wedding" is the title of a joint Rotary-Lion sponsored comedy program slated for Thursday and Friday, April 25-26, at the high school. A preliminary sketch and an outline of related projects were presented by Mrs. Lucile Bauer at a Cass City Lions Club meeting Monday night at Martin's.

Casting, costuming and rehearsals will be under the direction of Mrs. Bauer with ticket sales, scenery and advertising handled by the two clubs.

Originally slated by the Lions Club, the two clubs joined forces to insure a better planned project, according to club officials.

The cast will be selected from both clubs and from the high school. As the title suggests, the entire cast will be male.

An address by District 11-D Deputy Governor Roy Lawrence, Pigeon, on "Lionism" preceded Mrs. Bauer's talk. Lawrence is a candidate for district governor.

Accompanying him, also from Pigeon, were Art Ludke and Don Brown, past presidents of the Pigeon club.

During the business session, the members voted to purchase a pair of glasses for an area child and passed a motion to send a bowling team to the District Tournament in Flint, Saturday, Feb. 23.

County Vehicle Registrations Told By James Hare

In 1962, 25,249 motor vehicles of all types were registered by the Department of State in Tuscola County. These included:

Passenger cars 15,821
Trucks and commercial vehicles 2,978
Farm commercials 1,520
Trailers 4,080
Trailer coaches 276
Motorcycles 265
Police cars and other municipal vehicles 309

According to Secretary of State James M. Hare, the total weight tax money collected in Tuscola County was $415,008.88.

"Collection of weight taxes in Michigan last year increased $1,640,525.96, from $66,875,012.57 in 1961 to $68,515,538.53 in 1962," Hare said. "The total number of vehicles of all kinds registered rose only 111,228, from 3,758,010 in 1961 to 3,869,238 last year."

Caro Co-op Buys Farm Bureau Outlet

Caro Farmers Co-op Elevator Co., a stock company, has purchased the inventory and building lease for the Farm Bureau Cass City store, it was announced this week by Robert Schantz, manager of the Caro elevator.

Authorities say that the move will not affect the present manager, Steve Haskell, who will continue to operate the Cass City outlet.

The new owners claim that the plant offers many services including: bulk concentrate and bulk feed service, liquid nitrogen with custom application, bulk

Deer Only Victim In Area Crashes

A deer was the only casualty in an accident involving a Kingston man Friday, Jan. 18, on M-24 near M-46.

According to a report filed by Sheriff Hugh Marr, the deer, being chased by dogs, ran in front of a car driven by William Pratt, 22, Kingston.

Pratt was unable to stop and the animal was killed. John Pratt, also of Kingston, was an occupant in the car.

A Cass City man, Charles Staten, 45, escaped serious injury when his car went out of control on a curve three miles east of Caro Wednesday, Jan. 16, and rolled over.

Sheriff Marr reported that Staten escaped with bruises. The village's only minor accident for the week happened Monday when a car driven by Clarence A. Fritz, 52, Owendale, backed from the curb on North Seeger and into a car driven by Andrew Bartnik, 69, rural Cass City.

Investigating officer William McKinley reported that both cars suffered minor damage.

Legion Auxiliary Slates C-D Classes

A series of classes in Civil Defense Medical Self-help will be held starting Friday evening, Jan. 25. The project is being sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and Mrs. Basil Wotton will be the instructor with Mrs. Leo Tracy as co-instructor.

Classes will be held in the Scout rooms over the library and will start at seven-thirty p.m. Frank Krosow, Tuscola County Civil Defense administrator, will be present at the first meeting.

All interested adults are urged to attend. There is no charge for the course.

Hills and Dales Announces New Obstetrical Rate

Richard Palm, administrator at Hills and Dales General Hospital, said that a new rate in the obstetrical department of the hospital has been established.

Total cost for a normal delivery is now $100 for all hospital expenses, Palm said. This includes all regular hospital care for a three-day stay at the facility, Palm explained.

Fire Destroys Empty House

Fire of an unknown origin completely destroyed an unoccupied house three and a half miles southeast of Cass City late Sunday night.

The house was owned by Mrs. Owen Spencer, currently living out of the state.

Reported by Orval Hutchinson, a neighbor, the fire had been burning for some time before it was noticed. Snow-blocked roads delayed Elkland township firemen and they were unable to save any of the building.

In other fire department news, an election of 1963 officers will be held tonight (Thursday) in the Scout Rooms during the regular January meeting, at 8:00 p.m.

Supervisors Hear Nurses' Report

County Health Nurse Mrs. Lucy Miller was one of the busiest county officials in 1962, so busy that she spent a bare 37½ days at her office.

Mrs. Miller made her annual report to the supervisors at their week-long January meet in Caro.

School service kept her office the busiest. During the year, the office made 533 visits to schools; held 887 conferences with school personnel; examined 208 children with health problems; referred 251 children with vision defects for medical care, and held 108 conferences regarding hearing, vision and other problems.

Under maternal, child and adult service, the office made 63 pre-school age visits; 394 school age visits; 40 prenatal, postnatal and infant visits, and 156 adult visits.

Tuberculosis Service

Tuberculosis service included: 18 visits to cases; 51 visits to contacts; 22 visits to post-sanatorium cases; 11 visits to suspect TB cases; two visits to TB sanatorium cases, and supervision and follow-up of 168 chest X-rays.

Miscellaneous duty included 49 visits to doctors' offices; attending 22 meetings; 15 sanitation problems, and 23 meetings with Michigan Department of Health consultants.

Band Boosters to See MSU Slides

Slides of the Cass City High School Band at the Michigan State University Band Day last October are slated to be shown at a Band Boosters meeting Monday, Jan. 28, in the band room. The meeting will start at 8:00 p.m.

Mrs. Clayton Moore will show the colored slides. All parents and Band Booster members interested are urged to attend.

Also featured in the program will be instrumental numbers by band members who will attend the Solo and Ensemble Festival this year.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Soloists will include: Betsy Jones, flute; Bob Jones, French horn, and Bill Dobbs, trombone. Band Director Dick Cass has also announced that there will be at least one ensemble group performing.

1963 Budget Up $100,000

Tuscola County Supervisors have approved a $718,526.77 budget for 1963, topping last year's actual expenditures by over $100,000. The budget was approved during the latter part of the supervisors' week-long January session last week in Caro.

Two new programs caused the major portion of the hike, according to Clerk Archie Hicks. They included a half-mill appropriation to the county road commission totaling $67,995.99 and a $13,599.18 appropriation for capital improvement.

Estimated income for 1963 was set at $635,650, more than $53,000 less than 1962's actual income ($689,430.16) and about $15,000 less than last year's $650,532 estimated income. Excess expenditures over income will be about $82,876.

In view of this, Hicks reported that estimated balance for December 30, 1962, is $7,575 as compared to the current balance of $90,451.77.

Also affecting the budget increase were higher budget requests by every county office, ranging from $350 to $3,000.

Items Dropped

Three items were dropped from the budget, with little effect on the budget increase. Dropped, following a ruling by County Prosecutor James Epskamp, were appropriations for the Tuscola County Fair 4-H premiums ($1,500); the Tuscola County Retarded Children's Association ($2,000), and the County Vision Program ($400) carried on by county Lions clubs.

Epskamp's ruling read that according to state law, money can't be raised through taxes for private enterprise nor can money lawfully raised by taxation be appropriated for any such purpose.

Probation Officer

Tuscola County will have a full-time probation officer, starting probably in February, following a decision by Tuscola and Lapeer counties to share office expenses. Salary and mileage for the officer, who will be based in Lapeer, will be paid by the state.

The counties will split the office expenses 50-50 for an estimated cost of $1,000 for each county. Tuscola has 45 persons on probation while Lapeer has 99 probationers.

Veterans Affected

Hicks reported that fewer veterans in the county will be able to claim a Homestead exemption following a ruling by Attorney General Frank Kelley. In the past, veterans on pensions were able to claim a $2,000 Homestead exemption.

Under the Homestead Act, veterans on pension could claim up to $2,000 exemption on their "domiciles" in connection with local taxes. The act also provided that the townships could receive the exempted money through a fund set up by the State of Michigan.

Kelley's ruling, according to Hicks, states that exemptions must be based on county equalized valuations instead of assessed valuations as in the past.

Under the ruling, Hicks reported that not as many vets will be eligible for the tax exemption.

Jail Meals

The price of prisoner meals at the county jail were raised 10 cents from 45 cents to 55 cents per meal, effective Jan. 1, 1963. Prisoner meals are paid out of the general fund. Mrs. Hugh Marr, jail matron, prepares the meals.

Road Commission

The Road Commission's request for a half mill was included in the budget following a report by Grover Laurie, county road commissioner. The money will be used for "road purposes."

The supervisors voted in favor of adopting the new constitution following a report from Shuford Kirk, Con-Con delegate. The board also commended Kirk for his explanation of the proposed constitution by comparing it to the present constitution.

Reports were also heard from Rep. Allison Green on special education, and from Mrs. Lila DeBoer, veterans' counselor.

In other business, the board commended the Tuscola County Fire Association for their "fine work in the county," and Rep. Green on being named Speaker of the House.

The board also expressed its deepest sympathy to the family and friends of John Pringle, former supervisor. Pringle died recently in a Cass City hospital.

Hawks Stop Eagles; Scalped By Indians

Cass City is apt to be facing a good many "pressing" defenses the remainder of the year when the word gets around of the success that teams using it have had against the Hawks. Tuesday night Sebewaing used the defense effectively to post an 80-50 victory at Cass City High School.

The game was not a bit closer than the score indicated. Sebewaing raced to a 17-8 margin in the first period and continued to pile up the points throughout the game.

With Sebewaing's two fine guards, Roger Bachman and Dave Roberts, applying the defensive pressure and plenty of offensive help, Sebewaing roared into a 40-22 half time lead and continued to pour in the points.

Time after time Cass City was forced into playing lapses that resulted in easy buckets for the visitors.

About the only bright spot in the entire game for Hawk fans was the play of Sophomore Ed Retherford who sparkled on offense and defense. He collected 18 points, the only Hawk to hit in double figures.

JV's Win

Cass Cityites would much rather talk about the preliminary game. Trailing by 15 points late in the third quarter, the Junior Varsity rallied to win in overtime, 57-52.

In the overtime, Cass City scored on the tip-off and was never behind.

Cass City scored its first road victory of the year Friday as the young Hawks combined outstanding shooting with control of both backboards for an easy 74-48 victory over the Frankenmuth Eagles.

The Hawks outscored the Eagles in every period and for the first time this year Coach Wayne "Speed" Wilson was able to take a long look at his bench strength.

Another happy note for Cass City was the play of Walter Hempton who for the first time this season played up to the way he was expected to perform in pre-season estimates.

Besides excellent rebounding and defensive play, Hempton tucked in 18 points to lead both clubs in scoring.

The game was close only in the first quarter as both teams traded baskets. Cass City ended the quarter with a two-point, 14-12, advantage and was off to the races.

With Sophomore Ed Retherford having the best quarter of his young career, the Hawks raced to a 19-12 advantage and a 38-24 lead at the intermission. Retherford whipped in 10 of the 19 points. . . . most of the buckets coming on shots from near the left corner of the court.

The Hawks continued to add to their margin in the next quarter and Wilson started to use his substitutes in the last half of the period.

Cass City continued to score. At the end of the third quarter the margin was 48-35. With four minutes left in the game, all of the regulars for Cass City had been benched.

With reserves playing for both clubs, Cass City doubled the score on Frankenmuth to pile up its largest victory margin of the year, 74-48.

One of the keys to the Hawks' easy victory was the shooting percentage. Cass City hit a phenomenal 61.7 per cent of all its shots from the floor. From the charity circle, Cass City was strictly mediocre, converting just

MAGIC MAN—Don Childs poses with some of the props he uses in his magic act. A sleight of hand artist, pick-pocket and hypnotist, he has appeared on television and at night clubs. He and his wife, Pat, are currently managing the Severns' rooming house. (Chronicle photo)

Magic Man Says:

Dollar Stretching Just An Illusion

If you ever have an opportunity to meet Don Childs, 28-year-old photographer who recently moved to Cass City from Birmingham, Ala., keep an eye on his hands. . . . he's an accomplished pickpocket.

Although most pickpockets prefer to keep their talents a secret, Don doesn't care who knows it because it's part of his act as a sleight of hand artist, hypnotist and all-around professional magician.

As a magician, he has appeared on television, stage, in night clubs and in special and variety shows. Active as a magician for the past 15 years, he is a high ranking official among southern magicians and has met many of the famous names in the magic field.

Childs, originally from South Carolina, spent the last four years in Birmingham where he managed a photography studio and owned and managed a magic novelty shop.

His wife Pat is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Severn. The Severns are planning to retire and Childs will take over management of their rooming house.

Don became interested in magic as a child, at first only as a hobby. Although he began it as a hobby, he definitely classifies it now as an "art."

"The history of magic is the history of man," tells Don, "even primitive man had his sorcerers."

How does one become a professional magician? "Practice all the time," he advises. "You never quit practicing. . . . it's not something you learn and then have forever."

"A good magician is supposed to be able to vanish anything from a thimble to an elephant. I prefer to do magic with anything I can pick up."

Does Tricks

During the interview, Don, tall, slightly-built and mustached, consented to do a few of his standard tricks (He prefers they be called "illusions").

Keeping up a fast dialogue, he did some coin manipulations during which he did everything to the coin except turn it loose. He made it walk up and down the back of his fingers, made it vanish and made it appear to pass from hand to hand through his legs.

He then took a silver dollar and did what most of us would like to do. . . . he made it stretch, or at least appear to stretch.

He also did several card and handkerchief tricks.

Illusion Inventor

Don, besides being an accomplished magician, is also an inventor of illusions. One of his original tricks is to be given as the door prize at the International Brotherhood of Magicians Convention next August at Knoxville, Tenn.

The trick is one in which a half dollar is wrapped in a dollar bill, and given to a spectator. When the spectator gives it back, the half dollar has vanished.

Another spectacular trick of Don's is producing lighted cigarettes out of the air.

Don has held several top offices in southern magic organizations, including that of current territorial vice-president of the State of Alabama. He has also been past president of the Birmingham City Magic Club, an international organization, and vice-president of the Birmingham Society of American Magicians Club, a national organization.

In his work, Childs has met some of the greats of American wizardry such as Harry Blackstone. His favorite, he says, is an old-time carnival magician named Willard the Wizard.

Toughest Audience

Children are considered by some magicians to be the toughest audience. Shortly before coming to Cass City, Don reports, he did a show before a group of about 150 children between the ages of nine and 12.

After his act was over, he was called back for an encore, his first, and the first he'd ever heard of.

Don states that it doesn't make any difference which type of audience he appears before, children or adults, his act is much the same, although he was quick to admit that there are some tricks you don't show children.

What about telling the secrets of his illusions? To adults, Childs gives a flat "no." He tells his younger audiences that they can find most of the tricks in magic books found at the library.

There is probably nothing new in magic," he explains, "only variations."

Don served in the Air Force at Tawas City for four years where he met his wife Pat. The couple have a son, Donald Jr., four.

Graham to Receive Salary

Ousted Tuscola County Probate Judge Henderson Graham will continue to draw his $9,500 salary despite an attempt by county supervisors to have his salary dropped from the budget.

The supervisors finance committee sought to have the item eliminated from the budget during their week-long January session, but Prosecuting Attorney James Epskamp ruled provisions for a probate judge's salary must be included in the budget.

Graham was suspended last fall by the State Supreme Court, charged with "misconduct." Latest word from Lansing is that there is no change in Graham's status and none is indicated.

New Gallico Book Listed at Library

A collection of new books has arrived at the Cass City-Elkland township public library and includes: "The Prize" by Irving Wallace, "Where Love Has Gone" by Harold Robbins, "Final Verdict" by Adela Rogers St. Johns, "Coronation" by Paul Gallico, "What Time is the Next Swan" by Walter Slezak, "Dear Papa" by Thyra Bjorn and "On the Way Home" by Laura Ingalls Wilder, which is a diary of a trip from South Dakota to Mansfield, Missouri, in 1894.

Also in the collection are one new mystery and three Westerns. Winning isn't everything—it's just that losing has no future.

Farm Tax Guide Now Available

The 1968 edition of the Farmers' Tax Guide is now available at the Tuscola County Cooperative Extension Office located in the courthouse, Caro, according to Alfred Ballweg, county extension director.

This publication explains most of the income tax rules which apply to farmers and those who have tax questions about farming. It should be of assistance to farmers when they prepare their income tax return for the calendar year 1967 or fiscal year ending 1968. The booklet is written in plain language and contains numerous examples to show how the rules work in actual situations.

Interested folks may stop at the office to pick up a copy or a phone call or letter will have one sent to you, said Ballweg.

Fire Department's Ladies Night Draws Large Attendance

An estimated 85 persons attended the annual Elkland Township Firemen's "Ladies Night" banquet Saturday at the New Gordon Hotel.

Attending, along with their wives, were the firemen, township officers and several retired firemen.

After dinner speaker Al Avery, fire chief, presented several original comic poems dealing with various aspects of a fireman's life.

Following the banquet, the party moved to the Scout Rooms over the fire hall where games were played and refreshments were served.

Hawk Debaters Post 3-1 Win

Red Hawk Debaters walked off with a 3-1 score Monday, Jan. 14, in a local debate meet at Reese High School, according to Miss Evelyn Shields, debate coach.

Cass City's negative squad defeated Reese and Sandusky negative squads while the affirmative team took one from Reese and dropped one to North Branch.

The negative squad members are Bill Dobbs and Tom Craig, with Bob Milligan and Bonnie Spencer on the affirmative team.

On the state debate schedule, the Red Hawk team has posted a 4-0 record so far for the season. Final state debates will be held Jan. 29 and 30 with Frankmunth, there, and Bad Axe, here.

If the squads can maintain their records, they will be eligible for the state tournaments slated in February.

The next local debate meet is slated for Monday, Jan. 28, at Reese.

Rev. Richards New Gagetown Pastor

Rev. Alvin Richards has been appointed to replace Rev. Russell Stanley as pastor of the Gagetown Church of the Nazarene. Mr. Stanley, after seven years with the Gagetown church, has accepted a pastorate with a Detroit church.

Rev. Richards comes to Gagetown after a 10-year tenure at Linden. He also pastored a church at Colling, near Unionville. He and his wife have traveled extensively throughout the United States as evangelists.

Rev. Richards officially began his duties Sunday, although he preached at a service at the church the preceding Sunday.

The Richards have three children, all married.

In other Nazarene Church news, Rev. Richards announced that a picture of all those attending this Sunday's service will be taken for the church album.

PROUDLY INTRODUCING

Golden Indian Bread

"A Delicious Dietary Aid For People Who Like Flavor"

THE STORY OF GOLDEN INDIAN BREAD

Pioneers of the Old West were a hardy breed, living off the land and looking to nature for most of the nourishment necessary for robust health and endurance. Fancy foods were not only hard to come by, but were considered "cityfied" and not "ribbelingin'" by these hard working people.

Today many of our foods, in order to meet the requirements of eye appeal and palatability, are refined to such an extent that most of the valuable vitamins and roughage are lost. Various health foods have been produced to compensate, to some degree, for the loss of these food values; but rarely do such values come to us in readily obtainable and tasty food items.

For this reason Golden Indian bread came into being. Golden Indian Bread is not meant to be a food faddist item. It was formulated and perfected for people who like something delicious as well as packed with health-giving ingredients. The cracked whole grains and grain meals give Golden Indian Bread a rich nutty flavor not found in breads made with highly refined flours. Natural vitamins are at their most vital abundance and ready availability in this unusually palatable food.

The laxative properties of whole grain roughage and flaxseed meal are an added bonus for those who need help in promoting regularity.

4-H Leaders Attend Workshop

Several Tuscola county 4-H leaders attended workshops at Camp Kett, the 4-H training center at Tustin, Michigan. The 4-H recreation leaders, Mrs. T. K. Schmidt, Mrs. Glenn Hampel and Mrs. Lewis attended the recreation workshop January 9 and 10. During the two-day workshop, these leaders received training in the fundamentals of recreation. These leaders will be available as resource leaders for local clubs.

Mrs. Fred Black, Akron; Mrs. Chris Scharich, Akron; Mrs. Harold Pike, Fairgove, and Mrs. Wallace Ruppert of Akron attended the small craft workshop Jan. 11, 12 and 13. Mrs. Black and Mrs. Ruppert specialized in ceramics, Mrs. Scharich in plastic crafts and Mrs. Pike in leather crafts.

Leaders attending Camp Kett will share their special training and talent with the other leaders at the county training session in late February.

Annual Meeting For Bean Growers

A sizeable number of Tuscola county bean growers turned out for the annual meeting held at the school gymnasium in Akron on Wednesday, January 16.

A program of real interest to the bean growers was presented by Carl Lenhardt of the Wallace and Morley elevator company; Axel Anderson, bean disease specialist of Michigan State University, and Warner Meylon of Bay City, chairman of the Michigan State Bean Growers Association.

Elected to serve as officers of the association during the coming year were: Harold Ruppel of Akron, president; Russell LeValley of Akron, vice-president, and Glen Harrington, Akron, secretary and treasurer.

Delegates to the annual meeting to be held at Saginaw March 19 are Cecil Baker of Reese and Merle Roller of Unionville, reports Fred Bach of Akron, past president of the county bean growers' group.

HAWKS SPLIT

Presbyterians Hold Annual Election

Fourteen Cass City Presbyterian Church members were named to various church posts Sunday during the church's annual election.

Named to three year terms as elders were Ed Golding Sr., Dr. K. I. MacRae and Morris Jones. Both Jones and MacRae were re-elected.

Mrs. Donald McLachlan was re-elected deacon. Also named deacons were Gaylord LaPeer and William Schram.

Others elected were: Harold Perry, Mrs. Gerald Prieskorn, George Davy and Arnold Fischer, all three-year trustee terms. Davy and Fischer were re-elected.

Mrs. Alexia Cook and Chester Muntz will comprise the nominating committee for the next election.

Also elected was Mrs. Meredith Auten, treasurer.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION

Notice of Hearing—Appointment of Administrator and Determination of Heirs. State of Michigan, The Probate Court for the County of Tuscola.

In the Matter of the Estate of Grant Howell, Deceased.

At a session of said Court, held on the 14th day of January, A. D. 1968.

Present, Honorable Neil R. MacCallum, Huron County, Judge of Probate.

Notice is hereby given that the petition of Jessie L. Howell praying that the administration of said estate be granted to Jessie L. Howell or to some other suitable person, and that the heirs of said deceased be determined, will be heard at the Probate Court on February 14th, 1968, at ten a.m.

Two Still Tied For Lead In City League Struggle

Mac & Leo overpowered Fuelgas in a battle of league leaders and Walbro notched its first victory of the season to highlight action in the City Basketball League this week. In the other game of the week, Cable squeaked by Snover to cling to a share of the loop lead.

Lutherans Install Church Officers

Officers were installed at the regular worship service Sunday of the Cass City Lutheran Church. Leading the church again in 1968 will be William Eberline, president.

Other officers re-elected were: Herbert Bills, secretary; Arlan Hartwick, treasurer, and Peter Zell, trustee.

Serving their first terms are: Alvin Avery, vice-president; Richard Easton, Elder; Gerald Bock, trustee, and James Husa, Sunday School Superintendent.

Walbro-Kingston
Walbro racked up a 44-25 margin in the first three quarters against Kingston and they coasted to their first win in six starts, 48-31.

Larry Summers picked up 10 field goals to lead the winners while A. Ruggles had 11 points for the losers.

Mac & Leo-Fuelgas
Mac & Leo outscored Fuelgas in every period to post a one-sided victory, 51-27, in a battle between two of the three league leaders. Prior to the game, each team had dropped a single game. Bob Holcomb paced the Oil five to victory with 16 points while Alexander led the divided scoring for the losers with seven points.

Snover-Cable
The closest game of the week was the Snover-Cable fracas. The Wiremakers held off a last period Snover rally to post a narrow 52-50 victory and retain a share of the league lead.

Sontag led Cable with 13 points and Dean Hoag was also in double figures with 10. Ken Dorman with 13 and Gary Schell with 12 paced the losers.

The standings:

Team	W	L	GB
Mac & Leo	5	1	-
General Cable	5	1	-
Fuelgas	4	2	1
Snover	2	4	3
Kingston	1	5	4
Walbro	1	5	4

Tyre, Michigan
Jan. 21, 1968

Dear Editor,

It has recently been brought to our attention that our community of Tyre is no longer on the map put out by the Michigan State Highway Department. This catastrophe is not at first apparent. Then more and more of the friends of the various organizations to which we belong ask, "Say, where is Tyre anyway?"

It's downright embarrassing not to be able to find the place where you are on a map. This omission has been allowed to exist since 1956 because we had little occasion to wonder, ourselves, where we were. 1955 was the last time Uncle Sam threatened to deprive us of our post office and perhaps our highway department was never informed of the reprieve.

Tyre has a long and colorful history. Among its 35 lonesome souls are the descendants of its first settlers who kept the town

Maharg to Head Parish Credit Union

Music and special singing will be furnished by the church at which the revival is being held. All services start at 7:30 p. m.

alive through two fires, those of '71 and '81. Its post office, its grain elevator and its siding on the C and O do a thriving business. Many people who have spent their childhood on its rural route grow to voting age and decide to search it out and see what it looks like.

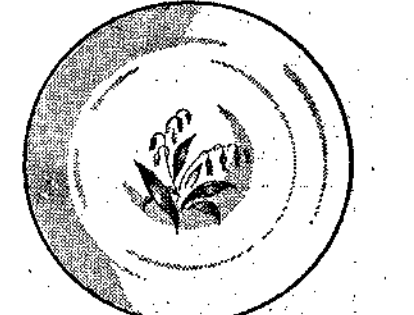

Only last year the Greenleaf Extension Group, after making road signs for their own township, volunteered to make signs on the Bay City-Forestville Road, making it easier to find. From this road one travels straight north for a short distance, then angles off toward the town. Now some might think this road was made leaving the tavern. Actually this was the original route to town and the straight part of the road was created afterward.

At any rate, it's time to get up on your hind legs, all you good citizens of Tyre and the 70 miles of its rural route, get out a postcard, and complain to the Michigan State Highway Department, Lansing, Michigan, that we want our town put back on the map again so we can find ourselves.

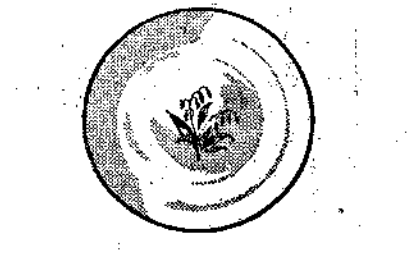

Sincerely,
Marian Spencer

BULEN TALKS Cars
THE BIGGEST AND BEST
When Khrushchev was telling his people recently that they would benefit by copying some of the ways of Capitalism he must have been thinking of the General Motors Corporation - the company that produces better than half of the cars in the country.
GMC is the world's largest industrial organization and, judging by its achievements, the most productive and efficient. All divisions of this great company, with which we are proud to be associated, showed substantial gains in production and sales in 1962.
The secrets of success are no secret. Someone is always telling us what they are. One of the best explanations we've heard recently came from a small manufacturer in a rural community who has achieved national acceptance for his product. He said: "It ain't the money that puts your business up. It's having something that nobody else has as good as."

Substantially better than 50 per cent of the country's car owners agree that that's exactly what General Motors has.

If you haven't driven one of our new Chevrolet or Oldsmobile cars then you have yet to experience a ride in one of the finest standard production cars in the world today. They are backed by the new 24 thousand miles or 24 months guarantee and represent virtually every engineering advancement the industry has to offer.

AND, This is STILL THE BEST TIME FOR YOU TO BUY A GOOD USED CAR. When we, and all, (or most all) other Dealers have too many cars, too much money tied up, not enough sales. We hope you'll come in so we may prove the above.

Christie MacRae Dies in Idaho

Graveside services were held in Cass City at Elkland Cemetery Tuesday for Christie MacRae, 62, who died in Moscow, Idaho, where she made her home for the past seven years.

She died unexpectedly in Moscow Tuesday, Jan. 15. Funeral services were held at the First Presbyterian Church in Moscow Friday and memorial services were held Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit, of which she was a member.

Born May 27, 1900, in Greenleaf township, she was the daughter of Christopher and Isabella MacRae. She graduated from Cass City High School with the class of 1918 and attended Eastern Michigan University at Ypsilanti.

In Moscow, she was secretary to the president of the University of Idaho. She was also a member of Delta Zeta Sorority and the Soroptimist Club of Detroit.

Survivors include two brothers, John MacRae of Detroit and Dr. Colin MacRae of San Francisco, Calif., and two sisters, Joanna MacRae of Detroit and Mrs. Kenneth Higgins of Pleasant Ridge, Mich., with whom she formerly made her home.

Courtesy is the most gracious gift of mankind—display it to the world each day.

Fertilizer Dealers to Attend Classes

Thursday, Feb. 7, Tuscola county fertilizer dealers will attend a soils and fertilizer short course. Other class dates are February 14 and 21.
This short course is the outcome of a fertilizer dealers' soils advisory planning committee decision, as reported by Don Kehler, county extension agent in agriculture.
Fertilizer company committeemen are Dick Shaw and Clinton Law of Cass City; Thomas Karpovich, Caro; William Anderson, Akron; Rex Wood, Fairgrove, and William Zurakowski, Bay Port. Ed Whalen, Caro, represented the county lime interests and Richard Karelse, Caro Vo-Ag instructor, represented the county Vo-Ag instructors, and Marr Sherman, Millington, the county soil sampler.

It is believed if all persons spoke the same language when promoting soil tests, explaining test results and making fertilizer recommendations, better use of fertilizers would result.
MSU soils specialists, James Porter and John Shickluna, will present the information. Their topics will cover MSU and county soil testing facilities, fertilizer characteristics and placement, interpreting soil tests and fertilizer recommendations. On February 28 the MSU crops specialist, Milt Erdmann, will talk to crop herbicide dealers on "Weeds, their characteristics and chemical controls in farm crops."

The course will meet in the Caro High School Vo-Ag room with each session beginning at 8:15 p.m. and ending at 10:15 p.m.

Oh, the Shame Of it, the Agony...

By Dave Kraft

Oh, the shame of it! Oh, the agony, the hurt and the other things that don't feel good!

I have been betrayed... and not by a maid in her teens. That cover-stealing, cold-footed, car-crashing, baby-affection alienating, knife-backin' (or is that back-knifin'?) wife of mine did away with my perch.

It's reached a point where nothing I hold dear is sacred (or is that "sacred is dear"? I'm so upset I can't even remember my cliches right) anymore.

I don't know how she did it, but I sure know when I came home from work the other night, glad at heart, happy that I was about to change the water in my perch's pan.

I raced down the basement stairs, swung around the pole at the bottom, charged up to the laundry sinks, grabbed the perch pan and... GONE!

My perch was gone! Oh, the shame of it. Oh, the agony, the hurt... well, you know.

In case you've forgotten, I got my perch on an ill-fated ice fishing trip a couple of weeks back. Between four of us, about 30 perch were caught and the dirty guys made me take them all.

The things had been out of the water for at least six hours when I finally got around to cleaning them and this one came back to life.

I mean, after all, who am I to play God? What right have I to say, "Sorry fella, your ticket expired back at the ice hole and you've come to the end of the line"? What right, I ask you?

That's what I thought, so I didn't.

It's not that I'll miss him (there could never be another Cyclone) but I shall miss the notoriety. After all how many persons do you know with a perch in their basement?

I derived a certain amount of pleasure from hearing people whisper in low voices behind my back, "That's Dave Kraft... you know, the nut with the perch in his basement."

As I said, I don't know how she got rid of him. He was too big to go down the drain, leaving just one of two ways.

She either flushed him into an unmentionable burial ground or she just plain out threw him in the garbage to flip his last among the tin cans.

How she did it is unimportant. The mere act was unreasonable. Sure the basement smelled like an unrefrigerated fish market on a warm day and the fool fish hadn't eaten anything during the two and a half weeks I had him, but fame never comes easy, even for a perch.

I've been casting about for some way to retaliate. She'll be surprised some night when she comes home from bowling to find one of her African violets gasping its last in a snowbank.

Every month the government issues an unnecessary report that the cost of living has gone up. Unnecessary because the correlation between the amount of my pay check and what it buys is quite apparent and on the decline.

To point this out even further, Harvey McGregory of Decker brought in an original list of merchandise his mother purchased at the "2 Macks 2" dealers in "General Merchandise (special drives in clothing)" on April 16, 1889.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Clark (Hazel) Zinnecker and Mrs. Everett (Iva) Field, both of Deford; one son, Grant of Deford; nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Dena Bonesteel of Otisville.

Down Memory Lane

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Five Years Ago

After 36 years without a fire, two were reported in one day, Wednesday, Jan. 15, at Cass City High School. Damage was estimated at $1,900.

Five Cass City students will play with the 86-piece Tri-County Honors Band Saturday. They are: Lynn Albee, Nadene Winters, Marjorie Dillman, Mary Helen Woodard and Janet McConkey. Mr. and Mrs. Anton Klopp, German refugees, look forward to life in the United States and Cass City after two years here.

For the first time in several years the budget as approved by the county supervisors calls for expenditures to exceed the expected revenue of the county.

Fire completely destroyed the Ed Mark trailer home Sunday morning. Lost in the blaze were the entire contents of the home. Total loss was estimated by Mr. Mark at about $4,000.

At the request of the County Social Welfare Department, supervisors granted permission for the department to discontinue the farm operation at the county nursing home.

John Koepf Sr., Cass City, has won a free trip to the national Farm Bureau convention in Boston in December for his work as roll call manager of Tuscola County Farm Bureau.

Ten Years Ago

The Cass City High School debate team continues to prepare for the state-wide elimination contests that they won the right to enter by winning six of eight debates. Team members are: Bob Fritz, Joyce Merchant, Marilyn McCarthy and Faith Parrott. Otto Ross is instructor.

Mrs. Herb Ludlow was elected president of the WSC Tuesday in a meeting at the home of Mrs. M. C. McLellan. Other officers elected were: Hollis McBurney, first vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Moore, second vice-president; Mrs. Roy Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Otto Goertsen, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Young, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Herb Lenzner, reporter.

Lutheran Church officers elected Friday were: Fred Iseler, president; Henry Heck, elder; Otto Neu, elder; Orsa Spaid, trustee; John Haire, treasurer, and Wesley Frederick, secretary.

Clare Bullis received a severe cut and broken and chipped bone in his left hand while working in Detroit recently.

Mrs. Wilma Fry, village clerk, reports that there were 316 births and 74 deaths reported in the village in 1952.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spaven celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday in their home in Ellington township.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen, rural Cass City, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at a surprise party held by friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schwaderer and children, June and Gill, left Friday, spending the weekend in New Orleans, La., and from there continued their journey to Florida.

Mrs. Fay McComb spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, at Bad Axe.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith McConkey were among the guests at the home of Mrs. McConkey's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rose, at Caro Sunday.

Mrs. G. A. Striffler and George Russell were high score winners Wednesday night, Jan. 19, when the Euchre club met with Mr. and Mrs. William Pethers. Mrs. Ed Golding and Gerald Hovey won consolation prizes.

Mrs. J. D. Turner, who has been very ill at her home on South Seeger Street, is slowly improving.

John Sommers, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sommers, broke his right arm, just above the wrist, Friday afternoon while coasting down the school hill.

Thirty-five Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Willy and children, Elsie and Nelson, visited relatives at Linkville and Sebawaing Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Wanner and daughter Mary Lou left Monday to spend the week with relatives in Muncie, Ind.

The Evangelical Ladies' Aid held a quilting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. A. Ricker. A potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon.

Owen Spencer returned Saturday from a five-day visit with friends in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer are living with Mrs. Spencer's mother, Mrs. Chris Seeger.

Alex Best and son Joseph of Kingston visited Friday at the B. A. Elliott home.

Roy M. Taylor and G. A. Tindale left Wednesday for Detroit to attend the auto show.

George Campbell and son Ernest of Greenleaf were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kennedy.

E. G. Golding spent the first of the week in Pontiac on business and also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Golding.

Francis Fritz, Clio, visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. I. A. Fritz, on Sunday.

Services Held for Mrs. Willerton, 88

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Jan. 15, in Sandusky for Mrs. Catherine Willerton, 88, following her death Sunday, Jan. 13, at her home, north of Snover, after a long illness.

Mrs. Willerton, a resident of the Snover area since she was 12, was born March 3, 1874 in Calchan, Ont. She married Rev. John Willerton April 16, 1894, in Argyle. He preceded her in death on November 18, 1929. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Surviving are: two daughters, Mrs. William Hillaker of Snover and Mrs. Cyril Burnham of Rochester; a son, Edward of Snover; 11 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Rev. Milton Gelatt, Holbrook Baptist minister, officiated and interment was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Austin township.

Louis Franks Dies After Long Illness

Funeral services were held Friday for Louis Franks Sr., 80, at the First Presbyterian Church following his death Tuesday, Jan. 15, at Stevens Nursing Home where he had been a patient for the past month. He had been in ill health the past two years.

Born in Hungary, June 15, 1882, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Franks. He came to this country in 1909.

He married Miss Mary Nagy in Dayton, Ohio, in 1910 where they made their home following their marriage. In 1912 they came to this area where he lived until his death. He had been a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Cass City, for the past 10 years.

Surviving, besides his wife, are: one daughter, Mrs. Ludwig

Gebnar of Detroit, and four sons, Joe of Dearborn, Louis Jr. of Cass City, Michael of Warren and Steve of Marlette. Also surviving are one stepdaughter, Mrs. Joe Vargo of California; one stepson, Nicholas Lazar of Detroit, 24 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Rev. John Fish officiated at the services and interment was in Elkland Cemetery. Funeral arrangements were by Little's Funeral Home.

Nature can do almost anything, but copying the illustrations in seed catalogs almost stamps her.

TIP TO MOTORISTS
Motorists should always remember that an off-guard minute may have an accident in it.

THE HEART-BEAT OF MICHIGAN

During 1962 Michigan farmers harvested and delivered over one million tons of beets to the state's five sugar factories for processing. This crop will produce nearly 240,000,000 pounds of pure sparkling sugar for sale exclusively in Michigan during the current marketing year.

In an average year, the beet sugar industry of Michigan will derive from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 from the sugarbeet crop. From this crop Michigan sugarbeet growers will receive approximately $15,000,000 in company and conditional payments.

These dollars which the sugarbeet growers and processors of this state receive for sugar produced in Michigan affect economic units all around their own horizons and far beyond Michigan's 17 county beet producing area. Remember, every time a sugar beet grows—so does Michigan.

Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute Report:

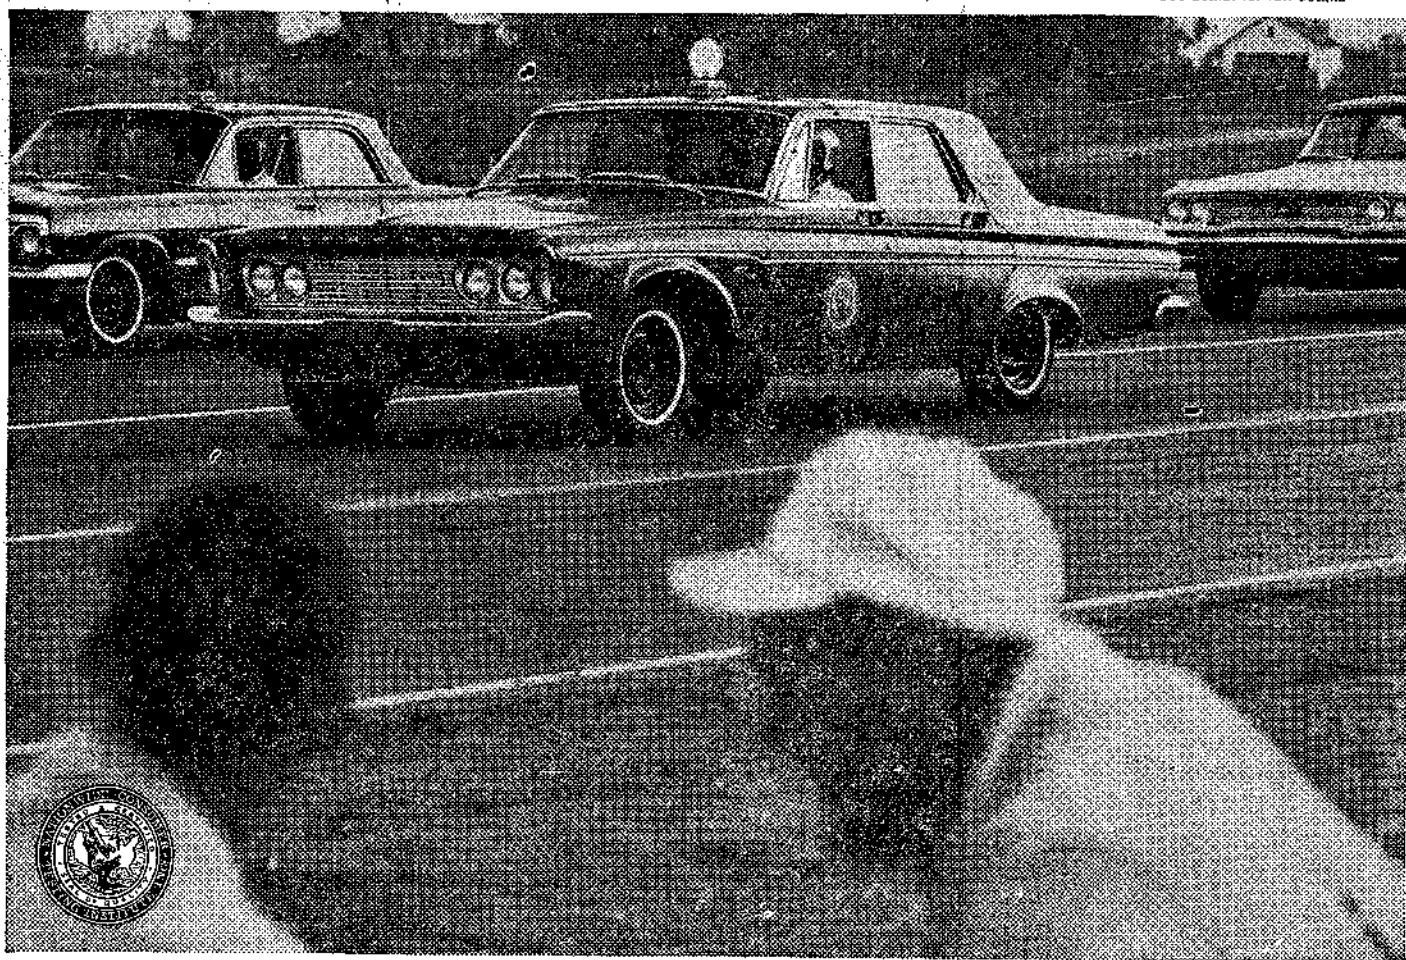

PLYMOUTH BEATS FORD AND CHEVROLET IN 8 OUT OF 10 OFFICIAL TESTS

Plymouth once again proves all-around superiority against its competition. Handling, safety, performance, economy—all of these were measured in the second meeting of Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth early in December at the Riverside, Cal., test course. In a "Showdown" asked for by Plymouth, a 1963 Plymouth Fury V-8 whipped a comparably equipped Chevrolet Impala V-8 and Ford Galaxie "500" V-8 in eight out of ten official tests.

Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute bought the cars, hired the drivers, supplied the officials, made and enforced the rules. The chart at right leaves no question about the results. Plymouth excelled in all-around performance and economy. Add in Plymouth's good looks and 5-year/50,000-mile warranty*. See your dealer. Plymouth's on the move.

RETIRED FARM COUPLE LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY

COME SEE THIS HOME AT 7915 KILMANAGH ROAD, OWENDALE—OPEN 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M. THURS., FRI., SATURDAY

NOW THE GOLDEN YEARS OF LIFE ARE EVEN MORE PLEASANT

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fritz enjoy the conveniences and comforts of flameless electric living. Everything from lights to heat is done electrically and the result is a freedom from worry and care they never could enjoy before.

MOST COMFORTABLE HEAT

Every room in the Fritz home is electrically heated and has its own thermostat. Each room can be warmed to exactly the desired temperature without affecting other parts of the house. Electromode baseboard is used throughout with the addition of a fan forced hot air heater in the bathroom -- all give a wonderfully comfortable, flameless heat. No drafts, no dirt and practically no maintenance ever!

WIRING and LIGHTING TOPS

In cooperation with Detroit Edison the Fritzes have installed Light for Living to add beauty and practicality to the lighting system. Wiring throughout is designed for tomorrow's needs as well as today's and is Certified by the Michigan Electric Industry Association.

APPLIANCES LESSEN WORK

Mrs. Fritz can enjoy retirement, too, because of her electric appliances. They mean she gets her work done faster, better and easier and has more time to do the things she really wants to do. The kitchen has a handsome GE range, for instance, that practically does the cooking by itself. There are an automatic washer and electric clothes dryer in the laundry area, and of course, there's an electric water heater to supply all the hot water that's needed.

Agent's Corner

Frances T. Clark
County Home Demonstration Agent

As we start this new year 1963, have you added up your bills from the holiday season? When we do, most of us begin to think in terms of tightening the budget for at least a few weeks. Consequently, we are interested in the food supply and tentative price forecast for 1963.

This year's food buyers will again find an enormous quantity and variety of food from which to choose. Enough food will be available to provide each person in our expanding population with a little more food than in 1962. Prices for food may average slightly higher in 1963, but by less than one per cent.

We can look for more beef, pork and broilers, but less lamb and veal than in 1962. Plenty of dairy products and continued large supplies of food fats and oils and cereal products are expected this year.

This unfavorable winter weather will affect the immediate supply of fresh vegetables and citrus fruit.

Since red meats (beef, pork, lamb and veal) are a major item in our food budgets, they make up an average of one-fourth of the family food bill. Supplies of the red meats will be larger in 1963 because more beef and pork will be marketed. Consumption of these red meats in 1963 is expected to reach 163.5 pounds per person. This is up one pound from 1962. The cattle herd numbers more than 100 million head, the largest in history.

We meat shoppers also will find more pork to choose from this year. The number of hogs slated to move through marketing channels to consumers this year is three to four per cent larger than last year.

The food shoppers will also find a larger supply of broilers. The current marketings are about 20 per cent above year ago levels and prices will be lower than the first half of 1962. The turkey crop in 1963 will be larger than in 1962 and the second largest in history. The stocks of frozen turkeys are much lower than a year ago, so turkey prices may be higher during the first half of 1963 than a year ago. The nation's egg laying flock is smaller than a year ago, so egg production during the first half of 1963 will be less than a year earlier. So this means that egg prices will maintain a higher price level than in early 1962.

For those persons interested in attending Farmers Week at Michigan State University, programs are available from any Extension staff member. This year's program should interest men, women and children.

Wednesday, Jan. 30, homemakers will have a chance to look at the future in housing. Such as the following will be presented: The Problems and Promises of Family Housing, Home Interiors, Construction and Community Development.

Then Thursday, for the homemaker, the following topics will be discussed: Expanding Horizons for Youth, Housing for Changing Families and Can Housing Meet the Needs of Families?

IT SEEMS TO ME Please Don't Call Me Reverend Anymore

By the Rev. Robert J. Searls

I would like to call your attention once again to one item of grammar concerning my calling which most laymen and some clergymen get confused. That is the proper use of the term "reverend." Most laymen believe that at some point in the education of a minister he is appointed or granted the term of "Reverend." Actually, the term grammatically is an adjective and is commonly misused.

Some journals printed for clergy misuse the term in interests of saving space. It should (in addressing mail or in introducing clergymen) be, "The Rev. Robert Searls" or, "The Rev. Mr. Searls." Note the "The", which is frequently left out. Notice also that Mr. Haire, at the head of this column, has always had it correct.

To say just "Rev. Searls" is comparable to saying "beautiful Searls" (just an example); this is never used correctly. Many clergymen or ministers prefer to be called by their first names like anyone else. Just "Mr." is correct for any individual.

I have had a running feud with printers and editors about this most of my years as a clergyman until recently THE MICHIGAN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, in announcing my retirement, printed a paragraph precisely as I sent it and so had one correct paragraph and near 50 wrong ones. But please do not wait for your pastor to retire before you address him correctly! (Even he may have grown tired of the long struggle for proper usage and inwardly joins with me in cringing when someone calls out, "Hey Rev., wait up!") I don't.

Recently we received a tape, recorded by my brother, Guy Searls, of a call to prayer in the world wonder, the Taj Mahal. The rest of the tape was a personal letter, but the children enjoyed taking the Hindu call to worship to their Sunday School class. I have admired the Taj as beautiful architecture for a house of worship for a long time and yearned to visit it ever since my school teacher introduced me to it. It is legitimately one of the 'wonders of the world,' and we heard it in Cass City!

On January 13 I visited some friends in Hills and Dales Hospital for the first time since June. It was a beehive of activity. In its third year of operation, it is safe to say it is being used beyond the wildest dreams. I made two stops and in that few minutes I heard compliments galore for the staff and our community's fine medical facility.

Step by step — each giant steps at this stage — the Methodists and the United Brethren Churches work toward union. "Why I Believe In This Union" will be the topic of Bishop Mueller (EUB) when he talks to a Methodist group at the West Side Methodist Church in Ann Arbor on January 26. Only 200 persons can be accommodated at the dinner ($2.00) but the Bishop is scheduled to speak at 7:45 p. m. in the sanctuary and the public is invited!

I just this minute read again (in TIME, 11/30/62) an article dealing with the same thing with which I started this column. It appears that more and more of my colleagues feel the same as I do about the term "Reverend." At Ann Arbor, the Episcopalian chaplain, Henry Lewis, has written:

"Call me Mister, call me friend
A loving ear to all I lend,
But do my soul with anguish rend,
PLEASE stop call'ng me Reverend."
And so it seems to me.

Girls' 4-H Club In Regular Meet

Preparation of relish dishes was one of two lessons given at the 4-H Sewing and Cooking Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Lyle Clarke, leader, Friday, Jan. 18.

The other lesson was machine hemming of towels. Janet Koepgen and Connie Delong furnished refreshments, according to Margaret Battel, reporter.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

I see by the papers where the Defense Department is getting more and more complaints from young men about being drafted for the armed forces. The officials is blaming this on the easy life folks is living now-days, claims our young generation is spoiled.

Personal, I don't think human nature is no different now in this matter than it was 40 years ago. I recollect back during the first World War a feller telling me he was in the Army fer 3 reasons. He wanted to fight fer his country, he was shore the Army would build him up good and stout, and they had come and got him.

From what I read in the papers, it looks like things is running about even on the plus and minus side with them Government agencies in Washington. This means 1963 is getting started with a slight improvement over last year.

Fer instant, the Pentagon has quit ordering soda crackers made to "special military specifications" fer the armed forces. They has decided that the kind of soda crackers me and you eat is good enough fer the boys in service. Last week they bought 2 million pounds of soda crackers regular style and saved $124,000 fer the taxpayers.

And it was announced they come up with another wonderful idea in the Pentagon. Up to now, the fellers in the armed services has been using the same kind of laundry soap my old lady uses, but they been getting it in a special wrapper "made to military specifications." It was decided to buy this soap in the regular wrapper and save the taxpayers another $232,246 a year.

But over on the minus side, the Pentagon is still buying a 10-cent soap dish made to special order. A manufacturer in Chicago says he gets a pamphlet of specifications and requirements 16 pages long on this 10-cent soap dish. He figgers it costs the taxpayers more to get out the pamphlet than the dish costs. I have wrote to my Congressman about this item, hope you will do likewise.

But the biggest minus sign we got fer 1963 comes from the Civil Defense Department. Them fellers has up and bought 70 million "survival biscuits" fer fallout shelters at a cost of $8 million. These is special biscuits, they explains, in case of nuclear attack. And now we got $8 million worth of special biscuits and no fallout shelters to put 'em in. That's a heap of wasted dough, Mister Editor, if you'll pardon this oldtimer fer a slight pun.

And I see where one of them Washington column writers announces that the $100 million we loaned to the United Nations comes to 55c per adult in the nation. We ain't going to git it back, so I mailed my 55 cents to Washington this morning.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Ideas Galore for St. Clair Islands

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association
The bandwagon promoting an idea to build a chain of islands in Lake St. Clair is getting crowded, but when it will get rolling and how far is anybody's guess.

Detroit's City Plan Commission, the State Conservation Commission and U. S. Sen. Phillip A. Hart, D-Mich., have all indicated an interest in the proposal set forth late last year by Paul Lutzeier, aide to Secretary of State James M. Hare.

Each agrees extensive studies would be required, however, before a decision could be made on whether and how to implement the plan.

The proposed chain of 20 islands might well fall to the federal government, Lutzeier said, because Lake St. Clair is an international body of water.

The plan for the islands could well emphasize the international characteristic by giving the recreational facilities proposed themes from other lands. Lutzeier's ideas included a Tivoli garden on one island, similar to the giant amusement spot in Copenhagen, Denmark; an oriental island with Japanese cherry trees and a tea garden; one with Dutch windmills, tulip fields and canals; or similar German, Polish, French, Irish or Italian themes.

Scores of recreational facilities could be incorporated into the island chain. These would include bathing beaches, marinas, nature trails, riding stables, picnic tables, ice fishing areas and others, Lutzeier said.

One of the main advantages of the idea, according to its author, is the flexible time schedule.

"If started at once, an island could be created each year for the next 20 years," Lutzeier said. "If the leisure-time requirements of the area demanded it, the job could be done in 10 years, or five."

What is needed now is just what Hart, the Conservation Department and Detroit area civic leaders are discussing: studies by competent engineers, planners and conservation experts.

Tourist Business Gains
Improved economic conditions, new highways, and increased motel and resort facilities throughout the state gave Michigan its best tourist year in history during 1962.

State Tourist Council Director Robert J. Furlong said these and increased promotional activities helped induce vacation travelers in Michigan to spend more than $650 million last year. This was a 5 to 7 per cent increase over the industry's business in 1961.

"This increase is especially significant because Michigan's annual income from tourism had remained at about the $650 million level since 1958 while many competing states were recording increases," Furlong said.

The improved highway system plays a major role in the tourist industry, said Furlong.

"The greater capacity of freeways for traffic volumes, speed and safety means these limited access highways are drawing travelers from some of the older routes," he said. "This can be quite beneficial to communities close to the freeways, while less conveniently located areas may lose some 'pass-through' business."

Several communities are counteracting the traffic pattern shifts by stepping up their promotional efforts to attract tourists, the Council director noted. "With adequate informational signs, our highways will continue to encourage even more recreational travel."

Aid Understanding
A group of newspaper officials have been enlisted in the attempt to familiarize Michigan citizens with the content of the proposed Constitution, which will be voted on April 1.

Ink White, St. Johns editor who served in the Constitutional Convention, is continuing as head of the Convention's public information committee. He has gained support from newsmen representing 14 areas.

The group, headed by White, plans to help coordinate the presentation of information about the new document in Michigan newspapers before the voters pass judgment on it.

The newsmen participating on the committee, some representing daily papers and other weeklies, are spread throughout the state.

They represent the Tecumseh Herald, Manistique Pioneer Tribune, Gaylord Herald-Times, Monroe Evening News, Coldwater Daily Reporter, Crosswell Jeffersonian, Wayland Globe, Midland Daily News, Brown City Banner, Potoskey News-Review, Standish Independent, Fremont Times-Indicator and West Side Courier, in Detroit.
