

Valuation Up $2 Million

Tuscola County's valuation, because of new property on the tax rolls for the first time, jumped approximately $2,000,000, supervisors learned during their four-day April session in Caro last week.

The new valuation was set at $139,044,114, as compared to $136,975,064 for 1963. Last year's increase was just under the $1,000,000 mark.

The increase will mean over $30,000 in additional monies for the county.

Elkland
Elkland township's valuation rose $291,211 from 1963's total of $10,819,814 to this year's figure of $11,111,025.

Ellington
The smallest area raise in valuation was in Ellington township which went from $2,043,534 in 1963 to this year's figure of $2,049,221, an increase of $5,687.

Elmwood
Valuation in Elmwood township rose $142,163 from $4,908,666 last year to $5,050,829 in 1964.

Kingston
Kingston's valuation rose from $3,006,026 last year to $3,018,725 for 1964, an increase of $12,699.

Novesta
The only area decrease was in Novesta township which dropped $10,364 from $2,449,922 in 1963 to $2,439,558 for 1964.

New Budget
A 1965 budget request of $673,400 was submitted to the County Allocations Board by the supervisors. The new budget is $15,892 over the 1964 budget of $657,508.

According to the request, the amount required from local property taxes, within the 15-mill limitation for the County General Fund for 1965, is $583,874.00.

Allocations Report
In other tax news, Shuford Kirk, special tax committee chairman, submitted a report recommending that the tax limitation be held at 15 mills.

The report suggested the following allotments: county, 4.2 mills; townships, 1.65 mills; schools, nine mills, and intermediate school district, .15 mill.

The only change over last year is that .04 mill previously received by the county was given to the intermediate school district.

The recommendation, which was sent to the County Allocations Board, was approved by a 21 to one vote. One supervisor abstained and two were absent.

Commend Baguley
A resolution commending Irl Baguley, retiring Social Welfare Department director, was approved. The resolution stated that Baguley's nine and a half years of service were "held in deep appreciation."

State Support Sought
The board went on record as favoring state support of sheriff's departments for patrolling state roads, following a letter from Sheriff Hugh Marr.

Marr's letter, sent also to Gov. George Romney, Rep. Allison Green and State Senator Arthur Delmhorst, charged that, "in the interest of highway safety, a state appropriation to the state's sheriff departments is long overdue."

A request by Marr for marine patrolling apparatus was referred to the Sheriff's Committee for further study. He requested a $3,000 unit consisting of a patrol boat and radio, a motor and trailer and two scuba diving outfits and tanks.

The two-week course runs from June 21-July 3 and offers study and lectures in bioengineering, chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical and metallurgical engineering and computer orientation.

Acceptance was based on an essay written by the student explaining his interest in engineering, high school grades, scores from standardized tests, and recommendations from high school science or mathematics instructors.

The teachers are: Mrs. Mabel Bailey, first and second grades; Mrs. L. Johnson, third and fourth; Mrs. Marion Gray, fifth and sixth; and Mrs. Alison Brown, seventh and eighth.

Suspend Sentence Of Tuscola Pair

Two county youths were given six-month suspended sentences Wednesday, April 15, malicious destruction when they appeared before Circuit Court Judge Timothy Quinn.

Sentenced were Christ Candela and Roger Hart, both of Tuscola. Both were ordered to pay fines of $100, costs of $50 and restitution of $302.27 each. The payments are to be at a rate of $75 per month.

The pair had pleaded guilty to using two tractors owned by Milton Beach, Tuscola, in a bumper-car game. Both tractors were damaged.

In other court news, a suit against Jerry T. Creason, 18, and Charles Creason, his father, was filed Monday by Theodore Concluded on page six.

When completed this June, the $200,000 steel and concrete installation will be the tallest building in the village. The 130-foot high installation will have a capacity of 175,000 bushels. All that remains to be done on the building itself is the top section. (Chronicle photo)

Expect Big Turnout At Green's Dinner

An overflow crowd of at least 450 persons is expected to attend the Allison Green Testimonial Dinner slated for Wednesday, April 29, at 7:00 p.m. in the Cass City High School auditorium.

Featured speaker of the evening will be Michigan Gov. George Romney. Dr. Charles Anspaugh, Mt. Pleasant, will be the toastmaster. Other state lawmakers and dignitaries will also attend.

Green, Speaker of the House, will be honored for his achievements as a representative.

Arrangements have been made with the New Gordon Hotel to take care of part of the overflow expected for the dinner. Approximately 350 persons can be served at the school, and about 75 persons will eat at the hotel.

Willis Campbell, arrangements chairman, reports that all tickets sold after the April 15 deadline are marked "New Gordon Hotel" to denote where the ticket holder will eat.

Additional seating at the school will be provided after the dinner and transportation from the hotel to the school is being arranged.

Persons wishing to hear the main address but do not wish to eat, may also attend as long as room is available.

The main banquet will be served by the Fraser Presbyterian Ladies Aid.

A capacity audience, estimated at between 600 and 800 persons, turned out for the Lions-Gavel Club sponsored Kenny Roberts' Country Music Jamboree Show Thursday night, April 16, at the High School.

Ticket chairman, Ed Cantile, reported to the Lions Monday night at their regular meeting that proceeds to date on ticket sales and advertising totaled $1,921. Several bills are still to be paid.

The proceeds will be divided between the two clubs for community and civic projects.

Offer 2nd Site for Dump

Another site has been offered the village for a new dump, Jerome Root Jr. reported to the council at its regular meeting Tuesday night at the Municipal Building.

This site is about three-quarters of a mile east of the present dump and some 40 acres can be purchased for $3,000, Root was told.

The location is just inside Elkland township on the Elkland-Novesta township line. It is higher than another site east of the village that is also being investigated.

Trustees said that the 40 acres would solve the village's dump problem now and in the future. Using the sanitary land fill method of dump operation where trenches are dug and refuse buried, the dump would last indefinitely for the population of Elkland township.

By the time the 40 acres have been used, the village would be able to start over again as the garbage first buried will have deteriorated, trustees believe.

The problem of a dump has been under consideration for about 10 years. In recent years the cost of maintaining the present dump has been becoming progressively more expensive as frequent bulldozing has been necessary to make room in the overcrowded grounds.

Cass City High School Junior and Senior Bands will present "Band Fantasia" Friday night, April 24, at 8:00 in the high school gym. Ronald Walker, band instructor, will direct the annual spring concert.

Oral Vaccine Not Available Till Next Fall

It may be a bitter pill for some area residents to take, but unless they go elsewhere, county persons will have to wait until September or October to get their oral vaccine soaked sugar pills.

Dr. Herbert L. Nigg, in charge of organizing the distribution and administration of the vaccine, announced Tuesday that when the vaccine is available, it will be distributed on the same basis as the recent campaign in the Detroit area.

The drug, however, will not be administered at a central clinic. Doctors will be given the vaccine and will administer it from their individual locations.

Chief reason for the delay, according to Dr. Nigg, is the signing up of area doctors to cover the cost of the drugs. A meeting is slated to be held in Cass City sometime this month or in May to see how many doctors will sign up.

In the Detroit tri-county campaign, response was so great that the 700 distribution centers were swamped by millions of persons and some centers had to reorder supplies.

The second distribution push in the Detroit area will be June 14. In some areas, a minimal charge of 50 cents was assessed, although no one was turned away for lack of funds.

Fine Charles On Disorderly Conduct Charge

Thomas J. Charles, 42, Pringle Road, pleaded guilty in Cass City Justice Court Saturday to disorderly conduct and was fined $25.00.

Charles was arrested Saturday morning by Police Chief Carl Palmateer after spending the night in a parked car.

He was also ordered to pay $5.00 in damages and court costs of $7.50 or serve 20 days in jail. He was remanded to jail and later released.

Two Mayville youths were released Tuesday on their own recognizance after they were arrested on a breaking and entering charge earlier that day.

Arrested were Virgil Cooper and Harry Robinson Jr. The pair allegedly entered a house belonging to Mary Meceli, Juniata township, on Sunday, April 12, and removed a television set.

May 11 is Deadline For School Petitions

With just over two weeks left to file petitions, persons planning on running for the two open Cass City school board posts are being reminded by Supt. Willis Campbell that the deadline is Monday, May 11. The school election will be held Monday, June 8.

Board members whose terms are expiring are James Milligan and William Ruhl. Both are finishing their first four-year term. Milligan announced Tuesday that he will run again. "I feel it is our duty, after serving one term, to attempt to serve a second term. I think that as experienced board members, we are much more valuable to the system," he explained.

Ruhl remained uncommitted, announcing that "I haven't decided yet."

Campbell reminded persons filing petitions that no elector shall sign petitions for more than the number to be elected, in this case, two.

Petitions must be signed by not less than 50 qualified electors. Full names must be used, initials will not be accepted.

The petitions must be filed with Horace Bolen, board president, not later than 4:00 p.m. May 11.

Nix New Lights

Finish Plans For Walk, Curb

New sidewalks and curb for Main street from Seeger to Sherman streets are a virtual certainty, but new lights for the main stem are not in the council's planning this year.

President Lee Rabideau outlined a schedule for curb and sidewalks Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the village council.

He says that bids will be advertised next week and opened Monday, May 4. A notice of hearing of assessments for the work will be held late in May.

A petition was submitted, signed by property owners, asking for the curb and sidewalks and for new street lights.

Since the council is not prepared to grant the lights, various trustees volunteered to circulate a petition for the curb and sidewalk work alone.

Rabideau said that the speci-

Few Accidents Reported in Area

Area accidents were slight this week with only three reported to local police departments.

A car driven by David G. Davy, 67, Cass City, backed in front of a Thumb Appliance Center pickup driven by Joseph J. Gruber, 45, Cass City, Tuesday afternoon. Police Chief Carl Palmateer investigated the Leach Street accident. Riding with Gruber, whose vehicle suffered the only damage, was Jack Lapeere, Cass City.

Cass City's only other accident of the week also happened on Leach Street Wednesday, April 15, when Martin H. Kortge, 74, Midland, backed from the curb and struck the right side of a car driven by Mrs. Calvin McIntosh, 37, Cass City.

Riding with Kortge was his wife, Lillian, 70.

A car driven by Mrs. Eva Bair, 65, Cass City, was heavily damaged Wednesday, April 15, when she struck a deer on M-81 while en route from her job at Caro State Hospital.

Mrs. Bair told sheriff's deputies that the deer ran onto the road and she couldn't avoid hitting it. Riding with her was Linda Rosenstangle, 15, Cass City.

Evidently, no one had considered the possibility because no one was able to make a positive statement about the land.

It was explained that an easement for a road through the center of the property had been granted and that the property might not be suitable as part of a school site.

Beyond that no one was willing to go.

The council read a letter from Bernard Ross saying that he did not want the trees in front of his property cut.

The letter was read and filed without comment.

Saginaw Firm Wins Cemetery Road Paving Project

A Saginaw company submitted the low bid of $40,107 for 5.221 miles of pavement on South Cemetery Road, according to Les Ross, Hunt Construction Co. official.

Low bidder was Frank Strausberg & Son Co. for the 5.221 miles of bituminous aggregate surface. Bids were opened early this month.

The work is expected to start the latter part of May or early June and will be finished this summer. Paving will be from the Cass River bridge, just south of the village, to Deckerville Road.

Hunt Construction is the general contractor for the job.

In other road construction news, the Michigan State Highway Department announced this week that bids for paving of the bridge carrying M-24 over the Cass River in Caro would be among 32 spring maintenance and county road commission projects slated for this year.

Bids will be opened May 6. The M-24 project will cost an estimated $20,000 with completion set for October 1.

The terms of Otis Dorland and Mary McNaughton are expiring. In other business, school authorities said that teachers for the 1964-65 year have been hired.

The teachers are: Mrs. Mabel Bailey, first and second grades; Mrs. L. Johnson, third and fourth; Mrs. Marion Gray, fifth and sixth; and Mrs. Alison Brown, seventh and eighth.

Postal Service Hit If Trains Stop

If the rail strike goes into effect Saturday, Cass City residents will probably be affected first by curtailment of postal service.

Postmaster L. H. Bishop announced today that all mailing other than first class, air mail and air parcel post, destined for points more than 150 miles from Cass City, will be unacceptable until the strike is over.

Bishop emphasized that these instructions received from Washington would be followed only if emergency suspension of service is caused by a rail strike.

Second class magazines and newspapers, third class matter and fourth class parcel post packages for delivery beyond 150 miles will be among items discontinued.

A total of 153 4-H leaders from Indiana, Minnesota, New Mexico, New York, Texas, Vermont, West Virginia and Michigan attended. Eighteen 4-H leaders representing eight Michigan counties left Kellogg Center, East Lansing, by a chartered bus at noon Sunday, April 5, and arrived in Washington, D.C., at 2:30 p.m. at the National 4-H Club Center.

The main objective of the 4-H Leader Forum was to help the group, as participants, become more effective in working with young people in 4-H. Dr. Charles Freeman, program leader of Citizenship-Leadership, and Grant Shrum, Director of the National 4-H Club Foundation, were the main speakers throughout the week. Also speaking was Miss Dorothy Emerson, consultant of Citizenship-Leadership.

Sights taken in were the National Archives, the Jefferson Memorial and the Lincoln Memorial. Wednesday, a special tour of the White House was planned and during the tour Lucy Johnson was seen as she went off to school escorted by a secret service man.

The group toured the capital city, visiting numerous other historical and memorial monuments, as well as governmental and judicial buildings. Mrs. Burk returned home Sunday.

Hawks Open Loop Play with Win

The Cass City Red Hawks won their home and Thumb B Conference opener Tuesday at Cass City Recreation Park after tuning up for the conference season by taking three practice games on the road.

Tuesday, Jim Champion hurled the Hawks to a 5-3 decision over Caro. Champion showed good control as he walked just one man.

Cass City scored five runs on just three hits, a double by Walter Hempton and singles by Milt Sherrard and Marv Irer. Walks and errors booted home the winning runs for Cass City.

Last week the Hawks topped the Lakers 12-6 and took a double header from Marlette, 11-8 and 5-3. Jerry Stroupe received the decision against the Lakers as Dave Stine and Sherrard batted out two hits in as many tries and Hempton drove in a pair of tallies with two for four.

Wayne Copeland allowed seven hits, but had the big strike out pitch against the Red Raiders. He whiffed 13 in the 11-8 Hawk victory. Cass City backed him with 13 safeties. Champion had four for four, including a triple, and Hempton three for four. Rick Ruhl collected two for two.

In the second game against Marlette Al Wallace pitched a two hitter in a 5-3 decision. Cass City garnered only five hits, including two for three for Wayne Copeland and Hempton's double. Thursday, April 23, the Hawks will play the Lakers at home in another conference tilt.

Detroit Edison Hosts Three at Lighting Seminar

Three Cass City men attended a one-day lighting seminar Monday at Nelda Park in Cleveland as guests of The Detroit Edison Company.

Attending the meet, which was held primarily for school board members and officials, were James Milligan and Donald Reid, school board members, and Louie Wright, head custodian at Cass City High School.

Representatives from Port Austin, Kinde, Bad Axe, Elkton, Uby, Harbor Beach, Akron, Caro and Cass City attended. The group left Sunday and returned home Monday evening.

The park is an experimental station for Detroit Edison electric lighting and heating programs.

The purpose of the meeting, according to Milligan, was to acquaint school officials with the various ideas in school and school grounds lighting. Comparisons between old and new techniques were examined.

With a blue-print of future plans a man's train of thought will run regardless of time-tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Allen Kinzie

The Rev. Fr. Pilarski officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony at St. Michael's Catholic Church April 11 in which Miss Joan Nancy Skippy and Bruce Allen Kinzie of Flint were married.

The church was decorated with baskets of white glads and carnations.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Skippy of Deford and the groom is the son of Mrs. Bernice Kinzie of Flint.

Shirley Ann Hayward of Pontiac, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Lou Kozan of Cass City, sister of the bride, and Susan Luana of Marlette. They wore identical red lace dresses with matching shoes and headpieces. Their bouquets were white and red carnations with white ribbons.

The bride chose a floor-length white lace gown. She wore a necklace of crystal beads and a crystal crown held her veil secure.

To Tell Hospital Bridge Tourney Winners at Party

One of the best kept secrets of the year is the names of high scoring players in the four groups of the Hills and Dales Bridge Tournament. These will be disclosed and the play-off held at a party slated in the hospital meeting room on Thursday, May 7, at 8:00 p.m.

All players who participated in the tournament are invited. There will be prizes and refreshments. The tournament, held to raise funds for hospital equipment, has been under the direction of Mrs. Richard Palm.

Members are reminded by Auxiliary president, Mrs. Willis Campbell, that the April meeting will be held in the afternoon at 2:00 on Monday, April 27, in the meeting room. Discussion of purchase of important equipment, under consideration by the Auxiliary, will be continued.

As a rule people don't get better as they get better off.

POINT OF VIEW

An optimist turns onto a detour and reflects that it is roughly the distance between two points.

AIR FILTERS AND GAS MILEAGE

A few drivers will be spending some wise money on needed engine tune-ups this spring and then throwing away most of the benefits by balking at the few dollars for the cost of a clean carburetor air filter.

Manufacturers' studies show 18 pounds of air to one pound of gasoline is required at summer temperature if the carburetor mixture is to get the most energy possible out of the fuel. This is approximately 2,000 cubic feet (enough to fill a room 20' x 10' x 10') for every gallon of gas in a 6 cylinder engine at 60 MPH.

When your air filter becomes clogged from road grime, it means simply that your carburetor is not getting the required air it was designed to get. The result is that the gasoline-air mixture becomes unnecessarily rich in fuel. This in turn reduces power and economy.

Recent engineering tests on two V-8 engines in a 1961 Mercury and a 1959 Plymouth with clean and clogged air filters... showed a miles-per-gallon gain of 3.6 MPG for the Mercury and 2.4 MPG for the Plymouth with a clean filter over a clogged one.

Recommended changes for air filters vary from model to model - usually every ten to twenty thousand miles - but these figures can be altered drastically if you drive frequently over dusty roads.

If you have your car serviced regularly at our shop, your air cleaner will be inspected as a matter of course. If it needs changing, we will recommend it to you.

Accidents Provide Tragic Forecast

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association
$1 Million a Day

A 50 per cent increase in fatal traffic accidents during the first three months of the year provides a tragic forecast for the year's end total. Michigan people now pay $1 million per day and 2,000 lives per year in accident tolls!

January is traditionally one of the worst months of the year for highway fatalities, but so are the three summer months and the final month or two of the year.

Thus, this year's high rate through both February and March, when traffic is traditionally lighter than most months, brings the call for a never-ending alertness on the part of every driver.

Weakened by amendment, Gov. George Romney's attempt to get a tighter grip on the drinking driver might be one way to cut down the highway slaughter, which used to be primarily a week-end occurrence but now rises daily.

Another effective deterrent could be more stringent enforcement of all traffic laws. Motor vehicle inspection might help too, keeping cars in passable condition.

But it cannot be emphasized enough that the individual must be a willing participant in any traffic safety campaign.

Awareness of the dangers on the city streets, rural roads and interstate freeways must serve as a constant reminder that "stop" signs mean just that, and "yield" designations call for extreme caution.

The continually rising death toll points up the fact very vividly, however, that "right-of-way" is not always what it is meant to be.

A driver on a through street must be just as careful at intersections in case the other motorist is not aware of the weapon he wields beneath the steering wheel.

TV Classrooms

Learning by television has been in the experimental stage in the Midwest since 1959. It will soon face the test of permanency. Some of the original supporters believe it cannot meet that test.

Midwest Program on Airborne Television Instruction Inc., also known as MPATI, has been transmitting courses to Michigan students from two airplanes flying over Montpelier, Inc. It has been financed largely by Ford Foundation grants and operated under direction of Purdue University.

With foundation funds scheduled to be cut off in two years, the school subscriber-members to the program are seeking to determine its future.

School officials like Livonia Superintendent Benton Yates, head of a charter MPATI member unit, are disenchanted with the program and are working through the Federal Communications Commission in an attempt to avert broadening the MPATI effort to a national network.

MPATI officials have filed for the use of six permanent television channels on the ultra high frequency range. Soon all television sets will be equipped with this range and FCC allocations of the bands are scarce.

Yates and other opponents of the MPATI allocation request see the prospect of a nationwide airborne project as the possibility for many planes flying from coast to coast spewing out one set of "Big Brother" lessons to every student in American schools.

Local control of education is a deeply held tradition in each of the United States, and Michigan is no exception.

"With videotapes produced by a single organization and transmitted across the land, there is serious danger that we will evolve a single curriculum for the country," said Yates.

This, he comments, "would be stifling and it denies the fact that there are people with diverse needs, capabilities and interests for whom one curriculum would not work as well or be as satisfying as would another."

In addition to the "Big Brother" aspect of the projected nationwide airborne classroom instruction, the FCC itself has noted a possible defect in the MPATI plan for six permanent channels.

There are only 69 channels in the ultra high frequency band. The experience with MPATI the past five years has included some interference to adjacent channels in the Midwest.

FCC officials say nine Michigan UHF channels would be rendered imperfect or unusable if the MPATI request was approved. The reception damage would be caused, the FCC said, to Benton Harbor's channel 72, channels 74 and 80 in Kalamazoo, 78 in Muskegon, 83 in Jackson, both 58 and 64 in Battle Creek, 60 in Lansing and 66 in Ann Arbor.

Man is resourceful—he can always find plenty of excuses, even though he has no reasons.

The big problem in getting a college education today seems to be in finding a place to park.

European Reunion to Highlight Trip for Two Friends This Summer

Jane Ballard

Jane Richards

It will be a summer of reunions for a Cass City girl slated to visit Europe as an exchange student under the auspices of Teenage Youth for Understanding, sponsored by the Council of Churches.

Jane Ballard, 16-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Ballard, Cass City, will leave June 20 for Sweden where she will spend two months with Amalie Claus, a former exchange student to Cass City, and her family.

Sometime this month, at a time and place still to be announced, Jane will be reunited with another friend, Jane Richards, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richards, Rochester, former Cass City residents. Miss Richards is also slated to be an exchange student under the same program.

"Inseparable"

The two Janes were next door neighbors from 1955 to 1959 and according to Mrs. Ballard, they were "inseparable." The fact that they will both be taking part in the same program is purely coincidental as neither was aware the other had applied.

Jane Ballard, the first student from Cass City to be selected as an exchange student, was picked to participate after submitting her application to the exchange program.

According to Jane, applicants are selected on basis of leadership, scholarship, church interest and "must be a general, all-around teenager... representative of teenagers of America." Jane is a student council representative and chairman of the school's exchange committee. She is a member of the Spanish club.

Works Part-time

She has worked part-time since August as a clerk at Mac & Scott's Drug Store. Tentative plans call for her to attend college, although she hasn't decided where.

Jane is one of seven children, four girls and three boys. Her father is a Cass City physician.

A junior at Cass City High School, Jane will fly from Detroit's Metropolitan Airport to Sweden. Complete details on the trip are still indefinite and it is expected more details will be handed out at the meeting this month.

The girls, who haven't seen each other for about a year, will be reunited at this meeting. Jane Richards will be going to Germany and Miss Ballard may also visit her there.

Jane Richards

The Richards girl is a junior at Rochester High School and is one of 12 students selected from there for the exchange.

While in Cass City, her father was employed at Michigan Pipe Company in Gagetown and her mother was a second grade teacher at Campbell Elementary School. He is now sales engineer for Saran Lined Pipe Company, a division of Michigan Pipe Co. in Ferndale, and Mrs. Richards is a fourth grade teacher at Hamlin Elementary in Rochester.

Her sister, Linda, is a junior at Bowling Green State University where she is president of Delta Zeta Sorority.

Miss Richards is a member of the honor society, the Literary Club and works as assistant in the school language lab.

Amalie Claus

Jane Ballard's stay in Sweden will be with Amalie Claus. Miss Claus was a year-long exchange student to Cass City in 1962-63 and spent part of her stay with the Ballards.

Tineke van Eerde, Cass City current exchange student from Holland, is also part of the same exchange program.

American students usually only exchange during the summer because, according to Miss Ballard, language barriers would make longer stays difficult for students.

Her expenses will be paid by her parents, although under school sponsored exchanges, student expenses are sometimes paid by the schools or organizations.

Jane expressed no apprehension about traveling alone. "I'll be traveling with a group and we'll separate when we meet our host families," she explained.

It takes a real pessimist to sit around and hatch out misery.

Smiles cost less than frowns and make the whole world brighter.

THE GAVEL CLUB through the years has been a strong factor in promoting track at Cass City High School. Saturday's invitational meet is just one in a long string of projects for the club.

The new hurdles are the most recent. They replace the old wood hurdles at the school. They were built by the club at Ed Baker's workshop. Much of the painting was completed at the home of Glen "Scotty" McCullough.

Bob Stickle shows the team trophy and holds the team runner-up trophy for the invitational. The runner-up award is new this year. Individual plaques are presented to winners in the meet.

23 Teams Gird for Gavel Invitational

Will anybody break the domination of Flint area schools in the annual Gavel Club Invitational Track Meet Saturday? That's the question that some 23 coaches of area high schools are asking as they prepare their squads for the big meet.

For the Invitational has grown into one of mid-Michigan's largest meets and the grand first place and runner-up trophies are becoming prestige-laden awards.

Despite some outstanding performers, there were no new meet records set last year as Kearsley won its third team title.

Records such as Cass City's Paul Holmberg's broad jump of 21 feet, six and a half inches and Frankmuth's Voorheis, blistering dashes of :9.78 in the 100 and :21.7 in the 220 stood up for another year.

One of the best bets for a new record this year is a Cass City entry, Walter Hempton. Hempton set a new record in the high jump in a dual meet and could easily establish a new mark Saturday.

Barring bad weather between now and meet time, Coach Oarie Lemanski says that the track should be fast for the meet. Tournament Manager Bob Stickle says that preliminaries will start at 12:30 p.m. and the finals will start around 6 p.m.

Gone Fishing 'Steard of Wishing

In a flash back to last season, two happy trout fishermen take time out to compare their day's winnings, a nice-sized catch of rainbows. It's times like this they've been hankering for all winter long. And come Apr. 25, they'll be able to get back to their fishing instead of just wishing. For this is the opener of another thrill-filled regular trout season in Michigan. It's a mighty big target date for other anglers, too. Except for black bass, all fish become legal hook and line catches Apr. 25 throughout the state's inland waters.—Mich. Dept. of Conservation

VILLAGE OF CASS CITY COUNCIL MEETING

A Special Meeting of the Council of the Village of Cass City was held on Tuesday, April 14, 1964, at 7:00 o'clock p.m. All members were present except that Mr. Root arrived late.

Motion by Auten seconded by Althaver that Maurice Ransford be appointed to the office of Village Attorney at a fee of $200.00 per year. Yea-5. Nay-0. Motion carried.

President Rabideau censored council members for poor attendance and tardiness at both regular and special meetings.

The clerk was instructed to write a letter to Mr. Fred Tripp of the State Highway Department in Lansing, asking him to come to Cass City for a meeting with officials concerning improvement of M-81.

Motion by Rawson seconded by Freiburger that the village purchase $50.00 worth of Chamber of Commerce Brochures. Yea-5. Nay-0. Motion carried.

Mr. Rawson took the floor to make numerous charges against Village Officials and employees substantially as follows but not necessarily in the order written:

That he had checked with several members and it was his impression that the Village was being run by 2 or 3 members over a cup of coffee;

That employees have completed major projects without council approval;

That the council was not informed as to what is going on in the Village;

That the council was not acting as a council;

That he had requested a council meeting and that it was six days before one was held;

That no councilman had spoken to him or called him since he was elected to office and that he should have been called and informed as to what is going on;

That he had checked back four years and that it was impossible for him to determine what has been going on because the minutes are so incomplete;

That he was here to straighten things out and that as long as he is on the council things will be properly done;

That with regards to a letter from the office of Thomas McAllister who is representing Arthur Caister and Stanley Asher, a letter that demanded settlement or promised a suit against the Village, the Village president exceeded his authority in not submitting the letter to the council at an earlier date and that unauthorized persons had read the letter.

Mr. Rawson submitted the following letter which he requested be made a part of the record:

April 13, 1964
Mr. D. E. Rawson
6506 Church Street
Cass City, Michigan
Dear Mr. Rawson:

From my conversations with you I understand that Village employees have completed projects not authorized by a vote of the Village Council. I also understand that certain members of the Village Council, acting as council members but without authority from the Village Council, are the ones who took the steps necessary to complete said projects. We also understand that said Village councilmen have withheld certain information received by them in connection with said projects from the other members of the Village Council.

We believe that because of the acts mentioned above said Village officers have been guilty of official misconduct and that the statutes of the State of Michigan provide for removal from office of village officers because of misconduct on their part. Because the projects were not authorized by the Village Council, the individual members who acted without authority are ultimately responsible for any damages suffered by others because of the completion of said projects.

We also feel that your examination of the minutes taken by the Village Clerk can be relied upon as it is the legal duty of the Clerk to record all the proceedings and resolutions taken by and made by the Village Council.

Yours truly,
Kern & Kern
Richard F. Kern

An attempt was made by President Rabideau and Mr. Auten to explain a few of the actions of Council, how and why said action came about, who was involved in making decisions connected therewith and reasons for said decisions.

Mr. Freiburger asked Rawson what he would propose as a solution to the situation involving the trees and Rawson replied that since the trees were gone he thought the Village should continue with the project.

Mr. Rawson said that he was gratified to learn that the council enjoyed more harmony than he had believed.

It was agreed that Alvah Hillman be re-hired to handle the park maintenance again this year.

Motion by Auten seconded by Althaver that the letter from the office of Thomas McAllister, representing Arthur Caister and Stanley Asher, not be answered. Yea-4. Rawson Nay. Seals abstained. Motion carried.

Council members agreed to have an unofficial meeting at 7:00 o'clock a.m. each Wednesday. President Rabideau suggested that some thought should be given to the City Manager form of government.

It was agreed that the next regular meeting be held one week early on April 21st instead of the 28th so as not to interfere with the Chamber of Commerce dinner.

Motion by Auten seconded by Freiburger that the meeting be adjourned.

Thirty-five Years Ago

Tragic happenings in 17th century England are casting their shadow over the Albion college campus -- but the shadow is a pleasant one, tall and full of pep. But for the activities of Oliver Cromwell, who, in 1649, caused King Charles I to be beheaded, Frederick Hemerick, of Gagetown, a freshman in the Methodist school, would today be the prince of Wales under the Stuart regime. The downfall of Charles I practically ended the sovereignty of the House of Stuart, although it gave two more kings to the throne. The Albion student's grandmother was an only child and the last of the Stuarts as far as the name was concerned. She came to this country with her parents and married a man named Hemerick. Their only son, F. D. Hemerick, now lives in Gagetown, and but for Cromwell's ambitions would now be king of England.

Ralph Loney's Herefords topped the Detroit market on Monday when he sold eight head of 12-month-old steers and heifers at $112.00 each.

Fifteen farmers in this community will grow Russet Rural potatoes from certified seed this season, having purchased seed from M. C. Mount of Mayville, whose crop yielded 300 bushels to the acre. They are: Frank Cranick, Walter Schell, Alex McLachlan, Elmer Chapman, John Dilman, William Churchill, Ephraim Knight, Clarence Merchant, Clifton Heller, Alex Ross, Roy Anthes, Clarence Quick, Verne Carpenter, Charles Doerr and Stacy Vatters.

KOMMENTS BY KRAFT

I'll Take It Up With The Council

By Dave Kraft

I was sitting at the table this morning and it suddenly dawned on me as I was eating my cereal, the one and only cereal that comes in the shape of little animals:

You can't tell what the little animals are.

Now this is a heck of a way to start the day. Life is already one uncertainty after another and then something like this comes up.

You can see the type of problem that arises. You spoon up what you think is a spoonful of little bears and you wind up with a mouthful of little elephants.

Now if I want to bite a bear in the morning, I want to bite a bear. If I want to bite a rhinoceros . . . rhinoceros . . . heck with it, you know what I mean, I want to bite a you-know-what.

Ending up with a mouthful of elephants by mistake is enough to make you change cereals. Besides, if there's anything I can't stand at 7:15 in the morning, it's elephant . . . brack!

I'm fixin' to write the company and point out to them that they'll either have to get a new set of animal cutters or label each animal.

There's no sense to this sort of thing. I pay good money for a box of the one and only cereal that comes in the shape of little animals and for all the good it does me, I might as well have bought cornflakes.

I think I'll bring it up to the council at the next meeting. That's it: I'll sue the council — if they don't get the cereal company to make plainer animals.

Or I'll threaten to spread rumors that the village is going to cut down all the trees in town . . . that ought to get some action.

I think we should all get excited about this. We pay our taxes and our taxes are used to pay the fabulous salaries of the councilmen. All they do is meet once a month and sit around and fight over whose trees to cut down next.

I wonder if I can get free curb and gutter . . . ?

I got a package in the mail the other day with just my picture and the address of the paper on the front. The boys down at the post office sent it right on through, just like they knew what they were doing.

It was wrapped in a paper towel and had a Cass City postmark. Inside was a book entitled, "The Left Handed Dictionary," compiled by Leonard Louis Levinson.

That's all, just the book. No other identification. I immediately called the post office and got Pat Rabideau.

I asked him who had sent it and he said, "I'll have to take the fifth." To which I replied, "It wasn't a fifth, it was only a book." To which he replied, "I am not at liberty to divulge that information." To which I hung up.

It's a book of goofy definitions such as: "Lisp — to call a spade a thupade." Or "Maternity hospital — an heirport." Or "Gulch — a dirty crack."

Some are hilarious and others are not so good.

I was in the Pinney State Bank a day or two ago and Fred Pinney told me a story about a robin that's been hanging around his place.

Seems the poor thing doesn't have any tail feathers. Consequently, when he pulls a worm out of the ground, he has nothing to brace himself with and he falls flat on his back.

This may be pretty funny to onlookers, but most robins will tell you that this sort of thing is pretty discouraging.

He also has a little trouble taking off and, I imagine, landing.

All this prompted Fred to comment, "And you think you've got trouble with your wife moving your car seat ahead."

Oh, by the way Vern, just so you won't think that you're the only joker that gets goodies for our trip, let me tell you what I got the other day from Mrs. Gerald Prieskorn.

Boiled quail eggs . . .

Just the sort of thing one needs to round out camping provisions. What I don't understand is how they got eggs out of a boiled quail.

THE DEPENDABLES: SUCCESS CARS OF '64

Amazing how little it costs to put a roof over your head

Amazing? Most people are downright flabbergasted the first time they check out a new compact Dart. Pop goes the top. But the price just sits there low and easy to take.

It's even more amazing when you consider all that makes a Dart a Dart. Room, for instance. Size it up with knees, head, elbows, or luggage. You'll find large economy-size room—as much stretch-out and load space as in many standard-size cars. And there's large economy-size power to go with it... from a 170 cu. in. standard Six to an optional punchy 273 V-6.

Amazing? You bet. It's what happens when a quality car maker builds a compact bigger and quicker and then tops it off with such good looks.

IT SEEMS TO ME

I'm Proud To Have Been At Dundee

By the Rev. Robert J. Searls

The Rev. James Braid loaned me a copy of a recent Pontiac newspaper, whose lead editorial bore the same title as this column. How about it, Editor Haire, shall we sue them?

Good Friday services locally this year introduced two new ministers to the congregation: Jerry Ray Helman of the Assembly of God and Richard Spencer of the Church of the Nazarene. We met both of these fine young ministers and can predict that these two churches will be led into further paths of church cooperation! Or, so it seems to me.

Incidentally, the ecumenical movement was given another good boost locally when, at the Good Friday services, four local pastors participated as four others sat in the congregation: and to whom did they listen? To a layman, Arthur Holmberg!

Right now, I am proud to have been, at one time, a minister (of the Dundee Methodist Church) at Dundee, Michigan. Why? Lately the press has reported that Samuel McDonald, a Dundee high school teacher and a Negro, was unfortunate enough to have a near fatal auto accident near Ann Arbor on January 31. Dundee is an all-white community, although there are some Negro pupils 'bussed' to the school. Organizations and individuals recently made an all-out effort to raise enough money to cover the costs of surgical and medical bills. Superintendent Harry Nelson reports that the money has come from most of the 50 states, and totals nearly $4,000! McDonald is still in an Ann Arbor hospital, but the good news about his bills should aid his gradual recovery -- and who knows how many other persons along the way.

Or, so it seems to me.

I noted a release in the Detroit News (this paper's competition in a southern suburb of Cass City) that 59 hospitals in Michigan have removed cigarette vending machines from their premises. After the federal report on the relation between certain types of cancer and smoking, it makes sense not to have such machines in hospitals, at least. I have not contacted either local hospital, but will welcome (as I am certain you will) a news release from the administrators concerning this.

Did you take note of the large advertisements in popular space in the big city papers last weekend (April 5)? Sponsored by the Allied Florists' Association, they contained a questionnaire they asked you to fill out, sign, and mail in. This seemed to arise from a sincere effort to improve their funeral customs but, in actuality, the ads that I saw assumed most of the points of criticism, and started from there. Or, so it seems to me.

I found this little story amusing, so thought I would pass it along (knowing that my Krafty colleague will probably claim credit for it, if he doesn't steal it outright). "Mom," the little shaver asked, "is the stork that brought me the same stork that brings ants, spiders and frogs?" "Yes, dear," she answered. "Then you didn't do so bad after all, did you?"

Ridgway Takes Part In Calif. Exercises

Marine Private First Class James C. Ridgway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Ridgway of Cass City, participated in a large scale counter-guerrilla exercise March 23 through April 1 with the First Marine Division's First Regiment at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The regiment engaged in the problem of suppressing guerrilla activity with organized military force. To inject realism into the exercise, 220 Marines played the role of guerrillas.

The ten-day problem encompassed almost all of the 126,000-acre military reservation of Camp Pendleton.

Today's automation has caused many people to realize they can earn only what they're worth.

Dusk, those periods of the day around sunup and sundown, are found by safety experts to be particularly bad times for accidents. There's only one answer: drivers should be extra cautious at such times.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night come out strong again this plan for "streamlining" the Congress. It looks from the papers like the folks back home is complaining on account of them Congressmen ain't gitting nothing done but yap more and more about less and less.

Ed Doolittle had some figgers he had took from a newspaper on what has happened since the last time things was reformed in the Congress in 1946. First off, this reform Act of 1946 said the Congress should adjourn by July 31 ever year except in time of war. According to this piece Ed was showing the fellers, they ain't adjourned but twice in them 17 years by July 31 and that was in 1952 and 1956 when we was electing a President and they had to get back home and do some politicking.

Furthermore, the 1946 Act reduced the committees in the Senate from 35 to 15, and in the House from 48 to 19. After 17 years of reform we now got 106 committees in the Senate and 152 in the House.

But the main reason we can't stand no more streamlining of the Congress, allowed Ed, was on account of the costs. In 1946 when we got our last streamlining job it was costing $22 million a year to operate the Congress, and the figgers for the physical year ending July 1, 1965, is $179 million, a increase of 800 per cent in 17 years.

All the fellers was agreed that one more streamlining job on the Congress and the cost would git in orbit. It was also noted by Clem Webster that them Congressmen might not even git adjourned in time for the presidential election and the voters would be bad handicapped without their advice in these matters.

It might be a public service, Mister Editor, if you'd write a editorial warning the voters to keep quiet as a mouse on this matter and not push it.

Next to not streamlining the Congress, the fellers was of the opinion that the next most pressing domestic problem was how to keep the husbands in this country from running off and leaving their wives. Zeke Grubb had a item from the U. S. Tracer Company reporting that 75,000 husbands took off from home in 1963 and ain't been heard about since.

This item said more and more husbands has been disappearing ever year since 1950 and that it had reached a all-time high last year. They just pack up their clothes when the old lady is gone and take off fer good.

All the fellers was afeared that unless we can put the stopper in this jug, grass widows would get to be as big a problem in America as the Congress.

Yours truly,
