

Still No Site for High School

Cass City Board of Education officers were empowered Monday night to sign a contract with Warren Holmes, Lansing architectural firm, to start preliminary work on the proposed new Cass City High School building. The move came during the regular Board of Education meeting at the high school.

The preliminary work will consist of aid in selecting a site, help in presenting the proposition to district voters and preliminary drawings.

If the proposition fails, there are two ways open to reimburse the architects. They may either be paid for time and work done or by taking one-half per cent of the estimated cost of the most costly project submitted to the voters. The board intimated it would probably use the latter scale.

President Horace Bulen reported that no decision has been reached in a site for the new school. He stated that the architects had expressed a preference for one location. No action, however, will be taken until the architect's reasons for the preference could be examined.

Contracts Let

Contracts for gas, fuel oil and insurance were let to three local firms following the opening of bids.

Cass City Oil and Gas was the low bidder for bus gas and both weights of fuel oil, with bids of 23.9 cents a gallon for bus gas; 10.89 cents a gallon for No. 2 fuel oil, and 9.64 cents a gallon for No. 4 fuel oil. The bid on No. 2 fuel oil was almost one cent a gallon cheaper than the firm's price for last year.

Frank Meiser was low bidder on gas for the driver training cars with a bid of 23.98 cents a gallon.

Bus insurance went to Harris-Hampshire Insurance Agency with a low bid of $391.13 for the fleet. This also included insurance on two buses during the summer.

Review Policies

A request for use of one of the school rooms for an evening art class sparked a discussion of school policies and resulted in formation of a three-member committee to examine existing policies and suggest new policies.

Named to the committee were Mrs. Gerald Prieskorn, Don Reid and Elwyn Helwig, all board members.

Approval was given to Mrs. James Bauer to use the art room for Wednesday night classes until cold weather prevents its use.

Bus Controversy

A study on the age of leased buses and the longevity of buses is slated to get under way for the purpose of advising the board whether some buses being used should be retired.

The question of the condition of leased buses cropped up during discussion of a salary increase of $100 for Harold Kilbourn, Deford. Kilbourn leases two buses to the school. The raise was approved.

Chief complaint was that some of the buses leased by the school date into the early '60's and their reliability was questioned.

In other bus business, a request by Don DeLong, bus driver, that his wife be allowed to drive in his place during an expected 20-day leave of absence was approved, provided she is a qualified driver.

The contracts of the three new teachers, Mrs. Geraldine Tibbitts, Mrs. Martha Butcher and Robert Gray, were approved.

Also approved was a resolution authorizing the Deford School annexation election for Friday, Oct. 2.

Reverse Decision

An earlier decision that bus drivers be requested to park their buses at the school and not at their village residences was reversed and the matter will be handled on an individual basis. The reversal came after it was learned that only one complaint

Concluded on page three.

William Stewart, diagnostician, lashed out at the supervision of the Intermediate School District in relation to its handling of the special education program in Tuscola county in a letter of resignation to the board, Wednesday, Aug. 5.

He said that the resignation was based on "considerable thought and the conviction that severe administrative problems in special education are contributing to erratic quality of services, a poor public image, misunderstanding and dissatisfaction in the local schools and lack of staff confidence in the ability and integrity of the administration. There has been a disastrous decline in morale.

"Concerted efforts have been made by the staff to effect constructive change through discussion with the administration. Results have been amazingly fruitless in view of administrative expression of interest in, and agreement with, the staff on many crucial issues."

Both diagnosticians employed last year have resigned and Dick Reva, a pioneer speech therapist in the county, has also resigned.

Handling the diagnosticians' work this year will be William Cannon, who became qualified this summer. He will replace the two men who worked in the county during the last school year. The county is allowed two full-time men and two-fifths of the time of a third teacher.

William Scott, Intermediate Superintendent, said that the county was short-handed but pointed out that all other districts . . . Huron, Bay City, LaPeer and others, were operating below the quota of teachers because of a shortage of qualified teachers for the positions. He went on to say that the program in the county was bigger than any diagnostician and that the interest of the kids was the most important phase of the program.

There are nine persons employed in special education in the county. Besides the diagnosticians, there are a teacher-counselor for physical therapy, a visiting teacher and five speech therapists.

Planners Submit Solution for Streets

Meeting in special session last week, the Cass City Planning Commission has come up with its recommendations for the proper procedure on the controversial West and Leach streets in Cass City.

The streets have been a center of strife in the village since a program was started this spring that entailed cutting of the trees in the area. Under the new plan, no more trees will be cut.

The commission has changed the emphasis on Leach street from moving traffic to parking. Leach will be a 55-foot street for a full block north and a half block south of Main. One-way traffic has been suggested with entrance only from Main street.

The area will have angle two-hour parking and there will be a 5 1/2-foot sidewalk the full block on each side, if the council follows the planning board suggestions.

West Street

West street will be handled differently north and south of Main, if the present plan is followed. The street north of Main will be treated as a secondary thoroughfare entering into a residential area.

All secondary streets have been planned for a 42-foot width and this is the width that the street will become. Parallel parking only will be allowed and the sidewalks will be replaced with the proper grade.

South of Main the street will be enlarged for parking. A 55-foot roadway is suggested with angle two-hour parking.

In previous discussions, West street had been regarded as a secondary thoroughfare to Garfield to handle traffic to the industrial area. The plan changes this conception and the commission members will be looking for another street for access to the area.

Not Effective

Although these recommendations by the commission represent a good deal of study, they will not be effective until they are approved by the village council, members of the commission said.

Villagers Jailed By Sheriff's Deputies

Two Cass City men were arrested by Sheriff's deputies during the last week, one on an assault and battery charge, and the other for probation violation.

Brian Reid, 22, Cass City, was released from County Jail Saturday on $100 bond following his arrest Wednesday, Aug. 5, in Cass City on an assault and battery charge.

Cornelius P. Michels, 19, Cass City, was arrested in Gagetown for violation of his probation Tuesday night, Aug. 4. He was released the following day by Probation Officer John Belson.

School To Stay In Debt

Cass City School will probably be from $5,000 to $10,000 in debt at the end of the 1964-65 school year, Supt. Donald Crouse revealed Tuesday to members of the Cass City Rotary Club.

Crouse, Bill Ruhl and Donald Reid spoke to Rotarians about school problems.

Crouse explained that the school ended this year in the red and would do so again next year.

To pay expenses on current operating millage, which is lower than any similar system in the Thumb, it would be necessary to cut the cost of the instructional, supervisory or maintenance programs, Crouse said. Any of these three are definitely undesirable as either postponing and later increasing costs or reducing the quality of education.

Deford Annexation Ruhl told of the proposed Deford annexation. He explained that the annexation would increase local taxes by about a quarter of a mill (25¢ per $1000 of the state's equalized valuation) because each district would be assuming the other's indebtedness.

But if we build our proposed new school, he said, then Deford taxpayers would be helping us pay for the building.

School Sites

Reid explained the special site committee's work on locating a site for the proposed new high school.

He explained the four sites under consideration that were previously announced and said that the committee was waiting for a recommendation from the architect before presenting its recommendation to the board.

Youth Dies in Accident

Gary Lapp, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lapp of Cass City, was fatally injured Wednesday at 11:45 a.m. when he was struck by a car driven by Louis Babich of Deford.

Babich reported that the boy was riding his bike on the shoulder of Cemetery Road, about a mile south of Cass City, when he turned in front of his car. He was travelling about 60 miles per hour and was unable to swerve enough to miss the youth, he told investigating officers.

Coroner J. Benson Collon said that death was due to a skull fracture. The body was taken to Little's Funeral Home.

Supervisors Seek $5,000 for Retarded

A $5,000 appropriation to the Tuscola County Retarded Children's Center for 1964 was recommended by Tuscola County Supervisors Monday during their regular August session in Caro.

The board made the recommendation to the Intermediate School District Board, suggesting that the money be taken from the three-fourths mill special education tax.

In the past the supervisors have made contributions to the training center but of late have run into trouble with the State auditor general, Billie Farnum, who maintains that they may not use tax money as donations.

Library Board

Naming of persons to a County Library Board which would regulate distribution of penal monies to credited libraries in the county was referred to the Education Committee until the September session.

At that time, the committee is to submit a list of persons to be appointed and who would accept the appointments.

Funds Approved

A letter was received from the Michigan Boating Control Commission approving matching funds for waterway patrolling and law enforcement. The county contributed $600 on the purchase of a new boat and the letter approved an additional $1,200. The boat and trailer were purchased last in June.

Attack Ruling

Adoption and endorsement of a resolution from Ingham County supervisors to all Michigan supervisors was approved by the board. Concluded on page three.

Seek Novesta Oil Lease

The Novesta Township Board has scheduled a special meeting Thursday, Aug. 20, at 8 p.m. at the town hall to receive authorization from voters to drill an oil well at the Novesta Township Dump.

Approval is expected to be a formality. The land will be leased to the C. J. Simpson Petroleum Co. of Mt. Pleasant. Officials of the company say they expect to drill 9,000 feet at the township site.

There have been several previous attempts to find oil in the vicinity in recent years. Three different drillings have not produced oil in commercial quantities.

Wright Leases Mobil Station

Announcement was made this week by the Neeb Corporation of Bad Axe of the leasing of their station in Cass City to Charles Wright.

The Mobil station here was recently repainted and the driveway repaired.

Wright says that a grand opening will be held in the near future.

Offers Thanks to Park Promoters

Mrs. Dorothy Rocheleau, Gagetown Park chairman, offered her thanks this week, in an end-of-season report, to all those persons who assisted the committee during the summer in financing and running a recreation program.

She gave special thanks to Dan O'Rourke, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Rourke of Gagetown, for his assistance in teaching tennis at the park.

She also listed a number of other persons and organizations who contributed to the success of the park program for the year.

"We hope you too are pleased with the progress made and will continue to be interested in your community project," the report urged Gagetown residents.

"Rumors are that bigger and better things are in the making for this community project in the future," she concluded.

From the Editor's Corner

The Cass City/Planning Commission has come up with a plan that seems to us to be well thought out and one that should be acceptable to all reasonable persons.

The provisions on Leach street and south West street provide more parking for the business district. The changes on north West street and the half block past the alley on south Leach street protect the interests of the residential persons in the area.

It undoubtedly is not what everyone concerned hoped to see, but it does consider the best interest of the community and all of the persons involved.

We hope that the council adopts it and that it receives the strong support of the community.

From this experience it is likely that a more effective use of the planning commission will be made. It is also nearly sure that a longer range street program will be developed.

These developments are ones that should prove beneficial to the community in the years ahead.

Writing the Shabbona news this week is Mrs. Arthur Severance, our new correspondent from the area. We are pleased to welcome her to the Chronicle staff.

Crash Cause Still in Doubt

A 38-year-old Livonia cropduster is still in Hills and Dales Hospital after miraculously escaping serious injury in the crash of his single-place plane Monday morning a half-mile south of Gagetown.

Ed Clements, pilot for Skyway Crop Dusting, Ann Arbor, received a cut on his forehead and other cuts and abrasions when his light plane slammed into a hill on the John Stockla farm just outside Gagetown at about 10:00 a.m.

Bad Axe State Police were to have talked to Clements sometime Wednesday to determine what caused the crash.

Ervin Walrod and his brother-in-law, Bill Slaughter, were standing by Walrod's house, directly across from the crash scene and saw the plane crash.

"He came up, made a turn, straightened out and then hit the top of the hill," Walrod reports. Walrod stated that the plane's motor was running right up to the time of impact.

State police speculated that the pilot may have been lower than he thought. It was also speculated that he may have lost too much air speed in the turn.

Walrod immediately told his wife to call the fire department but the line was busy with a call from another neighbor who had seen the crash and was calling an ambulance. Walrod then drove into Gagetown and notified the fire department.

First on the scene were Slaughter and Leslie Beach. They reported that Clements was unconscious and was bleeding from a cut on the forehead.

Clements was wearing his seat belt and crash helmet which were instrumental in saving his life.

The plane suffered a crumpled right wing and extensive damage to the engine and front end.

Clements had nearly completed spraying 55 acres of beans owned by John Tenczer on the Stockla farm when he crashed.

He was working for Farm Chemical of Cass City, managed by Bill O'Dell. The plane was stationed at the Keith Little farm.

Al Swartz, Skyway Crop Dusting owner, reported that it was Clements' second crash. His first crash happened in 1953.

August

Most city dwellers do complain When August comes and brings no rain
The sidewalks burn their weary feet
Temper and temperature compete
They mop their brow and slow their pace
And wish they were some other place
And yet when winter does return For summer's pleasures they will yearn.

Don't wait for winter to return before you have any gas problems checked. And did you know that if you're thinking of converting to gas heat, you can trade in your oil heater. Like to talk to us about it? We're at

A few years ago the postal authorities clamped down on an enterprising young man who, through the mail, was selling a guaranteed fly killer. It consisted of two blocks of wood that were lettered A and B... along with the instructions. The instructions being to -

1. Catch a fly
2. Place him on Block A
3. Hit him with Block B

It was good for a laugh, a short lived profit, and a jail sentence, because, even though through a wild stretch of the imagination it would work, it was basically dishonest. He'll have a hard time rebuilding a reputation for fairness and honesty because such reputations are not built out of thin air or overnight.

The modern day business man must build his reputation on being the foremost, the fair-most and not resort to the use of tricks, traps or gimmicks.

BULEN MOTORS, for example, has built a reputation in this area. The reason being that even though BULEN sells more cars than others in the area they never urge you to buy a car which may cause you financial hardship.

It is the sincere desire of BULEN'S that each new transaction will make a new friend because of honest dealing and not disclose any fly traps that can ruin their well-earned reputation.

CLEANUP - your best opportunity to buy a new car for the least possible money outlay. Let us show you.

GUARANTEE: We can warrant your NEW CHEVROLET or OLDSMOBILE for as long as you own it, and without charge. May we tell you the story?

Highway Fund Share is $3,851

Cass City is slated to receive $3,851 as its share of $49,039,482 in second quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections payments to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

Other area villages slated to receive portions of the funds include Gagetown-$1,335 and Kingston-$984.

Tuscola county is to receive $169,496 as compared to $163,460 in Sanilac county and $159,607 in Huron county.

The net total of the fund is some $1,773,942 or 3.7 per cent higher than for a corresponding period in 1963.

Highway Fund collections come from gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees. After deduction of collection costs and the Waterways Commission's share, the money is distributed under provisions of state law which provide that 47 per cent goes to the State Highway Department for use on state highways, 35 per cent to the State's 83 counties for use on county roads and 18 per cent to 520 incorporated cities and villages for their roads and streets.

Under this formula, the State Highway Department will receive $23,043,556 as its share, counties will receive $17,163,819 and the incorporated cities and villages will get $8,827,107.

New Visiting Hours Set at Hills and Dales

Administrator Richard Palm this week announced changes in visiting hours at Hills and Dales General Hospital.

The new hours will be from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. daily. The expanded visiting hours have been inaugurated for two reasons, Palm said. It will give more opportunity for visitors to see patients and will also help relieve crowded parking conditions in the hospital's parking lot.

Palm stressed that the 15-minute per visit for non-relatives regulation was still in effect and that visiting hours from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. for private room patients remain unchanged.

SUPERVISORS

The resolution expresses concern over a recent Supreme Court ruling entitling every convicted criminal in jail to a hearing on his case.

The ruling also provides for a free attorney and a free transcript all paid for by the county. Clerk Archie Hicks maintained, in an interview Tuesday, that the move could cost several thousand dollars a year and would "wipe out" some of the smaller counties.

As an example, he mentioned that transcripts cost over a dollar a page to reproduce and some transcripts contain several hundred pages.

Copies of the county's decision, which seeks a meeting between the Supreme Court and State supervisors to reconsider the ruling, were sent to the Supreme Court, and local senator and representative.

Millage Brochures

Sample brochures to be used in the push to pass a special millage levy of 1.25 mills for two years for the purpose of building a new county jail were handed out to the supervisors.

To be mailed to county residents, the brochure features a picture of the jail on the cover with a brief outline of the problem, what is being proposed and what the new jail will provide. It also contains a scale for computing the individual taxpayer's cost.

Resolutions honoring two supervisors who died recently, Roy Sylvester and James Osborn, were approved. Also approved was a resolution urging county voters to exercise their voting privileges during the coming elections.

Three new names were added to the existing five-member Special Safety Committee following a request from its chairman, Clarence Buchinger. Appointed were Carson Leach, Millington supervisor, Sheriff Hugh Marr and Robert Wellington, road commission engineer.

I Was Just Brushing Off Flies

By Dave Kraft

Got a letter the other day with some cleverly drawn pictures of mice placed all around the envelope. Darn near drove 'em crazy down at the post office trying to figure out what it was all about.

As I often do, I opened the letter and looked at the signature first. It was signed, "Anonymous," naturally.

The letter dealt with Meredith Auten's excursion on the Ferris wheel when the sidewalk sale was on.

I quote: "Speaking of Meredith Auten's monkeyshines, why don't you ask him what came of the chicken a friend brought him, live, to the bank and of the goat he staked in her in-town-Saginaw yard?"

I'll tell you why I don't ask Meredith. 'Cause I might want to make a loan sometime, that's why.

"You shattered my ideals of you the other day. I saw you swat the Chronicle's boxer dog with a copy of the Chronicle. Shame! You should be more careful and do such things in private. You know what happened when President Johnson fooled with his dogs. Ha! Ha!"

I deny the whole incident. In the first place, it wasn't a copy of the Chronicle, it was a copy of the Caro Advertiser that I just happened to pick up off the street. Secondly, I was not swatting the dog, I was merely brushing off some flies.

Just because I misjudged my swing and knocked the dog to her knees doesn't signify malicious intent.

"Do you know that Susan Greenleaf hatched an egg on a heat pad and that she has a rabbit that wears diapers. Keep up the good work."

Let me get this straight. Does the rabbit wear diapers because the egg was hatched on the heat pad? Did she hatch the egg on the heat pad and get a rabbit? I've heard of rabbits laying eggs, but never of eggs hatching rabbits.

Something else. Who sat on the egg while it was on the heat pad? Sue or the rabbit?

Another thing. That last remark, "Keep up the good work!" Let's get it straight... I had nothing to do with the rabbit or the egg. Sue and I are just friends.

That doesn't sound right. What I mean is, Sue and I are just friends... I had nothing to do with the rabbit or the egg... Skip it.

I was in Flint Sunday for a couple of hours with my father-in-law, Walter Lee, Vassar, while he and several other men gave a concert as members of the Elf Khurafeh Shrine Band.

The concert was at Walter Winchester Hospital, a county home for the aged. Quite a nice place, very lovely grounds.

I immediately made myself unpopular with the band members. They set up the chairs in a small fenced-in enclosure and I merely asked if this was the sorting area... you know, where they sort out the ones who are going to stay and the ones who aren't.

A little later I did not ingratiate myself with the hospital administration by asking if Walter Winchester was any relation to Peter Gunn.

Most of the time I just sat there listening to the music, which was quite good. The Elf Khurafeh is a top ranking member of the Free Masons organization and they give concerts for patients and residents of a number of hospitals and institutions.

Something good generally comes out of every thing bad... some nut once said. Well, I found out Monday that he's not so very far from right.

I went out to the plane crash to get some pictures and just as I was leaving, I noticed this lady standing by my car. "Have you got anything in your car?" she calls out. "How'd ya mean?" I answers back.

"Something to put these in," says she, and as I walked around the car, she held out a large sheet of tin foil with about two pints of blackberries in it.

I asked her where she got them from and she was just as coy as John Krug was about his morrel mushroom place, answering with "Wouldn't you like to know?"

Anyhow, I was so taken by surprise by the gift that I forgot to ask her name, and now I can't thank her properly. So I'll just say, "Blackberry lady... thanks."

I was walking past Tyo's barbershop the other day and Alex called me in. As I walked in, he thrust a magazine into my hand and told me to read an ad in the classified department.

It read: "Moonshine Still -- Complete illustrated building instructions -- $2.00. Bradford Enterprises, Dept. 1-SA. P. O. Box 509, Rossville, Ga."

Now, here's what I'd like to do. If I can get enough backers, at, say 25 cents each, I'll send the $2.00 in and see what we get. Not that I'd ever build a still... heaven forbid.

I'd just like to see if it's legitimate and what a real still looks like... just in case I should ever run across one... out in the woods... or something.

Maybe I'd better make that 26 cents... postage, you know.

Honor Burke for 50 Years in Pharmacy

An award which comes to few individuals was received this summer by Grover H. Burke of St. Clair, a long-time Cass City resident prior to 1950, when the State Board of Pharmacy presented him with a 50-year certificate as a practicing pharmacist.

Although he retired as a full-time pharmacist after selling his drug store in Cass City to Raymond and Glenn McCullough many years ago, he has continued on an active part-time basis, filling in as a substitute or supply man at a number of locations in Michigan and in Florida. Along with this recognition came a life membership in the Michigan State Pharmacy Association.

Michigan is known as a "deficit" meat producing state as three-fifths of the red meat consumed must be imported from other areas.

Michigan's population of 8.2 million people provide a ready market for a large share of the state's production of fruits, vegetables, dairy, poultry and other farm products.

IT SEEMS TO ME A Rewarding Visit With an Old Friend

By the Rev. Robert J. Searls

I recently was able to spend some time with my old buddy and former colleague, the Rev. John Fish, who returned to our village to perform a wedding - sharing that service with the Rev. Marion Hostetter - and to preach as a guest preacher in the First Presbyterian Church. He is well-known here, where he previously served for more than five years with distinction; a friend to youth, active in service clubs (notably the Gavel Club) and dedicated to the cooperation between churches.

Along with Mrs. Fish and their three children, he now resides in Chicago's south side where, as many of you know, Mr. Fish is now a seminary student, again working for his Master's Degree.

It was good to see this fine young man again, to hear him inquire after many of the people of Cass City, and to learn firsthand how he is doing. Or, so it seems to me.

Recently I wrote of the constantly changing and improving church school materials used by various churches. Since that time, I have received a copy of some supplementary material published as Arch Books by one of the major publishing houses used primarily by Lutheran Churches. After reading the book in its entirety, I next gave it to my youngest, who read it quickly, pronouncing it interesting. Also, I have been told of new materials planned by other churches, taking into account such recent discoveries as the Dead Sea scrolls, and better printing techniques. It's good to know that the publishers of church school materials have this forward look. Or, so it seems to me.

One thing in society today on which nearly all churches agree is that all men (including Negroes) are equal in God's eyes. Southern Baptists are the latest to throw their weight and resources into the civil rights struggle. Also, it has been announced that the Ford Foundation has given a total of 13 million dollars to aid Negro colleges. These are positive steps taken where there are far too few positive steps. Or, so it seems to me.

I am happy to report that Bishop James W. Henley, of the Florida area, has written to every Methodist in St. Augustine, recent scene of bitter race riots, asking that Negroes desiring to worship in any Methodist Church not be turned away. Seeing Negroes turned from attendance at churches of my own denomination (some were arrested!) has made me squirm with embarrassment. How about you?

Harry Golden, best-selling author and editor of a weekly paper in the South, wrote the following: If in A.D. 65, computer studies had been made on religious preferences, they would have shown 51 per cent for Jupiter, 30 per cent for Zeus, about 9 per cent for Mithra, and about 1 per cent for Jesus.

So that little baldheaded Jew (St. Paul) who was promoting Jesus might have just gone home and said 'to heck with it.' But he had a book - he stayed - and that made the difference.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night came up with the proper strategy for electing the next President of the United States and solved the whole highway safety and parking problem in one big swoop. The debate on these matters lasted about a hour. I recollect during the last war when the Congress was in debate 3 days on the price of cabbage. The fellers was all agreed that what the Congress needs is a few members like Ed Doolittle to speed things up.

First off, Zeke Grubb brung along his latest pamphlet from the U. S. Department of Agriculture and give us the official figgers on how much land we got in the country and who owns it. The figgers, Mister Editor, was flabbergasting.

For instant, the piece says the United States and its possessions is made up of two and a quarter billion acres, or around 3.5 million square miles. The Government holds the title to 770,797,000 acres, or about 1.2 million square miles of all our land. It goes on to say that this is about 34 per cent, and that only 14 per cent is being used for military purposes and for housing all the Government buildings and operations. This leaves 20 per cent laying idle, and here is where the next President comes in.

Ed Doolittle claimed the non-violation explosion was pitting so had people was so crowded in some places they was sleeping in trees. Ed said he could recollect when he was a boy that when a neighbor got close enough fer you to hear his rooster crow in the morning, it was time to move on. Now, allowed Ed, your neighbor's rooster is setting on your barnyard fence.

It was voted that any candidate fer President that would run on a platform to parcel out them 154 million acres of idle land to folks that didn't already own no land at a dollar a acre, 10 acres to a customer, he would sweep the November election. That way, claimed Ed, folks would have room to throw out their chest and breathe some of this fine, tax-polluted air we got in this country.

Two plans was proposed fer solving the highway safety and parking problem. Clem Webster said if we'd git a law agin driving a car on the highways that was more'n two years old and the owner didn't have a clear title fer it, we'd have half the traffic and twice the parking space.

Bug Hookum was in favor of a plan to bar all wimmen from driving. He allowed as how wimmen was too stubborn to drive, said it didn't make sense that she could thread a needle and couldn't drive a car through a 12-foot garage door.

Clem's plan carried on a five to four vote. On account of my old lady might see this piece, I ain't saying, Mister Editor, how I voted on this item.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

One out of every four Michigan residents derives some if not all of his income from agribusiness.

Fewer and fewer Michigan farmers are selling poultry products, but those still in business are doing it with larger flocks and more labor-saving equipment.

THE HEART-BEET OF MICHIGAN

During 1963 Michigan farmers harvested and delivered over one million tons of beets to the state's five sugar factories for processing. This crop produced over 279,000,000 pounds of pure sparkling sugar for sale exclusively in Michigan during the current marketing year.

In an average year, the beet sugar industry of Michigan will derive from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 from the sugarbeet crop. From this crop Michigan sugarbeet growers will receive approximately $15,000,000 in company and conditional payments.

These dollars which the sugarbeet growers and processors of this state receive for sugar produced in Michigan affect economic units all around their own horizons and far beyond Michigan's 17 county beet producing area. Remember, every time a sugar beet grows—so does Michigan.

AUGUST 10, 1964

To: ALL STRIKING EMPLOYEES

BECAUSE OF THE WIDESPREAD MISUNDERSTANDING OF WHAT TOOK PLACE IN NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE COMPANY AND TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION No. 339, WE FEEL AN OBLIGATION TO DETAIL SOME OF THE EVENTS WHICH PRECEDED THE STRIKE NOW IN PROGRESS.

ON MAY 13, 1964, THE COMPANY MET WITH THE UNION NEGOTIATING COMMITTEE AND WAS PRESENTED WITH PROPOSALS CALLING FOR A WAGE INCREASE OF $1.00 PER HOUR, FRINGE BENEFITS WHICH WOULD HAVE ADDED AN ADDITIONAL $1.00 PER HOUR TO COMPANY COSTS, AND A LIST OF FIVE PAGES OF PROPOSED CONTRACT CHANGES.

IN SPITE OF THE UNION'S FANTASTIC DEMANDS, WHICH WOULD HAVE COST THE COMPANY MORE THAN $2.00 PER HOUR, PER MAN, COMPANY REPRESENTATIVES ENTERED INTO NEGOTIATIONS IN A GOOD FAITH ATTEMPT TO WORK OUT AN AGREEMENT. THROUGH A SERIES OF NINE MEETINGS, THE LAST HELD ON JULY 17, 1964, MANY CONTRACT IMPROVEMENTS WERE AGREED UPON. AT THAT MEETING THE UNION DROPPED ITS WAGE DEMAND TO 90 CENTS PER HOUR, BUT DID NOT REDUCE ITS DEMAND FOR FRINGE BENEFITS.

AT THE TENTH MEETING, HELD JULY 30, 1964, THE UNION REDUCED ITS DEMANDS TO 68½ CENTS PER HOUR. THE COMPANY THEN MADE ITS FINAL OFFER OF A WAGE INCREASE OF 9 CENTS PER HOUR, RETROACTIVE TO JUNE 1, 1964; AN ADDITIONAL 8 CENTS PER HOUR EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 1965; AND A THIRD INCREASE OF 8 CENTS PER HOUR EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 1966.

THIS LAST OFFER WAS BASED UPON RETAINING ALL PRESENT FRINGE BENEFITS. THERE WERE NO CHANGES WHICH WOULD HAVE REDUCED OR ELIMINATED BENEFITS NOW ENJOYED BY EMPLOYEES. BREAKFAST AND MEAL ALLOWANCES WERE TO CONTINUE UNCHANGED, AND THE OPERATION OF THE CALL OUT LIST WAS TO CONTINUE AS BEFORE.

ON AUGUST 5, 1964, COPIES OF THE PROPOSED CONTRACT WERE GIVEN TO THE UNION'S NEGOTIATING COMMITTEE. AT THAT TIME THE UNION RE-STATE ITS POSITION, ASKING FOR A WAGE INCREASE OF 50 CENTS PER HOUR, AND FRINGE BENEFITS WHICH THEY ESTIMATED WOULD COST AN ADDITIONAL 18 CENTS PER HOUR. THIS 68 CENTS PER HOUR WOULD HAVE INCREASED COMPANY COSTS FOR EACH EMPLOYEE BY $27.20 PER WEEK, OR $1,414.40 PER YEAR FOR EACH EMPLOYEE.

A NUMBER OF OUR EMPLOYEES HAVE ASKED ABOUT RETURNING TO WORK. ANY EMPLOYEE WHO WANTS TO RETURN WILL FIND HIS JOB WAITING FOR HIM. ALL OF THE FRINGE BENEFITS WHICH HE ENJOYED BEFORE THE STRIKE WILL BE CONTINUED — AND HE WILL BE PAID 9 CENTS PER HOUR MORE THAN HE WAS PAID BEFORE.

Discrimination Survey of State Workers Inconclusive

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association
Head Count

A count of people in minority racial groups in state employment turned up some informative but less than conclusive figures. The Civil Service Commission, which ordered the study and received the report, agreed that it "neither proved nor disproved the existence of racial discrimination."

Primarily aimed at determining where and how many Negroes hold state posts, the study included all non-white racial groups. It was prompted by Negro leaders' demands for equal employment opportunities for members of their race.

Since no racial classification was listed on employment records in past years, the study was largely dependent on supervisors' counts of employees in their jurisdiction.

It showed that 8.6 per cent of state employees are non-whites, slightly less than the 9.4 per cent figure of non-whites in the total state population.

In the southeastern metropolitan area, however, the percentage of non-whites on the state payroll is higher than the population rate in that area, the study showed.

More white employees receive promotions once they are in the state service, according to the survey. White workers also have a higher median pay than non-whites.

Commission members said these conclusions could not lead to any generalizations about racial discrimination, however.

"There is no question that the Civil Service examination program discriminates against the less qualified candidates," the report said.

With the education level among the non-whites generally lower than Caucasians, the Commission report said it could draw no conclusions on whether discrimination existed on criteria other than job capacity.

A similar study in the future could only be meaningful, the report said, if race were listed on the job application. This change is currently under study.

The racial designation would show how many non-whites apply for jobs and why they do or do not succeed in competitive examinations.

Milk Wars

Michigan consumers may soon see an end to the milk price war which has been waged over several years between grocers and dairymen.

Members of the dairy industry at the retail level have blamed much of the situation on the wholesalers, who they say, have sold milk to grocers at lower prices than it can be delivered at home.

Wholesalers deny this, saying the grocers were at fault for selling milk below cost as a loss-leader item to get consumers into the store.

Loss-leader milk prices in the grocery stores, nonetheless, have been putting retail dairies out of business at an increasing pace in the past five years or less.

Legislative attempts to regulate dairy pricing methods have failed, largely due to opposition from all segments of the industry.

Now, Gov. George Romney calls for strict industry regulation from its own membership, threatening government control if this is not forthcoming.

Loss-leader selling results in demoralization of the industry involved, the Governor said.

"When price is the only thing you're selling, you're on the way to real trouble, and in the long run it is the customer who pays for the trouble," he said in a meeting with industry representatives.

"We don't like governmental regulations," said Romney, "but if it is necessary we would require it."

Kids - Kids - Kids

Large figures cited to support political positions often mean little or nothing to the average man.

The increases in public school enrollments is one which is easily translated on a small scale because it affects every parent in Michigan.

The total figure involved, however, remains impressive. Experts tell us Michigan public schools have increased in enrollments by more than 55,000 annually in the last few years and will likely continue at this or an even greater pace.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett translates this into a more meaningful figure. He explains that this growth pace is equivalent to the combined public school enrollments of Bay City, Battle Creek, East Detroit, Muskegon and Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Little Attends Library Workshop

Mrs. Arthur Little, public librarian, was in East Lansing last week to attend a workshop for librarians at Kellogg Center. Seventy librarians were registered for the course.

During the week the group toured Michigan State Library, the Lansing and East Lansing public libraries. Wednesday evening they attended an ice show at the ice arena.

The workshop emphasized children's work. Those completing the course received renewal certificates of library experience and a certificate from MSU for continuing education.

Members of the Cass City and Elkland Township public library board were in charge of the local library during the absence of the librarian.

Voelker Reunion Held at Caseville

The 26th annual Voelker reunion was held Sunday, Aug. 2, at Caseville, County Park with 53 members attending.

A basket lunch was followed by a business meeting with officers elected as follows: president, Clarence Voelker; vice president, Kenneth Voelker; secretary, Mrs. Eugene Howey; and treasurer, Vern Voelker.

The historian's report revealed that there have been three marriages and two births during the year.

Next year's reunion will be at the same place, the first Sunday of August.

Guests attended from Saginaw, Bridgeport, Nashville, Port Austin, Cass City, Owendale, Pigeon, Sebaw, and Plion.

Within a couple of weeks, one block and part of another block of Cass City's Main Street will be sprouting trees at every place of business, thanks to the ingenuity and persuasiveness of Keith McConkey. McConkey thought that the stores should do something to improve themselves and the community so he purchased two trees to place in planters outside his store. Other merchants have followed suit.

Janet Auslander of the Evergreen Guys and Gals 4-H Club was one of eight girls from Michigan who won a three-day home furnishing tour at Grand Rapids Aug. 2-4 for her achievements in the 4-H home improvement project.
