

Record Vote Forecast in Hotly Contested Village Election

A record voter turnout has been forecast for the annual village election Monday, Mar. 8, following the most heated campaign in village history.

At stake are two seats on the village council. Although several other offices will be filled, the interest swirls around the placing of two trustees.

Judging by the results of the primary, Warren Wood and Lee Rabideau face an uphill battle in their fight to defeat Mrs. Gladys Albee and Glen "Scotty" McCullough.

In the primary, Mrs. Albee received 196 votes and McCullough, 250 votes. Wood polled 169 votes and Rabideau, 143 votes.

Supporters of Wood and Rabideau are basing their campaign on a greatly increased vote over the 320 ballots cast in the primary. With 625 registered voters, they feel that a huge turnout could tip the scales in their favor.

An intensive campaign has been organized to get out the vote and promote the candidacy of Wood and Rabideau.

Volunteers are expected to canvass block by block prior to the election. Letters have been sent to all registered voters and a meeting has been set for Thursday evening, Mar. 4, at 8 p.m. at Cass City High School.

Although the letters and the canvassing are a strictly partisan effort in the behalf of Wood and Rabideau, the meeting tonight will include the entire council and all of the candidates have been invited to attend.

The meeting was promoted by backers of Wood and Rabideau to air some of the complaints and rumors that have swept over the community in a wave in the last year.

Meanwhile, the supporters of Mrs. Albee and McCullough have said very little publicly about the election.

They have a well organized campaign that stresses individual calls to persons in the community asking for support of their candidates.

Also Elected

Almost forgotten in the trustee battle is that several other offices will be filled. Bernard Freiburger also seeks re-election to his seat on the council and is considered a lead pipe cinch as he is not the target of either of the opposing forces.

Lambert Althaver is also expected to move into the village presidency from his council seat with no trouble.

Other posts to be filled include the clerk's and treasurer's posts, where Mrs. Celia L. House is unopposed, and assessor, where Mac Bryan O'Dell seemingly will be re-elected.

Also to be named are two members to the library board. Mrs. Esther McCullough and Mrs. Avis Benkelman are unopposed.

A tipoff on the many votes expected Monday comes from the number of absentee ballots applied for. Mrs. House, deputy clerk, says that she has already issued 13 absentee ballots.

VOLUME 58, NUMBER 46

CASS CITY, MICHIGAN THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1965

FOURTEEN PAGES

From the Editor's Corner

The Chronicle starts its annual Lenten series this week, written by area pastors. If the pastor of your church does not write a column it's because there are more pastors than weeks in Lent.

The columns are written on a rotating system and pastors left out last year will be seen again this year and those omitted this year will be first on the list in 1966.

You can look for some changes in the mailing system in the very near future as the postal department switches to the numbers (zip code). It should mean better service, Grant Gasparie, acting postmaster, reported this week.

Another change in the wind is the establishment of the local post office as a class A post office due to the greatly increased volume in recent years.

A piece of history was found at the home of Luke Tuckey this week. It is the records of the Jolly Farmers Club. Organized in 1924, the records indicated that it was functioning at least through 1934.

A few items that were recorded include membership dues of 25c a year; opening the meeting with playing of "Whispering Pines" on the Victrola and $9.25 received from a hard time party.

The records can be seen at the Chronicle office.

Slate Blood Bank At Village Hospital

Persons wishing to help Hills and Dales General Hospital build up its diminishing blood supply by donating blood may do so this Friday, March 5, according to hospital authorities.

The Northeastern Blood Bank will be at the hospital from noon Friday until 8:00 p. m. to receive donations.

Minor Accidents Plague Motorists

Four minor property damage accidents were reported to Cass City Police officers between Feb. 22 and Feb. 26. There were no injuries.

Dale Ellis Curtis, 18, of Deford lost control of his car on an icy road and struck the fence at the village park.

John Shagena, 19, of Cass City rammed into a snow bank as he was turning from Main to Sherman street. The vehicle was thrown into a stop sign and the left rear fender of the car was damaged.

Robert P. Musall, 29, of Cass City struck the side of a parked car as he backed from Elizabeth street onto Cemetery road. The car had been parked by Allen

Bands in Festival Preview

Residents of Cass City will have an opportunity of hearing the music to be played by Cass City School bands at the music festival in Flint, Mar. 13, Director Ronald Walker announced this week.

A special concert has been scheduled at the high school Tuesday, Mar. 9, at 8 p.m.

The senior band selections will be "March Processional", "Border Line" and "Symphonic Overture".

The junior band will play "Beaded Belts March", "Green-sleeves" and "Little Handel Suite".

The concert is free and is open to the public.

Ask $10,000 For Nervous Wife After Accident

The second damage suit stemming from an auto accident in Vassar, when Wanda Force was hit by a car as she walked across the street, was filed in circuit court this week.

In the first case, Mrs. Force was granted $2,000 damages and costs of $250.44 for injuries and anguish suffered in the accident.

This week her husband, Neal John Force of Vassar, filed a $10,000 damage suit against Weley and John Briggs for mental anguish and costs he suffered due to his wife's illness.

Force claims that his wife became nervous and irritable and was unable to do household chores after the crash, necessitating that he hire outside labor.

The brief notes that Mrs. Force is presently employed, doing light work, in a factory.

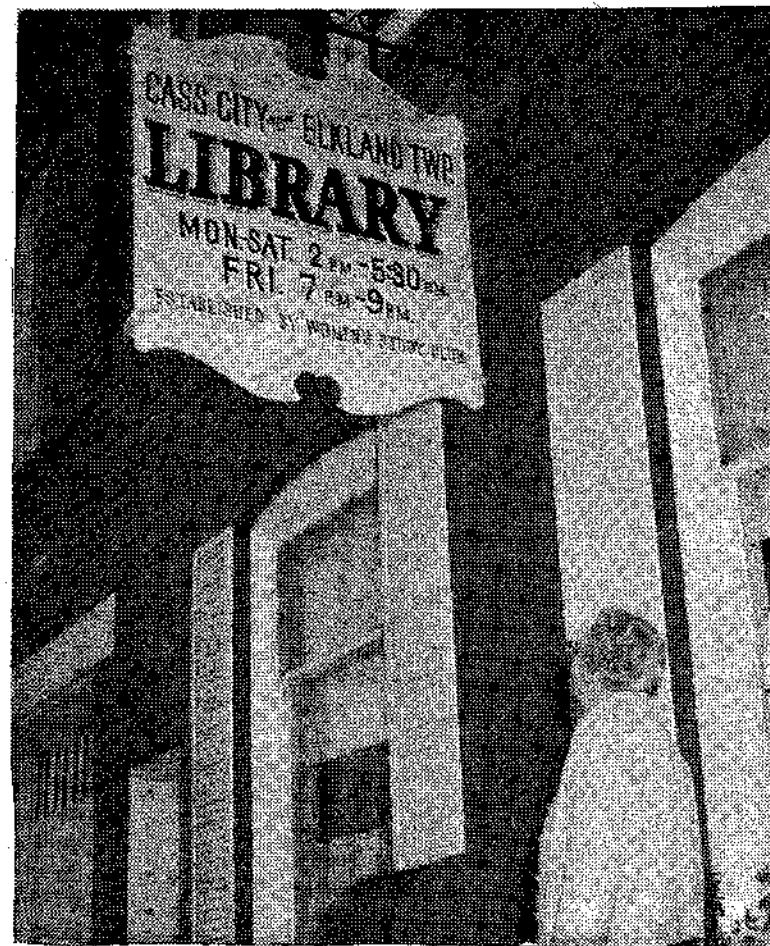

Business Women Review Club's Civic Projects

National Business Women's week is Mar. 7-13 and, in conjunction with the week, members of the Cass City Business and Professional Women's Club reviewed achievements since it was organized in 1961.

The local club is one of 3,600 which belong to the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club.

The 27-member club has been active in local community projects. They have given several scholarships to senior girls and contributed to the local exchange student program.

Presently they are donating to the civic center and helping with the committee on page four.

AT LAST—Cass City and Elkland township Library has a new sign. Colonial in design, it matches the recently re-decorated exterior of the library-fire hall building. Mrs. Arthur Little, librarian, examines the sign shortly after it was installed Monday.

3 Townships Join

Library Ups Service Area

The Cass City and Elkland Township Library has expanded to include Elmwood, Novesta and Evergreen townships due to the law covering finances that support the libraries.

Money from penal fines, about 33 cents per capita, is reserved by county treasurers for support of facilities in which townships are served.

The addition of the three townships will boost revenues of the library some $900. Previously the library had received about $3,000 annually from Cass City and Elkland township.

To be eligible under the program libraries must be open a minimum of 10 hours a week.

Set Salvation Army Service Center in Village

A Salvation Army Service Center has been set up in Cass City to give better local control of funds collected in the area during the Community Chest drive.

Mrs. Arlington Hoffman, committee member, explained that the center has control of the 20 per cent of the Salvation Army allocation that remains in the village.

The money, amounting to about $40 a year, is used to give aid to persons in temporary difficulty, such as transient workers.

Last Christmas a local family was helped through use of some of the funds. Persons with permanent difficulties are referred to the Army's Detroit headquarters.

A committee to head the local center, which has no official location, was sought by the Salvation Army about six months ago and Mrs. Hoffman was recommended to chair the committee. Also on the committee is Mrs. Grant Hutchinson.

Plan New School Drive

School Board members may finally get to see preliminary plans of the proposed new Cass City High School at a special meeting set for Tuesday, Mar. 16, provided architects have them ready.

Supt. Don Crouse asked for the meeting Monday night at the board's regular meeting as he outlined a tentative schedule of presenting the proposal to the voters. The Warren Holmes architects had promised the plans earlier but were unable to deliver them.

Crouse will call an open meeting as soon as possible after the plans arrive and are discussed by the school board. The open meeting, announced earlier, will have representatives from all the village clubs and organizations who will be offered a chance to express their views on the preliminary plans.

Approximately one month after the open meeting, the final basic plans will be returned with the suggestions incorporated.

Publicity campaigns will begin approximately one month after the basic plans are received and on June 14, at the same time as the general school election, the issue will go to the voters.

Crouse suggested the general election as the best time to put the new school question to the voters because it would save the school system the expense of a separate election.

Teacher Tenure

All teachers currently on teacher tenure were given contracts for the coming year at an executive session. The move affected about 38 teachers with approximately 55 still on probation.

Teachers placed on teacher tenure may not be dismissed without a hearing on a local level. They may then take their case to a state committee.

Five other teachers eligible for teacher tenure were placed on tenure. The rest of the probation teachers, with one exception, were all offered contracts.

Coaches' salaries were upped

Absentee Ballot Deadline Saturday

Area voters who plan to be out of town for the March 8 Village General Election are being reminded by Dep. Clerk Mrs. Clint House that they have until 2:00 p.m. Saturday to pick up their absentee ballots.

For the convenience of those unable to make it to the Municipal Building during regular hours, Mrs. House will be at the office until 12:00 noon Saturday.

After noon, she will be at her home until the 2:00 p.m. deadline.

Set Centennial Pageant Theme

"The Pacesetters: From Wilderness to Wonders," has been set as the theme for the Cass City Area Centennial pageant which will highlight each day of the 1965 centennial July 17-24.

The theme was selected Thursday night, Feb. 25, at an executive meeting at the Municipal Building.

The pageant, running each night of the centennial week, will feature a cast of over 125 persons and will tell Cass City's history with different sets for different eras.

Requisition slips were issued to the committee chairman for future purchases. All purchases must have a final approval of the executive committee.

James Ware, cochairman, announced this week that sale of peddlers' permits is now in effect and that wooden nickels will start being used as soon as they arrive.

A proclamation, issued by the village president is expected to be released soon and a special court, better known as the "Kangaroo Court" will be set up to take care of "violators" of the proclamation.

Fireworks bids are being received and the lowest bidder will be announced sometime in the next week.

Co-chairman Clint House coordinated Thursday's meeting. Also discussed at the session were "Centennial Belle" costumes.

$50 in basketball and football to omit a previous prorating pay schedule and provide a more equal pay program.

Previously the football coach was paid for training a week before school began in the fall. By the same token, basketball training also began ahead of schedule and during Christmas vacation, for which the coach received no extra salary.

Junior High Coaches

Cass City's junior high school athletic program will have two coaches next year, provided an extra coach can be found. A single coach handled the 55 junior high boys this year in a new program.

In other business at the executive session, Mrs. Harold (Margo) Isard was officially. Concluded on page four.

Suggest Voting by Districts

"Is it time to start considering a ward system for Cass City?" asks Dr. D. E. Rawson, Cass City village council member.

Rawson said that several persons had suggested to him that it is perhaps time to consider dividing the town so that members would be representative of various areas.

For instance he said, three of the present six trustees could be from the different districts of the community and the other three elected from the village at large.

The present council and all of the candidates except Mrs. Gladys Albee, Rawson pointed out, are within about two blocks of each other in the northwest area of the village.

Contrast that with the village's population and you will see, he continued, that about two-thirds of the population of Cass City lives south of Main street.

Rawson said that he felt the idea was worth considering and would welcome the opinions of village residents.

The legal aspects of such a districting would have to be the first step, Rawson said, if enough residents feel that the measure would be a good one.

He Refused "No" For An Answer

A Detroit motorist has his car back because Cass City Police Chief Carl Palmateer refused to take "no" for an answer.

Chief Palmateer stopped a Detroit youth on Tuesday, Feb. 16, for excessive noise and when the 16-year-old failed to show proof that the car was his, Palmateer held him for investigation.

Two checks with the Lansing State Police failed to turn up a stolen report on the vehicle and Palmateer was forced to release the youth. He did keep the car, however.

Sometime later it was discovered that the owner of the car had reported it stolen, but had given the wrong alphabetical prefix.

Palmateer was contacted and a relieved Ron Polie of Detroit picked up his car Saturday. The youth who took the car was re-arrested in Detroit.

FUTILE ATTEMPT—Cass City fireman Fritz Neitzel walks dejectedly past the flaming wall of the Joseph Gorka home early Friday morning as firemen lost a fight with stubborn flames in an attempt to save the home. Bad luck dogged both Gorka and the firemen and the home was completely destroyed. The Gorkas' pet dog aroused the couple and they escaped unharmed. (Chronicle photo)

Blizzard Delays Help—Home Lost

Thursday's blizzard-like snowfall played a large part in the flaming destruction of the modest home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gorka early Friday in a fire believed caused by a faulty furnace.

The couple were awakened about 4:00 a.m. by the barking of their pet dog to find the house filled with smoke. They and the dog escaped from the house.

As Gorka was attempting to back out of his snow-clogged driveway to get to a telephone he broke the gear shift off his car and was then forced to drive all the way around his house in second gear.

By the time he drove two and a half miles to Bartnik's Service and aroused Cass Bartnik, the fire had a sizable head start on Cass City firemen.

Firemen fought the stubborn fire and would have been able to save at least the shell but they ran out of water. The building then burned to the ground.

The Gorkas were given lodging by neighbors.

The birth of our third child; a son?

Now that our big storm is over there is a "touch of spring" in the air. It's remarkable what it can do. More than a visible thing, it is a strong feeling. As an example of how "giddy" it can make one I even feel strongly optimistic about the new baby coming to our house a week from Thursday. I'm sure our BOY will be arriving and just ten days before the official first day of spring.

New life, freshness, vigor, color all signs of "spring" are what you will find now at SOMMERS' BAKERY in our variety of baked foods planned to satisfy spring "coming alive" appetites.

Watch our window for our birth announcement and visit us soon for baked foods with a Touch of Spring.

Reveal Facts About U. S. Postal Service

Interesting facts about the U. S. Postal Department were revealed by film and a brief talk by Acting Postmaster Grant Glaspie Tuesday noon at the Cass City Rotary meeting at the New Gordon Hotel.

"If the Mail Stops" told that 72 billion pieces of mail are handled each year. The estimated increase will be to 90 billion pieces in 1970.

Glaspie explained the use of the ZIP code. By using it, he said, the handling of mail was reduced from 10 times to four times.

The postal department is the largest governmental employer of organized labor, it was revealed. Another interesting statistic is that 30 billion stamps are sold annually.

Program chairman was Keith McConkey.

BULEN TALKS Cars

A man in Washington coming down Pennsylvania Avenue from the station went by the National Archives Building. He saw carved on the front there the phrase:

"What is past is prologue."
He said to the cab driver, who was one of these intellectual cab drivers that are supposed to know about quotations, "What exactly does that mean?"
The cab driver said, "That's just another example of government jargon. What is really means is, 'You ain't seen nothin' yet!'"
"You ain't seen nothin' yet!" in Cass City, either as far as progress goes and if we all consider carefully what our real aims and goals are in our community, we will be determined that all actions contribute, whenever possible, to the growth of the place where we live. Whenever a major purchase is made out of town, that is taking dollars away from the advancement of Cass City.

The next time you are ready to buy a car or trade your car for another, go to see your own home town dealer, BULEN MOTORS, and let the purchase benefit you in many ways!! You not only get the automobile you want, you keep Cass City progressing.

Mrs. Tino Louis Benitz

Miss Wanda Marie Brown of Cass City and Tino Louis Benitz of Elkton were married in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, Feb. 20, at St. Francis Borgia parish in Pigeon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown of Cass City and Mrs. Anita Benitz and the late Tino Benitz of Elkton are the couple's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown with scoop neckline and fitted bodice. Tiers of nylon net edged with Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned the skirt. A crown of crystal and pearls held her bouffant shoulder-length veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Linda Brown, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Jane Benitz, sister of the groom.

They wore crystal blue floor-length gowns with scoop neckline. The back featured floor-length streamers adorned with velvet leaves and taffeta rosebuds. They carried arrangements of carnations with blue streamers.

Manual Benitz, brother of the groom, was best man. Jerry Young was groomsman. Ushers were Morris Brown, brother of the bride, and George Torres, cousin of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of blue carnations. Mrs. Benitz chose a light blue suit with blue accessories and also wore a corsage of blue carnations.

About 250 guests attended.

A play, "The Heart Sound of a Stranger" was the program highlight of family night of the WSCS of the Methodist Church Monday when some 50 members and guests attended the meeting.

The play centered around Mexican migrant treatment in the United States. Keith McConkey talked on migrant workers, stating that there are two and a half million in the United States and that they are an important part of the economy.

He explained that the Migrant Workers' Mission was organized about 30 or 40 years ago and explained that Cass City is a member of the Huron-Tuscola Migrant Mission and works with Owendale in helping migrants locally.

Participating in the play were Mrs. Tom Proctor, Mrs. Keith McConkey, Mrs. G. Hutchinson, Ronnie Crandell, Sherry Bacon, McConkey and Jack Marshall.

Mrs. S. Nicol gave the devotions and Mrs. James Braid led group singing, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Alexander.

Handle Nine Criminal Cases In Circuit Court Friday

Judge Arthur M. Bach completed a busy day in Tuscola County Circuit Court Friday as he handled nine criminal cases, highlighted by the sentencing of three men for arson in the county.

The three, Herbert Sniff and Frederick Tune of Birch Run, and William LeBlanc of Clio were each sentenced to three years' probation. In addition they were ordered to pay costs of $50 and oversight of $4.00. An oversight is similar to court costs and goes to help pay for trial costs.

The three men had pleaded guilty to setting fire to an unoccupied dwelling in Millington township Christmas Day.

Besides sentencing the three for arson, Judge Bach also arraigned another man on the same charge. Richard Allen Shears of Clio pleaded guilty to setting fire to a vacant home on Barnes Road. He will be sentenced Mar. 26.

A pair of cases involving concealed weapons were also before the court.

Raymond W. Manning of Vassar pleaded guilty to carrying a .32 automatic in his car. He was placed on probation for six months and ordered to pay costs of $75 and an oversight of $75.

Freeman Fox of Vassar was arraigned on a concealed weapons charge. He pleaded guilty and will be sentenced Mar. 26.

One man was sentenced and another arraigned on a charge of driving with a revoked license.

John W. Sage of Mayville pleaded guilty on a second offense of driving with revoked license. He was to be sentenced Mar. 12.

Joseph Davis of Caro was sentenced for three counts of driving with revoked license. Judge Bach ordered him to spend three days in jail and fined him $200, payable at $20 weekly.

Final Case

In the final criminal case Friday, Richard Shaw of Caro was sentenced for uttering and publishing. He received two years' probation. In addition he was ordered to make restitution of $225 and pay costs of $75 and an oversight of $4.00. Shaw had issued an $85 check without funds.

Couples Celebrate Silver Anniversary

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Root of Cass City and of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Cole of Warren was celebrated with a dinner Sunday at the Chuck Wagon at Dryden.

The two couples were married in a double wedding ceremony March 2, 1940, in the home of Ali B. Jarman, minister at the Novesta Church of Christ, who officiated.

Mrs. Root is the former Luella Holtz Deneen and Mrs. Cole is the former Blondina Robinson.

Thirty-four persons from Center Line, Rochester, Warren, Mt. Pleasant, Clifford, Deford and Cass City attended the anniversary celebration.

An anniversary cake and a money tree decorated the tables when the dinner was served.

Among those attending were the Roots' daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nemeth of Deford and Mr. and Mrs. George McKee and son Gene of Rochester, and their son, Roger Root.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Clare Root of Deford, Mr. and Mrs. David Binder of Mt. Pleasant, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Binder, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Root and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Trueman from Cass City.

Beginning Band Stars at Band Boosters' Meeting

Approximately 50 parents heard members of the fifth grade beginning band perform at the regular Band Boosters meeting Tuesday, Feb. 23, in the band room at the high school.

Directing the band and presiding over the meeting was Ronald Walker, band director.

Business included approval of Band Booster sponsorship of the band musical "Sky High" slated in April, and discussion of band and majorette scholarships for summer camps.

No action was taken on the scholarships. The group will send as many students as it is financially able. Students may also attend on their own.

First division winners of the recent District Solo and Ensemble Festival will attend the State festival Saturday, March 20, in Muskegon. A junior band festival is slated sometime this month.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cass Bartnik and Mrs. Frank Butler. The next meeting will be Mar. 23.

SCHOOL BOARD

ferred a contract and Mrs. A. J. Stevens, school nurse, was given a raise of $50.

Mrs. Isard was hired for junior high study supervision and English grammar. A student teacher previously hired to do this work became ill. Mr. Isard is a new material control scheduler at Walbro Corp.

Other Business
Retirement of $40,000 in bonds on the 1960 bond issue were approved. Three persons eligible for retirement filed requests to be rehired and were approved.

A letter to the Evergreen School District from the Cass City district was drafted, giving the local board's feeling on future possible joining of the two districts.

A resolution of sympathy and appreciation was sent to Orval Hutchinson. Mrs. Hutchinson, head cook at the school for a number of years, died suddenly Sunday morning.

Bad habits cost money, but millions of men seem to think they are worth the price.

Hawks Look Inept in Tourney Tune-up Friday

After four better than average performances in a row, Cass City tuned up for district tournament play this week with a miserable performance against the Lakers at Cass City High School gym.

The Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port quintet dominated just about every statistic in the game, including the final score, in its 106-77 decision.

The visitors outshot Cass City 40 to 34 per cent. The club's average was helped by numerous easy buckets on the fast break.

They dominated the rebounding, especially in the second half, as they recorded a 39-21 edge in this vital department.

Cass City was guilty of numerous mistakes that cost the club scoring opportunities.

Despite all these faults, the Hawks were still in the game at half time. The Lakers posted two 27-point periods for a 54-45 halftime advantage.

But it was in the third quarter that the roof fell in for Cass City. The Hawks found a lid on the basket and were able to score just one field goal and four free throws in the entire eight minutes. It was the lowest scoring quarter that Cass City has posted all year. Besides missing try after try from the field, Cass City also was able to convert just four of 19 shots from the charity lane.

Ed Retherford returned to action for the first time in seven games. His heavily bandaged thumb obviously bothered his shooting and he showed the effects of his long lay-off before fouling out in the third quarter.

About the only heartening factor about Friday's games to Cass City fans was that it didn't affect the Thumb B Conference final standings. The Hawks finished in front of Sandusky and that was the best they would have been able to do.

As a tourney tune-up the game must have been highly discouraging for Cass City. Thumb B teams this year are weak and nearly any school with a couple of hot nights could win the right to go to Flint.

Cass City will play either the Lakers again or Caro on Friday night at 8:45, depending on which club wins in the opening round Wednesday night.

Junior Varsity
The Cass City JV also took a beating from the Lakers seconds. The score was 97 to 78.

The box score:

JIM KNOBLET (54) got around Mike Dixon (21) on this play in the first half to score, but it was too little and too late for Cass City as the Lakers won an easy victory, 106-77. Watching the action are Jim Walters (24) and Ed Retherford of Cass City and Dale Ackerman (15) of the Lakers.

Thoughtfor Lent

(First in a series)

Rev. George Getchel

"... nevertheless not my will, but thine be done." Luke 22:42

As Jesus' earthly ministry drew to a close, He went with the eleven into the Garden of Gethsemane to pray. Some might say that this was the lowest point of His ministry. He had been rejected by His own people as a whole, vigorously opposed by the religious leaders, and His kingdom and His mission had been misunderstood by even His closest followers, who were still looking for Him to re-establish the Throne of David in rebellion to Rome.

Even at this dark hour when death was imminent, Jesus was at His best. He faced His greatest temptation in the garden of prayer. He gained His greatest Victory in the Garden, and He found the greatest peace in the garden of Gethsemane.

To forget the plan of God and to search for some other way must have been the greatest temptation that Jesus had to face in His entire lifetime. With His miraculous powers, and His persuasion of speech, He might have been successful in gaining followers and setting up an earthly kingdom. But this was not the plan of God for which He had been sent into the world.

"... nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done."

He gained the greatest victory, the one over self. Our worst enemy is too often "I" or "Me". But this was not true of the Christ. He had taught that in order to find life, we must lose it, and He was faithful to His own teaching and gained His greatest victory, over self. "... nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done."

He found His greatest peace as the angel appeared unto Him and strengthened Him. After the struggle with self, after the sweat-drops of blood and after the placing of God's will as supreme, Jesus could face the ordeal of that terrible night and the horrors of the crucifixion with a tremendous inner strength and calm.

Our greatest hour is always present when we have faced the greatest temptation which could be placed before us and conquered it through yielding our lives to the will of Almighty God. Our greatest victory is when we can relegate our will to second or even third place in our thinking and demanding, and our greatest peace of mind will come when we have totally submitted our lives to the Master even as did Christ our example. "... nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done."

Former Principal of Caro School Dies

Funeral services for Douglas H. Ferriby, 74, Saginaw businessman and principal of the Caro schools from 1919 to 1921, were held Monday in Saginaw and the body was brought to Elkland cemetery for interment. Mr. Ferriby died Friday in a Saginaw Hospital.

He was born at Applegate and Jan. 21, 1918, married Miss Ida Johnson of Ubyly.

He leaves his wife; two sons; seven grandchildren; one brother, and one sister.

Mr. Ferriby was well-known to several local persons. Dr. H. T. Donahue, Harold Perry and Mrs. Arthur Little were students under Mr. Ferriby in Caro high school.

Mr. Ferriby was a World War I veteran, a member of the First Presbyterian church of Saginaw and a life member of the Ubyly Masonic lodge.

Services Held for Frank Hall, 90

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Little's Funeral Home for Frank E. Hall, who died Saturday, Feb. 27, at Yonkers Nursing Home in Bay City. Mr. Hall had been in ill health for several years and a patient at the nursing home for two and a half years.

Born in Burgesville, Ont., June 3, 1874, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hall. He moved to the area when a child.

Mr. Hall married Miss Sylvia Dodge in Cass City Mar. 16, 1914. They made their home in the community following their marriage. Mrs. Hall died Feb. 4, 1961.

Surviving are: four sons, Eldon of Jackson; Milton and Melvin, both of Bay City; and Leeland, of Spokane, Wash.; a sister, Mrs. Cecil Reichell of Jackson; 13 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Richard Canfield, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the final ceremony.

Burial was in Elkland cemetery.

Side-stepping responsibilities is one sure way of ending up permanently on the sidelines.

NO, THIS IS NOT a picture of a group of climbers just reaching the top of Mt. Everest. It's four Cass City teenagers sitting atop a pile of snow in front of the Pinney State Bank put there by the village following Thursday's worst snowfall of the season. Huge piles of snow (Note height in front of doorway at right) crowded village streets and workmen worked for two days to remove it. Atop the pile are: Bob Rabideau, Rosemary Fritz, Becky Champion and Barbara Starmann.

KOMMENTS BY KRAFT

It's Time for a New Campaign

By Dave Kraft

My little comment a week or so ago about the gas company official who refused to buy a centennial tie got some results. He stopped in at the New Gordon Hotel, the other day and gave Mrs. Clyde Wells some money to buy one from Cliff Ferguson when he got back from Bermuda.

He claimed that he didn't have a buck and a half with him for the tie. Seems like a good excuse. It's the one I use.

Letters, we get letters, lots and lots of letters. I got two postcards, this week, one from cold old New York City and one from warm old Miami, Florida.

Lloyd Bryant, while in New York City, dropped a card with a picture on the front of "Ronny Douglas and the Ascots, appearing at the Village Barn."

Lloyd's comment was "Hi Dave - Met a man here that looked just like you, beard and all."

I checked the front of the card again and sure enough, there was a guy with a beard... freshly inked in. Can't say that he looked like me, though. Actually, I'm better looking.

The other card was from Neil and Fay Sherman vacationing in Miami, Fla.

They wrote: "Monday, Feb. 22, 1965. 73 degrees. No coat, no tie. Warm and how - Thousands of snow and ice dodgers here. Weather wise the best here in 16 years. Bumper crop of citrus. Eating home grown vegetables and sea food. See you later."

I got their card Thursday morning. If you remember, Thursday morning was the morning we got our "almost as bad as '47" blizzard.

Nothing like a card to cheer you up, I always say.

I was checking the back issues and I noticed that it was just a year ago that I launched my SDKTC campaign (Send Dave Kraft to Camp). I never made it.

I never got my $20,000 in contributions the year before, either.

Later in the year I did get money to send for the plans to a still, but they looked too involved and besides, I didn't have a recipe.

I've been racking my brains to find some new gimic, with myself as the person who benefits, but I don't seem to be able to come up with a good idea.

If any of you out there have some idea that might throw me into the mainstream of financial success with a limited amount of work or a plan that will enable me, with the assistance of my readers, to lead a life of leisure, don't just sit there... let me know.

Remember at all times... I'm not adverse to charity... in large denominations.

Stan Kim was in the other day and extended a standing offer to join him on the mail rounds to chase dogs. He was referring to last week's column in which I was campaigning for the office of dog chaser in a parody on the recent and upcoming elections.

It wasn't exactly the response I had in mind but at least I'm glad some one is reading this column.

He said that he had eight dogs following him the other day. I don't know why he's complaining, that's a bigger following than I have.

Onch! Mmmmm! Oh! Pain! Hurt! Forgive me for carrying on like this, but we moved Sunday and I still ache in every joint and cranny.

We started about noon and by 7:00 p. m. I was still carting boxes. How we ever got so much stuff in such a small house, in the first place, I'll never know.

We've moved to a bigger house and with everything spread around, we're already out of room.

We have an upstairs and it's really great. We can lock the kids in one of the upstairs rooms and no matter how hard they scream and holler, you can't hear them. When you're in the basement.

I'll tell you one thing. If I have to move again in the very near future, there will be a sensational story about a relatively young man with everything to live for biting his wrists or jumping off the old water tower.

It could have happened this last time if it hadn't been for the help I received. Dale Damm loaned me his firm's big truck and "Doc" Johnson, who just happened by, gave me a big and appreciated helping hand. With a finishing assist from Ron Walker, we made it.

I thank them all.

If the fences was all down and the mailbox looked like it was about wore out from being stuffed with them pamphlets from the Agriculture Department, he didn't git no loan. fer 49 years, allowed as how Medicare wasn't going to work. Ed said this program would make it necessary for doctors to keep hundreds of reports and write thousands of words and they wasn't going to find nobody that could read a doctor's writing.

Clem Webster, that is a Roosevelt Democrat and has appointed himself the official representative for the Great Society in our community, was disagreed with Ed. Clem claimed they got them computer machines now that can read anything, even a doctor's handwriting.

Furthermore, allowed Clem, Republicans was going to git passed up like a Greyhound bus passing up a tramp in the benefits department of the Great Society.

Per instant, reported Clem, he was reading where a Washington column writer was explaining how Medicare would work under President Johnson.

According to this column writer, they was going to have great medical centers, maybe 10 stories high and big like the Pentagon building, scattered all over the country. If a member of the Great Society had a pain in his side he would enter one of them centers. When he got there he would find a flock of doors labeled Heart, Lungs, Stomach, Appendicitis and the like. This feller, figuring he might have appendicitis, would enter the Appendicitis door. It would open out on a hallway with two doors marked Male and Female. He would enter the door marked Male and it would open on another hallway with two doors marked Married and Single. Him being a family man, he would enter the Married door. This would open out on another hallway with two doors marked Taxpayer and Non-Taxpayer. On account of him owning a little property, he would enter the Taxpayer door. This door would open out on another hallway with two doors marked Democrat and Republican. This feller, being a Independent but leaning a little toward the Republican side, would enter the Republican door—and fall 10 stories into a alley.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Dairymen's Tour Slated March 11

Thursday, Mar. 11, Tuscola county dairymen will have an opportunity to see how two area farmers market their surplus of Holstein bull calves.

Both of these farmers have been in this type beef feeding for several years and their experience should prove valuable to others, Alfred P. Bailweg, county extension director, says.

Also working on the tour will be John Speicher, extension dairy specialist in farm management from Michigan State University.

The first stop on the tour will be at the Herman and Ronald Schmidt farm, five miles west of Millington on Millington road and a half mile south on Barkley road. It starts at 1:30 p.m.

Farmers will see about 50 head ranging in age from young calves to mature steers on full feed. All deacon calves raised are fed out to market. All roughage and corn is grown on the farm.

The second stop is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. at the Ted Keinath and Son farm, four miles west of Millington on Millington road, and a half mile south on Buell road.

Keinath raises between 200 and 300 head each year. He now has 130 head on hand. His program includes marketing about 90 per cent for feeder cattle and feeding out the rest himself. He started this program in 1960.

Refreshments will be served at the Keinath farm.

Determine the Need of your Soils and Crops with a Soil Test

Doctors never prescribe medicine without making a diagnosis first. The same principle can be applied in treating your soil. Making a soil test will tell you what plant food elements are low — what Smith-Douglass fertilizer is needed to bring the supply of plant food into proper balance for high crop yields.

We are ready to assist you with a soil test, and make recommendations which will enable you to apply Smith-Douglass fertilizer economically, to produce more profitable crops.

IT SEEMS TO ME Commercialism Strikes Holy Land

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

A retreat is the opposite of an advance, at least in the military world. But a 'Retreat' is the forerunner to advance in the religious world. Once a year, just ahead of the Lenten period, many groups of ministers go to religious retreats to prepare themselves to lead their churches in religious advance. The Rev. James Braid and I went on a retreat early this month. The men there were all ministers, and through Bible study, periods of devotion, discussion periods and fellowship experiences we found ourselves better prepared to meet the demands that would be made upon us during this year. If so, it was truly a profitable time, or, so it seems to me!

After a lifetime of desiring to take the trip to the Holy Land, Bishop William C. Martin (Methodist) was disappointed at the commercialism of many historic sites. "There are about three different places that claim to be the authentic site where Christ performed his first miracle, that of turning water into wine," said the Bishop who also was disappointed to find today's Nazareth a small modern city. I still think that I would like to visit the Holy Land and imagine that the same is true of you. Or, so it seems to me.

THIS 'N THAT: A new hospital is being erected in Mozambique by the Methodist Church, replacing an ancient building where 4,700 patients are treated annually. . . . India has the second largest number of Methodist Church members, second only to the Methodist Church in the USA. There are 691,686 members in India. . . . An anonymous Baptist gave the Methodist Church in Atlanta, Ga., $11,697 to buy a campsite in Cattaohocchee National Forest. I suppose that as a Baptist he figures that the Methodists need to be improved! And they do! . . . A speaker addressing an evangelism conference in Chicago told the Methodists in attendance that we can "no longer afford to be 'bleacher Christians.'" . . . And, the Ku Klux Klan forced the cancellation of an address in an Episcopal church in Bogalusa, Louisiana, by former US Representative Brooks Hays. Formerly a special assistant to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, the Negro leader spent 15 years in Congress. . . . Did you realize that as American citizens we (individually) spent $750.00 a year for military defense and a mere $2.50 a year to share our Christian faith around the globe? What kind of world would there be if we just switched those two figures? A better one, or, so it seems to me!

Some weeks ago we suggested that you might wish to join with others to rebuild some of the Negro churches which have been burned recently. Received so far has been $42,492 of a goal of $200,000. $4,000 has been donated by Negroes and $25,000 has come from people living in Mississippi! Send your gift to Committee of Concern, P.O. Box 530, Jackson, Miss., marking your checks "for burned churches."

An organization which leads most churches in the "church and state" area of concern, Protestants and other Americans United for Separation of Church and State (POAU), issued a statement recently calling attention to what they term the three main dangers to the principle of separation of Church and state. "A drive to obtain public financing for parochial schools; efforts to amend the US Constitution to permit religious ceremonies in schools; and the possibility that the wall of separation may be 'chipped away' through general welfare programs involving churches."

A friend of ours says he knows why there are so few telephones in China. There are so many people with the names Wing and Wong, he says, that orientals are afraid they'll wing the wrong number! And so, it seems to me.

He Appreciated the Efforts Of U. S. Soldiers at Vietnam

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association
Important People

To Michigan servicemen in Vietnam. This is sort of an open letter which I hope will find its way into your hands. Dickey Chapelle, a woman reporter who has been working in your part of the world until this year, addressed the Michigan Press Association about what's going on there. One of her main points was to the effect that we at home don't understand enough about Vietnam to really appreciate the importance of the fighting; and that Americans there are very discouraged with this lack of understanding.

A lot of people here do care what's going on in Vietnam. The number grows every day. Maybe some of the fine points are hazy to us, but more and more people are concerned about the basic issue. And more and more people are appreciating what you are doing. There is a clearer understanding all the time of the problems you face, the handicaps you must overcome and, most importantly, of the significance of your activities.

While I can't speak for anyone but myself, I'm anxious to pass on to you and all our servicemen my personal gratitude for what you are doing for our country and to tell you that I am sure there are thousands of others in Michigan who feel the same way.

This letter is sent in appreciation of your efforts with thankfulness you are doing so well; and with the best of hopes that you will soon return safely in the pride that you made an important contribution to our country's existence.

Elmer E. White, Secretary Michigan Press Association
Relatives or friends of servicemen are requested to send this letter to Vietnam. Or better still, their personal message expressing their appreciation.

Too Young to Drive
Parents of teenagers can provide some insight to legislators on a matter likely to be proposed this year.

Pressure is mounting for a change in the driver licensing law to make 17 the minimum age. The Michigan Driver Education Association, a group of teachers, recently joined in support of this proposal and many would say they should be experts on the matter.

James Sando, president of the drivers education teachers' group, said the members believe 16-year-olds "cannot be expected to cope with complexities of present-day driving conditions."

Other voices supporting the 17-year minimum driving age say it would help keep auto insurance rates down because the younger the driver the greater the risk and higher the rates.

Since currently the 16-year-old motorist comes under special provisions where driving rule violations are concerned, some say he should lose either this special privilege or the right to drive.

A teenage driver's tendency to have a carload of friends with him, thus magnifying the impact of any misfortune, brings many safety officials in to support the 17-year limitation.

Opponents of the change come largely from the "you can't blame them all for the actions of a few" school of thought.

Since parents of teenagers will be those who hear the complaints if such a change is enacted, they might be wise to form an opinion on the matter and convey it to the lawmakers.

Underground Mail

State Building Director, Adrian N. Languis, reports a conveyor belt freeway system, complete with electronically controlled intersections on the principle of highway interchanges, will be installed under the proposed complex of new state office buildings in Lansing.

The system will be used to replace the present messenger mail service between state agencies.

Mail going from the Supreme Court Building to the Capitol, for example, would be placed in electronically marked baskets on the conveyor and travel along the freeway underground, next to a series of pedestrian tunnels, until it reached its destination.

Languis said the system was expected to save the state thousands of dollars a year in personnel costs, in addition to providing faster service than is now possible. No price, however, has been placed on this item yet. It's patterned after the system in use at the Library of Congress.

Still Time to Register for Adult Classes

There's still time to register for the adult education classes slated to begin Monday, Mar. 8, according to Richard Carroll, Cass City High School commercial arts instructor.

Shabbona News

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Caister were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schwannecke of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Caister and Suzie Pobanz of Cass City.

The Shabbona Extension Group will hold their regular meeting Tuesday, March 9, at the community hall.
