

From the Editor's Corner

According to an article in the Bay City Times, a special committee report on education in Michigan will reaffirm what has been known here for a decade or so.

The committee says that the Bad Axe or Cass City area is a desirable location for a community college. It calls for the entire state to be blocked into 29 community college districts and that 26 new community colleges be eventually established.

While this information is "not new, it must be heartening for the committee of school superintendents who are busily working trying to establish a community college and vocational school for this area. Certainly it is welcome news to all of us who think that the effort is one of utmost importance to Cass City and the Thumb.

The Chronicle tried to dream up a picture to commemorate St. Patrick's Day Wednesday, but was unsuccessful. If we had color capacity on the press we would have had no trouble . . . all those green beads floating around town would have been an unnatural natural.

Dr. H. T. Donehue, the first Big Ten wrestling champion from the University of Michigan, recently presented the keys to a new car to his wrestling coach who is retiring after 40 years.

We tried to get a picture of the doctor in his wrestling days, but there are none available . . . however, we have been informed that a picture of the presentation was taken and we'll try to have it for you next week.

Science Fair Dates Set

Students at Cass City High school will be looking for more outstanding projects in the annual science fair scheduled this year for Mar. 27-28.

From among the many exhibits authorities will be hoping for the caliber of work similar to that which enabled Dennis Longuski's physical science display and Jim Huse's medicine display to win top awards at the regional science fair in 1964.

Students in both the junior and senior high are eligible to participate. Junior high categories are botany, zoology, physical science and earth science. Open to senior high students are botany, zoology, chemistry, physics, medicine and health, earth and space science and mathematics.

The judging Saturday morning, Mar. 27, will be based on creative ability and scientific thought. Blue, red and white ribbons will be awarded, as well as first, second and third place medals in each division.

Blue ribbon winners may exhibit projects at the Thumb Regional Science Fair slated at Reese April 24. The winners here go to the National Science Fair at St. Louis May 6-8. The regional fair is supported and financed by 13 participating schools in a three-county area.

File $150,000 Suit Against Road Commission

A $150,000 damage suit against the Tuscola County Road Commission and James P. Hager was transferred this week from Bay to Tuscola county.

The suit has been filed by James D. Whitman for injuries suffered in an accident at the corner of Colling Road and Cass City Road. Whitman claims that the county road commission was negligent in caring for the shoulder of the road when a vehicle he was a passenger in collided with a culvert.

Whitman says that the grass had grown up around the obstruction and was not marked by the proper warning poles. He also alleges that the guard rail around the culvert was not sufficient.

Hager is included in the claim because he was the driver of the car that was driving on the shoulder when the accident occurred. Whitman claims permanent injury to his right leg because of the accident.

The defendants have denied the charges.

The left front fender and headlight of the car was damaged. Patrolman William R. McKinley investigated.

County Sells House To Clear Jail Site

Tuscola county's valuation took a $600,000 dip Thursday when supervisors learned in a community from Detroit Edison reporting that an appeal to reduce the company's valuation had been approved.

Before the appeal was made, Detroit Edison was paying 26 percent of the county's personal tax. Under the new schedule, the firm will pay 20 percent, Clerk Archie Hicks reports.

Edison appealed to the State Tax Commission on the grounds that it had not been allowed enough depreciation over the years, according to Hicks.

For Fire Hall

Council Votes Bldg. Option

Meeting in special session Thursday, the Cass City Village Council voted to accept an option to buy the H. O. Paul Building from the Pinney State Bank for $26,250.

The council plans to use the building for a fire hall, if an agreement can be reached with Elkland township. Trustees obligated the village for $1,000 plus maintenance of $200 monthly to secure the option for six months.

Although the vote has passed the option had not yet been signed Wednesday noon.

If the option is exercised the $1,000 will be applied towards the purchase price. The monthly charge for maintenance will be in addition to the cost of the building. Bernard Freiburger and Dr. D. E. Rawson, the committee in charge of the fire department, will meet with representatives from Elkland Township to discuss the proposed new site and other matters connected with the fire department.

Due for Review Persons close to the problem believe that the method of paying for the use of facilities must be revamped. They point out that the price charged townships using the facilities is not realistic. One plan suggested as a starting

Three Area Sites Set for Sanilac Screening Program

Sites for chest X-ray and diabetic screening in Sanilac county have been announced by the Sanilac County Health Department.

Tests will run for several weeks, starting Monday, Mar. 22, through Friday, April 9.

Included will be three in the northwest area of the county.

They are: Monday, Mar. 22, Snover fire hall from 12 noon to 4 p. m. Tuesday, Mar. 23, Shabbona Hall from 9 a. m. to 12 noon. Also on Tuesday from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m. at the St. Joseph Hall in Argyle.

point is a charge per section as a stand-by fee and then a price per hour for actual fire runs.

Also due for a long hard look is the agreement between the village and Elkland township. This agreement was signed in 1950 for 10 years and now can be cancelled by either party.

At the time, the village sold its fire truck to the township for $1.00 and the township purchased additional equipment. If the agreement is voided, the township would sell back the truck that originally belonged to the village for the same $1.00.

To Revamp

The cost of revamping the H. O. Paul building is not known. It is anticipated that the entire building would not be needed for purposes of the department.

In a guesstimate made some time ago former trustee, Jerome Root Jr., said that revamping the building would cost in the neighborhood of $10,000.

If used for a fire hall, an entrance would be needed in the north front of the building for quick exit from the building. The ceiling would need to be lowered and other alterations completed.

Just what would have to be done if the village does buy the building is still pretty much up in the air, Freiburger said this week when discussing plans. Much will depend on the results of the meeting with the township board and the plan for sharing the costs that is worked out, authorities feel.

View New County Jail Plans

The Tuscola County Board of Supervisors were to have seen the plans for the proposed new county jail Wednesday in a special session at Caro.

There has been considerable discussion among the supervisors on whether or not to apply for Federal aid for the project.

Although the money that is available would be welcome, the county is concerned about added restrictions if the Federal government has control of the construction.

The architect in charge says that if a Federal grant is sought, another month will be needed for him to change the plans to meet Federal specifications.

The details were expected to be hammered out Wednesday.

Walker Pleased With Renditions Of Local Bands

Although Cass City's bands did not receive a coveted Division I rating at the annual district band festival Saturday, Director Ron Walker said that he was very pleased with the students' performances.

The Junior High band competed at Grand Blanc and the Senior Band at Flint Northern.

The Junior High Band received the same rating as it did last year, but Walker said that he felt it played the best of any he has had under his direction at Cass City.

The adjudicators were marking much stiffer and it took a really outstanding performance for a Division I rating as compared to last year, Walker reported.

Senior Band

One senior high band in the area took home a top rating. The Owen-DeGagetown band directed by Ray Kirellis qualified for the State Festival.

Cass City's Senior High Band was also lauded by Walker. We moved up from Division III ratings the two previous years to a Division II rating this year and the performance was very encouraging, he said.

Cass City was joined in the rating by Caro, Sandusky and Bad Axe all of which received Division II ratings.

Reveal Thumb B All-League Team

Reflecting their position in the final Thumb B Conference standings, the Cass City Red Hawks failed to place a man on the all-conference team announced this week by league authorities.

The Hawks placed two men on the second team as Jim Champion and Jim Knoblet were honored. The first team was dominated by Frankemuth, league champions, and Marlette, who was the runner-up.

Frankemuth placed Bob Piesko, a junior, and Al Martens, a senior. Piesko was the only junior named. Named from Marlette were Paul Chappel, clever ball handling guard, and Sam Patrick, the Red Raiders top rebound artist.

Rounding out the first five was Jim Wyrick, Caro, who was the Tigers' top rebounder and scorer.

Second Five

On the second five, in addition to Champion and Knoblet, were three players from the Bad Axe Hatchets. Named were Seniors Pat Lynde and Bruce Hogan, along with Junior Guard Dick DeChane.

IT SEEMS TO ME

My Favorite Is
Washington D. C.

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

While I may be prejudiced by my residence there, in my judgment, Washington, D. C., is the most attractive city in our entire country. It always comes as a shock to learn there is some of Washington that no one can be proud of. A recent study revealed that all is not well with our nation's capital. More than 50,000 families there have annual incomes of less than $3,000. "Poverty" families constitute 10.5 per cent of the total number of families in metropolitan area. 40 per cent of these families live in the suburbs. 24.2 per cent of all Negro families in the metropolitan area live in poverty, compared with 6.6 per cent of white families. Written by Charles Ellett, this study also documented the fact that infant mortality, disease, family breakdown, early death, illegitimacy, divorce, legal separation, delinquency, crime and other social ills go hand in hand with poverty. With Washington, one of the world's showplaces of what constitutes a beautiful city, we must urge Congress to take steps to end poverty there; or so, it seems to me.

While we are still in Washington in our thoughts, let me tell you the story of Dr. Edward W. Bauman, pastor of Foundry Methodist Church there. (Formerly Dr. Bauman was the instructor of a widely seen television program on the Bible.) At a surprise birthday gathering, he was given a list of individuals offering more than 1,000 hours of voluntary participation in whatever service projects Dr. Bauman might propose.

This was the finest gift a church member could give to his pastor. Try it sometime; and if you are one of those people who thrive on plans to rid your church of its pastors, get in on this gift, too. Probably he'll die of a heart attack when he sees what his present is. Or, so it seems to me.

With the naming of 27 men as Cardinals, the Pope brought the College of Cardinals to an all-time high, and also for the first time in the history of the Roman Catholic Church, the college of Cardinals is not dominated by the Italian wearers of the red hat. Two North Americans were named, one from Baltimore and one from Quebec. Included was the second Negro African, the third already is in the wings. The pope's selections were named after much thought. Or, at least so it seems to me.

On November 22, 1962, riots were experienced in the suburbs of Cape Town (Africa) and as mobs passed the home of a widow, Mrs. J. J. Vermeulen, they seized her 17-year-old daughter and hacked her to pieces. A Bantu Dutch Reform Church was destroyed at the same time. When the Africans began to rebuild the church, Mrs. Vermeulen contributed enough money for a bell-tower. Negroes native to the area interpreted the gift with these words, "So can a Christian forgive." Responded the donor, in part: "They must know that God has taken my hate away."

Eavesdropping on a conversation of some of the local volunteers in the fire department I was reminded of a cartoon I once ran across. It showed a fireman in a firehall answering the telephone. "Five Department. You light 'em. We fight 'em."

Complaints of an Anglican rector's wife who recently said that hers "is a lousy job" has brought objections on the part of parsonage wives all over the world. But I would wager that most such wives feel like their English friend at least part of the time. Or, so it seems to me.

Listen to what the other fellow has to say—it will give you a broader point of view.

Driving across western Kansas on a stormy day, a fellow had lowered the top of his small convertible to keep it from blowing away. Buffeted by the wind, the little car careened about on the highway. He was terrified. Seeing an old farmer by the roadside, he pulled over and stopped. "Any danger of a tornado?" he yelled.

"Nary a bit, sonny," the farmer shrilled above the shrieking wind. "What could a tornado do in a wind like this? It'd be perfectly helpless."

Most people are "perfectly helpless" when something goes wrong with their automobile, and that's the reason BULEN MOTORS and their staff have so many satisfied customers. The desire to please and to give the utmost in service makes BULEN MOTORS the place to rely upon if you've been buffeted by high repair costs.

If it's time for you to trade for a new or like-new car, the place to go is BULEN MOTORS.

Cass Valley Group Hears of School

The meeting was held Monday evening at the Keith Little home. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Little.

EUB Film Showing To Depict Poverty

A film showing the problems of the impoverished will be one of the features of a meeting slated at the Salem EUB Church Sunday evening, Mar. 21, at 8 p.m.

Titled "The Captive," it shows where poverty exists in America and what can be done about it.

After the film a discussion period will be held and an offering taken for direct relief of the poor, sick and destitute, the Rev. R. E. Betts, pastor, said.

The interdenominational meeting is open to everyone, Betts said.

Anglers Pay Less, Get More

Thoughtfor Lent

(Third in a series)

The Rev. Jerry Ray Helman has been pastor of the Cass City Assembly of God for slightly more than a year and is building up the membership of that church.

"And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down and prayed."

Jesus, after finishing His High Priestly prayer, went forth with His disciples over the brook Kidron and entered the garden of Gethsemane. This garden had become a garden of prayer in Jesus' life, for Jesus had oftentimes resorted thither with His disciples. The prayer life of Jesus is a challenge to every Christian. Jesus made communion with the heavenly Father the chief business of His life. How His praying changed the destiny of the world! His very life was a prayer.

The public ministry of Jesus Christ was initiated at His baptism by John the Baptist, at the River Jordan. What was He doing at this important moment which marks the beginning of His public appearances to Israel? As the Lord came out of the water of baptism, He was praying! Thus we see that His official presentation of Himself for public ministry began with the act of prayer, at which time He received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost.

Having received the Holy Spirit, Christ withdrew from the multitudes, and for several weeks spent the time on solitude and abstinence from food. It is obvious that this period was given to special communion with His heavenly Father, thus strengthening Himself for spiritual combat with the devil — a battle which He knew was imminent. Throughout the ministry of Christ, we see Him withdrawing from the multitudes to pray.

The prayer ministry of Christ and its importance comes into view, at no time in His life, more than in the hours preceding His trial and Crucifixion. Now we find Him in the garden in mortal combat against the powers of darkness. We see Him in almost constant communication with His heavenly Father. In Gethsemane our Lord experienced His greatest test. However, when Jesus came and found the sleeping disciples, He came as a Master. He had won the fight! He came, neither weeping or moaning. He came as the conqueror! Now He is ready for the trial, ready for the scourge, ready for the Cross.

From the prayer life of Christ we learn many lessons in the art of prayer. No wonder the awed disciples watching Him pray and marveling at His great power in prayer, said: "Lord, teach us to pray."

Christian, during this Lenten period, let us dedicate ourselves to the ministry of prayer. Shall we not go to the blessed Master and ask Him to enroll our names in His school of prayer? It is a shame that many Christians, and even ministers, spend only a few minutes in daily prayer. Yet, this world is in great need. The seething unrest in the world, the increase of crime and juvenile delinquency, the rise of godless Communism, the breakdown of society, and the deterioration of law and order in the world, indicate the hour is late in God's program.

This is our hour to pray. We must pray revival upon our land, pray it on the heathen masses abroad. We must win the battle in our hearts and in our own homes. Friend outside of Christ, let this be your prayer: "God be merciful to me, a sinner." (Luke 18:13)

KOMMENTS BY KRAFT

There's Nothing to Do in This Dump

By Dave Kraft

I think nearly everybody, in a fit of depression or some character weakness, has made a disparaging remark about their town.

"There's nothing to do in this dump." "Are these streets ever a mess. Why doesn't the crummy street department do something about it?" "Don't ever start a business here..."

Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Reimann, owners of the Kingston Dairy Bar, hand out a little souvenir folder with the following answers.

It Isn't the Town... It's You!
If you want to live in the kind of a town like the kind of a town
you like,

You needn't slip your clothes in a grip and start a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind, for there's nothing that's really new.

It's a knock at yourself when you knock the town, it isn't the town, it's you!

Real towns are not made by men afraid lest someone else gets ahead.

When everyone works and nobody shirks, you can raise a town from the dead.

And if while you make your personal stake your neighbor can make one, too.

Your town will be the town you want it to be. It isn't the town... it's you.

Here's some bloopers that no one saw because of the alertness of our proofreaders.

A lady advertising centennial dress making had a final line which came out, "Place your order now."

From a Memory Lane: "Supt.
Campbell received a call saying a comb would explode in the school."

Then there was the skier who broke his leg while coming down the "slope." They make that artificial snow out of the darndest stuff.

"Mr. and Mrs. So and So were in Caro to attend the motley board meeting."

Dear "Fatty Fanny." Your poetry seems to be your forte, especially the light verse about the "Old Maid." I'm no authority, but the rest of your stuff was like eating toast without butter. Too much like a letter to Aunt Maude.

One other thing. We can't print anything unless it's signed. We can withhold the name if requested, but no signature, no printee.

When Bob Timberlake was here
a week or so ago, I had the good fortune to hear him speak at the Presbyterian Church father and son banquet.

Bob was somewhat taken back by all the facial hair being exhibited.

He was forced to comment, "We have some wonderful inventions down south which you men may not have heard about. They're called Schick and Gillette."

I thought to myself, after the laughter had died down, "That's a pretty cutting remark."

Every man needs friends—not to flatter him—but to strengthen his weak points.

Lowering Voting Age to 18 Goal of Both Political Parties

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association
Tobacco Costs

Both official and public concern over cigarette health hazards has died down considerably since the 1964 U. S. Surgeon General's report. Some lamented and some were relieved by the change.

The adjustment in official concern involved somewhat of a paradox.

On the one hand the Governor appointed a special group to study the health report. This unit recommended the State Health Department "explore, promote and develop programs for the reduction and the ultimate elimination of cigarette smoking."

Sitting opposite, or perhaps adjacent, were much of state government and the local school districts. They depend in large part on cigarette tax revenues for operating costs.

The study group's recommendations and several made subsequently by the Health Department have not been implemented in any way. The Legislature has sidestepped any action in this area.

Cigarette sales are big business in Michigan. Preliminary figures indicated 1964 was the third consecutive year in which more than a billion packages were sold in the state.

In terms of money to operate government units, the sales meant more than $20 million for local public schools and more than $48 million for the state. This was in 1963.

Last year the revenue was expected to have increased despite a sharp drop in income during the month immediately following release of the Surgeon General's report.

The tax on cigarettes is now seven cents per package. With two cents of this going into the school aid fund, legislators would be hard pressed to find a replacement for this income if a strong anti-smoking campaign was effective in Michigan.

Younger Voters
Leaders of both political parties have one constitutional change in common on their lists of legislative goals.

This is the lowering of the voting age to 18. If approved by the legislature this year it presumably would be on the ballot at the 1966 general election.

In the past, Democratic governors and a scattering of legislators have supported such a proposal. It was considered during the Constitutional Convention but lacked sufficient support.

Strong support for the idea has now been voiced by Gov. George Romney and Democratic legislative leaders.

"Our young people arrive at a peak of public interest at that age," contends Romney. "I am unqualifiedly for the 18-year-olds and above having the right to vote."

Democratic Senate and House leaders Raymond Dzendzel and Joseph Kowalski, both of Detroit, agree. They include it, along with revision of voter registration laws, as one of three major goals in the elections area.

Teenagers in the Central Michigan area formed a campaign group last year urging the legislature to put the voting question on the ballot.

The movement spread to a few other areas through school groups but failed to gain much attention in the quarters where it would count.

Legislative approval of a vote on the question would undoubtedly bring forth formation of a similar group on a statewide basis. Its size and enthusiasm could have great impact on the outcome of a vote.

Brag Days
As surely as spring arrives in mid-March, so does Michigan Week follow closely behind in May.

The 12th annual brag week has occupied many individuals and committees since the 1964 event ended last May 23.

The format this year will be much the same as in the past. As each of the previous ones, it, too, will be aimed at bigger and better achievement in promoting the state at home and afar.

Each day of Michigan Week, to be observed May 16-22 this year, has a special designation.

"Spiritual Foundations Day" officially starts the observance in church services and other public gatherings across the state.

The mayors' exchange, paired already, is the big feature of "Our Government Day," always set on Monday.

The remainder of the week is set aside daily to turn the spotlight on Michigan's hospitality, means of livelihood, education,
heritage and youth.

Again the goal is to make the six to eight months of work fruitful by involving as many of Michigan's populous in the observance as is humanly possible.

CYSTIC FIBROSIS

Q. I would like to know more about cystic fibrosis of the pancreas. What are the latest medical facts?

A. Cystic fibrosis of the pancreas is a complex disorder—so complex that a discussion in this limited space is impossible. Briefly, the latest findings seem to suggest that the underlying disorder involves certain glands of the body which are under the influence of the autonomic ("automatic") nervous system. There is some evidence that cystic fibrosis is hereditary, although this has by no means been proved. About all that can be said at this time is that research into the causes, nature and treatment of this stubborn disorder continues.

THUMBSUCKING

Q. A dentist told me that thumbsucking will make the upper front teeth protrude. Will you please discuss this subject?

A. There is some disagreement about the effects of thumbsucking but it is certainly true that the upper front teeth of a child can be thrust forward by steady pressure of the thumb. Most authorities state, however, that if the habit is broken by the fifth or sixth year the teeth tend to resume normal position. It is probably equally important to find out why the child finds it necessary to persist in the habit. Such a child is usually being subjected to undue pressure or stress and may be an early candidate for emotional disorders.

The seven dollar misunderstanding

The misunderstanding has to do with Chrysler and prices. Let's clear it up together.

This year, a full-sized Chrysler Newport
2-Door Hardtop is priced less than $7 a month more than the most popular smaller cars.

And when you compare a Chrysler with cars that are even smaller than Ford and Chevrolet, you're really in for a surprise. Their names are the only thing big about them.

Every car compared below is a 2-door hardtop. They all have V-8 engines, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, radio and heater. There is only one meaningful difference: Chrysler is the only big one.

So why not see your Chrysler dealer today?
Move up to Chrysler... it's easy!

Make	Wheelbase	Overall Length	V-8 Engine Cubic Inch Displacement	Base Monthly Payments	Difference Per Month
CHRYSLER NEWPORT	124"	218.2"	383	$65.67	—
FORD GALAXIE 500	119	210.0	289	$8.94	$6.73
CHEVROLET IMPALA	119	213.1	283	$8.94	6.73
OLDS F-85 CUTLASS	115	204.3	330	$9.26	6.41
BUICK SPECIAL SKYLARK	115	203.4	300	$8.65	7.02

BASIS OF COMPARISON—All models are 2-door hardtops equipped with V-8 engine, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, radio and heater. Monthly payments have been computed on manufacturers' suggested retail price, one-third down and 36 monthly payments. Not included are the extras you pay for on practically any new car: whitewall tires, deluxe wheel covers, destination charges, state and local taxes, interest, insurance and licensing fees.

The growing use of ELECTRIC HEAT IN SCHOOL BUILDINGS has made a lot of people curious— here are the FACTS

GROSSE ILE HIGH SCHOOL, in southwest Wayne County, another fine, new total electric school.

AKRON-FAIRGROVE HIGH SCHOOL, Tuscola County, will be as modern as tomorrow—a total electric school.

Before we even begin to talk about the superiority of electric heat, let's look an old bugaboo straight in the eye... it costs too much.

It simply isn't so!

Something can only cost too much in comparison with something similar. In this case, it's the operating cost of an electric heat system vs. the operating cost of some other kind of heating system.

Operating Cost Is More Than Just Fuel Cost

Perhaps operating cost should really be thought of as cost of ownership. In this broader context, there are a number of building construction, building equipment, annual repair and maintenance and annual labor costs which are affected by choice of heating systems.

Among the building construction and equipment costs which are altered or eliminated, according to choice of heating system, are these:

Building Item Required	Electric Heat	Fuel Fired System
Boiler room	No	Yes
Smokestack	No	Yes
Fuel storage	No	Usually
Steam or hot water piping	No	Yes
Pipe trenches	No	Yes
Boiler and controls	No	Yes
Boiler water pump(s)	No	Yes
Boiler water treating system	No	Yes

To keep this set of comparisons absolutely fair, the insulation of an electrically heated school must be better than the applications which are now acceptable in most school buildings.

It would pay to have topnotch insulation in EVERY school—pay off in heating economy and in student-teacher comfort, both winter and summer. But since it is not yet in widespread demand in all school plants, this may be an item of increased cost in an electrically heated building. The additional cost, however, when related to total construction cost, is insignificant.

Expansion Costs

In a constantly growing area like southeast Michigan, new school buildings invariably are increased in size—very often, more than once in their careers. Always a major item of cost when classrooms or other facilities are added is complete replacement of a too-small boiler or addition of boiler units.

Even when a foresighted school administration—anticipating building enlargement—installs an over-capacity boiler to begin with, school funds are tied up in the too big boiler and its auxiliary equipment. This non-productive use of money may be a burden for several years.

School building expansion, when the heating system's electric, is never a problem or an undue expense. All that's required is electrical distribution from the transformer to the newly added school plant—a normal cost of expansion which would apply regardless of type of heating system...

Annually Recurring Costs

There is another class of ownership costs which needs consideration when comparing electric heat to other types of heating systems for a school. These are the various expenses which recur, most of them on an annual basis.

Typical Recurrent Costs	Electric Heat	Fuel Fired System
Boiler maintenance	No	Yes
Boiler inspection fee	No	Yes
Boiler insurance	No	Yes
Boiler attendant(s)—labor	No	Yes
Ash disposal	No	Usually

Another recurrent cost which is sizable enough to help make the difference in heating systems is the amount of interest paid on the money which is borrowed to build a school.

An electrically heated school will be less costly to design and build because you are not buying a boiler with all its auxiliary equipment. No money goes for a boiler room, smokestack or a steam or hot water distribution system. So it follows—a less costly school, less money to borrow, less interest to pay on the borrowed money.

Electric Heat—Low Cost Comfort For Children And Teachers

The Superintendent of Schools of a school district in northern Ohio recently prepared a two-year comparative analysis* of heating operational costs for four of the schools under his supervision. It was a painstaking and detailed comparison, taking into account these major factors: fuel cost, heating labor cost, auxiliary fuel, auxiliary power, ash disposal, heating system maintenance.

Two of the schools have coal-fired boilers, one has a gas-fired boiler and one is completely heated electrically. Quoting from the report, "... the cost (for heating the electrically heated school) during the 1962-63 school year was 5¢ per square foot less than at the other three buildings... For the 1963-64 year, the savings was 12.9¢ per square foot."

In subsequent years, the savings should be closer to the 12.9¢ per square foot figure than to the 5¢ figure. This is a conclusion drawn from the following facts.

In 1962-63, the electrically heated school was a new structure. Some of the heating cost for it went to drying out concrete, masonry and plaster. This is an extraordinary expense not to be repeated.

Also, in February 1964, the utility serving the electrically heated school reduced its rate for electric power from 1.6¢ to 1.5¢ per kilowatt-hour.

And, finally, by 1963-64, the staff at the electrically heated school were better able to control electric power consumption.

One condition which helped establish the greater per-square-foot savings in 1963-64 may not always hold true. The weather during the '63-'64 heating season was slightly warmer than it was in '62-'63.

*Copies of this analysis will be made available to qualified inquirers on request.

Electrically Heated Schools In Southeast Michigan

1958 was the first year of record for electrically heated schools in the area which Detroit Edison serves. In that year, there were 26 classrooms completely heated in this modern way. Now, in early 1965, there are 12 total electric schools having 220 classrooms in the area.

In number of electrically heated classrooms, this is more than an eight-fold increase in seven years. Several more school and college buildings which will be all-electric, including heating, are now under construction within the area.

More For The Money

These are the features of electric heat which appealed most to the school administrators who wrote the analysis quoted above. Only slightly edited for brevity, this is essentially the language of that objective report.

Safety—Electric heat is highly automated. A minimum of human attention and judgment is all that's required in its operation. By so reducing the human element, a maximum of safety is achieved. Nor is electric heat complicated by auxiliary or satellite systems of any kind.

Simplicity—The absence of complex mechanisms makes it easier for building custodians to concentrate on their prime function—keeping a building and its equipment clean. Boiler room attendants are not a requirement.

Dependability—Electric heat reduces the possibility of building freeze-ups; eliminates boiler breakdowns during unattended hours.

When there's a boiler failure, the whole school must close down. If an electric heating unit fails, only the one room involved need be closed.

Flexibility—Electric heating equipment can be used just in the room or rooms where heat is required, completely independent of and without affecting any other part of the heating system. On a cool but sunny autumn day, for example, the heat may be on in rooms on the shady side of a school, off in rooms on the sunny side of the building.

Unscheduled, off-hours use of a school-room—even with the briefest advance notice—creates no heating problem. Electric heat reacts quickly and, again, there can be selective, one-room-only use.

Cleanliness—Since there is no combustion, electric heat does not create smoke, soot or ashes to add to cleaning chores.

Efficiency—With electric heat, there are no long, laborious heating up or cooling down cycles. The equipment is ready to furnish heat at the moment of need and there is no wasteful heat carryover when the equipment is shut down.

Warm weather benefits—With more efficient and effective building insulation, a school will be cooler and more comfortable in warm weather—a decided advantage to students and teachers.

Air conditioning is also simplified and made more economical since the electrical wiring installed for the heating system can also energize air conditioners.

Through the taxes it pays, Detroit Edison is one of the largest supporters of schools in the state. In this role, we are as concerned and interested as you are in seeing that our educational system operates as efficiently and economically as possible. It is our sincere belief that electric heat, when evaluated with an objective and open mind, will show itself to have the economy and efficiency we all want in our schools.

EDISON CUTS ELECTRIC RATE FOR TOTAL ELECTRIC SCHOOLS

Detroit Edison has just voluntarily reduced the electric service charge to schools in its service area which are all electric, including the heating. School administrators, school board members, architects and consulting engineers are invited to inquire at any Edison office concerning the details of this downward rate adjustment.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

Seems like a heap of folks out our way was sick with colds and the flu these days. I reckon this is the time of year fer it, with everybody wore down after a hard winter. Ed Doolittle, fer instant, has been in bed two days with a bad cold. I went by to see how he was gitting along and his old lady said he had a "virus" but Ed told me confidential it wasn't nothing but a old fashioned cold, said his old lady was just putting on airs with that "virus" stuff.
As a general rule, country folks has to be pritty sick when they take to their bed. They can't afford it.

On account of Ed ain't felt like reading the papers, I brung him up to date on the state of the nation. When I got through with my report Ed said his cold was a heap worse.

Actual, Mister Editor, things ain't been too good in the papers all week. Even here at home matters got off to a bad start Sunday. Our preacher told the congregation they wasn't no money in heaven and they wasn't none in hell and he was wondering what them folks that was trying to save up so much of it aimed to do with it. Up to now I ain't been able to figger out the answer. Maybe it ain't got none.

And then I see where the Mayor of some town in Florida has issued a official proclamation asking the parents to teach the Ten Commandments to their younguns. This will be a mighty good chanct fer the parents to learn 'em, too. And while we was discussing religious items in the news, I think I have come up with the answer with what's wrong with General DeGaulle.

This piece in the papers says they was completing a survey made in Paris and it showed they had one fortune teller fer ever 120 citizens, a doctor fer ever 514, and a preacher fer ever 5,240 people. It looks like the General has been listening to too many fortune tellers and not enough preachers.

A couple items was in the papers from behind the Iron Curtain that was mighty interesting.
A Washington column writer reported they had raised all the retail prices double in Shekolavakium (If I ain't got it spelt right, Mister Editor, just sneeze)
"to aid the workingman." I reckon they figger harder work fer less money should speed up the end of their worldly troubles.
That's the True Red philosophy.

And this piece said a Russia newspaper was claiming all American kids was hungry.
That's about the only true statement I have ever saw from a newspaper in Russia.

All in all, Mister Editor, the news was mostly bad this week.
Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Pfc. Mosher in Naval Operation

Marine Private First Class
James D. Mosher, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. James Mosher of Gagetown, participated Feb. 23-March 12 in a major fleet training operation called "Silver Lance" off the coast of California while serving with the Seventh Marine Regiment, First Marine Division, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The operation, under the direction of the Commander of the First Fleet, provided extensive training in every facet of Naval and amphibious warfare. Participating units received training in strike, anti-submarine, mine and countermine, anti-air and electronic warfare.

"Silver Lance" involved more than 60 ships and 50,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel.

The Seventh Regiment, one of three infantry regiments within the division, has been assigned an amphibious assault role with the III Marine Expeditionary Corps, a 25,000 man air-ground team.

The kind of success that turns a man's head often leaves him facing the wrong direction.

Family Life Bureau Offers Courses

Pre-marriage courses will be conducted from 2 to 4:30 p. m. Sundays during coming months at four sites in the Thumb Deanery under auspices of the newly organized Family Life Bureau of the Diocese of Saginaw of the Catholic Church.

The first courses are scheduled March 21 and 28 and April 4 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Bad Axe.

Other courses are scheduled: May 2, 9 and 16, St. Pancratius Hall, Cass City; June 13, 20 and 27, St. Joseph Parish Hall, Sandusky; and Aug. 15, 22 and 29, St. Elizabeth Parish, Reese.

Three sessions will be presented on these topics: First, "Man and Woman"; second, "The Doctor and Marriage" and "Morality and Marriage"; and third, "Marriage as a Way of Life" and "Adjustment to Marriage".

Rev. Paul C. Pelletier, Kinde, director of the Family Life Bureau, said its first objective was to organize these courses throughout the year at different centers, rather than only during Lent, as in the past.

Father Pelletier said it is hoped this will make it possible for all couples to take the course before marriage and also to permit more intensive work through three sessions.

"These courses are geared only for those, who are actually planning marriage in the near future", Father Pelletier said.
