

School Tax Plan Told

Concern over millage and site dominated the second organizational meeting called to examine plans for Cass City Public Schools' proposed new high school Monday night at the elementary building.

A scant 20 persons turned out for the session as compared to 80 persons attending the first meeting of representatives for school district

CB Radios Police Headache

When Citizens' Band radio was made available to the general public it was hailed as a king size advance in communication for business and recreation.

It has also turned into a king sized headache for county law officials.

Tuscola County Sheriff Hugh Marr reported that a band of kids with CB units are causing vandalism in Caro and are virtually impossible to catch in regular police cars.

With cars at each end of town equipped with the CB units, the youngsters keep an eagle eye out for the law and when the police car is at one end of town the kids notify their cohorts on the other end and the mischief begins.

The only way we will be able to stop this will be to use unmarked cars and we will do it, Marr said.

Senior Citizens Save on Taxes

An act just signed into law by Gov. Romney should help Cass City's campaign for a new high school when electors vote on the necessary bond issue June 14.

The bill provides for property tax relief for citizens 65 or over provided they meet other requirements of the bill.

If the bond issue for the high school passes, savings to senior citizens will amount to $66.87. The cut is computed by taking the total taxes for all purposes (26.67 mills) and multiplying it by the exemption authorized by the new law. The additional tax levy asked for the new school is five mills and the reduction for this tax alone would be $12.50. The law says that every senior property owner with a homestead with a state equalized assessed value of $10,000 or under and an income from all sources of under $5,000 will be eligible for tax relief on the first $2,500 of assessed valuation.

The local units of government will be reimbursed under the new law by the State.

The tax relief will not become effective until 1966. It will be 1967 before it is noticed by most taxpayers.

organizations and clubs.

Gordon Stowe, Warren Holmes architect, presented the revised plans which showed more detail but not a great deal of structural change. Several minor changes suggested at the earlier meeting and by the teaching staff were incorporated.

A question and answer period followed the examination of the plans. Despite the importance of the plans, presentation of the millage question to the public and explanations of the reasons for the proposed new school site were of more immediate concern.

Millage Philosophy
In explaining the millage proposition, Supt. Donald Crouse issued a statement stressing that the total tax levy will be 18.5 mills which represents an increase of only five mills.

"In presenting the financial picture for the proposed school," he explained, "a definite total school tax figure which will provide for both construction and operation of the new building has been proposed."

"The total tax levy will be 18.5 mills, which represents an increase of only five mills. Just how it will be possible to build and operate for only a five mill increase has been questioned."

It's Possible
"It is possible because of the sound financial structure of the Cass City Public Schools. It is possible because in two years, the present bonded debt of the district will be paid in full and with voter authorization, the three mills levied for debt retirement can be used for operation."

"This means the total operational money available to the school will be close to five mills. It will consist of the three mills now levied for debt retirement, the one and a half mills now levied for operation and a fractional portion of the five mill increase."

Propositions
Crouse explained the two propositions facing the voters on June 14.

"On June 14, the voters in the Cass City school district will be balloting on two propositions: (1) to bond for the construction of a new high school and (2) to authorize the levy of up to five mills for operation."

"The bond issue for the school building will be for a period of 20 years. The levy for operation will be for five years."

Passage of both issues means an 18.5 mill levy for a period of five years, which is a five mill increase over the present level," he repeated. "At the end of five years, operational millage will come up. Concluded on page three."

TWO TEACHERS with a combined total of over 50 years in the Cass City school system will retire this spring. Over the years they have noted many changes in children, teachers and teaching methods. (Chronicle photo)

"Temporary" Jobs End After 30 Years for Local Teachers

Two teachers who decided to work in Cass City for a "couple of years" are retiring at the end of the current year with a total of 40 years of full time and 20 years of substitute teaching behind them.

Concluding long and diligent careers are Mrs. Ella Price and Mrs. George Dillman. Mrs. Dillman has been teaching full time for 10 years and has been a substitute for 20 years. Mrs. Price has 30 years in the Cass City system. Over the years, says Mrs. Price, there have been many changes in the system in Cass City. "We expect more from our students and are getting more," she said.

Although she is retiring, Mrs. Price still has an active interest in the problems facing teachers. The load on the teacher is greater. In the very near future, something will have to be done to relieve the noon hour duties for teachers, Mrs. Price feels.

When I started teaching there were only a very few rural students who were eating lunch at school; the town children went home for dinner. Now practically all of the children eat at school and the teachers' problems multiply, she explained.

Fourth Grade
Mrs. Price and the fourth grade are synonymous in Cass City. For her entire 30 years she has taught this one grade. When I started I was in the current high school and we had space to burn, she recalled. Then, gradually the class expanded and the space diminished. I remember well looking out to what was then Dr. Donahue's corn field and trying to imagine what the new school would be like, she said.

I teach the fourth grade because this is the age group that I like to work for.

What does the future hold? Well, Mrs. Price isn't too sure. Whether or not she will work at another job is still open to question.

"I'll be taking an active part in the civic affairs of the community, she said, and will have more time for the children....Mrs. Kathryn Barnum of Covina, Calif., and Kenneth, with Chrysler Corporation at

From the Editor's Corner

Hugh Marr, Tuscola county sheriff, feels that the trend advocated by judicial personnel tending to gag the press as it pertains to trial and pretrial publicity is making police work harder.

Marr said that a responsible press protects not only the rights of the person arrested, but also the police officer who is handling the case.

If I worked in Saginaw or Flint, he said, the first thing I would do would be to resign. Marr has been sheriff of Tuscola county for nearly three years now. His work for the county has been outstanding. He has given the people in the county administration that has been effective and economical.

The late spring has created a sellers' market for hay. Every week now the Chronicle receives calls asking if we have any hay for sale. . . . and veteran observers say that hay is in the most critically short supply in memory.

To be fair to all, the paper does not reveal contents of the ads before the paper is published so every reader has an equal opportunity to buy.

Most folks have heard vaguely about firms engaged in interstate commerce. If you think you know what interstate commerce is, as defined by law, you are probably mistaken.

An excellent example of this very complex law was revealed to us in a casual conversation with the owner of the concern that washes the windows weekly at the Chronicle.

This concern has a contract for washing the windows and keeping the pay phone booths clean for Michigan Bell in the Thumb. He recently was investigated in connection with the law and the ruling was that his employees could wash the outside windows of the booths and not be engaged in interstate commerce.

But if they wiped the phone and swept out the floor of the booth, the concern was engaged in interstate commerce.

He said learning the difference cost him about $5,000 in penalties. Now he, the owner, sweeps out the booths and wipes the phones himself while a helper washes the windows.

Bauer Quits; Answers Charges of Critics

James Bauer removed himself from consideration as a candidate for the Cass City Planning Commission Tuesday night and related charges about his qualifications for the office at a special meeting of the council at the Municipal Building.

Bauer presented a prepared statement and then answered charges about his capabilities for doing the work.

"It has been said that I am too busy to handle the office," Bauer said, "and I want to say that my record will show that I have never shirked a duty."

My health has been questioned, also, Bauer said, and if all of you are in as good health as I am, you have nothing to worry about. My doctor will verify this statement.

A member of the council has said that I have been deceitful. Anyone in Cass City will tell you that I have always been ready to stand up and be counted, regardless of the issue.

I am backing down on this question only because I do not wish to divide the town.

In two previous meetings, President Lambert Althaver had tried to re-appoint Bauer to the planning commission for a three-year term.

The appointment must have the consent of the council and the appointment was challenged by Trustee D. E. Rawson with the support of Glen McCullough and Mrs. Gladys Albee.

The appointment was to hang fire for another month until the regular meeting of the council, but Bauer requested a special meeting where he could answer charges and remove his name from consideration from the board.

Rumors that other members of the commission were planning to tender their resignation in protest failed to materialize.

After Bauer left the council chambers, Althaver said that he still felt that the resignation of Bauer was a distinct loss to the village.

No other comments concerning the talk were made.

The complete text of Bauer's statement follows:
Gentlemen:

"As present Chairman and a member of the Cass City Planning Commission for the past seven years, I feel that for the best interest of the entire community, the Council and the Planning Board should be encouraged to have a complete understanding of the problems of this Commission and what their duties entail."

"First, I would say the Zoning Ordinance is a legal device for regulating the use of land within a governmental unit, its power is derived from the philosophy that the common good of the community is more important than the wishes of a single individual in the community."

"Planning and Zoning have played a very important part in the industrial and residential growth of Cass City."

"In the past the Commission has done its utmost in trying to solve some of the disputes and problems which have confronted this village in a manner that was fair for all, under the same set of rules and regulations. It has not been a pleasant assignment for members of this Commission but it is a necessary function of good government."

"The Planning Board should be made up of well qualified men who have had experience in city government and know the problems of the community and are aware of the future planning of the city. Above all, this Commission should not be a political football or for any selfish interest and personal gain."

"In closing I suggest the Council give great thought and study to their selection of members to this Commission, so as to choose the people who are best qualified for the position. I have always had the best interest of Cass City at heart and my only motive and gain was a better town. Due to the friction my reappointment is causing and for personal reasons I ask that my name not be considered."

Village to Haul Debris During Clean-up Week

In a pre-centennial bid to spruce up the village, Cass City Village President Lambert Althaver, acting in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce, has proclaimed May 10-14 as "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up" week.

The annual event takes on special significance this year because the village will have numerous out-of-town visitors and both the village and the chamber wish the town to make the best impression.

Handbills giving suggested projects were passed out earlier this week by Cass City Cub Scouts.

Suggested projects include: cleaning all rubbish from back and front yards; planting new grass on bare spots; trimming hedges, painting home exteriors and mending fences.

Other suggested projects were: clearing vacant lots of rubbish; cleaning rubbish, old papers, etc., from basements, attics and garages; and repairing sidewalks.

During the last two days of Clean-up Week, village trucks will haul the accumulated debris from in front of village homes.

Persons wishing further information may contact Althaver or James Ware, Chamber of Commerce president.

Ground Breaking Sunday

37 Members to Build New Church

A new combined church with just 37 charter members will embark on a $45,000 church building program this Sunday when ground breaking ceremonies have been scheduled at the site of the new building.

The Rev. Fred Johnson said this week that the Riverside and New Greenleaf United Missionary Churches have combined and will build the new church at a site previously purchased on Koepgen road, a mile west and about a half mile south of Cass City.

The church has purchased a total of seven lots in the area for the new church and a parsonage that will be added at a later date, Johnson said.

Treatment Gives Partial Sight to Alger Freiburger

Alger Freiburger, Cass City substitute mail carrier who lost his sight suddenly a month ago, has regained partial vision, according to a report from his wife after a visit Sunday.

Currently at Harper Hospital in Detroit, Freiburger lost the sight of both eyes from crystallization of the blood vessels in his eyes, a diabetes connected disorder.

Earlier treatment by four specialists brought back some sight in the right eye but the physicians held little hope Freiburger would be able to see with his left eye again.

Freiburger has been at Harper for the past three weeks and it is not known when he will be released, Mrs. Freiburger reports.

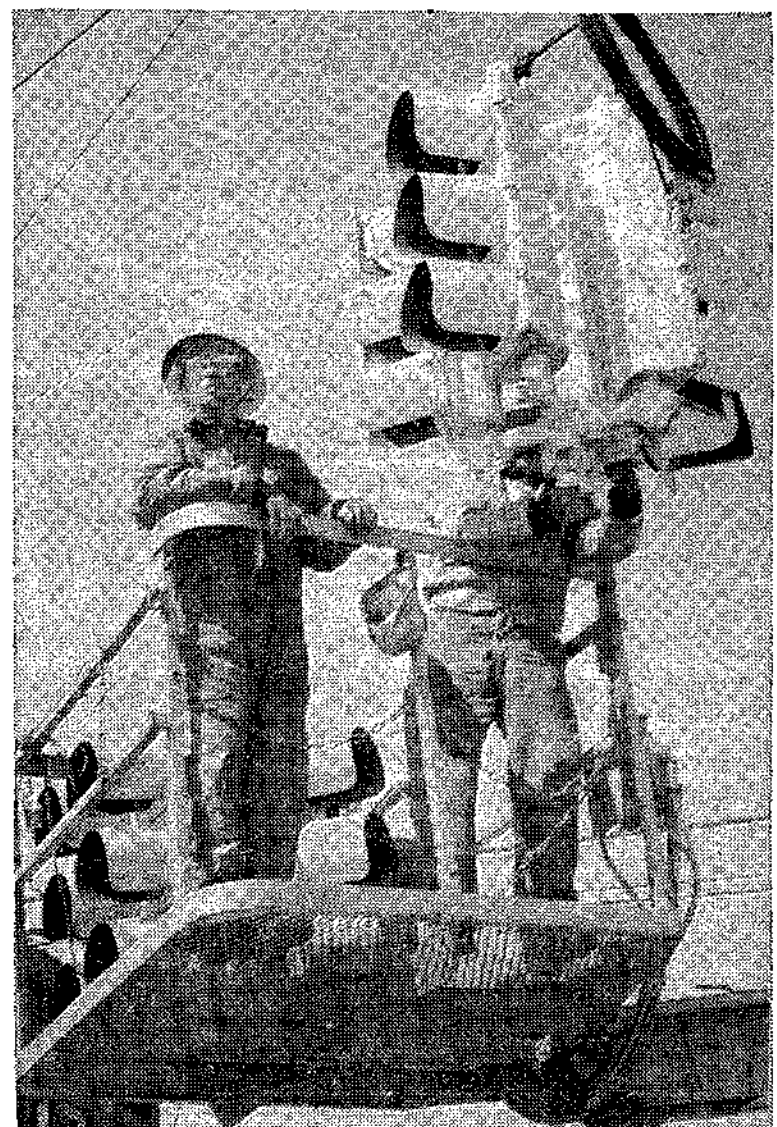

Persons wishing to write to Freiburger should address his mail to Harper Hospital, Room 346, Detroit, Michigan.

Mailbox Damaged

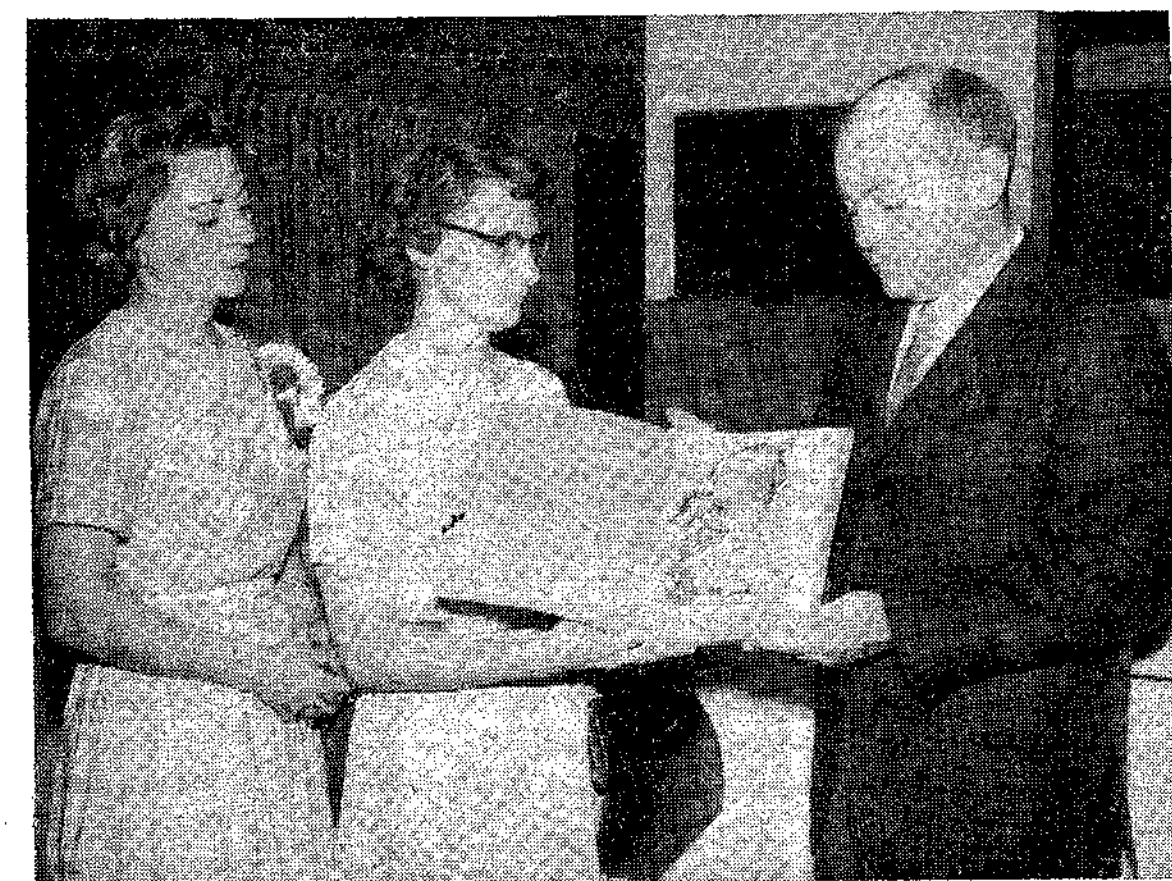

A mailbox on North Cemetery Road, a quarter mile south of Milligan Road, was destroyed Saturday evening when a car driven by Robert L. Spencer, 23, Cass City, struck it.

Spencer told investigating Tuscola county deputies that his right front tire blew out, pulling his car to the right and into the mailbox.

The mailbox belongs to Mrs. Milton Hoffman of Cass City.

AREA DRIVERS may complain of double vision for a few days until they get used to the two sets of stop lights at the intersection of Main and Seeger Streets. Michigan Highway Department employees are shown installing one of the two lights Tuesday morning. The double set-up is required by law in case one set should malfunction.

DAV Gift Books Presented

Tuscola County's only Disabled American Veteran's chapter, Chapter 50, presented Hills and Dales General Hospital's pediatric ward a set of hand-made picture books Monday in what is hoped will become a yearly contribution.

Mrs. Laura Profit, DAV Auxiliary commander, and Mrs. Joseph Gruber Jr., senior vice-commander, both of Cass City, presented the books to Richard Palm, hospital administrator.

The eight books consist of magazine pictures and games, cut out and carefully pasted on individual sheets of paper. Designed for the non-reading youngster, they will remain in the pediatric ward.

The project is one of many under consideration by the 16-member auxiliary. Others include child welfare, hospital work and community projects.

Reorganized just last year, with Mr. Profit as commander of the 50-member chapter and Mrs. Profit as commander of the auxiliary, the organization is located in Caro. Mrs. Pat Hayes, also of Cass City, is secretary-treasurer.

Meetings are held every second Wednesday at the courthouse at 7:30 p.m. Persons interested in joining are invited to attend.

Originally located in Gagetown as the Mathew LaBric Chapter, the organization slowly diminished until its reorganization last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Sargent

The Vassar Baptist Church was the scene of the candlelight ceremony in which Judith K. Bohnsack became the bride of Danny D. Sargent Saturday, April 3, at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. John S. Betelsmeyer officiated.

Pink and white carnations and gladioli decorated the church.

Parents of the bride are Harry Bohnsack of Cass City and Mrs. Bohnsack of Weidman. The groom is the son of Mrs. L. D. Sargent of Vassar.

The bride's gown of silk organza featured a fitted bodice, round neckline enhanced with imported lace in a floral motif, and long sleeves. The bouffant, floor-length skirt was adorned with lace medallions and complemented with a chapel train of organza. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was secured to a double queen's crown of petals embellished with crystals. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Tell County Law Enforcement Costs

It costs an average of 81 cents per person for law enforcement by the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department, Hugh Marr, county sheriff, reported Tuesday in an informal address to the Cass City Rotary Club at the New Gordon Hotel.

For their money, county residents receive the services of the department's nine-man squad and a radio tie-in with five other area counties, Marr said.

Our communication system is one of the best in the State, Marr said, and ties in law departments in the various counties. Cooperation among the counties is very good, he continued.

After the formal talk, Marr was asked why tickets were not given in accidents when the blame seemed clear.

The sheriff said what may seem to be a clear case of liability often is not. We will always make an arrest if a complaint is signed, he explained, but if the evidence indicates that both may be guilty, we do not issue tickets to either party.

On the other hand, Marr said, the number of tickets we are issuing is steadily increasing. Last year's 555 citations were the highest on record. We have shown a sharp increase each of the three years I have been sheriff, he concluded.

Monthly Report

Much of the sheriff's work can be gleaned from the monthly report that the department issues.

The department issued 88 traffic summonses, served 62 papers and admitted 35 prisoners during April. Sheriff's cars patrolled 23,506 miles and handled 850 calls, the report revealed.

Included were 336 criminal calls, 93 emergency calls and 278 service calls. The license bureau handled 699 transactions during the month. Sixty-eight road tests were given and 423 operator licenses were renewed.

Through a direct line from Cass City to the sheriff's office, fire calls are handled through the department.

Hazen Guinther of Cass City was named Band Booster president at the organization's annual Awards Banquet Tuesday night at the high school.

An estimated 150 persons saw Guinther and other officers installed by Lynn Spencer, retiring president. Other officers include: Robert Profit, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Butler, secretary; Mrs. Ron Geiger, treasurer. Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Geiger were re-elected. New committees were announced by Guinther.

Band Director Ronald Walker presented fifth grade, Junior high and senior high bands medals earned throughout the year.

Following her graduation, Miss Copeland, 19, will assume duties as a beautician at Helen's Beauty Shop in Cass City.

A 1964 graduate of Cass City High School, Miss Copeland studied the basics of hair cutting, coloring, permanent waving, manicures, facial treatments and scalp treatments.

Classical, Popular Music Slated for Spring Concert

Music for most tastes await those attending the Cass City High School a cappella choir's annual Spring Concert Thursday, May 20, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school.

For classical music lovers, the concert will open with "Jesu, Priceless Treasure," and "Now Let All the Heavens Adore Thee," by J. S. Bach, noted 18th century German composer.

Next, for the young at heart and those with more popular tastes, music from Walt Disney's award winning "Mary Poppins," and "My Fair Lady," by Lerner and Loewe, will be presented by soloists and ensemble groups.

Then everyone gets into the act as the choir invites the audience to "sing along" with such old-time favorites as "East Side, West Side," "Just a Song at Twilight," "The Band Played On," and "Bicycle Built for Two." The "sing along" will be in commemoration of Cass City's centennial.

Winding up the concert will be the choir's presentation of "Chim-Chim-Cher-ee" from "Mary Poppins."

The public is invited to attend, according to Roger Parrish, choral director. A free-will offering will be taken.

Newspapers are a major part of the American economy.

Reschedule Work Night After Fathers Fail to Turn Out

If there is to be a Little League program this year, more fathers are going to have to take an active interest, League officials charged Tuesday.

The warning came after a work night at the baseball diamond during which only two fathers appeared to work. There are approximately 150 boys in the Little League program.

"We were very disappointed with the turnout," Lee Hartel, league secretary, reported after the work session. "If there is going to be a program and a diamond ready for the season, then we'll have to have more response."

Another work night was scheduled for Friday, May 14, at 6 p.m. at the diamond.

Auxiliary Members Hear Reiner Jack

Thirty attended the May meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary held at the Legion hall Monday evening.

Mrs. Garrison Stine presided over the business meeting, in which a Chapter of Centennial Belles was organized. Poppy day sales was announced for May 20-22, with Mrs. Leo Tracy as chairman.

Mrs. Dorus Klinkman has been named parade chairman for Memorial Day services. Mrs. Arthur Kelley and Mrs. Wilbur Morrison will provide plants for graves of deceased members.

Election of officers will be held at the June meeting. Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Dorus Klinkman were named as a nominating committee.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Arthur Little introduced Reiner Jack, German exchange student, who spoke to the group. In his talk he stressed five aspects of life in West Germany: political, economic, educational, church and social life. He stated that only five per cent of the people in his country attend church. There are only two denominations, Catholic and Lutheran. Churches are supported by payroll deductions. He noted that in the United States 40 per cent of the population attends church.

Regarding social life, he said that 60 per cent of the people do not have automobiles; two out of three homes have TV, and between five and ten per cent have telephones. Also there is no prohibition in Germany and boys may patronize bars at the age of 14 and 15.

Door prizes for the evening went to Mrs. Garrison Stine and to Peggy Schwartz.

Refreshments were served. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Arthur Little, Mrs. Lawrence Strace, Mrs. Louis Salas, Mrs. Elizabeth Gruber and Mrs. William O'Dell.

in the school, or who has investigated the school, realizes that we must have a new building. Classes are now held on the stage platform, in a closet, and the only areas not used for classes are the latrines.

But the question arises, is our financial structure ready for it? Hence I made a comparison of our position with that of our sister community, Caro.

I found the following:

Cass City has been having a tax rate of 13.5 mills. There is no question that we don't like additional taxes but education is the last place to cut down.

To Name Bridge Marathon Winners

One sure winner in the hospital auxiliary bridge marathon will be the Hills and Dales Hospital Auxiliary which annually nets about $450 from the project.

There is doubt about who the card-playing winners will be, but the announcement of the high scoring pair of each of the four participating groups is expected this month.

The prizes will be awarded at the monthly meeting of the Auxiliary Monday, May 24, at 2 p.m. Auxiliary money is used to buy new hospital equipment.

In other club news, it was revealed that members, including Mrs. Neil Hurry, president, will attend a workshop presented by the East Central District of Michigan Hospital Auxiliaries May 19 at Saginaw General Hospital.

Student Art to Highlight K-12 Show at Center

Elkland Township Cultural Center's first art show will contain over 200 pieces of all ranges of art, according to Mrs. Karen Wallace, Cass City Public Schools art instructor.

Slated for May 17-22, the show will display "some representative samples of some of the better things we do," Mrs. Wallace reports. Co-director of the show is Mrs. Theda Leigh, extern art teacher.

"We feel that art plays an important part in development of the child," says Mrs. Wallace. "Qualities such as confidence, initiative, and freedom of thought should grow out of creative activity because the child is involved with independent judgment and personal sensitivity."

On display from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. will be the work of children in grades K-12, featuring all media of paints and three dimensional work such as pottery, sculpture and papier-mache.

Guest Mayor Tells Bancroft's Problems

Our big problem is probably the same as yours, Harold Kingsley, 57, councilman from Bancroft, said this week as he prepared to visit Cass City Monday with Bancroft Village President Jack Poelstra . . . not enough money to go around.

Kingsley was a little vague about the most pressing needs of his community. I was just elected councilman and have been to only two meetings, he said. Our president was also just elected this spring, he explained. We had no competition for the posts, he reported. We are engaged in a blacktopping program, he said.

SCHOOL BOARD

Still agitating some voters is the site selected for the new school. President Horace Bulen defended the selection both aesthetically and economically.

Stowe also pointed out that his firm had evaluated all the available sites and found the suggested site more acceptable.

Bulen also commented that he had heard some criticism on the size of the gymnasium. "If we build a gym too small and in ten years outgrow it, what can we do?" he asked. "It's almost impossible to enlarge a gym."

"Those who planned the present school did a wonderful job by looking ahead. We are trying to do as well," he concluded.

General Meeting
A general meeting, open to the public, will be held Tuesday, May 25, to give district voters an opportunity to view the plans.

Kindergarten Enrollment Set At Area Schools

Another crop of youngsters will take the first step toward school careers within the next week, authorities announced at four area schools.

Kindergarten enrollment at the Willis Campbell Elementary School has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 18, in the cafeteria. A film, "Getting your Children Ready for School," will be shown.

Parents are asked to bring immunization records and birth certificates.

Children will not accompany their parents to this meeting. They should be brought to school Friday, May 21, authorities said.

Country children are expected at 9:30 a.m. and village children at 1:30 p.m.

Owengate School

Kindergarten enrollment will be held at Owengate School Friday, May 14, from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. All children who will be five years old on or before Dec. 1 are eligible for enrollment.

Deford School

Enrollment at Deford Community School will be held Tuesday, May 18, at 1:30 p.m. Parents must bring the child's birth certificate.

Evergreen School

Enrollment at Evergreen school has been scheduled for Friday, May 14, from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Parents are asked to bring birth certificates and immunization records, school authorities said.

Social Security Swindlers Lurk in Tuscola County

Be careful when a person comes calling at your home claiming to be a representative of the social security administration, John Maidlow, manager of the social security office in Caro, said this week.

You may become a victim of a swindle such as two that were attempted in Vassar and the one that was tried in Caro, Maidlow said.

Men come to the homes of persons of social security age and try to hoodwink them out of money by telling stories that aren't true, he explained. At one home we had the FBI waiting, he continued, but the would-be swindlers backed off when the cash was to be exchanged.

The proper place to learn about social security is at the social security office, Maidlow emphasized. To make it convenient for area persons, a representative of the department, Thomas C. Boyden, will be at the Cass City Council rooms in the Municipal Building again Friday, May 14.

Interested persons are urged to make use of his services, starting at 1 p.m.

Supervisors Nix Deer Law Change

If Tuscola County supervisors have their way, there will be no immediate changes in county conservation laws governing deer herds.

At their May session Monday at the court house in Caro, the board approved a resolution putting them on record as "not favoring any change in existing conservation laws in regard to deer herds in Tuscola county."

The resolution came after Harold Tubbs, conservation official for the county, read a letter from the Michigan Department of Conservation which suggested some changes were necessary.

Although no specific changes were offered, it was understood that one feature was a doe season, to which the board is opposed.

Several minutes were spent discussing a proposed merger of the Social Welfare and Social Aid offices, to which the supervisors also expressed no favor.

Although no official action was taken, discussion indicated the board was not in favor of an immediate merger, Clerk Archie Hicks reported.

Civil Defense Director Frank Kroswek was given the go-ahead to seek Federal financial assistance for Unionville under the Federal Disaster act.

Kroswek reported on damage in the Unionville area during a recent tornado, explaining that requests for the money, to be used to erect a new municipal building, would have to come through the county.

Okay Television At Deford School

Deford Community School students will be getting some of their art, music, and science instruction next year via television in an experiment in educational TV for the Cass City school system.

The Central Michigan University sponsored program was approved by the Cass City Board of Education Monday night in a meeting following the examination of plans for the proposed new high school.

Supt. Donald Crouse and Robert Stickle, new Deford principal, examined the program at the University. It is designed as a teaching aid in the three courses.

Normally, the charge for educational TV for the entire system would be about $500 but a special experimental rate of $250 has been secured.

Financial assistance to purchase classroom TV's and an antenna will be sought under the National Defense and Education Act.

Programming will come from channels 12 and 19 (Delta). It is expected most of the lessons will be over channel 12. Workbooks and allied materials will be supplied by CMU.

Bus Bodies
Two Wayne bus bodies, costing $3,623 each, were approved for purchase along with a Dodge and a Chevrolet chassis to be bought from local dealers.

Axle speed is to be determined by Supt. Crouse and Board President Horace Bulen.

Cliff Ferguson of Cass City Oil and Gas was given the contract to supply gas for driver's training based on a bid submitted last year. Frank Meiser was low bidder last year but declined the contract this year.

Election inspectors for the June 14 school election were appointed. Named were: Earl Harris, Mrs. Neva Zimmerman, Mrs. Phyllis Churchill, Mrs. Jessie Goodall and Florence Carpenter. Alternates are Janet Bishop, Chester Graham and Bernard Freiburger.

Crouse was authorized to borrow up to $40,000 on anticipated State aid for operating expenses.

Quartet to Sing

The Calvarymen Quartet of Flint will present a gospel concert at the Gagetown Church of the Nazarene, it was announced this week.

The concert is scheduled Sunday, May 23. The quartet will sing gospel and sacred music at the special program.

Five Mothers Win Anniversary Cakes

Five Cass City mothers received special Mother's Day surprises Saturday, May 8, when they were presented decorated cakes and cake dishes by Sommers' Bakery.

Mrs. J. D. Sommers presented the cakes in conjunction with the firm's 28th anniversary.

The winners' names were entered by their daughters or friends. Named "Centennial Mother of the Year," and presented a large cake was Mrs. Oran Hughes. Her name was submitted by her daughter, Mrs. Mary Smith.

Other names picked were: Mrs. Bob Groth, submitted by Sharon Groth; Mrs. Patrick Rabideau, submitted by Suzanne Rabideau; Mrs. Glenn Churchill, submitted by Mrs. Amasa Anthes Jr., and Mrs. Harvey Kritzman, submitted by Mrs. Phyllis Pallas.

and not from the village itself. Supt. Milton Bedore was appointed to attend a Lansing meeting on county equalization assessing.

Senior high school students from Cass City, Vassar, Millington, and Fairgrove were introduced to the board and stayed for part of the session during which supervisors explained city and village government workings, and duties of the county board of supervisors.

Three students from all of the county's schools are slated to take part in Michigan Week "Government Day" activities at the court house Monday.

Post Office Seeks Lease of Vehicle

The Post Office at Cass City is accepting bids for contract vehicle hire. The department wants a one-year lease with an opportunity to renew for three additional one-year periods.

Bids must be in the post office not later than 2 p.m. Saturday, May 15.

Body capacity must be 80 cubic feet or more and the vehicle must not be over six years old. Complete details are available at the post office.

Dogs Face Death, Owners Face Fines If Law Not Heeded

Dog owners refusing to heed the village's dog ordinance will have to pay a $5.00 fine plus a license fee to get their pets back from the local dog catcher.

Police Chief Carl Palmateer, in response to numerous complaints, issued a reminder to dog owners this week to keep their dogs tied up and under control.

Dogs found running and not claimed within 48 hours will be destroyed. The license fee applies to unlicensed dogs.

To find out if their dog is being held, pet owners may call the Municipal Building or the police department, Palmateer advised.

Hawk Nine Splits
Two Loop Games

Cass City High School split a pair of league games this week, losing a 12-3 decision to undefeated Vassar Monday while whipping Sandusky Thursday, 8-2.

Wayne Copeland pitched the Hawks to victory against Sandusky. He allowed seven hits but was better perfect in the control department as he didn't walk a batter. The Redskins touched him for a run in the first on a pair of hits and in the fifth when Trend slammed out a home run, but that was all.

Meanwhile, his teammates backed up his pitching with a lusty 11-hit attack. After wasting hits in the second and third, Cass City staged a three-run rally in the fourth to salt away the game. Jim and Jerry Knoblet opened with hits and scored on a hit by Schember. The Hawk second baseman later scored himself on an error and a sacrifice by Hartwick.

The Hawks added a couple of more in the fifth and made the game a runaway in the seventh when they scored three more times on three hits. Jim Knoblet led the attack for the Hawks with three hits in four tries. Jerry Knoblet collected two for three and Schember was two for four.

Vassar Game
After three straight victories, Cass City ran into the power pitching of M. Gleeson and the power hitting of his Vassar teammates and the result was a one-sided victory for the league leaders.

The game was close for only one inning. Cass City scored when Wayne Copeland walked and was pushed across on a hit by Champion.

Vassar matched that one and then scored three more times in the second to settle the issue for all practical purposes.

In the third, the Vulcans turned the game into a rout with a rash of hits, mingled with Hawk errors that drove starter Jim Champion from the mound and brought on Copeland. The visitors rapped out six hits, good for seven runs in the inning.

Gleeson allowed just two hits and struck out 11 while going the distance for the winners. Vassar picked up 11 hits off the combined sants of Hawk pitchers.

Regional Track
Here

For the sixth straight year Cass City will host the regional track meet for class "D", "C" and "B". It was revealed this week by Robert Stickle, meet manager.

The regionals will open Friday afternoon at 3:35 o'clock when class "C" schools compete. Included will be Ubyly and Marlette from the immediate area.

Saturday's events start at 10 a.m. Both Class C and B will compete. Twenty-seven schools are expected to flock to the community for the event.

Preliminary events will be run during the day and finals at night. Cass City is the defending champion in Class B. Paced by Walter Hempton the Hawks finished first when Hempton won both hurdle events and the high jump.

The Hawks are conceded virtually no chance to repeat last year's victory.

Habitual worry simply puts the headlight on the tail-end.

COMMENTS BY KRAFT

The Ballad of the Borrowed Bastille

By Dave Kraft

The item about the "wiener tork" (And that is a "t") rattled a few funny skeletons at Walbro. Loun-bert Althaver, vice-president, called me with a sequel to the short life of the invention.

"It was an artistic success, but a practical failure," says Lambert. He explained that Walbro, then in its poverty-stricken infancy, went into the venture quite heavily, ordering 10,000 to 15,000 sets of parts.

The "tork" has a rod running through the handle which turns the prongs holding the wieners. The handle is part wood and part metal tubing.

The tubing was cut so as to be long enough to keep the holder's hand away from the heat. Every-thing went fine until they ordered the boxes the "torks" were to be sold in.

Somebody goofed and the boxes were too short.

Only thing to do was cut the handles off shorter. This brought the hand closer to the fire.

"This made the fingers roast be-fore the hot dogs," Lambert re-mem-bers.

Dick Erla, in a magnanimous gesture and because he needed something for a sale, purchased Walbro's "distressed stock." Dick brought a left-over in the other day so I could send it to Charles Klinkman.

Haven't decided whether I'll send it to Chaz or keep it myself. I can't get too close to the fire with this beard.

One of the world problems fore-most in our minds at this time is the Viet Nam situation. Just how prevalent it is in our thoughts was brought up rather humorously at a recent Lions meeting.

One of our group was com-menting on what type of annual show to offer next year. There were several suggestions and then some joker offered, "How about a Chinese minstrel show?"

To which another wit asked, "Do you think they'll be here by then?"

This led to a discussion of John-son's policies and so forth. Another character (there seems to be a pre-ponderance of characters in the Lions) said, "Guess I have to get my uniform out of the box in the attic."

Duke Turner then suggested, "I'll tell you the best thing to do. Get your uniform, put it on, then get in the box it came out of and pull the lid down tight."

I think I'll just get some more bullets for my .22.

Hanging on a bakery display case at Sommers' Bakery is a pamphlet entitled "What Men Know About Women."

Know what's inside? Nothing.

Frank G. Skripick, formerly of Deford, has put the disappearance of the Centennial Jail to poem. In his poem he gives us some insight as to why, if not by whom, the jail was taken.

If we could get someone to write the music to fit the words, we could call it "The Ballad of the Borrowed Bastille." Or something. Frank's poem goes:

"A clique of men known as Bro-thers of the Brush Purchased a cage with political push. This street corner bastille they said was a must. Then they thought up a punishment most unjust For the safety minded man who has no desire To sport a beard and be singed by fire. The sudden presence of the Cliff Ferguson jail Told the sad story that justice would prevail."

Farm Women Hear Mrs. Boyne

A glimpse of Washington was given Farm Bureau Women at their regular meeting Friday at the Farm Bureau Center in Caro. In a slide-illustrated talk, Mrs. Ford Boyne traced the history of the nation's capital and described historic attractions.

Mrs. Boyne was sponsored by the local organization on the Michigan Farm Bureau Washington Legislative tour.

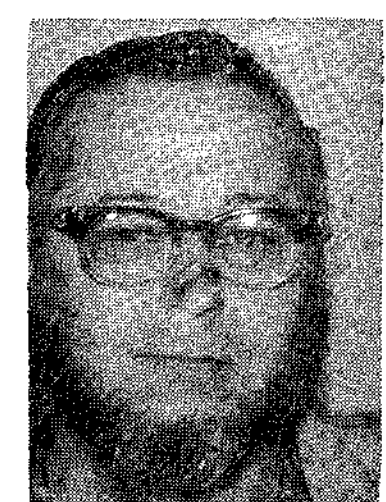

The group voted to continue sponsorship of a Korean boy for the 11th year. Education fees, gifts and letters from the committee since 1954 have helped him to attain an education, at present through second year in college.

It was announced that "Heart of the Home" classes are scheduled for June 22 and June 29, at the Farm Bureau Center. Any home-maker who is a victim of heart at-tack or stroke, or anyone with an interest in this area is invited to attend the sessions. Ways will be shown to do housework not in-jurious to the afflicted.

John Asher First to Name Mystery Beard

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. That's one of the secrets of success in the Chronicle's guess the man behind the beard contest.

Several times previously a mem-b-ber of the Chronicle's staff guessed who was behind the beard pictured in the Chronicle, but al-ways trailed someone else who was first.

This time John Asher guessed first. When he named his uncle, Ellis Karr, he won a free subscrip-tion to the Chronicle.

Others among the first to guess right were Grace Root, Judy Wright and Joyce Karr.

This week's mystery man should be no mystery to many of you. Now think....just where did I see this face.....

News never takes a holiday and this newspaper continues to bring that news to your home throughout the year, as it happens.

Agent's Corner

Barbara Henrikson

A wise woman once told me, "Be kind to all, be friends with many, be intimate with few. And let those few be well chosen."

Kindness to all is difficult to achieve. It's worth the effort to be kind to the boss' wife even when you don't like her.

There are so many "little" peo-ple, however, who don't mean a thing to us. Here, being kind can be a real effort.

Many times we are afraid to be kind to someone who is considered odd, because we think others will think we're odd, too.

Why worry about what others are thinking of you? They are worried about what you think of them.

A lonely old person with no fam-ily, few friends and a grumpy ex-pression may only grunt when you wave and smile. But I bet he'll remember it. It may be the high point of his day, maybe even his week.

That wild neighbor kid may just rev up his motor when you call him by name and smile. People's lives have been changed by such simple things. It could suddenly hit home that you would be disappoint-ed if he knocked down road signs with the gang tonight. You are often more important to people than you realize.

I'm not suggesting that you start collecting lame ducks. You needn't let people tie up your phone for hours, or while at you when you have other things to do, or invade your privacy.

Letting lonely people know you've had enough is kinder than resenting them so much that you avoid them next time.

In the kindnesses, you discover some that you are only benevolent toward and a few that you want for friends. Among the friends, there will be a very few that you will be able to trust completely, who talk your language, who are tuned in on your wave length, peo-ple that you want to be intimate with.

You find some of the best friends in the strangest places. You will only find them if you are kind to all.

BRAIN CAPACITY

Q. Is it possible to overload the brain with information?

A. No, it hardly seems possible. Brain cells involved in the learning process are called neurons. They are like the tubes in modern computing machines. Remarkable as the man-made machines are they are like toys compared with the human brain. The most complicated "electronic brain" has fewer tubes than the number of neurons in a fishing worm!

SUMMER AMENORRHEA

Q. I menstruate regularly during the fall, winter and spring but stop completely during the summer months. Is this cause for concern?

A. You might consult your physician just to set your mind at ease. Actually, many girls who menstruate regularly most of the year experience complete cessation during the summer. Doctors call it "summer amenorrhea." The cause is unknown. Like "stress amenorrhea," summer an-orrhea tends to diminish with age and virtually disappears in the twenties.

Feeling below par? See your doctor. Have a prescription? See us for prompt dispensing service.

Award College Grants to 5 Local High School Seniors

The Committee on University Scholarships of the University of Michigan has announced the granting of a Regents-Alumni Scholarship, for the school year beginning September, 1965, to David W. McNaughton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn McNaughton of Snover.

The Regents-Alumni Scholarships are made available each year to high schools accredited by the University. They are awarded in recognition of academic performance, scores in competitive tests, and citizenship record. They are renewable for the entire four year period, provided that a satisfactory point average is maintained.

David W. McNaughton

McNaughton has been chiefly interested in mathematics and science while in high school and would like to prepare for teaching science at the secondary level.

In addition to the Regents-Alumni Scholarship, he was granted an award from the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority.

MSU Scholarships

Two seniors of Cass City High School have been granted Scholarships to attend Michigan State University next fall.

Step Up Campaign to Reduce State's $75,000 Litter Bill

Dirty People

Social change is a major cause for the estimated $750,000 bill Michigan taxpayers meet each year just for picking up litter, according to a national study.

The Institute for Motivational Research recently confirmed previous indications that thoughtlessness and carelessness were the chief reasons people strew litter in public places.

"Apparently the complex social trends of our modern world have tended to sever the individual's relationship to his community and thus reduce his sense of social responsibility and civic pride," the study says.

Simply stated, the Institute reported that the litterer who wouldn't think of dropping his cigarette pack on his living room floor could be expected to discard it unnoticed in a public building.

Much of the cost of pickup is on the highways. State Highway Department officials estimate it costs an average of 32 cents to pick up a single litter item.

Cleanup campaigns in communities across the state properly center the burden of responsibility on each individual. Yearly statewide cleanup costs would indicate a need for these special campaigns to last 12 months rather than just a few days or a week.

Little relief has been gained to date from Michigan's anti-litter law, touted as one of the best of its kind in the nation, although a stepped up enforcement program is under way.

As Gov. George Romney said in a proclamation for Michigan's special cleanup week this year, "It is absolutely essential for every citizen, regardless of where one lives or how busy one is, to exercise a relentless concern and personal responsibility to keep trash of any kind off our public and private thoroughfares and lands."

There is one year-round private statewide effort being conducted to rid Michigan of litter problems. Working in cooperation with the State Chamber of Commerce, Keep Michigan Beautiful Inc., has as its goal "to make Michigan the best groomed state in the nation."

To achieve this worthy goal, the organization is soliciting and must have the support of all government agencies, industries and individuals.

Keen Competition

Talk about a unified budget request for higher education seemed just so much malarkey when spokesmen for the various institutions went before the legislative appropriations committees this year.

Previously hope was voiced by some spokesmen that a single budget request could be planned for next year. When this year's hearings went down to the wire it was the same old story, however.

The story, so familiar because of its annual retelling, goes, "Once upon a time in years back, and today, and tomorrow and next year we have been, are and always will be the worst!"

Each institution has its reasons why it should get the lion's share of the higher education budget pie.

Spokesmen for one institution say it needs more money because of its extensive graduate program. Others need a big share of the funds because of the growing area demand for education facilities.

Still a third provides some specialty field of training which demands special consideration, and another demands attention simply because its administrators feel they are not getting their fair share.

At the continuing rate of rivalry between the several state-supported colleges, it would appear there is little hope of any future agreement on a unified budget request for higher education.

College officials are not alone in presenting the "I like me best and you should too" attitude to the legislature, however.

Every agency administrator in state government brings in a similar plea when the budget hearings are held annually. This year, legislators will hear this twice, but the colleges will be left out of the second round.

Once the budget is settled upon hearings are anticipated on the government reorganization proposals. In these the fighting is likely to become even more bitter since administrative survival will be at stake.

In budget hearings, agency heads know they will get some portion of their request. Government reorganization will result in the absorption of some agencies and possible abolition of others.

Record Counts

Proof of effective service likely will become a key tool in arguing for self-preservation in the organization shuffle. It also looms largely as a big vs. little fight.

Each agency head will want to remain at or near the top of the bureaucratic hierarchy.

Chiefs of smaller units, such as the banking department, will have an uphill battle trying to convince the legislators they have what it would take, for example, to assimilate the insurance department, municipal finance commission and other agencies which might be lumped into a single department.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

A regular meeting of the Council of the Village of Cass City was held on April 27, 1965 at 7:00 p.m. All members were present.

Minutes of the March regular and one special meeting were read and approved as read.

President Althaver again recommended the appointment of Jim Bauer and Lester Ross to the Village Planning Commission and asked the council to concur with these recommendations. There followed discussion of these appointments, the high-lights of which are as follows:

Pres. Althaver indicated that the authority under which the Planning Commission existed was found in the basic law of the State of Mich. This law indicates that the commission is responsible for the interpretation of the specific ordinances within its area. The law further indicated that the commission should be staffed with men with different backgrounds. It further indicated that such commissions have a sizeable responsibility in advising and consulting with the governing body of municipalities.

At this point, Dr. Rawson indicated that his objection to Mr. Bauer's appointment stemmed from his concern over Mr. Bauer's position on five major commissions or boards within the community which might tend to centralize control of a large part of the village's welfare in one man's hands. The organizations indicated were Planning Commission, Board of Appeals, Hills & Dales Hospital board, Walbro Corp. board and Centennial organization. Dr. Rawson also indicated that Mr. Bauer is in poor health and this should bring about reconsideration of his qualifications. At this time Trustee McCullough stated that it was his understanding that following the recent elections Mr. Bauer had indicated that he did not want the job. Trustee McCullough further indicated that there were other members of the Planning Commission who had considerable experience.

Pres. Althaver then told the council that he had personally sought Mr. Bauer out following the recent election and asked if he would be willing to accept reappointment to the Planning Commission. After giving the matter considerable thought, Mr. Bauer said that he would be willing to accept it for another term.

Pres. Althaver then indicated that in his opinion the importance of having all the experience available at work for the village could not be minimized. At this point Trustee Freiburger indicated that he had discussed the operation of the Planning Commission with members B. A. Calka and Lester Ross. Both men indicated to him that J. Bauer was doing a good job and should be retained for another term.

Motion made by Trustee Seals, seconded by Trustee Auten, that appointments to the Planning Commission and Board of Appeals be tabled until the May regular meeting. Motion carried.

The committee working on the fire agreement had nothing to report.

The committee working on the dump site reported the receipt of a letter from Mr. Fred B. Kellow, Sanitary Engineer for the Health Dept., commenting favorably on the proposed site. Other testings have not been made.

The Park Committee made the following recommendations which were put in the form of a motion.

A motion made by Dr. Rawson, seconded by G. Albee, that Alvah Hillman be given a pay increase of 15 cents from $1.35 to $1.50. Motion carried. Motion made by Dr. Rawson, seconded by G. McCullough, that the road between the swimming pool and the picnic tables be abandoned, broken up, additional dirt put on, seeded and trees planted. Motion carried.

The Park Committee referred the tree ordinance to the Planning Commission.

No progress has been made on the village insurance program.

Considerable study has been given to the employee retirement program and it appears that it will require an amount equal to 5 per cent of the total payroll to provide all employees with 10 per cent of their yearly earnings per year starting at age 65. It was the consensus of the council that the finance committee should look further into the Municipal League's plan and a contributory plan as well as those they are presently studying.

It was suggested that the auditing firm of Yeo & Yeo be called in to assist in implementing some of the recommendations concerning the village accounting system. This matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

It was reported that two-thirds of residents on Leach and West, where curb and gutter is proposed, have signed the petitions.

Truck control ordinance has been referred to Planning.

A delegation from the Chamber of Commerce was present to discuss the matter of the alley improvement. It was estimated that the cost would be $4.00 a running foot for a 30 ft width to grade, gravel and black top. An informal poll was taken and the majority of the members felt that the village should pay the total costs of the 30 ft width if the property owners would agree to carry the black top right up to the rear of their buildings. It was mentioned that considering the fact that the businessman pays both real and personal property taxes he receives little benefit from the taxes he pays as the State Highway Dept. assists in the maintenance of Main St. This matter was referred to the Planning Commission.

President Althaver reported that Novesta Township will again contribute $175.00, Elkland Twp 400, Elkland - Novesta Community Chest 400 toward the Summer Recreation Program.

Dr. Selby was present to inquire if progress had been made on his request that he be allowed to purchase the land adjoining the tower. No progress was reported.

Motion made by J. Seals, seconded by B. Freiburger, that the real property assessed valuation of $3,636,400 and the personal in the amount of $937,200 be accepted. Motion carried.

A petition has been received for curb and gutter on Maple from Garfield South to M Street. This petition will be put on file.

The need for additional manpower for the village crew was discussed. A job description will be written and applicants sought.

The council has been asked by members of the Centennial Group to be allowed to display banners on the trunk-line and to close the trunk line between 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. on July 24, 1965. Closing of the trunk-line, after some discussion, was tabled pending further information on the necessity of closing M-81 for a distance of two miles.

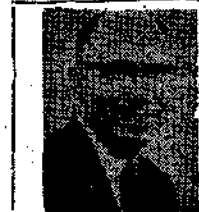

Tom Proctor was present to bring to the council's attention a problem regarding the new steel anchor poles for the stop light. After considerable discussion, it was suggested that as many trustees as possible meet with members of Detroit Edison and General Telephone at the Main corner at 9 o'clock the next morning to review the problem.

Trustees Albee and McCullough were appointed to work with the township representative on Memorial Day arrangements.

The council discussed the demonstration of the O'Brien sewer cleaning machine, purchase of which could be spread over a number of years interest free. This matter was tabled.

Motion made by B. Freiburger, seconded by J. Seals, that the bills as approved by the Finance Committee be paid. Motion carried.

Motion made by J. Seals, seconded by B. Freiburger, that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.

IT SEEMS TO ME
Centennial Celebration
Is Picking Up

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

Our celebration of Cass City's centennial is rapidly picking up speed! The many beards and soon-to-be beards are blossoming around our village like they had a right to do so; various items of jewelry marking the event are now seen on more and more people; and the 'jail', bought just for this celebration has been duly stolen. We hope that we don't expend so much steam on these preliminaries that interest in our heritage flags by the July dates of the celebration! Or, so it seems to me.

And my heart breaks when I share this with you. The hostess of a card game was asked: "I suppose you carry some sort of memento in that pocket?" "Yes, a lock of my husband's hair." "But your husband is still alive." "Of course," mused the hostess, "but his hair is gone." (And those are the bald facts!)

Religious groups, working with the many migrants who travel north each summer to harvest the crops, will receive $2.8 million in grants approved by the (US) office of Economic Opportunity. The anti-poverty grants, believed to be the first in the field of migratory workers, were announced last month. The church-sponsored projects receiving the aid will benefit workers in Michigan, Arizona and both Carolinas.

Cass City's own geriatrics specialist was seen on the streets of our community walking along with the spring of a teen-ager, sending this writer to his study to make certain that all of Mr. Vender's material had seen the light of day. I found an item advising children into whose home the retired parents are forced to move to determine a regular time when problems are discussed, rather than facing difficulties in the heat of the moment. It is important, too, in the household containing two generations, that each couple have its own room which is private, to be entered only by specific invitation. There is more; but with a few ground rules clearly stated, both families will be happier. Or, so it seems to me.

There are increasing signs that the public is growing more aware and more wary of far right political groups in our nation. Of course, we seem to need such groups to keep us alert against Communism's advances, but too often rightists have called 'wolf' when on the trail of mere rabbits. Or, so it seems to me.

We are all sympathetic with the thousands of Americans made homeless by floods up and down the Mississippi River. But at the same time that we are more concerned about the plight of the persons living along our greatest river, we forget all too soon. Some of the men in the Washington offices we put there, will vote against the necessary dikes and other protection necessary to keep the mighty Mississippi in her channels the year 'round. Let's end this nearly annual disaster by turning the US Corps of Engineers (or other appropriate agency) loose on our largest river and turning her, removing the fear of floods from its valley forever!

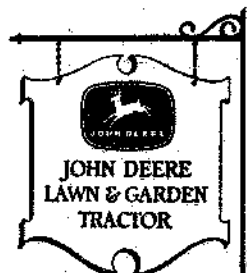

When tyranist (one who plays the kettle drum) Charles L. White retired after 42 years with the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, he made a brief speech. This is it: "Old soldiers may just fade away, but not tyranists. They beat it."

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

Ed Doolittle reported to the feller's at the country store Saturday night that he ain't heard nothing yet from Washington about our request for the Government to make a study on which side of the hog produces the best eating ham. But Ed was optimistic, said he had saw in the latest pamphlet from the Department of Agriculture where they was appropriating $20,000 for a study on the breeding of tree shrews and $70,000 for a study on the population habits of the Australian ant. He figured our study on hams couldn't be fur behind on the agenda.

Zeke Grubb said he didn't know what a tree shrew was and couldn't pass no judgement on this item but he was high in favor of that $70,000 on ants. He allowed as how, if they was anything this country needed right now, it was to know all about the population habits of the Australian ant.

Clem Webster was disagreed with Zeke, said he didn't have nothing agin them Australian ants pervided they stayed in Australia, but we had studies here at home that ought to git top priority. For instant, he claimed he recollected two years ago when some feller ask the Department of Agriculture to appropriate $100,000 to make a study on why a chicken crosses the road and they ain't done nothing about it yet. He was of the opinion a study on this matter would be a big help to the poultry industry. About half his chickens, he reported, gits killed ever year crossing the road. Furthermore, he complained, if they don't slow traffic down in front of his place, the other half was going to git killed coming back home.

Bug Hookum announced he was agin this whole "study" business, from Australian ants to Plymouth Rock chickens and from horned toads to de-horned bulls. He said people had gone crazy over this subject. For instant, he reported, he had saw where some companies that makes office chairs had got together and "was spending $20,000 fer "seat e'ngineers" to make a study to find out what was the best setting position fer folks working in offices. According to them "seat engineers," said Bug, the way they was setting now was mighty hard on the spine and was liable to torment 'em in their old age.

Josh Clodhopper was agreed with Bug, said spine ailments wasn't invented till after folks quit setting on tree stumps and homemade stools and took to using fancy chairs and seat cushions. He allowed as how he ain't never knowed a creek-bank fisherman to have back trouble.

Personal, Mister Editor, I ain't never been a feller to stand in the way of progress. I just set on the porch, rock with the grain, and listen.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Commission Compiles State's Stories About Civil War

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association
Need Civil War Stories

Stories based on Civil War activities are in demand currently as the State Civil War Centennial Observation Commission concludes its five years of work.

The Commission was appointed by former Gov. John B. Swainson to bring to light the contributions of Michigan people in the war between the states.

Life of the commission ends this year. A part of its work has been the publication of a series of books on Michigan's participation in the war.

Still in progress is the preparation of a book entitled "Twice Told Tales of the Civil War" to be edited by Mrs. Mildred Millbrook. She performed a similar job on another commission publication, "Michigan Women in the Civil War."

Floyd L. Haight, commission chairman, is looking for between 150 and 200 stories of the war which are recalled by relatives or friends of Civil War veterans.

"Most all of us have heard some of those stories but it is a job to get individuals to sit down and write them out so that Mrs. Millbrook may put them in shape for publication," said Haight.

"We no doubt will find that some of these stories will approach what we might call mythology, but most of them do have some basic truth," he said. "Our commission feels that it is important to obtain some of these stories to preserve a part of our heritage which will be lost otherwise."

Compare Tax Notes

A "helping hand" in checking state tax resources has been extended to the Revenue Department by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service.

Clarence W. Lock, revenue commissioner, says his department has an arrangement with the federal unit providing for an exchange of tax information between the two agencies.

Lock emphasized the information exchanged on a request basis would be used only for tax purposes. Both governmental agencies are bound by secrecy provisions which guard against improper use of tax information.

Tax returns made available to Lock's department would be only those specifically requested and would be issued only to authorized personnel.

The department chief stressed the fact that the exchange plan would provide greater certainty that persons would be discovered if they failed to file complete returns with either state or federal authorities.

Some 37 other states have similar agreements with the Internal Revenue Service. District Director R. I. Nixon in Detroit said the program has been of mutual advantage in the other states.

The states release information to the federal service from various state tax returns, such as those required under estate and corporate laws.

Big Work Bile

Despite deadlines already set for legislative action, including a mid-summer adjournment date, most observers agree a long session is in the offing.

With government reorganization and fiscal reform still hanging in the air without form, there appears little hope these major areas can be acted upon along with other pending controversial legislation by the scheduled adjournment.

As in previous sessions, it is expected this year will find the legislature extending its worktime indefinitely when summer arrives. Best guess is the majority of the work will be accomplished by early or mid-July in time for the new budget to take effect.

An adjournment is then expected for a month or longer before resumption of a fall session to deal with such weighty problems as fiscal reform.

From present indications, at least that much time will be needed before any firm plans for new or revised revenue measures can be drawn and ready for consideration by the entire legislature.

Newspapers collect food, clothing and money for the needy; they teach youngsters how to swim; they clamor for better schools, more hospitals and less civil waste.

There are over 9 million teenagers in U. S. secondary schools - an increase of over 43 per cent in the past decade. Last year, local advertisers invested 56 per cent more dollars in newspaper advertising during the fall back-to-school months.

Whatever your favorite brand of fishing has been, here's a hot tip from the Conservation Department: Go fish a trout lake this spring. That's where the action is waiting to be had by girls and boys, old folks, families, and most anybody who has ever put worm on hook, or hook on fly, or lure on line. And it's convenient, too; the Department has built up trout populations in lakes of nearly every Michigan county. Available to help anglers make the most of a good thing after the trout season opened Apr. 24 are lists of planted lakes and ponds, and copies of "Trout Tricks," an article which is everything its title implies. These free pieces of information may be obtained from the Department's Publications Room in Lansing. Besides getting them, check with your local Department fisheries biologist to find out which lakes will be likely hot-spots this year.
