

From the Editor's Corner

Anyone know how Deford got its name? We received a letter from a Byron Deford in California saying that he is tracing his family tree and wants to see if any relatives were in the area. He originally wrote Deford Postmaster George Jacoby, but says that he did not have the information.

If you know, tell us and we'll tell Deford.

When the seniors take in the World's Fair in New York on their annual trip, they will have an advantage over the 1964 class.

This year the fair won't be as crowded. Last year throughout most of the fair's run, waits of an hour or more were the rule to see the more popular exhibits. Now it's possible to walk right in to practically any exhibit.

Perhaps one of the reasons for the relatively poor attendance at the fair is the competition from New York City itself. We've had more than one person return and tell us that they enjoyed the city more than the fair.

We have a story this week about the annual 50-mile hike from Lake Huron to Akron on Memorial Day. The story reports the hike starts at 2 a.m. Dave Kraft says that anyone who is nuts enough to walk 50 miles probably doesn't mind getting up at 2 a.m.

I was talking with a member of the committee in charge of black-topping alleys this week. From the conversation I gathered that the problem is no nearer a final solution than it was a month ago or a year ago. Who is going to pay is still the bind in the wheel of progress.

Set Consolidation Date for Area School Districts

The Unionville Board of Education has approved Monday, June 28, as the date for a special election for the consolidation of Unionville and Owengage school districts.

The setting of the definite date had been delayed until the board approved a site for the proposed central high school.

When a citizens advisory committee approved a location at the corner of Bay City-Forestville Road and Colwood Road, the Unionville board approved the date.

The site had been previously favored by the Owengage board.

Delong Candidate For School Board

Don Delong, 38, is challenging two incumbent members for a seat on the Cass City School Board in the regular election slated June 14 at Cass City High School.

Previously announced candidates are Horace Bulen and Donald Reid. Delong said this week in an interview with the Chronicle that he favored passing of the bond issue for the new school.

Delong said that he decided to run after numerous persons had requested that he serve on the board. Naturally, with six children in school, I'm interested in its operation, he said.

Delong has worked as a school bus driver for 14 years. Currently his wife is driving for him. If I'm elected, he said, I'll have to give up that job.

Delong runs a 120-acre dairy farm, two miles south and a mile east of Cass City. He rents other land and is working a total of about 300 acres.

Delong said that he feels that all extracurricular school programs should be of equal importance....

To Begin Search For Centennial Queen and Court

It may be a man's world, but during Cass City Area Centennial Week, July 18-24, some lucky area lady will rule the festivities as centennial queen.

The search for her highness gets under way next week when area persons will be invited to nominate a candidate of their choice on a nomination blank slated to be run in the Chronicle. Full instructions will be on the coupon.

A galaxy of prizes and gifts and many exciting activities are being planned for the queen and her court.

Mrs. Lloyd Bryant, queen contest chairman, has announced that the contest is open to any girl, 15 years old or older, who lives, works, shops or goes to school in Cass City.

"The Cass City area community is comprised of many small villages and we want to create as much interest as possible by including all of them in our search for a centennial queen," Mrs. Bryant explained.

Contestants may be married or single and may nominate themselves. Nominating coupons will be sent to local churches, women's clubs and to any organization that may wish to nominate a queen.

athletics and band, for instance, should receive equal attention, he said.

Both Reid and Bulen had previously announced their candidacy. Both subscribe to the current policies of the school board.

Hire New Deputy

Tuscola County Sheriff Hugh Marr has announced the hiring of a new deputy, Forrest Lobdell of Caro, to fill a vacancy following the recent resignation of Deputy Lee Morrison.

Lobdell is a former insurance salesman, is married and has four girls. A Caro native, he is best remembered as an outstanding high school athlete.

Morrison resigned after two and a half years with the department. Lobdell's hiring brings the sheriff's staff back to nine deputies.

Wearing caps and gowns for the first time, the seniors will march down Main street and then be honored at an assembly at the school.

The annual senior trip will be a visit to the World's Fair. The pupils will leave Metropolitan airport Tuesday morning, June 1. Plans call for a full day at the Fair and other sight-seeing activities.

Included will be a cruise to the Statue of Liberty and a visit to Radio City Music Hall. The seniors return to Detroit at 8 p.m. Thursday. Adults accompanying the group will be Mr. and Mrs. James Seals and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wallace.

Final Exercises

Baccalaureate will be held Sunday evening, June 6, at 8:15 p.m. The Rev. Arnold Messing of St. Francis Church will present the sermon.

Commencement exercises will be Thursday evening, June 10. Ronald J. Jursa, assistant director of admissions and scholarships at Michigan State University, will give the address.

THE VISITORS FROM BANCROFT for mayor's exchange day Monday were feted at a Rotary Club dinner. Mrs. Jack Poelstra, right, shows the cup and saucer set she received and the mayor is smiling over a pen desk set presented to him to mark the occasion. Attending with them were Trustee Harold Kingsley and his wife.

School, Ranch Tours Top Bancroft Visit for Local Pair

Village President Lambert Althaver and Trustee Fred Auten received a preview glimpse of what Cass City's new school would be like in one of the highlights of Monday's Mayors' Exchange Michigan Week observance.

The two men and their wives toured the nearly completed high school at Durand, which serves Bancroft, the village that exchanged presidents with Cass City.

The school was designed by the same architect that would build the new Cass City High School if it is approved by the voters. "We were favorably impressed with the Durand school and saw many of the features of our proposed school incorporated into the Durand facility," Althaver reported.

It was interesting to note, he continued, that the Durand district is now operating on 22 mills and is asking for two additional mills this year, while the entire debt for Cass City Schools, if the new issue passes, will be 18.5 mills.

Another outstanding feature of Bancroft is the fire department.

Explain Twp. Fire Call Ban

It costs Kingston Township $100 for a call by the Kingston Fire Department into the township and township officials say that they will no longer pay it.

It's not that the township feels that the village department is too expensive or that the township doesn't need fire protection that the action was taken.

We made the ruling, Mrs. Wayne Schrader, clerk, said this week, to get residents to check their fire insurance policies.

Many do not realize that for an extra $1 or $1.50 per year insurance will cover the cost of the fire department's call to their property. Many persons do not know or care whether they have this clause in their policies or not.

The township does not pay anything for the upkeep of the fire department in taxes, Mrs. Schrader continued, and the fire run charge could be taken care of very cheaply if everyone has the proper insurance.

The township will still guarantee payment to the village. In cases where the owners are destitute we will probably pay the bill, she said. But owners should know that if we pay for the fire call the charge can be collected from the property owners, who are liable, Mrs. Schrader concluded.

Fine Two in Circuit Court

Two Mayville men were fined $100 each in Circuit Court Thursday, May 13, after pleading guilty to a four-month-old disorderly persons charge.

Besides the fine, Circuit Court Judge James Churchill gave Ronald Bellamy and Danny Bellamy 30-day suspended jail sentences and ordered them to pay costs of $6.35 each.

The pair were arrested for being disorderly in Colosky's Store in Fremont township on Jan. 30.

Dismissal Judge Churchill dismissed the case against Richard Blondell of Caro, at the request of his attorney. Concluded on page six.

Matthews Here 39 Years

M&M Closes In Cass City

A lengthy career in business in Cass City ended this week when Dave Matthews of Decker announced that he was closing M & M Plumbing and Heating Company at its Main Street location.

Matthews said this week that he will continue to operate the business from his home in Decker but plans a much reduced schedule. "You might say that I'm going to be in semi-retirement," Matthews grinned.

Matthews first arrived on the business scene in Cass City in June of 1926. He started with a partner and the business operated in the building now housing Albee Hardware and Furniture under the name of Wanner and Matthews. After six years, the business moved to the building now operated by Ryland and Guc.

Matthews moved back to his Decker farm home for two years where he operated his business after selling out to his partner in August of 1937.

Another partnership was formed when the Ideal Plumbing and Heating Co. was organized with David Matthews, Don MacLachlan and Leonard Urquhart at the helm. The company operated in the building now part of Cass City Oil & Gas Co.

During the World War II years, Matthews and MacLachlan worked in Bay City and in 1945 they sold their interest in the partnership to Urquhart.

The present M & M started at this time when the partners purchased the building next to the Cass City State Bank. MacLachlan died in January, 1963, and Matthews became the sole owner after the estate was settled.

The building was purchased by B. A. Calka.

Memorial Day Programs Set By Authorities

The marchers will travel down Main Street to Elkland Township Cemetery. Services at the cemetery will start at 11 a.m.

The Rev. R. E. Betts, pastor of the Salem EUB Church, will be the speaker. Master of ceremonies is Jack Esau.

Observances for Grant will be held Sunday, May 30, at 2 p.m. The Rev. Max Weeks, pastor of the Grant Methodist Church, will speak.

The Owengage marching band will play and veterans will offer a small cannon salute.

Special music will be furnished by the EUB Church of Owengage.

An estimated 75 persons turned out for the ground breaking service Sunday afternoon at the site on Koepfgen Road, just south of M-81.

Rev. F. H. Johnson, pastor, turned the first shovel full of dirt and was followed by 11 officials and representatives of the church who also turned symbolic spades of earth.

District Supt. Rev. J. E. Tuckey was the featured speaker with Bernard Freiberger representing the Village Council.

Others participating in the program and ground breaking were: Rev. J. C. Schott, assistant pastor; Rev. H. SMOKE pouring out of an upstairs window drives Cass City firemen back as they fight a stubborn, three-hour fire Tuesday night at a farm house nine miles northeast of Cass City. ## Family Homeless After Fire

A stubborn three-hour fire burned out the top floor of a two-story farm house Tuesday night nine and a half miles northeast of Cass City.

Left homeless by the fire were Mrs. Lavina Willer and her three children. The family stayed with neighbors Tuesday night.

Firemen were unable to determine what caused the blaze which originated in and was confined to the upstairs. All belongings on the lower floors were removed by bystanders.

Mrs. Willer had left her 12-year-old son, John, at home with a two-month-old child while she came to Cass City to register her five-year-old daughter, Rose Marie, in kindergarten.

A passer-by noticed smoke coming from the building and stopped at a near-by service station to call firemen.

Mrs. Willer, upon returning to the scene, was so upset that she fainted and had to be revived by spectators.

The house was owned by Earl Schembers who had just purchased it a week ago. Damage was estimated at about $2,000.

Fire Guts Car A fire of unknown origin gutted a car owned by Dwaine Peters Monday morning at about 7:30 p.m. behind his barbershop.

The vehicle has been sitting unused for several weeks and Fire Chief Nelson Willy doubted that the fire could have been started by faulty wiring. He listed the car as a total loss.

The fire was spotted by a neighbor.

Saturday afternoon sparks from a trash burner at the James MacDonald residence, two and a half miles east of Cass City, set a pile of lumber afire.

Damage was confined to the pile of lumber.

Guest Editorial

Second in a series.

May 18, 1965
The Cass City Chronicle
Cass City, Michigan
Gentlemen:

The Cass City Board of Education on June 14 will ask the Public to approve a new high school. We know it is vital that our schools continue to grow and improve. With present inadequate facilities this is impossible. Cass City has always been a leader, we must keep it so.

Without sufficient space for today's youth, we cannot provide for the sure increase of the future. We are holding classes in a store room, on the stage, and in the Elementary Library of the Willis Campbell Elementary School now. In addition to these makeshift accommodations we should have two more classrooms, next year, one for the 6th grade and one for the 1st. We must have adequate and efficient space.

With completion of the new High School we plan to utilize the present school as an "Intermediate", and the Deford School building for grades Kindergarten through 6th grade. Kindergarten through 4th grades will be in the Campbell Elementary, 5th through 8th in the present high school, and

Area Curfews Prompt Reminder

Cass City parents who allow their children to roam village streets past specified curfews are subject to imprisonment or fines.

That's the word from Cass City Police Chief Carl Palmateer in reviewing a curfew ordinance passed in 1962 and still in effect.

"Because of the interest in area towns concerning curfews, we thought it best to remind local parents and youngsters that we also have curfews," Palmateer explained.

Palmateer did not indicate that he intended to crack down on violators; however, he explained that if parents are aware of the curfews, they may curtail their children's summer nighttime activities.

The ordinance does not apply to children on the way to employment, or on errands for parents nor to children traveling from any lawful gathering or place of worship, provided said children do not play or loiter on the streets.

Parents found guilty of violating any provision of the ordinance can be fined up to $25.00 and, or, jailed for up to 10 days.

9th through 12th in the new high school. This will provide full utilization of facilities, and should be adequate for at least the next ten years. The new school is planned to permit expansion, though we hope this will not be necessary. Experience has proven it more economical to build the right size initially, rather than have to expand almost immediately.

With the help and advice of a conscientious local committee and the architect we feel we have chosen the best possible site from both the practical and aesthetic standpoints. We invite you to drive north where the old Donahue barn stood, look east. Visualize our fine new school with the woods as background, nothing to interfere or distract from its setting, with plenty of room for expansion and parking. Note too the level terrain requiring little expensive grading.

Thirty-nine years ago another school board did a fine job. We, in our turn, hope to do as well in building for the next fifty years. We have tried to plan efficiently, eliminating frills, incorporating only the proven and efficient.

The school board, 100 per cent sold on the need for a new school, asks and confidently expects your vote.

Cass City Errors Give Marlette Easy Victory

In one of the most loosely played games of the season, Cass City dropped a 11-8 decision at Marlette Thursday.

Eight errors opened the flood gates for the Raiders as both teams chalked up 10 hits.

Wayne Copeland started on the mound and was charged with the loss.

Jim Champion collected two hits in three tries while Copeland and Phil Gray smashed home runs for Cass City.

No Middle Ground for Diamond Team

There doesn't seem to be any middle ground for Cass City's future diamond stars...they are very good or very bad.

On the right side of the ledger is the JV squad, which is unbeaten in two starts...on the wrong side is the Junior High which is still looking for a victory after two games.

The JV's added their second win Tuesday with a decisive 7-2 decision over the Lakers. Last week they edged Vassar, 5-4, as Dave Bliss hurled his team to victory.

The Junior High lost a slugfest to the Lakers, 14-12, and when they received good pitching against Vassar, the hitters failed and the Little Hawks dropped a 4-0 decision.

Argyle Sets Plans For Home-coming

Final plans for the annual Argyle home-coming, held under the joint sponsorship of the Argyle Volunteer Fire Department and the Thumb Veterans Post No. 2, has been set for July 3-4.

At a meeting of the firemen President Pat McCarty introduced members of a steam engine association which will participate in the celebration.

They are Sheriff and Mrs. Ross Dundas, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deo and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Meredith. Other home-coming highlights will be a dance July 3 and a teenagers' dance July 4.

Lions Report on State Convention

Two Cass City Lions reported on the Michigan Lions Convention, held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 14-16, in Detroit, at Monday night's regular meeting at Martin's Restaurant.

Lloyd Bryant and Ronald Keegan were among 3,000 Michigan Lions at the convention which named George Daly of East Flint to the governorship of District 11-D, to which the Cass City club belongs.

The main banquet was held at Cobo Hall in Detroit, Saturday night followed by dancing to the music of Wayne King and his Orchestra.

Local Lions at Monday night's session endorsed the proposed new Cass City High School and invited a school board representative to speak at the next meeting.

They may be blessings in disguise, but often have a hard time proving their identity.

New Chemical Spray For Fruitless Trees

Many a frustrated suburban home gardener finds his number one objective at this time of year is to enjoy the fruit blossoms yet keep the trees in his backyard from bearing fruit, says Alfred Ballweg, county extension director, Jerome Hull, Michigan State University fruit extension specialist adds that chemical treatment of trees prevents some 80 to 85 per cent of the fruit from forming—thus avoiding an annual backyard fruit problem for many gardeners.

Naphthaleneacetic acid is the spray material that will do the job. It is available from garden centers, usually in the 3 1/2 per cent solution. One teaspoonful to a gallon of water is the right amount. Labels on packages will explain how to mix the spray material. Thorough coverage of all foliage and flowers is necessary to curb fruit formation. The addition of one tablespoon of the insecticide Sevin per gallon in the spray mixture enhances the spray's deterring effect.

Yet this chemical treatment can cause some foliage wilting, but trees recover within 10 to 14 days. Unless trees are sprayed constantly during the summer, this fruit is seldom disease and insect free, therefore not suitable for consumption, said Ballweg.

Village Asks for Washless Days

Don't plan to do your washing next Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday authorities of the village warned this week. For on those days the fire hydrants will be flushed. Flushing causes crystallized iron (rust) in the water. Not harmful for drinking, the condition can cause discoloration of clothes. The village is not responsible for damages, Mrs. Celia House, village clerk, said. Advertise your shortcomings and others buy the space. Men who are handy with figures can make them prove anything they want them to.

State Ranks High In Federal Aid

By Elmer E. White

Action and research programs on poverty have brought Michigan well into the top 10 among the states in receipt of federal funds for the war on poverty.

Latest figures indicate the Office of Economic Opportunity, which runs the nationwide anti-poverty program, has firm plans to spend well over $18 million in Michigan on various projects.

This gives Michigan a per-person average expenditure of $2.31 to rank 5th among the states and Michigan rates 3rd behind only California and Kentucky on the total figure.

Many local projects are under way with previously received federal funds and several regional or statewide plans are at various stages of progress.

Three grants have been received, for example, for work being conducted by the Detroit group calling itself "Total Action Against Poverty."

Colleges and universities in Michigan have come into more than $500,000 for study and work projects this spring. Regionally and statewide, $1.3 million was received for programs to aid migratory workers.

An extensive urban job corps center at Fort Custer appears to be the biggest state project envisioned to date. Having already received about $7 million, several more millions are promised from federal sources if the program is effective.

Effectiveness of all these programs is still to be proven. If results can be seen in terms

Reveal County

Economic Growth

Tuscola county's continued economic growth has been reflected in a five year business census covering the period from 1958 to 1963, as taken by the Bureau of Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

Total receipts for the county's 239 service establishments for 1963 totaled $3.6 million, an increase of 66 per cent over 1958, the last previous census.

The service trades in the census of business included those providing personal services to individuals, miscellaneous business services, auto repair and other auto services and other repair services. Also included were motion picture production and distribution businesses, theatres, other amusement and recreation services and hotels and motels.

The state as a whole included 44,412 establishments with receipts of improved living standards and decreased unemployment rolls, there would be few who would criticize the funds spent for the total program.

Profits From Escheats

Escheats was an uncommon word to the public eye until just a few short years ago.

The state has long been geared to collect escheated funds, that is moneys left unclaimed for seven years or more. It was just within the past four years, however, that the state attorney general started an active campaign to spend money to get these dormant funds.

Now the state is planning to go a step further. A new bill passed this year and given immediate effect allows the state to go into the area of escheated life insurance death benefits, checks and wages.

These funds previously were barred from collection under the state escheat law. Companies which had unclaimed insurance benefits, checks and wages just kept them in a fund and accumulated interest on them.

Legislators this year decided the state should rightfully collect these funds since it already was getting money from the sale of property and other amounts through the escheat process.

The estimated amount of unpaid insurance benefits, wages and checks was a big factor in legislative determination to change the law.

One estimate, from the assistant attorney general who specializes in escheats, is that the state would collect from $30-$40 million initially under the law. After the first windfall, Assistant Attorney General Irving Feldman said the amount would average $5-$7 million annually.

Some confusion still can be seen at store counters as the result of Michigan's nearly year-old sales tax collection schedule. Most customers and some clerks still are not used to it. When the four per cent sales tax was enacted, no state policy was set for collection by merchants. As a result more than one schedule was in use in various sections of the state.

Some merchants, particularly in the dime stores and other businesses with many small sales, complained that the schedule in use locally put them at a disadvantage.

This lack of uniformity resulted last year in legislative enactment of a sales tax bracket system calling for no tax on sales up to 12 cents, a penny on 13-31 cents, 2 cents on 32-54 cent purchases, 3 cents on 55-81 cents, 4 cents on 82 cents to $1.08, 5 cents up to $1.35, and 6 cents up to $1.62. A penny is added thereafter for each 25 cents or part of it spent.

at a court session May 12. Blondell was arraigned earlier this month on a grand larceny charge, accused of taking $50 from Lynn's Marathon Service in Caro on April 1.

Pleads Not Guilty
Mary Lou Baker of Caro entered a plea of innocent to writing checks with insufficient funds. She is alleged to have written three checks within 10 days in Cass City and Caro with insufficient funds in a bank to cover them. Bond of $300 was continued.

Statutory Rape
Felix H. Lugo, Vassar, was arraigned on a charge of statutory rape and taking indecent liberties with a 13-year-old girl on May 3 in Denmark township. Lugo was remanded to the custody of the sheriff and bond was reduced to $3,000.

No Account Check
Bond of $100 for Ernest Blackmer of Vassar was continued following his arraignment for writing a no account check and trial was set for June 9. Blackmer allegedly wrote a $35.00 check on a fictitious account in the First National Bank of Lapeer on Feb. 20.

Joseph Y. Davis, Caro, arraigned for driving on a suspended driver's license, four counts, entered a plea of guilty and presentencing investigation was set for June 9. Bond was set at $1,000. He was arrested on May 7 in Fremont township.

Robin Hood, the "Robbin' Hood"

By Dave Kraft

Once upon a time, not so long ago, there lived in a forest in a country which shall remain nameless so as not to start an international incident, a man named Robin Hood.

Now Robin Hood led a band of men all dressed in green. Because of the way they talked back then, he always greeted his band of men with "Hi, Gang Green."

Which reminds me of another story. Once, one of Robin's men shot a rich person with a dirty arrow and the rich person got infection and died and henceforth such deaths were called deaths from gangrene.

Not that that has anything to do with this story. As a matter of fact I'm not sure that anything has anything to do with this story, but let's continue and we'll see how it develops.

Now Robin and his band of men used to wait in hiding in Sherwood Forest (no relation to the Sherwood Forest in Gagetown although I'd rather wait in hiding at the Gagetown Sherwood Forest) and they'd rob the rich and after deductions for expenses, give it to the poor.

In some circles they were called Democrats and it was believed by many that this was the beginning of the "Great Society." But I don't know. That's just what I've been told.

Oh, I just thought of something else. One of Robin's gang was a big man with a terrific sense of humor. Because he had such a sense of humor and because he was so big and because he was all dressed in green, they just naturally called him "The Jolly (Ho! Ho!) Green Giant."

Ain't that a kick in the head? Well, one day, after a particularly trying time of robbing a rich man who didn't want to be robbed, Robin was sitting around the fire roasting some wieners on his newly acquired "wiener fork."

All of a sudden, with a great clatter of hoofs and other racket, enough to startle Robin into dropping his wieners, "tork" and all, into the fire, a knight on a white horse named Ajax thundered into the camp.

"Well, what do you want, you tin-covered Roy Rogers," asked Robin, wiping the ashes from his charred hot dogs.

"Ifs Meod Merimmon. Shes been thron in th digneon!"

"Open your visor, stupid. I can't understand what you're saying."

"Excuse me. I said it's Maid

It Didn't Take Long to Guess Dale Damm

Mrs. Marge Eberline was the first to guess the man behind the beard last week was Dale Damm, narrowly beating out several other sharp eyed residents who called or came in with the right answer.

Mrs. Eberline came to the Chronicle as soon as the paper was off the press, picked one up on the counter, went to her car and then promptly returned with the right answer.

"I really don't care too much for the subscription, because I like to get the paper on Wednesday," Mrs. Eberline said, "but I couldn't resist telling the right answer."

Others among the first to call were Joyce Freiburger, Mrs.

Jeanie Palmateer, Peter Zell, Mrs. Keith Little and Mrs. Mary Priesskorn.

This beard may not be as easy as the one many of you guessed last week. But he's a Cass City worker and you've probably passed him on the street a good many times.

Who will be first?

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Q. Is high blood pressure due to excess blood in the body?

A. No. High blood pressure is a condition related to blood vessels—not blood itself. The amount or volume of fluid in the circulatory system is not a major consideration in blood pressure. Measurement of the blood volume in persons with high blood pressure yield consistently normal values.

FLUORIDE-VITAMIN SUPPLEMENTS

Q. I have been giving vitamin drops to my children. Since fluoride prevents cavities would it be best to switch to a fluoride-vitamin product?

A. Fluoride-vitamin preparations may be considered when the local water supply contains less fluoride than is considered adequate. However, consult your doctor or dentist before using a fluoride-vitamin preparation. Proper fluoride dosage requires consideration of the child's age and the amount of fluoride the child will receive from the drinking water.

The true measure of the worth of prescribed medicine lies not in dollars and cents, but in the faster relief from pain and speedier recovery it provides.

We Take A Back Seat To No One!

Michigan is a great industrial state. True. But don't forget about us. Who are we? We're farmers. Michigan farmers. And we're part of the largest industry in the United States. Agriculture. Fact is, American farmers buy more, sell more, create more jobs than any other industry. Why, in "industrial" Michigan alone, annual cash receipts from farm marketing amount to over $750 million. Dairying—Michigan's largest single farm activity—accounts for 27% of that total. Over $200 million.

So you see, in Michigan, no one has to take a back seat. Industry and agriculture ride side by side. And we're going places!

Language Clubs Plan Joint Picnic

A joint picnic for the Cass City High School French and Spanish clubs has been set for Tuesday, May 25, at the Cass City Recreational Park. Each member will bring hot dogs, buns, beverage and silverware.

The decision was reached at a recent meeting of the French club at the school when Diane Whittaker told members about April Fools' Day in France.

IT'S SPRING and there's nothing unusual about a fella planting some flowers, unless, of course, it's to beautify a bare spot in front of his service station. Louis Salas of L & S Standard, when caught in the act Wednesday, exclaimed, "Wait 'til my wife sees this. I don't even do this at home." Salas' planting coincides nicely with Clean-up, Fix-up, Paint-up Week just completed. (Chronicle photo)

Two Participants Named for Seminar

Participants of the Young People's Citizenship Seminar, to be held at Camp Kett July 12-16, have been named.

Karen Schiefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schiefer of Vassar, and Virginia Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Henry of Caro, were chosen to attend the five-day workshop. Selected as alternate was Kathy Satchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Satchell of rural Caro.

Characteristics qualifying the winners to take part were their interest in citizenship, extracurricular affairs, discussion ability and leadership potential.

The seminar program will feature four major issues, American principles, Communism with emphasis on its clash with American ideals, private capitalism and politics in America. The diversified program will contain films, talks, discussion groups and a mock county political convention as a demonstration project.

After the conference, the students will report to their sponsors, the Farm Bureau Women's group.

Community groups, civic clubs, PTA, school programs and other meetings will also have the opportunity to invite them to speak.

Final Rites Held For Frank Decker

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor — or Dave Kraft

Just wondering why you are trying to keep Cass City people "in the dark." I didn't think newspapers were supposed to gloss the facts.

Seems funny the Chronicle couldn't reproduce the picture when the Saginaw News did. It appeared in the May 5th edition.

I have no interest at all in the subject per se, but you cause me to wonder "is it or isn't it."

Yours truly,
Mrs. John Gorney
Saginaw

(One of your out of town subscribers)

Warning—You can't reproduce this letter either.

Editor's note: It also appeared in several other papers; unfortunately our print wasn't as good as the ones they received.

Final rites for Frank Decker, 81, retired Greenleaf township farmer, were held Saturday morning at the St. Columbkille Catholic Church in Sheridan township, Huron County, following his death Wednesday, May 12, at Cass City Hospital. He had been ill for the past six weeks.

Mr. Decker was born June 12, 1883, in Greenleaf township where he was a lifelong resident. He married Miss Theresa Patrick in St. Columbkille Church on Jan. 8, 1912. She died June 15, 1955.

Surviving are three sons, Nicholas and Arthur, both of Cass City, and Francis of Caro, and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Watson, Uby, and Sister Ann Carmel, St. Peter's Convent, Harper Woods.

Also surviving are: a brother, Steven Decker, and a sister, Mrs. Amelia Walker, both of Cass City; 15 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

Rev. Fr. Arnold Messing, St. Pater's Catholic Church pastor, officiated in the absence of Rev. Edward R. Wern, who was ill. Interment was in the St. Columbkille church cemetery. Rosary was recited Friday.

Supt. Don Crouse Tells of Bond Issue at Echo OES Meet

About 40 attended the May meeting of Echo Chapter OES Wednesday evening, May 12. Sixteen officers answered roll call. Mrs. James Williams, a member of the Yale chapter who is now living in Cass City, was a guest.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Leo Tracy, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported proceeds of $35.00 from a recent card party. Mrs. Dean Toner, of the Sunshine committee, reported two cards and two gifts sent during the past month.

An invitation was read for members to attend the Star-Mason night May 19 when Job's Daughters will be doing initiatory work. The Chapter is also invited to join members of Tyler Lodge F & A M in attending memorial services Sunday,

May 23, at 10:45 a.m. in Salem EUB Church. Villa day will be observed May 23 at Adrian.

Plans were made for a "Friends Night" in Cass City May 26. An officers' practice session is scheduled May 24 at 8 p.m.

Fourteen past worthy matrons and 10 past worthy patrons were honored at the close of the business session. Following the regular closing ceremony, 12 past worthy matrons of the Chapter presented a comedy skit.

Supt. Donald Crouse and school board members, William Ruhl and Don Koepfgen, spoke of the bond issue coming before voters June 14.

Too much foresight causes people to worry a great deal about things that never happen.

Wranglers Meet at High School May 12

The Cass City Wranglers held their monthly meeting at the high school Wednesday, May 12. The president, Dave McNaughton, presided at the meeting. Plans for the centennial were discussed and members planned to meet with the horses to get them ready for the Centennial program, according to Sandra O'Connell, the club's reporter.

Community Pasture Is Health Problem

Where livestock owners use community pasture with other livestock owners, they must meet the same test requirements as are required of cattle for sale, according to Alfred Ballweg, county extension director.

In other words, livestock owners are cautioned against TB and Bang's infection, by mixing their animals with those of another owner in a community pasture.

If anyone has any question about this situation, he is advised to contact his local veterinarian.

Tuscola county is about at the point of being declared a "Brucellosis Certified Free Area". Up to now our county has been approved as a "Modified Brucellosis Free Area", said Ballweg.

BOOK REVIEW

"First Papers" Is A Probable Tale

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

While this is not a small book (520 pages), "First Papers," by Laura Hobson, is an interesting and probable tale of the elements that made up our cities in the days prior to WW I.

The entire story is oriented around Stefan Ivarin, by background both Jewish and Russian. Not only does he edit the JEWISH NEWS, but he is widely known as a lecturer. His wife, Alexandra, stands as a buffer between the mercenary editor and their three growing children. At the same time she is Stefan's finest critic, able to make suggestions that he is willing to accept!

Their closest friends, the Paiges, share their political views, Mr. Paige being an attorney. Both families are active supporters of Eugene Debs and of anyone else sharing those early twentieth century views. In other words, they were Socialists of that day when any thinking person could keep the Communists and Socialists apart in his thinking.

When the publisher of the JEWISH NEWS dies unexpectedly a new regime takes over and Stefan resigns because of the many changes made. Out of work, he is completely lost for a time, but begins to earn some money from lectures, from some free-lance writing and from teaching fellow-immigrants to read and write in English. But just as he is getting a new life started, he has a stroke. Tied to his bed by doctor's orders, he at first fuses and fumes at almost everything, but on getting up and around once more his temper improves. When some opportunities to lecture come his way, he packs his bags and embarks on a lecture tour. When Garry Paige is imprisoned as part of the fervor of patriotism that swept the country when the United States entered the war, Stefan wrote an editorial of protest. The JEWISH NEWS not only prints that editorial but asks him to write more and Stefan is once again a man of wide influence.

Mrs. Ivarin and their three children vacation annually at one of the beaches that are to be found in the Village of Cass City.

VILLAGE OF CASS CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

A Special Meeting of the Village of Cass City Council was held on Tuesday, May 11, 1965, at 7:00 p.m. in the Municipal Building. All trustees were present.

A motion was made by F. Auten seconded by G. McCullough that the council authorize the work to be done on West and Leach Street by the Michigan Curb and Gutter Co. of Saline, Mich., as a continuation of last year's work at a price of $2.10 per lineal foot of curb and gutter and 50¢ per sq. ft. of sidewalk. There will be a two week publication of the notice of public hearing. The hearing was scheduled for May 28, 1965, at 7:00 p.m. in the Municipal Building. Motion carried.

Clean-Up Week was announced as being set for May 13 and 14. The village will support the township in Memorial Day arrangements in the amount of $20.00.

A motion was made by B. Freiburger seconded by Dr. Rawson that the village accept the bid submitted by Ken Cumper Co. for the removal, replacement and refurbishing of the storage shed roof at a cost of $700.00 with a 5 year guarantee. Motion carried.

Motion made by B. Freiburger seconded by J. Seals that the county dog catcher should come in weekly and the fee to reclaim a dog be continued at $5.00. Motion carried.

At this point Mr. James Bauer came into the meeting and submitted a letter addressed to the Cass City Council. The clerk read the letter which described the background and operation of the Cass City Planning Commission. Mr. Bauer's statement as contained in his letter is made a part of these minutes. Mr. Bauer further stated to the council that charges of being too busy to spend the necessary time needed by the Planning Commission, of ill health and of being deceitful were not true. He further stated that he had always tried to keep the best interests of Cass City foremost in any of his actions or decisions and that because of the friction his re-appointment had aroused, he was at this time withdrawing his name from further consideration. President Althaver regretfully accepted Mr. Bauer's resignation and stated that he felt the loss of Mr. Bauer's services to the Planning Commission would be a great one. At this time Mr. Bauer left the meeting.

President Althaver asked each councilman to submit the name of an individual who he or she might feel would be qualified and able to serve on the Planning Commission. The names are to be submitted by the end of the week in order that consideration may be given to each one prior to the next regular meeting.

Motion made by F. Auten seconded by J. Seals that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:
I see by the papers where we were going to spend $15 million a year in the Great Society supporting the "arts and humanities." Judging from the figures on foreign aid, I thought we were already supporting most of the human race but my old lady says humanities and the human race ain't got nothing to do with one another. I aim to go over to Ed Doolittle's and look this matter up in his dictionary. My old lady could be wrong and maybe we were duplicating these items.
I've been seeing a heap in the papers about this "arts" business but I don't know nothing about it. I'm like that poet feller James Whitcomb Riley. I recollect when I was a boy somebody ask him about art. He allowed as how the greatest artist he knowed was a feller in Terre Haute that could spit clean over a box car. That kind of art I can understand, but if they was talking about the paint singlines I see in the slick magazines, then I was in the wrong church and the wrong pew. They might run me out of the Great Society fer saying so, but I figger the greatest artists we got in this country today was the fellers that draws the comic strips. In my book, Snuffy Smith and Li'l Abner was real art.
But I better git off the "arts and humanities" subject afore I expose my ignorance in these matters. And anyhow, $15 million a year is peanuts, about what them Congressmen spends ever year hiring their kinfolks.
The older I git, Mister Editor, the more I believe that what carries this country through its trials and tribulations is its sense of humor. No matter how dark things gits, America keeps smiling. I was reading a piece in the papers by one of our newspaper fellers in Moscow. He said you could walk all day on the sidewalks of that city and never pass nobody that was smiling. I recollect a couple years ago when me and my old lady was on a trip a couple signs we saw along the way. One fanner in front of his fruit orchard: "God help them that helps themselves." And at one old beat up filling station this feller had a sign: "Buzz twit fer night service. Then keep your shirt on while I git my pants on." Only in America would you see this.
Through wars, panics, depressions, Senate investigations, Government spending, and all our national diseases America has traveled with a light heart. We smiled our way through the New Deal, grinned our way across the New Frontier, and was now getting ready fer some belly laughs in the Great Society.
I heard a feller on television say the other night that America was a land where you could lead folks to the handwriting on the wall but you couldn't make 'em read it. It's wonderful to be ignorant!
Yours truly,
Uncle Tim
