Social Security Pours Millions Into County

There are 5,603 persons in Tuscola county currently receiving social security and these persons will receive lump-sum checks for the recently enacted increase in benefits, probably in September, Stanley Ostler, representative, said this week. Regular checks received in October for September benefits will include the rate raise.

The payment will be for the amount of the increase since Jan. 1. The average rate will jump about seven per cent.

Nearly twice as many persons over 65 would be eligible for medical aid under the program as are currently drawing social security. Ostler said that 4,784 county residents would be eligible for insurance as compared to 2,843 over 65 drawing benefits.

Ostler said that it was too early to tell what the medicare program might amount to financially in the county. He said that it may be necessary to set up offices in the county to enroll eligibles in the program.

Average Monthly Earnings	Retired Worker's Benefits		Retired Couple's Benefits
	Old	New	Old	New
$ 67 or less	$ 40.00	$ 44.00	$ 60.00	$ 66.00
$100	$ 59.00	$ 63.20	$ 88.50	$ 94.80
$150	$ 73.00	$ 78.20	$109.50	$117.30
$200	$ 84.00	$89.90	$126.00	$134.90
$250	$ 95.00	$101.70	$142.50	$152.60
$300	$105.00	$112.40	$157.50	$168.60
$350	$116.00	$124.20	$174.00	$186.30
$400	$127.00	$135.90	$190.50	$203.90

A comparative table shows the monthly rates for a retired worker of 65 or over and a retired couple, both over 65, at various levels of earning over working years. The increases will be proportionate for widows and others drawing benefits.

All increases that are to be made now are based on the present maximum coverage on $4,800 of wages. Top benefits will rise gradually for people retiring later to $168 for a retired worker 65 or over.

Note that monthly increases in examples in the table range from $4 for a retired worker, 65 or over, who gets minimum benefits, to $13.40 for a couple on maximum benefits. A check for the first eight months of the year would run from $32 to $107.20. The average wage earner now draws $76.70 in social security benefits in the county.

Currently, social security is pouring $4,386,888 into the county and when the new program goes into effect this amount will jump to about $4,694,000.

Medical Payments These benefits do not include the benefits of the new health insurance program.

Be sure to tell your senior citizens that they should not drop present hospitalization policies at least until they are enrolled in the social security program, Ostler cautioned.

The medicare program does not take effect until July 1, 1966. When it does, the latest census figures indicate that there will be 4,784 persons over 65 who would be eligible for the benefits.

3rd Operation for Accident Victim

Roger Ball, 16, of Sandusky is recovering from his third operation in four months, stemming from injuries suffered in an auto accident near Sandusky in April.

In the crash the youth's eye and nose were damaged and corrective surgery required. Immediately following the accident, the youth spent over a month in the hospital. He has been hospitalized at Saginaw General since Wednesday, July 28, for his most recent operation.

Ball is well-known in the Cass City area and attends the Novesta Church of Christ.

Huron County Fair To Run Aug. 9-14

The 97th annual Huron County Fair promises to be one of the most gala attractions ever staged at the Bad Axe Fairgrounds. J. L. Ruth of Port Austin, fair manager, said this week. The fair runs Aug. 9 through Aug. 14.

There will be something new and different each day of the week, he continued, starting with the traditional horse-pulling on Monday.

Tuesday's features will include the start of harness racing and professional wrestling. The racing will be offered every day throughout the fair, except Saturday.

Wednesday, the giant livestock parade is slated at 7:15 p.m. and the youth king and queen will be crowned.

Thursday, Aug. 12, is farmers' day and will be featured by the various farm exhibits, as well as the 4-H and FFA livestock sales. The evening show will include the Frosty Follies Ice Revue.

Friday is merchants' day. The evening show will include a variety show and the crowning of the Huron County Bean Queen.

Saturday, a thrill show is slated featuring the Hurricane Hell Drivers in performances at 2 and 8 p.m.

A complete schedule appears in an advertisement in this issue.

Bridge Removal to Close Cemetery Road Monday

The removal of the Cass River bridge on Cemetery Road, south of Cass City, will start Monday and traffic on the road will be detoured over the Dodge Road bridge, three miles west and two miles south of Cass City.

According to an announcement by the Tuscola County Road Commission, a contract for removing the present bridge has been awarded to the R. J. Fox Construction Co. of Caro, who was the lowest of four bidders.

Bids for the construction of the new bridge will be opened Aug. 12 in Lansing. The area job is one of 68 projects estimated to cost $20.2 million to be let by the State Highway Department.

The department estimates the new bridge will cost $70,000 and the work is to be completed by Dec. 1.

Another county project to be let will be for 2.69 miles of bituminous aggregate surface on Millington Road, from Millington east. Estimated cost is $30,000.

Council May Seek Architect for Paul Building

The Cass City Village Council is thinking of hiring an architect to plan the revamping of the former H. O. Paul building into a combination fire hall, library and office building.

Strictly in the planning stage now, more definite action awaits conferences with the library board and hinges on who shares the cost of the building's purchase.

The thought behind the hiring of the architect is to be able to present a concrete plan to the voters, if the village proceeds with the purchase. Buying the building will necessitate a bond issue which must be approved by taxpayers.

If an arrangement for a combination building is realized, trustees said that the village would be able to sell the present fire hall building.

Not the Drinking Kind

A Little Scotch Helps at Hospital

There is never anything nice about an operation, but if you were looking for the silver lining you might find that a little Scotch helps.

But not the drinking kind . . . at least not at Hills and Dales General Hospital where pert, sweet Ann Robertson, 20, helps the doctors in surgery, coming all the way from Scotland to do so.

The job at Hills and Dales accomplishes a dual purpose for Miss Robertson . . . it enables her to continue her medical education and also to take a vacation in the States.

In Scotland, Miss Robertson is a third-year medical student at the University of Aberdeen. That's equivalent to a first-year medical student in the United States.

One thing that the vivacious brunette, with roses in her cheeks, doesn't have to worry about at home is financing her way through school.

Scotland pays all of her study costs and living expenses while at school. "No, there are no strings attached," she said. "I would be free to come to the United States to practice if I wanted to," she explained, "but I feel morally obligated to practice in Scotland, at least for awhile after I graduate."

All Arranged Miss Robertson's job here was all arranged before she boarded a plane chartered by a group of students to make the trip. Her visa and working papers were arranged by Dick Palm, hospital administrator.

Harvey To Visit

Congressman Jim Harvey will tour the county seats in the Eighth District Friday and Saturday. He has slated a stop at the courthouse in Caro from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 6.

He will also spend an hour at the courthouses in Sandusky (11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.) and Bad Axe, (1:30 to 2:30 p.m.) Friday.

Council to Amend Zoning On Hill Street

The Cass City Village Council Tuesday night voted to amend the zoning ordinance to allow multiple housing on Hill Street, between Dale and Church streets.

An amendment to an ordinance requires that the proposal be advertised and a hearing held before the measure can be adopted. There is some opposition to the change among residents of Hills and Dales subdivision.

The council began action on the request of a firm that contemplates building an apartment building on a site east of Hills and Dales General Hospital.

The council pointed to a Planning Commission recommendation that the area be changed to multiple housing when the Donahue clinic was erected as one of the reasons for authorizing the change.

me", she said. "I will be learning for two months and then will be able to vacation for a month in Canada, Missouri and Pennsylvania. Without the job, I couldn't have made the trip." She is about half way through her working period.

Similar Equipment

The equipment we use here, Miss Robertson explained, is about the same as we have in Scotland. However, you won't find a hospital at home that is so small with the equipment that is available in Cass City.

Before her tour at Hills and Dales is over, the lovely visitor will have worked in most of the departments at the hospital, Palm said.

What about the chances of coming back to stay? If her parents should move to the United States, there could be a chance for her to return . . . and there is a very good chance that she could come back to visit for another year.

A drawback to coming to the United States to practice is that another year of internship would be needed before she could practice, regardless of the amount of former training she has received.

Right now she lives with the "Scotty" Woodwards in Elkton, drives to work every day and seems to be having the time of her life.

Miss Robertson's job here was all arranged before she boarded a plane chartered by a group of students to make the trip.

Her visa and working papers were arranged by Dick Palm, hospital administrator.

Cass City Public Schools was ready to start the new school year this fall with a full complement of teachers until the surprise resignation of Dale Sherman left a vacancy in social studies.

Sherman's resignation has been received, but not yet acted upon by the board. A vacancy in the physical education for girls has been solved, but contracts not yet signed, Donald Crouse, Superintendent, said.

Apart from these two areas, the staff is ready for another school year. Returning students will find eight new teachers at Cass City and two new teachers at Deford.

One of the new teachers at Deford will need no introduction to most of the Deford pupils. He is Robert Stickle, who moves from Cass City High School to become the Deford principal. He will teach the seventh and eighth grades.

Another new teacher is Margaret Brown. She moves to Deford from the Lansing School in Sanilac county. She is a Central Michigan University graduate and will teach the fifth and sixth grades.

New Teachers

Ronald E. Bass has signed to teach math and physical education. The CMU graduate moves from Flint Public Schools to Cass City.

Another veteran in the teaching ranks coming to Cass City is John Bifoss Sr. He will be head football coach and teach physical education, geography and American his-

Township, Village Mull New Fire Department Agreement

How the cost of furnishing fire protection for Cass City and Elkland township will be shared was mullied by members of a special fire committee, the village council and the Elkland township board in a special session Tuesday night at the Municipal Building.

The crux of the debate centers around whether or not the township and the village should maintain the current relationship. At the present, township taxes (which includes all persons in the village as well as the rural area) pays for the equipment and operating expenses while village taxes pay for housing the department. Village volunteers man the department.

The township board is in favor of maintaining this contract. Speaking in favor of the program were Delbert Profit, Albert Gallagher and R. M. Hunter, all members of the town board.

These spokesmen believe that the lower insurance rates in the village are the reason that persons in the community should pay a greater share than residents of the township.

Other members of the group were quick to point out that one of the reasons for the lower rate in the village is because of the village water system with hydrants within easy reach. Village residents pay for this service in water and sewer charges, they maintain.

Operating Cost It was disclosed that in past years, revenue from other townships served by the department has been equal to about half of the actual cost of operation.

However, a new fee for servicing area townships has been set and when it is approved by various townships, revenue is estimated at $5,600, if the same number of fires occur. This amount is greater than the cost of running the department last year.

The purchase of the pumper by the department has also resulted in lower insurance rates for persons in the township. "When the pumper was purchased," Supervisor Ed Golding Sr. said, "rates for all farms within five miles of the station were reduced. This includes most of Elkland township."

Time Is Ticking Meanwhile, time is ticking away for the village council, which has an option on the former H. O. Paul building that runs for six months and will expire in November.

Each month that the option runs it increases the cost of the building slightly and, of course, if the option is not exercised the $1,000 option fee will be forfeited.

Regardless of who pays the cost, it will be necessary to go to the taxpayers for the money. The H. O. Paul building will cost over $26,000, not including extensive remodeling that will be necessary.

Golding said that there is no immediate necessity for new fire fighting equipment, but explained that when a new truck is needed, the township would be investing in the neighborhood of $30,000. We would have to ask for a bond issue for this amount, authorities said.

Members of the fire committee attending the meeting were Jerome Root Jr., Clifford Croft and Clayton Root. Fire Chief Nelson Willy answered questions concerning the operation of the department.

Ticket Driver in Injury Accident

Two accidents involving area residents were reported to the Tuscola County Sheriff's office this week.

Cars driven by Clayton H. Powell, 30, of Deford and Edward John Grubba, 18, of Center Line collided on Legg Road in Kingston township. The accident occurred at the crest of a hill. The roadway was too narrow, drivers said, to pass unless one of the cars stopped or came as close to the edge of the road as possible.

The cars were slightly damaged, but there were no injuries.

Melvin Whitaker, 38, of Cass City reported that he ran into a calf on Deckerly road in Ellington township Monday. The calf escaped serious injury as it was not found by sheriff's deputies who are still investigating.

Five Injured Raymond "Bud" Tate, 39, of Pigeon, former Cass City resident, and his wife, Eleanore, 35, were among five persons injured in a collision Tuesday, July 27, at M-25 and Oak Beach Road.

Cars driven by Gustav Rothe, 67, of Grindstone City and Tate collided as Tate was driving west on Oak Beach Road.

Tate suffered cuts on the head, arms and legs and his wife, a fractured collarbone.

Others injured were: Arnold Senkbeil, 44, of New Baltimore, cuts and bruises; Celestine Senkbeil, 47, chest injuries; and Rothe, cuts on head.

Wednesday, July 28, Rothe was arraigned on a charge of drunk driving before Justice John Guza. He was ordered to pay fine and costs of $105.80. He then appealed the case to circuit court and was released pending trial.

Minor Damage in Two Grass Fires

The Elkland Township Fire Department was called to quell two minor grass fires during the week.

The first was Friday afternoon on Woodland Street, at the east village limits of Cass City, where children playing with matches ignited tinder dry grass in a vacant lot.

Sunday afternoon, lightning struck a field at the farm owned by Mrs. Steve Dodge, southwest of Cass City.

Chief Nelson Willy reported that the fire was under control when the department arrived and the burned area was limited to a 10 x 20-foot area.

10 New Teachers to Greet Pupils at Cass City, Deford

He graduated from CMU. Linda Isbister is one of two teachers among the eight to enter the system that is not a graduate of CMU. Miss Isbister graduated from Alma College and will teach English. She previously taught in Alma High School.

Margo L. Isard moves from part-time teaching to full time duty at Cass City. She will teach Junior High math. She previously taught at Blanchard Public School.

Coming to Cass City from Laker High is William J. Lemcke. His major courses will be social studies.

Mrs. Nancy Hutchinson will be a new fourth grade teacher. She started her career at New Greenleaf School and comes to Cass City from Caseville Public School.

Teaching part of the third grade will be Kay E. Morrison. She majored in English and speech at CMU.

Barbara Lee Tuckey is a graduate of Michigan State who previously taught at Siersma School in Warren. She will teach in the sixth grade.

Returning Teachers

The remainder of the teachers will be returning for another year at the school. They include: Donald Crouse, superintendent; Arthur Holmberg, high school principal; James H. Seals, assistant principal; Marie Murray, elementary principal; George Elliott, guidance and counseling; Dave Ackerman, history; Orion Cardew, shop; Rich-

Slate School Meet

The annual meeting of Cass City Public Schools will be held Monday, Aug. 9, at 7:30 p.m. at Cass City High School gym. Donald Crouse, superintendent, announced this week.

The meeting will be highlighted by the presentation of the school budget for 1965-66 and annual reports.

At the meeting, the board traditionally answers questions about the school's operation and school authorities keep interested electors posted on recent school developments.

To Blacktop Post Office Area

The village of Cass City will spend up to $500 for temporary blacktop, it was decided Tuesday night in special session at the Municipal Building. Sherman Street from Main to Church, including the parking area in front of the post office, will be completed and the edges of Main, west of Sherman, also repaired.

Village President Lambert Althaver said that the village will have its cost back for the work within two years because of the reduction in maintenance charges.

Jury Convicts On Negligent Homicide Charge

A Tuscola county jury found James Richard Schepler of Flint guilty of negligent homicide Friday in circuit court in Caro.

The charges stemmed from an accident on Quiancesse Road when Schepler failed to stop at the junction with M-138. In the accident, the car driven by Schepler ran over Paul Rossow and William Murdick, who died from accident injuries.

Negligent homicide carries a maximum of two years in prison or $2,000 fine or both.

Judge James P. Churchill continued Schepler's bond. A presentence investigation was ordered and the date of sentencing will be set.

Members of the jury were: Lawrence Hartwick, A. R. Stone, Dorothy Heuchert, Fred Richardson, Arlene Cypher, Madeline Lindenberg, Clarence Brigham, Ruth W. Brader, Vernita Roller, Harold Murdick, Erhardt Korthals and John Garner.

Ten Cases In the busiest single day in court in 15 years, 10 criminal cases were brought before Judge Churchill Wednesday, July 28.

Melvin Joseph Morse pleaded guilty to unlawfully driving away a pickup truck in Cass City owned by Marlev James Enverbe Jr. A presentence investigation was ordered.

Charles Verduco of Saginaw failed to appear in court on the charge of unlawfully driving away an auto owned by Dennis Thiel of Saginaw. The theft occurred in Saginaw. Bond of $500 was forfeited.

From the Editor's Corner

Gaylord, in northern Michigan, has just about everything to appeal to the tourist, we found out last week while on vacation.

Luxurious motels, classy restaurants, fashion men's and women's stores and souvenir shops abound.

But with all of this, it's impossible to buy an ice cream cone.

We asked a resident with three small children where to go and she said, "If you find a place tell me."

The last few Centennial books have been taken to the Chronicle and we are selling them for the committee.

The price is a dollar and out-of-town residents should include 35 cents for postage.

The Chronicle reported Jim Winchester's corn at seven feet, two inches tall two weeks ago. Tuesday, he returned with a stalk attached to his car that measured 11 1/2 feet. "That corn grew four feet and four inches in that two weeks," Winchester said proudly.

Anybody top these figures?

Next Monday is the annual meeting at the school. It's always a gamble to try to predict how many will attend.

Last year, enough persons attended so that the meeting was considered time well spent. In other years, as few as three persons showed an interest in the meeting. In fact, serious consideration was given to abandoning the meeting.

Today, this meeting has been combined with the presentation of the budget and is in no danger of being dropped, as the budget meeting is required under the constitution.

Persons interested in the school can attend this meeting and get a concise resume of the school's activities better than at any other time of the year.

Vassar Boy Last Naturalization Case In Tuscola County

Norman William Cheff, 8, of Vassar is the last person who will become a naturalized citizen of the United States in Tuscola County Circuit Court.

The youngster received his papers this week and the court then closed the book on naturalization. All future county cases will be handled in Federal Court in Bay City.

Frederick New Fined for Speeding

Frederick New, 25, of Gaytown, appeared before Justice Alfred Newmann and pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding Wednesday, July 28. New was ordered to pay fine and costs of $24.30 or serve 15 days in jail.

Rain Too Little, Too Late

"We won't know the full extent of the damage this drought has caused until the harvest is completed," Alfred Ballweg, county agricultural agent, said this week.

Monday's rain will help, but it came too late for corn on light soil and many early beans, he explained. And while there was a full inch or more of rain through most of the northern half of the county, the southern half generally didn't receive over a quarter of an inch.

An inch or more of rain was a big boost, but farms receiving a quarter of an inch or less weren't helped much, Ballweg said.

Farmers say that the cool weather has helped a little in keeping the crops from burning up. There is still a chance for a good sugar beet crop, if the rains continue to fall, most farmers agree.

And while some corn crops are beyond recovery, many fields can still be saved with adequate moisture.

Cass City Chronicle
Cass City, Mich.

Dear Sir,

Will you please mail me your copies of July 23, 24 and 26.

Was in Cass City on the 24th saw some of the parade and the wonderful pageant in the evening. Times like these aren't accomplished with wish bone, it takes real backbone to make them come through. To all you good folks that made all this possible a hearty thanks.

My wife, my daughter and my son join me in saying hats off to Cass City, my old home town.

While there I met folks that I had not seen in over fifty years.

Good luck to you and your paper.

Yours truly,
William Lazenby

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce Holcomb

The Novesta Church of Christ was the setting for the July 17 evening wedding in which LaVonne Elaine Graham of Caro became the bride of Robert Bruce Holcomb of Cass City.

The Rev. George Getchel, pastor, performed the eight o'clock ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Graham of Caro and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Holcomb of Cass City.

Soloist Mrs. Barbara Gardner sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Mrs. Fred Wagner, organist, played the Wedding March.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of organza over mist taffeta with a round neckline and re-embroidered front with self material on the empire bodice and a princess style waistline. The A-line, floor-length skirt was complemented by a back bow and had a chapel train.

The bouffant bridal veil of illusion was secured to a floral headpiece trimmed with seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white carnations and white mums.

Arthur Randell of Cass City served as best man. Ushers were Charles Pistro and Gary Carolan, both of Gagetown.

Mrs. Graham wore a pink lace dress with white accessories and Mrs. Holcomb chose navy blue with white accessories.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception following the ceremony at the Dorn Polski Hall, Caro. About 300 guests attended.

Out-of-town guests were from Detroit, Pontiac, Lapeer, Ypsilanti, Flint, Elkton, Caro, Highland, Gagetown, Sebawaing, Owendale, Midland, Auburn, Auburn Heights, Grayling, Akron and Fairgrove.

The couple are making their home at 44 Euclid St., Pontiac, following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Caro High School and he is a 1959 Cass City High School graduate. He is employed with Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors in Pontiac.

The new Mrs. Holcomb was feted July 11 at a bridal shower in Caro, given by her attendants.

Dies at Farm Home

Services will be held Thursday at one p.m. at the Hunter Home at Home, Gaytown, for Will Russell, 85. He died Monday at his farm home in Elkland township.

Mr. Russell was born March 24, 1880, in Grant township. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Russell. He married Mrs. Rose Elsworth in Caro, June 20, 1935.

Surviving are his wife; two children of a previous marriage, William, at home, and Mrs. Roy Rolston of Cass City; 11 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. John Evans of Gaytown and Mrs. Alvin Deneen of Cass City. The Rev. Basil Curtis will conduct the funeral service and interment will be in Elmwood cemetery.

Williams Set to Spark County Fair

Hank Williams Jr., son of the king of western country music will kick off Tuscola County Fair's week-long grandstand show when he appears for two big shows Monday, August 23.

Tuscola County's fair opens August 23 and continues through August 28 with a week jammed with harness racing, rodeo, cycling, thrill shows, horse and tractor pulling, musical events and dozens of exhibitions and displays as well as the famous Happyland Rides on the midway.

Hank Williams Jr. is following in the footsteps of his famous father who skyrocketed to country and western music fame before dying in a car crash at the age of 29 in 1953.

HANK WILLIAMS, JR.

His life's story was recently made into a movie, "Your Cheatin' Heart" with his son's voice featured. Playing the leading role of Williams in the movie was George Hamilton.

In recent years, the six-foot-one, 180-pound son of the famous star has come into his own light as an outstanding western performer. He appears on television frequently, has his own stage show and recently signed a three-year contract for recordings for $300,000.

Friendly and relaxed Hank Jr. keeps the program moving in a relaxed and pleasant atmosphere.

Former Owendale Coach Injured In Head-on Crash

Lewis Fenton, former football coach at Owendale, avoided serious injury in a head-on collision Wednesday, July 28, and credited the wearing of a seatbelt for his escape in the crash that demolished his car and sent two persons to the hospital.

The accident occurred as Fenton was driving to work in Saginaw on M-84 near the I-75 expressway, southwest of Bay City.

Floyd Stickle, 65, of Allentown, Pa., the driver of the other car, was hospitalized for facial lacerations and bruises. His wife suffered two broken ankles. They were treated at Mercy Hospital in Bay City.

Stickle was issued a summons for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Off stage he's serious, but has a love of friends and an interest in cars and guns. He prefers the outdoors, loves hunting and fishing and was a rugged, tough competitor in all sports including football, basketball, boxing and wrestling.

Featured with Williams is Carly Fox, the unsurpassed fiddler, but also a champion entertainer who is a top emcee, master showman, singer, guitar, musical saw, fiddle and harmonica player. He is a regular on the Grand Old Opry show.

County fair officials have scheduled the event with the show for two performances, one at 7 p.m. and another at 9 p.m. on the fair's opening night. Featured also will be the annual bean queen pageant in which some lucky county girl will be crowned the new county bean queen and be given a chance to compete for state honors at the Michigan Bean Festival in Fairgrove on Labor Day.

Marvin Lee Guigar pleaded guilty of breaking and entering Wood's Drug Store in Cass City. A presentence investigation was ordered and sentence will be passed Sept. 7. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Walton Palmer of Cass City pleaded guilty of breaking and entering an unoccupied house owned by Ervin Bolick in the township of Ellington. A presentence investigation was ordered and Palmer will be sentenced Sept. 7.

Order Examination

Reymundo Cantu of Birch Run was ordered examined by three psychiatrists. He is charged with assault and indecent and improper liberties with a nine-year-old child.

Harold Edward Walker of Vassar pleaded not guilty to driving an auto under a revoked and suspended license. His bond was continued and date of trial will be set.

Richard Blondell of Caro was sentenced to three years' probation with the first six months in the county jail for stealing $200 from Lynn's Marathon gas station in Caro. In addition, he was ordered to pay a fine of $300 and costs of $75. He must make restitution of $30.

Ramon Ramirez of Gaytown was placed on probation for a year for unlawfully driving away an auto. He was also ordered to pay costs of $100 and a fine of $250 at the rate of $30 monthly.

Clayton LeRoy Colosky of Vassar was placed on a year's probation for carrying a concealed weapon. Fine and costs of $200 were ordered paid at the rate of $20 monthly.

Sentence Youth to Prison

Judge James Churchill sentenced Duncan A. D. Isreal of Vassar to 1½ to five years in prison Tuesday for violation of his parole.

Isreal had been paroled by Judge T. C. Quinn for auto theft and recently pleaded guilty to larceny in justice court, a violation of his parole.

Judge Churchill recommended while sentencing the youth to Jackson Michigan Training School. He explained that the boy has completed 11 years of school and could earn his high school degree while serving his sentence.

With good behavior, Isreal will be eligible for parole in a year.

Issue Order

In another case Tuesday, Judge Churchill issued a temporary restraining order against Ana and Alva Harrington for payment of $5,000 due from Dr. Norma E. Anderson of Caro. Dr. Anderson was required to post a $5,000 surety bond while she shows cause why the payment is not to be made.

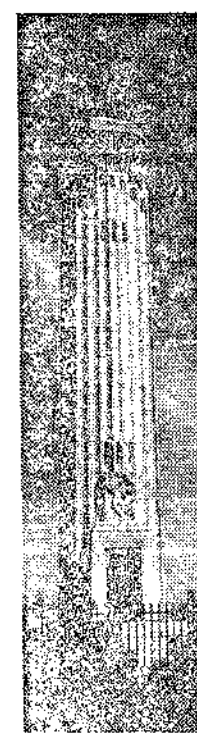

Previously, Harrington had appeared before the workmen's compensation referee and had been granted an award of $5,000 for injuries suffered while working for Dr. Anderson, who has no insurance.

The law requires that the decision be taken to court and a judgment granted. This procedure has been followed and the money was due the Harringtons prior to the temporary restraining order.

In the final case Tuesday, Allen Zimmerman appeared before the court on a charge of breaking and entering. He was remanded back to justice court for examination.

UNDEFEATED CHAMPIONS of the Cass City Little League are these members of the Giants.

Giants Still Undefeated as Little League Season Ends

The Giants became the first team in the history of the Cass City Little League to go through a season and play-offs undefeated.

The champions wound up their perfect year with a tense 12-8 victory over the Pirates. The Giants charged into a six-run lead in the first inning only to have the Pirates rally to come within a run of knotting the game. At the end of the fourth inning the score was 9-8 in favor of the champs.

Gary Zellar went the distance for the Pirates and Robbie Alexander matched him for the Giants. Leading sluggers for the Pirates were Clinton Warner with three hits in four trips, Ron Cody with two for two and Wayne McNeil with two hits in three tries.

Leading hitters for the winners were Carl Zawilinski, two for four; Paul Freiburger, three for four, and Duncan Wallace, two for four.

Other Games

To reach the play-off finals, each of the clubs posted earlier wins. The Pirates defeated the Cubs, 12-0. Kim Hopper and Clinton Warner combined for the shutout, each allowing one hit.

Second row: Scott Guernsey, Fred Klinkman, Craig Guernsey, Dennis Francis and Paul Freiburger.

Third row: Manager Robert Alexander, Duncan Wallace, Robbie Alexander, Coach Vic Guernsey and Coach Sam Wells. Not present for the picture was Fred Harbec.

Craig Ryland collected both of the Cub hits while Clinton Warner collected four doubles in four tries for the Pirates. Kim Hopper doubled three times in four tries. Ryland went the distance for the Cubs.

The Giants advanced to the finals with a 9-3 decision over the Tigers. Wallace pitched the distance. Zawilinski was the leading stickler with a pair of bases-loaded doubles. Alexander slammed three hits in three tries.

Erla's Capture Ubly Loop Crown with 3 Victories

Al Bosch hurled a one-hitter as Erla's topped Ubly Motors Friday, 3-0, for the championship of the Ubly Recreational League.

The defending champions were forced to stage a stretch drive to cap the championship again this year. A midseason slump saw the Foodmen drop three games and drop out of the league lead.

But last week, Erla's came into their own with three victories, including a double-header win Tuesday, July 27.

Bosch was the winning hurler in all three games. In the first of their crucial victories, Erla's topped Nugent's, 1-0, on another one-hitter by Bosch. Eugene Kloc scored the winning run in the first on a hit and error to decide the game. Bosch struck out 10.

In the second game of the evening, Bosch allowed two hits and two runs, but his teammates backed him with a nine-hit attack that netted a 4-2 decision over Carlings.

Erla's scored twice in the first on a walk and a hit. In the second, a double by Dick Creason and a single by Dean Hoag netted what proved to be the winning marker. An insurance run was added in the sixth when Bosch walked and Creason singled.

The championship game was close until the sixth inning when Erla's bunched two of their three hits for three runs. Jerry Hillsaker singled and Jim Johnson tripled in the key rally.

Meanwhile, Bosch was hurling almost perfect ball. He allowed a double by Maurer in the fifth inning and that was the only man from Ubly to reach base. He struck out the side in three of the seven innings as he whiffed 12.

Erla's finished the regular season with a 6-3 record and Ubly was second with 5-4. Play-offs were to have started Tuesday and will be completed Friday.

TIME-STUDY

Take time to learn all the angles and you will have no reason for running in circles.

OWN DECISION

A man is wise if he appoints himself chairman of the advisory board of his own affairs.

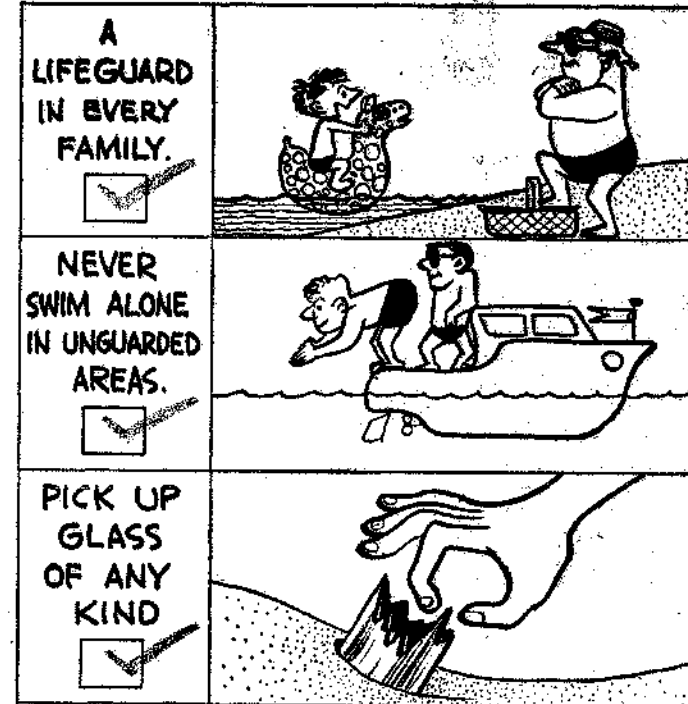

HIS OWN MAN

The fellow who gets to the top acts as his own crutch — he learned not to lean on others.

THE GOAL

The main thing we have to watch in this life is not so much where we stand, but in what direction we are moving.

Salem EUB Church Slates Sermon Series

Beginning Sunday, Aug. 8, and for three consecutive Sundays, a series of sermons entitled "Are You a Healthy Christian?" will be given during the morning worship service at Salem EUB Church.

The three messages to be presented are: "What Constitutes a Healthy Christian?", "The Characteristics of a Healthy Christian" and "The Habits of a Healthy Christian".

As a special summer feature of the morning worship period, Salem Church has inaugurated a "boys and girls hour" which meets during the morning worship service.

Holbrook Church Features Missionary

Miss Beulah Hager, missionary to the Dominican Republic for several years, will speak at the Holbrook Baptist Church Sunday at the 10:00 a.m. Sunday School hour and 11:00 a.m. worship service.

The church is located on Germania Rd., one mile south of Bay City-Forestville Rd. in Sanilac Co. Pastor Milton R. Gelatt of Cass City extends an invitation to all interested persons to attend this service.

The seconds a motorist saves by speeding may give him the first glimpse into eternity.

The diploma from the school of experience today is a monthly social security check.

Many people have the idea that the only good sermon is one that makes them feel good.

MINOR LEAGUE CHAMPIONS are the Dodgers who compiled a six won, two lost record during the year. First row, from left: Craig Helwig, Bat Boy Tim Guinther, Eddie Stoutenburg, Wayne Brooks and Randy Bacon.

Second row: Randy Kelley, Paul Spencer, Bill McCreedy, Brian Kelley and David Brooks.

cer, Bill McCreedy, Brian Kelley and David Brooks.

Family Reunion Held At Simmons Home

The annual Simmons family reunion was held Sunday at the Charles Simmons home at Deckerville. Twenty-seven members of the family attended from Caro, Owendale, Deckerville and Cass City.

Elders present was Floyd Zapfe of Owendale and youngest was Dean O'Harris of Cass City.

Officers re-elected were: president, Mrs. Paul O'Harris of Cass City, and treasurer, Mrs. Roy McNeil of Cass City.

The 1966 reunion will be held at the same place.

COMMENTS BY KRAFT

A Little Larceny But Never Deceit

By Dave Kraft

By the time you read this, I will be, barring unforeseen happenstance, in Washington State, half way through my vacation.

I have just received my 'twenty-leventh' call from irate businessmen to inform me that the businessmen and not the farmers won the businessmen-farmers tug-of-war held during the Centennial.

I had been erroneously informed that the farmers were the winners and had reported same, unfortunately under large headlines.

Since then I have received at least one call from each of the 10 members of the businessman's team. Not only that, some of them are threatening to quit their advertising.

All this from a group, who, as I understand it, faked the first two tugs.

I may not always get things straight, but I've never indulged in deceit of that magnitude. A little larceny, maybe, but never deceit.

We are using a car-top carrier for some of our gear, thanks to the generosity of Clyde Wells. I ran an ad asking for a carrier and he answered. Thanks also to Lyle Richardson who offered the use of his carrier.

Clyde not only had to loan me his car carrier, he had to put it on my car. I was smart enough to send my wife over to get it and Clyde was gentleman enough to put it on for her.

I may even make her take it back when we return.

You know what I hate about taking a vacation? It's the week before. No, not the tension, or excitement or work of getting ready.

No, what I hate is having to wear my old raggedy unmentionables, the ones at the bottom of the pile, because all my good ones are already packed.

It's the same with my socks. All the good pairs were in the suitcases and I spent the last three days wearing mismatched socks. Dark mismatches aren't so bad, but a yellow and purple combination . . . Braach!

About a week before vacation all my slacks needed cleaning so I took two pairs to the cleaners. They came back but my wife wouldn't let me wear them. Had to save them for the trip.

From where I'm sitting I can see photographic chemical stains, ink, one grease spot and a dash of cream puff filling on the pair that I was forced to wear all week long.

Many Daily Changes in State Government Are Unnoticed

New Powers

Michigan's 1963 Constitution maintained the attorney general as a part of the elected executive branch of government but says nothing of substance regarding his responsibilities.

As chief law enforcement officer of the state, all his duties are prescribed by statute.

First, the attorney general is legal counsel for the Legislature and every state officer, department, board and commission. He is required to assist in the conduct of all official hearings held by the various units of state government.

In addition this office gives him the power to intervene in any law suit in which he believes the interests of the people of the state are involved.

Power is given the attorney general to advise the prosecuting attorneys throughout the state and he may exercise supervisory powers over them. He has some inquisitorial powers and he may request the call for grand jury proceedings to investigate crime, election frauds and complaints for removal of public officials.

To fulfill these many powers and responsibilities, the attorney general maintains a good sized staff of licensed attorneys, many of whom are specialists in a particular field of law.

Some assistant attorneys general are assigned to specific state departments and commissions while others work on a broader scope within one of several divisions within the attorney general's offices in Detroit or Lansing.

Ultimately, however, the No. 1 state legal officer is responsible for all work done by his staff. Thus all of the legal work performed is approved by him before it leaves the office for its destination, whether it be a formal opinion, official state document or court proceeding.

By virtue of his office, the attorney general himself is a member of the State Administrative Board, Municipal Finance Commission and State Employees' Retirement, Judges' Retirement and Corporation Tax Appeal Boards.

Spaulding Family

Reunion Held Sunday

The annual reunion of the family of the late Herbert Spaulding of Caro was held Sunday at the municipal park. Forty-two attended, including three guests from Caro.

Relatives came from Livonia, Owosso, Ypsilanti, Caro and Cass City.

Elders present was Mrs. Ethel Stewart of Caro and the youngest was Dorinda O'Dell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carson O'Dell of Cass City.

Officers serving the group were all re-elected for the coming year and include: president, Mrs. Nelson Miller of Caro; vice-president, Mrs. Richard Holcomb of Ypsilanti, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lela Wright of Cass City.

In the game of life kindness and common sense are too often found to be in the discard, or lost in the shuffle.

are affected by changes made almost daily in state government regulations, but barely noticed.

Many go unheeded because they are one small part of a major project and only the main work is deemed important enough to spread the word about.

In the important field of civil rights nearly every state agency has had some involvement, although generally only executive pronouncements or directives have gained note.

Michigan's education system has been involved most notably in the area of school integration.

Teacher assignments have played a part as have the tools of education. Civil rights leaders' influence on the latter has been heavily felt though the impact has been a subtle one.

More than two years ago the state department of public instruction announced as an almost accidental activity the adoption of a formal policy on the treatment of minority groups in textbooks.

Designed as a guide to school book publishers dealing with the state, the statement was billed as a tool giving Michigan a national leadership role "in securing a more accurate treatment of minority groups in school books."

It was developed by a group called the Committee for Better Human Relations of the Michigan Curriculum Program, a voluntary group of educators. Before adoption, the policy was reviewed by officials of the American Textbook Publishers Institute.

Education leaders in the state said it was unfortunate that textbooks generally stereotyped American families as upper-middle class, blue-eyed and blond rather than giving full recognition to the greatness of the U. S. because of its differences in people.

No other state had adopted any formal policy in this area up to the Michigan action, the Publisher's Institute representative said.

Basically this policy statement was aimed at the textbook suppliers. The direct effect, however, can now be seen in the school books used in the elementary and secondary schools in Michigan.

Major points suggested a greater use of illustrative materials depicting minority group members taking part in the normal activities of American life. An inclusion of human relations content in all subject matter areas at all grade levels was recommended.

Full effect of this policy will not be seen for some years but parents are parents could see a part of it in the newest textbooks children used this past school year.

CIGARETTES AND TINNITUS

Q. For the past year or so I have had a ringing or buzzing in my ears which seems to become worse when I smoke too much. Can smoking cause such head noises?

A. The cause of head noises (tinnitus) is often difficult to determine. However, it is generally known that some people are sensitive to nicotine and that such sensitivity can involve the ear. Anyone who experiences ear symptoms after smoking may be courting deafness. Our advice—quit smoking.

Q. If both parents are left handed will all of their children use the left hand? What would the situation be when only one parent is left handed?

A. The causes of right and left handedness are not clearly understood. It may be said, however, that if both parents are left handed, about 45 per cent of children will be left handed. If only one parent is left handed, about 10 per cent of children will favor the left hand.

Philatheas Meet With Ferris Wares

Twenty members of the Baptist Philathea class met Tuesday evening, July 27, at the Ferris Ware home.

After a bike ride, the group played volley ball and had a wiener roast.

Dick Shaw presented the devotions and Stan Guinther conducted the business meeting.

The August meeting will be an outdoor party at the Shaw home.

Live by high principles and there will be little chance of your yielding to pressure.

Phone Rates Cut For Thumb Calls

Cass City area residents and other communities in the Thumb served by General Telephone Co. of Michigan will be able to talk longer on the phone to area friends and customers at no increase in costs.

That was the principal effect locally of a reduction in rates by the company, approved Monday by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Patrons will be able to talk station-to-station day rates for four minutes at the same rate that was formerly charged for three minutes a distance from 20 to 40 miles from their phones. In effect, it means that most of the tri-county calls can be for four minutes.

Calls up to 10 miles were formerly allowed at a base rate for two minutes and these have been increased to three minutes, the company explained.

Another Provision

Another provision of the $300,000 reduction will help companies with semiprivate phones. These phones formerly were installed with the provision that the property owners would guarantee 40 cents in local calls a day. Now the provision is that the owners guarantee 40 cents daily from local and long distance calls.

The new provisions will go into effect Sept. 1.

Mrs. Murray on Catholic Council

Mrs. George Murray, Cass City, president of the Thumb Deaneary, was among officers named by Mrs. Robert Witte, newly elected president of Saginaw Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, to serve under her for the coming year.

The appointment was made at the council's board of directors meeting recently at the Saginaw League of Catholic Women's Home.

A regular meeting of the Council of the Village of Cass City was held on Tuesday, July 27, 1965 at 7:00 p.m. in the Municipal Bldg. All trustees were present.

Minutes of the June regular and one special meeting were read and approved as read.

Monthly financial report was briefly reviewed.

Fire Committee had little to report. A joint meeting with the township is to be scheduled.

Dump Ground Committee had nothing to report.

Sewer and Water Committee reported switch over of controls on the new tower is now complete. Bids are to be sought for the removal of the old tower.

Street Committee reported they have not sought petitions on alley paving yet.

Clerk was instructed to fill out forms required by the actuary on the employee retirement program.

The petition submitted on the alley to be vacated between Vulcan and West and Sixth and Seventh is to be referred to the Planning Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Lex Tetreau were present to petition that the council grant them a building permit. Motion made by Dr. Rawson seconded by B. Freiburger that a building permit be granted to L. Tetreau to construct a house on lot 11 in Garden Center Subd, in accordance with plan presented showing 110 ft. diameter cul-de-sac. Moved by Mr. Seals and seconded by B. Freiburger that the above motion be amended to call for final review and approval of the plan by the Planning Commission. Motion as amended carried.

Motion by G. McCullough seconded by G. Albee that whereas the village resolved to sell two 66 x 132 feet parcels of property near the water tower at public sale, and whereas such public sale was held on July 16, 1965 after posting and publication of notice thereof, and whereas one bidder for each parcel appeared ready and willing to pay purchase price of $300 per lot, it is hereby moved that such parcels be sold for $300 to Robert Stickle and wife, and William Selby and wife, sole bidders at the public sale, and that the president and clerk be directed to execute deeds of conveyance. Motion carried.

Motion by G. Albee seconded by B. Freiburger to adopt the tree ordinance. Yea-6. Nay-0. Motion carried.

A brief discussion was held on the removal of diseased trees and the need for a spray program. Clerk is instructed to contact Alfred B. Ballweg, City Ag. Agent of Caro for assistance in such a program.

Motion by J. Seals seconded by B. Freiburger to authorize the painting of a center line with reflector beads from the south village limits to the north village limits on Seeger St. at an approximate cost of $115.00. Yea-6. Nay-0. Motion carried.

Motion by F. Auten seconded by J. Seals to grant the Treasurer a 30 day extension in which to collect village taxes. Yea-6. Nay-0. Motion carried.

Motion by F. Auten seconded by G. Albee that the bills as approved by the Finance Committee be paid. Yea-6. Nay-0. Carried.

Motion by J. Seals and seconded by G. McCullough that there being no further business, the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:

I recollect my Pa used to say a good day's work never hurt nobody. I figger neither did a good day's rest, so I been setting on the front porch rocking with the grain and making plans and thinking.

My old lady says all my plans was fer yesterday and my thinking was backwards and I had ought to be setting on the back porch rocking with my face to the wall. But you know, Mister Editor, how wimen folks are in these matters.

I been thinking up a letter I aim to write to my Congressman about the money situation. I don't mean about the fact it ain't worth nothing no more, but about taking all the silver out of it. When a feller has a few halves and quarters tinkling in his pocket he feels like he is a man of the world and it gives him a little pride as he walks along. With them new coins made out of some kind of metal putty, a citizen will git the feeling he's totin' a handful of stove bolts and washers around with him. It's going to be mighty hard on the public pride and I'm wondering if the Congress has took this angle into consideration. I aim to ask my Congressman about it.

And the papers has been overflowed lately about beauty contests all over the nation. I have saw pictures of girls that was anything from "Miss Pineapple" to "Miss Everything." I been thinking maybe we was overdoing this matter, but I reckon a old coddler like me ain't got no business expressing an opinion on this subject. I recollect my Grandpa, that lived to be 98, used to say that all wimen looked alike to a feller — after he got to be 90. The piece didn't say if "Miss Everything" won on account of a beauty contest or a inventory. And I note where one beauty queen told a Washington column writer the man she married "must be idealistic in a realistic sort of way." Looks like she got the beauty crown and swallered the dictionary all at the same time. If you know, Mister Editor, what she's talking about, please let me know. The more I set and rock the less I understand about all this beauty queen business.

And I been pondering over this sign they said was in a hardware store: "No Paint Sold to Men Under Thirty." Have a Written Note From Their Wives Specifying Shade." Could be this hardware store was smart as a briar. When we paint anything at our house, my old lady picks the color and I do the painting. But the husband can still use his head in these matters. My old lady, fer instant, kept pestering me to paint the floor and sealing of the back porch. I painted the sealing first and when I got it painted I had the floor half done. Yep, Mister Editor, they ain't nothing better'n taking a good day's rest and just sitting and rocking and thinking and making plans fer yesterday.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Democrats Name Finance Committee

The Tuscola County Democratic Committee has named a finance committee to be in charge of the fund-raising projects for the party.

Melvin J. Stewart, county chair, has appointed the following persons to serve on this committee: Chairman, Lyle Thornton of Fostoria; Mrs. Richard Faltmaier of Gagetown; Mose J. Hill and Milford Culbert of Fairgrove; Sam Anderson of Caro; Harry Barnum of Vassar; Mrs. Richard Hoyer of Fostoria; Leon Van Steenhouse and Theodore Kramer of Unionville and Dr. Charles Quinn of Millington.

Be thrifty — there's nothing more worthless than a reputation as a good spender.

The fellow who thinks he knows it all might get by if he knew when to stop talking.

Farm Credit Can be Blessing or Burden

Farm credit can be a blessing or a burden depending on how it is used, remarks Don Kehler, County Extension Agent in Agriculture.

I have seen more than one operation slipping backward in growth, income and development because of insufficient credit to accomplish the job.

On the other side of the ledger one sees operations having a surplus of credit but still slipping due to poor growth planning and management decisions.

Credit is a tool, not a toy and hard to come by credit is just as harmful as too easy credit. For example, here is an operator with a tight credit picture who needs a little extra to apply that atrazine on corn. This quackgrass control could increase his crop value the first year by 20 to 30 dollars per acre. Subsequent years afterward he will benefit. This operator needs and will earn dividends on this credit if he can get it.

How about the operator who spends 12,000 dollars for improvements where 8,000 dollars will give him the same efficiency and durability at lesser cost. This is poor planning and credit management.

On the other hand, here is an operator who needs three to five thousand dollars more credit than obtainable. This unobtainable credit makes the difference between establishing a well balanced operation with growth possibilities or slipping into oblivion.

Where does the fault lie in poor credit management? Basically it could be both the operator's and the credit agencies' fault. The operator unknowingly could be at fault by not completely understanding his most present and future critical needs. In other words do not use this cart before the horse, the plow before the tractor or, the cows before the barn type of planning. The credit lending agency could be guilty of tight or loose credit because there is insufficient operational history, records, knowledge of operator ability, plus other information.

Farmers must have record based comparisons and, business analysis data to give the information needed to make the correct credit management decisions. These records also furnish proof for credit or personal financial needs.

The Telfarm program will give on operator and the credit agency this necessary information plus operator income tax management, credit summaries, net worth statements, money flow and more.

Telfarm is being used to draw up the blue print for our farmers' operational needs both presently and for the future.

BOOK REVIEW
Tells of Americans Fighting in Far East

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

Serious novelists in every generation have reflected the problems of the age in which they live. Two weeks ago we reviewed a very thorough-going novel, dealing with the racial crisis of the nation. That was "Look Away, Look Away," by Ben Haas. The novel which I review for you now is also a novel which (1) reflects the war we are fighting in Viet Nam, and (2) reflects the role played in such a situation by our ambassadors.

THE AMBASSADOR by Morris L. West is exciting reading and offers as a bonus some insights as to why American Troops are fighting in the far East. This is Mr. West's sixth novel, and we reviewed two of its predecessors in this column: "The Shoes of the Fishermen," and "The Devil's Advocate."

The ambassador is named Ambery and his story is told in one first person, which frequently is a confusing device but which Mr. West has used wisely and which adds to the reader's involvement in the story. As the story opens, Ambassador Ambery is stationed in Tokyo. Recently widowed, he spends great periods of time looking for some personal answers to some personal problems, when without warning he is approached to see if he will give up his Tokyo assignment and accept another as Ambassador to South Viet Nam. There, Americans were just "observers" but were being killed nonetheless. The change in ambassadors also marks a change in the policy of the United States to one of more belligerence. Ambery accepts the change in posts, and in a few days is landed at Saigon. Immediately he finds himself caught up in the politics of the oriental nation.

As a professional in our corps of trained ambassadors, Ambery is able to distill the situation in a matter of hours. He is surrounded by competent staff people, including: General Tolliver, in charge of our military personnel and any military action; George Gorton, brought by Ambery as a sort of exalted errand runner, and who is martyred while on a very important mission; Harry Yaffa, the CIA chief; Mei Adams, the first secretary; Bill Slavich, chauffeur, expert in Judo and other skills in line with his position as bodyguard to the ambassador, and Anne Belodon, his personal secretary.

A Buddhist set fire to himself at the airport when the ambassador arrived. Another incident nearly cost him his life. He likes Cune, the President of Viet Nam, when they first meet, but soon is disenchanted, and consents when some Vietnamese stage a revolution that topples Cune.

The book weaves all sorts of people and situations into the story. For romance, take the ambassador, a widower, and his secretary, an attractive widow. For politics, take Festhammer, from the home office. Running through the entire account are the varied religious strains that the principals claim, including Cune, a practicing Roman Catholic heading a nation that is largely Buddhist; the ambassador has rejected, at least in his mind, the Christianity of his youth, and while not having any religious affiliation, is most influenced by Muso Soseki—a leading priest of the faith called Zen Buddhism.

If this book reflects nothing but the role played by the embassies we have pretty well scattered among the nations of the world, it will prove an eye-opener to the workings of modern relationships between nations. I liked this book, and note with pleasure the growth of Mr. West as a very competent writer.

THE AMBASSADOR, by Morris L. West, William Morrow and Company, New York, 1965, 275 pp. Available from the Elkland Twp. and Cass City Library.
