New Mother's Needs Critical

Although generous Cass City residents have come to the rescue of Mrs. Barbara McCreary, she still is high on the list of persons who need the help of public spirited citizens.

You'll remember that Mrs. McCreary lost all of her possessions

From the Editor's Corner

Sometimes publicity pays. A couple of weeks ago the paper ran a story about Thumb Metal Finishing at Argyle, Paul Downing, manager, dropped in to say he was pleased with the way the story was presented.

Downing was on his way to interview a prospective customer secured through the publicity the concern received, when he visited the office.

He didn't say if he formed his opinion about the story before or after the customer called.

I am all for the cultural exchange that sends students abroad to study the customs and habits of other countries.

But sending a youngster to Sweden isn't appealing after a story I read the other day. The newspapers in Stockholm have discontinued the use of Miss for adult, unmarried women. All adult women are now called Mrs. by the paper.

The editors explained that in Sweden's society today there is no difference between most adult married or unmarried women in the sense that Miss denotes chastity.

Cass City fans who attended the Central Michigan University Red Feather grid game at Saginaw Saturday report that Walter Hempston was outstanding in his college debut.

The CMU sophomore scored one of Central's two touchdowns, blocked well and played both offense and defense for Coach Kelly's gridgers.

Joe Falls, sports writer on the Detroit Free Press, wrote his first column in a regular series the other day and reported that veteran columnists say that the first column is the hardest to write.

Perhaps that is true for them. I shudder at the thought of having to write a column every day. Most times I have trouble thinking of subject matter for one column a week . . . and it isn't any easier after 15 years here than it was for column number one.

Ugly School Refuses Comment On Bid Prices

Authorities at Ugly Community Schools are not talking about the recent bids received for construction of an addition to the school.

All inquiries about whether or not the bids were high, low, satisfactory or unsatisfactory are shunted aside with the statement that nothing will be decided until the Board of Education and the architects confer on the bids at a "date to be selected."

There were two bidders for the entire project. Chester Lasky, Bad Axe, base bid of $434,000, was low. Booms Construction Company bid $442,800.

In addition to the base bid, a bid of $7,000 for kitchen equipment by Great Lakes Hotel Supply Company, Detroit, was received. The bids totaled $441,000.

A series of individual bids totaled $450,210.

Novesta Establishes New Dump Rules

The Novesta Township Board passed a resolution Tuesday night severely restricting the use of the township dump.

The regulations spell out in detail the type of refuse that can be placed in the dump and restrict burning on the site.

The new resolution also prohibits the use of the dump by anyone other than township residents. The complete ordinance is published in this issue.

in a trailer house fire two weeks ago . . . leaving her destitute with a four-year-old boy and a year-old daughter. Her husband has left her.

Since her plight was revealed in the Chronicle, she reports she received some help from the veterans administration, the OES and a total of $20 from two individuals.

She is still in desperate straits. Tuesday morning at 2 a.m. the new baby she had been expecting arrived at Cass City Hospital. There is a limited amount of clothing available for the baby.

Modest Ambition

Despite the circumstances, the new mother is radiant with the arrival of her new daughter, Star Mary Ellen. "I'm going to call her Star," she said wistfully. "I feel wonderful," she said.

The help from the VA office has provided clothing for the baby.

What's needed now? Just about everything. The new mother's present ambition is to find some socks for her year-old daughter. She has none. Other clothing in the 18-month-old size is needed.

For the boy, anything available in sizes five or six will be put to ready use.

Judging by appearances, good food would be gratefully welcomed. While the Chronicle was interviewing Mrs. McCreary at the hospital, a nurse came in to take away the dinner tray.

Before the nurse could remove the dishes, Mrs. McCreary carefully removed the leftover lunch meat she had wrapped in a paper napkin . . . explaining that she was going to have her sister take it to her young son.

Collection Center

One of the donations of $10 was given to the Chronicle to pass on to Mrs. McCreary.

This paper will be happy to pass along the gifts of any interested resident or business, along with its own, to Mrs. McCreary.

Community Chest Annual Meet Set

All interested persons are urged to attend the annual Elkland-Novesta Township Community Chest meeting Tuesday, Sept. 21.

Groundwork for the coming campaign will be laid at the meeting which will take place in the Municipal Building at 8:00 p.m.

EXCHANGE STUDENT—Inger Hansson, 17, Swedish exchange student, is Cass City's dark-haired version of "The Farmer's Daughter." Miss Hansson is spending the first semester with the Emerson Kennedys and will then stay with Mrs. Lucy

'Farmer's Daughter' Interested In Politics, Teenage America

"The Farmer's Daughter," that very popular TV show about a pretty Swedish miss deep in the heart of the nation's political scene, has come to Cass City in real life. Television's "Farmer's Daughter" is blonde and beautiful Inger Stevens who plays a farm girl turned housekeeper for a Minnesota senator, Robert Morley. She's interested in the senator and, needless to say, politics.

Cass City's "Farmer's Daughter," darkly attractive Inger Hansson, is the 17-year-old daughter of a Swedish farmer and she too is deeply interested in politics.

There the similarity ends. There is no Mr. Morley.

Miss Hansson is an exchange student to Cass City from Malmö, Sweden, under the "Youth for Understanding" program. She will be in Cass City until July, staying first with the Emerson Kennedy family for a semester and then with Mrs. Lucy Starmann and family for the last half of her stay.

She arrived Wednesday, Sept. 1, after a two-day trip from Copenhagen, Denmark, and is one of 139

Swedes who are taking part in this year's program.

Inger started school at Cass City High School Tuesday, Sept. 7, as a senior. Aside from dating procedures, teen-age slang and school arrangements, American youth and education are much the same as in Sweden.

"Here boys and girls go out on dates in cars but we don't do that at home," the tall, soft-spoken miss explained. "We have dances at our homes and we can take our friends to our rooms. My parents are much more happy if I had a friend in my room than if I were out in a car."

Slang

Teen-age slang bears little resemblance to the English she has studied in school for six years. "I understand it but I can't speak it real well," she says.

"School is about the same as here, only we have 10 minutes between classes. Also we don't have different subjects. We are all in the same classes together."

Why become an exchange student? For Inger there were various reasons.

"It's difficult to say why. I wanted to see America and my parents wouldn't let me go unless it was as an exchange student."

"I feel it is very important that young boys and girls get to see other nations . . . it's good for understanding." Her family hosted an exchange student from Mason, Michigan, recently.

Her interests range from handicrafts (ceramics and jewelry making) and swimming to politics. She is an avid Kennedy family fan, and in the few days since she's been in Cass City, she's already brought home three books on the late John F. Kennedy.

Inger tried to explain the feeling of the country when the president was assassinated. "All the papers took it very hard and there were many memorial services. We Swedes loved him not as a politician, but as a man."

Because of her interest in the Kennedys, it was probably predestined that she spend her first semester in America with the Emerson Kennedy family.

During the summer, she received a letter from the Emerson Kennedys and the next day, a letter from Chuck Churchill, who was a summer exchange student to Europe, prompting her mother jokingly to remark, "One day a letter from the Kennedys and the next day Churchill writes."

Inger is currently waiting for a letter from Senator Robert Kennedy, N. Y., after a call from his secretary last week welcoming her to the United States.

Home for Inger in Sweden is a 120-acre farm on which her father grows grains, sugar beets and swine. Also at home are a brother and a sister.

Exchange students are not exactly new to the Kennedy family. Miss Delila Vega of Chiclayo, Peru, S. A., spent three weeks with the Kennedys. She was an International Farm Youth Exchange member through 4-H.

Miss Vega, after spending some six months in the United States, will return to Peru where she is a manual arts teacher.

Area Man Hurt in Rear-end Collision

Joseph Katnek, 71, Gagetown, was injured slightly. Saturday, Sept. 11, when his vehicle was struck in the rear by a car driven by Donald Partridge, 34, Cass City.

The accident occurred on M-81, a half mile south of the Deckerville Road. Partridge told investigating officers that he had passed one car and pulled back into his lane when he saw the Katnek car directly ahead with no taillights. Partridge was unable to stop in time.

Lonnie Briggs, 18, Bad Axe, and a passenger in his car, Kathy Stroupe, 15, Cass City, both suffered bumps and bruises in an accident at 12:01 a.m. Saturday on South Elkton road, some six miles southeast of Owendale. They were treated at Hills and Dales hospital

For Special Education Students

School Board Protests Transportation Ban

Cass City Board of Education Pres. Horace Bulen has termed as "high handed" an announcement by the Tuscola County Special Education department that county schools must provide transportation for special education students to school in Caro.

Bulen made the remark at the board's regular September meeting Monday night at the High School after Supt. Donald Crouse announced that there would be no more transportation for Cass City's four youngsters in special education.

Last year, transportation was offered by the department. Crouse received notification one week before school started this year that the service would be discontinued.

Cass City School District pays about $15,000 into special education under a three-fourths mill issue passed in the county four years ago. "What do we get for this $15,000," one board member asked. Cass City students attending the Caro school also cost Cass City tuition.

A special education room was added to Willis Campbell elementary school two years ago under the program. Some counseling and visiting teacher services are also granted to the system.

Cass City also receives $2,240 from the program to help pay special education teaching salaries.

The board expressed its concern over the matter and asked Crouse to seek a breakdown on the special education budget and services available to Cass City.

To Buy Car

To solve the problem, the board named Ken Maharg and Don Koepgen to a committee to investigate the cost of a nine-passenger station wagon which would be used to transport students. Rev. Richard Canfield, who is currently using his own car to carry the students, will be the driver.

Beverly Furor

Beverly School District, near Kingston, will be accepted into Cass City if its voters are granted permission to hold an annexation election and providing the election approves annexation.

Several Beverly residents have expressed a desire to come to Cass City now that the K-12 Law is forcing the district into the Kingston District. Their desire has set off a minor furor (see story, this issue) in the county school system.

Cass City will accept the district if it approves annexation and those residents who wish to transfer to the Kingston District would be allowed to do so.

Bean Yield Poor, Prices Are Higher

Bean prices were holding steady at a high $6.75 a cwt. early this week as the crop poured into area elevators. Low yields and high quality are expected to keep the price at this level through the harvest and beyond.

That's the report from Frutchey Bean Company elevators in Cass City with less than 50 per cent of the crop in.

Yields are down considerably from a year ago when yields were also below normal. George Fisher, manager at Frutchey's former Farm Produce Elevator, reported Tuesday that "we're finding more of the 14 to 15 bushel per acre yield."

"Of course there are some 20-bushel yields and some five-bushel yields but the average is about 15 bushels."

Last year's average was 18 to 20 bushels. Fisher set the normal average at about 30 bushels per acre or twice the current yield.

Price Up

This year's price is 45 cents a cwt. higher than the $6.30 reported last year at this time. Last year's price hit a peak of $6.65. Normally, the price goes down after the harvest, but officials expect it to hold steady for some time.

Quality High

Quality is high this year or as Fisher put it, "Beautiful! The quality is very nice." Fisher expected the crop to be completely harvested within the next 10 days except for a few late or replanted fields.

The August 1 crop report of the Agriculture Dept. forecast the Michigan crop at 5.9 million bags (cwt). This is 20 per cent below last year and 17 per cent below the 5 year average.

About 85 per cent of the Michigan crop is navy beans, 11 per cent kidney beans and 4 per cent other varieties.

This year's crop will be more than 1 million bags less than the amount normally needed to supply domestic and export use. The average export is 1.5 million bags. The forecast for Great Northerns and California Small Whites is about the same as for last year. The carry over from the 1964 crop is small.

Reports from Canada indicate a crop about 500,000 bags above last year. This increase will compete with Michigan beans on the world market.

MSU economists advise growers to hold on to their beans, with private or government loans, until the market situation becomes clearer.

Walbro to Move Subsidiary To Cass City

Officials at Walbro Corporation announced this week that John R. Parts Company, a subsidiary of Walbro, will move to Cass City from Vassar Oct. 1.

The company sells small engine replacement parts to distributors nationwide.

The company hires relatively few persons as it does not manufacture the parts it sells. Company officials estimated a maximum of 10 additional employees for the subsidiary.

New headquarters for the concern will be at the former Nestles' building in Cass City.

Traffic Offenders Pay Heavy Fines

Cass City area drivers ticketed in the village between July 26 and August 31 paid nearly $500 in fines and costs, according to Justice Frank Rolka who is handling local traffic tickets.

A total of $460.30 in fines and costs were paid to Rolka for offenses ranging from reckless driving and speeding to squealing tires and excessive noise.

Cass City is without a justice of the peace since Mrs. Arthur Little's resignation from the post took effect early this summer. Justice Rolka now handles Cass City's traffic cases and submits a monthly report to the village.

Board Ignores Protest

A protest by members of the Beverly School district over transfer into the Kingston School District was ignored Wednesday night, Sept. 8, by the County Intermediate School District at a meeting held in the courthouse at Caro.

Under the reorganization plan, under consideration by a county committee, all districts will eventually be attached to a high school district. Beverly district is slated to become a part of the Kingston district.

Some 20 of the 25 affected property owners have expressed a desire to join the Cass City district.

For several months there has been a request for annexation to the Cass City district in Lansing but the request has not been acted upon. Beverly district has a valuation of $450,000.

After the county plan has been approved by the Intermediate School Board, it must have State approval. A vote follows the State's authorization and a simple majority of the voters in the 16 districts changed will be binding for all districts.

The Cass City School Board would be happy to annex the Beverly district. Board members have gone on record as accepting the district while allowing any property owners wishing to transfer to the Kingston district to do so.

Intermediate School Director William Scott said that there was no action on the request by the protest group, but that the entire plan was to have been considered and acted upon Wednesday night.

Ricky Schaible Suffers Burns

Ricky Schaible, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schaible of Cass City, is in Saginaw General Hospital recovering from severe burns suffered Sunday when his clothing caught fire from a kitchen stove.

The child was apparently attempting to turn off a burner turned on by a younger brother, Dean, when his clothes touched the burner and caught fire.

He suffered burns on the face, arm and side. He was taken to Cass City Hospital and transferred immediately to Saginaw.

His father is a welder at Evans Products in Gagetown and his grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whittaker.

Mrs. William Wolschleger

Miss Jean Elizabeth Brahmer of Cass City and William Wolschleger of Harbor Beach were married Saturday, Sept. 11, in St. John's Catholic Church, Ubbly. The Rev. Fr. Zygmunt Gaj officiated at the double-ring ceremony when Mrs. William Wolschleger sang "Sweetest Day."

The church was decorated with candelabra and palms and vases of white gladioli and pompons for the rites uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brahmer of Ubbly and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Wolschleger of Harbor Beach.

The bride's gown of imported Chantilly lace featured a sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls and long lace fingertip sleeves. The floor-length skirt of peau de soie had lace appliques trimmed with sequins. A Dior bow and streamers adorned the back of the gown which had a chapel train.

A rose-shaped headpiece of illusion trimmed with sequins and pearls held her bouffant illusion veil. She carried a crescent cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Marilyn Brahmer of Ubbly was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Lucille Lamke of Detroit, the bride's close friend, was bridesmaid. They both wore gowns of sapphire peau de soie designed with round neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Their floor-length A-line skirts had inserts of royal blue velvet at the waist, trimmed with a small bow. A large velvet Dior bow and streamers trimmed the back of the gowns. They carried toprary bouquets of white snow-drift pompon crysanthemums trimmed with fern and ivy and sapphire blue velvet ribbons.

Brenda Wolschleger of Harbor Beach, a cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She carried the traditional basket of rose petals.

All of the wedding flowers were arranged by the bride's brother, Ronald Brahmer. He is a student of floriculture at MSU in East Lansing.

The groom's brother, Ronald Wolschleger of Harbor Beach, was best man. Mr. Brahmer of East Lansing was groomsmen.

Douglas Brahmer of Ubbly was ring bearer for his sister. Ushers at the services were John Bismack Jr. of Minden City, Donald Pawlowski and Earl Kritchman, both of Harbor Beach.

The bride's mother's ensemble was a two-piece royal blue suit with which she had blue accessories. The groom's mother chose a medium blue suit and she also had blue accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white sweetheart roses.

Guests attended a reception held at Williams Inn, Harbor Beach.

The new Mrs. Wolschleger is an employee of General Cable in Cass City and is a 1965 Ubbly High School graduate. Her husband is employed at Active Industries in Elkton.

The bride wore a two-piece aqua mohair suit with black accessories when the couple left for a week's trip to Northern Michigan.

They will make their home at 6338 W. Pine St., Cass City.

Former Residents Survive Hurricane

Two former area residents reported their safety to area relatives following Hurricane Betsy's lashing of New Orleans.

Mrs. William Steinkraus, the former Faith Parrott, telephoned her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Parrott Sr., Saturday evening. The Parrotts had been at their cottage at Seney in the Upper Peninsula and came home to await word of their daughter and her family.

Tim Burdon also reported to his family and had to stand two hours in the open to use the telephone. Both the Burdons and the Steinkrauses live in Metairie, which is a suburb of New Orleans.

Guy Landon Stars In Play at Caro

The Tuscola Players Little Community Theatre is staging three one-act plays this week at Caro Elementary School.

The first showing was to have been held Wednesday night and the second Thursday evening.

A Cass City man, Guy Landon, will star in one of the plays, "This Way to Heaven," a comedy fantasy directed by John Bowles.

Striffler-Benkelman

More than 90 members of the Striffler-Benkelman families attended the annual reunion of the families held Labor Day in Salem EUB church.

Rev. Roy Striffler, now of Berkeley, Ohio, presided over the business meeting and conducted a memorial service honoring 10 persons who had died during the past year. Deaths reported included: Mrs. Herbert Lenzner, Julia Crocker Gibbs, Jack and Gene Corkins, John Benkelman, Lee Pocklington, Mrs. Edward Mark, Esther Striffler Kaiser, Mrs. Cora Striffler Hazard and David A. Striffler.

Nineteen babies were born and there were eight weddings in the families during the year.

The group enjoyed viewing pictures taken in Switzerland by Dr. and Mrs. B. W. Archart of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Prizes were handed out to William Joss as the eldest man present; Mrs. Ida Nique, eldest woman

Hawks Need to Beef Up Offense for Warriors

Coach John Bifoss found out a couple of things about the current edition of the Cass City Red Hawks Friday when his charges scrimmaged against North Branch.

"Our offense was pretty horrible, the genial mentor said, "but we did have a few bright spots in the defense."

Our defensive backs and interior linemen looked pretty good, Bifoss said, and our physical condition seems to be progressing well.

But aside from this, it's a gloomy picture in the early stages of the season. The defense needs work at ends and the linebacking was not good, Bifoss said.

However, the problems of the defense are not as great as the weakness displayed by the offense. "We didn't show anything," Bifoss said. "Our timing is off and blocking assignments were missed time after time."

The Hawks had just four days to try to correct these mistakes before taking on one of the tougher teams on their schedule, Port Huron Catholic Central.

The Warriors of Coach Dave Woodcock are defending St. Clair Area League champions and figure to be strong. According to Woodcock, the team will not be as big as they were last year, but should be faster.

Port Huron has only one veteran returning in the backfield, Phil Wittliff, a good quarterback.

Last year Port Huron took a 19-0 first half lead and then hung on for a 19-13 victory in the first meeting in history between the two clubs at Cass City. This year the Hawks play at Port Huron.

Starting Line-up
Bifoss has about settled on his starting line-up, but says that the results of practice prior to Friday night could change some of the selections.

At the end position Al Wallace and Wayne Copeland get the nod and will be backed up by Jim Tuckey.

The starting tackles will be two of these three players: Dave MacRae, Dean Hullen and Jim Crane. At the guards a sure starter is co-captain Rick Turner. The second guard will be either Randy Clara or Rick VanVleet.

Center is a question mark. Monday morning, Bifoss was not sure whether or not he would shift a man to the position or start Les Searls or Mike Root.

Quarterbacking is still a tossup between Jerry Knoblet and Dave Schember.

Lions Broom Sale In Second Stage

Cass City Lions will make another sweep through the village tonight (Thursday) in the second stage of their annual Broom Sale, following coverage of half of Cass City Wednesday night in the first stage.

Working in teams, the club will continue a house to house canvass selling household, whisk and push brooms, wash cloths, dusters, welcome mats and other items.

All proceeds from the sale will be used for various community and area civic and charitable projects.

Self-discipline is the main factor in building character.

Name Winners and Present Prizes In Golf League

The Cass City Golf League ended its season Sunday with an 18-hole match at Pigeon Country Club where regular season winners were announced and 12 prizes awarded to winners of the day.

League rules limited the awards to one for each player and when double winners occurred one of the prizes went to the player who finished second.

Low handicap round trophy went to Bill Bridges, who finished second to Kenneth Elsing. Elsing and Bill Krizman won the trophy for best ball partners.

Runner-up for the low handicap went to Jim Williams after Bridges and Krizman, who actually tied for second, were disqualified under the one prize, one man rule.

Prizes were also awarded to the following winners: drive nearest cup, Lawrence Guinther; longest drive on hole nine, Clinton House; low actual score, Maynard Helwig (84); least putts for 18 holes, Ken Schneider; longest drive on hole 12, Bruce Thompson; drive nearest pin on hole 13, Cliff Croft; most putts for 18 holes, Jack Esau; and high handicap score for 18 holes, Lee Hartel.

The champion of the regular season was Earl Harris. In second place was Dick Wallace. He was followed by Helwig, Harold Isard, Clint VanDiver and Bill Krizman.

A dinner was served following the match to the 31 persons attending.

Thefts Take on Light Note as Pranksters Hit

Almost every situation has its lighter side and thievery was no exception this week in the Cass City area as pranksters "cooned" melons and "rustlers" made off with a rocking horse.

Mrs. Norman Hoppe of rural Cass City reported to the Tuscola County Sheriff's office Tuesday that someone had taken about 10 watermelons and six muskmelons from her garden during the night.

The only clues deputies had, according to a report filed by Deputy Gene Wilson, were footprints which showed that the culprits consisted of four boys, . . . one large, one small and two medium-sized. Three of them wore tennis shoes.

"Probably my best bet," Wilson commented with a chuckle, "would be to check local doctors . . . the watermelons were all green."

"In any event," he concluded, "it's very unlikely I'll find the missing merchandise."

Over in Gagetown it was a scene straight out of "Bonanza" as unknown "rustlers" galloped off with a rocking horse belonging to the James Pistro family Friday night, Sept. 10.

Pistro reported to Bad Axe State Police that the $30.00 toy horse had been stolen from his porch.

Like a horse thief, the case was left hanging until further investigation.

A little less humorous was the prank pulled on three cars parked in the St. Joseph's Catholic Church parking lot Thursday evening, Sept. 9.

Andy Kozan of Cass City reported to sheriff's deputies that the air had been let out of his tires. Investigation also showed that air had been let out of tires on two other cars.

Complete Plans For Visits of Foreign Students

Sunday representatives from 40 nations will participate in the second annual International Festival slated at the Caro Fairgrounds at 2:30 p.m.

The giant meeting will climax a week end of international hospitality where foreign students visit in homes throughout the Thumb.

The organization responsible for the program is the Christian Rural Hospitality Council and includes 750 families with 10 organized community groups carrying on the visitation program within the council.

Students will arrive Thursday and Friday evening and the estimated 175 students will be hosted by about 150 families.

Sunday's program will include a brief address by Dr. Dotson, director of the University of Michigan's Protestant Foundation. Students are expected to wear the dress of their country and a potluck supper is slated following the program.

The Rev. William Lutz of Mayville, originator and director of the program, urged everyone who could possibly attend to do so.

To flatter some people it pays to keep still and listen.

Area Youths Top Livestock Show

The Cass City Livestock Club swept the majority of top honors at the Livestock Show and Sale at Caro Tuesday afternoon as local buyers helped bring prices up for area youth.

In hog competition, Ed Gordon showed the grand champion for which Erla Packing Co. paid 85 cents per pound. The lightweight hog of Tom Jickling was the reserve champion. It was purchased for 37½ cents a pound by Cass City State Bank. Gordon also showed the first place and grand champion pen.

Second place heavy pen was won by Mark Battel. In lightweight pens, Tom Jickling was first, Margaret Battel, second, and Richard Barriger, fifth.

Other heavy individual hog placings by Cass City entries were: Mark Battel, third; Sharon Clarke, ninth; Margie Clarke, eighth; Dennis Little, fourth; David Little, sixth, and Dean Little, seventh.

Tom Jickling finished first and

Place Flint Man On Probation

A Flint man was put on two years' probation Tuesday and ordered to pay restitution of $1,000 when he appeared before Circuit Court Judge James Churchill in Caro on a negligent homicide charge.

James R. Schepler, Flint, was also ordered to pay costs of $100 and a $400 fine, all at the rate of $75 per month. Schepler was the driver of a car which struck and killed Paul Rossow and William Schneider on Quincasee Road in Gilford township in August, 1964.

Rick D. Merrow, Saginaw, entered a plea of guilty when he was arraigned for failure to stop in an accident and a pre-sentencing investigation was ordered for Oct. 26. Bond of $500 was continued.

Merrow's car was involved in an accident August 16, in which Doroteo Ruiz Luna, Akron township, was killed. Merrow left the scene of the accident without offering aid to the victim.

Wayne Stevens and James Johnson, both of Vassar, were remanded to Justice Court after their arraignment on a breaking and entry charge. Bond of $500 for both was continued. The pair and two other men are charged with breaking into the Henry Wagner house in Juniata township on August 16.

Prosecutor James J. Epskamp moved to dismiss the charge of indecent liberties against Raymond Cantu, Birch Run, after a state psychiatrist found him to be a sexual psychopathic person.

Cantu was returned to county jail. He was originally charged with an incident that took place in Arbela township April 4.

Leandro Soto, Bradleyville, charged with larceny from a building, was fined $100 and ordered to pay costs of $100. Soto reportedly took some pop and four pairs of boots from the Bradleyville Elevator in Wisner township on August 1.

Clinton C. House, Cass City attorney, was appointed to defend Sam Trisch, Caro, after Trisch appeared at his arraignment on a breaking and entering charge without counsel. He is charged with breaking into the Bruno Mazur house on Mushroom Road, Kingston.

Bonnie Inglis of Cass City was granted a pro-con divorce from her husband Wayne plus restoration of her maiden name, Stoll. The couple were married January 17, 1964, and have no children.

John Howell of Cass City was called into Circuit Court to show cause for non-support of his former wife and three children. The case was continued for performance and Howell is to report weekly. The couple were married January, 1947, and have four children, one married.

AREA ACCIDENTS

Three Killed

Edwin Zajac, 20, Kingston, was slightly injured in a truck-car crash Thursday, Sept. 9, that claimed the lives of three Fairgrove persons and injured a fourth at the intersection of M-81 and Indiantown Road.

Zajac's truck jackknifed and the car smashed into the right front of the truck cab and was demolished. Killed were Leonard C. Turner, 64, and Mr. and Mrs. August Collier.

Two wreckers were needed to remove two of the victims from the front seat of the car.

Minor Damage

A car driven by Anne E. Hambleton, 75, Unionville, struck a car belonging to Mrs. Calvin McIntosh Tuesday, Sept. 7, as Mrs. Hambleton was leaving a parking space at Hartwick's Market. The McIntosh car was damaged slightly.

In other traffic news, Howard F. Clark, 23, Cass City, paid fine and costs of $87.00 Saturday after he pleaded guilty to having Justice John P. Guza, Bad Axe, to drink driving.

The man who accepts favors also accepts obligations.

Dick DeLong was second in junior swine showmanship. Francis DeLong was first in senior showmanship.

In the lightweight hog competition, other placings were: Margaret Battel, second; Duane DeLong, third; Richard Barriger, fourth; Francis DeLong, sixth, and Carole Clarke, seventh.

Lamb Division

Cass City's George Russell showed the grand champion individual lamb at the show. It was sold to R & S Corporation of Akron for $1,000 lb. Barbara Black of Wisner showed the grand champion pen. Grant Goodall showed the second place pen and the reserve champion individual. Michigan Livestock Exchange purchased the pen for $33 cwt. and Grant Goodall's individual at $30 cwt. Max Lawrence, Caro, bought the reserve champion pen for $30 per hundredweight.

Other local placings in the lamb division were:

For pens — George Russell, fourth; Tom Russell, fifth; Mary Lee Russell, sixth; Carl Russell, seventh, and Fred Ballweg, 10th.

For individuals — Grant Goodall, third; Tom Russell, fourth; Carol Russell, sixth; Connie DeLong, seventh; Billy Hacker, eighth; Wanda Hacker, ninth; Mary Lee Russell, 10th; Fred Ballweg, 11th; Carl Russell, 12th; Bob DeLong, 14th; Larry Chik, 15th; Rilla Chik, 16th; Max Bret and Morris Hendrick, 17-18-19th.

In sheep showmanship, George Russell was first and Tom Russell finished fifth.

Beef Show

David Little of Cass City showed the grand champion beef animal and also the first place. Dennis Little was third and Dean Little was fourth. Merritt Packing purchased the champion steer from Little for $55 per hundredweight.

Walter Hecht Jr. of Richville won the beef showmanship award.

Local Buyers

Local buyers at the show, in addition to those above, were: Bolen Motors, Cass City Chronicle, L & S Standard, Krizmans, Bauer Candy Co., Caro Co-op Elevators, Wood's Drugs, Auten Motor Sales, Little's Funeral Home Fuelgas Co. of Cass City and Frutchey Bean Co. of Cass City.

Others were: Frutchey Bean Co. of Greenleaf, Chuck Wright, Barney Freiburger, Cass City Floral, Croft-Clara Lumber, Thumb Appliance, Gamble Store, Cass City Oil and Gas, McConkey Jewelry, Leonard Damm & Son, Marshall Implement and Schneeberger TV and Appliance.

SCHOOL BOARD

Concluded from page one. Information on why the new school should use natural gas heating.

Bill Taylor, Southeastern official, explained that gas heating could be feasibly almost $10,000 cheaper per year, based on figures taken from schools comparable to the proposed new Cass City High School.

The estimated figures were $7,644 for gas and $17,290 for electricity some $9,646 more.

Bulen commented that the board's policy is to act on suggestions from the architect and suggested that Southeastern should contact Warren Holmes in Lansing.

Woman Driver

Crouse was given a verbal go-ahead to hire Mrs. Donald DeLong to replace her husband who has resigned as a bus driver. The board admitted a woman school bus driver in the local system was a "bit unusual, but not irregular." Barney Freiburger has also replaced Clayton Moore.

Shop and music floor plans for the new high school were discussed and it was decided to return to an original plan which will make the two shops each as close to 3,000 square feet as possible and would leave the music department as one room instead of a divided room for vocal and instrumental.

Fixed Equipment

A fixed-equipment contract which provides that the architect work with equipment salesmen on the same rate as is paid for designing the school was approved. The board felt such a contract would better co-ordinate equipment placement with building progress.

A $50 increase in the contract of one bus leased from Harold Kilbourn of Deford was granted inasmuch as Kilbourn's bus will be traveling more miles in the 1965-66 school year.

An option agreement between Mrs. H. T. Donahue and the school on property to be used as a site for the new school was approved.

Crouse was authorized to borrow up to $30,000 as is needed until state aid money arrives.

Vacation trips always cost more than the first estimate.

People who try to hit all the high places land in the dump.

Don't despair — the less you have, the more there is to get.

Troubles arise when little white lies come home to roost.

Saturday, Sept. 18 — Margaret Armstead will hold a household auction at the home at 4530 Queen St. in Ubly.

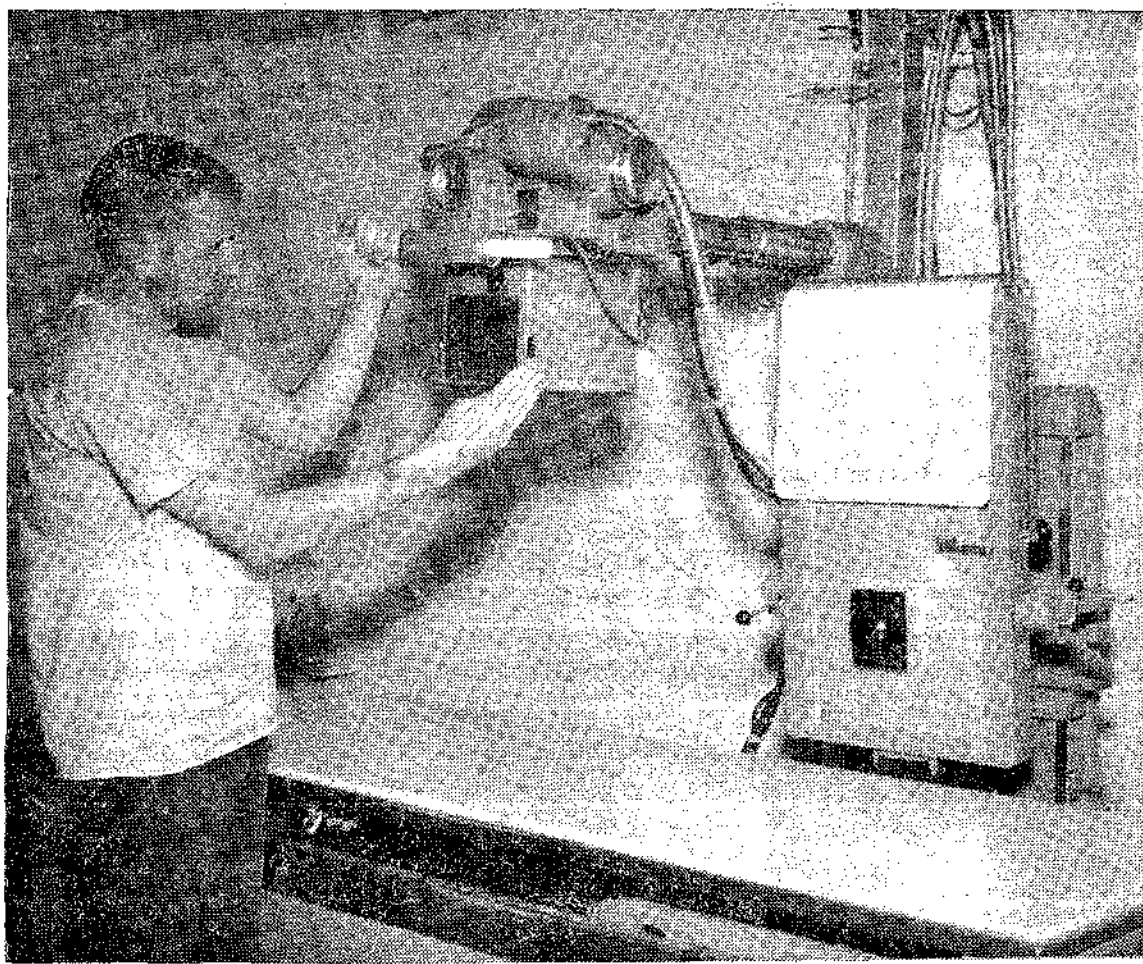

Saturday, Sept. 25 — George Romzek will sell cattle, milking equipment and farm machinery at the place located 11 miles east and three and a half miles south of Bad Axe.

Saturday, Sept. 25 — Farm machinery and shop tools of the estate of Francis Kuhl will be sold at the premises three miles east and three and a half north of the Sebewaing Sugar factory in Sebewaing.

Saturday, Sept. 25 — Clifford Munger will sell cattle, milking equipment, farm machinery and feed at the farm located two miles west and two miles south of the Caro Standpipe.

Saturday, Oct. 2 — Marcus Messing will sell at auction farm machinery, feed and milking equipment on the premises located a half mile east of Carsonville on M-46.

Saturday, Oct. 2 — Joseph Gucwa will sell cattle and machinery at the farm four miles east, six miles north and three-quarters mile east of Cass City.

NEW UNIT—Cass City Hospital Administrator Joe Weiler makes a minor adjustment on the new X-ray unit installed in the hospital's newly completed technical center in the basement of the new addition. The new center, which also houses the emergency room, central supply and laboratories, is the second stage of a three-stage project and cost an estimated $80,000. (Chronicle photo)

To Let New Jail Contract Sept. 28

Bids on the building of the new Tuscola County jail will be opened Sept. 28, according to Clerk Archie Hicks.

Deadline for delivery of the bids to Hicks is 2:00 p.m. Sept. 28. The bids will be taken immediately to the supervisors room and opened.

Miss B. Pasieczny Feted at Shower

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given in honor of Barbara Pasieczny Sunday, Sept. 12, at St. John's Lutheran School in Port Hope.

Hostesses were Mrs. Harry Kordonis, Mrs. Ted Steinbis and Astrid Schultz. Forty-three ladies attended.

Barbara and Ben Schultz will be married October 2 at 2 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran Church in Port Hope.

Many a fellow who has money to burn looks up an old flame.

HOSPITAL PROJECT

On other fronts, the hospital's original wooden frame portion just received a new face-lifting with the application of aluminum siding. New fire escapes are also in the process of being put up. Siding work was by Dean Lowe of Cass City and construction in the basement is by Booms Construction Co. of Bad Axe.

Epskamp to Rule On Pit Transfers

A motion by Tuscola County supervisors to transfer county-owned gravel pits to the County Road Commission was set aside until Prosecutor James Epskamp makes a ruling on the legality of a quick claim deed.

The move took place Wednesday, Sept. 8, at the board's regular session.

Before 1945, according to Clerk Archie Hicks, there was no law whereby the county road commission could hold property. Land to be used for sand and gravel, therefore, was purchased in the county's name.

Now, in order to sell county gravel to the state, the commission must get permission from the supervisors, causing long delays as the board meets only once a month.

The transfer would eliminate the delays and open the way for development of new gravel pits. Epskamp will give a ruling at the next board meeting.

Annexation Approved

Annexation of the northeast corner of Section 4, Indianfields township, to the village of Caro was approved. The property includes Caro Community Hospital, Caro High School, the new Baptist Church, Indian Hill subdivision and a number of homes.

Enforcement of dog laws was referred to the Ways and Means Committee and permission to advertise for a replacement for Charles Vaskowich, Vassar, county dog warden for 11 years, was given. Vaskowich has been in ill health.

Sheriff's Auction

Sheriff Hugh Marr was authorized to hold an auction in October on confiscated property or unclaimed property. Among the items to be sold are a quantity of guns including rifles, shotguns and two automatic pistols.

A request by James H. Sparling, Caro, to purchase part of the County Farm on which to build a home was denied after the board decided not to sell any part of the farm at this time.

Three supervisors were appointed to a committee which attended the tax conference meeting in Detroit Monday and Tuesday. Named were Carson Leach, Millington township; Ted Kuhle, Vassar township; and Gene Slafter, Tuscola township.

Coroner Ben Colon reported on the National Convention held in Milwaukee, Wis., in August. Drain Commissioner Freehand Sugden was hired to compute tax rates with compensation not to exceed $100.

A gas conversion unit for a house currently on the site of the new jail was approved for purchase. Cost of the unit will be about $250.

The board will next meet at a special session October 4 to verify valuations and tax rates and then will hold their regular long October session on Oct. 11.

In Ford's Annual PP&K Competition

Auten Motor Sales' annual "Punt, Pass & Kick" competition registration started this week, according to Ron Geiger, contest chairman.

Registration closes Friday, Oct. 8, and the competition will be held Saturday, Oct. 9.

Prizes in the contest, open to boys eight through 13, include warm-up jackets, helmets, trophies and a trip to an NFL game with their father... plus a "Tour of Champions" to Washington, D.C., and to the annual NFL Play-off Bowl game in Miami, Fla.

Competition is only between boys of the same age. All participants receive a book of punting, passing, place-kicking tips and a PP&K tie-lapel pin.

Boys registering must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Frances Hunter Now Airline Stewardess

Miss Frances Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hunter of Gagetown, was one of 16 girls to complete five weeks' training at United Airlines' Stewardess Center near Chicago's O'Hara International Airport. Graduation exercises were held Wednesday.

Her father flew to Chicago to pin her flight wings. Miss Hunter graduated from Cass City High School in 1961 and from Ferris State College in 1963.

She was a medical secretary in Bay City before joining United Airlines.

CASS CITY CHRONICLE

VOLUME 59, NUMBER 22

CASS CITY, MICHIGAN THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1965

Medical Mirror

DETERGENTS AND GERMICIDAL ACTION

Q. Do ordinary detergents used in laundering have any germ-killing properties?

A. A complete laundering procedure, in which only a detergent is used, removes up to 99 per cent of germs on the fabric. The effectiveness of detergents in eliminating bacteria is almost 100 per cent if adequate time (more than 10 minutes) for the wash cycle is allowed and if the temperature of the wash water is 145 to 160°F.

ACTIVATED CHARCOAL

Q. What is the difference between ordinary charcoal and activated charcoal?

A. The difference is in the nature of the surface of the two types of charcoal. Ordinary charcoal (bone black, carbon black, etc.) has a surface area of 5 to 50 square meters per gram and is generally nonporous. Activated charcoal is obtained by special processes from soft coal, bone, wood, etc. It has very large surface areas (up to 1000 square meters per gram) and is porous, characteristics which create great capacity for strongly binding many substances to its surface. Thus activated charcoal can deodorize, decolorize, etc., whereas ordinary charcoal can not.

Install Extension Council Officers

Helping others was the general theme of the fall Tuscola County Extension Homemakers' Council at the Court House, Caro, September 9.

An installation ceremony was held for Mrs. Walter Moderow, Reese, chairman; Mrs. Raphael O'Brien, Mayville, vice-chairman; Mrs. Leonard Russell, Akron, secretary, and Mrs. Paul Stewart, Fairgrove, treasurer.

Mrs. Alfred Brink, retiring chairman, was given a gift in appreciation of her dedicated work.

Plans were made to take cookies to the Saginaw Veterans Hospital every sixth week, to take treats to the County Hospital, each month, to make surgical leggings for the Caro Hospital, and to furnish pictures for the Saginaw Valley Consultation Center offices.

The Home and Family Improvement program was explained whereby selected ladies will work with returned mental patients on an informal basis.

Twenty-two study-groups were represented at the meeting.

Officers Training
What does a chairman do anyway? Or a reporter, or secretary or project leader?

The Tuscola County Extension Homemakers' Association will answer these questions at an Officer Training session, Friday, September 17, at 1:30 p.m. in the Wilber Memorial 4-H Building, Caro.

The chairmen will be taught by Mrs. Alfred Brink, Akron, past chairman of the County Council; vice-chairmen will be led by Mrs. Walter Moderow, Reese, Council chairman; reporters and secretaries will learn how to write reports under the guidance of Dick Allen, reporter for the Advertiser; Barbara Henrikson, Extension Agent in Home Economics, will teach project leaders to teach.

It's Not Money Down A Pot Hole

By Dave Kraft

Next time you're in McConkey Jewelry, walk to the back of the store and look down the heat register or grate or whatever you call it.

First thing to catch your eye will be several coins of various denominations lying in the bottom. Your first impulse will be to yell, "Hey, Keith, someone dropped some money."

"Y-Hour" for Teens At EUB Church

An interesting study of the Gospel of St. Mark, using special magazine-size portions of the gospel, printed by the American Bible Society and filled with an abundance of informative photographs, will form the basis for discussion in the "Y-Hour" sessions for youth at Salem EUB Church.

With their first meeting of the fall and winter season scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 16, at 7:45 p.m. in the youth room of the church, the Y-Hour will continue to meet each Thursday under the direction of Pastor R. E. Betts and youth counselors Mrs. Ted Morgan, Mrs. Betts and Gerald Miller.

The Y-Hour is a 45-minute prayer, study and discussion period for all youth ages 12 to 19 from the church and community who wish to attend. There is nothing to bring as the study books will be furnished by the church.

Parents with a concern for the Christian training of their young people are urged by Pastor Betts to cooperate with this effort. Fun and fellowship is also on the Y-Hour menu as a once-a-month party is slated during the same period.

Shabbona News

Extension Meeting—

The Shabbona Extension Group met Wednesday morning, Sept. 8, at the home of Chairman Mrs. Clark Auslander. Eleven members were present.

The group voted to solicit for the United Fund as a community project. Mrs. Eugene Chapin is township chairman. A banquet will be held for the volunteers Sept. 20 in Sandusky.

The group also decided to take a trip to the Sanilac County Historical Society Museum near Port Sanilac Monday, Sept. 13.

Discussion was held on the lessons for the coming year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Auslander.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 10 at the community hall.

WCS Meeting—

The Shabbona Methodist WCS met Wednesday evening, Sept. 8, at the home of Mrs. Andy Hoagg. Sixteen members and guests were present. The meeting was led by president, Mrs. Eugene Chapin.

Mrs. Dale Turner led the devotional period with the reading of Genesis 1.

The regular family night will be held Friday evening, Sept. 17, with Mrs. Elsie Severance, missionary to the Navajo Indians in Southern California, as the guest speaker for the evening. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Mrs. Arlington Gray presented the lesson, "Living in the Space Age."

Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Severance spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sheppard of Bay City at their cottage on Sand Lake.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Auslander and Dale were Mrs. Charles Meredith and Mrs. V. J. Donaghy and family of Sandusky and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severance and family. The wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Auslander and the birthdays of Dale Auslander and Diane Donaghy were celebrated.

Mrs. Dorling Tells Church Activities At WWS Meet

Twenty-three were present at the noon cooperative luncheon Sept. 1 in the Salem EUB Church when the Martha Circle of the Woman's Society of World Service met.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Dorling of Upwell, England, who are visiting in Cass City. Mrs. Dorling told of church activities in Upwell.

Mrs. George Dillman gave the lesson on the topic, "Give God Glory Through Time, Talent and Energy."

Used clothing and nylons were collected for the church's World Service program.

Evergreen WCTU Re-elects Officers

Thirteen members of the Evergreen WCTU were present Aug. 27 when the group met at the home of Mrs. Walter Thompson.

All officers were re-elected for the coming year and are: president, Mrs. Freeman Whitaker; vice-president, Barbara Coulter, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Luella Bullock.

Sanilac Convention

Eleven members of the Evergreen WCTU attended the Sanilac County convention Sept. 8 in the Watertown Methodist Church, conducted devotions in the morning.

Mrs. Oscar Buschlen, county vice-president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Ralph Reed of Saginaw, Eighth District president, addressed the convention and Mrs. Walter Molan of Columbiaville, State WCTU treasurer, gave highlights of the national convention held recently in Chicago.

Pat Reynolds admits she was wrong!

(She was sure electric dryers were more expensive.
Then we showed her these money-saving facts.)

- 1 Gas dryers cost a couple of pennies less per load to operate; we'd be the first to admit it. But with electric dryers you still come out ahead. Read on.
- 2 Electric dryers cost less to buy. Model for model, prices run about $20 to $40 lower than gas dryers.
- 3 And now, for a limited time, this lower price includes installation and wiring, if needed, when you buy from one of the many dealers participating in this special sales event.
- 4 Electric dryers cost nothing for electrical repairs or labor. Gas dryers? Well, you can get a manufacturer's repair service policy—but it will cost you up to $120 over the first five years of operation alone. Of course, if your dryer is electric, Edison comes out, repairs electric operating parts, and leaves without leaving you a bill! (It's the only no-charge dryer repair service offered by a utility company in this area.)

Add up ALL the costs and you'll see what Pat Reynolds saw — electric dryers actually cost less to own. EDISON

Need Liability Insurance To Buy 1966 License Plates

Save Trouble
Many motorists will have to make two trips this winter to get their new license plates because of a new state law and man's tendency to forget details.

Previously only the vehicle title was required to purchase plates but many motorists forget even this when it is time to re-register cars and trucks.

This year, starting Nov. 1, all vehicle owners will be required to show proof of liability insurance coverage or pay an extra $25 when registering their cars.

A premium of $1 annually will be levied on all motorists, but $25 will be charged any motorist not able to prove he carries liability insurance. These are part of the provisions of Michigan's new motor vehicle accident claims act.

When fully effective next Jan. 1, the law will allow motorists involved in an accident with a negligent uninsured driver to make claim to collect damages over $50 from the new fund.

An insurance policy itself, special identification card issued by the insurance company bearing pertinent information, or a letter from the company specifying liability coverage, will each meet the proof requirement of the law, said Secretary of State James M. Hare.

An attempt to minimize the return trips by forgetful motorists will be made by Hare's office. He hopes to have posters in most gas stations by Nov. 1 outlining the requirements of the new law and serve as reminders.

In addition to providing the so-called uninsured motorist fund, the new law also is designed to encourage drivers to carry insurance.

Too Common
Educators and onlookers both here and abroad have commented for at least a decade that the American college degree is rapidly losing its previous meaning.

A bachelor's degree used to be a mark of distinction, but times have changed and the change is continuing at an ever increasing pace. It seems to involve a chicken and the egg question. Did industry and business demand further educational background or did educators push the need for graduate work?

Regardless of the answer, it appears Michigan is now approaching the point where some individuals are ready to make a reality of the decade-old comments.

A legislative study is now being made under the leadership of Sen. Joseph Mack, D-Ironwood, on whether Michigan should extend its public education program to 14 years instead of stopping at the 12th year when a student receives his high school diploma.

Mack, for one, is convinced that the pioneering work in this area being done in California should be followed here. That state is providing two free years of college for resident students.

A kindergarten-through-14 program would relieve enrollment problems at major Michigan colleges and be a boon for development of more community colleges, says Mack.

Since Mack heads the legislative study and favored the idea from the start, it is a pretty sure thing that a proposal of some kind will be put before the legislature in the next year or two. Like the K-12 program, however, it is just likely that several years debate will follow before any action is taken on such a bold step in the field of education.

Mrs. Larry Robinson

An uncle of the groom officiated at the wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon, Aug. 29, when Sharon Ann Satchell of Caro became the bride of Larry Edward Robinson of Ubly. Mr. Richard Turner of Millington performed the 2 o'clock ceremony in the First Methodist Church, Caro.

Altar vases of white gladioli and palms decorated the church for the double-ring service with communion.

Soloist Robert Reid of Caro sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer" and Mrs. Frank Hunt played the wedding march.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robinson of Ubly and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Satchell of Caro.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride approached the altar in a gown of pure silk organza fashioned with wrist-point sleeves, a bateau neckline graced with Chantilly lace and a fitted bodice. Lace appliques, forming a scalloped hemline, complimented the floor-length skirt which fell to a chapel train. A crown of pearls and Italian crystals with lace accents held her bouffant silk illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were Miss Katherine Satchell of Caro, the bride's sister, maid of honor. Her gown was petal pink. The two junior bridesmaids were Miss Christina Satchell, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Abraham of Frankenmuth, cousin of the bride. Christina's gown was buttercup yellow and Mary's was lilac. Miss Ruth Abraham of Frankenmuth, Miss Melanie Satchell of Freeland and Miss Deborah Colling of Unionville were bridesmaids. They are cousins of the bride and wore gowns of romance blue and Miss Colling's was lilac.

The groom's sister Rebecca was flower girl. She was also attired in buttercup yellow.

All of the bridal attendants' gowns were identically styled in rainbow shaded silk organza over taffeta with bateau necklines. fitted Empire bodices and modified sheath floor-length skirts. Matching headpieces with short veils completed their attire and they carried baskets of multicolor daisies.

The groom's attendants were: Eldred Kelley of Spring Arbor, best man; Phillip Robinson of Lake Orion and Kevin Robinson of Ubly, the groom's brothers, and Robert Parrott of Cass City, Roy Powell of Owendale and Roger Root of Cass City.

Ring bearer was the bride's brother, Herbert Satchell of Caro. Seating the guests were Michael of Caro, William of Pensacola, Fla., and Thomas of Caro, all brothers of the bride.

The mothers' ensembles were complemented with corsages of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Satchell's were pink and white and Mrs. Robinson's were yellow and white.

A buffet dinner for 300 guests was served at the cafeteria of Caro High School.

Following their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York City, the couple are making their home in Mt. Pleasant where she is a sophomore and he is a senior at Central Michigan University.

The new Mrs. Robinson was feted at pre-nuptial showers given by Mrs. Phillip Robinson of Lake Orion, Mrs. Harland Dickinson of Cass City, Mrs. David Satchell of Freeland, Mrs. Harold Abraham of Frankenmuth, Mrs. Robert Chism of Saginaw, Mrs. Richard Colling of Unionville, Mrs. David Weisenborn of Midland, Miss Susan Oxley and Miss Karen Shaver, both of Caro.

Vassar Dairymen's Holstein Herds Lead DHIA Tests

The registered Holstein herd of Lloyd Walz of Vassar and the grade Holstein herd of Clinton K. Blackmore, also of Vassar, tied for first place in the list of herds averaging 30 pounds butterfat or more, with an average production of 52 pounds each, according to Alfred Baliweg, county extension director.

In second place was the registered Holstein herd of Dolan Sweeney, Ubly, with 49 pounds butterfat, and in third place was the grade Holstein herd of Charles Crittenden of Kingston with 46 pounds butterfat. Other herd owners whose herds averaged 41 pounds butterfat or over were: Maynard McConkey, Cass City; Walter and Lyle Jackson, Caro; Harold and Raymond Schlattman, Mayville; H. G. Reinhardt and Sons, Reese; Bruce Ruggles and Sons, Kingston; Don Koepfgen, Cass City; Clarence Merchant, Cass City; V. J. and Clare Carpenter, Cass City; William Parrott, Cass City; Frank and Mike Satchell, Caro; Henry Hohman, Vassar; Ronald Opperman, Vassar.

In the 305-day records class a registered Holstein cow, No. eight, owned by Blaylock and Rupprecht of Vassar was in first place with 721 pounds butterfat. In second place was a registered Holstein cow, No. 17, owned by Howard Loomis and Sons of Gagetown with 711 pounds fat; and in third place a grade Holstein cow, Susie, owned by Charles Crittenden of Kingston with 707 pounds fat. Other dairymen having cows which produced 619 pounds fat or more in this class were: Ronald Opperman, Vassar; Roy Brown, Fostoria; Maynard McConkey, Cass City; V. J. and Clare Carpenter, Cass City; Dolan Sweeney, Ubly; John Graham and Sons, Caro, and Alvin Frahm, Frankenmuth.

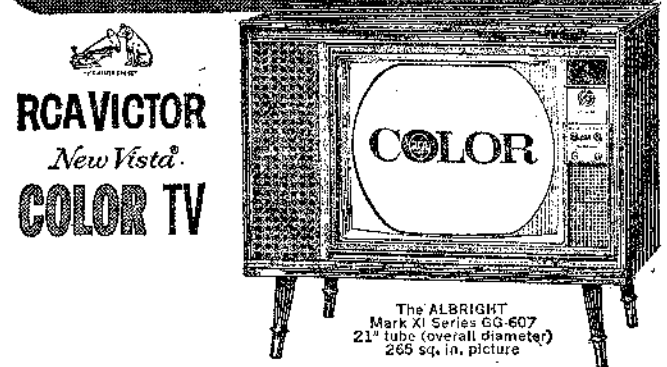

In the 70-pound-cow class a grade Holstein cow, Rose, owned by Charles Schman of Clio was first with 114 pounds fat. In second place was a registered Holstein cow, No. 88, owned by Ronald Opperman with 113 pounds fat, and in third place was a grade Holstein cow, No. 28, owned by Wilfred and Richard Leix of Fostoria with 109 pounds fat. Other herd owners having cows which produced 93 pounds or more in this class were: Lloyd Walz, Vassar; Harold and Raymond Schlattman, Mayville; Alfred Cooklin, Deford; Bruce Ruggles and Sons, Kingston; Blaylock and Rupprecht, Vassar; Lawrence Bublitz, Fairgrove.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Sez:

Dear Mister Editor:
The fellers at the country store Saturday night was in a confessing mood and everybody was owning up to the truth on himself for a change. Fer instant, Ed Doclittle, that started voting the Republican ticket in 1916, said he was gitting a little discouraged over matters, was beginning to wonder if the Republicans would ever make it back to the White House. First off,

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

General
State of Michigan, Probate Court for the County of Tuscola.
Estate of Ada May Rennells, Deceased.
It is Ordered that on November 17th, 1965, at 9 a.m., in the Probate Courtroom in the Village of Caro, Michigan, a hearing be held at which all creditors of said deceased are required to prove their claims; and heirs will be determined. Creditors must file sworn claims with the Court and serve a copy on Meredith B. Auten of Cass City, Michigan, prior to said hearing.
Publication and service shall be made as provided by Statute and Court Rule. Dated: September 1, 1965.
C. Bates Willis, Judge of Probate.
A true copy
Beatrice P. Berry, Register of Probate.

claimed Ed, the Democrats was taking such a broad stand on all the issues they wasn't leaving no room on the platform for the Republicans to set on. Furthermore, complained Ed, the Republican brass was moving too slow. He said he recollected his Pa used to say they was two ways to git to the top of a oak tree, you could climb it or set down on an acorn and wait fer it to grow. Ed was lamenting that the Republicans seemed to be using the acorn plan.

Clem Webster, that has got New Deal, New Frontier, and the Great Society juice running in his veins, admitted they was a heap of things going on in Washington that was bad. He said he could recollect when Harry Truman went out of office he told the press he'd been right 90 per cent of the time since he was President, and Clem was shore Harry was then only allowing fer the customary 10 per cent ever man loses to his old lady. But Clem told the fellers no President and no political party could bat that high and he'd be happy if Lyndon could draw a few walks and hit in the .500 range.

Zeke Grubb, that votes both ways, depending on how farm prices was at the time, was congratulating Ed and Clem fer being honest onct in their lives. He was of the opinion that all politicians in Washington, Democrat and Republican, was alike in a heap of respects. Fer instant, said Zeke, all of them was willing to do anything fer the working man except git to be one.

And Bug Hookum had some words of wisdom fer a change. He allowed as how, even with world-wide and fast communication systems, nobody could git more than a piece of the truth no more. He claimed if a feller would admit he didn't have nothing but a piece of the truth, and the other feller would admit it, then folks would git along better and nobody would git mad.

Josh Clodhopper was agreed with Bug, said he was reading a piece in the papers the other day where they was more overweight women in the nation than overweight men. And in the same paper, reported Josh, he read where overweight was one of the main things killing folks. Everybody, claimed Josh, knowed that wimmen outlived men and how did you put them two things together? Josh said he didn't know nothing no more fer shore, doubted if anybody else did. We closed the session, Mister Editor, on that honest note.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Altar Society Lists Year's Activities

The monthly meeting of the St. Pancratius Rosary Altar Society was held Monday evening at 8 p.m. in the social hall.

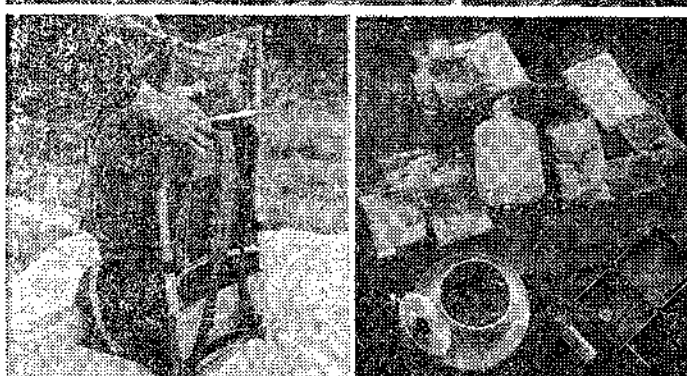

Plans for a library in one of the back rooms of the church were discussed.

Future activities for the Rosary Altar Society include a coke sale, a Thanksgiving clothing drive and the annual bazaar.

Father A. Messing discussed with the group the remodeling of the social hall to make it more conducive to meetings and the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Program. He also pointed out to members that the new church is a reflection of the latest trend in church architecture stressing simplicity of line.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Alden Asher and her committee.

Packing Off for Outdoor Fun

Michigan families, eager to test their resourcefulness in the state's forested hinterlands are taking to backpacking in growing numbers. Easing the load for them in their quest to "get away from it all" is a wide variety of lightweight, comfortable-to-carry equipment now on the market. Good examples of this are new, contoured aluminum pack frames with padded shoulder straps (bottom left) which make it easier to tote outdoor gear than ever before. Also, freeze-dried foods have been developed (bottom right) which take little space, are simple to prepare, and can be carried anywhere without refrigeration. For more information about equipment, ways to pack light, and how to enjoy life along the way, drop a card to MICHIGAN CONSERVATION Magazine, Box 10, Lansing, Michigan 48926, and ask for a free copy of "Notes on Backpacking." —Mich. BOOK REVIEW

Book Shows Man Is Close to Animal

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

Roy Publishers, Inc., must be a new publishing house on the American literary scene. The design of the dust jacket of the book I'm going to review this week is imaginative and attractive; the paper used in the book is a whiter white than we have come to expect; and even the numbering of the pages is different than what we're used to. We wish them well in a very competitive business.

The Short Cut, by Herb Greer, is the story of one of many efforts by a group of people to emigrate to California. One interesting feature of this book is a run-down on the cast of players in this drama about how this group decided to form a wagon train and hit the trail to California in 1846. This listing of the characters associated with the venture is helpful, especially in the latter portions of the tale.

Many parties hit the trails to California in the same decade, using as guides men who had made the round trip. But the Donner party dispensed with the services of a professional guide, trusting only to stories they had heard from the lips of men who had made the trip and survived! They did know, however, that Mexican-American tensions made it advisable to avoid the customary route.

The route they selected probably was a good one and would have been accomplished without more than the usual number of mishaps if they had hired a qualified guide. But they did not have a guide with them when they started on an incredible short cut, across the great salt desert. They were a mixed company, including old people, children, and all ages in between; representing all sorts of backgrounds and all kinds of dreams about what the California Territory would mean to them.

"Fighting the winter for which they were unprepared, the hunger of which they never dreamed, the horrible deaths of those they loved, they still pushed on to California. Those who survived were madmen, murderers, cannibals; a scarcely human band stumbling on for no other reason than their desperate desire to survive."

Prepare yourself, if you think that you will read this book, for a scene in which the survivors of a portion of the Donner Party, too many days since they had eaten meat, actually eat the flesh of one of their party — his widow participating out of dire need!

The large group who set out so enthusiastically is decimated, few of them actually reaching their destination. One by one they drop by the wayside.

Unlike most tales of parties which made it to California, there is no moral in this account.

I found this book to have almost a first-person quality about it. It was not, however, a pleasant book to read; it makes too vivid the thin veneer that separates man from animal. Herb Greer shows great potential as a writer; watch for future books from his pen.

Kenneth Monte, 47 Dies in Hospital

Kenneth C. Monte, 47, of Deford died Friday in Cass City Hospital after an illness of five months.

Born Nov. 29, 1917, in Fairgrove, he was a lifelong resident of Tuscola county. He and Venetta Smith were married May 18, 1940, at Colwood. He was employed by the Marlette Coach Co.

Surviving are his widow; four sons, Richard, with the U.S. Army in Germany, and Ronald, William and Joe, all at home; a daughter, Catherine, at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Monte of Caro; four brothers, Blenford, Clayton, Donald and Douglas, all of Caro, and a sister, Mrs. John Terrell of Sebewaing.

Funeral services were held at the Novesta Baptist Church Monday at 1:30 p.m.

Burial was in Kingston Cemetery.

Agent's Corner

Barbara Henrikson

A woman never buys a hat. She buys admiration.

Men somehow have trouble understanding this. When a man buys a hat, he looks for durability, warmth, perhaps association with an important person.

A woman doesn't want to look like somebody else. She isn't interested in warmth. Durability is the last thing she wants.

She doesn't want to look like somebody else, but neither does she want to be completely different from everybody else. Next year she will need a different hat. If this year's hat is still in top condition, her husband won't understand why she needs a new one.

When a man approves the purchase of a new carpet, he is approving the increase in value of the house, additional insulation, soundproofing. A carpet to a woman means a delightful room with the children playing on the floor, an atmosphere of luxury.

A man buys a washing machine with lasting gears, a guaranteed service contract, a compact, work-saving unit. A washer to a woman is clean clothes for her family, an attractive cabinet.

A man who puts money in the bank puts money in the bank. A woman banks a future for her family, a college education, a second honeymoon.

A man buys a freezer so meals will be varied and cheaper. A woman wants to freeze time to spend with her husband. She can't see cooking one little bit piece of meat every day when she can cook for ten days at once.

A man buys value, dependability, concreteness. A woman buys values, independence, uniqueness. Men and women view things differently. When you stop to think of it, it makes life kind of interesting.

People who fish for compliments invite biting remarks.

Hope is the spark plug of life, but those people who try to live on it are hopeless.

Be a leader — don't follow in the footsteps of competitors.

None are so blind that they can't see the faults of others.

Most good intentions become the victims of human frailty.

Mrs. Frank D'Arcy Dies Saturday

Mrs. Margaret D'Arcy of Kingston died Saturday at Hills and Dales Hospital after a short illness. Surviving are her husband, Frank D'Arcy; two daughters, Mrs. Donald Conrad of Oscola, Ind., and Mrs. Howard Breneman of Fairborn, Ohio; two sons, Steve and John D'Arcy, both of Kingston; 14 grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Asa Richards of North Branch.

Funeral services were held at the Lamotte United Missionary Church at 2 p.m. Monday.

Rev. Grant Becknell, pastor, and Rev. George Murphy, a former pastor, officiated.

Burial was in Kingston Cemetery.

If you expect to get ahead, look forward to the future.

Figures never lie — they just get snarled up in statistics.

The right of way gives no one the right to be careless.

Ram Day Set for Tuesday at CC Yards

Sheep raisers in the Thumb area will have a very convenient place to select a purebred ram this year. A Ram Day sponsored by the Thumb Sheep Breeders Association will be held at the Cass City Livestock Auction Yards during the afternoon of Tuesday, September 21.
On this date, purebred breeders will assemble rams and offer them for private sale. Each ram will carry a tag giving its age and price. A very good selection of the more common breeds will be on hand. This event helps sheep raisers to visit a large number of flocks with a minimum of travel. Good rams earn money for the flock owner while rams that sire slow gaining lambs with poor body conformation cost the user money.
Graydon Blank, sheep specialist at Michigan State University, will be on hand to answer questions on sheep management and to assist sheep raisers in planning a profitable crossbreeding program.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

FOR SPECIAL ELECTION
IN THE TOWNSHIP OF NOVESTA
TUSCOLA COUNTY, MICHIGAN

To Be Held

OCTOBER 25, 1965

To the Qualified Electors of
The Township of Novesta

Please Take Notice that a special election has been called by order of the Township Board of said Township to be held on the 25th day of October, 1965, for the purpose of voting upon the proposition of confirming the grant of a Franchise to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company.

Section 491 of Act 116, Public Acts of Michigan, 1954, as amended, provides as follows:

"The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this state, or in any district, county, township, city or village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the township, ward, or precinct in which he offers to vote."

The Township Clerk will be available at the office of the Township Clerk, at his home, Deford, Michigan, to accept registrations and the last day on which persons may register with the said Clerk, in order to be eligible to vote at the said special election is September 27, 1965, from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

This notice is given by order of the Township Board of the Township of Novesta, Tuscola County, Michigan.
