

No Competition for Village Candidates

Few Candidates In Gagetown Village Election

With no contests in the race for the four open village council posts, Cass City voters should have little trouble picking their village government for the coming year when they go to the polls Monday.

Two novices to the governmental scene are seeking the two open vacancies being left by outgoing trustees Fred Auten and James Seals. They are George Dillman and James Baker.

Dr. D. E. Rawson is seeking re-election to the council post he has held for the past two years.

Also seeking re-election are Village President Lambert Althaver, Clerk-Treasurer Mrs. Clinton

House and Assessor Mac O'Dell. Returning trustees are Barney Freiberger, Mrs. Gib Albee and Glenn "Scotty" McCullough.

Dillman, in charge of production control and shipping at Anrod Screen Cylinder where he has been employed for the past 12 years, is a native of Cass City and has lived here all his life, except for six years in Detroit.

He's seeking the council seat because "I was asked if I was interested in becoming a member of the council and, after some deliberation and thought, decided I'd give it a try."

Dillman is a member of the EUB Church and local conference, chairman of the Church Study Committee and is a member and minister of music for the EUB Salem Choir. His favorite pastimes are bowling and golf.

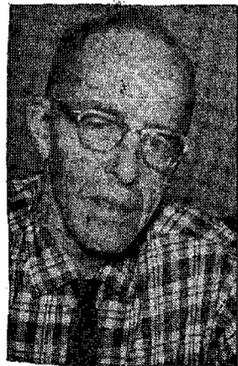

Although new to the political scene, he was once president of the former Cass City Community Club and was once treasurer for the Rotary Club. He is also a past member of the Gavel Club.

The Dillmans have two children, both away from home. Baker, assistant plant engineer at General Cable Corp. in Cass City, is seeking the council seat because "I think I can be of help . . . if only from a technical standpoint."

A 1950 graduate of Cass City High School, he attended Albion College and Tri-State College in Angola, Ind. He is a 1953 graduate of the Electrical Institute in Detroit.

He has held the offices of Gavel Club vice-president and secretary and is a member of the Methodist Church Men's Club. He has been active in Boy Scouting and is a past Scoutmaster.

A native of Cass City, except for a six-year period in which he lived in Detroit, Baker is married and has a 20-month old son.

Another Quiet Week on Village Accident Scene

It was another quiet week on the accident scene with only three village accidents investigated by Cass City police.

No injuries were reported in an accident Monday morning when a car driven by Mrs. Dean Lowe, 32, Cass City, made a left turn on Main street and struck a car driven by Arnold F. Benker, 41, Forestville.

Both cars were headed west on Main Street and Mrs. Lowe's car struck the other vehicle in the right side. She was ticketed for making an improper left turn. Riding with Benker were William Reuter, 53, Palms, and Lawrence Nye, 56, Forestville.

Hits Tree

Sunday evening a slippery spot on Doerr Road caused David C. Deering, 23, Cass City, to lose control of his car and the vehicle knocked down a road sign and hit a tree.

The accident happened at the intersection of Doerr Road and Garfield Street. No injuries were recorded in a report filed by Patrolman William McKinley.

Cars Collide

Cars driven by John P. Graham, 19, Cass City, and Doris A. Deering, 25, Cass City, collided at the intersection of Third and Leach streets Friday morning, Mar. 4.

Both cars entered the intersection at the same time and were unable to stop in time, according to Chief Carl Palmateer, who investigated.

One Injured

Elsewhere on the accident scene, Tuscola county deputies investigated an accident Sunday on M-24, a half mile west of Treasurer Road in which a car driven by Gerald J. Auten, 29, Cass City, and one driven by Truman Worth, Mayville, collided.

According to the report, the Auten vehicle struck the rear of the Worth car when Worth attempted to make a left turn off M-24. Riding in the Auten vehicle were his wife, Donna, 28, and their children, Darlene, nine, Julian, six, and Coleen, three. Darlene suffered cuts and bruises.

Tower Removal Bid $605 Higher

If the new low bidder for removal of the old water tower in Cass City is accepted, the village will pay $605 more than the original low bid by the Oak Ridge Co. that was discarded when the concern failed to post the necessary bonds.

The low bidder was Zebrowski and Associates of Farmington. The company's bid of $4,400 is under investigation and if all the terms of the bid are met, they will be awarded the contract.

Completion date for the project is 120 days after the contract is awarded.

There were five bids for the work. They were: Chuck Vaughn, Caro, $5,215.60; Anthes Brothers, Caro, $6,490; R. J. Fox-Construction, Caro, $6,400, and Raymond LaJoie, Caro, $10,000.

Five Fined for Traffic Violations

Five Cass City area persons, charged with various traffic violations, were issued fines when they appeared before Justice Hugh Connolly during the past week.

Gary A. Spencer, 18, Deford, charged by Police Chief Carl Palmateer with reckless driving on March 1, pleaded guilty to the charge Saturday and paid a fine of $40 and costs of $4.30.

His third ticket for noisy mufflers cost Randy E. Dohring, 19, Cass City, $25.00 fine and costs of $4.30 when he pleaded guilty to the charge Saturday. He was ticketed Thursday, Feb. 24, by state police.

Vernon R. Nurenberg, 17, Port Sanilac, ticketed Feb. 15 by Chief Palmateer for passing on the right, pleaded guilty when he appeared in Justice Court Thursday, Mar. 3, and paid a fine and costs of $14.30.

Dennis E. Zepplin, 21, Cass City, paid a fine of $35.00 and costs of $4.30 Mar. 3 when he pleaded guilty to reckless driving. He was ticketed Feb. 28 by Palmateer.

Bruce W. McAlpine, 21, Gagetown, ticketed March 3 by Patrolman William McKinley for driving with a defective exhaust system, pleaded guilty to the charge Monday and paid a fine and costs of $14.30.

Leaves Department

Patrolman Robert Pawlowski has left the Cass City Police department.

Members of the police committee of the village have not yet decided whether a new man will be hired.

Chances are bright for a write-in candidate to be elected in Gagetown in the general election Monday, Mar. 14. Three of the four offices up for election are without candidates.

Mrs. Dorothy Beachy, the incumbent clerk-treasurer, has refused to seek re-election and Mrs. Verda Wilson, the assessor, also declined to run again, leaving three posts to be filled by write-in votes or appointment by the village president, with the approval of the council.

The candidates on the ballot are without opposition. They are: Elery Sontag, for president; and Clarence David, Victor Rocheleau and Donald Schwartz, for the three vacant trustee positions.

$10,000 Damage Suit Is Filed

A $10,000 suit, charging automobile negligence, has been filed against a Cass City man in connection with an accident just east of Cass City in October, 1964.

Lewayne M. Kritzman, Bad Axe, and associated with Kritzman's Inc. clothing store in Cass City, filed the suit in Caro against Lee Edgar Cummings, Cass City.

According to the suit, Cummings backed his car onto M-81, into the path of Kritzman's vehicle. Kritzman suffered cuts and bruises, which he claims caused permanent scarring and dental problems, for which he is seeking damages.

Cummings reportedly fled the scene of the accident.

The Michigan State Highway Commission has filed for condemnation proceedings on private property along M-46 in Kingston, Koylton, Dayton, Wells and Fremont townships. A hearing on the proceedings will be announced later. The condemnation is in conjunction with extensive improvements on M-46 from M-24 east to the county line.

County persons affected by the proceedings include: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Nichol, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Powell, all of Kingston; Jesse W. Ladd and Dorothy K. Wells, both of Caro, and Earl K. Wells of Mayville.

Divorce proceedings against her husband, Darwin, were filed Monday by Patricia J. Smith, charging extreme cruelty. The couple were married Jan. 11, 1950, in Bowling Green, Ohio. They have no children.

Donald E. Hendrick, 30, Decker, was ordered to pay $100 fine and costs of $6.25 when he pleaded guilty Saturday, Mar. 5, to reckless driving when he appeared before Justice Frank Rolka. He was arrested by sheriff's deputies on M-81 in Juniata township on Friday, Mar. 4.

Nab Pair in School Theft

A recent burglary of Cass City High School was solved when a juvenile admitted entering the principal's office and stealing $20. The break in the investigation occurred while Sandusky State Police Trooper Roger Rivard was investigating last week's burglary at Evergreen Township Unit School when $140 was taken.

Waiving examination before Justice Harry Ballhoff of Sandusky on the burglary charge was Larry Thomas Strace, 17, of Decker. He was bound over to Circuit Court and released on a $200 bond.

The juvenile, who also admitted the Cass City School theft, was petitioned to probate court on the burglary charge at the Evergreen School.

Want Ad Sets Advertiser Afoot

A Chronicle want ad has left Miss Betty Agar briefly without transportation. She advertised her 1955 Ford for sale last week and sold it late Thursday afternoon, the day the paper came out.

Not prepared for such quick action she has not yet received another car and early this week was walking.

Miss Agar also reports that the sale was the second quick one achieved with low cost Chronicle liners. I advertised a Hideabod a few weeks ago and sold it immediately, she said.

Heavy Schedule Awaits Bands

A heavy schedule faces Cass City High School band members over the next two months, according to a report from Director Ronald Walker.

First on the docket will be the junior and senior band festival Saturday with the senior band playing at Carrollton Junior High School and the junior band performing at Delta College. The two bands are scheduled to leave Cass City at 8:00 a. m. Saturday.

A week from Saturday, on March 19, four band members will participate in the State Solo and Ensemble in Midland. Representing Cass City will be Mary Lou Spencer, Tim Knight, Linda Parrott, and Sharada Hurd.

The next day, Sunday, Mar. 20, the band will march in the St. Patrick's Day parade in Bay City. The department will get a slight reprieve until Saturday, April 2, when the junior high band will participate in a solo and ensemble festival at Bad Axe.

During the week of April 13-20, the band will hold a candy sale to raise funds to take part in Cherry Festival festivities at Traverse City on July 14-15.

The band will end April with an honors banquet on Tuesday, April 26.

For Fire Hall-Library

Bond Issue Vote Monday

A once-defeated bond issue will be placed before the voters again Monday, Mar. 14, as village authorities seek the necessary money to purchase the former H. O. Paul building from the Pinney State Bank.

The building would be remodeled and used as a combination fire hall and library with space for an office for the Cass City Police Department.

In a previous election, Dec. 10, voters turned down the request 110-101. Village authorities felt that the reason for its defeat was the lack of information about the project. Only village taxpayers are eligible to vote.

For this reason members of the council have talked to every group willing to listen and written many letters to the editor to publicize their position.

If the measure passes, voters will be bonding themselves for $1 million, plus $1,600 valuation until the bonds, with interest, are paid. The issue will be let for 10 years.

During the last election dissident voters listed parking, location, cost of the building and lack of township participation as reasons for the issue's defeat.

If the measure goes down, the village will lose a $1,000 option fee taken about nine months ago. If the voters okay the issue the building will cost $400 more than it would have if purchased in December. The reason for this is that the village is charged $200 monthly for rent and depreciation while optioning the building.

The cost of the building will be $25,750 if purchased now and the cost of extensive repairs and alterations has been estimated at $25,500.

Besides buying the building, the village would also maintain it in the future.

Of the available space, the library will receive 30x36 feet, less a 12x26-foot section for the office for the police department.

Name Health Board

Tuscola County supervisors officially agreed to join Lapeer county in a two-county health department at their March session held Friday at the courthouse in Caro.

Following the passing of the resolution confirming the move, three supervisors were named to the department. They are Ted Kuhnle, Vassar township; Quentin Howell, Gilford township, and Everett Starkey, Fairgrove township.

The resolution passed referred to the unit as the "Thumb District Health Department."

A special meeting will be called Tuesday, March 22, when a State Tax Commission representative will be on hand to help process the state equalized valuation of county townships for 1966, according to Clerk Archie Hicks.

In other business, the supervisors, at the request of the committee on special zoning, approved an "interim zoning ordinance as proposed by Fairgrove township. The move was in keeping with the supervisors' policy on maintaining a standard zoning ordinance throughout the county.

Invite Public to New Organ Recital

St. Pancratius Catholic Church parishioners and the general public will be given an opportunity Sunday evening to see the church's new organ in action at an organ recital at 8:30.

The program will be presented by William Weiss, Albion, according to Fr. Arnold Messing, St. Pancratius pastor. Weiss is an instructor at Albion College.

The program will offer music from several areas of sacred concert composition. Among the selections will be a modern work, "Seven Psalms of David," by Arthur Honegger. Also to be played will be selections from works by Johann Sebastian Bach and by the French romantic composer Leon Boellmann.

The organ, which has been placed in the choir loft at the rear of the church, has two full keyboards and a 32-note radial-arc pedal clavier. It also has 50 stop-taps and controls and two self-contained tone chambers.

Fr. Messing stressed that the hour-long program is open to the public.

Representative Spencer Calls School Aid Bill Greatest Ever for All Schools

Cass City receives $20 more per child in State Aid money this school year than it did in the previous year, Rep. Roy Spencer reported to the Chronicle this week.

The report by the 78th district representative followed a news story in last week's Chronicle that stated the local school system suffered under the new State Aid plan of which Spencer was one of the chief architects.

Supt. Donald Crouse confirmed these figures but said that the reason he feels that the local district suffers is that it places the district in a poorer competitive position.

Under previous acts, Cass City had more money to spend per pupil for education than the poorer districts, but less than the districts with high valuation. Today the poorer districts have about as much money to spend as the average district, but less than the richer districts.

In total State Aid, Cass City receives $55,455 more for the 1965-66 school year than it did in the 1964-65 school year. In the previous school year, total State Aid was $316,904 as compared to the current year's revenues of $372,359.

In a letter to the editor, Spencer compares school funds for Cass City and other districts in Tuscola county. It should be noted that his comparative figures are for the 75 per cent of the formula paid this year and based on a 14.5-mill operating levy. When a district raises 10 1/2 mills as Cass City does and the complete formula is paid, the local district's competitive picture is poorer.

After reading your front page article School District Suffers Under State Aid Plan, I feel that some further explanation should be offered to make the story complete.

Although adjustments are still needed, the school aid act of 1965 was the largest single financial boost to school districts ever written in Michigan, including the Cass City district. As you stated this act is complicated and unless one covers all sections of the act and the intent of each section, it is very possible that one could leave a false impression by omission of the main section of the act.

The school aid act is designed to allow the state to participate in a share of the operational costs of the schools in all districts throughout Michigan on a formula basis which grants greater reimbursement to the low value districts in order to offset their low property tax valuation behind each student.

The main part of the act grants $255.00 for each student less 4.6 mills times the individual districts valuation per student. In Cass City this amounts to approx. $199.00 per student, or an increase over last year of approx. $14.00 per student.

Section B. of the act is designed to lower the average value of the state, such as Millington, Kingston, Mayville, Caro and Vassar, all in Tuscola County, to offset their lack of property tax value. (see enclosed chart) Reese at approx. $24,000.00 per student does NOT receive additional funds under section B. However under the main part of the act Reese DOES receive approx. $144.00 per student plus 75 per cent of the cost of transportation. This amounts to approx. $12.00 per student increase over last year.

Unionville, at approx. $16,000.00 per student does NOT benefit by sec. B either. This district also is above the state average. Under the main part of the act Unionville receives approx. $181.00 per student plus 75 per cent of transportation costs, or an increase over last year of approx. $14.00 per student.

Cass City is just below the average of the state so you DO receive approx. $3.00 per student under sec. B. This is the figure you referred to when you stated that you only received about $7,000.00 under the formula. The part that was omitted was that under the main provision of the act you DO receive about $199.00 per student, plus 75 per cent of transportation costs, or a net increase over last year of about $20.00 per student, or, measured in millage, approx. 2 mills to every taxpayer in your district.

When writing a state school aid formula we have to deal with state averages. The average value per student in the state is approx. $13,500.00. The average millage spread for operational purposes is 14.5 mills. Section B of the act is so designed, that when fully financed in below average districts the state will guarantee approx. $380.00 operating funds per student to each district that spreads the average operating millage. The only variation will be in those districts that choose to spread either more or less millage according to the desires of the voters in that district.

Kingston, Millington and Mayville districts are all in the $6000 to $7000 per student valuation bracket. For the purpose of explanation, let us use the same value districts that you used plus a $7000 per student district, like those named above. We can see how much aid each district receives per student.

District	Total Valuation	Operating Funds
	$7000	$366.03
	$9000	$371.02
	$12000	$378.45
	$13000	$383.70
	$15000	$403.50

For the purpose of these examples I used the average state operating millage which is 14.5

Roy Spencer

From the Editor's Corner

There is a letter to the editor in today's paper from the Cass City Village Council. The letter points out why the village should approve the one-mill levy for the proposed fire hall.

It points out that the area faces increased fire rates if more equipment is not purchased. This is probably true. However, the next inspection is not due for four more years and the area has at least this long to make a decision. If the H. O. Paul building is the right one, now is the time to buy it . . . but voters should not believe that it is the only way to avert immediate raises in insurance costs.

Another point in the letter that is true but should be explained is the one that says that the township must use all the funds it has or they revert to the county.

This, of course, is a fact. But it also is a fact that the township is capable of bonding to pay for a new fire hall in the same way that the village is being asked to pay for the facilities.

The letter says if we provide new housing they can invest in new equipment. This is a point that we have taken issue with from the first. When the village says "we" they are referring to taxpayers in the village and when they say "they" it refers to the township. We maintain that the "they" should be "we" as the village shares equally in every township tax assessed. If the township buys equipment "we" will be paying for it and if the village buys the building only village taxpayers will be purchasing the building. The village will also be paying for its maintenance, with the exception of the rent paid by the Cass City and Elkland Township Public Library.

In fairness to the village council, there has been off-the-record discussion of the village taking over and running the fire department and assessing the cost equally among users of the department . . . after the building is purchased.

Frankly, we are in accord with the council when it says that it is the most building they can get for the money. This is especially true with today's high cost of building.

But we still feel that it is a cost that must be spread equally to all the users of the facilities.

A rather lengthy story about State Aid to schools appears in this issue of the Chronicle. I seriously doubt that many persons will read it all and be able to digest the rather involved statistics presented briefly in the story.

What is pertinent, I feel, is that the bill does give more money to the schools, including Cass City, and Tuscola's Representative, Roy Spencer, has worked hard to pass an equitable bill.

However, this paper agrees with Supt. Don Crouse when he says that Cass City is in a poorer competitive position with other districts than they were previously.

This is not a criticism of Spencer who worked diligently to create a bill that would pass and gives the Cass City district $20 more per pupil.

Letter to Editor

The Chronicle welcomes letters to the editor. In most instances, letters will be printed in full. However, the paper reserves the right to edit letters to fit space requirements. All letters must be signed.

Letter to the Editor:
The residents of Cass City will be asked on March 14 to go to the polls and vote on a bonding proposition allowing the village to purchase the H. O. Paul Bldg. for the fire department and library. The council feels that the building presently being considered is structurally sound and such a purchase would allow an opportunity for future expansion. The longer we delay in providing different quarters for the fire department and library, the higher our building costs will be.

If we do not provide larger quarters for fire equipment, the township will be unable to provide the equipment. The township must use all the funds it has in each year or they revert to the county. If we provide new housing they can then invest in additional equipment, confident that it will be adequately stored and protected. Again, if the fire department is not updated as described above we all face increased insurance rates that will cost much more than the proposed tax increase. In the area of the library the need is equally urgent. Crowded conditions are driving potential users away and are preventing the purchase and display of much new reference material and books that should be available to all of us. The council is unanimously behind this project and is taking this opportunity to ask that this proposal be approved at the forthcoming election.

SPORTS FANS!

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

by H. M. Bulen

What was the most exciting single sports event of all-time? ... A poll of sportswriters once chose the Dempsey-Firpo fight of 1923. ... That was the fight when Firpo went down nine times in two rounds and Dempsey was down twice including being knocked out of the ring. ... Do you have any idea how long ago Little League baseball was started and, do you know the name of the man who invented it? ... The Little League movement was founded 27 years ago ... It was in 1939 that Carl Stotz... of Williamsport, Pa., thought of and started the first Little League.

Where is the biggest stadium in the world? ... There are several in the United States that seat more than 100,000 people but the biggest in the world is in Prague, Czechoslovakia ... It seats 240,000.

Special Mail Fees To Jump Mar. 26

Cass City Postmaster Grant Glaspie has announced that special services fees will go up, effective Saturday, March 26.

Special service fees are those affecting registered mail, insured mail, COD's, certified mail and money orders.

"The reason for the raise is that the department is trying to improve services in these areas," Glaspie reported. "This is the first change in special services in many years."

He was reluctant to give a figure on the raise in the various departments because "it's a little difficult to describe each raise for the many categories."

Most of the increases ranged from five to 10 cents.

Mrs. MacRae Speaks at WSCS

"Fire Upon the Earth" was the title of the program presented by guest speaker, Mrs. Ivan MacRae at the regular meeting of the WSCS at the Methodist Church Monday evening.

It was a history of Christianity from the time Christ's Apostles received the Holy Spirit in the upper room until the present day. Mrs. MacRae gave an account of the forming of the different churches and a brief sketch of the leaders who started the different sects. In each case, she said, a new sect was formed to right wrongs in the church.

In America, she said the circuit riders of the Methodist church were undoubtedly responsible for bringing Christianity and law and order to the frontiers where they were the only representatives of the church, except in the South where the Roman Catholic Church was established. As Christians we must "Stand for Something or we fall for anything" was her concluding statement.

Mrs. James Braid conducted the devotions assisted by Mrs. Ronald Walker.

There were 42 members and guests present for the 6:30 dinner for which Group II, Mrs. Dale Brown and Mrs. Jack Kilbourn co-chairmen, were hostesses.

President Mrs. Howard Rexin presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Braid, spiritual life secretary, presided for the 6:15 prayer group of silent meditation in the lounge.

SCHOOL FUNDS

Concluded from page one. mills. Although depending upon the value the yield of property tax will vary. It should be pointed out that it is just as fair for the taxpayer in one district as in the other. The effort is the same.

I fully realize that the true answer to school finance and property tax reduction is tax reform. I supported this position under Governor Swainson and have introduced the bills annually under Governor Romney. These bills are now in the General Taxation Committee, however, before tax reform can become a reality it is necessary to have a legislature with enough courage to act and people with enough understanding to realize the problem.

I trust that this problem of school aid has been somewhat enlightened.

Very Respectfully

Mrs. Harold Evans Named Clawson's "Man of the Year"

A former Cass City woman has been given the rare distinction of being named "Man of the Year" by the Clawson Lions and will be honored Monday, Mar. 14.

Mrs. Harold Evans

Named for the honor was Mrs. Harold Evans, the former Myrtle Dodge of Cass City. The mother of eight was chosen by the club "because she's done a greater variety of services for the community" than any other nominee.

Wife of a past president of the Lions club, Mrs. Evans has been active in PTA, is now an active member of the Clawson Women's Club, WSCS of Clawson Methodist Church and American Field service.

Mrs. Evans is a 1925 graduate of Cass City High School and graduated near the top of her class. She is a former Elmwood correspondent to the Chronicle.

The good old days are defunct as the days when a teenager went into the garage and came out with a lawn mower instead of the car.

The Rev. James Braid

The Rev. James Braid has been the pastor of the Methodist Church of Cass City since June of 1962. Among the twelve disciples Simon Peter stands out as the leader. Whenever the disciples are named Peter's name leads the list. Peter was the spokesman for the Twelve and for the early church following Pentecost.

We know that Peter came from a prosperous fishing family who hailed from Bethsaida, a suburb of Capernaum, on the Sea of Galilee. Simon and his brother Andrew spent their boyhood in the boats and on the dock. The brothers were as different as night and day. Simon was a thunderstorm, roaring and rumbling at the slightest provocation. He was quick tempered and didn't care whose toes he stepped on. Andrew was quiet and soft spoken.

Peter was bluff and impulsive, but generous and friendly. His impetuous nature caused him to swing from one extreme to the other. One moment he was walking confidently on the water. The next moment he was sinking and calling for help.

One moment he made a remarkable discovery about Jesus. "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." He won his Lord's approval. The next moment he protests Jesus' prophecy of his impending death. Jesus quickly rebukes him, "Get behind me, Satan, you are a hindrance to me, for you are not on the side of God but of men." When the soldiers come to arrest Jesus, Peter draws his sword to defend his Master and cuts off the ear of one of the servants of the High Priest. Just an hour or so later in the courtyard of the same High Priest he wails under the glance of a slave maiden and cowardly denies that he knows Jesus.

One minute Peter was ready to go to prison and to death with his Lord. The next minute he prefers not to be identified with him. Peter the rock becomes the clay footed Simon. Jesus saw these two sides in Peter. They were so different that Jesus gave him another name. "So you are Simon the son of John? You shall be called Cephas (which means Peter)." The Greek translation of Peter is "rock."

When Jesus looks at us he sees two persons, the person we are and the person God intends us to be. As he did with Peter, he wants to take us clay feet and all and turn us into a rock in our devotion.

to Him. In Irving Stone's biography of Michelangelo, "The Agony and the Ecstasy," an arrogant nobleman gazed at one of the sculptor's marble masterpieces. He asked the artist, "How did you make that astonishing figure?" Michelangelo replied, "I had a block of marble in which was concealed that statue which you see. The only effort involved was to take away the tiny pieces which surrounded it and prevented it from being seen."

Jesus takes his chisel and chips away at the sin and the selfishness of our life until we discover the person God meant us to be. Out high school athletic director said he liked to schedule his terms to play some champions every year. He said that they helped to bring out the best in his boys. When we seek out Jesus Christ and live with and for him he brings out the best in us. He transforms our life from the clay footed Simon to the rock like Peter.

USDA Offers Reduced Rates for Bean Insurance

A new improved, All-Risk Insurance protection plan offering additional coverage, at largely reduced rates is available for Michigan growers of dry, edible beans this year, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Addition of the new insurance protection at reduced rates for beans this year is offered to growers in Tuscola, Huron, Saginaw and Bay counties, according to Harold E. Willis, Michigan District Director of USDA's Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

"Initial effort to familiarize growers with the new protection began shortly after February 1st in Saginaw and Bay counties, and during March will be followed by its introduction in Tuscola and Huron counties," Willis said.

"The new insurance protection will be available in all four of these counties through May for the 1966 growing season," he added. "Increased protection comes as a result of FCIC's long-standing policy of 'keeping up with the times' by recognizing the changing needs of growers and their ever-increasing production costs," according to the Michigan FCIC official.

It was explained by the FCIC Director that the All-Risk program is designed to protect the farmers' investments in their current crops, and to give them a protection against drought, excessive moisture, plant diseases, insects, hail, storms and for any act of nature beyond their control.

Bean growers in the four counties will be provided with additional details of the new plan after February 1st. The FCIC office serving these counties is located in Caro, 852 S. Hooper Street, in Tuscola County.

For example in Tuscola county, the average protection under the new plan has increased 12 per cent, with no change in rate, Willis said.

Protection increases and premium reductions for the other three counties were listed as follows:
Huron - protection increase, 20 per cent; premium reduction, 25 per cent.
Saginaw - protection increase, 11 per cent; premium reduction, 26 per cent.
Bay - protection increase, 23 per cent; premium reduction, 26 per cent.

Lynn Wins Trophy At Cabrefae Meet

Cass City's fast skier Lynn Atwell did it again Sunday in the open meet at Cabrefae by taking four firsts in two categories.

Lynn took first in Class I by clocking the best time in two slalom races and two downhill runs. One race was just three-tenths of a second behind the boys' best time. She received a trophy for the win.

The combined-time meet was the last competitive meet for the young skier for the year unless some previously unannounced meet is scheduled.

COMMENTS BY KRAFT

John Makes Top Soldier in Command

By Dave Kraft

Remember a month or so back we carried an article to the effect that Sp-4 John T. Herhalt had been named "Soldier of the Month" for his company? Well, big things have been happening to John since then.

He went on to bigger and better things by being chosen soldier of the month on the battalion level and as the Support Command Soldier of the Month on Jan. 21.

On Jan. 26, he was chosen as 8th Infantry Division Soldier of the Month. It was the first time in the eight years that the 8th Med. Bn. has been in Germany that a medic has been chosen, John reported in a letter received this week.

For each one of the honors, John had to appear before a special military board to answer a series of questions on such common topics as Chemical-Biological-Radiological Warfare, M-14 rifle, current events, sports, intelligence and the Geneva Convention.

There were also some "Mox Nix" (non-specific military) questions such as the number of teeth in a field jacket and the number of holes in the bottom of a pair of Cocoran jump boots.

In his letter, John says, "Well, as things stand now, I am awaiting the glorious day upon which I may leave the military and enter the world of round door knobs. Over here we have the old European door levers and there is not even a solitary round door knob to be found."

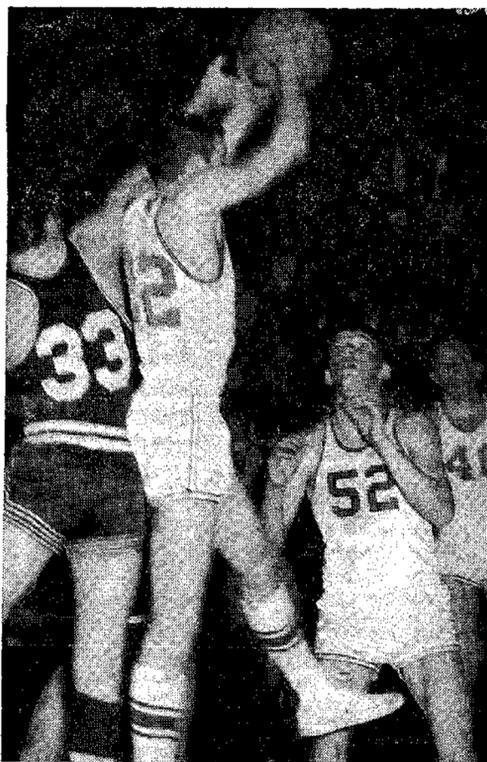

He closed the letter by casually remarking, "Tomorrow I will be the first member of the American Armed Forces of Europe to become a member of the Tennis Klub Grun-Weiss in Mannheim."

I tried to think of several "Funny" things to say about all this, but I think the smartest thing to say is "congratulations."

One thing does bother me, however. John says he gets his paper about 20 days late. Yet his letter arrived just a few days after he sent it. I don't think the military postal officials have the proper attitude toward the Chronicle. Unless we get better treatment I may have to get out the placard and march on the Pentagon.

I may even withdraw my support from the administration's policy on Vietnam. That ought to panic them.

Want ads are newsy, too.

THE BIG REASON for Cass City's defeat by the Lakers is illustrated by this picture of Dennis Thiel snagging a rebound for his team. Al Wallace tries in vain to tip the ball away. The Lakers surrounded the offensive and defensive backboards throughout the game.

Rebounding Key to Tourney Defeat

Cass City's basketball season ended as it began Friday when the Hawks bowed to the Lakers in the State District basketball tournament, 72-60.

But Cass City fans can be consoled by the fact that in the opening game it was strictly no contest as the Lakers won just about as they pleased. . . . in the game at Caro, the Lakers were forced to go all out to win.

The game was closer than the final score indicated. The Hawks moved to within four points of the victors in the early moments of the fourth quarter and it was not until the dying moments of the game that the winners posted a comfortable lead.

Cass City started the game as if they were going to run the Lakers right out of the gym. They moved into a 11-3 lead in the first four minutes of the opening period before the Lakers could get untracked.

But the winners rallied and started to close the gap. By the end of the period the score was tied at 15-all.

The Lakers continued the assault in the second quarter, moving into a 33-26 lead by the intermission. The club played on even terms in the third period and during most of the final quarter.

With the Hawks pressing to overcome the gap in the final quarter, the winners widened their margin with a controlled ball offense that netted easy baskets.

Rebounding Wins

The Lakers won the game with much superior rebounding. Although not an outstandingly tall team, the team maintained excellent position on both the offensive and defensive backboards. They outrebounded Cass City 50 to 22 and this domination eventually spelled defeat for Cass City.

It was the final game for several Cass City seniors. Al Wallace, Wayne Copeland, Rick Ruhl, Jerry Knoblet and Dave Schember completed their high school careers in the game. Other seniors on the squad are Tom Kelly and Charles Churchill.

Schember made his swan song for the Hawks one to remember. He played what Coach John Oswald described as his best game of the year for Cass City. He led Hawk scorers with 18 points while hitting 50 per cent of his shots from the field. Wallace helped with 15 points. Dale Ackerman with 20 points and Mike Alexander with 16 points were the leading scorers for the Lakers. Others in double figures for the winners were Jim Krohn, 14, and Dennis Thiel, 12.

The box score:

	FG	FT	TPS
Cass City	7	1-2	15
Wallace	3	0-0	6
Asher	1	1-2	3
Knoblet	6	6-6	18
Schember	4	0-1	8
Copeland	0	1-3	1
Zawilinski	2	0-1	4

IT SEEMS TO ME Right to Criticize Is Not Anti-American

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

I closed my column recently, with the report of the National Council of Churches of money received by its member-churches. I'd like to start this column with a report of the American Association of Fund-Raising Counsel, Inc. of New York City. About 49 cents of the average philanthropic dollar given by Americans for all purposes in 1964 was earmarked for religious purposes. Last year, individual citizens, foundations, business firms, and charitable groups gave a total of 10.6 billion dollars to all causes. Is your giving up-to-date? I'll wager that there is more room for improvement, or so, 'It Seems To Me.'

It is easy to forget the civil rights that the pioneers of this country thought important enough to fight and die for. Jewish, Catholic and Protestant leaders are becoming alarmed at the way we show our fear of Communism, in our nation. The American Civil Liberties Union, taking note of criticisms by many that free speech is too dangerous, said: "We remind those who argue in this vein that freedom of speech is not a right reserved only for the majority, and that criticism of American policy is not equivalent to 'Anti-Americanism.'" Democracy's strongest ally is freedom of speech; we do not believe in allowing only a few to enjoy the benefits of democracy. Or, so 'It Seems To Me.'

A customer angrily asked the waiter, "What's that fly doing in my soup?" The waiter stood for a moment looking into the soup bowl: "Looks like the backstroke to me."

The anatomy of any association or club includes four kinds of bones: 1) wish bones, who want somebody else to do the work; 2) jaw bones, who talk a lot but do little else; 3) knuckle bones, who knock everything others try to do; and 4) back bones who get behind the wheel and do the work.

The first chapel at the Rockview (Pa.) Prison opened last month. It was built of sandstone prisoners had cut from a mountainside, faced, and laid. Some 400 men were involved in the eighteen-month project.

We are killing more than 47,000 people (in automobile accidents) and disabling 1,700,000 more each year. We demand extreme care of airplanes, yet fifty times as many people are killed in auto accidents as in airplane accidents. . . . The Federal Aviation Agency will spend $40 million next year in research and development. Think what we could do to reduce our appalling highway death rate if we were similarly concerned about safe automobile design. Or, so 'It Seems To Me.'

Laugh Department:
1) A Sunday School teacher asked a boy who was the first man. "Hoss," came back the answer. "No, no, no," corrected the teacher, "It was Adam."
Well, replied the boy, "I knew it was one of the Cartwright boys."
2) Q. Why did the parrot wear a raincoat?
A. Because it wanted to be Polly unsaturated!

3) And there's the girl whose boyfriend quit making romantic calls - so she reported her phone cut of ardor. (OUCH)

4) A woman called the police to report that thieves had been at work on her car. They've stolen the steering wheel, the brake pedal, the clutch pedal, the accelerator, and the dashboard." The police sergeant said he would investigate.

Then the police phone rang again. "Don't bother," said the same voice. "I got into the back seat by mistake."

Use the backs of men's or boys' worn shirts to make women's or girls' aprons. If you use white shirts, you can use small lace-trimmed dollies for pockets.

A trade publication lists its findings about words women like and dislike after checking with 331 women. These are the words they like: hope, blush, bachelor, crisp, happiness, bloom, poise, charm. Most repulsive are: habit, brass, blotchy, calisthenics, sagginess, flabby, pasty.

Obtain Seedlings At Caro Office

The Tuscola Soil Conservation District has tree seedlings available for planting of windbreaks and for reforestation, according to Alvin Smith, Soil Conservation Service technician.

Species available are red pine, white pine, Austrian pine, Scotch pine, white spruce, Norway spruce, and wildlife packets. The packets include a few pine or spruce and the remainder are shrubs beneficial to wildlife.

Trees may be ordered at the District Office at 852 South Hooper Street, Caro, Michigan.

Is wind erosion damaging your crops and cutting down on your profits? Perhaps you are one of the many Tuscola county farmers who are so unfortunate as to have neighbors that have cut down their woodlots and cleaned up their fences, or even the boundary line fences. All of these things let the wind move along without anything to stop it. Many farmers in the Tuscola District are asking for and receiving technical assistance in the control of wind erosion from the Soil Conservation Service through the District Program.

Can you think of a better service to your neighborhood than to get your neighbor to plant a windbreak on his field boundaries? Also ask him to plant his farm crops in alternate strips of row crops and close-growing crops, such as grain or meadow. Experience shows that such strips will reduce the damage to your crops caused by strong winds and blowing soil.

Have you noticed that a woman who is a compulsive talker usually picks out a husband who is a compulsive listener?

Some cooks like to brush lamb chops (before they are broiled) with garlic-flavored salad oil. To prepare, let the oil stand for several hours with a peeled clove of garlic in it.

Dear Sir:

Once again the Trustees of the Library Board wish to draw attention to the necessity of voting March 14.

Our major problem is lack of space —

We need space to create a reading area for adults.

We need space to create a reading area for children.

We need space for reference material.

We need space so our students will be able to study and use this reference material.

We need space for different categories of books.

We need space to house the many magazines which are piled one atop of each other.

Most of all we need space to keep our present collection of books. Out of sheer necessity, it has been our policy for a number of years to throw away a book which has not been loaned in ten years. It's difficult to spend time, effort and money to collect books and then turn around and burn the least used ones for lack of space, but to house 5,000 volumes in a room the size of an average living room is also difficult.

Twenty years ago the Cass City and Elkland Township Library served over 2,000 people. Today we serve six townships and over 7,000 people. Our service to the borrowers and our needs have grown in twenty years, but our facilities have been forced to remain the same. The Trustees would like the Cass City Library to be a smaller copy of the large city libraries with all their advantages, but within the limits of our budget.

Please vote Monday, March 14. Cass City and Elkland Township Library Board of Trustees

Completes Marine Recruit Training

Marine Private Raymond D. Lesoski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Lesoski of Gagetown, graduated from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif., recently.

During his eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran noncommissioned officer drill instructors, he learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting and methods of self-protection. Uncle Tim From Tyre Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night was all taking turns using the crying towel. Ed Doolittle started it off by announcing he was aiming to make a deal with one of them new departments Lyndon has invented and got out of the farming business complete and entire. First off, said Ed, in these times of full prosperity and fuller taxes, they was more profit in it fer a farmer to federalize than to fertilize.

Furthermore, allowed Ed, it was gitting along toward planting and plowing time and a farmer didn't have nothing to go by. He said he used to depend on the moon and signs in the heavens fer planting but all them satalites they got floating in orbit has upset the signs and a feller didn't have nothing but the calender to go by. And he reported he ain't never knowed a calender farmer that had good crops. And, incidental, Ed blamed them satalites on the Democrats, claimed Lyndon had got moon struck. Zeke Grubb was agreed with Ed, said it used to be they wasn't but just one middle-man between the farmer and the market. Now, claimed Zeke, they got a middle-man, a double-middle-man and a triple-man cutting in on the profits. He said he was reading a article about how the Farm Bureau in some town was holding a supper to show how much profit a farmer gits fer the food he raises. They was charging fer the meal exact what the farmer's profit was. He said it come out that a meal of roast beef and two vegetables that cost $1.50 at a cafe come to 13 cent at this special supper, including the labor fer serving it.

Personal, Mister Editor, I think they might be a lot of little expenses at the cafe that wasn't included in that 13 cent. Per instant, I recollect reading about a sign they had in a cafe at the World Fair. It said: "Don't confuse our silverware with medicine. Please don't take any after meals."

Serious, I think the farmers would be better off if they would quit leaning on the government and git down to plowing, either by the signs or the calender. When Ed says he's going to federalize instead of fertilize he's been nit by the Government bug.

It is my general opinion, Mister Editor, that Government is like germs. It grows where people was weak and their resistance was low. When they git sick and can't come up with a home remedy right quick, they take a stiff dose of Government aid. Pritty soon, reaching fer the Government medicine bottle gits to be a habit hard to break. Ed wouldn't admit it but he's gitting his eye more and more on that Government bottle.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Many Candidates to Pose Problems for Serious Voters

Numbers Game

Voting in Michigan in 1966 can pose a challenge to the conscientious resident, especially primary balloting.

Sheer numbers of people seeking state offices will rival and possibly surpass the record whose names were on the ballot two years ago when legislative reapportionment opened the magic door to many newcomers.

This year, while apportionment may again be a factor, two other major changes are expected to induce many people to run who previously were only half-hearted about public office.

For the first time, the Michigan Senate candidates will be elected to four-year terms instead of two. The change was decreed in the 1963 Constitution.

Politicians view a two-year term as a vicious circle. They no sooner get elected and learn the ropes of lawmaking than it is time to begin a new campaign.

Four years, on the other hand, gives a goodly period to get something accomplished if the legislator is so inclined. It also provides opportunity for more publicity. The more times Mrs. John Public sees the name of Sen. Joe Doe in the local newspaper, the more likely she is to remember it on the ballot of the future.

Another influencing factor is economics. It was at the start of the 1965 session that legislators began to draw $10,000 annually plus $2,500 expenses.

Every indication is the legislators will again raise their salaries, effective in the 1967 session. The non-partisan commission which studied the question since last summer has suggested it will recommend another pay raise.

Voters who are really concerned with their state government representation will be hard pressed to determine who among the various candidates are truly interested in performing a public service as opposed to those seeking the security of a long Senate term or the pleasure of a fat salary.

Big Load

Realism used to be a rarity in the Michigan legislative sessions, at least where time schedules were concerned.

In the early days of the current session, however, a realistic attitude was taken in this area. The lawmakers replaced an April 15 scheduled date with the more reasonable date of June 3 for the final legislative action of the year.

The problem was evident. An estimated 1,500 bills were set from the 1965 session, a condition new to the lawmakers. A similar number was expected in the form of new introductions this session.

Senate Majority Leader Raymond D. Dzendzel, D-Detroit, put the problem simply. "It's absolutely necessary to set up a different schedule unless you want us all to have heart attacks," he told his colleagues.

In bygone years, the need for more time than was scheduled was often readily apparent to observers of the legislative activity.

In 1962, for example, a mid-May adjournment date was set. Late in January, the House Speaker admitted privately that it could not be met, but the date was not changed until finally it was extended on a week-to-week basis when May arrived.

Extension of the schedule this year may pose some campaign problems for a number of lawmakers, but commendation is due the leadership for recognizing and remedying early a potential problem before it became a critical one.

Salty Plates

Michigan may be bucking the trend on auto license plates, but state officials say it is because of public demand.

Several states are switching to heavy, durable metal which provides a semipermanent license plate. Annual tabs are issued to renew the vehicle registration in most cases.

Motorists in Michigan will readily recall the tabs issued here after the 1959 cash crisis situation. To Michigan officials it was a matter of economy.

Long-term plates are being considered now in Ohio. Michigan's Secretary of State was among officials surveyed by Ohio spokesmen on the matter.

James M. Hare advised the Ohio authorities that Michigan has re-

Glenn Dorman Completes Training

Seaman Recruit Glenn R. Dorman, 17, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Dorman of Snover, has completed seven weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian to sailor, he was taught and supervised by experienced Navy petty officers. He learned the basic skills of seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

Upon completion of his recruit training, he was assigned to a school, shore station or ship, according to the results of his Navy classification tests, his own desires, and the needs of the Navy.

YOU NEVER MISS THE WATER

Rev. R. E. Hets, Salem RUM Church

Who hasn't heard it said, "You never miss the water 'till the well runs dry?" Of course, the meaning is that we fail to realize how important is the thing in question and how dependent we are upon it until it is gone. Water is like that, and for modern man electricity might run a close second.

And then there is God! Perchance we can keep the water running and the juice on by paying our utility bills, but how does one insure the sun to come up each morning? Just what consolidated utility manages gravity, or controls the proper amount of oxygen in the atmosphere, or adjusts the cosmic forces that prevent our little planet from spinning out of its solar system?

St. Paul writes that, "... in him (Jesus Christ) all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, ... all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things and in him all things hold together." Col. 1:16, 17.

Now ... about the matter of your attendance at church ... !!
