

From the Editor's Corner

In the last two weeks four persons have been fatally injured in Tuscola county, at least three of them because of driver negligence.

The next time you see a car pulled to the curb by a police official you might remember these accidents.

For it has been proven many, many times that when police crackdown and arrests increase, accidents decrease.

The record in Tuscola county this year indicates it's time for more stringent law enforcement and for public support of this policy. There is little doubt that the law reflects the demand of the people and that if we ask for tough enforcement we will get it.

Before the vote on the bond issue for the new high school, persons supporting the tax levy were not sure how the people would react to digging down for education.

They were gratified when the voters gave it an overwhelming majority.

Now they are returning for a relatively small amount to finish the building. It is a request made necessary by the skyrocketing costs of construction.

The worry this time is not so much that the people will reject the comparatively small amount necessary to complete the building with quality construction, but that those in favor may not vote.

Complacency could bring defeat as persons opposed vote and those in favor assume all is well and stay home.

There could be a real foundation for the fears, too. The vote is now just over three weeks away and to date there has been very little discussion about the issue. . . . in sharp contrast to the weeks preceding the major bond vote when it was the topic of conversation wherever you went.

The supplemental issue also comes in the summer (June 13) when vacations have started. It's hard to vote from the cottage at the beach.

But it should be worth whatever effort is necessary to cast a ballot (absentee or regular) to see that a highly successful community effort doesn't slide down the drain of apathy.

Churches Plan For Vacation Bible School

The co-operative Daily Vacation Bible School has been set for June 6-10 and 13-17 with classes at all three of the participating churches, codirectors the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Betts announced this week.

Instruction will be offered for all students pre-kindergarten through the ninth grade. All classes, except Junior High, will meet from 9-11 a.m. both weeks. The Junior High, students who have completed grades seven, eight and nine, will meet 7 to 8:30 p. m. June 6-10 at the office of Dr. Ivan MacRae.

The kindergarten department, including children entering school in the fall, will meet at the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Frank Meisner is superintendent.

The Methodist Church will host the Primary Department, including first, second and third graders, under the direction of Mrs. James Braid.

Children who have completed the fourth, fifth or sixth grade will meet at the EUB Church where Mrs. Stanley Kinn Jr. is in charge.

An offering will be taken Thursdays to be used for the migrant workers' program, sponsored by the Council of Churches.

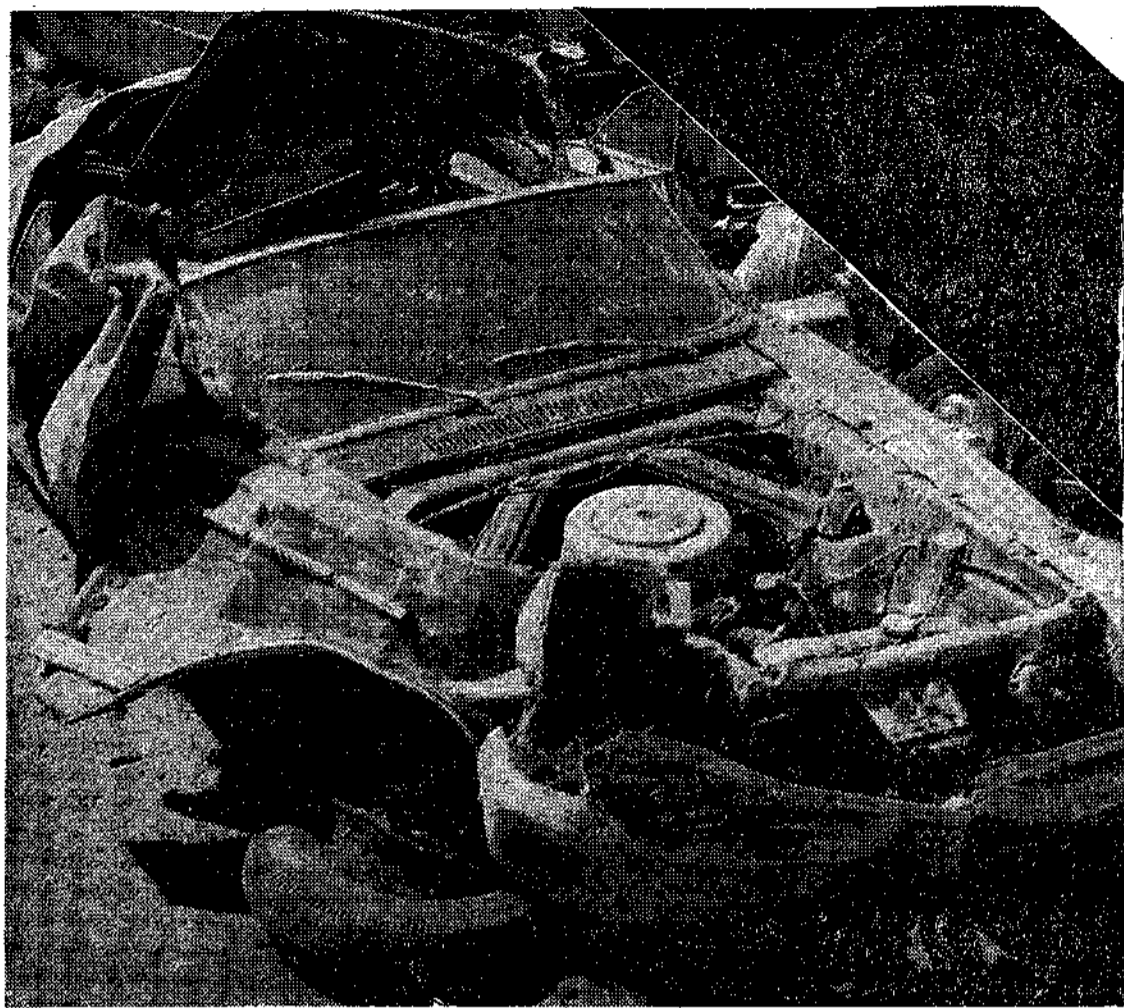

There will be recreation period and refreshments as a regular feature of the kindergarten and primary departments.

Fritz-Stoll Crash Facts Still Sketchy

Authorities of the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department say that it is probable that the details of the crash that caused the death of Miss Diana Curtis, 17, of Deford and Howard F. Clark, 24, of Cass City will never be known.

Sheriff Hugh Marr reported that highly unusual circumstances make it almost impossible to determine the point of the impact.

There were no skid marks and no pieces of the wreckage remaining so that the spot of collision could be determined.

ALTHOUGH THIS CAR is nothing but a maze of twisted wreckage, front windshield unaccountably remained intact as the car turned over several times. The driver was instantly killed. (Chronicle photo)

County's Tenth Crash Victim

Ruso Services Held Tuesday

Funeral services for Carlton L. Ruso, 27, of Cass City, who was instantly killed in an auto accident Saturday morning, were held Tuesday at the Gagetown Methodist Church.

His death was the tenth in Tuscola county this year and occurred just five days after two other area residents were killed within a two mile radius.

Mrs. Kefgen Bound Over to Circuit Court

Mrs. Shirley Kefgen, 36, of Farmington, charged with murder in the mercy killing of her paralyzed and hopelessly ill eight-year-old son, was bound over to Tuscola County Circuit Court following examination in Caro Friday.

Mrs. Kefgen was not present in court during the examination. Tuscola Prosecutor James Epskamp argued the legality of the defendant not being present during the examination. The defense replied that Mrs. Kefgen's doctor urged she not be present during the preliminary examination since it might be detrimental to her health.

Justice Frank Rolka ruled that Mrs. Kefgen could be excused, but should be available in event her presence was required. It was stipulated that any irregularity in procedure caused by her absence would be waived by the defense.

The State called Willis Thane, attendant nurse at the Caro State Hospital. He testified he left Mrs. Kefgen in the visiting room with her son. He said that he had known the boy since February and in that time the boy had made no movement except for movement of his eyes and lips and had given no sign of recognition. He reported the boy was a tube-fed patient.

Other experts and witnesses were called to establish the death and report that Mrs. Kefgen admitted killing her son.

The defense called no witnesses and Mrs. Kefgen was bound over for trial in Circuit Court.

Although both drivers, Thomas A. Fritz, 26, of Pontiac and Kenneth Stoll, 18, of Cass City survived, their statements fail to add appreciably to the police information.

Fritz reported that he was drowsy and cannot recall just how the accident happened. Stoll has said nothing about the accident except that he was driving when the crash occurred.

The available evidence has been placed with Prosecuting Attorney James Epskamp but it is unlikely that any warrants will be issued.

Sgt. Hilton Sables, of the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department, said that tracks indicated that the Ruso car left the road at the M-81 curve, five miles west of Cass City, without slowing down. The vehicle rolled over several times while traveling 1,650 feet off the road.

Surviving are his widow; three daughters, Carla Les, Cindy Lou and Dawn Marie; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cora Ruso of Cass City; a brother, Leonard of Millington, and a sister, Mrs. Leonard Benoit of Caro.

The Rev. Basil Curtiss, pastor of the Gagetown Methodist Church, officiated at the final ceremony and burial was in Grant Cemetery. Hunter Funeral Home had charge of the arrangements.

16 Beds Needed in Thumb

Group Therapy Key to Alcohol Unit

There are enough alcoholics in the tri-county Thumb area to keep a 16-bed unit loaded with patients needing rehabilitation and treatment, and a group of dedicated Thumb residents are ceaselessly working to try to bring this much needed assistance to those who need it.

One of the spearheads of the group is the Rev. Basil Curtiss, 46, pastor of the Gagetown-Methodist Churches, the current chairman of the Upper Thumb Area Committee on Alcoholism.

The trim, white-haired minister is a relatively recent addition to the committee. . . serving just a little over a year.

The committee was started several years ago by Dick Beachneau of the Catholic Family Service of Bad Axe to fill an apparent need.

Studies have shown that a unit the size we want is needed for every 100,000 population, Curtiss said.

The Need

And the need is for a separate unit. . . not just a bed in a hospital, even if they were available. For treating alcoholics in a unit, not alone, is one of the basic tenets of successful treatment.

When persons find that a health unit is not just a bed for drunks to dry out in the word soon gets around, Curtiss explained, and the unit soon gets maximum usage.

This has been the pattern in other centers in Saginaw, Flint, Brighton and Detroit.

A well-run health unit has a specially trained nurse and a physician. The group therapy of all the alcoholics receiving treatment together is regarded as essential to success.

That the program has found acceptance is illustrated by the members of the committee trying to get one started in the Thumb. Fully 50 per cent are former alcoholics who are donating their time in an effort to help others on the road to recovery.

Long Road

Establishment of a unit in the Thumb is not expected to be achieved overnight. The immediate aim is for an information center, a place where an afflicted person can go to get information about his disease and what treatment centers are open to him; where interested persons can learn about the underlying causes of the disease and the different treatments available.

Although the committee has not settled on a site, they are eyeing Hills and Dales General Hospital for the information center and, hopefully, as the treatment center as soon as possible.

The reason, of course, is that Cass City is within 80 per cent of all the population a tri-county

ALTHOUGH HE already knows a lot about the problem of the alcoholic, the Rev. Basil Curtiss, pastor of the Gagetown-Owendale Methodist churches, will learn a good deal more when he attends a special school in June. (Chronicle photo)

Lengthy Hospital Stay Ahead of Miss MacIntyre

A long hospital stay is expected for Miss Mary Lou MacIntyre, who is recovering from extensive injuries received in an automobile accident at Mayville over two weeks ago.

Now a patient in Henry Ford Hospital, Room 13 F-4, Miss MacIntyre is in traction and has not yet undergone needed surgery, according to her sister, Mrs. E. B. Schwaderer. She will be a patient at least two months.

In the crash Miss MacIntyre suffered five broken ribs, two broken kneecaps, a badly crushed lower thigh and other less serious injuries.

The accident occurred when a driver was turning off M-24 onto a road leading to Mayville. Miss MacIntyre was traveling south on M-24 and the car turned directly in front of her causing a nearly head-on collision.

Miss MacIntyre has been social director of the SS South American on the Great Lakes for 20 years. She has become so well-known in this position that her accident earned comment in Mark Eclair's "The Town Crier" column in the Detroit Free Press.

Expect Crowd at Third Evergreen School Reunion

Last year an estimated 150 persons attended the second annual reunion of Evergreen Township Schools. The third reunion of the group is scheduled Saturday, June 4, and 150 or more are expected to again be present at Evergreen Township Unit School.

The event will be highlighted by a potluck dinner at noon for former teachers, pupils and friends of the school.

Jason Kitchen of Cass City is president and Mrs. Harold Biddele, Decker, secretary, of the organization.

Graduation Swirl Starts

Noted Physicist Will Address Senior Class

Willard Cheek

The final swirl for the seniors of Cass City High School starts this week with the annual swing-out Friday at 9 a. m., followed by baccalaureate services Sunday. Graduation exercises will be held Thursday, June 2.

In the swing-out the High School Band will lead the seniors in a march through the business section, followed by a brief program in the school auditorium honoring the seniors.

Dr. Marion Hostetler, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will give the baccalaureate address. His topic will be "The Dimensions of Human Life".

Other pastors will help in the service and the High School Band and A Cappella Choir will participate.

Graduation Speaker

Graduation exercises will be highlighted by an address by Willard Cheek, senior physicist at General Motors Research Laboratories in Warren.

Cheek has been described as a scientist, engineer, inventor, teacher. . . and a dedicated salesman for science.

He worked for two years as a college professor of physics and mathematics, four years at the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory as a nuclear physicist and eight years as a senior physicist with GM Research Laboratories.

At Los Alamos his experiments with fission and fusion reactions were directly related to the production of America's first successful hydrogen bomb. At GM he invented and further developed many peaceful uses for the radioactive atom.

His specialty has been the development of radioisotopes for industrial and medical applications. A complete graduation and baccalaureate program is printed in another section of this issue.

For Teachers

Start Reading Course

Tax funds collected by the Federal government partially returned to Cass City this week as a grant under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Title I, for a reading workshop for all elementary teachers in Cass City and Deford.

The first full-day session was held Saturday, May 21, and another is slated Saturday, June 4. Teaching the course is Miss Diane Umstadt, Saginaw, director of in-service training and program development. She has teaching experience in first grade, remedial reading and as director of reading in Saginaw.

Miss Umstadt holds an MA degree and professional diploma as specialist in reading from Teachers' College, Columbia University. She now is taking more graduate work at MSU.

The workshop is designed to start a summer reading program in Cass City and is expected to aid teachers during the school year.

Lower Rates for 67 Gen-Tel Customers Set

The Michigan Public Service Commission has authorized General Telephone Company of Michigan to enlarge the base rate (flat rate) area of the Cass City exchange, located in Tuscola county, to include three square miles of urban area development adjacent to the present base rate area.

Within this added base rate area, the 67 customers no longer will be required to pay mileage charges and the 49 customers now receiving rural multiparty service will have a choice of one-, two- or four-party residence service at appropriate rates. The cost for residence four-party service is $40 less per month than the rate for residence rural multiparty service.

Mileage charges in this added area will be eliminated by December of 1966, and the upgrading of the service will be completed by March 11, 1967.

Set Memorial Day Program, Parade

Plans have been completed for the annual Memorial Day parade and program, Elkland Township Supervisor Ed Golding announced Monday.

The parade will start at 10:30 a. m. from the corner of Main and West Streets and the line of march will be down Main Street to Elkland Township Cemetery.

The memorial address at the cemetery will be handled by the Rev. George Getchel, pastor of the Novesta Church of Christ, while the Rev. Richard Spencer will handle the invocation and benediction.

Lee Tracy, commander of the Cass City American Legion Post, this week requested all veterans and Legionnaires to make a special effort to participate in the annual Memorial Day parade in Cass City. The dress for the day is sunburn or dark pants, white shirt and a dark tie, Tracy said.

The program ministers are assigned on a rotation basis from among area church pastors.

Toastmaster for the program will again be Jack Esau. The parade will be headed by the Cass City School Band. Participating will be the American Legion, Legion Auxiliary, Boy and Girl Scouts and members of local 4-H Clubs.

Arrangements have been by Golding, representing Elkland Township, and Jim Baker and George Dillman, representing the village.

Dem Delegates To Co. Convention Rush to File

Sparked by an intra-party fight among Tuscola County Democrats a rash of candidates for the post of delegates to the county conventions filed prior to Monday's deadline with County Clerk Archie Hicks.

A total of 102 Democrats and 76 Republicans filed from the various precincts.

There are 91 open delegate positions to the Republican County Convention. At the last election two delegates from each of the county's precincts were named to the Democratic convention.

However, Dem. authorities are expected to change this formula and the number of delegates to be named has not yet been determined.

Dollar Day Sale Set; Early Copy Needed at Chronicle

The first of the summer holidays, Memorial Day, poses the usual problems in production at the Chronicle.

Because of the Monday holiday, we solicit help of residents to submit news and advertising copy to the paper early.

Because of the town-wide Dollar Day Sale scheduled Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 2-4, it is especially important that participating merchants arrange to have copy ready for pickup by the week end.

Seek Blood Donors

Friends of Steve Matuszak of Caro this week issued a plea to his friends in the Cass City area to donate blood to replace the 13 pints that he has used in treatment for a serious illness.

Mrs. Matuszak said this week that many persons have already helped during the emergency, but what the family's status is with the blood bank, is uncertain. I checked last week end they said that it would be about six weeks before the complete records will be available, she explained.

Mr. Matuszak is a patient at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Blood should be given at Bay City for the Northern and North-eastern Michigan Blood Bank. Persons unable to donate blood and wishing to help, can contribute to a cash fund established at the Sacred Heart Rectory, 904 West Frank Street, Caro.

Blessed by ideal weather the two-day Scout Fair held Saturday and Sunday at the Saginaw Fair Grounds attracted thousands of visitors and netted the Saginaw-Bay Council several thousand dollars for Scout activities.

Scouts participated from seven counties including Bay, Clare, Isabella, Huron, Tuscola and Saginaw.

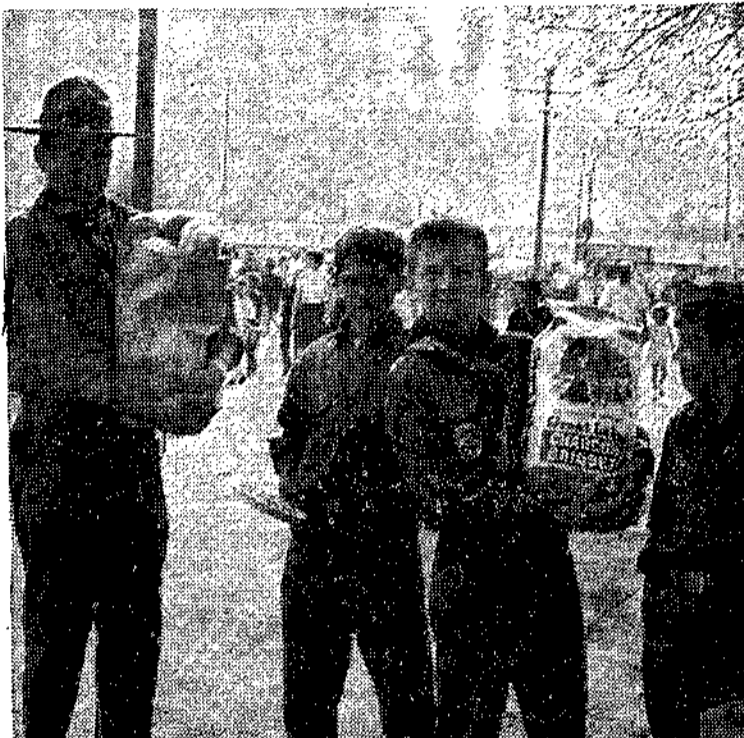

The estimated 10,000 scouts involved in the event jammed two exhibition buildings full of displays and crowded the outdoor area with displays, exhibits and projects.

Bike rodeos, an authentic Indian Village, Indian dances, a Gemini Space Capsule, beaver roast, mountain climbing and canoe races were among the highlights.

Two-way walkie talkie sets were operating almost continually as Scouts were directing projects, looking for lost boys or performing the myriad other details connected with the Fair.

Although visitors were allowed to participate in archery and log rolling and other similar events, most of the visitors were parents or friends of Scouts who ambled over to the Fairgrounds to enjoy the day and learn what progress their local troop had made since last year's Scout Fair.

The young people have been invited to become members of the Walker League, a young people's group in the church for those who have been confirmed and are now able to serve the church in a fuller capacity through this organization.

Hawks End Loop Season with Win at Caro

Cass City exploded for six runs in the sixth inning and added six more in the final canto Thursday to whip Caro 14-5 in their final Thumb B Conference game of the year.

The win at Caro moved Cass City to an even 500 percentage in the Loop with three wins and three losses and a fifth place finish in the league.

Wayne Copeland was on the mound and went the distance for Cass City. Bob Rabideau was the catcher.

Jerry Knoblet led the Cass City attack with a triple and a single while Copeland continued his lousy slugging with a pair of hits.

When the Hawks went on their late inning scoring rampage, the Tigers were ahead 3-2.

Injuries Frequent in Auto Crashes in Cass City Area

Four of five accidents in the Cass City area this week resulted in personal injuries, a check of various police records revealed.

Sunday afternoon five persons were treated at Hills and Dales General Hospital for injuries suffered in a two-car crash on M-81, about three miles east of Cass City.

The accident occurred at the crest of a hill that has been the site of several other accidents, including a double fatality several years ago.

According to Sanilac County Sheriff's Deputies, a car driven by Ronald Lee Wiles, 21, of Saginaw, headed west on M-81, and passing other cars, hit a car driven by J. Harold Michelson, 53, of Flint, going east on M-81.

Both vehicles went onto the south shoulder of the road and collided. Passengers treated for injuries in the Wiles car were Sandra Wiles, 21, of Saginaw, and Mark Lauter, 18, of Freeland. Michelson's wife, Eva, was a passenger in his car.

At about the same time as the head-on crash, another accident occurred within a few miles. Mrs. Susan L. Scharrer, 20, of Clio suffered a bruised hand in a collision with a police patrol car.

Jerry Dale Smith, 20, of Flint made a left turn into a service station on M-53, near M-81, and said he failed to see the patrol car, driven north on M-53 by Trooper Franklin A. Best, 29, approaching.

Trooper Best ticketed Smith with failure to yield right of way.

Mrs. Scharrer and her husband, Robert, were passengers in the Smith vehicle.

Cass City Accidents Two accidents were investigated by the Cass City Police Department during the week, according to the accident report record on file at the department.

Jerry Thomas McQueary, 23, of Stamford, Ky., was ticketed for failure to yield right-of-way in an accident in which he suffered injuries requiring treatment at Hills and Dales General Hospital.

The accident occurred when McQueary, traveling south on Vulcan, drove through a yield right-of-way sign into the path of a car driven by Alvin Franklin Hutchinson, 33, of Cass City. Hutchinson was driving on Garfield street.

The impact rolled over the McQueary car and he was taken to the hospital by Chief Carl Palmateer for treatment, and released.

Patrolman William R. McKinley said that minor damage resulted in an accident involving Mary Anneton Miller, 55, of Cass City and Betty Deiores Marker, 33, of Unionville.

Parrish Accident Jessie Soule, 70, of Mayville was treated for injuries at Caro Community Hospital when a car Soule was driving collided with a vehicle driven by Russell Lee Parrish, 18, of Cass City.

Parrish said that he had stopped at the corner of Mertz Road at the intersection with West Saginaw Road and then started up into the path of the Soule automobile.

CASS CITY, MICHIGAN THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1966

A Good Sport Is Not Enough, Raymond Tells Athletes at All-sports Banquet

"It's not enough to be a good sport... unless we have the will to win, we can't hold our own in the world today on the ball field or in life," Jerry Raymond, head football coach at Eastern Michigan University at Ypsilanti, told members of Cass City High School's athletic teams Thursday night, May 19, at the school.

The former Cass City High School grid coach was the principal speaker at the annual all-sports banquet where letters and awards were handed out and athletes feted for performances during the year.

In a humorous sidelight, Raymond recalled how he came to Cass City after growing up in Highland Park, a Detroit suburb.

"Cass City seemed to be a small place. One day when the boys were dressing for a game I noticed some players had long black stockings on without the standard white socks over them. Without thinking I said, 'You look like a bunch of farmers'," Raymond recalled.

I remember that the captain, Clinton Esckilsen, came to me and said, 'We'll do the best we can, coach.' Well, that day we clobbered Crosswell-Lexington, 53-0, and afterward Clint said to me, 'Not bad for a bunch of farmers, eh, coach?'

Prior to his address awards were presented to various members of the teams.

Probably the most coveted award presented is the Paul Smarks award, given every year since 1955 to the senior who is outstanding in athletic achievement, leadership qualities and academic strength.

This year George Elliott presented it to Jerry Knobel who had brought the trophy from home to be presented at the banquet.

Last year's co-winners were Jim Knobel and Ed Retherford. The trophy is kept by its winner for one year.

Varsity Track
John Bifoss presented the awards and letters for varsity track. Winning a trophy as the most valuable track man of the season was Phil Nichols. Receiving trophies as co-captains were Dean Stine and Karl Weippert.

Letter winners were: Randy Aleksink, Tom Guinther, Larry Hartwick, Larry Kolb, Nichols, Fred Ryan, Dean Stine, Dennis Stine, Jack Selby, Wade Strace, Gary Vollmar, Rick VanVliet.

Weippert and Dick McRae.

Varsity Football

Bob Rabideau was presented with a trophy as captain of the football team and Karl Weippert was recognized for being named to the Thumb B All-Conference second team. Letter winners were: Randy Clara, Wayne Copeland, Jim Crane, Duane DeLong, Dean Hulien, Jerry Knobel, Dave MacRae, Rabideau, Mike J. Dore, Schember, Les Searls, Jim Tuckey, Dave VanAllen, Rick VanVliet, Jim Walters, Karl Weippert, Ron Weippert and Al Zawilinski. The awards were made by Bifoss.

Varsity Basketball

Al Wallace was presented a trophy for his work in basketball where he averaged 14.7 points and 12.6 rebounds per game. The trophy and letters were presented by John Oswald.

Varsity Baseball

Varsity Cheerleaders

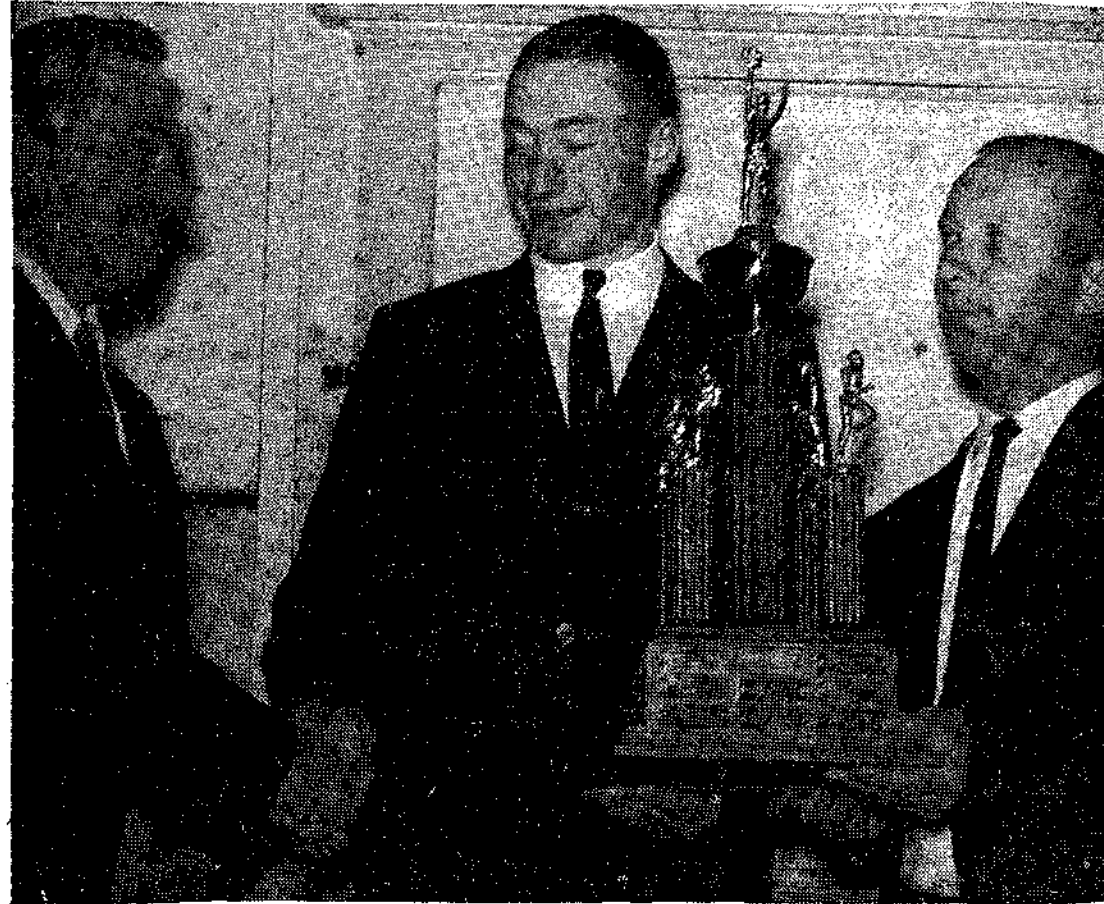

Mrs. Robert Tuckey presented cheerleaders' awards. Seniors receiving trophies were Gayle Dillon and Lynda Lebeda. Others honored were: Linda Colka, Rebecca Champion, Diane Freiburger and Rose Fritz.

In addition to the varsity awards, the junior varsity teams were honored as were the junior varsity cheerleaders and the ninth grade basketball squad.

Richard Wallace was the master of ceremonies and Arthur Holmberg introduced the guests.

Ronald Bass presented JV football, baseball and ninth grade basketball awards, while William Lemcke handled JV basketball awards. Varsity Club awards were presented by Bob Rabideau.

Miniature ball bearings used in space vehicles are worth 15 times their weight in gold.

Cass City AAUW Honors Teachers

Mrs. Edward Baker and Mrs. Bernard Freiburger were honored by the Cass City branch of the American Association of University Women at their May meeting in the home of Mrs. Richard W. Drews.

Mrs. Baker, who is retiring from teaching this year, was cited for her "many years of service and encouragement to the youth of the community." Mrs. Freiburger was recognized for the master's degree in education she received this year.

In addition to Mrs. Freiburger, other guests were Mrs. Robert Stickle and Mrs. Basil Quirk.

Mrs. Drews, outgoing president, presented the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Baker, who then announced the following board appointments: fellowships chairman, Mrs. K. I. MacRae; legislative chairman, Mrs. H. T. Hostetter's Hodgepodge

The Buggy Ride Was Delightful - -

By Marion Hostetter

Perhaps by the time this appears in print the old hotel at the rear of the Cass City State Bank will have been demolished. A careful observer in recent years could discern high up on its south wall the faded legend, "Hotel & Livery." For the benefit of our younger readers I might explain that "livery" was the old-time equivalent of "parking garage." The brick shed with the little windows at the rear of the hotel was a place where folks could stable their horses for a small fee when they came to town to shop.

A livery stable was also a place where a man could rent a horse if he wanted to go on a trip or a date. And thereby hangs a tale. And here it is, as told to me by Buz Wallace.

During World War I, in order to conserve gasoline for the use of the armed forces, the government decided to have "gasless Sundays," when it would be illegal to drive a horseless carriage. On one such Sunday, Ben Benkeiman wanted to take his best girl to a party at Wallace's house north-east of town, so he hired the horse that Jim Brackenbury guaranteed would "put him in the driver's seat."

The buggy ride to the party was delightful, and the party was both successful and lengthy. So by the time Ben was ready to take his girl to her home up the road to the north, the horse had decided that his working day was over, and all he wanted was to go to his own home, down the road to the south.

Well, Ben and the Wallace boys tried to make that animal move north, but all he would do was stand still. They coaxed him and whipped him, they tried to lead him and they tried to push him, but nary a step would he budge. Finally in despair Ben decided that he would have to go south instead of north, if south was the only way the horse would move.

But how was he to get his girl home? The only thing he could think of was to "borrow" his father's car. And since Father wouldn't have approved of using gas on a gasless Sunday, he had to do it by stealth. As far as Buz could recall, Ben managed to carry the plot through without being picked up by federal agents or outraged parents.

As you see, we decided to keep the same caption for this column. Most people I talked to didn't have a definite preference. David Milligan and Meredith Auten favored Hodgepodge, so Hodgepodge it will remain. A friend in Salt Lake City sent a column called "Nothing Serious." Our son Bob sent one from a Washington, D. C. paper named "The Rambler." The author writes a rambling account of what he sees as he rambles around the city. Jack Kellogg of Owendale suggested "Wishbone and Backbone." Dan Valentine told of a gossip column in a magazine published by inmates of Wyoming State Prison: "Here Today - and Here Tomorrow!"

Interestingly enough, each suggestion revealed something about its author. Rev. Melvin Vender, our local poet, thought up "Marion's Amusing Musings." Mrs. John Webb of Gagetown offered "The Cozy Corner." That doesn't seem quite right for this column, but I'll bet Mrs. Webb could write a column of Gagetown comment that would suit it to a T!

The fact that we all put a little of ourselves into our creative work reminds me of something that happened when we visited the Alma College campus on Mother's Day. Dave was showing us through a sculpture workshop in the art building, and said, "The interesting thing about these clay heads is that by looking at them you can tell who made each one. Every student looked at the same model, but each one also made his sculpture look something like himself." Hmmm. My life must be a hodgepodge.

Good humor is the health of the soul; sadness is its poison.

Wooden streets wind through the city of Old Town, Quebec.

Health is the thing that makes you feel that now is the best time of year.

I checked with Ben Benkelman about the accuracy of this account, and his only additional comment was, "The girl's name was Margaret Hurley. She married Buz."

Automobiles have some advantage over the horse and buggy, but at least a horse would take you safely home if you fell asleep while driving.

Eagles Waltz to Third Thumb B Conference Title

Frankenmuth won its third major Thumb B Conference crown last week. The high flying Eagles added the track title to championships previously won in football and basketball.

The meet was held at Cass City Recreational Park. Frankenmuth won firsts in the 880-yard relay, 120-high hurdles, 440-yard dash and in the long jump on the way to a record-breaking score of 86 points.

Caro, paced by another top individual performance by Frick, placed second with 55 points. Frick won the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Others in order of their finish were: Vassar, 44½; Marlette, 37; Cass City, 28; Lakes, 22½; Sandusky, 7; Bad Axe, 5.

Cass City's only first was scored by Phil Nichols in the high jump. He jumped five feet, seven inches.

Coach John Bifoss said that his Hawk tracklads had some good moments in the meet, but also failed to place in some events when he felt they should have.

Cass City earned points by finishing third in the 880-yard relay and fourth in the mile relay.

Individual points were earned for Cass City in the following events: 180-yard low hurdles, Weipert, fourth, and McRae, sixth; long jump, Nichols, third; pole vault, McRae, fourth; 120-yard high hurdles, Stine, sixth; 100-yard dash, McRae, sixth; 880-yard run, Selby, sixth.

Bifoss also reported that Cass City's four entries in the State meet Saturday failed to win points.

LOCAL FFA OFFICER HONORED: Robert A. Milligan of Cass City was among state officers of the Future Farmers of America visiting Detroit Edison's headquarters in Detroit Friday, May 13, as part of an Edison-sponsored FFA recognition program.

Milligan (center), who is State FFA secretary, is shown touring the company's electronic data processing department with Bernard J. Boyda (left), supervisor of computer operations, and Edison Administration Vice-President Chester F. Ogden.

The men are inspecting a large, new computer used in conducting many special studies as well as for customer billing and processing and storing customer, employee and shareholder records.

The day-long program included meetings with Edison officials, tours of company facilities and a recognition dinner at Detroit's Whittier Hotel. To top off the day's activities, the Future Farmers and their hosts attended a night baseball game at Tiger Stadium.

Milligan, who has been engaged in the operation of a 280-acre dairy farm and has held several local FFA offices, now is studying dairy production at Michigan State University.

Mrs. Quick is a teacher at the Willis Campbell elementary school, Cass City, and her husband is a field representative for Farm Bureau.

Refreshments of punch, cake and ice cream were served to the 70 persons attending.

Guests came from Sterling, Flint, Caro, Saginaw, Detroit, Deford and Gageton.

Michigan State University Extension specialists report that wind caused a lot of crop damage in 1965. One precaution is plowing fields in a north-south direction, against Michigan's prevailing west or southwest winds. The furrows act as miniature windbreaks, as does planting done in the same direction.

The Rev. R. J. Searis,
Book Reviewer
Cass City Chronicle
Cass City, Michigan
Dear Mr. Searis:

Harper has just forwarded me your generous review of The Scarlet Thread which appeared in the Chronicle last month, and I found it very interesting. I was especially interested in the fact that you apparently keep in touch with recent books available in your library, a real service to the library's patrons. I am a member of the Board of Trustees of our County Library here, and am always curious to see what other communities are doing to encourage wider use of the book collection. I do think you set an example which other communities might well copy.

Since you did apparently enjoy the book, you might be interested in reading the latest one, which Harper published this past January. It is a collection of seven short stories and a novella, called The Astronomer and Other Stories, and perhaps your library has it also. Inasmuch as you are a minister, I would be interested in your reaction to the title novella, which is in some ways a modern treatment of the theme of the Old Testament book of Hosea. I had, as you might imagine, a fairly firm fundamentalist upbringing!

Scarlet Thread did win, in December, the Sir Walter Raleigh award for best book of fiction by a North Carolinian in the calendar year, an award I won in 1953 for an earlier novel. However, I feel my short stories are my best work so you must forgive me for "promoting" this later collection. I think it is much better and less slick, and more skillfully done. My short story writers have to write novel-like, because stories are so unprofitable except the formula pieces. I like the story form very much better and feel more at home in it.

I did enjoy reading your comments and wanted to thank you for the project itself -- perhaps we can get something similar to this type reviewing in our own local paper as an aid to our library.

Best personal regards,
(Mrs.) Doris Betts

Viet Nam Film

Stirs Residents

To Help Victims

The desperate plight of war victims, both military and civilian, in Viet Nam was brought into focus Sunday night when more than 100 area persons viewed "Viet Nam Profile" at the Cass City EUB Church.

Such things as crutches, wheelchairs and hygienic kits are greatly needed at the vast Saigon hospital where hundreds of maimed and decapitated persons are brought each day. In the gutted villages there are the destitute and homeless, especially children, to assist. World Vision Inc. is on the scene helping to supply some of these needs.

As a result of the concern evidenced by laymen present at the film showing, several area churches are cooperating to sponsor a combined rummage and bake sale June 10-11. Articles for the sale or cash donations will be received by the area churches. Donors may bring them any time between now and the date of the sale. Further details will be worked out by the Cass City Council of Churches.

SPORTS FANS!

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By H. M. Bulen

Ever wonder why baseball games consist of nine innings instead of, say, eight or ten or some other number? . . . In the early days of baseball, teams played any number of innings.

The winner of a game then was the first team to score 21 runs, regardless of how many innings were played. . . . That rule wasn't changed until 1857 when it was decided to limit the game to a specific number of innings. . . . Nine innings were picked to represent the nine men on a team.

Did you know that when the next pro football season starts, it's going to cost sponsors up to $70,000 per minute for a commercial on a National Football League game on TV. . . . That figures out to more than $1,000 per second!

Did you know a boxer once won the heavyweight championship of the world while lying on his back? . . . How did this happen? . . . Well, in 1930, Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling met for the title. . . . Sharkey knocked Schmeling down in the fourth round but his punch was called a foul blow. . . . Because of the foul, Sharkey was disqualified and the championship awarded to Schmeling!

CASS CITY, MICHIGAN THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1966

ARTRHITIS

Q. Does arthritis run in families?
A. Yes, and this may be a basic clue which could eventually lead to a better understanding of this baffling disorder. A doctor recently discussed the case of a 38-year-old woman with severe arthritis. Four of her five children had the disease. The patient's father and maternal aunt were also victims of arthritis, as were several other relatives. This seems to indicate that there are important familial factors which predispose to arthritis. Undoubtedly there are other and as yet unknown factors which precipitate the disease.

AGE AND CANCER

Q. Is it true that if you live long enough you will die of cancer?
A. One of the penalties of attaining old age is an increased chance of developing cancer. In general, cancer is a biologic phenomenon related to the decay and degeneration of tissue. On the other hand, cancer usually does not occur in extreme old age. In fact, after attainment of the completely senile state, cancer generally becomes progressively infrequent.

without cooling off the rest of the house

consider electric heat

Give your new room its own heating system—a modern flameless electric heating system. Electric heat is clean, comfortable, perfectly controllable. Simply dial the warmth you want and you get it exactly—without stealing heat from the rest of the house. How much will electric heat cost to install and operate? That depends on your particular home. One thing sure, it won't cost you a cent to find out. An Edison Heating Specialist will gladly come out to discuss equipment and cost of operation with you. No obligation for this estimate, of course. Just give us a call.

ing the poor, the culturally deprived, or whatever the term, it must be assumed that this first step by a publicly-supported Michigan university will lead to more emphasis on providing education regardless of financial position.

Well, that is where I am at the moment, having just finished reading Winds Of The Day by Howard Spring. New to me but with 14 novels to his credit, as well as 3 more books for children, 3 autobiographical volumes, 3 plays and a critical book, Howard Spring is no newcomer to the field of fiction.

is large enough that with good managing it will care for Alice the balance of her life. However, she marries again, another writer, whose novels she types as she had for Frank. In time she feels moved to attempt a novel by herself, and it is published under her husband's pseudonym! Then, for the second time she is widowed.

The balance of the book describes her visits to her son and his family. She revisits places that have played an important part in her life.

The gradual growth of Alice from an orphaned servant girl to the wife of two successful authors (not to mention her own modest success as a writer) as well as the mother of a happy son, is told credibly. This is little more than a sketch of the book. When I had finished this book I felt good!

In these income levels, there is little doubt that few of these youths would attend college even if the scholastic potential was obvious.

The plan calls for the Upper Peninsula Community Action Program, a "bootstrap" improvement group, to act as a clearing house to find jobs and match students to available work.

A similar operation has been effective at several institutions, perhaps the most notable being Berea College in Kentucky.

Northern Michigan officials have not quite gone as far as the Berea program, but their aim is in the same direction.

At Berea, entirely privately endowed, tuition is free to all. But students must work a minimum of 10 hours a week throughout the year.

Situated deep in "poverty" the area, Berea College was founded in 1855. About 90 per cent of its students are from the Appalachian mountain area covering eight Southern states. It operates its own hotel, a bakery, candy kitchen, print shop and a number of other businesses almost entirely with student employees.

Income levels in families of Berea College students are about the same as will be involved in the effort being started at the Marquette institution.

Literature about Berea notes, "The median family income of Berea College students is approximately $3,200. It takes initiative to aspire to a college education under these conditions."

As in the case of the Kentucky institution, Northern Michigan will be able to take only the cream of the high school graduates. With present national emphasis on help-

Filful Honeymoon A honeymoon was what the political pundits predicted back in January and the 1966 legislative session turned out to fit essentially the term.

Despite the fact that it is an election year and the Democrats wanted badly to find major battlegrounds to be refought at campaign time, they and Gov. George Romney were remarkably amiable throughout the session.

Prediction of the honeymoon atmosphere was largely based on the pre-session agreement between Gov. Romney and the majority legislative leaders to leave tax reform off the agenda for 1966 action.

Major fights, wounds of which will remain open through November at least, centered around veterans' and senior citizens' tax relief.

Aside from these areas of difference, the only point on which the Democrats found much success in needling the Governor was on his choice of individuals for appointment to several important government posts.

On this point, the Governor took his licks even from some Republican lawmakers.

Since the veterans-senior citizens questions have been in the fire for several years, Democrats will be digging deep to come forth with real issues for the coming campaign.

Fights which gained little public attention during the session will be magnified for purposes of the campaign. Democrats at this point seem almost to have abandoned hope of recapturing the Governor's chair and instead are concentrating on keeping the U. S. Senate seat now filled on appointment by aspiring Republican Robert Griffin.

Study Club Meets At McConkey Home

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Study Club was held May 17 at the home of the president, Mrs. Keith McConkey. A musical program was presented under the direction of Roger Parrish, who accompanied three students who gave vocal solos. Participating were Loraine Smith, Juanita Allen and Dale Bullock.

Mrs. Esther McCullough gave a report of the state convention held in Grand Rapids and Mrs. Margaret Haire presented a report of the county convention held at Kingston.

The June meeting will be held Tuesday, June 14, at the Sherwood Forest country club at Gageton, starting with a one o'clock luncheon. Exchange student, Miss Inger Hansson, will be the speaker. For roll call members are asked to respond with suggestions as to what they would like to have incorporated into the programs for next year.

Each member planning to attend the June 14 meeting is asked to make her reservation with Mrs. Esther McCullough or Mrs. Keith McConkey by June 10.

I Felt Good After Reading This Book

By the Rev. R. J. Searls

Did you ever read a book which, when you have finished the final page, you really do not know what you would answer to the question, "Was it a good book? Did you like that book?"

Well, that is where I am at the moment, having just finished reading Winds Of The Day by Howard Spring. New to me but with 14 novels to his credit, as well as 3 more books for children, 3 autobiographical volumes, 3 plays and a critical book, Howard Spring is no newcomer to the field of fiction.

In reality, he has enough plots in this book for several volumes. Purportedly, the main stream of the plot has to do with one Alice Openshaw. Alice is a "mousey" type girl, orphaned when she was twelve. The early part of the plot has to do with several families in whose homes Alice was a servant. Called mostly "Openshaw", occasionally by her first name, Alice served while a teen-ager in several homes.

One night she planned to quit dramatically, slamming the front door (which door had been denied her, as a servant) while her employer had guests and was busy entertaining them. All came off, but not without some unplanned complications. One of these was that she fainted at the crucial moment, causing much disturbance among the guests. In this incident, we are introduced to many of the people who are important to the rest of the novel.

First we meet "Mr. Mell", officially Melville Conybeare, on vacation from Oxford University. He instilled a love of good literature in the simple girl. Perhaps we may look ahead of our tale to report that Mell went into the diplomatic service where he never quite attained the goals to which he aspired, and spent his final days in writing books that, like his career, never quite were successful.

Alice came under the care of Laura Brogden who took Alice to France with her, which enabled the girl to learn French.

Back in England, a "walking vacation" ended when Alice became a victim of the influenza epidemic and was nursed back to health by a marvelous and childless old couple. They were caretakers of an estate owned by the successful writer, Frank Melville, who has been away in the war but returns while Alice is recuperating. To make a long story short, they married, have a son, Ray, and soon develop an inviolable daily schedule out of deference to Frank's writing. These are happy days for Alice; her husband happy, her son growing (and in the English fashion of that day) attending a good private school, and Alice growing from the conversations of her own men plus the many visitors that come to see her famous husband.

Then, one day, unexpectedly Alice is a widow. Frank's estate

Uncle Tim From Tyre Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

Ed Dooittle took over the session at the country store Saturday night and he got all the fellers pretty shook up about matters.

He claimed the country had done gone to the dogs and he didn't see no chance of the Republicans gitting back in power in time to save it. He brung along a bunch of figgers he said he had clipped from magazines and papers while he was waiting at the barber shop to git his semi-annual trim.

He reported unemployment was the lowest it had ever been in this country but the relief rolls was climbing steady and would run to a half-billion dollars this year.

Our Congressmen and officials in Washington was spending $5.9 million this year fer private jets, pay hikes, and going on junkets around the world. Also, said Ed, we paid a politician contractor $122 million fer building that new Sam Rayburn building fer our Congressmen and it come to $221,000 a head.

More than half of our Congressmen, reported Ed, has kinfolks on the payroll, and that Congressman Adam Clayton Powell was paying his wife $19,700 a year and she wasn't even living in this country, was living in the West Indies.

Furthermore, allowed Ed, the Government was requiring around a billion reports from American businessmen and citizens ever year and the handling costs of these reports run a little over $7 billion last year.

Ed claimed our Government had adopted a brand new philosophy that the only way to prevent a big war was to keep a little one going all the time. We got a little one going in Viet Nam and the State Department give out figgers showing it costs the taxpayers $35,000 fer ever Viet Cong killed.

Ed reported he had come to the conclusion the only way a average American could live and pay his taxes today was to git pore enough to qualify fer the poverty program.

It was a mighty sad picture Ed was painting, Mister Editor, and the fellers was disturbed.

Zeke Grubb was of the opinion that the men folks had made such a mess of things he was in favor of turning the country over to the wimmen and let them try their hand at running it.

Bug Hookum was agreed with Zeke, claimed the wimmen folks was tough and could take it. Fer instant, he said, a 50-mile hike was a killing exercise fer men but wimmen would just call it a shopping tour.

Personal, Mister Editor, if the wimmen want a crack at it, I'm in favor of giving it to 'em, along with a vote of confidence and sympathy.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Republican Women
Organize at Caro

A group of Republican women met Thursday evening, May 19, at the courthouse in Caro, to consider party action needed in the coming months.

It was decided to meet again June 23, when all Republican women of Tuscola county will be invited. At this time, officers will be elected, committees set up and a program of activities launched for the fall election. The place and time will be announced soon.

Miss Alice Cummins of Caro, a member of the State Central Republican Women's Committee, was appointed temporary chairman and Mrs. Clare Carpenter of Cass City, publicity chairman.

The group will seek to encourage political participation, provide informational materials on both issues and candidates, organize get-out-the-vote and work in behalf of the political party.

was a low
blow

Farmers got a low blow from the National Administration recently. And we don't deserve it. Read the facts and judge for yourself.

Late in March, the U.S. Department of Labor announced that the Cost of Living Index had increased one half of one percent (.005).

On March 31st, President Johnson said "food prices and three metals are responsible for 80% of inflation." He said farm prices must come down.

Now it is true that the retail price of food, after being stable for years, did increase 6% during the past year—more than in any recent year. But it was long overdue. In fact, during the past ten years food prices have been the only item in the Cost of Living Index that have not shown a substantial increase.

Here are the official U.S. Government figures for the past ten year period (ending February 28, 1966):

	INCREASED
COST OF LIVING INDEX	11.6%
Representative Items Include:
Cost of Services and Housing	20%
Cost of Medical and Health	25%
Cost of Recreation	16%
Cost of Food	.4%
U. S. PER FAMILY INCOME	40%
	DECREASED
PERCENT OF FAMILY INCOME SPENT FOR FOOD	5.7%

The facts speak for themselves. Food prices and farm prices are not responsible for inflation. Just the opposite is true. Increased farm efficiency has kept food prices down while other prices went up and up. During the past ten years, in fact, low food prices have been primarily responsible for keeping the overall cost of living from skyrocketing—because low food prices have offset the substantial increases in other cost of living items. But this situation cannot go on. Food prices cannot continue to bear the burden of inflation. Thousands of farmers—caught between rising costs and low prices—are going out of business.

The situation is critical. Farmers must get a fair return for their product—a return that is in line with their costs. There is no other way for them to stay in business. There is no other way for them to continue to produce the food your family needs every day.
