

"If It Fitz . . ."

A commencement address

BY JIM FITZGERALD

I wonder what I would have said? Probably something deeply profound, such as: "Continue your education. It is better to matriculate in Ann Arbor than interdict in Haiphong harbor." Marlette High School seniors invited me to give their commencement address this June. With my usual graciousness, I said no thanks. I gave the usual explanation: I won't listen to speeches so I don't have the gall to give them. And besides, talking in front of more than 5 people makes my stomach hurt. I keep thinking of the many readers who tell me they use this column for training their puppies. Who knows how many women at commencement exercises might have puppies in their purses?

(It probably should be noted here that someone out there doesn't buy my no-speech alibi. The last time I used it, I received an unsigned note saying: "Who are you trying to kid? You don't give speeches because you don't know how. I know because I was in your speech class in college." Geez. If there's anything I hate, it's old schoolmates with good memories. The next thing you know I'll probably be arrested for that rubber galosh I stole from Dick Devereaux in the 4th grade. I used it for shoplifting goldfish from the dime store.)

I never heard a commencement speech that lit any fires. But this can probably be blamed on the occasion as much as the speakers. These kids are itching to celebrate their emancipation from homework and quizzes. They don't want to hear a dumb speech. They know there's a tough world waiting out there. But they'd just as soon wait and conquer it tomorrow. Tonight there are all sorts of good things they are itching to do, some of them legal and none of them requiring a diploma.

So I would make my speech shorter than my introduction. I'd tell them to shun violence but to protest, protest, protest. A lot of things need changing badly. Carry a sign but never hit anyone with it. Ignore the stuffed shirts who tell you to go home and scrub a floor. They are the bigshots who think the way to attain peace is to negotiate in Paris for 10 years while the little guys bleed in Vietnam.

I'd tell them to work hard at becoming color blind. At first, it takes a conscious effort. After a while, it comes naturally. It is more than wrong to judge the worth of a man by the color of his skin, the length of his hair, the place of his worship or the cut of his clothes. It is also stupid and wasteful and cruel.

I'd tell them to beware of "leaders" who always say what everyone wants to hear. One example: It is sometimes easier to jump off a bus than it is to stay aboard and steer a sane route making sure ALL passengers get off at a decent stop. I'd tell them a college education is right for some, wrong for others. I never met a plumber on welfare.

I'd tell them to be nice; be polite; be fair. Take a look through the other guy's eyes. The Golden Rule is still the best rule to live by.

I'd tell them to walk happy and to take their happiness into dark corners — visit the old and sick. Spread a little joy.

Finally, I'd give those squirming graduates a brief critique of nearby nightspots, including prices and hours.

I'd tell them a great place to watch the sunrise.

That's what I would have said in Marlette. It would have taken about 5 minutes. And my goodbye would have been: Have a good time. Onward and upward.

Board switches districts

Changes in two county districts were handled Tuesday by the Tuscola County Board of Commissioners at a regular meeting.

Resignations were accepted from Donald Graf, representative of District 1, and William Tuckey, District 4. Graf has been hired by the equalization department to assist director Mac O'Dell. Tuckey has moved from Indianfields township, District 4, into Almer township, which is in District 1. He was appointed by the board to finish the term of Graf as commissioner from District 1.

In other action, the commissioners approved a tentative list of 12 persons to serve as a board of directors for an Act 54 Mental Health Board, which the county has already approved and applied for federal funding. The candidates will be notified soon and an organizational meeting held to begin the operation.

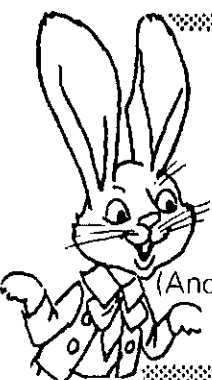

The board also resolved to increase the cost estimate of the Kingston sewer system by $400,000 to $551,303. The county has placed full faith and credit behind the operation as it has done in Millington and Reese. The increase is to insure backing until federal funds are received.

First Aid Kits Important

An important part of any home improvement should be safety. In addition to power tools, hand tools and other maintenance equipment, the well-equipped handyman should have a first aid kit available to cope with common injuries.

Statistically the average home is still the most accident prone place in the nation. And it becomes even more dangerous when the home handyman begins do-it-yourself projects.

Accident prevention and first aid procedures should therefore be as much a part of the home remodeling project as the very plans for the ambitious undertaking.

Rabbit tracks

By John Haire

(And anyone else he can get to help)

Fireman Jim Jezewski called this week to make sure that I mentioned the names of the four teens who noticed and reported the fire at Marshall Implement.

They are, he says, Roy Pierce, Brian and Randy Kelley and Al Hartwick.

The alert action of the boys is commendable, but not all that unusual. Over the years there have been seeds of fires discovered and reported by teens of all ages.

We include the names of the four in this trivia column for two reasons. The first is for good relations with the fire department and the second is so we can point to this item when next accused of publishing all the "bad" and none of the "good" news.

How times change department. In any bar at any given night it's strictly Ho Hum stuff when a wife calls to track down an errand spouse.

The other day in Mio reviewing the day's fishing activities with a friend at a local pub the dialogue changed.

"The phone rang and a young swain sipping away at a beer immediately piped up with, "if that's my dad, I'm not here."

Friends of the C. R. Hunts report that for Mother's Day he bought his wife a big new boat.

She was so touched by the magnificent gift that she has vowed that on Father's Day she will buy him a whole house full of new carpeting.

Walbro is moving one of its operations from Cass City to Caro. But Lambert Althaver, executive vice-president, says that the change will not affect employment in Cass City.

While plant number three is moving, a recent addition to the company's product mix will move in and local jobs remain largely unaffected.

There could be shifting of employees in various jobs. Many of the Walbro workers live in Caro and an attempt will be made to shift them closer to home, Althaver explained.

Besides the obvious benefits that accrue from a skilled nursing center there is one that is not immediately recognized but may be more important than any economic considerations.

If skilled nursing homes do work closely with hospitals in the future as predicted, a nursing home here would solidify Cass City's position as the medical center for the area.

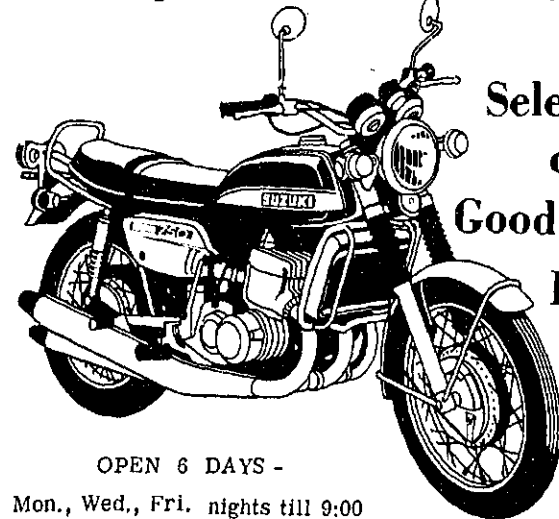

In these days of pending legislation forcing the closing of small hospitals it's no small matter to be number one. . . number one in Federal grants and number one in certification by Michigan Blue Cross.

Without this aid it will be a rare small hospital that is able to survive.

The Suzuki GT-750. It gets competition hot trying to keep up.

OwenGage Cass City man graduates charged with Friday larceny

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday for 52 graduates of OwenGage High School at the Owendale gym. It was the next to the last activity in the commencement swirl for the school's seniors.

Graduation night is Friday, May 26, at 8 p. m. Morley Fraser, president of the award winning "Albion Drug Abuse Committee" and a teacher at Albion College, is the commencement speaker.

He was a former football coach but relinquished his duties to become coordinator of athletics and development at the school.

Ronald John Curtis, 44, of 4285 Woodland St., Cass City, demanded an examination when he appeared before Tuscola County District Court Judge Richard Kern Monday.

Curtis is charged with larceny over $100 in connection with the theft of $400 from Perry Sadler of Cass City.

Curtis was released on $500 bond. The exam is scheduled for June 2.

Suspect arson in 2 fires

The State Fire Marshall is investigating two cases of suspected arson in two village fires Saturday and Sunday.

The first was Saturday night in a warehouse owned by Marshall Implement. The fire scorched the outside of the building but members of the Elkland Township Fire Department said that damage was very slight.

Sunday afternoon clouds of blue smoke announced another fire. Burning was the observation stand at the Cass City Recreational Park.

The dense smoke was caused by burning foam used as cushions for high jumpers and pole vaulters.

The foam had been stored in the observation tower. The outside of the tower was scorched.

In the old days, the board of education was a shingle.

Building Your Own Library Bookshelves, Practical Room Remodeling Adventure

Building your own library shelves is really easy. First you begin with selecting a bare wall in the house.

Then you have to procure the materials. One of the most popular do-it-yourself libraries begins with press boards, cinder blocks and colored burlap.

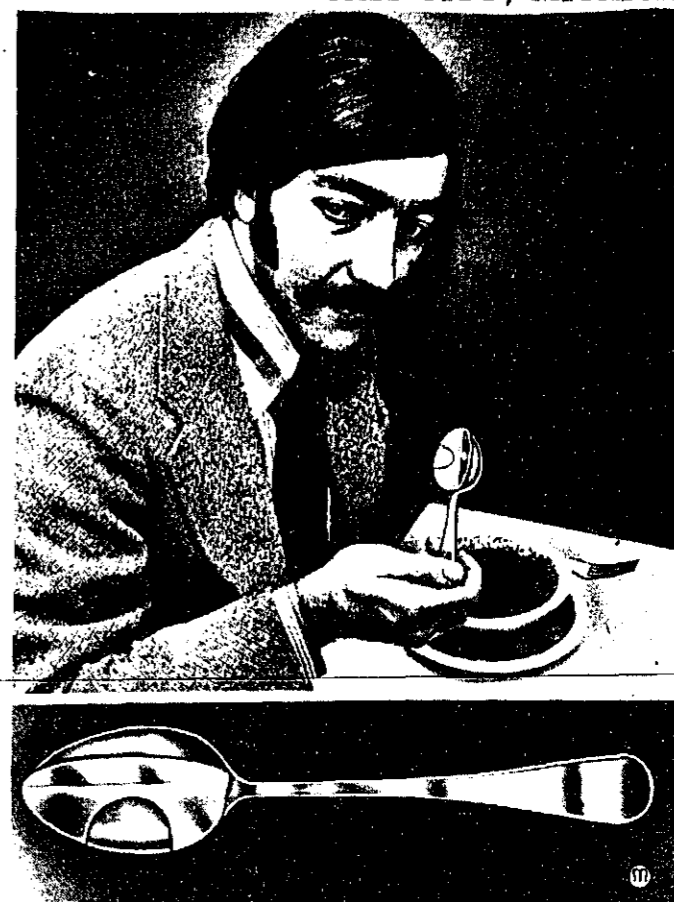

The press boards can be cut into any desired length, usually 8' x 1' x 1". This allows for the weight of the books, and is a standard size. The boards are then covered with the colored burlap.

The cinder blocks are painted a flat black.

The blocks are then arranged three to the 8' board, alternating the cinders, length-wise and then width-wise for each level.

Regular book shelf supports are then anchored to the wall and the top two boards for added support.

Men with mustaches, especially dads, make fine candidates for a unique gift this Father's Day. The gift? A mustache spoon. Designed to keep his mustache dry, the spoon has a protective guard to keep soup, desserts, etc. away. In silver-plate or goldplate. By Reed and Barton.

A mustache spoon for 'with-it' dads

What to give your man? A bit of nostalgia, perhaps, for this mod, mod, mod, mod world.

Leave us face it. Sooner or later everything comes back into style. To wit, the ubiquitous, lordly mustache, currently so very in, tonorially speaking. And now, just in time for Father's Day (not to mention "Mister With-it's" Graduation) comes the rebirth of the elegant, tres chic Mustache Spoon.

Designed to keep himself's mustache dry, wide and handsome through pesky soups, bouillon, bisque and the like, Reed and Barton's timely new Mustache Spoon in heavy silverplate is an authentic reproduction of a 19th century original -- by the same firm, incidentally.

Banish SASM. Gift-boxed with virility and gusto, the Mustache Spoon with its ingeniously protective mustache guard, is a hefty, he-man sized spoon -- to banish SASM forever, as the creators say. SASM, according to these experts, being "Sloshed and Sopped Mustache".

What next? At any rate, at $5.95 over-the-counter, the Mustache Spoon should go like wildfire because it solves a lot of gift-giving problems--not just for Father's Day, but all year long. Available not only in heavy silverplate, but in an elegant 24 karat goldplate Vermeil for the gilt-edged man, the Mustache Spoon is a neat gift-giving suggestion.

Personal spoon. Furthermore, Messrs. Reed and Barton insist that their Mustache Spoon, unlike most eating utensils, can and should be carried by the owner to haute cuisine the world over. They provide a nifty little red flannel tote bag with each "portable" Mustache Spoon. They call it a "security blanket".

Indeed, according to Reed and Barton, whipping out one's Mustache Spoon as a guest at the table when soup du jour has arrived will not only "bring a smile to the hostess' face, but mark you as a man of clout, something to be reckoned with by the other guests." Now we've heard everything! Or have we?

My favorite pet peeve

By Kit McMillion

Everybody has a pet peeve. I have many.

Careful consideration has been the basis of the definition of a pet peeve. After numerous hours of thought, I decided a pet peeve is something that is a reaction to a basic premise a person lives by.

Now a simple irritation, on the other hand, is merely a temporary dislike, a reaction to the moment instead of an affront to the being.

There are many times I've heard someone say "Such and such... Boy, that's one of my pet peeves." And when I was in grade school, the teacher would have us make a list of "Pet Peeves" asking us to use our imagination, so we'd completely miss the point of thinking about peeves and devise outrageous lists of dislikes, instead of examining oneself.

One of my very favorite pet peeves, and a peeve must be favorite, not detested, is curlers. It's the curlers I detest.

I used to profess the back to nature routine, especially when I was in high school. If God and-or mother nature had wanted me to have curls, they'd have given me some.

Apparently, they didn't, because I've got hair, as my mother so eloquently used to say, as straight as a board.

That was always a good excuse. My looks weren't my fault. Then came the I refuse to have my life habits complicated with pain as a result of sleeping on metal twigs all night.

But just because I personally can't stand the things, doesn't mean I would deny any other woman, child or poodle the opportunity to compete against the forces of the elements and try to make their hair curly.

But, on behalf of the world's sense of beauty, I plead with you not to wear them on the street.

The logic behind such action is completely non-existence.

Curling hair is supposed to "beautify" the woman, and therefore make the everyday encounter a little more pleasant, please the men in her life and not make her children ashamed to walk beside her and claim her as Mommy.

Wearing the technological monstrosities in public defeats the whole idea. The means never justifies the end as far as I'm concerned, and having to look at women in curlers just grates way down to the marrow of my bones.

"When I was using the hair benders, I hid in my room and stayed away from the mirror."

The revulsion I feel is undescrivable. It hits at the basis of my premise for beauty. There's enough ugliness in the world as it is, so our personal actions should be attempts at beauty, and in the manner of personal habits, what a person has to do to make him look like he does should be a secret.

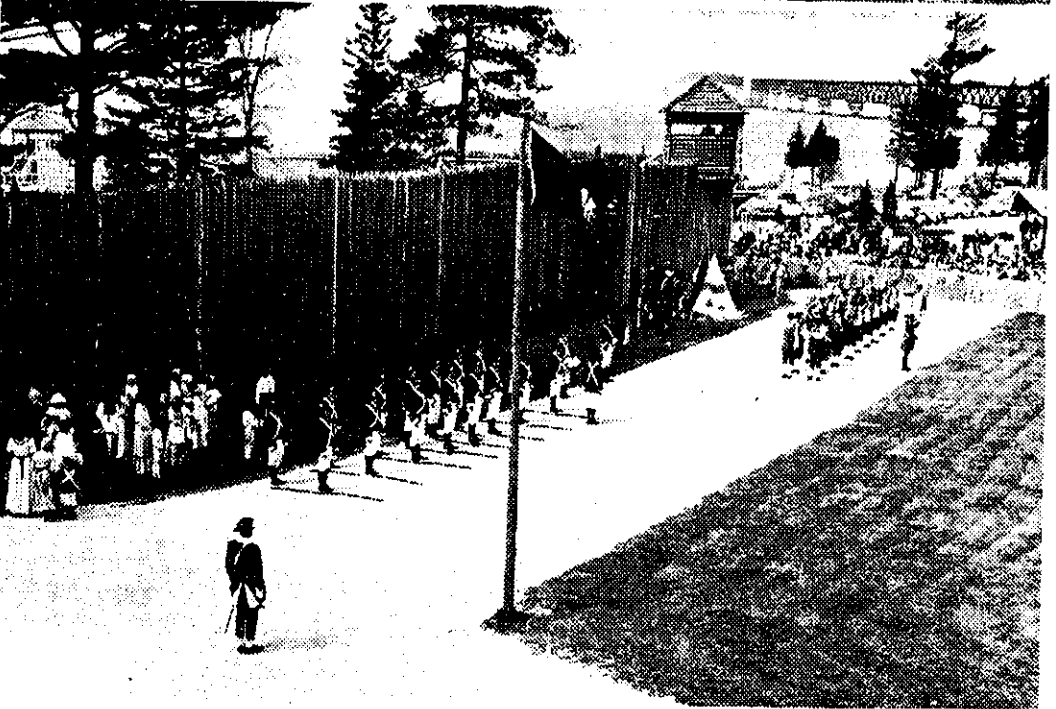

So much that is beautiful is simply an illusion of beauty anyway.

Meow.

Fort Michilimackinac Pageant Scheduled Memorial Weekend

Create New Dimensions in Living By Adding Rooms to Your Home

Many families are discovering exciting new dimensions in living through the addition of a new room to their homes.

A new family room equipped with a stereo system becomes a concert hall offering everything from Bach to Rock.

A new bedroom for a sub-teen who has had to share a room with a brother or sister becomes a sanctuary and a place for dreams in the difficult adolescent years when "having your own room" provides needed security and privacy.

Dad's paneled den with his favorite books or television provides him with a quiet place in which to "wind down," plan for his family's future, or maybe just juggle the monthly bills without distraction.

Families who have grandparents living with them in a first floor bedroom find that adding a sitting room with its own outside entrance gives the elderly a feeling of independence and eases the inevitable tensions between generations.

Among other things, an extra bathroom means a happier mother-of-the-family who can relax and luxuriate in a hot tub untroubled by the entreaties of her brood in need of the bathroom facilities.

Families who entertain frequently are surprised at how much more gracious their dining is in a room added for that exclusive purpose and how a separate dining room transforms the simplest meal into a memorable occasion. Clearly, a room is more than just four walls, a floor and a ceiling. Its character is an extension of a family's lifestyle and represents an excellent investment in better living.

A new room can literally mean a new way of life.

Adding a room will involve either adding a new wing, enclosing an open porch, or remodeling an existing structure such as a garage. There are a few basic good rules to follow when you add space to your home.

- 1. Keep the style of the addition compatible with the main house so that it doesn't look tacked-on. An alternative is to give the whole house a face lifting. This is often a good idea when the old siding, trim or gutters need replacement.
2. Plan the addition so that it adds to rather than subtracts from the usable space in the present house.
3. Make the most efficient and economical provision for any utilities, especially water and heat, that the new addition will require.

Ideas for Livening Up Alcoves

Two ideas for an alcove: put a dressing table there, or make it a phone nook. And make it bright, with a vinyl wallcovering that's an easy-to-install help to home improvement. Peggy Walker designed these two "facelifts" with J. Josephson vinyls—one, Persian Stripe, in a dressing area with a horizontal dado to vary its otherwise vertical pattern, and the other, Cortina, in a corner with drop-down seat and desk near the phone. Desk is complete with cork notebook and a "well" in its writing surface for the telephone directory, so shopping helps are at hand.

2 from area anticipate degrees in June

Two area students are degree candidates of St. Clair Community College, Port Huron, and expect to receive degrees in commencement exercises June 2.

They are John S. Nicol, Cass City, and Marjorie J. Spear, Kingston.

The two graduates are among 310 who will be awarded diplomas in the following areas: Associate in Arts, General Education, Agricultural Mechanics, Agricultural Technology, Applied Science, Business Administration, Drafting and Design, Electronics, Industrial Technology, Law Enforcement, Metal Technology and Marine Technology.

PAUL BLISS
His speed made up for the lack of a big bat. He used his speed to put pressure on the opposing infield every time his bat met the ball. In the field he was reliable.

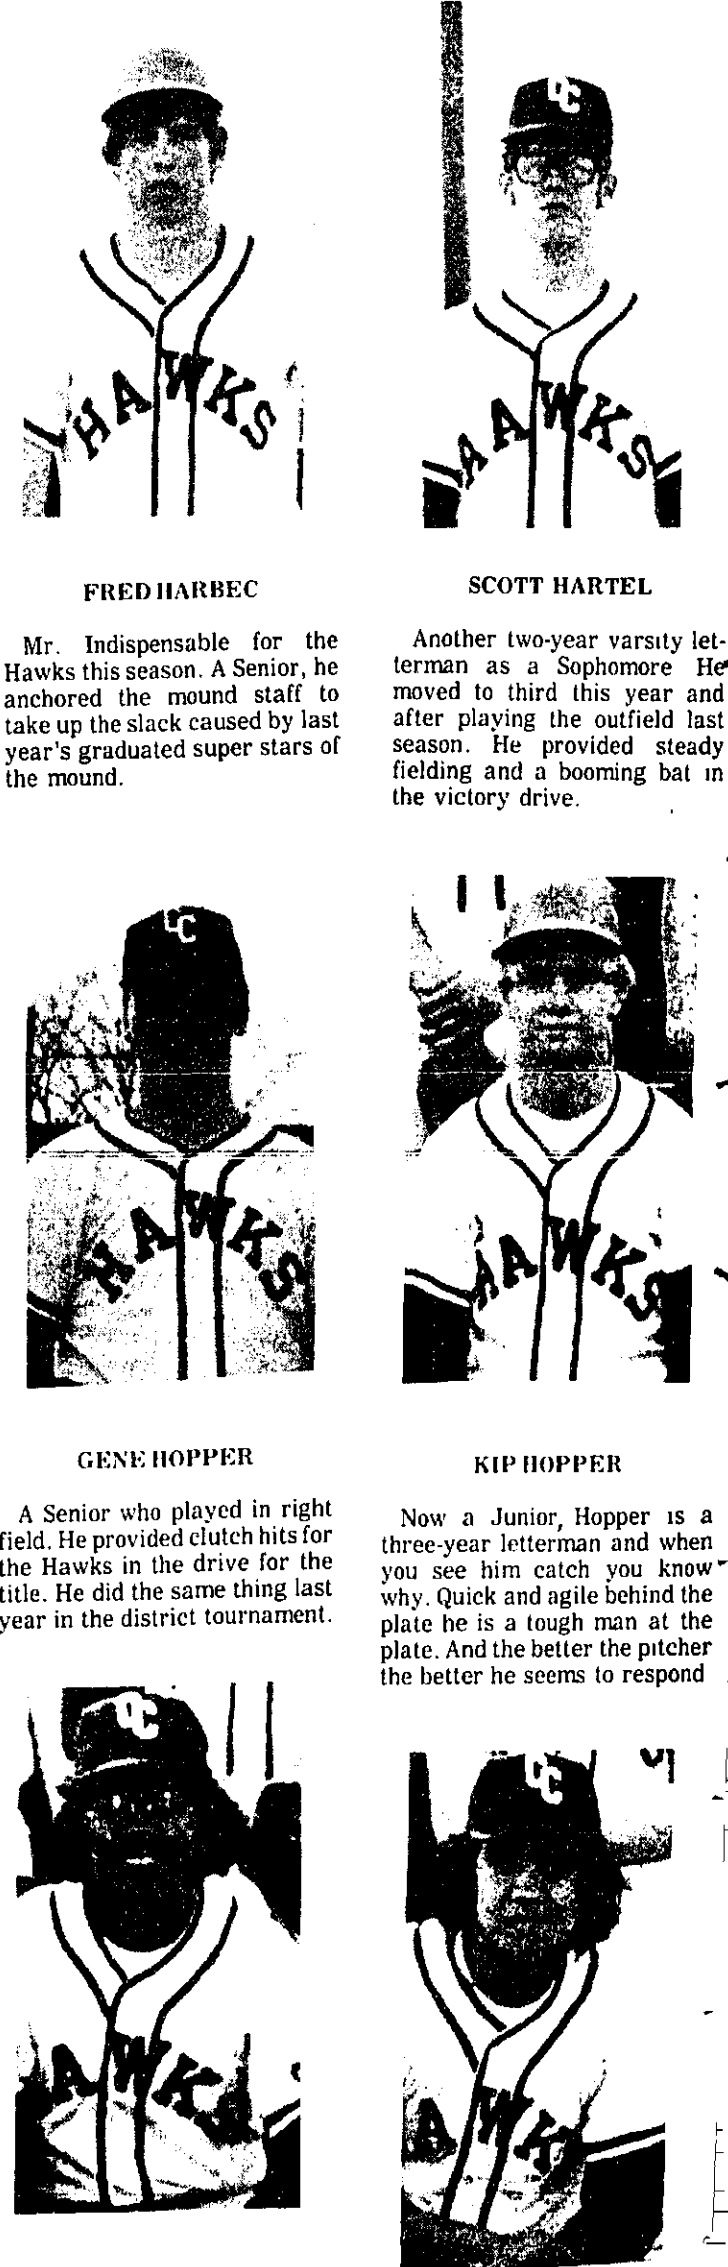

RANDY BROWN
Here's a Senior that has been around for Cass City. He plays third, he catches, he plays in the outfield. He's the kind of utility man that coaches love to have but seldom have available.

HENRY COOKLIN
Here's Mr. Glove man for the Hawks at second base. His glove won him his job and he devours ground balls like an octopus. He'd probably play if he never hit... but in recent games he's been the team's leading sticker.

PETE FREDERICK
He could play anyplace. He was a reserve moundman and an outfielder. He gained valuable experience this season and should be a sparkplug for Cass City in the next two years.

DON GALBRAITH
A Sophomore and already a two-year varsity letterman, Galbraith anchored the first sack and when he connected had more power than any player in the Thumb B Conference.

SCOTT GUINTHUR
An all around team player, he moved up from the junior varsity to plug a hole wherever and whenever he was needed by Coach Fred Hurlburt.

FRED HARBERC
Mr. Indispensable for the Hawks this season. A Senior, he anchored the mound staff to take up the slack caused by last year's graduated super stars of the mound.

SCOTT HARTEL
Another two-year varsity letterman as a Sophomore. He moved to third this year and after playing the outfield last season. He provided steady fielding and a booming bat in the victory drive.

GENE HOPPER
A Senior who played in right field. He provided clutch hits for the Hawks in the drive for the title. He did the same thing last year in the district tournament.

KIP HOPPER
Now a Junior, Hopper is a three-year letterman and when you see him catch you know why. Quick and agile behind the plate he is a tough man at the plate. And the better the pitcher the better he seems to respond.

LOUIE SALAS
Completing the team's strength down the middle is Louis Salas. A fleet centerfielder, he's sure on a fly ball. He hits often enough to be dangerous and when he gets on base he's a thorn for opposing catchers. He can fly.

GENE SALAS
Another Junior with two years' experience, Salas is part of the combination that gives Cass City unusual strength down the middle. At shortstop he covers like a blanket and he hits and he hits with power.

JERRY TONER
Ace reliever, credited with saves in nearly every game this season. A Freshman he showed the poise of a Senior.

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

FIVE YEARS AGO

A successful poppy sale is reported by Mrs. Philip McComb. Gross receipts from the sale of 1800 poppies amounted to $411.71.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Peck of Cass City left for Seattle on the first leg of their journey to Japan where they will serve as Baptist missionaries.

Something new for the local Presbyterian Church was the use of usherettes in May, in place of the men and boys who customarily serve as ushers. Lynn Atwell, Jill Auten, Janet Koepfgen and Lynnea Rabideau were the pioneers.

Two veteran teachers in the Cass City system were honored on the eve of their retirement. Feted were Frank Weatherhead and Mrs. Marie Murray.

In keeping with the spirit of Memorial Day there were plenty of flags flying as the parade worked its way down Main Street to the cemetery.

A spring musical will be presented at the Wahjamega Country Church, directed by Mrs. Judy Titus, substitute band director at Cass City Schools. Participating are Rosemary Fritz and Marilee Turner.

Electors of Gageton voting on "whether the sale of spirits in addition to beer and wine shall be permitted for consumption on the premises within the village" decided to permit the sale of spirits. The vote stood 87 to 53.

Despite the cold backward spring, Sam Bigelow has been presenting friends with bouquets of lovely tulips from his garden.

Clarence-Burt is the proud owner of a new milk delivery truck.

The Cass City laundry, which has been closed for some time, will be opened for business. It has been purchased by David McQueen of Evergreen township from the previous owner, Merle Shaw, of Snover.

TEN YEARS AGO

Football fans whose memory of Cass City High School's football teams stretch back to 1954 will need no introduction to Oarrie Lemanski, new head grid mentor at the school.

Robert Stickle, government and economics teacher at Cass City High School, has been selected as one of 25 Coe Fellows from the nation to attend the Institute of American Studies.

General Insulated Wire of Cass City won the Tuscola County "Michigan Product of the Year" award held in conjunction with Michigan Week.

Michael H. Fritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fritz of Cass City, has been named "Most Outstanding Senior in Teke Sports" by Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Charles Iseler of Cass City won eighth prize in the "Music Man" contest sponsored by Richards Music and Weber Inc.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Victor in a 25-year battle with tuberculosis, Miss Maud C. Quinn, who lived many years in the Gageton area, has encountered a new obstacle of her departure from Fairmount Hospital in Kalamazoo — the housing shortage.

Yesterday was the last day that the Ripley Manufacturing Co. operated its plant in Cass City and the machinery is being moved to the company's main plant at Croswell.

200 new books available at Rawson library

Two hundred children's and youth books arrived at Rawson Memorial Library last week. They are a loan from Michigan State Library to help with summer reading programs. The books will be available to patrons until the last of August.

There were 27 children present for the story hour Tuesday. Beverly Nieboer and Marge Dickinson read to the children and Michelle Zdrojewski led them in motion games and songs. The last story hour in this series will be May 30.

Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Vender presented to the library "Christ and the Fine Arts" by Pearl Cynthia Maus.

"The Good Housekeeping new complete book of needlecraft" was given to the library by the Hobby Club in memory of Mrs. Emily Meiser.

Three new gothic novels were purchased by the library this month as well as the following technical books: "Modern Carpentry", "Adequate wiring for Home and Farm", "Handyman's Electrical Repairs Handbook", "Electricity and Electronics, Basic", "How to Run a Small Business" and "The Interpretation of Financial Statements".

County OES meets in Millington

The Tuscola county OES club met Saturday evening at Millington for a regular meeting, card party and a dessert luncheon.

Kedron chapter of Caro received a prize for having the best attendance.

The club voted gifts of money to Otisville and Cass City

Bethels of Job's Daughters and to Caro DeMolay.

The next meeting will be the third Saturday in September at Unionville and will include a potluck dinner and cards.

Prizes in cards at the Millington meeting went to Mrs. Mary Adams, Clark Davison and Mr. and Mrs. Colling, all of Caro.

Just a beginning

"I'm never going to open another book again!" sighed Pete as he collapsed in my chair following his high school commencement.

But three months later, Pete had changed his tune and was ready for college.

Since then, he's had other graduations—from college, from medical school. Each time Pete has discovered that it isn't all over when you graduate. Something is just beginning.

Some people want to "graduate" from church at a certain age or time. They're just like Pete was when he left high school. They think they've outgrown the Church.

How empty Pete's life would be now if he had stopped at that first graduation. How empty your life would be without the Church.

Maybe it isn't all over for you! The church doors are always open.

Improving Existing Space, One Way to Avoid Increasing Taxes

Even when a house is bulging at the seams, homeowners may hesitate to add space for fear of having property taxes increased. One way to avoid such a rise in cost-of-living is to improve existing space instead of adding to it. Before remodeling, check with the local assessor's office to see if the planned improvement will increase the assessed value of the house. As a general rule, any permanent addition of space, such as enlarging a one-car garage to accommodate two automobiles, or enclosing a screened porch for year-round use, will eventually lead to an assessment charge. Added space and increased resale value of the house may well be worth higher taxes, but there are improvements such as replacing old windows and doors with attractive modern ones that add considerably to the comfort and appearance of a house without raising the tax base. Take a room that has tiny windows and plain doors — big new wood windows and solid panel interior doors will give it new life. Generous new windows open a room to the outdoors, making it seem infinitely larger and more livable.

Windows Galore

There are many sizes and styles of factory-made ponderosa pine windows to choose from. For year-round comfort, choose wood window units equipped with insulating glass — two panes sealed at the edges to hold an insulating layer of air. The sealed-in air helps prevent heat loss and the accumulation of messy moisture on the panes in winter. Since wood is an excellent insulating material, new wood windows with insulating glass will keep the remodeled room cozy all winter, no matter how large they are. And they will eliminate the maintenance problems of storm windows.

To give modern wood windows a charming, old-time appearance, there are removable grilles that snap into the sash over the panes. They can be lifted out when the windows need washing or painting.

Doors Ready to Paint

Panel doors of ponderosa pine, solidly made and ready to be painted or stained, also come in many styles and stock sizes. Both interior and exterior doors come in traditional, provincial, Mediterranean and modern styles. For closets, lower doors are popular because they permit air to circulate — and they add a pleasant dimension to a room.

Award 3 Gagetown girls highest rank in scouting at banquet

Three Gagetown Girl Scouts flew up to become members of the newly formed Senior Scout Troop No. 15 at ceremonies May 17 during a mother-daughter banquet held by the Gagetown Girl Scout Troops when they were awarded their first class scout rank.

The first 1st Class Senior Scouts of Gagetown are Miss Sandra Ziehm, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ziehm; Miss Cindy Bencheck, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bencheck, and Miss Connie Repshinska, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Repshinska, all of Gagetown.

To receive the First Class Badge, the girls completed proficiency badges in the Arts, Home, Health and Safety, International Friendship and Citizenship. They also completed four challenges—Social Dependability, Emergency Preparedness, Active Citizenship and the Girl Scout Promise. These challenges are real-life situations that test the girls' abilities.

All three are freshmen students at Owen-Gage High School. Sandra became a charter member of the Brownie Troop

641 in October 1966 with leaders Mrs. William Goodell and Mrs. Harold Koch. In 1968 the first Junior Troop was organized with Sandy as one of its members. The other two girls joined at this time. Leaders were Mrs. William Burrows and Mrs. Harold Koch. In March 1970 a Cadette Troop was organized with the three girls as members under the leadership of Mrs. William Lenhard and Mrs. Steve Bencheck.

Mrs. Mildred Munro quits after 26 years of teaching

With the closing of school Friday afternoon, Mrs. Mildred Munro will end a 26-year teaching career.

The short plump woman who has taught 25 of those years at the Gagetown Elementary School counts among her students approximately 750 children, mostly fifth graders.

A native of Mount Pleasant, Mrs. Munro attended Central Michigan University, majoring in elementary education. She taught one year there before coming to Gagetown.

Following in her mother's footsteps, Mrs. Munro said she sort of fell into teaching. All of her six sisters also went into the profession.

Now at age 64, she said she could teach for another year or two, but said, "I'd just made up my mind I'd taught long enough."

Her career was interrupted while she raised her family, two daughters and a son, and almost in a family tradition, her two daughters have taken up teaching.

Over the span of her life as a teacher, Mrs. Munro said she has seen education change. Better materials are now available, she noted, but said children are basically the same as they always were.

"I can't see such a change as some people think," she stated, "because I've changed with them."

Upon retirement, she intends to work at her home at 6585 Lincoln St., and take up the many things she hasn't had time for, such as planting flowers and sewing. She'd also like to travel, she said, and become active in civic affairs again.

Mrs. Munro's husband, Leslie, works as a custodian at the school.

'Way to go,' Hawks—champions in Thumb B, victory in State tourney

Cass City hammered two North Branch pitchers Monday afternoon in support of fine pitching by Fred Harbec and Jerry Toner to walk away with the opening game in the State pre-district baseball tourney. The score of the game played at Cass City Recreational Park was 9-2. A tight contest was broken wide open in a big fourth inning when the Hawks scored four times to take a 6-0 lead. The rally was highlighted by a tremendous circuit clout by Gene Salas. Salas hammered the ball on a line over the just erected Little League fence in distant left field. Not as spectacular but easily as important was the hitting of Kip Hopper. Hopper started

Cass City rolling in the first inning as he collected the first of his three hits and then moved around to score on infield plays and an error, after stealing second.

It was Hopper who ignited a one-run rally in the third with his second hit. In all he scored four times for Cass City.

Meanwhile, Fred Harbec was firing his fast ball past North Branch. He had a no-hitter going until the sixth inning when he weakened and allowed two hits and the Branchers scored two times.

The Hawks countered with two more runs in their half of the inning and Jerry Toner, who came on in relief, had little trouble blanking the visitors the rest of the way.

The win qualified the Hawks for the next step of tournament play. They are scheduled to meet Marysville Saturday morning at 10 a. m.

However, because of a conflict with the Senior trip attempts are underway to switch the game to Friday night.

The switch was asked for before authorities at Walbro Corporation volunteered the company plane to fly the five Seniors on the squad to Cincinnati to meet the Senior bus en route to Florida after Saturday's game.

The scouting report on Marysville is that they are sparked by a power throwing left hander who is already under the watchful eyes of the pro scouts.

To win at Marysville the Hawks will have to do well what they have been doing all season. Play a tight defense and take advantage of the breaks.

The Hawks committed just one error against North Branch and hammered out nine hits to post one of the easiest victories of the year.

It couldn't have come at a better time.

LAKER GAME

The Cass City Red Hawks did it the hard way. The team won the Thumb B Conference baseball title by defeating the toughest pitcher in the league and one of the better teams last Thursday, posting a 4-3 decision over the Lakers at Laker High School.

Actually, the Hawks didn't hammer Jim Neurath, but they did collect enough hits at opportune times to win. It was the same formula the club used all spring to remain undefeated in Conference play.

Led by Henry Cookin with two hits in three tries, Cass City collected six hits.

Neurath struck out 11 and walked one as he went the distance.

Fred Harbec started and held the Lakers in check until the last inning when Jerry Toner came in to get the last out and preserve the key victory.

The Lakers scored on an error in the second, added another on two hits in the fourth and scored again in the seventh on a triple and a wild pitch. But with the tying and winning runs on base, Toner got the last man and Cass City had the Conference crown safely tucked away. Cass City played a strong defensive game and was charged with just one error.

The Hawks scored three times in the third to take the lead and never lost it. Cookin bashed a single. Gene Hopper singled. Kip Hopper bunted Cookin home and Louis Salas, running for Hopper, came charging home on a pitching error.

Hopper scored on an error for the third run in the inning.

In the fifth Kip Hopper scored what proved to be the winning run when he got on base on an error and scored.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS from Scott Hartel, 14, and Paul Bliss is Gene Salas as he jogs home following a circuit clout against North Branch.

Erla's split opening games in new league

Erla's Food swung into action in the Thumb Traveling League with a pair of games and found the competition a little stiffer than they did in the Ugly League which they dominated year after year.

But Coach Dan Erla is confident that his Foodmen will be in the thick of things before the long summer season ends.

The team opened the season Thursday and lost a decision to a good Sebewaing Old Heidelberg nine, 3-1. In the second game of the season Monday the team bounced into the win column with a one-sided victory over Fairgrove VFW, 10-0.

In the opener Sebewaing walked away with the victory almost before Erla's knew the season had started. The first three men in the Sebewaing line-up scored on three errors and a walk and then never scored again.

But they didn't have to as the best Erla's could do was a-run on two hits in the fourth. Easlick pitched a fine game for Erla's, allowing just two hits but Dick Suhr was effective for Old Heidelberg, allowing just five scattered hits.

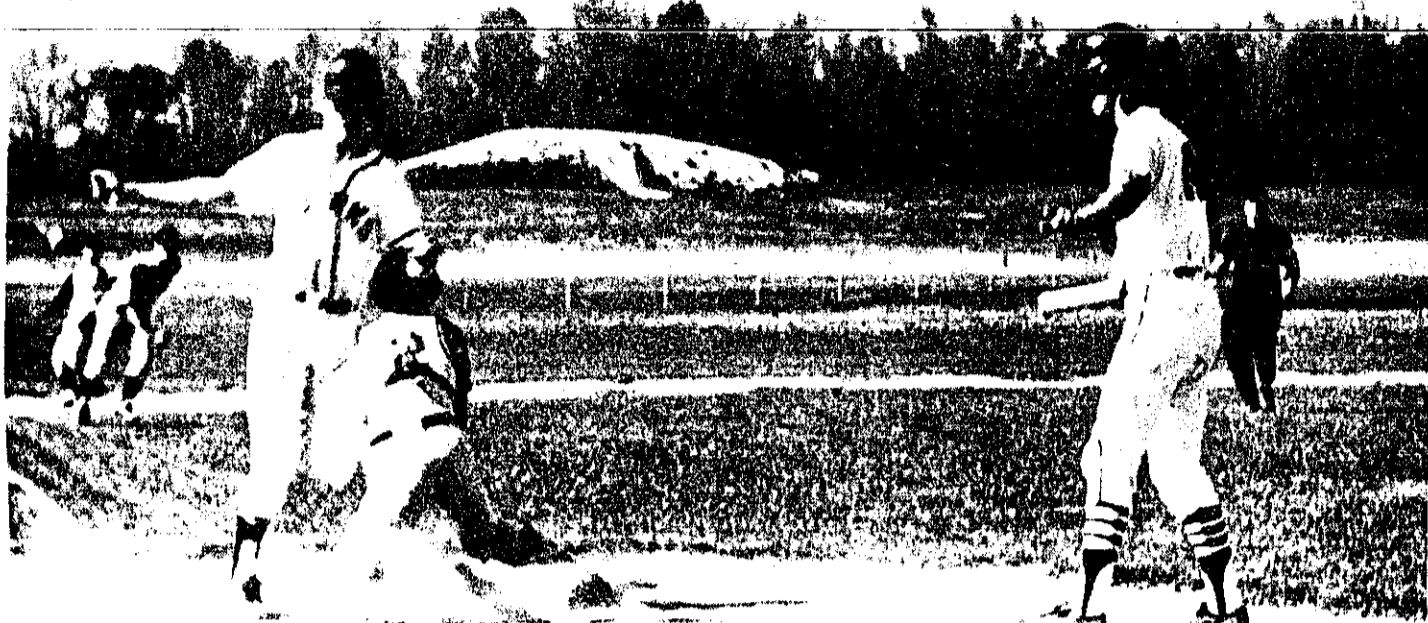

A familiar figure was on the mound for Erla's in the second game against Fairgrove. It was Al Bosch. Bosch turned in his usual sparkling game. He struck out 16, allowed three hits and didn't walk a man.

Dean Hoag, Elwyn Helwig, Walt Hempton, and Rollie Nicholas all collected two hits.

One of Nicholas' hits was a home run. Jim LaRoche and his replacement, McLellan, collected three hits in four tries.

Erla's was to have played Reese Muellers at Akron Wednesday, May 24, and meet Mayville at Akron Tuesday, May 30.

There are 12 teams in the league and the teams are scheduled to play through July.

KIP HOPPER BROKE out of a run down after a suicide squeeze went awry and scored the first run for Cass City in a Pre-district State Tournament game with North Branch.

Banquet fetes girl athletes

Approximately 65 persons attended the Girl's Athletic Association (GAA) banquet Monday evening when awards were given for the year's competitive activities.

Peggy Schwartz received the GAA Highest Award, which goes to the girl who was most active throughout the year. Miss Schwartz was also given the GAA Pin.

For the first time, awards were given to individuals for bowling, volleyball and basketball.

Pins went to the first bowling team of Patti Rabideau, Lori Kilbourn, Gail Miracle and Betsy Koepf, and the second team of Cindy Strickland, Karen Martin, Kathy Bean and Peggy Schwartz.

A trophy went to Linda Karr, most improved average; Peggy Schwartz, high game (194) and high series (427).

Pins were also awarded the first place volleyball team consisting of Peggy Schwartz, Carla Ruso, Sharon Martin, Kathy Bean, Karen Martin and Kris Ridenour.

The first place basketball team was also awarded pins. The girls were: Cathy Spencer, Katie Miller, Mary Eshelman, Melody Bacon, Linda Koepfgen, Patti Holcomb and Tam Vatters.

Girls receiving their first year points numeral were: Kris Ridenour, Melody Bacon, Cindy Doerr, Karen Martin, Sharon Martin, Peggy Schwartz, Cathy Spencer, Cindy Strickland, Tam Vatters, Kathy Bean, Lori Kilbourn, Linda Koepfgen, Mary Martin and Katie Miller.

Cass City letters were also awarded to Lori Kilbourn, Linda Koepfgen, Karen Martin, Mary Martin, Sharon Martin, Katie Miller, Peggy Schwartz and Cathy Spencer.

Junior high still undefeated

The Cass City Junior High track team remained undefeated in regular season competition last week by winning a dual meet Tuesday with Marlette and a triangular meet Thursday with Caro and Lakers. The thinclads defeated Marlette 95-32 and the score in the three-school meet was: Cass City, 89; Lakers, 58, and Caro, 11½.

Hawk thinclads 3rd in League

As expected, the race for the Thumb B Conference track crown was between Caro and Vassar High Schools last Wednesday, but Cass City used over-all depth to finish a strong third.

Vassar won the meet with 77 points while host Caro scored 71 despite strong performances by individual Tigers who won seven first place events.

Following the leaders in the final team standings were: Cass City, 54; Bad Axe, 52; Frankenth, 33; Marlette, 19; Lakers, 12½; Sandusky, 11½.

Rick Harwick won the Clare McDurmon award as the outstanding athlete in the meet. The Caro Junior won the 440 and 220-yard dashes and finished fourth in the long jump. Possibly the strongest competition in the entire meet was in the 880-yard run. It was won by Bill Eskelson of Vassar in record time of 1:58.1. Craig Guernsey lowered his personal Cass City school record in the event but was able to finish no better than third.

Cass City placed first in the mile run where Junior Curt Strickland posted a 4:37.5 to best Roger Bader of Vassar.

Showing the strength expected in the distance events, the Hawks staged their own private war for first place in the two mile as Steve Selby and Tim Stickle battled it out for first place. Selby's winning time was 10:26.8.

Besides Harwick, the only other double winner was Caro's Randy Dunham who won the high hurdles in :16.2 and the low hurdles in :21.15.

Dirk Sutherland's 13-foot pole vault was the best in the area this year. Bad Axe won the new 440 relay event. The :45.1 time was the best in the area this season.

Other Cass City points were won by: Drew Guernsey, second in long jump; a third in the 880-relay; Dave Luana, second in 100-yard dash; Craig Guernsey, fifth in 440; Don Karr, sixth in 220; mile relay, third, and 440-relay, third.

THE 1972 LITTLE LEAGUE schedule officially opened Monday night as Umpire Dub Okerstrom hands the game ball to Mike Zmierski. From left, Terry Compo, Cub catcher; Walt Zmierski, Cub manager; Zmierski, Tim Coleman, Giant hurler; Paul Harmer, Giant catcher, and Ken Nye, Giant manager.

Pastor Dale A. Sherry of The Deford Community Church, Deford, is pleased to present "A Musical Night in May" with the Rayl Girl Singers. The program of music will be held in the Deford Elementary School Sunday evening, May 28, at 8:00. The Rayl Girl Singers are composed of Rinda Rayl Gordon and Donna Rayl, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rayl of Snover; Renee Rayl Taylor and Carol Rayl Collins, both of Kingston, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rayl of Silverwood; Lynn Rayl of Cass City, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rayl, and Kelley Rayl of Akron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rayl.

This will be the first time the girls have performed together and under the direction of Rev. Sherry. Special arrangements of both music and stage setting will contribute to the unique program to be rendered by Pastor Sherry and The Rayl Girl Singers.

Additional seating arrangements have been cared for to handle an expected capacity crowd for "A Musical Night in May," with Pastor Dale A. Sherry and The Rayl Girl Singers, Sunday evening, May 28th, in the Deford Community Church, now worshipping in the Deford Elementary School.

Gift shop to open at hospital

Michigan Mirror

Hills and Dales Hospital Auxiliary met Monday, May 22, with 14 members present. Mrs. Roger Little reported on the membership drive.

A gift shop in the hospital will be opened in the near future, as the Auxiliary's new project. Mrs. E. C. Fritz, president, will be supervisor of the project, with Mrs. Kenneth Martin, chairman; Mrs. Donald Doerr, co-chairman, and Mrs. C. R. Hunt serving on the steering committee to set up the gift shop.

Nine Auxiliary members attended the East Central meeting May 17 at Saginaw St. Luke's Hospital.

Mrs. Donald Wernette gave the report on the general meeting and other members reported on the workshops they attended.

The next meeting will be June 26 in the hospital meeting room.

TOO LATE YET

The young fellow who is most firmly convinced that he's not making enough money to support a wife already has one.

The strength of President Nixon's position in the Republican Party this year is perhaps best demonstrated in the ranks of the Republican Governors Conference.

The conference includes his two chief rivals from 1968 days--Nelson Rockefeller of New York and Ronald Reagan of California. Its chairman this year, Gov. William G. Milliken, backed another man (Rockefeller) in 1968.

Yet all three are actively backing the President this year. In fact, they are half of a group of six Republican governors designated as surrogate candidates to stand in for Nixon until after the Republican convention in August.

The six are going to be travelling around the country, mainly in their own geographic areas, to keep the Republican faithful moving until Nixon starts working publicly on his re-election after the convention.

The three governors all had to make a change in their positions to back the President fully, and Milliken made as big a change as any.

In 1970, when he ran for a full term as Governor of Michigan, the Governor was very careful to keep a clear dividing line between himself and the national administration. The President never did visit the state in 1970 and Vice-President Agnew came only once. On that visit Milliken found reasons to be elsewhere in the state than where Agnew was.

But that decision was a matter of practicality as it was ideology, since polls showed Nixon would be a negative rather than positive force for Milliken.

Now it's two years later, and the shoe is on the other foot. Nixon is running for another term, as is Republican Sen. Robert Griffin, a long-time friend of Milliken's.

In Michigan and the Midwest the Governor, who isn't running for office, is a plus rather than a minus for both Nixon and Griffin, so he is actively campaigning for them.

The Governor isn't pretending he agrees with Nixon on every issue. At the Republican Governors Conference earlier this spring he worked to keep a Vietnam resolution to a general endorsement of the President's withdrawal policy since he did not approve of such steps then going on as the bombing of the North.

He also said at a separate time the President's decision not to seek a constitutional amendment to ban busing was made for the wrong reason.

No two people agree completely on everything, and Milliken told an interviewer that he doubts he'll ever agree 100 per cent with any politician, Republican or Democrat.

He is sincere in his support of Nixon. The Governor admires the President's grasp of government and his approach to problems, even if he doesn't agree with some of the results.

Besides, this is 1972 and it's the President's turn on the ballot. If the President could stay out of Michigan to help the Governor in 1970, then the least the Governor can do is travel in and out of the state this year to help him.

FEE OFF AGAIN

Amidst all the aggravating things government finds to do to taxpayers, there are a few glimmers of good news.

One of the latest bits comes from the office of Secretary of State Richard Austin. Austin announced that for the second year in a row next year, Michigan motorists with insurance on their motor vehicles won't have to kick $1 per vehicle into the uninsured motorists fund.

Austin was able to do this through a law passed by the Legislature in 1971 which set a minimum level for the fund. If the fund is above that level then the $1 fee is not collected.

The $1 wasn't much, but it bugged a great many people who shelled out a couple of hundred dollars a year in car insurance that they had to pay out another dollar to help cover the people who don't, for some reason or another, get insurance for themselves.

Austin recognized this and pushed for removal of the fee as soon as he reached office.

"Although the dollar was a small amount of money to pay into the fund to provide benefits for innocent victims of uninsured drivers, it was an extremely unpopular assessment against Michigan's responsible motoring public," he says.

Revive old home crafts
for Artrain

Anyone who practices an old craft and wants to share it will have an opportunity during a demonstration of crafts in conjunction with Heritage Days and the July visit of Artrain.

The old Dillman school, a remembrance of a former life when the beautiful things that were used in a home were made by the family, will provide a meeting place for old-timers and younger persons who have taken up home crafts as a forgotten art.

The Dillman school, the little red brick building two miles west of Cass City on M-81, has been donated for use during the visit of Artrain, the traveling art museum presented by the Michigan Council for the Arts, by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Golding Sr., on whose land it is built.

The Artrain committee needs volunteers to demonstrate such things as weaving, tatting, rug hooking, spinning, quilting. Other home arts are crocheting, macrame, caning, crewel work, decoupage or toile painting (painting on tin).

Interested persons should contact Mrs. Arnold (Sharon) Erla, 4381 West St., Cass City.

DISPLAYING the afghan she won in a Zonta drawing is Mrs. L. D. Richmond, right, of Mt. Pleasant. The afghan was presented by Mrs. Lorene Rienstra, Zonta secretary.

AROUND THE FARM
Chemicals help
low food costs

by William Bortel

Two weeks ago, my column illustrated how the family income buys considerably more food today compared to five, ten or twenty years ago. The family today ONLY spends 15.6 per cent of their disposable income for food compared to 20.6 per cent in 1959 and 24.6 per cent in 1949. The average family in USSR spends 45 per cent and China spends 80 per cent of their disposable income for food.

Low price food has made for the abundant life in the United States where the family can use the balance of the disposable income (84.4 per cent) to buy luxuries along with housing, clothing, etc. Families with two cars, swimming pools, riding lawn mowers, snowmobiles and other luxuries are a part of our society.

However, many people are crying that we should eliminate herbicides, pesticides, and even fertilizer. It is practically impossible to grow many fruits, vegetables and some crops without these chemicals today. It has been estimated by many economists that the price of food would double or even triple if we took all chemicals off the market. Will our society be willing to use 30 to 50 per cent of their disposable income for food if this should happen? Life in the United States would surely change.

Hold rites for Mabel Knoblet

Services for Mrs. Mable Knoblet, 81, were held Saturday at the Mizpah Missionary Church. She died Wednesday, May 17, at her home on Knoblet Road. She had been in ill health the past five years.

Mrs. Knoblet was born Feb. 14, 1891, in Elmwood, Ontario, Canada, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick and Lisette Paupel Klemmer.

She was married to Rinerd Knoblet Oct. 5, 1918, in Waco, Texas. In 1919 they came to Novesta township and settled on a farm where she has lived until her death.

Mrs. Knoblet was a charter member of the Riverside Missionary Church and the Evergreen Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

She is survived by her husband; three daughters: Ruth Schember, Mrs. Walter (Martha) Putnam and Mrs. John (Charlotte) Lockwood, all of Cass City; one son, Frederick, Cass City; two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Thorman, Bradenton, Fla., and Mrs. Roxie Love of Anaheim, Calif.; two brothers: Irvin Klemmer, Sarasota, Fla., and John Klemmer, Bad Axe; 9 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Three brothers and three sisters preceded her in death.

The Rev. Richard Culp, pastor of the Mizpah Missionary Church, officiated at the ceremonies, assisted by two of Mrs. Knoblet's grandsons, the Rev. Jerry Knoblet and the Rev. Paul Schember. Burial was in Novesta cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Zinnecker left Friday morning, May 12, to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Zinnecker, at Waukesha, Wis. Saturday they visited the village of New Glarus, which is a replica of the Swiss village. They have lace and cheese factories, made exactly as they are in Switzerland. The village is located near Madison and covers one whole county. Mother's Day they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Zinnecker for dinner at the Elks Club and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Casar and baby, Peter John. Tuesday morning they left Waukesha to return home via the Upper Peninsula. Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Zinnecker visited and had supper with John Starmann, former of Cass City, who is superintendent of the Palmouth school. Mr. Starmann showed them through the school and visited the dam at Palmouth. The Zinneckers spent Wednesday night at Houghton Lake and had lunch Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Putnam of Alger, formerly of this area, and arrived home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith and family of Vassar were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Churchill, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Denby and two sons of Marysville were overnight Friday and Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Englehart and children and were Sunday guests of Mrs. Denby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Englehart, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMullen and daughter of Mayville were visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Vandemark, Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vandemark were Wednesday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vandemark and family of Essexville in honor of the birthday of Eugene Vandemark.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schell of Cass City and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Magier attended the Democratic rally Saturday evening at the Vassar Fairground. A dance was held after the buffet lunch. Among the guests and speakers were Judge Horace Gilmore of Detroit, Senator Hart, Judge Richard Kern and Mr. and Mrs. Luba of Caro.

Mrs. Helen Force and two daughters of Silverwood spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koepf. Mr. and Mrs. Clem Koepf and Michelle of Cass City were Saturday supper guests. Randy Whittaker and Clem Koepf were Sunday supper guests.

Mrs. Lucille Hartwick of Lake Orion spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. William Zemke and family. The Zemke family and their guest had Sunday dinner at the Wayside Inn on the Lakeshore Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodell Brewer and son Bill of Beaverton spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Roach. Mr. and Mrs. Roach and their guests visited Saturday evening with Mr. Roach's aunt, Mrs. John Perry of Snover. Mr. and Mrs. John Stinger and family of Beaverton were Sunday guests at the Roach home. The Roach, Brewer and Stinger families visited Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roach and children of Caro Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward Magier had lunch Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Walter Chitren, of Birmingham and was a dinner and overnight guest of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Storace and daughters of Westland. Her nephew, Norman Storace of St. Petersburg, Fla., was also a guest. Friday morning Mrs. Magier visited her mother-in-law, Mrs. Julia Magier of Detroit. Also Friday Mrs. Magier, Mrs. Chitren and Mrs. Jean Boroski of Utica visited Mr. and Mrs. James Cotter of Franklin Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Magier attended the Polish National Alliance meeting of Lodge Group No. 3046 of Caro at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schell of Cass City Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Field and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Field and Jill attended the wedding Friday evening of Joseph Smith and Winnifred Wall, both of Birmingham, at the Shrine of the Little Flower and the reception following at Greenfield. The Field families spent the late evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Connelly of Birmingham and were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Field of Rochester.

Mrs. Esther Kramer and Miss Norene Kramer and Mr. and Mrs. Linel Rayl and family of Unionville were supper guests Monday, May 15, of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Field and Jill in honor of the birthday of their granddaughter, Julie Kramer. Allan Romig of Cass City was an evening guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Allen, David and Sue and Ron Curtis of Deford, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beecher, Mrs. Keith Beecher, Brian and Brent and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown, Leanna and Julie of Caro were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Allen of Caro in honor of the fifth birthday of their son Jeffrey.

Julie and Gene Michael Kramer returned Thursday to their home in Essexville after spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hartwick visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan of Flint Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hergenreder of Kingston were Friday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Adolph Thom and Mrs. Dan Strickler of Peck visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. Allan Hartwick, and children. Mrs. Dwight Walker and family of Caro spent Sunday with the Hartwick family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Zinnecker were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calandar of Marlette and called on Mr. Calandar's mother, Mrs. Jean Calandar, at the Wolfe Nursing Home in Marlette.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Field and Jill of Deford, Mr. and Mrs. Al Mozden and Laura of Lapeer, Mrs. Esther Kramer and Norene of Unionville were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kramer and children of Essexville to celebrate the family's May birthdays, Eugene Kramer and daughter Julie (15th) and Laura Mozden (2nd). Afternoon guests of the Kramers were Mr. and Mrs. Linel Rayl and family of Unionville and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Field and daughters of Freeland.

Mrs. Helen Giordano of St. Clair Shores spent from Tuesday until Thursday at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lebioda. Mrs. John Lebioda, who had been a patient in Hills and Dales Hospital nearly two weeks, came home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Marshall, Scotty and Kristie of Shabbona visited his grandmother, Mrs. Eva Ashcroft, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Melvin Phillips visited her aunt, Mrs. Ashcroft, last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gyomory and sons, Brian and Darin, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kosto, of Tawas.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Voss visited her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Moenter, and father, Gus Bergman, of Pigeon Sunday. Mrs. Edward Lebioda and Beth Ann and Mrs. Lebioda's mother and sisters, Mrs. Florence Brown, Miss Jean Brown of North Branch and Mrs. Shirley Daley of Davison, attended a stork shower Sunday afternoon honoring Mrs. Sherry Augustine at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler in Clio. Lutheran church Mother-daughter breakfast Sunday confirms 10

Ten new members were accepted into the church Sunday during a confirmation service at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Presiding over the ceremonies was the Rev. James VanDellen, pastor.

Confirmed were: Dean Kruse, David Eberline, Mark Neiman, David Romig, Neal Compo, Karen Krug, Kimberly O'Dell, Patrick Powell, Jane Peterson and Colleen Leslie.

The group presented the church with a set of cassette tapes of the New Testament and the Psalms for use by shut-ins.

Approximately 110 persons attended a mother-daughter breakfast Sunday, May 21, at St. Pancratius church social hall.

Mrs. Ed Hahn and Mrs. Nina Davis were co-chairmen for the event. Men and boys of the parish served the breakfast, under the supervision of Richard Erla.

Toastmistress for the program was Mrs. Donald Erla. Mrs. J. D. Tuckey gave a tribute to daughters and Barbara Tuckey, a tribute to mothers.

Prizes were awarded to: Mrs. Bernard Freiburger, youngest grandmother; Mrs. Freiburger's mother, Mrs. Sullivan of Marlette, mother with the oldest daughter present; Mrs. Frances Pieprzyk of Detroit, who came the greatest distance; Suzanne Pobanz and Yvonne Erla, tallest daughters present; Jennifer Davis, shortest daughter, and Mrs. Tom Herron, mother with the most daughters.

A guitar medley was played by Rick Erla and Kurt Freiburger and a dance duet was presented by Carla Wischmeyer and Bobbi MacKay.

BETTER HEALTH

A father's advice on sex

BY DR. WALTER C. ALVAREZ

"Dear Daughter, An Enlightened Father's Frank and Startling Advice on Sex," by Martin Sanders, is written from a different point of view than most books on sex.

As we all know, many parents do not want their children to be taught anything about sex. They would be horrified if anyone were to tell their teen-agers how to avoid having a much unwanted child. Mr. Sanders (who is writing under an assumed name, and is actually a nationally famous novelist who has had several best-sellers published) feels that it is important for a girl to understand sex. He feels that it is unrealistic for parents to hang on to the belief that their youngsters will not have sexual experiences, and he thinks it better that they know how to protect themselves against some of the hazards of ignorance or half-knowledge about sex that can lead to pregnancy and venereal disease, as well as emotional problems and hurt.

Naturally, many people will be horrified that a father would talk to his daughter frankly about pornography, or about how to please a man sexually, about abortion and contraception, and even about such modern practices as group sex.

He talks about some of the problems of being a mistress, and he has some good advice for his daughter once she becomes a wife. For example, he points out that "burden of keeping the family intact does fall on the woman," and regarding the matter of keeping her husband faithful to her, he says, "While the blood is still on the bridal bouquet -- and for some time afterward -- they probably don't have to worry too much. But when sex gets to be 'old hat' the warning lights should begin to flash. When a woman takes the trouble for other men that she used to take for her husband, then a couple is not far from the acrimony that precedes the alimony."

We try to prepare our children for life and the many dangers of living through education. Why shouldn't we prepare them for the dangers that are associated with too early unmarried sex, which so many youngsters get into? Anyone who won't have "the horrors" over some frank and honest talk about sex will enjoy this book. Martin Sanders talks so frankly, and tells so much that his daughter -- and many a young girl -- should know. He tells his daughter what she had better not do, and he tells her what she will probably need to know if she wants to be happy and fulfilled and healthy in her sex life and her relationships with men.

"Dear Daughter" was published by Nash Publishing Company, 9255 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069, and costs $6.95.

According to one estimate, there are probably only 150,000 persons whose alcoholism has been arrested by medicine, psychiatry, group treatment or hypnosis. According to authorities, the consumption of alcohol has risen 45 per cent in the last 10 years, although the population has risen only 18 per cent. Veterans Administration Hospital authorities report that one in five of the 109,000 patients in their hospitals get there because of too much alcohol.

Menopause and hysterectomy are subjects your daughter may have questions about. Dr. Alvarez' booklet "Menopause and Hysterectomy" will provide informative, easy-to-understand answers. For your copy send 25 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request to him at Dept. CCC, Box 957, Des Moines, Iowa 50304.

ALCOHOLISM CHALLENGES THE PHYSICIAN

According to the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, chronic alcoholism is now our fourth most serious public health menace. It is outranked by diseases of the heart and blood vessels, mental illness, and cancer.

It is estimated that there are 6.5 million American alcoholics; the number has gone up 1.5 million since 1958. It is estimated that business and industry lose around $2 billion a year because of absenteeism, lowered productivity, and accidents all attributable to alcoholism. Alcoholic workers lose around half a million dollars a year in wages. In California, a study found that premature death comes to alcoholics about two and a half times as often as to the general population.

A number of investigators have concluded that at least half of the fatal auto accidents are caused by drunks.

Zonta holds dinner meet

Guest speaker at the regular Zonta Club meeting May 16 was Miss Letah Stewart, area director of District VA from Owosso. She installed Marie Koch as treasurer and Mildred McConkey as a new member of the Board of Directors.

The drawing was made by Miss Stewart for the afghan, the winner being Mrs. L. D. Richmond of Mt. Pleasant. The afghan, made by Florence Karr, was presented by Lorene Rienstra, secretary.

Edith Little and Lorene Rienstra, chairman, discussed plans for the rummage sale to be held in September.

The monthly dinner meeting was held at the home of Esther McCullough with Alice McAleer as co-hostess. The next meeting will be June 20 at Little's cabin in Caseville.

GIRL SCOUTS

Gagetown Girl Scouts held a mother and daughter dessert in conjunction with "Fly-up" ceremonies in the Gagetown school cafeteria Wednesday, May 17.

Dessert, coffee and punch were served by Cadette Troop 150.

The program was opened with a flag ceremony given by the Cadette Troop.

Mrs. William Goodell presented Brownie wings to Dana Laurie, Sue Lenhard, Leslie Measer, Allison Molnar, Annette Rockefeller, Heidi Rockefeller, Debra Shope, Deedra Thick, Debbie Nicholas, Terri Sontag, Lonnie Wilson and Tina Wood.

Crossing the bridge to Cadettes were Mary Harmer, Mary Lenhard, Debra Rockefeller and Susan Russell.

Advancing to the Senior Troop No. 15 were Cindy Bencheck, Connie Repshinska and Sandra Ziehm.

The meeting was closed when all Girl Scouts joined in a giant friendship circle and singing of Taps.

Robert Kaczor rites Saturday

Final rites were held Saturday for Robert Kaczor, 30, of Caro who was killed May 17 when the car he was driving left the road and smashed into a tree on M-24, six miles south of Caro.

Tuscola county sheriff's deputies said it appeared he fell asleep while heading home from work in Lapeer. Kaczor was a mechanic for Detroit Edison Co. and was driving a Detroit Edison truck.

He was born June 27, 1941, in Mt. Clemens, the son of the late Stanley Kaczor and Mary Kaczor. He married the former Roberta Wilson April 4, 1964. They moved from Richmond to the Caro area in 1968.

He is survived by his widow and six children: two daughters, Rita and Mary, and four sons, Thomas, John, Peter and James, all at home. Also surviving are one brother, Gerald, Mt. Clemens, and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Andrzejewski and Mrs. Richard Kalich, both of Ulica.

The services were held at St. Agatha's Church, Gagetown, with burial in the church cemetery. The Rev. Donald Christensen, pastor, officiated. Hunter Funeral Home had charge of the arrangements.
