Two Cass City men were arrested Wednesday, Oct. 17, in rural Midland county and charged with possession of Charles Francis Martindale. 27, of Greenland Road and Keith Elton Brown, 39, of 6451 Main St., were arrested after being stopped by State Police from the Mt. Pleasant post on a speeding violation.

According to the State Police report, officer's stopped the van in which the pair were riding after being clocked traveling 71 miles per hour in a 55 mph zone. After the van was stopped investigating officers detected the odor of burnt marijuana on Martindale's clothing.

Further investigation turned up an open ash tray containing a pipe and bowl filled with marifuana. The officers then entered the van and confiscated the pipe and ash tray.

After entering the van, the officers found a pouch containing four plastic sandwich bags filled with marijuana, Also found was a pouch containing hashish wrapped in tin foil. Amounts of marijuana were also found on Martindale's person. Officers then arrested the pair. Brown was discovered in the back of the van, sleeping.

VANDALISM REPORTED

Theron Middaugh, 3655 Phillips Rd., Kingston, reported to Tuscola County Sheriff's deputles that the tires on his car ware vandalized Monday evening while he and his son were hunting near the intersection of Akron and Dodge Roads.

Middaugh told investigating officers he and his son, Charles, 12, had left the station wago parked at the side of the road and were walking away from the vehicle when they observed another auto pull up near their car and two men get out.

He told officers he watched the two men walk toward his car and decided to investigate. He and his son walked back to the car and found the air had been let out of two of the tires and one set of finger tabs for a bow and arrow set with arm guard had been taken from the station wagon and were found lying on the ground beside the disabled vehicle.

Officers indicated they have subject under investigation but have not as yet made any formal charges against him The case remains open and under investigation.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING A 14-year-old Deford youth sustained wounds to his left hand Saturday after he was accidentally shot while raccoon unting with his father. Robert Groosbeck Jr., of Phillips Road, was hunting with his father in Kingston towaship Saturday afternoon when they cornered a raccoon in a hollow tree. The youth went up into the tree to knock the animal down. At this point, his father shot at the animal, inflicting a wound to his son's left fourth finger. The youth was taken to Hills and Dales General Hospital where he was treated and re-

The taxpayers are getting their money's worth from the gym at the high school. Athletic Director Bob Stickle says that November through March every week-day night, including Saturday, with the exception of seven dates, are already reserved for athletic events. Since the gym's in use most of the school day, too, it has to be among the top used rooms in the building.

Don't do as I do, do as I tell you. That's what Jim Gross must be telling folks at his meat market these days. Cutting meat last week his hand slipped and he cut a knuckle on his left hand to the bone. . . . and it happened right after he cautioned That's his first accident in 41 years of serving Cass City folk.

I wish I could have thought of something to say as smart about Jim as he did about us. Foreman Jim Moore was shopping for a quart of milk just after the Chronicle mini-paper hi Gross slapped the milk on the counter and slyly said "you

I usually don't care who plays in what movie, But I'm rooting for Ronald Reagan to get the lead in the film story abou Douglas MacArthur. He's rumored to be interested. I've always admired Reagan. as an actor.

I received a letter berating us for applauding the stand of Ms. Schell and the cooperation between whites and blacks in Detroit in a recent column. This racist tells a tale of woe. I'd print it except for one reason. He didn't have the guts to sign the letter.

Don't try to say that the recently concluded World Series was dull and uninteresting. I know differently. I know because my wife watched most of every game. That's a record right there. Maybe her interest was whetted because I was pulling for the A's and she was a Met fan,
I tried to tell her that I had $20 on Oakland but she just sniffed and said, "serve you right to lose for betting".

ENGAGED Bean and corn

harvests down

30 per cent

Bean and corn harvests are down about 30 per cent from last year's totals brought about large part by dry weather. Skyrocketing prices, however, have made many farmers come out about even as compared with last year. According to Bob Wisch-meyer at Michigan Bean Co.,

15 bushels to the acre, down about one-third from last year. Price of beans as of Monday stood at $31.00 per bushel. Wischmeyer said the corn crop will also be down by about -third or even more. He said yields presently stand at about 75 bushels per acre compared with 100-125 bushels to ans averaged out at about the acre a year ago. Monday's corn price stood at $1,84 per bushel, up about 50 cents per bushel over a year ago, according to Wisch-

Jim Turner of J. P. Burroughs Co., Gagetown, also reports harvests of beans and corn down in comparison with David Perry Rowland, 20, of running at about 900-1,000 lbs. per acre, or 15 bushels. He said the overall average yield of beans is not down much over last year's totals, how-a 30-35 per cent drop com-pared with 1972 yields. He said the 1973 harvest is about 50 per cent completed. Burrough's prices for beans and corn were the same as those at Michigan Bean.

schools will participate in this season's series of programs, sponsored by the Midland Section of the American Chemical Society, with air time donated by TV 5. The contests are shown on TV 5 each Sunday morning at 9:30 now through June 9, 1974. There are two single elimina-tion contests with each school having one team in each con-test. The winners of these contests meet in a championship playoff June 9, to determine the season's Grand Champion. Ms. Kile said one team will compete before Christmas and one afterward. According to the airing schedule, Cass City is scheduled to face Bay City St. James Jan. 6, and Midland Jefferson Jan. 13. Winners will then advance through elimination contests. Questions asked on the air cover all fields of science and range from relatively easy questions scoring 10 points to difficult 30 point questions Host for the program is TV 5 personality Gene Riley.

STUDENTS STILL ATTEMPT to smoke on school grounds, despite the school's tough policy against the use of tobacco.

To smoke or not smoke? That's still the question the Surgeon General's report linking cigarette smoking to lung cancer and other cardiovascular diseases, but a larger number of persons -- adults and the noxious weeds.

And while sometimes it seems to be a frustrating battle, Cass City High School has cracked down on students caught smoking clandestinely in restrooms or in any part of the building. And, according to high school principal Russell Richards, the crackdown is working.

He admitted that it is indeed difficult to enforce an acknow-ledged double standard of not permitting smoking by any high school student while providing a place for teachers to inhale the fumes, Richards' response to these statements is simple and direct.
"School board policy specifically states that any visible possession or use of smoking materials on school grounds at any time is disallowed," he said. Teachers are employees and are adults and have a designated smoking area in the build-Richards said students have done well this year, and problems involving smoking have dropped from last year. He credited a tighter supervision system with this decrease. He personally checks out boys' rest rooms several times each day to make sure no students have slipped away from home rooms or class to light up. Teachers are also participating by checking girls'rest rooms as they pass by. What happens if a student is

Richards keeps a card file on his desk of problem stu-dents and disciplinary action taken against them. His rec-ords show so far this school year, three students have recelved three-day suspensions for smoking. Richards said the major smoking problem comes from the girls. He could not give a specific reason for this, but ing has always involved more girls than boys. Another reason for more girls trying to get away with a cigarette during the school day is that boys are easier to catch. Richards wastes no time in dealing with the situation.

The inspection turned up nothing and the students went on their way.
"I probably check these restrooms a dozen times a day," Richards chuckled, "Things have been pretty good,"

The school's general athletic policy also deals in specific terms with smokers on varsity and junior varsity teams. An athletic council made up of students, administration and coaches can meet to determine the guilt of an accused offend-Proof of offense can result in suspension of the athlete for a minimum of two games and a maximum of four games the first time. A second offense can result in suspension of a minimum of four games up to permanent exclusion from "We don't do this to kick people off the teams," Rich-ards explained, "We do it in

Richards said the key to the whole anti-smoking crackdown at the high school is the cooperation of teachers and students alike. Without them, it wouldn't work. Richards said there is no specific time of the year when the problem is worse than at other times, but said students do get a little exhilarated around holiday times. He complimented their cooperation with the pro-"For a lot of the students in past years, it's been a question of playing the game," he said. "Should I run the risk of getting caught? What might happen if I do get caught" But this year, things have been working out real well," So while it does involve a

Halloween goblins set for yearly rounds

Ghosts and goblins will be out in force next Wednesday night for their annual Halloween hunting and haunting for tricks or treats in Cass City. Small and large fry have pre-pared jack-o-lanterns, hung paper skeletons and stocked up on candy, gum and other treats

Again this year, the Cass City Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a free movie night at the Cass Theatre Wednesday beginning at 7:30. John Wayne and Richard Boone will star in "Big Jake". All ages are invited to attend. AAUW has also planned big lins that night as well. The or-ganization is planning a Halloween Carnival at the Cultural Center between 5:00 and 8:00 p.m. Events include games, food and prizes at a minimum cost All area children under 12 are invited to attend.

Elkland township firemen will also be participating again this year when they hand out free popcorn to trick-or-treaters at the fire hall. This traditional treat is provided by the fire department and will begin whenever the first kid gets there," according to one of the Police will be prepared to

Herman had befriended the couple the day before when their car broke an axle near Bach. He gave them a ride to the dottage, located about 17 miles couple's car was taken to a service garage in Sebewaing and Herman agreed to return to the cottage Monday to drive them to Sebewaing to pick up the

When he arrived around 11:30 a.m., he could not rouse the Bollas by knocking on the door. He was soon joined by a neighbor who detected the smell of gas and broke the door down.

Herman found the young couple sprawled on the floor beside their bed. Authorities said the furnace was not vented outside and apparently malfunctioned. A small occurred in the furnace itself. State Police from the Bad Axe post investigated.

Crandell also tells of stories that the rocks were once parsigned to keep flood waters from spreading, or that the rocks were used as a footpath, or trail across the swamplands or possibly a fortification, Geologists also have many theories about how the rocks were arranged in the winding

H. Gordon, in an article the Geological Survey of Michigan, has listed three basic theories among geologists. They are that the rock formations represent constructive river terraces formed by flood waters from the melting edge of the glacier, that they are due to glacial drainage, or they are created by ice thrust from an ancient lake,
Gordon and Don Weston,

Deckerville archaeologist who has been involved in the excavation of manumoth bones this past year near Cass City, share in a belief that the latter "ice-push" theory is the most plaus-

The two argue that the opening of the Tyre-Ubly channel diverted drainage during post-glacerial times, and created a long narrow lake or bay through Greenleaf township,

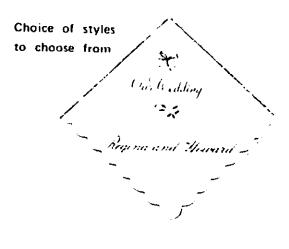

Weston has noted that faunafound in the earth at the stone wall site suggests a lake fed existed at the location. He also points out that similar stone walls exist on both sides of the ancient lake basin, which

He said the rocks show a "beach prowhich supports the theory, Weston recalls one additional theory offered by Craabrook Institute a few years ago, . that the boulders were dropped there through cracks in the glacier. Mrs. Ethel Bird's farm re- torh down a number of years t centennial farm--but it came

Mrs. Bird's farm, located at 7340 Bay City-Forestville Rd., has been owned by her husband's family continuously since 1856, when over 300 acres adjacent to the present 80-acre farm was settled. She could have applied for centennial status at that time but just never got around

"My daughter-in-law kept at said, "so I finally got the forms and sent them off."

Her daughter-in-law, whose stepfather is William Profit, former Tuscola County Register of Deeds, had wanted the istinction made for years. Profit had told Mrs. Bird it could be easily handled by him. Finally, this year the forms were obtained and sent to Lansing for verification. She resigned by Governor William Milliken and Secretary of State Richard Austin making it of-ficial. Additionally, a plaque will be given to her for placement in front of her house.

School board okays $1.5 million budget

The Cass City School Board okayed a $1.5 million budget calling for slightly more than an 8 per cent increase in ex-penditures following the annual budget hearing Monday night at Cass City High School. It was a record high budget for the school reflecting higher costs in nearly every de-

The money for the increased costs will come through ex-panded State-aid payments and increases in valuation of prop erty in the district. The operincreased. Total millage for all purposes is 17 1/2.

It is expected that valuation will be in the neighborhood of $30 million. This increase will jump local tax revenues about $90,000. The rest of the $128,138 increase in the budget over last year comes from state payments.

The Iton's share of the increased cost will go for teachers' salaries. It will jump a

DNR worries as more state campers carry guns

Armed campers make a new problem for recreation officials. About 18% of those responding to a survey at state camp grounds this year adpossessing f according to a study described by U-M's S. Ross Tocher. This is up from 7% who admitted such possession last year. The thought is that the actual perer than those who admit having Campers admit being uneasy or even afraid to be in the tection and feel safer with the guns. Park officials are worried that a serious melee could develop if troublemakers provoked a fight and shooting should actually start. Troublemakers whose interests are vastly different from the campers, usually family groups, who have been using parks for years. groups or others who come in parties late at night. The possibility that the "protection" will set off a real tragedy is a problem of first importance, and recreation officials are hoping to head off anything disastrous before it so is still the problem.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

No more collegiate football: It's an unthinkable thought for many fans, but Don Canham, director of athletics at University of Michigan, says things will have to change if big time more than 10 years.

Higher expenses are killing the program. Canham points first to the stadiums. "There 0 ye " he points out.

becoming more expensive to maintain." Renovation cost at Michigan's stadium is $1 million per year. This year the and plumbing is $93,000. And the scholarship program for players keeps going up. The cost of supplying tuition, is agreed among Big Ten schools) is $800,000 this year, up sharply because of a 37% increase in tuition and other rising costs. Competition from pro teams bites hard into the lar which used to be earmarked for the college team, a situation which isn't expected

It's hard to imagine fall coming without college football, and to remedy the situation. But stranger things have happened, and nothing goes on forever,

> CHRISTMAS IS COMING Michigan lawmakers are back in Lansing for a falf session that Gov. William Milliken calls Milliken says the Legislature made "good progress" this year, what with a "reasonable" budget, a "sound" tax reduction program and an education reform program which could become a model for the country. But he wants to see more progress, in such areas as consumerism, judicial reform, election and campaign expense reform, possibly even land use programs.

The question is: How much movement can be made in controversial areas with just two months before Christmas, especially if lawmakers take their traditional break for hunting season and Thanksgiving?

TAX VS. TAX VS. VOTES

CASS CITY CHRONICLE-THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1973

Down Memory Lane

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

FIVE YEARS AGO

Inability of several school districts to agree to the proposed Tri-county Community College has placed a serious stumbling block before supporters of the facility for the Thumb.

The First Baptist Church of Cass City is purchasing property owned by the Warren Kelleys adjacent to its present church site on Houghton Street.

Not everyone was skunked on the opening day of pheasant hunting Monlay. At least two Cass City nimrods reported Plans have been completed for the second annual Halloween window decorating contest in Cass City sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and directed by Mrs. Karen Wallace, art teacher at the high school.

The Caro Tigers will be the odds-on favorite to claw up the Hawks when the two meet at Caro to renew their traditional rivalry Friday night.

Taxes for 1963 rose to $3,079,961.40 or $93,808.81 over last year's low of $2,-981,152.69. The raise was due mainly to increased valuation through new and improved construction in the county. The District 15 fall meeting of the Michigan Jaycees Saturday at Cass City High School was highlighted by the presentation of awards and an address by G. Merrit Martin. Evergreen township voters approved a two-room addition to the Evergreen Township Unit School Saturday by more than a two to one margin. The vote was 71 in favor and 31 against. Cass City Band Boosters are determined to secure new uniforms for the band and are in the midst of an intensive drive to secure items for a fundraising auction to be held Saturday, Nov 2.

Cass City is slated to get its annual fall face-lift next week with the advent of the Clean-up, Fix-up and Paint-up campaign to be held Oct.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO Willis Campbell, superintendent of Cass City Public Schools, has been elected to membership in the Council for Vocational Education Administration, an advisory group to the Department of Public Instruction.

Family night was observed Friday evening when members of the Women's Society of World Service of the Evangelical United Brethren Church entertained in the church basement at a program on China. The Presbyterian Guild Society has voted to raise $100.00 for Alma College, The annual membership drives of the American Juntor Red Cross in Tuscola and Santlac counties will begin Nov. 1, according to Mrs. Henry Spiekerman, Tuscola chairman, and Miss Lillian Dunlap, chairman in Sanilae county.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO Dr. Thomas Carney of Alma, Rotary District Governor, complimented area Rotarians on their participation in the construction of the community swimming poet, or, Carney made his comments at the Tuesday luncheon of the Rotary Club

Mrs. Harold Evans of Gagetown was the recipient of $83,50 as an Appreciation Day gift in Cass City Wednesday afternoon. This is the largest sum presented since gifts of this nature have been bestowed.

Cass City Motor Sales began selling the 1939 Oldsmobile this week.

Gifford OES names officers

Gifford chapter OES of Gagetown elected officers for the coming year at the annual meet-ing Oct. 16. Installation of officers will take place Nov. 2 at 8 p.m. Elected were: worthy matron, Mrs. Glenda Wilson; worthy patron, John Marshall; associate matron, Mrs. Beverly Hartman; associate pairon, Howard Helwig; secretary, Mrs. George Hendershot, and treasurer, Merton Hendershot. Con-ductress is Miss Fronda Mellendorf and associate conductress, Mrs. Merton Hendershot. Reports of recent Grand chapter sessions held in Grand Rapids were given by Mrs. Linda Ashmore, Mrs. Glenda Wilson and Fronda Mellendorf.

Oftentimes a physician will tell his patient to take a certain drug either before or after a meal. If the patient is to take the drug before a meal, it may be that the doctor wants the medicine to be absorbed from an empty stomach quickly. Most drugs are given after a meal because if taken on an empty tomach, they may irritate or damage the mucous lining or lining. Many drugs can be taken at any time of day, as they are fully.

Another thing that probably few people think of is that sometimes the dosage of a medicine given has to be adjusted to the weight of the patient. For instance, the amount of medicine that would be sufficient for a girl of 10, weighing perhaps 70 pounds, would not be suit-able for her aunt, who weighs 259 pounds. In order to get the desired effect, the aunt would have to take a larger dose.
Also, some people are much less sensitive to drugs than are others, and as a result, they have to take a bigger-than-usual dose.

The man who can drink four martinis before he shows any effect may need more of a sleepmaker before it works well than does the man who feels a bit light-headed after only a few sips of a mortini. Even more remarkable are the people who will say that they respond to a drug in re-more and more folks is going back to small towns to shop.

That is good news, and if we can git rid of drive-in wind-ers fer everthing from banks to funeral homes, we can git back to the business of dealing with one another face to face.

The piece didn't say why folks are trading more with their friends in their hometown stores, but I figger they got lonesome. I reckon I'm to old a dog to learn modern shopping tricks, but I ain't about to poke my money thru a hole in a bank wall, and I git tired to quick trying to walk them down and tell the folks what I want and, by darn, set there til they git me satisfied.

I mentioned about the trade coming back to the small towns during the session at the country store Saturday night. Zeke Grubb come up with his theory fast. He said it use to be a small town, but nowadays wim-men dress about alike everwhere. Bug Hookum allowed that the reason was that small town folks is staying at home run over by all the bicycles zipping around them shopping

Practical speaking, said Ed Deolittle, he was glad to see cars sold in this country last year. He said it made him recall the days when bicycles was transportation. Fer a gen-shops and if gas prices keep going up and supply down, we might even git back to the blacksmith shop.

Actual, said Clem Webster, the blacksmith is back. Clem had saw where colleges is offering training as "farriers," and that's a fancy word fer a feller that shoes horses. Black-smiths are called farriers,

Clem sald, cause these days they are pulling down incomes right up there with brick-masons, doctors and plumbers. Mister Editor, with all the scratching and scrambling in high and low places over power and money, it's good to think about the days when all you had to do to keep up with the Joneses was walk as fast as they did. Now we spend it afore we git it, and if we don't have credit we can't git credit.

The Upper Thumb Board of Realtors held the annual installation of officers at the Franklin Inn in Bad Axe Thursday, with 95 Realtors and guests

Officers elected for 1974 are Syl Lubaczewski of Caro, president; Doc Clabuesch of Caseville, vice-president; B. A. Calka of Cass City, secretary; Jerry O'Toole of Forestville, assistant secretary, and John Gilbert of Akron, treasurer. Ed McNulty of Lexington, Clare Wait of Sandusky and Ray Nim-itz of Caseville were named directors.

The speaker was Richard O'Neil, vice-president of the Michigan Realtor Association. O'Neil explained the new Michigan Land Sales Act which became effective Oct. 1. This law is intended to control the selling of lots and the division of farms into parcels. Violations of this law are punishable by fines of $10,000.00 to $25,-000.00 or up to five years in Tuscola, Huron and Sanilac

I was talking about my kid. When she throws the baton up, people in the next town cover their heads with their arms."

So now comes Chris with the glorious news that she's been nominated, along with 5 other girls, for homecoming queen. The winner, selected by vote of the entire school, will be crowned during halftime at the football game. The 6 girls will be escorted onto he fleld by their fathers. Their fathers! My god, that's

I keep looking for their leashes. And besides, the value of a beauty crown has certainly been decreased considerably by the frequency of the crownings. Today there are queens selected to reign over all events except funerals. There is a Miss World, a Miss Everytown and a Miss Sacroiliac. Superintendent's Statement

The financial condition of the school district remained sound at the close of the 1972-73 fiscal year with the audit showing an increase in working capital of about $69,000. Two major projects, remodeling the Intermediate Home Economics Room and resurfacing the drive at the Intermediate School, will substantially reduce that amount. Those projects were scheduled for the 1972-73 year but were not completed.

No real financial problems are anticipated for 1973-74. However, an operating millage election should be held during the year to provide for the year following. Under the state aid act now in force, it will be to the advantage of the tax payers and the school district to convert a portion of the debt retirement levy to operation beginning with the 1974-75 school year. To do this, an increase in operating millage must be approved by the electorate. Approval of the increase in operating millage will not increase the local tax rate. The operational levy will increase but the debt retirement levy will be decreased by the same amount. The school will benefit by receiving increased funds from the State.

If anyone has questions regarding the audit, the state
