District renting classrooms

Board eyes loss of Owen-Gage gym

The Owendale-Gagetown School Board Monday night approved the renting of St. Agatha School in Gagetown for the 1977-78 school year. It was the first of several steps the board will have to take due to the loss of the 1913 classroom building and gymnasium at Owen-Gage High School this year for construction of a new high school building.

Supt. Ronald G. Erickson reported that demolition of the old building may start as soon as late August. At the latest, as reported at the board's July 25 meeting, it will start in late September. The board approved renting rental of the building. Erickthe St. Agatha building for $11,500, which is $1,000 more son indicated that the rental than when it last rented it, in 1975-76. The building has four classrooms and a library, which is to be used as a band room.

High School principal James Barr reported use of the building will mean grades K-7 attending school in Gagetown and 8-12 in Owendale. Previously, grades K-4 plus part of the fifth grade were in Gagetown; the rest of the fifth through 12th grade in Owendale. It will mean a shift of no price was the result of negotiation between the church and school district, so approval of the rental agreement should be a formality.

One problem is that there is no room for home economics. Erickson told the board he will have a recommendation at the board's special meeting Aug. 23 on the purchase or rental of a portable classroom unit to house home economics classes. The other problem the board will have to wrestle with Aug. 23 is where to schedule varsity basketball games in 1977-78.

dale will initially be used for storage of building materials by the contractor and will later be converted into a cafeteria.

Barr reported varsity coach Phil Gray has recommended three alternatives: Don't start renovation of the present gym until March, rent a gym, or don't play any home games. Board members added a fourth, play at least some games in the Gagetown Elementary gym. Eight home games are scheduled in 1977-78.

There was disagreement over the seating capacity of

The present gym at Owen- the Gagetown gym. Barr said, "We would not be able to accommodate crowds in here (Gagetown) at all." Some board members said the capacity of the two gyms is about the same.

> Even without the varsity Superintendent games, Erickson said, "The gym over here will be going fulltime." (The board met at Gagetown.)

The high school principal reported that agriculture is being dropped in 1977-78. Only six or seven students, he said, signed up for the first year program, not enough to justify use of the required two classrooms for two periods a day. If enough students are still interested, Barr indicated, it may be possible to arrange for the students to take ag classes in another school district.

OTHER BUSINESS

To forestall a possible deficit, the board approved a was presented, calling for 5-cent increase in lunch school to start Sept. 6. Christprices. Lunch will now be 35 mas vacation will be Dec. cents for grades K-6, 45 cents 23-Jan. 2. The final day of for 7-12, and 60 cents for school will be June 8. adults:

Erickson was asked by the board to have bids submitted for its Aug. 23 meeting for repair of the roof over the cafeteria and special educa-tion room at Gagetown. The meeting was held in the cafeteria, where the ceiling has several stains from leaking water and there are buckets on the floor to catch the drips.

A 1977-78 school calendar

ing, from 7:30-9 p.m., the board conducted a hearing in closed session concerning what the superintendent termed an "alleged grievance" from a teacher.

The board declined to accept a letter from Huron County Treasurer Arnold Schweitzer, relating to levying of taxes based on the county equalized valuation for Huron county, not the state equalized valuation. The county figure is lower.

CLOSED SESSION Prior to the regular meet-

Board members felt the dispute over equalized valuation is between the Huron County Board of Commissioners and the state.

Board sticks to plan for curriculum study

The Cass City Board of Education refused to buckle under pressure applied by parents hoping for the addition of a band man to the school staff at its regular meeting Monday night. Trustees voted 4-2 against adding an assistant director.

Two pleaded guilty in Tuscola County District Court Monday to charges of concealing stolen property under $100. Their pleas were in connection with an incident that started in the Colony House parking lot and ended with their being pursued by the rental hall's owner.

Pleading guilty to the charges were John A. Farver, 21, and David Neu, 21, both of 321 Grove Street, Sebewaing. District Judge Richard F. Kern released both on their own recognizance, pending sentencing Aug. 22.

The incident started at 12:15 a.m. Sunday, when Colony House owner Marvin Winter observed a man taking a spare tire and wheel from a four-wheel-drive vehicle in the parking lot.

The man put the spare in the trunk of his car and drove off. There was a passenger in the car.

pay increase

Members of the Cass City Board of Education voted unanimously not to raise salaries at its regular meeting Monday night at the high school.

According to a new law, trustees had the option of upping pay to $30 a meeting for 52 meetings a year. Instead they voted to leave their salary at its 🖠 present level: $40 per vear. Besides the token payment, the board has the option to attend school board meetings once a year, at a location that is shifted annually to various sites across the nation, at taxpayer ex-2 pense.

Winter went to a nearby house and asked the occupants to call the state police. When troopers arrived, the two cars were facing each other and the stolen spare tire was on the ground.

The passenger in the car had fled. He was later arrested by state police from the Bad Axe post at his home in Sebewaing.

Farver was arrested at the scene at 1 a.m.; Neu at his home. Both were taken to the county jail in Caro. Owner of the stolen spare tire was Terry Balzer of Unionville. Ronald J. Mozden of 1520 N. Kingston Road, Deford, reported to sheriff's deputies Thursday, Aug. 4, that his $1,700 motorcycle was stolen.

He said he returned from vacation to find the machine missing from an outbuilding on his property. The 1977 125cc Penton was painted orange,

Mozden said a younger brother, Mark, who lives down the road, checked July 20 and found it missing but assumed that he (Mozden)

Cass City police at 6:10 p.m. Friday arrested John M. Hayes of 4056 Koepigen Road in downtown Cass City on a charge of being drunk in a public place. Monday, before District Judge Richard F. Kern, he pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly person. He was placed on one year probation, fined $20, and assessed $35 court costs.

Dale E. Ewald of 232 Bruisee Road, Caro, told Caro state police Saturday morning that $871 in building materials were stolen during the night from a home he is building on Leix Road, north of M-46. Taken were 70 sheets of half-inch plywood, valued at $10 each, and 29 studs of various lengths.

Alvin Ortman of Frankenmuth told Cass City police Thursday, Aug. 4, that someone put sawdust in the cooling system of his bulldozer, which he is using in the woods at the end of Wilsie Road. The deed was done in April, but the cause of the resulting overheating wasn't discovered until now. Damage was estimated at $20.

Roger Bergman of 6704 Main Street told local police Thursday, Aug. 4, that sometime after midnight, someone took the citizens band radio antenna from his car. The car was parked in his yard.

It was a night of heated debate. A recurring problem was brought before the board by Mrs. Burnette. It was the condition of the Intermediate School. Mrs. Burnette told the board that something must be done. I've had it with that school, she said. I'm tired of talking about it. I find no reason why it can't be cleaned, she told the board and the spectators present. She claimed the halls, lockers, and bathrooms are not clean. Jim Fox, custodian in charge of the building, told the board that the annual summer cleaning of the walls and of the bathrooms has not been completed.

OTHER BUSINESS

The board voted to have a tax shortage of about $4,000 collected from Huron county members of the district. Huron county had not paid taxes on the basis of state equalized valuation and now must do so. The Caro square dance club was granted permission to rent the Campbell gym the first and third Saturday of each month during the season. The standard charge of $3 plus custodial fees will be made.

On a motion by Hoag, the board voted unanimously to allow the summer olympics to use Cass City's gym facilities. The olympics were spread over the Thumb this year. It will be entirely in Cass City next year. Costs of using school facilities will increase. Because of raises in the Last week the topic was the one-cent postcard and the three-cent letter. Many of you remembered. This week I saw a letter with a postage fee that most of you won't remember. Lee Hendrick brought in a letter that his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Arlen Hendrick, Peck, found while cleaning a tenant house.

The letter was postmarked Fruit Ridge, Michigan, and was mailed in 1920 with a one-cent stamp. The letter was from the Michigan State Grange to Richard Frank, the father of Mrs. Hendrick. (Fruit Ridge? You've got to be kidding.)

The Chronicle's composing room is far from sumptuous unless you compare it to what we used as little as 5 years

It's carpeted and air conditioned. Granted the carpet is, well, it's worn that's what it is, and the air conditioning is only a window unit. But it's tremendous compared to what we had downstairs in years past.

This bit of trivia was triggered as I looked at the paint job that we completed in one of the upstairs rooms and the comparison with the dank rooms that still house the presses in the back of the shop.

That back shop is better than it was 25 years ago - but just barely.

Small world department: Paula Ann-Marie "Ami" Ivarsson stopped in New Jersey to visit on her way home to Sweden after a year here as an exchange student.

She was visiting cousins and they took her to visit friends. The friends are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Singer who are Editor Mike Eliasohn's aunt and uncle.

Benoit Couvreur, one of the Belgian exchange students spending three weeks here, returned home with $120 worth of records. That would be a record purchase for an American but it's nothing special for the 11 Belgians.

They all bought record amounts. That's because of the record low prices here compared to the record high prices in Belgium. Puns intended.

The Lapeer County Press tells of a new person in the Dryden area whose wife needed emergency dental work and was turned down by dentist after dentist before finding one to help out.

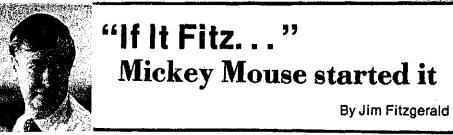

Cass City is ahead in that respect. It has been difficult at times to find regular dental service locally because of the patient load but to my knowledge no one in pain has ever had to suffer for lack of care.

The good feeling left with big band fans who attended the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra show sponsored by Rotary last year is helping sell Woody Herman tickets this year.

The Thundering Herd is at the Colony House Tuesday, Aug. 16, and it's likely that it will be jammed again this year. The reception this season has Rotarians smiling. Not because a profit is assured, but because chances of a loss have been minimized

Big bands demand big prices and there is always that chance that the event will not "crack the nut"

The promoters of the rock festival for school sports in Bay City know all about that.

section.

The answer is Mickey Mouse.

The question was which internationally revered institution got me in the most trouble when I attacked it.

A reader guessed I probably caught the most flak from my recent column questioning the Bible. She was wrong.

Based on reader response - threatening letters and thrown bricks - my most unpopular column was one written after my wife dragged me into Disney World.

A typical reaction came from a Pontiac woman. "Fitzgerald, you are in the same class with Scrooge, Dillinger and Baby Face Nelson," she said. "Why don't you go jump into an alligator swamp?"

Incidentally, Disney World probably has an alligator swamp, $3 a jump, with a waiting list so long it includes the unborn.

After the beating I took from Mickey Mouse freaks, I'm convinced you could put the Disney label on leprosy and 90 per cent of the world would sail, paddle or swim to Molokai Island. And they would all buy Louie Leper T-shirts to give to the 10 per cent who had sense enough to stay home.

The family that reveres Walt Disney together is the family that stays together, prays together, and flees together from an "R" rated world. Everyone knows that.

But I never saw a Disney movie I couldn't sleep through. I wouldn't insult my family by asking them to laugh at talking cars and Fred MacMurray bouncing over buildings. I didn't want my children to grow up thinking the streets of Los Angeles are paved with flubber Fact is, I always took my teenagers to "adult" movies that would soil their minds if they weren't accompanied by a parent with a damp sponge. One sex scene in technicolor is worth 1,000 words from a dumb father who learned procreation from the rack boy at Curley's Poolroom.

So I wasn't surprised that the only thing I wanted to do in Disney World was escape. And I wasn't surprised that a nation full of Donald Duck kids who has forgotten which dwarf he parked in).

I came away from magic land with tremendous respect for the precision and efficiency of the Disney people. They handle gigantic crowds without wasting a movement or a minute.

Endless railings keep you in line (don't sit on the rails; they're for herding, not comfort). Recorded voices continually tell you to face right. turn right, and leave by the exits on the right.

There is little doubt that Mrs. David Burnette is doing her best for the Cass City School district since being elected two short months ago to the board.

There is a great deal of doubt about the way she is trying to do it.

Monday night she was the most vocal of the board members, making a motion that had no hope of passing and fingering the "dirty" Intermediate School building.

After she finished her vocal acrobatics nothing changed. There's a way to get things accomplished as a member of the board of education. Hepefully when Mrs. Burnette becomes a little more experienced she will learn it.

According to experts in the field, the calls I received are like a light sprinkle of rain before the hurricane hits. Junk phone calls may just replace much of the junk mail we all are bombarded with these days.

The reason is two-fold. The cost of distribution for junk mail is going up and new equipment is pouring out that makes calling easier and less expensive.

Pauline, McArthur played the piano Sunday at the First Baptist church in Cass City. She's been doing it for 50 years.

To commemorate her halfcentury of service to the congregation, music committee chairman Mrs. Dick Shaw presented her with a corsage and engraved locket on behalf of the committee and church members.

The young people's choir sang and organist Don Greenleaf played a special piano number in her honor. Pat Wells gave a reading, which she wrote for the occasion.

Mrs. McArthur had only been going to the First Baptist church a few weeks back in the summer of 1927 when she was asked to play the piano. She doesn't recall the exact date she first played there, so Sunday's celebration may be a few weeks off one way or the other from being exactly 50 years.

Mrs. McArthur, 73, also doesn't recall exactly when she started playing the piano, but believes she was around 11 or 12. She lived in Pontiac then

Only one of three occupants received possible injuries in a car rollover Monday night on Kelly Road, east of Englehart Road.

Taylor reported Gibson was westbound on Kelly when the steering wheel came off in his hands. The car went off the right side of the road into a ditch and rolled over twice, coming to rest on its top.

An eight-year-old Ubly girl was reported in fair condition at St. Luke's Hospital in Saginaw, where she has been since an auto accident July 30 northeast of Cass City. The girl, Rochelle Puvalowski, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aloise Puvalowski

She and her sister, Michelle, 5, were passengers in a car driven by their brother. Larry, 21, also of Ubly. According to Sandusky state police, he was southbound on M-53 at 7:15 p.m. and attempting to turn left onto Ritter Road when he collided with a car driven by Lawrence Horan, 17, of Warren. The Horan car, also southbound, was attempting to pass the Puvalowski auto, troopers said.

Both Rochelle and her sister were thrown from the car. Michelle was taken to Hills and Dales General Hospital in Cass City, where she was released Wednesday, Aug. 3. Their brother and his wife, Annette (Mickey), were reported shaken up but did not require treatment. A passenger in the Horan car, David Kaatz, 24, of St. Clair Shores, reportedly required treatment by a private physician.

Robert J. Gabler, 15, of 5423 S. Cemetery Road, Kingston, was treated and released at Marlette Community Hospital after a motorcycle accident on private property Thursday afternoon, Aug. 4. PEDALING AROUND More doctors, more industry By Mike Eliasohn

One thing bothered me in writing the article for last week's Chronicle about the effort being made here to attract more doctors to come to Cass City.

What bothers me is that when I worked for the newspaper in Three Rivers, that community was trying to attract more doctors. When I worked for the paper in Monroe, that community was trying to attract more doctors.

The head of the recruitment committee in Three Rivers, I might add, was the wife of the newest doctor in town.

A town located near Three Rivers (south of Kalamazoo) is Marcellus. I recall reading about a year ago that citizens of that community built a clinic in the hopes of attracting a doctor. The clinic had been completed about a year and still no doctor.

I'm bothered the same way whenever I mention the Cass City industrial park in my writing. Three Rivers was looking for more industry and so was Monroe. Both communities also had the problems of trying to keep the industry already there (paper companies in both instances) from closing.

I am not being critical of efforts in Cass City to attract industry and doctors. I hope both are successful.

What bothers me is that with very few exceptions, almost all communities are trying to attract more industry and more doctors.

And in many instances, when a community does attract one or the other, more jobs are not being created or a new doctor is not opening an office.

What is happening is that the industry involved closed a plant elsewhere, so one com-

Equipment Co., makers of Monroe shock absorbers. Although the multi-million headquarters of the firm was there (actually outside of Monroe in a township), the firm closed the last of its two manufacturing plants in Monroe, if I remember, in 1965. Its plants are now in the south and elsewhere. If a doctor with an already established practice moves to a community, that means a community elsewhere lost a doctor.

The solution to the doctor shortage is simple. Train more doctors. Unfortunately, building more medical schools is very expensive and is a cost that must be borne by

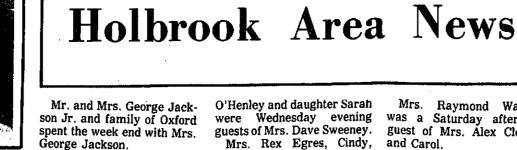

And as has been exhibited in the Michigan legislature, which university gets a new medical school also becomes a political football.

The problem of industry is not as easily solved. If almost every community is trying to attract industry, that must mean that there are a lot more people needing jobs than there are jobs available. And since every community can't get as much industry as it wants, it must mean there

Education does not open the door to success, but it does furnish its possessor the key.

It has been suggested that we pay off the national debt and let all future generations spend their own money.

There are many ingredients that make success a reality, but the real secret is the ability to deliver the goods.

The newly organized Cass City Area Historical Society will meet Monday, Aug. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cultural Center.

JUNK -- Jerry Collier's mini-class tractor drew lots of attention Thursday night at the Tuscola County Fair for an unfortunate reason. The Dundee resident was on 1-75, about a mile south of M-81, when a car struck his trailer. The tractor was knocked off, landing in three pieces on the pavement. Collier (at right, arms raised) came to Caro anyway and told his unfortunate story to interested onlookers. The tractor was valued at about $5,000.

Gasoline consumption sets record in May

GAS GUZZLING GREATER

Ruggles, Melissa Perry, Me-Darleen It may be the start of a Schunn, Carie Denhoff, Karri disturbing trend: gasoline Barry, Julie Galvebensky, consumption in May set an Randy Buckmaster, Carrie all-time record for Michigan. Stoick Tanya Sansota, Diane State energy officials are Schoenow, Linda Witkovsky, particularly concerned be-Cathy Varney, Gayle Rugcause May is not typically the month of highest gasoline sales.

But the 455.2 million gallons sold to motorists in May topped the previous record 447.9 million set in August, 1973. That earlier record was set just a few months before the Arab oil embargo and resulting shortages of gas.

Officials are eagerly await-ing sales totals for June. If this year follows the trend, June gasoline consumption will be even higher than May's.

Why consumption is up is anybody's guess, although indications are that Michiganders are traveling more within the state and at speeds that average more than 55

Meanwhile on Michigan highways, state police troopers have been told to crack down on truckers whose loads are not properly covered. A new Michigan law that took effect last spring requires that loose cargo like sand and gravel be either covered completely or piled so it doesn't easily slide out of the truck.

But state police director Gerald Hough says his troopers are getting many complaints from motorists whose cars have been damaged by debris flying from improperly covered trucks.

Hough says troopers will conduct more frequent checks of trucking companies and individual truckers to make sure they comply with the law.

Estimates are that motorists suffered $11 million damage to auto windows alone in Ketchum, MacLeod & Grove. Inc., of Pittsburgh, to undertake an initial three-fold bean promotion program. at $100,000, for the first year. It is possible only because all bean growers are now paying their assessments, and because of the 2-cent increase in per-hundredweight assessment, said commission chairman Richard Leach Jr. of Saginaw.

"We don't know what future years will require, but we do know that promoting on a nation-wide scale is tremendously costly. However, the commission believes it is the one big opportunity to place beans into a new class as a food item. We feel it can be done.'

Maynard D. Brownlee of Lansing, secretary-manager of the Commission, said that Ketchum, MacLeod & Grove was chosen because it has had a phenomenal success record with other commodities, notably potatoes, raisins, strawberries and grapes.

"In the case of potatoes" Brownlee declared, "KM&G's campaign has been a classic in agricultural pro-motion, so that it's used at Harvard to teach marketing." Bee Marks and Jacob En-gle, vice-presidents of the agency, told the commission that "our mission is to put more beans on more dining tables and into more restaurants than ever before."

They told commission members they have already conducted a preliminary survey of 100 households which shows that beans are regarded as being convenient to serve, that they are usually regarded as a side-dish, that they're a good budget item, but that they're mainly selected "for kids". The survey showed that beans are thought to rate low as an adult

article –

Dear Readers:

This is a personal message in response to the article "Attracting doctors no easy task" in the Cass City Chronicle. August 3, 1977.

I deeply regret that the article seemed to indicate a quite different view than the original context of the interview that I granted to Mike Eliasohn.

I would like to emphasize the following points:

1. Mr. Jensen, the administrator of Hills and Dales General Hospital, acknowledged that the phrase "selfcentered and egotistic" was an unfortunate mistake in describing the situation. He wishes to retract the phrase. The Chronicle owes me an apology.

2. There is no negative

August 5, 1977 feeling between myself and Hills and Dales General Hospital. I believe I contributed as much for the hospital as I would have gained experience and rewards from it. Also I believe Mr. Jensen does not have an untoward feeling about me, since he has been here for only three > months. 3. My departure is not any way related to the suspicion that I am simply leaving after taking advantage of one year's free rent as the article seems to indicate.

4. Over all my practice in Cass City for the last four years has been a rewarding experience. I have learned much. I am leaving with nice memories and warm affections shown by my patients and friends.

Thank you and good-bye.

Christopher Y. Kim, M.D.

administrator

Mr. Michael Eliasohn The Cass City Chronicle 6550 Main Street Cass City, Michigan 48726

Dear Mike:

I was very disappointed in your reporting of the interview we had in my office on July 29th.

To my knowledge, we were discussing the reasons for non-referrals between Medical Staff members, when I indicated to you a reason could be religion, ethnic background, past performance, a self centered or egotistical individual and a raft of other reasons, etc. And this statement was made in a general context, not a specific one.

Your reporting that I said Dr. Kim is self centered and egotistical is not correct. Moreover, the statement relating to pathology is also incorrect. A pathologist does not become involved in a surgical case until after the procedure has been done. At which time, he determines whether the tissue removed was diseased or not. Unfortunately, your article completely negated the desired effect of our full page display in this weeks Chronicle.

I would appreciate your apology to Dr. Kim.

Sincerely,

Ken E. Jensen Administrator

Board okays jail contract

The Tulcola County Board of Commissioners Tuesday approved a two-year preventative maintenance contract with a jail maintenance firm for the county jail. The contract, for $1,750 a year, was with a firm headed by Lee Elmhoff of Lakeview. Commissioners approved the contract after Undersheriff Bruce Tait told commissioners that the locks in the 10-year-old jail had never

The board took under consideration a request from Dwight Lewis of the county veterans affairs council, that the county pay for the cement markers for veterans' grave sites. Metal plaques provided by the federal government are attached to the markers. Presently, the markers are provided by townships, if they have their own cemetery Board Chairman Maynard McConkey said he didn't know whether any townships then charge families for the markers.

PBB law

Gov, William G. Milliken signed into law Aug. 2 legislation (House Bill 4109), which will reduce human exposure to PBB in Michigan to the lowest amount possible. Under provisions of the law, all dairy animals born before Jan. 1, 1976, will be required to have an individual fat biopsy taken prior to being sent to market. If tests show PBB in excess of .02 parts per million, the animal will be destroyed and the farmer will be reimbursed for the fair market value of the animal. The Department of Natural Resources will dispose of any animals which are destroyed. The law also requires the testing of bulk milk tanks. If a bulk milk test indicates PBB at a level exceeding .005 parts per million, the farmer will not be allowed to ship the milk. Milk samples will be taken from each cow in the herd to determine and eliminate the source of the PBB contamination. During the time milk is withheld from the market, farmers will be reimbursed 90 per cent of its value The law will take effect in 60 days. The Governor said state agriculture and budget officials expect to finalize contracts with laboratories this week to accomplish the testing of several hundred dairy cattle fat samples each week. The laboratory facilities are expected to be available at about the time the new law takes effect.

"I am hopeful that the method of testing dairy cattle only as they are being culled Milliken said.

Michigan food has won final legislative approval.

Gov. Milliken, who backed it all along as a safety precaution, is expected to sign it.

It could force the destruction of up to 34,000 more Michigan dairy cows, those estimated by agriculture officials to exceed the new, more stringent guidelines set for PBB in food.

The bill would slash the current federally set guideline of 300 parts per billion to 20 parts per billion. Farmers whose animals had to be destroyed because they did not meet the new standard would be reimbursed with state money for their losses.

WE WISH TO thank everyone for cards and gifts and those who visited us while in the hospital and since we have been home. Especially Rev. Tatgenhorst, Rev. Yoder and Rev. Prong and everyone for prayers. Milford and Martha Robinson. 13-8-11-1

I WOULD LIKE to say thanks to Dr. Jeung, nurses and staff of Hills and Dales Hospital. Also to my relatives, friends and neighbors for visits, flowers, cards and gifts while I was a patient there and in Saginaw General. Sanford 13-8-11-1 Powell.

THE FAMILY of Beryle Waun wish to thank the many relatives, friends and neighbors who showed us so much kindness and support-during the illness and death of our loved one. A special thanks to Rev. Louis Pingel for his wonderful message and comforting words, Mrs. Jack (Cleo) Eaton for her special song selections, the Good Shepherd Lutheran church and the ladies for their fine luncheon after the service. A special thanks for all the flowers, memorials, cards and kind expressions of sympathy and to Little's Funeral Home for all their fine services. ADJOURNMENT DELAYS STATE POLICE QUESTION

Bleary-eyed from lack of sleep and lack of progress, Michigan legislators went home for the summer at about 9 p.m. July 8 - leaving unresolved a bitter controversy over whether the state police should expand their city freeway patrols beyond Detroit to other metropolises. After days of futily trying to reach a compromise on the question, the state Senate adjourned in exasperation. And since the House could do nothing by itself, it too adjourned

The abrupt adjournment followed about a week of work that sent some $3.5 million in budget bills to the governor's desk. The appropriations will fund education and government operations in the fiscal year starting Oct. 1.

..... Too many legislators full-time politicians

The following was gleaned from the Oxford Leader which picked it up from a column written by Bob Myers, publisher of the Lapeer County Press. Like the Leader, the Chronicle feels it is worth passing on. It was about 25 years ago, when I was farming, that I was irritated by the daily papers' frequent use of the term, "Farmer-dominated legislature." I counted heads and found there were more lawyers than farmers in the legislature. While the dailies were preoccupied by the farmers stealing some oats, the lawyers were making off with the barn. About all the farmers in the legislature could do was get a bigger appropriation for county fairs and fight a delaying action against yellow oleo.

In the meantime, the lawyers were winning tax breaks for their business and industrial clients. So my ears perked the other day when I heard a lawyer complain that the teachers were now running the legislature. I counted again.

Of our 148 legislators, 23 are teachers, while 18 are lawyers and 14 are farmers.

But the real surprise was this: The real control of the legislature is now in the hands of the professional politician.

There are now 48 legislators who have never drawn anything but a government paycheck.

Their entire career has been as a military, civil service, appointed or elected employee of government. The number includes some of the 23 teachers.

Mostly these are the younger people. A typical biographical sketch reads like this:

DENNIS DUTKO (Macomb Co.): BA degree Western Michigan, MA Wayne State. Teacher. Elected president of Warren city council at 25. Elected Macomb Co. Commissioner in 1970. Member, executive committee Macomb County Democrats and executive committee 18th Congressional District Democrats. Elected to Legislature 1974.

It's plain that a growing number of people are starting early in life to plan a career in government. I suppose it's all right, but I'd feel better if they had a year or so experience paying taxes before they began living off them.
