Community booster

Young businessman heads village auto parts firm

Cass City Chamber of Commerce about community boosters who are members of the organization.

Brian McMahan has been in Cass City for a little over a year, moving to the community from Pinconning to take over the management of McMahan Auto Parts in partnership with his parents.

He quickly became a part of the Cass City community and is engaged to a Cass City girl.

Born and raised in Pinconning, Brian attended Delta College for two years and worked in various automotive parts stores and machine shops to gain experience.

He took over the parts store at 6647 Main Street July 15, 1978. The store

Editor's note: this is one of features a complete autoa series sponsored by the motive machine shop, auto parts, paints and car components. McMahan is the son of Clifford and Priscilla Mc-Mahan. He attends the Deford Community church.

Twenty-five of the competitors were selected in local pageants. Miss Eckenswiller was one of seven selected of 15 girls who participated in an at-large event in Zeeland as there was no local pageant in their area.

The seven were selected on the basis of a physical fitness routine, poise and appearance and talent.

School was somewhat subtly yet most obviously a liberally religious musical on the The Chronicle article on the Cass City School Board's life of Jesus Christ. Yet why decision is another example was this not banned? If Gideon Bible distribution is banned because of the violation mentioned before, why was not this also some-When examining this what religious statement tion that proves somewhat of also shunned away from the school? I must say here that although the musical was religious, it was in no way agreeable with fundamental Christian doctrines. I must state my second contention, which is that this distribution in no way would be a violation of the separation of church and state. These are:

1) That in no way would the Cass City School System support the buying of or be involved in any way with the Gideon Bibles given out.

2) That when the Bibles are given out, no student will be forced to take one if he desired not to. The Gideons' purpose is to hand them out only to those who wanted one.

So we can see that the school was only intended as a gathering spot for the students. Any other means of distribution would most likely prove ineffective.

Therefore, stating my position, I would like to say that the action by our school board can only be called a misinterpretation of a very touchy issue in our society today. I hope this letter and maybe others will convince the school board that they are quite wrong in the light of serious consideration.

Publisher's CHRONICLE CLASSIFIED ADS word usage out to sea

Dear John, I was surprised that I apparently missed two big blockbuster stories that must have appeared in the paper earlier. I must have just overlooked them or it was published last month when I didn't get the paper. They must have been:

1. The massive project of dredging and widening the Cass River allowing it to accept deep draft vessels. and -

2. The purchase of a ship, Catalina 4 dr. Sharp. New steel belted tires, P.S.-P.B., boat or vessel by Hills and Dales General Hospital. cruise control, radio, air What has prompted this condition, 872-3697. 1-1-17-3 statement was on page 3 of the Chronicle, 17 Jan. 80, under the heading of "Rabbit Tracks" third article.

You highlight the hospital's 872-2677, support of the President by . fly its flag at half mast until the American hostages are released."

Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary on page 707 defines a mast as "a long pole or spar rising from the keel or deck of a ship and supporting the yards, booms, and riggings."

Since I must have missed the two articles I mentioned, and since I'm sure you wouldn't have erred by putting mast where staff should be, I am hoping you could forward them to me so I might catch up on the local high lights. Oh, what?. you erred - tis

I applaud the hospital and don't intend a pun to detract from the noble intention of support for either the President or the Americans held hostages, but I just couldn't pass up the oppor-tunity to highlight the naval entry.

If D. Hunt (former anchor clanker) hasn't called you on the error, you can call him and rub it in for his nonobservance of your paper. (P.S. He probably doesn't know the difference. I understand he was land locked).

Sincerely,

Fred MacKay
