Big Brothers/Big Sisters

From Deford and seven-years-old, this little one is looking for a Big Brother to share his time with. He enjoys doing most anything outdoors and is anxious to learn new things.

From a family with nine children, this 15-year-old would like a Big Brother to talk with. He is a quiet boy and enjoys all sports and working on cars. He is from the Akron area.

Singles club sets dance

The YMCA Thumb Singles Club of Sandusky will hold a dance Saturday at Sandusky High School from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

It will be guest night and married couples can attend. Music will be provided by Johnny Prill. Refreshments will be served.

Persons 25 and older who are single, widowed or divorced can join the club.

Being without a father is tough for this eight-year-old. He enjoys sports of all kinds, fishing and demolition derbies. He is a very nice boy and lives in Caro.

If you were shy when you were a child, you can understand the needs of this little six-year-old. He needs a very understanding man. He enjoys doing most anything and is from Vassar.

Big Brothers-Big Sisters in Tuscola county is located at 129 E. Burnside Street, Caro, telephone 673-6996; in Sanilac county at 26 Lexington Street, P.O. Box 1, Sandusky, telephone 648-4433. Huron County BB-BS is no longer in operation.

Stevenson dies after long illness

Charles (Mutt) Stevenson Sr., 66, of Lamton Road, Cass City, a retired farmer, died Tuesday at St. Luke's Hospital, Saginaw, following a long illness.

Stevenson was born May 5, 1913, in Juniata township, Tuscola county, son of Charles and Mary Ellen Stevenson.

He and Louise Harrington were married May 3, 1952, at Columbia Corners.

He was a member of the Moose Lodge, Caro.

Surviving are his wife; four sons, Charles M. Jr. and Fredrick Stevenson, both at home, Gary Stevenson, Arizona, and Billy Stevenson, Los Angeles; four daughters, Mary Jo Schember of Bad Axe, Norma Jean Schember, Hawaii, Kathy June Stevenson, at home, and Darlene Stevenson, Arizona; seven grandchildren, and two nieces.

Services were held Saturday afternoon from the Huston Ransford Funeral Home, Caro. Rev. O.E. Burton officiated, with burial in the Almer township cemetery, Caro.

Accountant addresses hairdressers
