Youth labor law By Bernard Jardot Persons 16 and 17 years old may find more restrictions and fewer job opportunities on certain farm jobs, if a new proposal by the Michigan Department of Labor is enacted into law. Currently, federal law covers Michigan youth under 16 working on farm jobs which are declared hazardous by the U.S. Department of Labor. The proposed Michigan youth employment standard surpasses the federal law affecting young workers by including those 16 and 17. Public hearings on the Michigan proposal - Youth Employment Standards, Part 3, Hazardous Occupations in Agriculture - are being held at the following locations: Caro Regional Mental Health Center, Administration Building - ground level, May 19; Department of Public Health, Olin Baker West Building - Room 1-B, Lansing, May 20, and Central Michigan University, University Center, Preston Road, Mt. Pleasant, May 27. Persons unable to attend the hearings can make their opinions part of the hearing record by sending written comment to: Mrs. Dorothy Ransom, Court Recorder, Office Hearings, Michigan Department of Labor, State Secondary complex, 7150 Harris Drive, Lansing 48909. Written comments, for or against the proposed rules, are considered equally with those who appear in person at any public hearings. Even those who appear at the public hearings are urged to submit written comments at the hearing in addition to any oral comments they make. Winners never seem to find fault with the referee's decision.	SUNDAY NITERS March 30, 1980
