Charge Ubly youth for damaging local police car

Steven R. Kenward, 20, of 3800 Cumber Road, Ubly, stood mute Monday before Circuit Judge Patrick R. Joslyn to a charge of malicious destruction of personal property.

A plea of innocent was entered in his behalf and pretrial hearing scheduled May 5.

Bond of $3,000 was continued; however, as of Tuesday, Kenward was still unable to post 10 percent of that and was still in jail.

He is charged with damaging a window or window frame of a Cass City police 'car April 1 while riding in it, he having been taken into custody on a warrant for failure to pay fine and costs

Clements: Ray L. Giddings, 25, of 5591 Scotch Road, Vassar, pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny in a building. His plea was taken under advisement and pre-sentence investigation ordered. If his plea is accepted, sentencing will be May 19, Bond was continued. He is charged with taking money, amount not listed, at Vassar High School on or about Feb. 23 Giddings stood mute to two separate counts of larceny in a building, of taking $290 from the Vassar schools Feb. 12 and $135 Feb. 10. A plea of innocent was entered.

Michael Morgan, 18, of 5546 Swaffer Road, Vassar, pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny in a building. His plea was taken under advisement with pre-sentence investigation ordered. Bond was continued with sentencing, if the plea is accepted, scheduled May 19. He is charged with taking two six-packs of beer Feb. 29 from Van's Market in Vassar.

Following hearing of arguments, Clements rejected the appeal of Billy Lee Ellis, 38, of 2720 Riley Road, Caro, and upheld his conviction for reckless driving. A District Court jury found him guilty of the charge Nov. 21, after which he appealed. He was arrested on the charge June 11, 1979, in Indianfields township. The same day he was found guilty, District Judge Richard F. Kern fined him $63 and assessed $50 court costs. The case will now be remanded to district court for disposition.

New Tuscola presented a program en-titled "Sharing Chicago bean type available

Tuscola is the newest variety of navy beans released from Michigan State University, according to Tuscola County Extension Director Bill Bortel. Its yields are about the same as those of Sanilac and Seafarer, but it has greater tolerance to mechanical injury than either of the two earlier varieties. In other respects it is similar to Sanilac, but has less tendency to produce the vine-like runners.
