Pair of rallies feature twin bill with Caro

It was a strange double header Tuesday, April 22, when the host Cass City Red Hawks split with the Caro Tigers.

In both games Cass City rallied in the final inning, once to tie and the second time to win.

Things were coasting along in ordinary fashion in the first game that the Tigers won in the first extra inning, 9-5, until the fatal sixth.

In the opener Caro drew first blood with a couple of markers on two hits and an error while the Hawks countered with a run in their half on an error and a single by Mike Stec.

It was a tight game after that as Earney Stoutenburg and Mark Cockerill were engaged in a tight pitching duel.

Caro looked as if it sailed away the game in the sixth by ripping out three hits good for two runs to lead 4-1.

But Cass City came charging back in their half of the sixth to tie the score. Key blow was a line drive double to right center by Ken Martin that drove in two runs.

Cass City had the winning run on third with one out but couldn't put across the clincher. Caro then came back to score four times in the seventh and take the win.

In the nightcap it appeared as if Cass City were going to lose both ends of the double header. The Tigers were just coasting along with a big lead with the game apparently sewed up.

Leading 7-0 after five innings is a cause for confidence. Cass City hadn't been able to come close to scoring until the last half of the last inning.

Then the team exploded for an unbelievable 8 runs and an 8-7 decision. Key blow in the game was a single past third by Stec.

It came with the bases loaded and when the ball slipped by the left fielder everybody scored and the Hawks had chalked up their first Thumb B Conference victory.
