

50 exhibitors pay sales in

Even though participants must pay $15 to set up where last year it was free, the flea markets, arts and crafts area will be filled to capacity with vendors hawking all

Linda Herron, who is in charge of the displays, said more than 50 people have paid for space in the municipal annex behind the municipal building.

Many of those who will be selling their wares are from out-of-town. Only about 10 percent of the participants are from Cass City.

"I guess that is probably ecause it is something we haven't really done a lot in Cass City," Mrs. Herron

People in the exhibits will be selling their items, this must be made clear, she explained. Last year, many of those visiting the displays thought the handicrafts were beautiful but for dis-

People will be coming with exhibits of dolls, toys, macrame, lawn ornaments and T-shirts, to name a few.

These displays will be set up in the arts and crafts areas, separate from the

Though it did not get much of a response last year, the flea market will comprise a major portion of this year's display, Mrs. Herron said.

Much of what is sold at the flea market will be along the lines of household items such as dishes and furniture.

Prices on the homemade items will vary. Some knickknacks may be real bargains but other things could be more expensive.

While she predicts a full house, Mrs. Herron said a few openings are left. Some people specifically requested outdoor positions which leaves more room

"Plus, I can add some

Dogs at work in training exhibition and fun show

The dog may be man's best friend but there are a group wants to present the variety of purposes canines serve other than as a tailwagging family pooch.

Those uses will be demonstrated by the Man-Dog Training Club at the Fourth of July Festival.

In addition to the demonstration, which begins at 1 how dumb they are claimed p.m., at the park tennis to be courts, a children's dog show will be open to anyone through age 14, according to Judy Rocheleau, coordina-

has been in existence for two their dogs simple obedience will be available in the recreation park during the Fourth of July Festival,

according to Chairman Tom

People wishing to be close to the action during the festival will have to get there early however, as only a few spaces by the pavilion will be open and when those

Ms. Rocheleau said the fun side of owning a dog as well as the serious aspects shown in the demonstration. explained.

The demonstration will present dogs in such areas as guard and police work as well as ways family dogs can be trained, no matter

Often people complain their dog refuses to learn anything or that a walk with Rover leads to being dragged down the sidewalk The Man-Dog Training hanging on to a leash for life. Club has 40 members she said. But most people do throughout the Thumb and not realize they could teach available at the municipal building, governs the camping area. That area consists of the gravel parking lot near the pavilion and the grassy area between the gravel and the woods, according to Village Clerk

Wheeled recreational ve-

Joyce LaRoche.

"We want to show what fun a dog can be other than just having a dog," she

The children's dog show will give kids a chance to show off their dogs in a variety of areas. Ribbons will be awarded to all who participate and trophies will be awarded to the winners of 10 categories.

Categories will be: biggest, smallest, ugliest, prettiest, longest tail, bestgroomed, longest nose, fattest, best costume (for dog and owner) and best tricks. Children need only show up at the park tennis courts

No fires will be allowed on the ground and wood is not to boring forest. The area also features rustic living at its best with no electricity, but

The rules were sent to teams competing in the softball tournament since it was restroom facilities will be available

hicles will be limited to the assumed they would be the gravel area with tents al- most likely users of the area

SAMPLE OLDFASHIONED HOME STYLE COOKING (With good old fashioned low prices) JULY 4th SPECIAL S 195

Camping space available

11 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Open Friday, July 4 and Saturday July 5

VERONICA'S RESTAURANT

Cass City

TOTAL

INSURANCE PROTECTION

Tailored To Suit Your Individual Needs

arts and crafts/flea

- Life Insurance
- Home Owners
- Casualty Insurance
- Pension Insurance (Retirement Plan)
- Fire Insurance

Cass City

Stop In and See Us Today

HARRIS-HAMPSHIRE AGENCY, INC.

Phone 872-2688

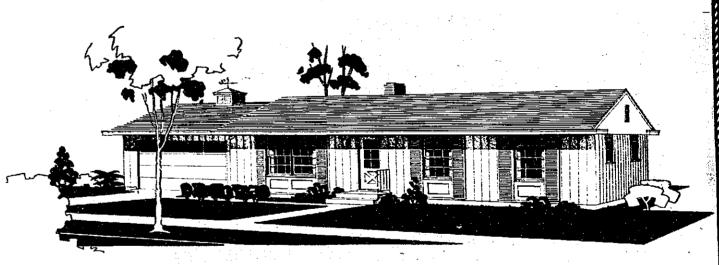

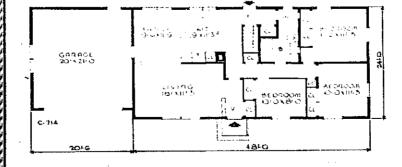

NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION

In Beautiful

NORTHWOOD ESTATES

Located on Hospital Drive

PLANNED FOR COMFORT AND EFFICIENCY

Large Spacious Lot - 3 Bedrooms - Full Basement 11/2 Baths - Ample Storage Space - All Underground Utility Services

Compare This Home With Others Costing Much More

HERRON BUILDERS, INC.

Cass City

Phone 872-2217