Counties and a neutral person. The committee can only make a recommendation to Bohlin: he must make the final decision.

If his decision is that Kent can issue the order to the county board to pay the higher salaries, the county board can appeal to circuit court. Presumably a visiting judge would be appointed to hear the case. The irony is that in addition to having to cemetery. pay its own attorney, the county board would also have to pay one Kent hires to represent him. What if the court administrator rejects the judge's request to issue the order? "I honestly don't know," Kent responded.

Former Cass Cityan dies in William Kilbourn of Mount Pleasant, formerly Cass City, died following a long illness Friday at the Pleasant Manor Nursing Home in Mount Pleasant.

He was born Aug. 24, 1887, in Indianfields Township, the son of the late John and Adaline (Asher) Kilbourn. He moved to Cass City as a small child. Kilbourn married Maude Van Cise Feb. 17, 1914, in Cass City, where they made their home. Mrs. Kilbourn died in 1973. He was a Life Member of Tyler Lodge No. 317 F and AM of Cass City.

He is survived by one son, Dr. Donald Kilbourn of Mount Pleasant; one granddaughter, Mrs. Earl (Sandra) Nelson of Lansing, and two great-granddaughters. One grandson, Richard, and three brothers, Owen,

Ray and Roy, preceded him in death. Funeral services were held Monday at Little's Funeral Home in Cass City, with Rev. Vern Lockard, of the Novesta Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in Novesta
