will begin at 9 a.m. Friday with the judging of some 4-H projects.

The Friday judging is an attempt to get some of the judging out of the way and therefore avoid a "slow Monday," according to 4-H

There will be no activities for the fair Saturday. Sunday will feature only a

The fair is sponsored and operated by 4-H groups throughout the county, Ms. Bader said. "That is our main attraction. The 4-H exhibits.'

Hopefully, those exhibits and other attractions will bring attendance exceeding which she considered a good turnout.

It is hard to judge an exact sion is free for a good share and officials get attendance

This year, fair goers will p.m. Tuesday through Frifree all day.

Gates open at 8 a.m. and will close when the crowd begins to thin out at night, Bader explained.

Midway rides will start around noon. A breakdown of the main attractions for each day is as Monday -- 4-H horse and pony judging begins at 9 4-H and FFA foods, vegetables, horticulture, crops and entomology. At 1 p.m. is the open class judging for foods, vegetables, horticulture, crops and entomology.

The evening program consists of the tractor pull at 7

Tuesday - 4-H horse and pony judging continues along with judging for animal science, veterinary science, hogs and lambs at 9

The tractor operation contest begins at 11 a.m. with the pony pull at 2 p.m. The 4-H judging of dogs will be at 6 p.m. The grandstand entertainment for the evening consists of the crowning of the 4-H king and queen, to be followed by the singing group Life.

The Life singers have performed throughout the U.S. with such performers as Anita Bryant, Rick Nelson and Jim Nabors.

4-H'ers and their leaders will be allowed into the grandstands free Tuesday if they have their 4-H passes. Wednesday -- Judging of beef and poultry begins at 9 a.m. Dairy judging is at 3 p.m. The 4-H judging of dairy goats is at 7 p.m. A four-wheel drive pickup pull in front of the grand-stands will make up the evening's entertainment. Thursday - Beginning at 9 a.m., all dairy entries will be judged. That is the only judging that will be going on during the day. At 5:30 p.m. there will be a small animal sale at the arena. At 6:30 p.m., the 4-H and FFA livestock sale will get underway at the same place. Beef, swine and sheep will be sold in that order.

The evening's entertainment will be rounded out by a demolition derby beginning at 8.

Friday -- Judging of 4-H horses in the fun and sportsmanship classes will begin at 9 a.m. Following, at 10 a.m., will be the Sweepstakes Showmanship Judging and Tabulation. A bicycle rodeo will begin at 1:30 p.m. Horse and tractor pulls begin at 2 and 7 p.m., respectively, with the Bean Queen contest beginning at 8

Saturday -- On the final day of the fair, open class horse and rabbit shows and judging begin at 9 a.m. A rodeo gets underway at

Navy Boatswain's Mate 3rd Class David M. Langenburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Langenburg, Germania Road, Snover, and grandson of Rita Langenburg of Roscommon, recently served with the U.S. Navy boat group which supported President Carter during his visit to Venice, Italy. Langenburg is normally assigned to the destroyer tender USS Puget Sound, operating from Gaeta, Italy.

The Navy provided water transportation through the Venice canals for the President, his family, cabinet officers and other staff members. They also provided transportation services for various other presidential support personnel, including advance teams, communications specialists and the Secret Service.

He was specially chosen to serve with the boat group by his parent command, and was sent to Venice for the three-week effort.

A 1976 graduate of Roscommon High School, Langenburg joined the Navy in January, 1977.
