Pvt. Hagen finishes boot camp

Marine Pvt. Michael A. Hagen, son of Woodrow and Lois Strong of Cartwright Road, Kingston, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Michael Hagen

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines. He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. A 1980 graduate of Kingston High School, he joined the Marine Corps in May.

Tourism employs 98

Tourism during its record year of 1978 provided jobs for 98 persons in Tuscola county and contributed $3,495,625 to the economy, according to the East Michigan Tourism Association. The information was contained in a letter from the EMTA to the county Board of Commissioners, asking it to appropriate $600 to the association in 1981, the same amount as it contributed this year.

Some may still receive war bonus

Due to a recent federal court ruling expanding residency eligibility for the Michigan Vietnam-era bonus, an undetermined number of veterans may now qualify if they meet all three of the following conditions:
-Entered military service as a resident of a state other than Michigan;
-While in the service, became a resident of Michigan for at least six months after Jan. 1, 1961, and
-While a resident of Michigan, completed 190 days of honorable service between Jan. 1, 1961 and Sept. 1, 1973.
The statute governing the bonus originally required Michigan residency prior to enlistment.

Folks who feel sorry for themselves have darn near outlived their usefulness.
