The First Baptist church of Bad Axe was the setting for the Sept. 6 wedding of Aleta C. Peters and Robert E. Matteson, both of Ferndale.

Rev. Walton Vuerink conducted the candlelight ceremony uniting the daughter of Roy and Clara Peters of Ubyly and the son of Bob and Jan Matteson of Ferndale.

Wedding music was provided by Fran Vuerink. Vicki Henderson was soloist. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride entered through an ivy entwined bridal arch decorated with baby's breath.

The bride chose a gown of organza and Chantilly lace featuring a Queen Anne neckline and long crystal pleated organza sleeves, cuffed with Chantilly lace and seed pearls. The full

A-line skirt fell from a slightly raised waistline to a deeply flounced crystal pleated hemline, bordered by seed pearls that encircled the full cathedral train.

Her tiered veil was edged in matching Chantilly lace and fell from a cap of Chantilly lace.

The bride carried a bouquet of white and peach silk roses, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Kathi Osentoski, Ubyly, niece of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaid was Tracie Matteson, Ferndale, sister of the groom. They wore identical gowns of copper knit with a scooped lace neckline and gathered bodice. They carried lace fans decorated with silk roses, and baby's breath.

Miniature bride was Jill Kubacki, niece of the bride. She wore a white lace dress with a full skirt, a halo of flowers in her hair, and carried a basket of silk roses and baby's breath.

Dave Randolph, Hazel Park, cousin of the groom, was best man.

Groomsman was Pat Peters, Ubyly, brother of the bride.

Gibby Hicks, Lansing, cousin of the groom, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of pink knit and organza.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of mint green knit.

Each wore a shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served to 100 guests at the Franklin Inn, Bad Axe.
