Susan and Bruce Wright

Susan Kay Kappen and Bruce Alan Wright were married Saturday, Sept. 20, at the Caro United Methodist church.

Rev. Clive Dickins performed the double ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Kappen of Cass City. Mrs. Denver Paxton of Midland and the late Franklin Wright are the groom's parents.

The bride wore a formal length gown of Raschel lace featuring a tulip neckline sculptured with beaded lace medallions and full bishop beaded cuffed sleeves.

The A-line skirt was detailed with beaded lace medallions and fell to a scalloped lace hemline which continued around the cathedral length train. Her walking length Heathcoat illusion veil was lace edged and held by a matching lace bandeau trimmed with pearls.

She carried an arrangement of white, yellow, blue and peach carnations, yellow rosebuds, baby's breath and matching streamers.

The maid of honor Diane Dashkevich, friend of the bride from Caro, wore a gown of maize selesia chiffon with a blouson bodice which extended into split capelet sleeves and a scooped neckline.

Bridesmaids were Lona

Auvil, niece of the bride, Cass City, and Bonnie Turner, cousin of the bride, Grand Blanc. They wore dresses identical to the maid of honor's, in shades of blue and peach.

Flower girl was Christine Kappen, cousin of the bride, Cass City. She wore yellow to match the maid of honor. She carried a fireside basket filled with yellow and white carnations and baby's breath.

All the bridal attendants carried bouquets of white carnations and carnations to match their dresses, with matching streaming ribbons.

Robert Brown Jr., nephew of the bride, Cass City, was best man.

Groomsmen were Philip Wright, brother of the groom, Caro, and Mark Hutchinson, friend of the couple, Cass City.

Ringbearer was Michael Kurtz, nephew of the bride, Deford.

The groomsmen and ringbearer wore white tuxedos with trim of shirts matching the attendants' dresses and carnations to match also.

Ushers were Douglas Sowden of Deford and Jesse Sowden of Almont, nephews of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length sleeveless peach gown and a corsage of white and peach carnations.

The groom's mother wore a flowered dress and a corsage of white carnations. Soloist was Joan O'Dell, friend of the couple, who sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed at the Dom Polski Hall in Caro for 350 persons.

The couple is residing on Shabbona Road, Deford.

The man who wants the right of way wants it right away.
