MAN.
By A. C. Tiffany, of the Ferris School.

The noblest study of mankind is man—but man's favorite study is woman.

There are two leading theories today as to the origin of man. The oldest theory is expressed in the words of the Bible, "And God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, and let him have dominion over all the earth.'" So God created man in his own image.

The second and more modern theory is the Darwinian theory, that man is the product of evolution from lower animals. If Darwin founded his theory of evolution on the monkey shines man is continually cutting up, he didn't miss it very far.

Darwin tries to support his theory by citing the masher as an illustration of the kind of animal man was before he became a man. Mankind is divided into two great classes: those who earn a living without getting it and those who get a living without earning it. These in turn are divided into nine distinct classes as follows:

1. One class is represented by those men who never consider other men wise till those other men come to them for advice.
2. Another class is those who have a gallon of words for every spoonful of thoughts. They remind you of a toy balloon. If they were pricked with a pin there would be nothing left of them. These men that we call shallows are generally despised, but did you ever notice that they do not need as much watching as deep ones?
3. Then another class of men who never unbend until they are "broke," 4. The fourth class is represented by those fellows who flatter themselves that they are the style of man called "A-d-e-v-i-l-o-f-a-f-e-l-l-o-w," simply because they go around with a cloven breath.

5. Then comes a little group of men who are characterized by the fact that they reason in a circle—that is why there is no end to their arguments.

6. The sixth class is a very large one and is composed of those men who mistake their hats for telephones.

7. A class of men very commonly seen is those who have become loafers because they are too light for heavy work and too heavy for light work.

8. Those men we call geniuses: that is men who when they accidentally say a good thing can make their hearers believe it was intentional—compose the eighth class.

9. The ninth and last class consists of men who are so constituted that the more they have the more they want—unless it happens to be twins.

Now there are a few facts that we should know about them.

1. Every man thinks everybody else knows him—that's why he writes his name so you can't read it.

2. Only one man in a thousand is a leader of men—the other 999 are followers of women. Man laughs at woman because she follows the fashions, and woman laughs at man because he follows her.

3. No man was ever blamed for being a gentleman, although many have been falsely accused.

4. Did you ever notice how kind nature has been to mankind. She has wisely arranged matters so that a man can neither pat his own back nor kick himself.

5. Another fact which is very prominent and probably is the cause of more swearing than anything else, is, that nine out of every ten men never think to wind the clock until after they have put out the light and got into bed.

6. Then did you ever notice that a man is never bored as long as you talk to him about himself?

7. That a man is always wanting something he can't get, and always getting something he don't want?
The world may owe every man a living but the majority of them are too lazy to hustle around and collect it.

8. Another proven fact is that a man sometimes gets light on a subject by scratching his head—a match always does.

Just a few words of advice: Never trust a man; he may be as honest as the day is long and still do a lot of mischief during the night.
Never judge a man by the umbrella he carries until you find out who owns it.
If you want your fellow men to speak well of you, lay down and die.
This, ladies and gentlemen, describes the large majority of mankind, but does not include such men as George Washington, who, with but a handful of ragged and half starved soldiers, won freedom for a nation and its people. This does not apply to such a man as Abraham Lincoln, who was noted for his ungain-liness and his honesty, and to-day "Honest Abe" is the idol of every true heart. This does not describe Dewey, who coolly sailed into the jaws of death and destroyed the enemy's fleet.

This does not describe Moody who is known as a true man of God. This does not describe John G. Wooley, who is the champion of the temperance cause of to-day. This does not describe the President of this school, who is doing everything in his power for the young men and women of the country. It is these men, and such as they, that have made this country what it is; that have raised manhood to the position which it now holds, and have given to America the motto, "The land of the free, the home of the brave."

MARKET REPORT.
The Tone of the Market is Steady in Nearly All Lines.
Detroit, Mich., May 1, 1901—The market for hay is firm and prices are a little higher. Straw is in good demand and higher also. The market for feed is active and millers have all they can do to fill orders at good prices. In the produce market there is a little improvement in the feeling in potatoes, and eggs are easy. Butter shows no change, dairy being scarce and creamery plentiful. Poultry is scarce and firm. General business in produce was active to-day and the tone of the market firm. Strawberries are coming in more freely and the market is working a little lower.

Remember, TWO DAYS ONLY. Call first day of visit if possible.
Dr. March treats Rupture, Varicocele, Hydrocele and Kindred Diseases and is probably the greatest living authority on the treatment of this class of diseases. In fact he is the ONLY LICENSED PHY-SICIAN IN THE STATE that gives his whole time to the treatment of diseases as above stated. Remember THAT YOU MAY ARRANGE WITH HIM TO BE CURED BEFORE YOU PAY FOR HIS SERVICES. Why will you continue to suffer from these TROUBLESOME AND DANGEROUS DIS-EASES when sure and certain relief is at hand. Rupture never gets well of itself. Any man having a Rupture is not as good a man as he would be if he had no Rupture. Many people suffer greatly from wearing badly fitting trusses. They not only suffer, but they are constantly in danger of strangulation, and its terrible results. If you would like to be cured we would be pleased to have you call, or write us for further information. If you do not care to be treated for a cure, we can furnish you with the best Rupture Support in use. We have been treating Rupture in Detroit for the past 15 years.
