DEATH OF WILLIAM BOND.

An Excellent Citizen of Evergreen Township Passed Away.

After several years of sickness, Wm. Bond, who formerly lived in Cass City, passed to his eternal rest last Thursday. Mr. Bond was only 35 years of age when he died. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bond and a brother of our townsman, Druggist Bond. He was born in Canada and at an early age came to Michigan with his parents. Seven years ago he was united in holy wedlock with Bessie McMorrison, who survives him.

The funeral, which was conducted by Pastor Rushbrook, was held last Sunday at the Gospel Hall, one mile east of Wickware. There were at least 500 people present who paid their last tribute of respect to the deceased. The interment took place at Elkland cemetery. Besides his wife, he leaves his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bond, four brothers and two sisters, Josiah and Edwin, who reside in Chicago, Amos of Cass City, Mrs. Jno. McPhail of Argyle, and George and Ethel, who are at home with the parents.
