Retta, the five year old daughter of R. Brown was run over on Thursday by a wagon. Dr. King was called and found the little one severely shaken up, but no bones broken. She had a narrow escape.

We visited the scene of the burnout at the home of T. Gekeler one evening recently. We are sorry for him in his loss, but still more so for the one who could be so depraved as to commit such an inhuman deed. Mr. and Mrs. Gekeler are hard working people and members of the A. O. G. and it is hoped that their companions in that order will rally around them and assist them in their trouble as all true Gleaners should.

A surgical operation is not necessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve saves all that expense and never fails. Beware of counterfeits. Amos Bond.

WILMOT.

CUMBER.

John Bradburn has his barn raised ready for the wall underneath.
Miss May Sommerville visited with friends in Deckerville this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Harman Hunt of Cass City visited at I. Greenleaf's Sunday.
Jacob Maxwell and Jim Jackson of Dakota are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Greenleaf drove to Cass City Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ahr.
The basement under the barn of A. Ewing is progressing favorably, one hundred feet being completed.

On Wednesday last Mrs. C. Ewing and D. Graham were called to the deathbed of their father in Canada.

Word has been received at the parental home that Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Greenleaf, has taken unto himself a wife.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will serve ice cream every Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Jordan until further notice.

SANILAC CENTRE.

Wm. H. Aitkin was in town Friday attending to some legal matters.
William Dawson attended Masonic lodge at Lexington Thursday evening.

Attorney West of Deckerville was in town attending to some legal business.

Geo. E. Meredith was in Crosswell the latter part of last week attending the teachers' examination.

C. G. Patney is spending his vacation visiting friends in Port Sanilac while his wife is visiting in Saginaw.

A lawn social is to be given Thursday evening by the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church at the residence of Mrs. F. H. Corbisdley.

J. N. Simmons is having his hands full with the board of supervisors and court in session. He has ex-County Clerk Denton assisting him.

The German Medicine Company have pitched their tent in town and are furnishing meritment for the young folks and medicine for the hypochondriacs.

Some F. & P. M. officials were in town the last of the week looking over the ground in the expected removal of the junction from Palms to Carsonville or Applegate.

I. O. Babcock was in Peck Monday and Tuesday of last week in the capacity of prosecuting attorney in the case of the People vs James Vanouse on a charge of assault and battery. How well he succeeded is shown by the way the jury went. Costs and fine amounted to nearly $100. The charge was for striking a woman.

Harry Wiley, tonsorial artist, for Carsonville was in town Monday and incidentally strolled into the county clerk's office where he put on his meekest smile and softly called for a marriage license.

John Hands was in town Monday and Tuesday shaking hands with the members of the board of supervisors. John's term as school examiner expires this summer and he is a candidate for re-election. He will undoubtedly have no opposition.

The marriage of Ella Montgomery to John Doyle took place last Thursday. The couple were accompanied by John McLaughlin and Lottie Carleton, who acted the part of best man and bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed in Crosswell by Father Esper after which the married couple proceeded on their wedding tour up the lakes.

Circuit court met Monday with a full attendance of attorneys and clients. The case of the People for the use of W. W. Cook vs Sidney S. Cole and John Farley was called, a jury impaneled and is now on trial. The action is for one of debt and is being closely contested, Gates and Ballard for the plaintiff and John H. Farley and J. S. Crandall for the defendant.

Farmers were obliged to draw their wool to other markets this year for want of railroad facilities here. Last year Charles Corbisdley was the only one to undertake the venture but was unable to compete with those with better shipping facilities. It is to be hoped that this place will get a road this year so the merchants can get the advantage of the grain and produce trade.

Considerable excitement was caused in the village last week by the report that Myrtle Muggidge, daughter of Marshall Muggidge of this place was found in the Detroit River with her throat cut from ear to ear. She had been in Detroit for some time working in a hotel. One night some people called for her and she never returned. Her parents hearing nothing from her for some time reported her disappearance to the police. On the finding of the body in the river Mr. Muggidge was notified by the police and he and his wife immediately proceeded to Detroit. The dead girl was exhumed and identified by the parents as their daughter. The father and mother were deeply grieved and shed bitter tears over their dead daughter. In the meantime the daughter in reality seeing the item in the newspapers concerning her death telephoned home that she was working in Mt. Clemens. The parents were notified who immediately proceeded home after burying the supposed daughter. Sunday Mr. Muggidge took advantage of the excursion to go to Mt. Clemens and bring his daughter back home which he did Sunday evening, being all the happier after so much sorrow.

The Board of Supervisors met for the June session Monday. There was no opposition to Benjamin F. Bishop for chairman and the clerk was instructed to cast the full vote for him. The entire board was appointed a committee of the whole with Supervisor Allen as chairman. Accordingly each member took a roll and began to find the coolest place for his labor.

The county commissioners of the poor were in attendance and made some recommendations to the board in regard to heating the buildings on the poor farm. A committee of three were appointed to investigate. The poor commissioners recommended purchasing a furnace. J. S. McDonald sent in a request for the leasing for a number of years of one acre in the south east corner of the court grounds. He guarantees to spend at least $8,000 in the building of a hotel if he can get the grounds. The board will be in session the greater part of the week auditing bills and electing a delegate to attend the state equalizing board at Lansing.

Dyspepsia cannot be long lived because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food; it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exact the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. Amos Bond.

Gollmar Bros. & Schumanns circus showed at this place Saturday to large audiences. They have the best circus on the road, the performance as a whole being better than most circuses put up. This was their second visit to this place and they left a good impression each time.—Sheffield Standard, Sheffield, Ill. At Cass City, Thursday, July 4.

"The doctor told me my cough was incurable; One Minute Cough Cure made me a well man."—Norris Silver, Fort Stratford, N. H. Because you have not found relief from a stubborn cough, don't despair. One Minute Cough Cure has cured thousands and it will cure you. Safe and sure. Amos Bond.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An Ingenious Treatment by which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses, No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleasant and Positive Cure for the Liqueur Habit.

It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "HOME GOLD CURE" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of Drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

WIVES CURE YOUR HUSBANDS!! CHILDREN CURE YOUR FATHERS!! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of Drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by the use of "CURE" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. DO NOT WAIT. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "HOME GOLD CURE" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested, without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of One Dollar. Address Dept. 1 EDWIN B. GILES & COMPANY, 2320 and 2322 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential. E363
