Marlin

The cream of winter sport is fox hunting with hound and rifle. When the dog brings the yellow fellow around to your stand at last, it is well to be able to thoroughly trust your rifle, for you will get but one good chance at Mr. Fox.
The Marlin .25 is a rifle of perfect accuracy and sureness of fire, and has every Marlin feature not found in any other gun. This rifle is specially adapted to settled districts where such game as coon, badger, fox, woodchuck, etc., abound, and will afford many pleasant hours when no other gunning can be legitimately indulged in.

A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. John Copland, who resided one mile west and two miles north of Cass City, died Tuesday evening after an illness of only a few days' duration.

Mrs. Mary Walker Copland was born in Scotland forty years ago and at the age of twenty years she was united in marriage to John Copland; several years they have lived in this vicinity. Besides her husband, she leaves five children. She was a member of the Lady Maccabees. The funeral took place in the Baptist church Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. E. H. Bradfield officiating and the interment was made in Elkland cemetery. The Lady Maccabees attended the services in a body.

TEN YEARS OF HAPPINESS

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robinson Celebrate Tin Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Robinson celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage on Monday evening, October 22, by inviting a large company of their friends to spend the evening at their home on West Main street.

The pretty home had been neatly decorated for the occasion, the prevailing colors being suggestive of the autumn season, being red and green. The double parlors were made very pretty with palms and ferns and in a corner of the dining room a pretty bank of ferns and red carnations was arranged very tastefully. The table decorations were also of red and green.

There were about forty guests present and the evening was spent in games. Pretty little cards on which were written conundrums and answers formed a unique manner in which partners were secured for supper. A two course supper was served, the first course consisting of rolls, fruit salad, jelly, olives, pickles and coffee; and the second course consisted of ice cream and assorted cakes. Miss Fern Stevenson presided at the piano and furnished music during the supper hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were the recipients of many presents consisting almost entirely of tinware and much merriment was caused when the par-tents were opened and the contents displayed. Among the gifts were a tin horn (cornet, so designated by the donors), a tin bouquet (hand made), a mouse trap, pastry bowl, strainer, flour sieve, small tin pail, grater, tea strainer, meat tongs, potato ricer, egg poacher, potato kettle, cake tin, bread toaster. They also received some nice pieces of china.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pinney, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Corkins, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilsey, Mr. and Mrs. F. Nettleton, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Striffler, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brooker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Falls, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stevenson and Miss Fern Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. James, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Wickware, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Schenck, Mrs. Dora Fritz, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Bradfield, Mrs. J. H. Hays, Miss Carrie Robinson, Mrs. Jennie Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Tibbals, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hendrick.

At a late hour the guests departed for their homes having spent a most delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have spent all their married life in Cass City and Mr. Robinson is the proprietor of the laundry at this place. They enjoy a large acquaintance in this vicinity and they are among the most highly respected residents of the village. May they enjoy many more anniversaries in our midst.

The season for partridge, fox and gray squirrel is from Oct. 14 to Nov. 30. Unlawful to kill squirrels in any village, city or any public park. It is unlawful to shoot quail until Oct. 15, 1907, and then only to Nov. 30. It is also unlawful to shoot song birds.

The deer season opens Nov. 10 and ends Nov. 30. Unlawful to kill otter, fishers and martin from May 1 to Nov. 15, and raccoon, skunk and muskrat during September and October. Bounty on wolves, $25; lynx, $5; wild cat, $3.

MARRIED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. T. Colwell Celebrate Their Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Colwell celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage last Friday, Oct. 19, in a happy manner by inviting a number of their friends to spend the day at their home, one mile east and two miles north of Cass City. The occasion proved to be a very pleasant one for all.

At the noon hour a sumptuous dinner was served and the afternoon was spent in recalling pleasant incidents of former days and in other delightful ways.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Boyne of Jarlette, Mr. and Mrs. John Agar, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Sharrard, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. John Tewkesbury, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Travis, all of Shabbona, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shaw of Noko, Alva Palmateer and son, Harry, of Novesta, Mr. and Mrs. I. Palmateer of Elkland, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bixby of Gagetown and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Agar of Cass City.

Mr. and Mrs. Colwell were married in Cramah township, Ontario, in 1881, where they lived about five years. Then they moved to Novesta township, residing two and a half miles north of Novesta Corners for some time, and afterwards moved to Evergreen township, where Mr. Colwell was engaged in following his trade of blacksmith and in farming. Last spring he moved from his farm in Evergreen to the Robt. Wallace farm northeast of town. Mr. and Mrs. Colwell are the parents of four children, all of them being with their parents except one daughter, Mrs. Claude Shaw, who resides at Noko.

The Chronicle joins with the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Colwell in wishing them many more years of happiness.

A BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE ENDED.

At an early hour on Monday morning, October 22, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Williams of Evergreen township, and took their dearest treasure, a beloved and only child, G. Alex Williams.

George Alexander Williams was born in West Saginaw, April 10, 1887, and came to Evergreen township with his parents about eight years ago. He was one of our finest young men and highly esteemed. He was thoughtful and kind to everyone and was the mainstay at the farm home. Steady, quiet and industrious, he was always ready to help a neighbor in the time of trouble. His death, coming so suddenly, is a great shock not only to his grief stricken parents, but to his many friends as well. Beautiful words of comfort were spoken at the home by Rev. Mulholland of Cass City Tuesday afternoon and the precious burden was laid to rest in Elkland cemetery amid beautiful flowers, and many tears were shed at the thought of not seeing him again until "the day breaketh and the shadows flee away." Those from a distance who were in attendance at the funeral were Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Jones and Miss Jones of Saginaw. The grief stricken parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad loss.

Samuel J. Daugherty.

Samuel J. Daugherty, the republican nominee for the office of representative in the state legislature, is a young man of thirty-four years of age, of sterling qualities and an American in every sense of the word. He is perhaps better known throughout the county than many who are much older than he.

Mr. Daugherty was born in Zanesville, Ohio, and when two years of age his parents moved to the township of Fairgrove in this county and up to the time of attaining his majority the greater portion of his life was spent upon a farm in this county. His parents were not wealthy and Mr. Daugherty was not given the opportunity of a college education, but was obliged to content himself with such education as he could obtain at a district school and he was pre-eminently educated in the practical school of "hard knocks." He has had a wide experience in the affairs of the county, having been superintendent of the county farm for several years and having occupied the office of sheriff for the past four years, thus having attained a knowledge of business, political and legal affairs, which added to his natural ability, has fitted him for the office that he now seeks.

Mr. Daugherty has always taken an active interest in politics and enjoys the distinction of never failing to be true to his constituents and when elected a member of the legislature there is not a doubt that he will prove a capable and efficient representative of Tuscola county.

During his administration of the affairs of the sheriff's office he proved himself to be all that his friends predicted for him and the affairs of that office were never administered more promptly, economically and satisfactorily to the people of this county than they were under Mr. Daugherty's administration.

With this splendid record of official service it was no surprise that the nomination of Mr. Daugherty as a candidate for this responsible position came unanimously. And the action of the convention will be overwhelmingly ratified at the polls on the 6th day of November, next.

 Lapeer board of supervisors very sensibly visited the county normal which they had established. They in turn very sensibly invited the normal pupils to visit a session of the board. At this visit the board went through the process of organizing, appointing committees, etc., and gave everybody a box of candy.—Moderator.
 Any non-resident who is really serious in the matter of getting an education and wants work to assist him, will get both if he is serious. The superintendent has been informed of eight rather permanent jobs right within half a mile of the schoolhouse. Rent rooms for a month, prove your worth and you will lack time to do the work that will come to you.
 In studying the pendulum the physics class was asked the difference between "oscillation" and "osculation." No one seemed to know the distinction. When asked if they had ever had any personal experience which they could recall, several frankly admitted that they had not. After consulting Webster's some confessed that they had not told the truth.
 The pupils of the grammar room and sixth grade are about to unite the forces and earn money to buy some pictures for their respective rooms. Watch for the invitation for goodies, brown bread, Boston baked beans, homemade candies, doughnuts, popcorn. Turn out and encourage the good work. The sixth grade have moved into their new home and are especially anxious to decorate the walls tastefully and well. The sale will be held Saturday.

FORMER CARO MAN MURDERED.

The mysterious disappearance of Frank L. Hopkins and the finding of charred remains and bits of clothing in the mountains near Asbury, N. J., which have been identified as his, brings great grief to his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hopkins, of Caro, where Frank lived up to a few years ago, says the Detroit Journal. He also had many friends who had known him since boyhood.
 The circumstances of the disappearance of Hopkins last July and the finding of portions of his body seem to reveal a murder, robbery and burning of his body in an endeavor to hide the crime.
 Hopkins was a contracting carpenter at Newark and on July 21 started across the mountains to pay off a number of Italian laborers on a job at Montclair. They knew of his coming with quite a big sum of money.
 Hopkins never reached Montclair, and his disappearance was a mystery until a hunter a few days ago started to build a fire at an unfrequented spot where there was a pile of ashes and charred wood. As he stirred up the debris he discovered partly burned human bones, some charred rope and bits of clothing seared and scorched.
 The authorities took these to Mrs. Hopkins, who identified the clothing. She had never notified her husband's people of his disappearance, as she hoped that he would return and did not wish to worry them unnecessarily. The news of his death was therefore, all the more shocking.
 Frank L. Hopkins was born in Caro 33 years ago and spent his youth and young manhood here. He was a hard worker and of very pleasant disposition. At the opening of the Spanish war he enlisted and served in Cuba for fourteen months. For the last five years the family has resided in Newark, N. J. They have one little girl ten months old.

CASH WANTED.

A few of our exchanges are punching up their delinquent subscribers, requesting them to get more up-to-date in the matter of subscription. The Chronicle doesn't like the idea of doing a great deal of dunning but there come times when a few dollars are badly needed to keep our credit from getting stale, and this one of them. We have to be real agile during the next sixty days, in the way of corralling the elusive medium of exchange, and if some of our subscribers have been waiting to pay us when it would do the most good we will say to them, now is the appointed time. Just let your optics wander to the label on your paper, and if you are owing us just remember how delighted we will be to have you "square up."
