LESLIE'S EDUCATED BARNYARD ANIMALS

SECURED FOR A SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT THE CASS CITY FAIR.

The officers of the Cass City Fair are getting busy these days in preparing for the fair to be held four weeks hence. They are going to do everything in their power to make the 1910 Fair the best ever held in Cass City.

The track has been put in first class condition and the numerous inquiries from horsemen show much interest in this department.

Secretary Campbell is kept busy answering correspondences regarding concessions on grounds and already a number of important deals have been closed for privileges. Billing the fair will begin this week and everybody is going to have a chance to know all about it.

The Brown City Band has been engaged to furnish music. This is one of the best bands in the Thumb country and will come well equipped to please the crowds.

The matter of free attractions are well under way and is expected to be complete this week. One very important feature is already contracted for which the officers decided to engage after investigating a number of acts. This is Fred Leslie's Famous Barn Yard Circus of Decatur, Ill. This is an exhibition of surpassing excellence introducing pigs, sheep, dogs and goats. The animals form pyramids the same as human acrobats, jump through hoops, jump hurdles, Cotter wheelbarrow act, one wheeling the other, climb up ladders, rolling barrels, see-sawing etc. There is also a clown pig, a regular four-footed comedian that does everything the wrong way in a regular pig-headed manner and grunts his satisfaction in doing it. For real fun in barnyard one must see Leslie's educated barnyard animals conceded by the press and public to be a novelty act that's laughable, interesting, instructive and amusing.

START TO BUILD GRAIN ELEVATOR

THE FARM PRODUCE COMPANY EXPECT TO HAVE IT READY IN 60 DAYS.

The Farm Produce Co. has let the job of building their grain elevator to I. W. Hall, and the work of excavating the earth for the basement has already commenced. The company expects to have the building erected and ready for business within 60 days.

The grain elevator will be located south of the present bean elevator. It will be 24 by 30 feet in size, with a 6½ foot basement, and will have a capacity for 8,000 bushels of grain. A Monitor cleaner, a hopper scale of 100 bushel capacity and other up-to-date machinery will be installed. The power for the new elevator will be furnished by a 20 h. p. gasoline engine.

TO THE LOCAL OPTION VOTERS.

Next Monday is Primary day and then is decided the momentous question of our next sheriff, momentous not only to the four candidates but especially to the people of Tuscola county. Some of you may not know that the Wets are preparing petitions for re-submission of the question next spring, but we want to show them by the vote for sheriff that local option is not a dead issue.

After considering the matter on all sides and talking with those who have the cause on their hearts, we unanimously endorsed Mr. Robert Smith as our dry candidate for the office of sheriff and we want such a majority for Mr. Smith that no one after September 6th will question that the voters and supporters of local option are ready and willing to show their loyalty to the only important issue in our county politics.

If your neighbor will not see this message, pass along the paper to him and let us get every man out to the polls that with no uncertain voice Mr. Robert Smith will be boosted to victory.

IVORY FOR SENATOR.

W. E. Ivory of Hadley, Lapeer county, in making the announcement of his candidacy for the Senate from the 21st Senatorial district, comprising the counties of Lapeer and Tuscola, comes before the people of the district as the choice of the republicans of Lapeer county for the office of Senator, there being no other candidate from Lapeer county.

According to a precedent that has been in vogue ever since the two counties have comprised the 21st senatorial district, it has been the custom to alternate two terms apiece. As Tuscola county has now had its full quota of two terms, it is now due to Lapeer county, and Mr. Ivory should have the entire support of every republican in the district. (Adv.)

FLINT DISTRICT WELL REPRESENTED

Y. P. A. MEMBERS IN CONVENTION. H. S. FAUST RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Flint District was well represented at the convention of the Young People's Alliance held here Aug. 24, 25 and 26. Many of the pastors of the district were present and they were accompanied by a good representation of young people. The sessions were spirited and much enthusiasm was manifested.

The officers elected were: President, H. S. Faust, Caro. Vice president, John Staebler, Linkville. Secretary, Miss Ethel Oesterlee, Pontiac. Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Norman Wales, Owendale. Treasurer, Arthur Schweitzer, Kilmanagh. Missionary secretary, Mrs. Wm. Daferner, Sebawaing. Junior superintendent, Mrs. Pohley, Elkton.

SOME PERTINENT REASONS.

Why Erastus C. Brainard is Entitled to Support for Sheriff.

Because, he has the distinction of being a purely Tuscola county product: His parents settled in Tuscola county over 60 years ago, and Mr. Brainard is native born and always a resident of the county. He grew to manhood and was educated in Tuscola county schools, and every day of his life, both private and public, is an open book to the people of Tuscola county.

Because, he commands the respect, enjoys the confidence, and has the unsolicited support of the best people not alone of his home town, but in all parts of Tuscola county where he is known.

Because, if nominated and elected to the office of sheriff, he will be the tool of no clique nor faction, but will give every citizen a square deal, and in that office will do everything that any official could do in a rigid enforcement of all laws.

Because, as supervisor and treasurer of his home town for five years, he has been tried out, and no one can truthfully point to a spot or blemish in his record.

Because, every ounce of his 250 pounds of Tuscola county brawn and muscle has been developed through honest toil, correct living and clean habits.

Because, he possesses in a pre-eminent degree the right qualifications recognized as essential for an intelligent and efficient public servant as sheriff,—honesty, capability, integrity, prudence and fearlessness.

Can you serve yourself and the people of Tuscola county in any better way, than by casting your ballot at the primary election on Tuesday next, for Erastus C. Brainard for sheriff? (Adv.)

SALEM EVANGELICAL CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY

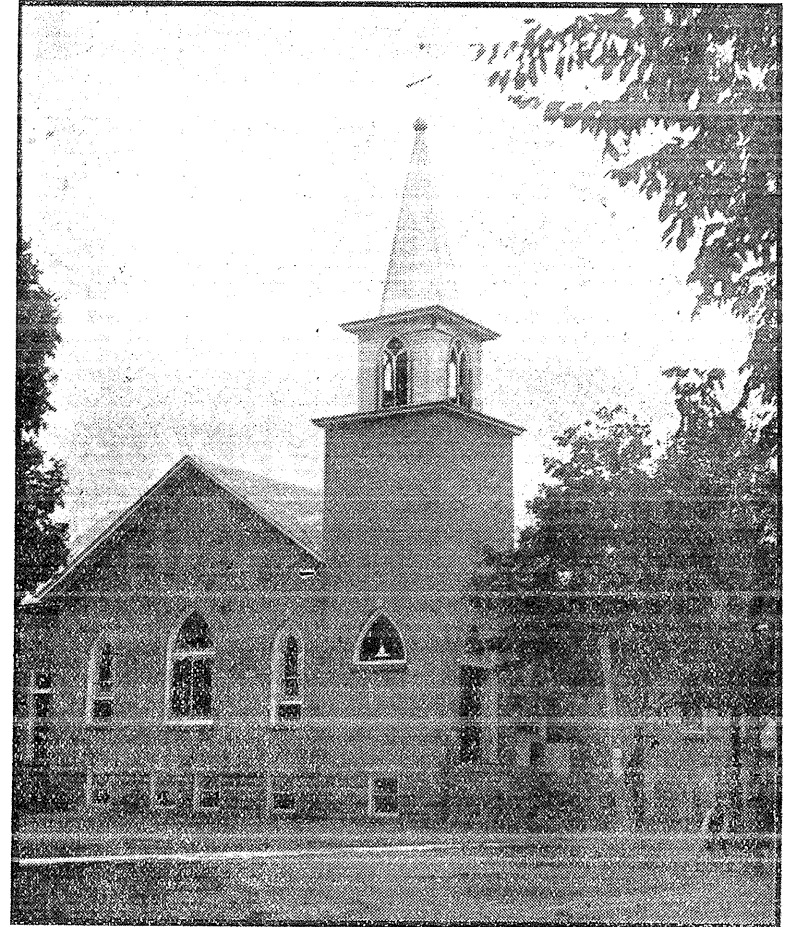

Three Services Held During the Day, All of Which Were Well Attended. Church Building Has Modern Conveniences.

Sunday, Aug. 28, was an auspicious one in the history of the Evangelical society of Cass City, the occasion being the dedication of the recently remodelled church building.

The first service held in the morning at ten o'clock was conducted in the German language and was chiefly attended by members of the society and friends who understood that language. Rev. Geo. Johnson, general missionary secretary of the Evangelical Association, of Cleve-

The church was prettily decorated for the day with cut flowers, ferns and palms and presented a pretty appearance.

So great a change has been wrought in the appearance of the building by the remodeling that one hardly realizes that this stately structure is the Evangelical church of Cass City. And the most remarkable fact about the matter is the low cost of bringing it about. Exclusive of the lumber contributed by Albert Vogel, land, Ohio, preached a powerful sermon and the sacramental service followed the discourse.

At a mass meeting held at three in the afternoon, the building was well filled. Rev. Johnson gave the address.

The evening service was a union meeting at which the congregation of the several churches united. The building was crowded. Rev. W. B. Weaver, pastor of the M. E. church, read the parable of the talents as a scripture lesson, and Rev. L. A. Townsend, the Baptist minister, offered the opening prayer. Rev. Johnson again preached and held the close attention of his audience. The reverend gentleman is a remarkably good speaker and his sermon was filled with practical thoughts and truths. Following the sermon, the 27th Psalm was read and the dedicatory service conducted by Rev. Johnson.

a member of the society, the outlay for the structure represents a sum slightly over $2,800. The church has been most fortunate in having liberal contributors numbered among its members, its friends and the business men of the city. To these the society is very grateful and the necessary money with the exception of about $100 has been contributed or subscribed. And that amount will undoubtedly be raised before the year is closed.

The outer walls of the building are of cement blocks and cement brick. They were made and laid by James Henry. The carpenter work was completed under the supervision of Geo. Bartle. The main auditorium is 34 by 50 feet in size and the annex to the west is 18 by 32 feet. On the east side is the pulpit and choir loft, 10 by 20 feet, and adjoining it to Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

READJUSTMENT.

When King Edward VII. died the people of England were plunged into a state of great anxiety.

The political conditions were such that business almost ceased for a time, values were depressed, and the people felt as if they were on the verge of national disaster.

We have had such experiences. When Abraham Lincoln was assassinated we passed through a great trial. It needed the voice of a great man like Garfield, who said to the mob on the streets of New York, "Fellow citizens, God reigns and the government at Washington still lives."

There was another serious crisis when Garfield was shot. And when McKinley got his death wound at Buffalo dread anarchy showed its horrid front.

But we passed through these tribulations and emerged.

Like some great planet swinging in its orbit, whose momentum is irresistible, we kept the track marked out for us.

Behind us was the cumulative force of a great history—the gathered momentum of a people who had dreamed and done great things and good things. So it is of our personal lives.

Disaster comes to us in a business venture. The blow paralyzes. We see no way out. We are seized by despair. This, we say, is the end.

But the crisis passes. We readjust ourselves to the new emergencies. The old wound slowly heals. By and by the defeat passes into memory and the experience becomes a part of our philosophy.

It is the reserve power within us quickening to a new endeavor.

A dear one dies. We feel that never again will the sun shine so brightly as of old. Clouds and darkness are about us. The terrible fact stares us. We never shall see that face again! If, say, after a year or five years we might hope to see it! But—nevermore!

The days pass, and time deals gently with us. And after awhile we can think calmly of our dead. And the memory of them is even sweet to us because we know that—

Life is ever lord of death,
And love can never lose its own.

Nations as well as individuals come to feel that there is behind them a mysterious power that pushes them forth to their destiny despite all accident.

And we need to learn that the purer and truer the life forces are behind the day of trial the stronger is the nation or the individual in the day of trial.

As said Sir Galahad:
"My strength is as the strength of ten because my heart is pure."

A COUNT'S PRANK.

Delighted the Revelers, but Worried the Police of Stockholm.

All Europe is laughing at the latest escapade of Count Gasta Hamilton, known as "Le comte des chats—the cat count," and a member of the English ducal house of Hamilton. The story of his latest prank is told in European newspapers.

Count Gasta and some of his cronies had honored Rosenbad, a popular resort in Stockholm, with their patronage, and as a result some of the furniture had been broken. In particular, the covering of a fine sofa had been ripped and damaged. The manager of the resort remonstrated with the count and suggested the advisability of the latter paying for the damage. This the count agreed to do and virtually purchased the piece of furniture, receiving a receipt from the manager.

In a short time a singular procession was seen by night revelers in the park wending its way from the main restaurant to the public road. Four sturdy messengers carried a sofa, on which reclined the count and his companions provided with napkins tied to their canes. Amid cheers the procession left the grounds. It had not proceeded far before a night policeman halted the paraders and demanded an explanation. The count said he was on his way home and had bought the sofa and that it was his property. The officer probably thought the question of propriety too important for him to decide and escorted the prisoners, including the sofa, into the presence of the precinct captain. The count told his story and presented his receipt for the sofa's purchase. The captain verified these statements by telephoning to the restaurant proprietor and advised his unwilling guests to go home.

In less than an hour the captain was astonished to have the sofa and its retinue of attendants brought before him by another officer. The party was released a second time. The incident was repeated three times, and the captain was becoming a fit subject for the madhouse when he had a brilliant idea. Four officers were ordered to march with the count, the sofa and the party to escort them home.

Slowly the procession moved toward the shore. When a landing place was reached the count and his friends made a jump for the bridge, where a motor launch was waiting. Amid the cheers of the crowd the launch sped away, leaving the officers to carry the sofa wearily back to the police station.

Caught the Train.

General Botha, first premier of United South Africa, has a sense of humor. One of the flashes of comedy that lit up the tragic pages of the war occurred toward the end, when Kitchener and the Boer commander in chief were discussing terms of peace. There were several fruitless interviews before a working basis was agreed upon. At the end of one of these discussions Botha got up and remarked: "Well, I'm afraid I really must be off." "There's no hurry," Kitchener answered pleasantly. "You haven't a train to catch, you know." "But that's just what I have," was Botha's reply. Next morning the chief of staff reported a successful Boer raid on a British armored train on the Delagoa line, only a few miles off. Botha had caught that train!

He Got Square.

It is questionable if there is a better known character connected with baseball than Napoleon Lajoie of the Cleveland team. Fans all over the circuit like to see Lajoie play. He is a big drawing card. A number of years ago, while a member of the Philadelphia Nationals, he asked a couple of friends to see a game in New York. At the pass gate he was informed that Andy Freedman had issued an order that no player had a right to bring in any friends. Larry argued, but in vain. The only thing he could do was to purchase regular tickets. All this happened in the days before the inauguration of the foul strike rule. The very first time at bat Larry fouled fourteen balls over the fence. Mr. Freedman got $1.50 of his money at the gate, but Larry burned up about $20 of Mr. Freedman's money in fouling balls over the fence that never returned.

REVIEWS HIS ANTAGONISM TO WARNER

Osborn Says It Dates Back To Defeat of Marine Hospital.

Grew During Intervening 12 Years. Friendly Letters Only Formal Courtesy.

Port Huron, Mich., Aug. 18.—Chase S. Osborn today issued the following authorized and signed statement:

Inasmuch as some attention has been paid to the question of my political relationship to Governor Warner and the press has given the subject much valuable space it may be worth while to make a complete and connected recital, in as concise terms as possible, of such relationship.

To me the matter seems to be of no importance whatever and is even more amusing than interesting. I am so conscious that there is nothing in my public record that is embarrassing in this connection or any other that I am content to have both my public and private life scrutinized and analyzed to the extent of the minutest detail. I think this is due the public from any candidate, and I not only wish the people to know that my public record is good but also that my private life is without a serious flaw. I do not wish to assume to be better than the average good citizen, but I most earnestly invite examination into both my public and private character.

The first time that I ever met Fred M. Warner was at Lansing while he was a member of the senate. I had gone to Lansing in the interest of my home city, Sault Ste. Marie, for the purpose of securing legislation that would release any claim the state might have upon the accrued tolls on hand in the treasury of the St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal at the time of the transfer of the state canal to government control. It may be remembered that while the state conducted the St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal tolls were charged. When the canal was transferred, as above referred to, with all its belongings to the government, there was a fund of $60,000 on hand. This fund the state held in custody and did not pay it over to the government at the time the other property was transferred. The Soo is an ideal point for a marine hospital, the magnitude of the volume of the shipping there being well known. It was considered by the city that if the canal money belonging to the government, as was supposed, could be secured for the purpose an additional appropriation from the government could be obtained and a government marine hospital could be erected at the Soo adequate to the great needs that existed then and still exist. The city requested me to go to Lansing with others in order to have this fund released so that the plan outlined above could be worked out. Representative Connors of the Chippewa district easily passed a suitable bill through the house. It was not thought there would be any opposition in the senate. All at once, however, opposition arose and it was led by Fred M. Warner. He finally succeeded in defeating the measure. I was so earnestly and enthusiastically advocating, by a very narrow margin, and had the moneys involved formally transferred from the St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal fund to the state treasury. This was about twelve years ago as nearly as I can remember without having opportunity to consult the records; it may have been longer. I was so disgusted with Mr. Warner's unfair and unjust attitude, as I regarded it, that I then and there made up my mind that he was a small, unfair and unsafe man. In justification of my position it is just as well to interpolate that the United States government has sued the state for the funds. I am not informed as to the progress the case has made.

My dislike of Warner became more acute while I was commissioner of railroads. He was a member of the railroad crossing board of which I as railroad commissioner was chairman. At that time he belonged to the old reactionary wing of the Republican party and opposed to Pingreeism, which I espoused, and he was controlled very evidently by the railroad interests which were dominant in the state at that time. As commissioner of railroads my record will show that I initiated several progressive policies, among them one to separate dangerous grade crossings in the state and prevent as far as possible the crossing of steam and electric roads at grade. It was an era of much electric road construction. In almost every instance when matters came before the crossing board they were opposed by Warner, who had by this time become secretary of state and by virtue of that office a member of the board. This served to further strain my political and personal relations with Mr. Warner.

At the time that Governor Pingree's second term expired I became a candidate for governor. This was ten years ago. I failed of nomination and served one term more as commissioner of railroads and retired from active politics. About the same time I sold the Soo News and have not had a cent of ownership in that paper for eight years. About the same time I became associated with Mr. Walter J. Hunsaker, at that time managing editor of the Detroit Journal, as owner of the Saginaw Courier-Herald, but I have had no direction of the political policies of that paper in any sense. So successfully has Mr. Hunsaker conducted the Courier-Herald that he has been its independent publisher and I have not visited the office an average of two times a year from that time to this. I not only retired from politics in Michigan, but I spent my winters in studying and traveling over the world and spent my summers in geologizing and prospecting in the woods between Lake Superior and Hudson's bay. No one could have been more out of touch politically and otherwise than I was for a long number of years. Nearly four years ago I had a serious accident in the woods which placed my life in jeopardy for over two years. Part of these two years I was confined to my home and my bed in the Soo, and part of the time I traveled in Europe in search of health. I returned to Michigan at about the time of the Bradley-Warner contest much improved in health but not entirely well. I had taken no personal part in politics for at least eight years, except to endorse the candidacy of Hon. Homer Warren of Detroit as against Mr. Warner at the time of his first nomination. Just as I was recovering my health and eager to become active again, the late Peter White of Marquette, who was a regent of the University, died. He was the only regent from the Upper Peninsula. The entire north country without my solicitation united in asking Governor Warner to appoint me as regent to fill the vacancy. I did not desire to accept any recognition at the hands of Governor Warner. The contest, in my mind, was between a desire to serve the state in so honorable a capacity and my disinclination to have anything to do with Warner. However, after consultation with the late Arthur Hill and other friends I determined that my duty to the state should take precedence over my personal feelings and I accepted the regency appointment. This naturally mollified my personal feelings towards Mr. Warner and our relations assumed an apparently mutual courteous regard. In the Bradley-Warner contest the policy of the Saginaw Courier-Herald was dictated, as it has always been, by Mr. Hunsaker, and that paper gave Dr. Bradley as strong support as he received in the state. Personally I took no part in the campaign. About that time Governor Warner and some of his friends paid an official visit to the Soo. My personal friend, Mr. Frank W. Knox, owner and publisher of the Soo News, greatly interested in having Governor Warner well received, solicited my assistance in making his reception as pleasant and popular as possible. I officiated as chairman at a public meeting and introduced Governor Warner in respectful terms. It was about this time that upon solicitation I subscribed $750 to Governor Warner's campaign fund, which subscription I have never denied making at any time or place. This was done to discharge any obligation that could be made to possibly appear as having grown out of my appointment as regent. It was also made at a time before the scandals that have disgraced the Warner administration had been proven. After Governor Warner's renomination, as a regular Republican I participated in the campaign as much as my health would permit. I made two speeches for my party, one at Sault Ste. Marie and the other at Calumet the night before the election. After Warner's election I wrote him a congratulatory letter inspired more by the success of the party than any personal consideration. After the treasury scandal and Armstrong scandal and other things had transpired, that so conclusively made it appear that the Warner influence was detrimental to the interests of the state and the Republican party, I with thousands of other Republicans came to the conclusion that Warner in Michigan was a blight to both the state and the party.

Last fall I yielded to the solicitation of thousands of Republicans to become a candidate for governor. I had no personal ambitions to be governor then, and I still have none; but I have a keen personal desire to serve my party and my state. The character of my campaign has been such as to leave no doubt in the mind of any person as to my attitude. I am opposed to Warnerism and anybody who seeks to perpetuate it. No one seriously challenges the statement that Mr. Kelly has been dominated by Mr. Warner throughout all their political and administrative association. Consequently I am opposed to Mr. Kelly, as the heir of Warner and as the agency through which Mr. Warner hopes to perpetuate his power. I pledge myself if elected governor, in so far as the power of the governor goes, to remove from office all of the corrupt officials and all the incompetent hangers-on at Lansing. My character gives assurance that I will carry out my pledge in this respect, consequently if the people wish my services and desire the removal of the last vestige of Warnerism from Michigan politics they may vote for me on September 6 and I will serve them as faithfully and intelligently as my capacity will permit. I have enjoyed my campaign thoroughly and shall always feel that I have done my party and my state some service and have been made a better and broader man by it whether I succeed or not.

CHASE S. OSBORN.

HOT ONE RIGHT OFF THE LID.

Governor Warner, who by the way has no special interest in the race which the Hon. Patrick Kelley is making to succeed him, is now trying to make capital out of the fact that Hon. Chase S. Osborn contributed toward his election two years ago. Mr. Osborn has never denied that he contributed. In fact he openly admits that he did hand out $750. We haven't the slightest doubt Mr. Osborn has wished that every Republican who could afford the luxury was given a chance to help the Republican ticket win. It needed money, and lots of it to pull a Republican ticket through, with Mr. Warner heading it. The trick of "smiting the hand that fed you," is not new in Mr. Warner's political life. It will be remembered that Hon. Arthur Hill of Saginaw had some experience with Warner gratitude. Mr. Hill, being a richer man, had contributed much more than Mr. Osborn, but that didn't prevent our worthy governor from making eleventh hour charges against the Saginaw man during the senatorial fight. By the way, those charges were never proven, if we remember rightly. Mr. Kelley and Mr. Warner must be driven to hard lines when they will try to make capital out of the fact that Chase S. Osborn has contributed to their campaign funds in the past.—Albion Recorder.

Gardner's horse and buggy spins up the road at different intervals. Enoch Brown and family, formerly of this locality, will return to Los Angeles, Cal., some time next month. Seeger & Wright are doing some threshing grain in Pingree this week. The grade on the county line adjoining section 6 is a sample of the industrial capacity superintended by overseer, W. Mudge. ### JOY MUST BE SOUGHT.

Goddess of Joy Coaxed to Saginaw for Nine Days.

Sorrow comes unbidden, but pleasure must be pursued and sometimes she will not remain though you get a strangle hold on her, so fickle is she. But the management of the Saginaw Industrial Exposition, an institution now recognized as a fixture in Michigan have succeeded in coaxing the Goddess of Joy to remain with them during their event from September 16 to 24 and in these joyous days mirth will be unconfined. This is the third year of the Industrial Exposition and the event this year will be greater and grander than ever. Saginaw's wonderful development is splendidly shown in the magnificent displays in the Auditorium where exquisite taste and colorful harmony blend in a striking ensemble that is unsurpassed by any similar event in Michigan. But the amusement features will this year be accentuated and there will be spread before the guests a vista of attractions and entertainments vaster than was ever dreamed of before. Star attractions at the theaters, parades and pageants by land and water, electrical displays, joy rides in autos, the great Exhibit itself where Creator's hand, greatest in the world, twice daily discourses its marvelous melody; together with the lure and charm of a great city; all appealing with potent power to the guests within the gates. Saginaw is IT and the Exposition the greatest ever.

Pauline—Just think of the awful things we know about people whom we don't know! Emeline—Yes. Isn't it wonderful? And just think what the people whom we don't know may know about us!—Detroit Free Press.

FOR GOVERNOR

Amos S. Musselman

If Republicans of Michigan want to nominate a man for Governor who will surely be elected in November, they should vote for

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN.

If the Republicans of Michigan want to nominate a man who is not handicapped with "Warnerism,"—if the Republicans of Michigan want to nominate a man for Governor who will not be handicapped in the campaign by a promise to veto a Tonnage Tax bill, should one be passed by the legislature, they should vote for

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN.

If the Republicans of Michigan want to nominate a man for Governor who belongs to no machine and to no faction, who has made a success of his own business, not accidentally, but by industry and executive ability, they should vote for

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN.

If the Republicans of Michigan want to nominate a man for Governor who has been a life long, consistent Republican, who is a wheel-horse of the party without being a stand-patter, and a progressive Republican without being an insurgent,—if they want a conservative, logical, clear-cut, fearless executive in the chair in Lansing, they should vote for

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN.

That Mr. Musselman is to be the nominee of the Republican party is the logic of recent events. There has been a strong undercurrent for him all summer, but it remained for Osborn and Kelley to open the way for a complete crystallization of sentiment favorable to Musselman. Kelley has been on the tobaggan for the last three or four weeks and Osborn hit the chute at Big Rapids when double crossed himself regarding his friendly relations with Governor Warner and his contributions to the Warner campaigns of two years ago.

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN.

has declined to enter into any verbal controversy with Mr. Osborn and says, "Slander and vilification has seldom been a passport to public favor. Thank God, I do not want the office bad enough to destroy our party, with all its traditions, nor to slander its representatives to obtain it. Ambitious zealots should not be permitted to usurp the powers of government. It is just as important to curb the ultra-radical as to stimulate the halting conservative. Neither should be trusted with power. The mass of the people are honest, intelligent and patriotic, and the public service should be thoroughly representative of them."

Every Republican who desires to vote for a winner at the primaries, Sept. 6th, and to have a candidate who will be a winner at the election in November should vote for

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN.

PLAYS AT OPERA HOUSE.

KALMBACH—WALLACE.

QUICK WORK IN PHOTOGRAPHY.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday, Aug. 30, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Meretta Ramsey, 909 Warren Ave. west, Detroit, when her daughter, Doris Estelle Wallace, was united in marriage to Carl Malam Kalmbach, Rev. John J. Bockstaehler officiating.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of tan silk, with Persian trimming and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Linda Kalmbach, sister of the groom, gowned in blue silk and carrying LeDetroit roses, acted as bridesmaid. Elvin Wallace, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The guests were limited to the immediate relatives. The dining room was prettily decorated in green and white. An elaborate dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Kalmbach left for a trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other eastern points. They will be at home after Sept. 15 at 226 Owen Ave., Detroit.

A WINSOME CHILD.

Contributed.

Dorothy C. Hartt, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hartt, of Wilmot, died Aug. 23 of spinal meningitis after a few hours' illness. Dorothy was a quaint, winsome child of a loving, sunny disposition and it took a bitter struggle to bow in submission to the Divine will.

While we cannot explain why such sorrows must come to the human family, we know that our Heavenly Father is too wise to err and too good to be unkind. As the little form lay in awful stillness before us and stricken hearts were numbered with grief, a sweet message of comfort came to us as the solemn hushed voice of the pastor spoke the words, "The child cannot come to us, but we can go to her."

POKER JOINT RAIDED.

Sheriff Epplett and Three Deputies Arrest Four Sandusky Citizens.
For some time past there has been quite well grounded suspicion that a poker joint was being operated at the Sandusky House at Sanilac's county seat.
Sheriff Epplett, accompanied by three of his deputies, Dingman, Brown and Briggs, at three o'clock last Sunday morning raided this hotel and took into custody Abb. Connors, manager of the hotel, Joseph Alexander, Wm. Leggett and a fourth party whose name is not given. A fifth man escaped out the door just as the officers were preparing to force an entrance. It is stated the men were engaged in a game of poker. Alexander, the cashier, had about $14 on his person. The four were placed under arrest and their trails will be set in the near future.
The penalty for Connors, if convicted of this crime, is $500 fine and 6 months in the county jail. The affair has caused a sensation in the county seat that has not been equalled in many months.—Brown City Banner.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Cass City People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes, and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this locality.

William Singleton, 621 South State St., Caro, Mich., says: "I was afflicted with kidney trouble for two years and I suffered intensely from pains in the small of my back. On arising in the morning I was very lame and the least work tired me. Headaches and dizzy spells were other symptoms of my trouble and sometimes my sight became blurred. The kidney secretions contained sediment and passed too frequently, breaking my rest. In a week after I commenced the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I improved and the contents of five boxes of this remedy effected a permanent cure. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of my endorsement."

A FREE Prescription ADVICE

From a physician of 52 years' experience in colleges, sanatoriums and general practice. Weak, nervous men, regain your strength and vigor.

So great was my sympathy for weak men in the early years of my experience that I have made it a special study, and formulated two prescriptions, one for men under 50 and one for men over 50 years of age. In my declining years, I want every man to have the benefit of my long years of careful study, research and long experience. I am now 73 years old and as strong and vigorous as at 40 and the rest of my life will be spent in aiding suffering manhood. I realize that my time is short, but will do all in my power to aid men and women who are helpless and seeking relief. I know there has been a great many disappointed when they thought relief in their grasp, but let me send you my free prescription and booklet of private lectures to men which is the result of study since I began lecturing to student classes, way back in '71. Since that time I have cured many cases that are now pleased to recommend me.

YOU NEED AID. Let me help you to regain your former standing among men. In short, let me assist you to be yourself once more.

If you are suffering from falling memory, lame back or weakened manhood or nervous distress, LET ME SEND YOU A SECTED IN a plain sealed envelope that you can use in your own home. I am confident that you will thank me every day in your life after you have tested it for yourself.

The north is a small dressing room. The pews are in light golden oak, wax finished. They are circular in form and the seating arrangement is very convenient, making it easy for a speaker to address an audience. The inside walls are finished in alabastine, the side walls in light green and the ceiling in a delicate pink. This work was under the supervision of Thos. Cross and the pretty border of the drop ceiling was designed and applied by Jacob Maier. A large basement underneath the

S. Henne began his work as a pioneer preacher in Cass City and surrounding country. The people then worshipped in log houses and from all accounts the services were edifying and highly appreciated. Following the house worship, services were commenced in the Walmsley schoolhouse, then situated about a half mile north of Elkland cemetery. The country was new and the people were poor. The roads were also new and at times almost impassable. The territory travelled by the minister was very extensive and the appointments few and scattering, yet in spite of all these obstacles, the work prospered and the members of the society found it feasible to erect a church building building may be fitted up for Sunday School purposes if needed in the future. At the present time, a prayer meeting room, 19x19, a class room and a furnace room have been arranged. The main entrance to the church is situated at the northwest corner and another entrance from the sidewalk level leads both to the main auditorium and to the basement.

A great amount of praise and credit is due the pastor of the church, Rev. J. A. Schweitzer, for the successful termination of the building. He worked untiringly, planned splendidly and economically and assumed more than his share of the responsibility. Yet he has not accomplished the work alone for he has had the loyal support of the mem-which they decided to build in the village.

The church was organized with the following persons as charter members: Jacob and Louise Striffler, George and Catherine Kolb, Adam and Catherine Benkelman, Frederick and Dorothea Krapf, Andrew and Lena Seger, Levi and Mary Muntz, John and Catherine Muntz, Hiram Leonhardt and George Frye.

Only a few of these are alive now. One by one they have been laid away to rest. Among them are Jacob Striffler and Adam Benkelman who were foremost in the establishment of the first church of the society and who will always be remembered as men of strong character.

The following constitute the list of ministers who have been identi-

Early History of Church.

When the work of the Evangelical Association was begun in Cass City the prevailing thought and inspiring motive in the minds of its promoters was to bring the gospel of Christ to the Germans who were scattered about in this community. This was the mission of the church for many years. Of late, however, the work has been gradually drifting into the English language. It was in the year 1867 that Rev.

fied with the work of the Evangelical church at Cass City:

Deaths of the Week

Harry Blaine Schwaderer, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwaderer, died Sunday morning at the age of nine months and twenty-eight days, of cholera infantum. The funeral was held on Monday at two o'clock at the home of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schwaderer, where he died.

Neil McPhail of Turner, Mich., died in a Cass City hospital on Sunday at 11:30 p. m. The body was brought here Wednesday and the funeral held at the M. E. church at two o'clock. He was 51 years of age and was born on a farm near Carsonville where he lived until grown to manhood. He leaves a widow and four children, Mrs. Sadie Tibbets of Wisconsin and Archie, Gladys and Clarence at home.

John Crane, a prominent citizen of Elkland township, died at his home Wednesday, Aug. 31. Mr. Crane has been afflicted with stomach trouble for 14 years. A year ago he became worse than usual and has been gradually failing since that date.

John Crane was born in Bayham township, Elgin county, Ontario, Mar. 14, 1849. In Ontario, he was united in marriage to Miss Ellen Conner and to this union seven children were born. In 1877, Mr. Crane and his family moved to Michigan. They lived at Yale three years. Then in Ellington township, Tuscola county, and 17 years ago moved to their present home in Elkland township.

Besides his wife, he is survived by five children, Samuel Crane and Mrs. Loren Brown of Elkland township, Wilson Crane of Elmwood, and James and Flossie Crane, who reside at the parental home.

The funeral will be held at the M. E. church at Cass City today (Friday) at 2:00 p. m. It will be held under the auspices of Tyler Lodge, F. & A. M., of which the deceased was a member.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

Among the candidates who are aspiring to the various county offices is John D. Allin, candidate for county clerk of Sanilac county on the Republican ticket.

For the past year and a half Mr. Allin has very creditably filled the position of deputy clerk, and thus became familiarized with every detail of the work pertaining to the office. He is a careful accommodating official, who has a great many friends throughout the county whom he has made by his honesty and square dealing. Every man who has done business with Mr. Allin at the clerk's office will be his loyal supporter at the primaries, and it would no doubt, be hard to find a better qualified man for the place.

Mr. Allin is considerably handicapped in his campaign work by being obliged to attend to his official duties which require his presence at the clerk's office the greater part of the time, consequently, he is unable to give the careful attention to his campaign that he would like to give; nevertheless, he will endeavor to meet at least a majority of the voters of Sanilac county before the primaries on Sept. 6.

FOR PROSECUTOR.

Sandusky, Mich., Aug. 29, 1910.

Voters of Sanilac County: I ask your support for the office of prosecuting attorney on the Republican ticket Sept. 6. I have been a Republican all my life. If elected I will use my best endeavors to satisfy the people. Long terms in office are not conducive to economy and I will in no event accept more than four years. The cost to the County of Sanilac of the two offices of sheriff and prosecutor are shown by the proceedings of the board of supervisors for year ending October, 1909, to be $9,297.72, while the cost of the same two offices covering the same period in Lapeer county were but $5,297. The prosecutor of Sanilac county cost nearly three times as much as Lapeer county. In 1909 the board raised $10,000 for officers' salaries and these two offices used all of the $10,000 and the board was compelled to borrow money to meet current expenses.

This shows a deplorable state of extravagance and demands immediate reform. Try it and see how it will work out. Vote for a change and save yourself money in your taxes. The present incumbent has held the office ten years. Attend the primary Sept. 6 and vote for reform. Thanking you in advance,
Truly yours,
H. L. BABCOCK.

It is generally conceded fact that all bean harvesters are similar. This may be true in a general way as far as the purposes of the machines are concerned, and yet, they vary considerable as to the style, worth, workmanship and general make-up.

What one person likes would not please another, and for this reason we handle three different kinds and makes of the Harvesters.

To say that it does the work to perfection and has given "Universal" satisfaction wherever used only attests to its merits and that it was properly named. The frame is composed of two wood cross pieces to which are attached the ratchets, main levers and the standards. The side levers are iron of extra length, inclining towards the operator, making them easy to operate. With these levers the knives can be made to run deep or shallow as may be required. The blades are the best extra heavy tempered steel, beveled and sharpened at cutting edges and highly polished.

THE STERLING.

It has made an enviable reputation for itself. The only harvester that has adjustable knife and knife standard in two parts. With this knife standard you can set the knives any slant or pitch desired. Raising and lowering lever bars are steel, and all adjustments are easy to make.

With these THREE HARVESTERS we feel that we can supply the wants of any farmer in this line of machines. Each one has been fully tried and gives entire satisfaction. We guarantee the machines in every respect. Be sure to compare the machines and prices before you buy. Let us show them to you.
