Keating was appointed district superintendent of Elkland, Novesta and Kingston townships.

The local plant of the Thumb Creamery Co. is being improved this week by adding a new boiler and brick smokestack, the old boiler being too small for the load which it is necessary to carry during the busy season. "We are doing a nice business at Cass City," said W. H. Bechtel, the manager, Wednesday. "Our 1910 business shows a good increase over the previous year."

Mrs. Chas. Robinson was the hostess at a delightful tea given at her home on West Main St. Tuesday evening. Twenty-four ladies were present to partake of the many good things which the skillful hands of the hostess had prepared for the occasion. After the supper the guests amused themselves by constructing dresses of newspapers. Many quaint and comic costumes were made of various styles and patterns, producing much laughter and fun.

Mrs. Daniel McKenzie of Kalamazoo and until a few years ago a resident of Cass City, died in the former city Wednesday and the remains will be brought here for burial. The funeral service will be held in the M. E. church Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Mrs. McKenzie had been ill for 1 1/2 years and for some months has been a patient in a Kalamazoo hospital. James and William McKenzie, sons of the deceased, and Mrs. Matilda Bills, a sister, have been called to Kalamazoo within the past week.

The Woman's Study Club enjoyed a social meeting at the home of Miss Ella Sheridan Monday evening. Many famous historical and literary characters were impersonated, while a few members were costumed to represent comic and present day personalities. Among the characters were Dolly Madison, Mary Chisholm, Mary Washington, Barbara Fritchie, Hetty Green, and others. The typical western girl, Topsy, Aunt Eliza and Carrie Nation provided many a laugh for their more demure sisters. A dainty luncheon of sandwiches, coffee, olives, ice cream and cake was served.

When it comes to high rates, it should be remembered that the telephone companies are no slouches. The rate they impose upon the public savors very strongly of extortion. We figured the matter up the other day and found that we would a great deal rather own the Bell telephone Co.'s property than the Sanilac Jeffersonian. It costs at the rate of five cents per minute to talk to parties in Sanilac county, which figured right down would make $3.00 an hour; $72 a day; $504 a week; $4,960 a month and $26,208 a year. Of course when you talk to parties outside of the county the rate is a great deal higher, and it is a cinch that the big telephone octopus is not worried any by the howl of the wolf.—Croswell Jeffersonian.

While drawing ice Saturday Wm. Wilson had the misfortune to fall and break three ribs.

A number of the friends of Emery Lounsbury spent Friday evening with him. Old fashioned games were indulged in.

O. A. Auten spent Saturday and Sunday in Conners, Mich., where he attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Lester Cooper.

N. Bigelow was in Caro Tuesday where he transacted business at the probate court in the interest of the Michael Beye Estate.

A. A. Hitchcock is placing new shelves through the center of his store which adds much convenience in displaying his stock.

C. E. Collins has sold his farm in Evergreen township and will move to Cass City soon, having leased Hugh McColl's residence and feed barn.

Rev. J. A. Schweitzer's subject for Sunday morning at the Evangelical church is "Jesus Sehen," evening, "The Greatest Outlet of Power."

F. A. Bigelow left Tuesday to accept a position in the Lansing office of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. in whose employ he has been several months.

The members of the Woman's Study Club and their husbands will hold a joint meeting at the Presbyterian church Monday evening at 7:30 to consider a public library proposition.

Frank Hall of Sandusky has purchased a 60-acre farm from Isaac Cragg in Evergreen township and expects to move there in the spring. Mr. Hall is now visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crafts entertained a number of guests at a dinner party Monday. Those present from out of town were: Robert Wood and family and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Moore, all of Gageton, and Geo. Wood and family of Illinois, Iowa.

Those who attended the dancing party at Doerr's Hall Friday evening from out of town were: Miss Mattie Carless, Yale; Leo Hopps, Kingston; Miss Ethel Hune, Owosso; James Phelan and Fred Hemerick, Gageton; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ehlers, Shabbona.

Rev. Frederick Klump left Cass City Wednesday for New York City to attend the annual meeting of the International Board of Arbitration which convenes in that city. He will also attend the national civic federation conference. Mr. Klump is the president of the Michigan Board of Arbitration and will represent that body.

Sunday morning about one o'clock, sleepy citizens were again rudely awakened by three short taps of the fire bell. Men are easily aroused to action by true alarms and much heroic work accomplished but false alarms merely serve to arouse scorn and contempt for those who would awaken the public unnecessarily. Perhaps when men are really needed they may not appear.

Caro Lodge, I. O. O. F., extended an invitation to the Cass City Odd Fellows to witness the work of the initiatory degree Monday evening. Those who attended from here were: H. S. Wickware, A. H. Higgins, H. P. Lee, Dana Losey, G. W. Seed, H. Lauderbach, E. W. Keating, P. F. Stone, Frank, Orson and Egbert Hendrick. About twenty members of the Akron Lodge were also present. At the close of the work, a sumptuous banquet was served to about two hundred.

A number of farmers in the Hay Creek district are engaged in organizing a farmers' telephone company and intend building a line south and east of Wickware and connect the same with the switchboard of the Cass City Telephone Co. It is understood that 17 subscribers have been secured out of the 20 desired. Until recently free service was allowed to the Moore and Sleeper telephone subscribers between Cass City and Argyle. The instituting of a ten-cent toll charge between the two places is said to have caused dissatisfaction among the patrons and is one of the reasons for the farmers' movement noted above.

Nine young ladies deemed themselves lucky to be members of E. W. Jones' Sunday School class for he gave them a pleasant time Wednesday evening by entertaining them at his home on the corner of Main and Seeger streets. A game in which bean bags were tossed to an indicated place formed the principal amusement. Sides were chosen of which Marion Weaver and Esther Clark were leaders. The former won. Choice refreshments were served and the guests departed at about 10:30 with a high estimation of Mr. Jones not only as a teacher but also as an entertainer as was proven on this occasion. The following are the members of the class: Caroline Keating, Carola Fritz, Ella Wallace, Grace Meiser, Beatrice Young, Ethel Carson, Esther Clark, Marion Weaver and Hazel Seeger.

Take Care
 When the kidneys are affected, life is in danger. Read what Foley's Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor, Wm. E. Seeman, Flint, Mich., says: "For years I suffered with my kidneys, having severe backaches attended with dizzy spells. I felt miserable, and tired out easily, and then I got some of Foley's Kidney Pills and after using them a short time, a change for the better took place. My backaches left me, and as I continued the treatment, the dizzy spells vanished. I owe my cure to Foley's Kidney Pills, and wish everyone to know of them." L. I. Wood & Co.

THUMB NOTES.
BROWN CITY—After a service of 20 years as editor of the Banner, Brown City's local paper, L. H. Howse has leased his plant and business to B. L. Gregory of Bellvue. Mr. Howse has been an accomplished editor and has met unusual success as a publisher of a country weekly. May his shadow never grow less.
PIGEON—A large crowd of farmers gathered at Diebel's hall Thursday afternoon to organize a Beet Growers Association. Many thousands of acres of Huron county's best land was represented. J. J. Campbell was chosen chairman of the meeting and the crowd was addressed by G. H. Slocum, of Detroit. W. W. Harder was elected president, Wm. Stein, secretary; Nate Harder, John H. Richmond and Otto Mavis, form the executive committee.—Progress.
LAPEER—Pearl Smith, 23, of Tuscola county, who has been employed as a domestic in the home of Russell Bard, Lapeer, tried to take her life by twisting an apron about her neck. A physician was called and after working over the girl, who was unconscious, for about an hour, had her taken to the county jail.
VASSAR—Joel Harrington, an old soldier, aged 69, was arrested Wednesday by Sheriff Hanna and taken to the county jail for threatening to shoot his young wife, whom he married a month ago. He had a loaded revolver on his person when searched.
