CASS CITY SHIPS 171 CAR LOADS OF BEANS

OVER $225,000 PAID TO FARMERS IN YEAR.

Cass City Is Record Bean Town in Michigan Says Local Shipper.

"Undoubtedly Cass City holds the record as the best bean town in Michigan," said a local shipper Tuesday when shown the record of freight shipments of that product for the year. "I believe that there isn't a town in the state that can show as large an amount of local shipments of beans."

The freight records at the Grand Trunk station show that there have been shipped from Cass City during the year ending Sept. 1, 1911, 171 car loads of beans. Estimating 687½ bushels to the car, the number of bushels shipped from here in carload lots reaches 117,562½.

A conservative estimate places the average price paid during the season at $1.90 and this amounts to $223,368.75. To this may be added from $2,000 to $7,000, the estimated amount paid for beans shipped in smaller quantities than car lots, thus raising the total amount paid out to farmers at the Cass City elevators for beans between $225,000 and $230,000 for a period of one year.

The number of cars shipped each month from Sept., 1910 to Sept., 1911, is here given:

September	23
October	23
November	38
December	23
January	14
February	9
March	5
April	7
May	10
June	19
July	15
August	4

Total . . . . . 171
In addition to the 171 car loads noted above, there are about 6,000 bushels of culled beans to be considered in the quantity records besides the "less than car load" shipments. Quite a number of the growers buy back the culled beans for feeding purposes.

FIRE DRILLS MUST BE REGULAR IN SCHOOLS

Insurance Commissioner Palmer Sends Letters to All Boards Calling Attention to Law.

Insurance Commissioner C. A. Palmer is sending communications to all the school boards and county school commissioners in the state calling attention to the law passed at the last session of the legislature which requires the state fire marshal to compel teachers of public and private schools and educational institutions to have one fire drill each month, and to keep all doors and exits unlocked during school hours.

Under the provisions of the new law any officer who neglects to comply with the requirements shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed $100, and in default of the payment shall be imprisoned not to exceed thirty days.

"It is only necessary to refer to the recent fearful catastrophes in school buildings to impress upon the people of Michigan the necessity for such a statute and to enlist their cooperation in its enforcement," said Commissioner Palmer.

"Copies of the law may be had upon application at the office of the insurance commissioner and I ask the earnest and hearty co-operation of all officials connected with our educational institutions."

WOMAN'S STUDY CLUB NOTES.

Mesdames Wm. J. Moore, F. Klump and Jos. A. Benkelman have entered the club as new members.

Resigned members who wish to enter the club when a vacancy occurs are requested to hand their names to the secretary.

Mrs. John Schwaderer was appointed to act as critic for the year to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Ethel McGregory who expects to attend the U. of M. this year.

During the business session Monday, Mrs. Auten was elected delegate from the local society to the meeting of the State Federation of Clubs to be held in Detroit Oct. 17, 18, 19 and 20.

The members of the lecture course committee, Mesdames A. J. Knapp, G. A. Striffler and Andrew Schmidt, distributed tickets Monday to be sold by the ladies. An excellent course is offered and everyone should make it a point to attend. The first number will be given Oct. 26.

Next Monday, Oct. 2, the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Harriett Haviland on South Seeger street, the occasion being the first social event of the club year. "Dickens day" is to be the attraction.

Mrs. A. J. Knapp to perform the duties of hostess, assisted by other members. From three o'clock until three-thirty the guests will enjoy a reception. "Mrs. Dickens" and her three daughters will receive the guests. A program is being prepared. Mrs. Joseph Rankin of Bad Axe, a member of the Bad Axe Woman's Study club, will be present and give a paper on "Dickens." This number will be particularly entertaining and interesting. ## COLUMBUS DAY CELEBRATION

BIG PROGRAM OF ENTERTAINMENT AND AMUSEMENT.

Splendid Array of Musical Numbers and Sporting Events at Cass City Oct. 12.

The plan to hold a band tournament at Cass City next month had to be abandoned because it proved impossible to secure a sufficient number of bands to participate. In its stead a Columbus Day celebration has been arranged for Thursday, Oct. 12.

Stone's Famous Band of Detroit has been engaged to furnish music for the event and as the Stones always sustain the high reputation of their popular organization, little need be said in praise of this attraction. Prof. J. W. Johnson will sing bass solos, Stone's Quartette will render several vocal selections and among other musical numbers will be cornet and trombone solos.

An interesting program of caldonian games is in preparation. A tug of war, open to teams of 12 married men from any two townships of Tuscola, Huron or Sanilac counties heads the list and a fat men's race, potato race, sack race, 100-yard dash, woman's ball throwing contest and three legged race are some of the other events.

Lovers of music have been carefully considered in preparing the day's program and those interested in sports will have several hours of enjoyable diversion.

There is entertainment for everyone at Cass City Oct. 12. Mark that day on the calendar for your pleasure and amusement and then come here and you will find it.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Alex Miller was elected foot ball captain. The ponies have been well fed this week.—Tests.

Arguments are becoming frequent in the physics class.

Visitors in the high room last week were the Misses Auten and Miller.

Had we freshmen followed the example set by the seniors, it would have been a noisy time.

The face of our last year's senior class president appeared in the doorway Monday afternoon.

A revolving chair has been recommended to one of the members of the physiology class. (M. R.)

A fine young freshman, not knowing where his English was assigned, asked to call up Miss Whitney.

Speaking of the "Natural Laws of Attraction" in physics class, our science teacher unconsciously revealed his innermost thoughts when he called Seva Withey "Miss Whitney."

MRS. AUTEN READS AN ORIGINAL POEM

The Woman's Study Club Held First Meeting of the Season Monday.

The first meeting of the season of the Woman's Study club was opened Monday with a good attendance. An instructive program was given and all received great inspiration and encouragement to enter the year's work with new zeal and energy.

The president, Mrs. I. B. Auten, gave a pleasant surprise when she read the following original poem as her greeting to the club:

In Michigan, fair Michigan,
There lies a little town;
All placid and serene it lies,
And seeketh not renown.

No mountain peaks nor forest glades
Surround this quiet spot,
Within the Thumb it calmly rests
And the stranger knows it not.

And here a gentle river flows;
One loiters by the brim
To watch rash "kidllets" as they fail
In its limpid waves would swim.

No dancing skiffs nor flashing sails
Are floating on its breast.
A calmer stream was never seen
Than Cass river thus at rest.

It makes its way to the mighty lakes
And the roaring sea beyond
By circuitous course, by mossy banks,
By many a brake and frond.

A noble bridge its wavelets span,
And o'er the dizzy brink
On a pleasant Sunday afternoon
Fond couples hang—and think.

And here from dizzy marts of trade
A railroad crawls along,
And once in a while a train creeps
By—

Oh! mine's a merry song!
But when it comes to Polly Ann
My muse would take its flight.
For of sufferings oft and dire distress
I could tell from now till night.

The case is most deplorable!
E'en the elements in their ire
Have twice hurled down their thunder bolts
And havoc wrought by fire!

Here gentle reader let me pause.
My feelings are too strong!
For if I uttered the words I might
It surely would be wrong!

I will tell you instead, of roads so hard,
So broad, so smooth, so straight,
Which lead into the country wild—
They're the best in all the state.

Huge auto cars go whizzing by,
And all the towns around
Are filled with envy, as they see
These highways so abound.

In every place there are pleasant things,
A few perhaps, not so fine;
But right good will and kindness dwell
In this little town of mine.

"Cass City Mine" is our slogan true,
A right snug, little spot
Where neighbors kind and friends we find
And are glad to cast our lot.

And there's a tho't, with pleasure fraught,
"Rough-how it as we may"
That when the folks once settle here,
They usually want to stay.

For a town is what its people are,

Mrs. P. S. Rice entertained the Royal Neighbors at her home on West Houghton street last Tuesday. It being Mrs. Rice's birthday, the ladies gave her a shower of post cards. Light refreshments were served in the evening and all had a good time. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Brown on the third Tuesday of next month.

Ogden Atwell was 75 years old Friday and in the evening his children, Mrs. Jas. Gooden of Detroit, Elmer Atwell of Decker, Arthur Atwell and Mrs. Jos. Frutchey met at the Frutchey home and assisted him in celebrating the event. Mrs. Frank Striffler of Crowsell, a granddaughter, was also present. The evening will long remain a pleasant memory in the minds of the guest of honor and his children.

Just as the Chronicle goes to press, W. A. Fallis confirms the rumor that he has all but closed the transaction for the sale of his store building, two parties being in the market for it. He says he will close out his stock of harness goods so that he can vacate the building in November. Mr. Fallis has been offered a position in Minneapolis and will probably accept. The change is made in the hope that a different climate may be beneficial to Mrs. Fallis' health.

Grace Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin north of Cass City, and Herman Charter were married in Caro at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fields. They were attended by the bride's sister and brother, Miss Eva and Claude Martin. The ladies were both dressed in cream, trimmed with allover lace, while the groom wore the conventional black. For the present, they will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Charter.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTS FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE

A FRANK OPINION.

It Relieved the Man and Startled the Railroad President.

During the ninth annual dinner of the Traffic club of Pittsburg President George F. Baer told this story.

Now, I do not altogether agree with your toastmaster that the public has any great respect for the ability of railroad magnates. I think they do possibly overrate their capacity. I had a very peculiar experience last summer. I was sitting on my porch in Reading after dinner, smoking a cigar. When up the walk came a very tall man with a carpetbag in his hand. He stopped at the bottom of the steps and said: "Be you the president of the

WALKED DOWN THE STEPS AND TURNED.

Reading railroad?" I drew up my shoulders and said I was. Then he walked up the steps and said, "What is the price of a ticket from here to Niagara Falls and back?" I said pleasantly: "My dear friend, I do not know. You will have to go down to the ticket office. Do you know where it is?" He said "Yes," picked up his carpetbag, looked at me and said, "You are the president of the Reading railway and don't know the price of a ticket to Niagara Falls and back? Well, I said I didn't. Then he walked down the steps and turned and gazing at me for a moment with a look of mingled pity and contempt, said with a sneer, "You are a bell of a railroad president!"

A Stab For John.

At 3 o'clock one morning Mr. Young crept softly up the stairs after a night of dissipation at the club. All was still in the house, but unfortunately he opened the door of the bedroom he stepped on the tail of the cat. A penetrating screech resounded through the house. "John," said the wife, awakening, "don't you think it's rather late to be singing? The neighbors might complain!"

I was afflicted with dull, heavy pains across my loins and mornings when I arose, my back was extremely lame and weak. The kidney secretions were highly colored and there was sediment in them. In a few days after I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills, the pain and lameness was greatly relieved and my back has not troubled me since. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity."

When your doctor orders you to stop work, it staggers you. "I can't," you say. You know you are weak, run-down and failing in health, day by day, but you must work as long as you can stand. What you need is Electric Bitters to give tone, strength and vigor to your system, to prevent breakdown and build you up. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at L. I. Wood & Co.'s.

The Lobster.

The lobster is decidedly pugnacious, engaging in frequent combats with others of its kind, in which contests limbs are often severed, but this loss is soon repaired by the growth of new members, rather smaller, though, than the old ones.

Snake Root.

Snake charmers take snake root and put it into an earthenware pot with a snake, and he soon becomes stupefied and seems torpid and too weak to fight or bite. They put the snake under the influence of the root before pulling his fangs.

MRS. AUTEN READS AN ORIGINAL POEM

'Tis neither the streets nor the trees, 'Tis the spirit of peace and confidence, Our village has both of these.

Now, here, as in other towns we know, The men seem quite intent On amassing an all absorbing wealth, While our women all are bent

On literary paths, and such Pursue the furtive muse, Resolved, that tho' far from the maddening crowd All culture they will not lose.

So a literary club they form To fill the needs of the time To speak of this absorbing theme Is the wherefore of my rhyme.

There they meet to discuss with vigor bold Deep problems of the hour, And tho' at times, there's a hint of storm And clouds will sometimes lower,

Yet beyond and above there's a spirit of peace That permeates us all, And love and good will shine forth again Like the rainbow after the squall.

We meet today to begin anew Our work for the coming year In our cozy rooms, where none molest, And no man hovers near.

English History is our theme And things thereto pertaining. And when these subjects we exhaust, There'll be not much remaining

That we've not tackled in some sense, Turning this way and t'other, 'Tis all put down in our program book— We hope you like the cover.

'Tis green I throw, but what of that? One would surely never, never, Connect the shade with aught that might Match in with our endeavor!

For green's our color, also pink, Two tints so softly blended, Carnation is our chosen flower. A combination splendid.

The list of names you'll see at once Is positively entrancing. Each with her own peculiar gifts As past acquaintance proves him to be of a progressive and all alive gentleman of some promptitude.

The contents most alluring seem From first page to the ending, Imagination joined to fact A fascination lending.

Your committee well have done their work. You see no fault nor failing. They have a program quite complete Much time and skill entailing.

And mark you well the ladies three Who at our public features Extend glad hand to all our friends, Welcome our men—sweet creatures.

Take it all in all you will agree The work for the year ensuing Doth promise well in all respects A careful plan pursuing.

But there's a point, dear people all, Whate'er may be amiss With this lame doggerel of mine It in earnest is in this.

Our aim we said, when first we met Was uplifting of womanhood Which may mean much or little As it is understood.

To me it means to be alert, To give what good we may, To every meeting something bring Which will help us on our way.

For every meeting depends on each Resolved to do her share, And that all may be in harmony Let us ever have a care.

For we are but children of larger growth, With failings not a few; We learn thro' mistakes our lessons in life, And each day must begin anew

To reap, to sow, to work and to win, To love—the greatest of all! Determined to choose the better part Whatever may befall.

Love, that always the kind word speaks, Oft will never take, Will ever work for the good of all And all self-will forsake.

I welcome you, my friends so dear, I see in your kindly faces And friendly smiles a purpose true And a zeal that all embraces.

The mighty king on England's throne Whose power spans the seas, Bears on his crest the legend bold, "I serve"—'Tis words these

That have stirred the blood of England's kings, and led Thro' many changing years, And armies rally to his cause When this proud crest appears.

What nobler aim for us than this To serve, to help, to cheer; To be a friend, with all that means To all assembled here.

I know that I can surely count On your sympathy so kind, That in all mistakes that I shall make Some fond excuse you'll find.

And so together let us work To fill the year with good, And at its close know that in some way We've "uplifted womanhood."

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS

BY
 REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

CHRIST'S DON'T WORRY CLUB.
 Text, "Be not therefore anxious for the morrow."—(R. V.) Matthew VI, 34.
 The first Don't Worry club took its rise not at Battle Creek, but in Palestine. There, amid cloud crowned hills and breeze swept shore, in narrow street and dusty synagogue, Christ communicated to that little circle his own trustful spirit. Men study his every act and word under microscope of closest scrutiny, but in not a single line of his four biographers is there anything that even suggests Christ's giving way to worry. "Thy Saviour hath crucified joy," said the great infidel. Don't you believe it? No; he didn't play the comedian nor act the clown for the amusement of the crowd. He didn't come for that. But "peace" and "joy" were large words in his vocabulary.

Worry is forethought gone to seed; discounts unknown sorrows of tomorrow that you may have misery today. A traitor that dampens your powder weakens your aim. Under the guise of helping you today it steals your strength for the morrow. It is a mental chaos and anarchy. It is an attack of the ravenous, restless horde of the imp of fear, precluding reason, paralyzing action, impairing appetite, disturbing sleep, stimulating disease. The full, rich strength of the subconscious mind, that which produces our best success, is tapped and wasted on worry. If I were to write a twelfth commandment it would be, "Thou shalt not worry."

"Off the Banks."
 Worry leaves days when all goes wrong. Your mental, moral and physical self feels foggy and soggy as a morning of the banks of Newfoundland. From 7 a. m. till 10 p. m. things "break wrong." After a worried, sleepless night you get up out of bed on the wrong side. Beefsteak is tough; coffee is muddy; some one's stolen your morning paper; you miss your car, catch a cold in your head and a cinder in your eye; there's a note due and no money to pay it; agent comes in and wants to insure your life when it's already insured for more than it's worth; you wave him out and upset your ink bottle over your typewritten letters. Shoo! You're in for a day of it. The gloom yimps are camped on your trail.

The day's out of joint, and no surgeon can set it. You'd shut your desk and go to the ball game only it's just started to rain. If there does come a break in the clouds, mental or physical, you discount it. Some people do that habitually. "How are you today, Aunt Hannah?" you say to your old maiden relative. "Oh, I feel pretty good, only I always feel bad when I feel good, 'cause I know I'll feel worse afterward."

"Behind the Clouds Is"—
 Oh, say, cheer up! "Behind the clouds is the sun still shining." "Nothing so bad it mightn't be worse." "It's always morning somewhere." "Every cloud has a silver lining." "Long lane that has no turning." "Always darkest before dawn." Of course you have troubles. So have others. I heard our little colored wash girl say to her older sister, standing scratching her tousled head, "Say, Lize, 's you got creepers?" "F cose I has. Every body has." Most of our worry is selfish. We think of ourselves and our cares only. There are others. Ever keep a "worry book?" On the left hand page of the ledger each worry you've entertained; on the right the actual event, whether the worry comes true or was only a molehill foolishly turned into a mountain.

At month end you'll find most worriers hobgoblins. They've run away. Your right hand page will be empty. Stand up 365 panes of window glass and try to look through them. Might as well look in your hat. Take up one at a time the vision's clear, sunrise and sunset, and the day as it really is. Read of Edison's jest? Going to take a trip to Europe to give himself a chance to worry. He's been so busy that he's had no opportunity. Catch his thought? Idleness, mere pleasure, means worry. Work, action, shuts out worry. Think of busy days and usefulness. "How dismal you look," said the bucket to his companion on the way to the well. "I was thinking on the uselessness of our being filled; we only come away empty." "Oh," smiled his companion, "what a strange view! I always think no matter how empty we come we always go away filled."

What Men Worry About.
 They're worrying over everything imaginable and often many things unimaginable. Watch any ordinary gathering of people in a room, street car, street corner and notice the worriers. The boat will be lost, the train wrecked, it will be raining when they get there, they will be too late for dinner. People worry when they're poor and when they're rich, when home and when abroad, when in trouble and when they've escaped it; because they are tall or short, dark or fair, fat or lean. Excessive ambition gets its grip on a fellow who's doing nicely. The humming bird wants to be a crow, the robin a buzzard. They fly higher and look bigger. Our good old easy chair is multiplied into twenty stiff gilded things. We collect things for things sake. My rich friend on the avenue is a mere caretaker. He and his wife are drudges—the only servants in their house that work for nothing.

Dr. A. B. Spinney will be at Sheridan Hotel, Cass City,

ANDREW B. SPINNEY, M. D.

FIFTY YEARS of active practice; TWELVE YEARS in general practice of medicine and surgery; TWO YEARS Professor in Detroit Medical College, filling the chairs of Anatomy and Physiology; FIFTEEN YEARS in Sanitarium and Hospital Work; TWENTY YEARS giving public lectures to the people in Churches and Opera Houses in nearly every town in the State upon all subjects pertaining to Life, Health and Disease,—and thousands of lectures upon Temperance.

I could publish hundreds of testimonials of cures I have made,—yet will publish only a few,—many being of a delicate and private character.

Statements of Cases:
THIS IS TO CERTIFY—That I, Edward Flynn, of Whittemore, Michigan, consulted Dr. Andrew B. Spinney, at the Griswold House, Detroit, after I had been operated upon by Dr. Walker of Detroit, Mich., for CANCER OF THE STOMACH, with closing of the case between stomach and intestines. After operating on me, Dr. Walker of Detroit sewed me up and sent me home as a HOPELESS CASE—TO DIE. I then consulted Dr. Spinney in November, 1907. My weight was 100 pounds. My stomach would tolerate no food. I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet. I was starving to death. Dr. Spinney sent me directly from Detroit to his Sanitarium at Belding, Michigan, where I remained from November, 1907, to June, 1908. During this time I grew stronger each day, could retain my food, and worked in Sanitarium six months of this time, and my weight increased to 130 pounds. And I am now working and able to take good care of my family. I feel that I OWE MY LIFE TO DR. SPINNEY'S SKILL! MY RECOVERY IS A LIVING MONUMENT TO HIS REMARKABLE ABILITY AS A SPECIALIST IN THIS LINE! MY WEIGHT NOW IS 155 POUNDS. EDWARD J. FLYNN [L. S.]
 Subscribed and sworn to this 27th day of January, 1909, before me, a Notary Public in and for Huron Co., Mich. Fred H. Brown, Notary Public, Huron Co., Mich. My commission expires November 6th, 1912.

Some 16 years ago I consulted Mr. Andrew B. Spinney. I had a dreadful cough, from which I had been suffering for several months! He said I had BRONCHIAL CONSUMPTION. Our Physicians here reckoned said I was dead! Dr. Spinney treated me for two (2) years, and completely CURED ME! I feel that I OWE MY LIFE TO HIM! MRS. EMMA C. PROCTOR [L. S.]
 State of Michigan, County of Calhoun, ss. Before me this 8th day of February, 1909, appeared Emma C. Proctor, who under oath states that the above is true to the best of her knowledge and belief. W. A. Howard, Justice of the Peace. My term expires July 1, 1909.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That I, Mrs. George Koyle of Whittemore, Michigan, consulted Dr. Spinney, after doctoring with three doctors. I was suffering from CANCER OF THE STOMACH, and would have died from it within a short time if I had not been treated by Dr. Spinney's Sanitarium for treatment, where I took his medicine and received benefit of special treatments, strict diet, etc. I weighed when I went to his Sanitarium, 115 lbs., while before I was taken sick I weighed 137 lbs. I was at his Sanitarium for eleven weeks—the first five weeks I could retain nothing but raw eggs and milk and Eskay's Food. I was allowed solid foods, at the end of the seven weeks I was able to go to dining-room, and take long walks, and went home at the end of eleven weeks,—and did my farm house-work, without a hired girl! I CAN SAY I OWE MY HEALTH AND LIFE TO DR. SPINNEY! As my cure was completed 1 1/2 years ago, I feel pleased to give my testimony to the public, in hope that those who suffer from and believe, are benefited by his treatment, even as I have been. MRS. GEORGE KOYLE [L. S.]
 Some three (3) years ago, I, C. D. Flint, of No. 236 Cherry St., Battle Creek, Mich., consulted Dr. Andrew B. Spinney, who pronounced my case one of Diabetes in its worst form! He treated me for three years, and today I AM WELL AND STRONG!
 C. D. FLINT [L. S.]

When I was seventeen (17) years old, my Mother called Dr. A. B. Spinney,—AFTER ALL DOCTORS HAD GIVEN ME UP TO DIE! He diagnosed the trouble as PERNICIOUS ANEMIA AND DROPSY! I began treating with him, and although he gave me but little hope, I CONTINUED UNTIL NOW I AM WELL AND HAVE BEEN FOR 16 YEARS! Thanks to his ability to handle my complicated case! MRS. C. H. FLINT [L. S.]

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—I, Isaac Bechtel of Brown City, Michigan, do hereby state that I OWE MY GOOD HEALTH AND LIFE TO DR. ANDREW B. SPINNEY! I consulted him first December 1st, 1907. At that time I was suffering from chronic diarrhoea of many years standing; enlarged liver, diabetes, weak heart and constant pain in my right leg and foot. On December 10, 1907, I went to his Sanitarium where I remained for three months and took his medicine and special treatments prescribed by him. I have since been in good health and have been able to do my usual work. I HAVE ENJOYED THE BEST OF HEALTH SINCE I HAVE KNOWN HIM. I HAVE KNOWN HIM FOR 16 YEARS!
 ISAAC M. BECHTEL [L. S.]
 Signed and sworn to before me, a Notary Public for Sanilac Co., Mich. Hugh McLeod. My commission expires Sept. 13, 1909.

As I have not room here for any more certificates I will give you the names and addresses of the following persons I have cured of the diseases named and you can write to them.

John Spinney, Alma, Michigan, suffered from nervous prostration for two years and was cured at my Sanitarium by the aid of the lymph which was used one month.
 Nisan Clapp, Northville, Michigan, had apoplexy and was incapacitated from all mental labor for one year, was at my sanitarium for four months, and took the lymph for 11 days, and is now writing for seven farm journals each week and attending farm institute four months in the year what I did for him.
 Mrs. W. S. Hall, Whittemore, Michigan, had piles for 20 years. She was cured five years ago and has been well ever since.
 Mrs. E. E. Ewan, Beldingville, Michigan, consulted me over 20 years ago, was given up by all her home physicians to die with consumption. I cured her in one year, and she has been well ever since. She has given me her sworn statement, indorsed by Mrs. Betsy Brown, Beldingville, Michigan.
 Mrs. Wallace Wagner, Colon, Michigan, was given up by the home physicians to die of bronchial consumption. I treated her for two years some 15 years ago. She has been well ever since.
 Lyman C. Howe, of Fredonia, New York, suffered for years with bronchitis, dyspepsia and nervous diseases; six years ago he came to my sanitarium and took the lymph for three months, he has given him a ten years lease of life.
 Mrs. Henry Brandt, Royston, Michigan, had chronic diarrhoea for four years and was given up by all the physicians in Hillman and Alpena. I have treated her one year and she is still well and wishes others to know what I did for her.

If anyone wishes I will give the names of those I have cured of Epilepsy, Paralysis, Blood Poison, and eye and ear diseases,—and Piles.
 During these years I have had two finely equipped Sanitariums,—of my own burn to the ground, at a loss of over $25,000.00 above insurance,—yet I am better established than ever at Smyrna, Michigan,—with one Large, General Hospital,—where all forms of Chronic Diseases are treated and Surgical Operations are performed! Also have a maternity ward, and a few private rooms devoted to RESCUE WORK AMONG UNFORTUNATE GIRLS children adopted by Christian Families; poor girls can work out fees.—Beside Care and Treatment!

Also have a cottage of seven rooms separate from Large Sanitarium,—where all forms of Nervous Diseases are treated. In these cases we use Swedish massage, Wier Mitchell Rest Cure,—all forms of electrical treatments, including Leucodensent Light. And in cases where everything else has failed,—call it hopeless.—Locomotor Ataxia, Chronic Articular Rheumatism, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, so called hopeless cases of Paralysis, cases bordering on Dementia and Brain Softening we have used for Eight Years. The Roberts-Hawley Lymph, which has NEVER FAILED! While using Th. Lymph, we use all the other Sanitarium Treatments mentioned above, as well as medicine. Also an eight room house across the street from Sanitarium with no communication with other patients, I have a Consumptive Home, with every modern improvement,—and in addition to what is used in ordinary Lung Hospitals, I use Dr. Roberts' Specific, of New York City,—that cures 75% of so called "hopeless cases"! Plenty of fresh air, pure Jersey milk, and Fresh Eggs. ALL CONSULTATIONS FREE! EVERY OPINION FRANK AND RELIABLE! EVERYONE GIVEN THE WHOLE TRUTH, AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH! My Sanitariums are plain, quiet and homelike, no style; BEST TREATMENTS AT LOWEST PRICES OF ANY PLACE IN THE UNITED STATES! CONSULT ME AT PLACE AND DATE BELOW.—or WRITE,—ANDREW B. SPINNEY, M. D. SANITARITUM CO., SMYRNA, Ionia Co., MICHIGAN.

Dr. A. B. Spinney, of Detroit, a specialist of 52 years' experience in treating chronic diseases will give free consultation and be at the above named hotel on said date.

It Beats the World to cure Rheumatism

Aching and enfeebled muscles should remind you of slowness of tissue repair. Eruptions of the skin and catarrh of the mucous membranes show diminished nerve power in the tissues.
 In health or disease there is need of an internal bath. This is best obtained by drinking a glass of pure water with one or two teaspoonfuls of San Jak 30 to 60 minutes before breakfast, washing the blood. This passes quickly from the stomach and stimulates the bowels to increased peristalsis, overcoming constipation and its attendant ills. It is quickly absorbed and entering the blood stream bathes the cells of the liver and heart, then passes to the brain and washes out the cobwebs and awakens to new life every cell in the body.

San-Jak dilutes theropy secretions and dissolves all abnormal crystalline substances that may be in the blood and urine. SAN-JAK greatly promotes elimination, creates downward peristalsis, stimulates a flow of digestive juices. It dissolves the sticky mucous in the mouth and throat, allowing the membranes to be bathed in their natural secretions. San-Jak is the great medium of exchange in the body, by enabling the kidneys to absorb and eliminate alkaline sulphates which are the products of intestinal decomposition and in renal weakness or the real cause of Bright's disease.
 Man does not wear out like a piece of machinery by constant disintegration for he is self renewing. When he loses his ability to self-renewal or fails in process of making young blood, the nerve tissue is not sufficiently nourished and his strength and health fail.

SAN-JAK is the only medicine which will enable you to keep a perfect balance between elimination and renewal of the body. Decay of the body at any time of life is unnatural. Permanent waste of the system can be avoided by the use of SAN-JAK.

Rheumatism, catarrh and bladder trouble, the source of trouble to humanity, is due to a too high or low specific gravity which may be regulated to normal by taking SAN-JAK.

Swelling under the eyes, grayish white or waxy color of the skin denotes granular disease of the kidneys. The cure is SAN-JAK.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Landon,

Pretty Forgetful.
 "You forgot to get that silk for me?" she asks. "Why, I tied that strip of cloth around your finger this very morning to remind you of it."
 The husband stags blankly at the strip of cloth and then says:
 "Well, I'll be jiggered! And here I've been trying all day to remember how I happened to hurt my finger!"—Chicago Post.

What It Is That Wins.
 A countrywoman remarked to her neighbor during a conversation on their return from market, "How is it, Mary, that you have been married four times and I've never been married at all, and I'm much handsomer than you?"
 "Aye, to be sure," returned Mary, "but it ain't handsomeness that does it, Sarah. It's the 'come hither' in your eye."

OF COURSE NOT

She—People do not often marry their first loves.
 He—No, not often. At least, not more than once.

The Word "Hiccough."

The spelling "hiccough" is recent, being a combination of the syllables "hic" and the latter term of "cough," which is without either physiological or etymological basis. The pronunciation, with perhaps the rarest exceptions, is still that of the older form "hiccup," earlier given variously as "hickup," "hickupnickup," "hickhop," "hickcock," "hickcock" and "hickett," with quasi-diminishing suffixes ock, et, but the "hick," a syllable aptly expressive of the spasmodic sound produced by the conditions giving rise to the particular disturbance, is found in all references to the origin of the term to which the writer has been able to obtain. The term singultus is rarely used.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by all dealers.

Gilbert and Sullivan.

Questions have often been asked as to the real cause of the difference between Gilbert and Sullivan at one time, and many erroneous statements have been made on the subject. The truth is very simple and commonplace. Gilbert objected to the proposal of Mr. D'Oyley Carte to include the sum of £1,500 for refurnishing the front of the Savoy theater in the preliminary expenses of the production of "The Gondoliers." Sullivan did not support him in the way he thought he should, and for a time a coolness between them resulted. It was, however, always a matter of the greatest satisfaction to Gilbert that he and Sullivan were the best of friends again before the latter died.—Westminster Gazette.

A Dreadful Sight

To H. J. Barnum, of Freeville, N. Y., was the fever sore that had plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and wrote: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Boils, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Corns and Piles like magic. Only 25c at L. I. Wood & Co.'s.

Appearances.

A capitalist at a dinner said wittily of a suspected gold mine: "Gold mines are like human beings—they can't be judged by their appearance. You know what Frank R. Stockton used to say about judging by appearances: "Don't trust a man because he carries a silk umbrella—he may have left a cotton one in its place."

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

Still retains its high place as the best household remedy for all coughs and colds, either for children or grown persons. Prevents serious results from a cold. Take only the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and refuse substitutes. L. I. Wood & Co.

Willing to Tackle It.

The proprietor of a shop was explaining the situation to the applicant for a traveling salesman's position. The late traveler had, he said, got his business all in a tangle, and his successor would find much difficulty in getting order out of chaos. "I don't know who chaos is," put in the new man, "but I'll bet you'll get an order out of him even if I have to hang on to him for a week."

A Great Advantage to Working Men

J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me and have my highest praise." L. I. Wood & Co.

 To say that every man has his price is a vile slander. To say that is to deny the existence of the great men who have died for their faith and their country. Nonsense! 'Tis the last plea of a knave and issues out of the mouth of a fool. The sterling strength of man and woman rebukes it everywhere.

The Ballot.
 Secret voting was exercised by the ancient Greeks and Romans. Ballot boxes were used in electing aldermen in London in 1526. First instance of the employment of the ballot in American elections was in the choice of a pastor by the Salem (Mass.) church on July 20, 1629. In 1634 it began to be used in the elections of governors of Massachusetts.

A LITTLE REBEL
 By ALBERT TUCKER KENYON
 Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

In the spring of 1863, when the Federal General Rosecrans was confronting the Confederate General Bragg at Murfreesboro, Tenn., I was a captain in the —th Ohio regiment of that army. One morning while I was officer of the picket post deployed on either side of the turnpike leading directly south a young girl of fifteen or sixteen came to me and asked me to let her go through the lines to her home, which she said was about a mile down the pike. I told her that I had no authority to do so, but if she would go to headquarters very likely she would get a pass.

She said that she had been to headquarters, but the general was busy and she was pressed for time. She had come up to town to get some medicine a doctor had prescribed for her mother, who was at the point of death. She looked so distressed, turning a pair of heavenly blue eyes upon me beseechingly, that I was sorely tempted to disobey orders and let her go through. War is very hard on the people of the country where the armies are contending, and I confess I had no stomach for that part of it. The girl saw I was weakening and exercised all her persuasive faculties upon me.

"While I am waiting here," she wailed, wringing her hands, "mother may be dying."
 The brutality of keeping her under the circumstances was a little more than I could bear. It was several miles back to the town where were the army headquarters, the girl looked tired, and two or three hours would necessarily be consumed if I forced her to go there to make another application for a pass.

"Can you see your house from here?" I asked.
 "You can just see the chimney over the hill. There it is, on the right side of the turnpike."
 "I'll go with you."
 I expected an outburst of gratitude. Instead she threw up her hands in protest.
 "Not for the world would I get you into trouble. A Confederate vedette is stationed on the road right in front of our house. You would be captured."
 Her unwillingness to implicate me enhanced my desire to serve her, but it also tended to add to my uncertainty as to what to do. My orders were to let no one go beyond our line who did not have a pass. To disobey such an order would render me liable to a very severe punishment. But I was young and full of chivalry. Would it not be better for me to take the risk upon myself than keep this poor girl from carrying medicine to her dying mother? My offer to accompany her was that I might be able to state that I had not let her out of my keeping while beyond our lines. Since it was evident from what she told me as to the proximity of the vedette that this plan would not serve I was at a loss to decide what other course to pursue.

The girl kept wringing her hands and moaning till she almost set me wild with indecision between the dictates of my heart and my duty.
 "If I let you go," I said to her, "and it is known by my superiors I shall be court martialed and doubtless suffer some severe penalty."
 She stood for a moment thinking, then said: "Suppose I start to run. You follow me and at last give up the chase."
 "No," I said. "I will either let you go through openly, disobeying orders, or not at all."
 "Oh, do let me go!" she pleaded.
 "While you are detaining me you are withholding from my mother what may save her."
 "Well," I said at last. "I'll risk it. Go ahead."

She gave me a grateful look, and I saw in it at the same time something of pain or regret. I was looking her straight in the face, on each side of which were two puffs such as were in vogue in women's hairdressing at the time. These puffs were, I believe, usually rolled over something to give them their shape. There was a break in the puff on one side of the girl's head, and a thin line of something white, over which it had been rolled, was visible.
 A suspicion struck me.
 "One moment," I said.
 I reached for the puff and held on to it till I had taken out some crumpled white paper. Smoothing it out, I saw on it writing and figures. A brief examination showed me that it embraced estimates of each division of our Army of the Cumberland, giving its exact position.

"This is the medicine," I said to the girl, "that you are carrying to your sick mother."
 There was no reply, only a look of disappointment and vexation that her scheme had failed.
 "Corporal," I cried, "take this girl in to general headquarters and this paper also. Say that the girl was trying to get through the lines with it." Then to the girl, "You must have a seared conscience to practice such deception."
 "Not at all," she replied. "I was trying to help our cause and thousands of our people and our brave boys. I am sorry I failed."
 "And I rejoice that you did. Next time I shall not be so chicken-hearted."

I never heard if she were punished; probably not. The next day we moved out on the Tullahoma campaign.

Faith in the People.
 It would surely have been highly dangerous to confide the destinies of the species to Plato or Aristotle, Marcus Aurelius, Shakespeare or Montaigne. At the very worst moments of the French revolution the fate of the people was in the hands of philosophers of no mean order.—Maurice Maeterlinck in "The Mystery of Justice."

MAKE
 as much as you may, when you get old you have nothing unless you save. Did you ever notice how debts grow if you let them alone? Savings grow the same way. If you had put away five cents a day for the past 21 years how much do you suppose you would have now? Over $500, counting the interest added every January and July. Your money begins to the first of the next month after you deposit it. A bank account is as good as an insurance policy. Better than some.

YOUR

MONEY

FOR
 you can't always get your money on a policy when you need it. If the shop shuts down, if the folks get sick, if you want to buy a home, if you want to take a vacation, there's nothing like a good bank account.

 Scene—Train stopping at small station. Irritable Old Gentleman—What on earth do they stop at a station like this for? Objectionable Passenger (alighting)—To allow me to get out. Irritable Old Gentleman—Ah! I see it has its advantages then.

The Crocodile.
 Pliny said the crocodile's skin "will abide any injury and not be pierced." That may have been true in his day, but it is not true now. The bullet of a heavy modern rifle will pierce the skin anywhere unless it strikes in a slanting direction. The crocodile is not as a rule hard to kill, provided one can get a good shot at it, but that is just the trouble. It has not the marvelous vitality of the shark, which will sometimes struggle furiously for an hour, although covered with apparently mortal wounds.

Precoxious.
 "How far back can you remember?"
 "I can remember learning to spell 'cat.' I was only three."
 "Pshaw! Why, my first memory is writing a letter to a correspondence school for lessons in walking."—Tolledo Blade.

THE NATIONAL CAPITOL BUILDING BUILT IN CASS CITY IN MINIATURE

The Masterpiece Is Executed From 10,000 Cakes of Royal Cuticle Soap

A SIGHT OF A LIFE TIME-- and one that is worth coming miles to view. Every citizen of Cass City and the Thumb should see this wonderful piece of workmanship. It is a marvel of ingenuity and artistic skill. It exhibits the front elevation of the capitol--the mammoth arch of triumph with its ornamental columns of Liberty and Chariot of Progress. The great hall--flanked with the smaller halls running through the entire building--is shown with marked exactness as to its distinctive features and adornment. This masterpiece is executed in our large display windows, and with one purpose in view, to make you acquainted with the ROYAL CUTICLE DOCTOR SOAP.

A 20c Cake for 5c The Greatest Soap Sale Ever Inaugurated in Michigan A 20c Cake for 5c

In order to thoroughly introduce their medicated Royal Cuticle Soap, the Royal Soap company of Cincinnati has selected and appointed the highest class and most popular store in each city, through which to offer the greatest soap bargain ever offered in America and incidentally make one of the most unique and picturesque displays ever shown.

In selecting their representatives for Cass City they naturally first thought of Wilsey & Cathcart and arranged for this display and appointed us sole agents for this city and vicinity.

Instead of distributing small free samples to each family, the manufacturers allow us during this event to sell one 20c cake for 5c and six cakes for 30c, and not more than six cakes to one person. No dealers supplied.

This soap is famous elsewhere, but has never before been sold in Cass City under its present name--although a soap made from the same formula is sold everywhere under another trade mark at 25c a cake. This Royal Cuticle Soap is the cleanest, purest, softest and most soothing you can put on your hands or face. You should get a half dozen cakes at the introductory price which we will make for a short time while the exhibit is in our window. This price is positively the lowest ever named for such a high grade of toilet soap.
