23 FILE PETITIONS IN TUSCOLA CO.

FOR THE PRIMARY ELECTION
AUGUST 25.

Republican and Democrat Candidates
File Petitions in Sanilac County.

Twenty-three candidates have filed petitions in Tuscola county for nomination at the primary election for the various county offices to be held Aug. 25. They are classed in two parties—Republican and Progressive Democrat. For only one office is there any contest and that is the Republican nomination for sheriff.

The list of candidates and the offices to which they aspire are:

Representative—Alonzo J. Sherman of Postoria, Republican; C. Henry Geyer of Unionville, Progressive Democrat.

Sheriff—Wm. M. Morris of Cass City, Chas. W. Smith of Caro and Erastus C. Brainard of Vassar, all Republicans; Jas. C. McPherson of Tuscola, Progressive Democrat.

Clerk—Robt. Brown of Caro, Republican; Cass M. Cullis of Vassar, Progressive Democrat.

Treasurer—Henry S. Wickware of Caro, Republican; Dougald Livingston of Novesta, Progressive Democrat.

Register of Deeds—Joseph Walton of Caro Republican; Claud A. Cole of Juniata, Progressive Democrat.

Drain Commissioner—Albert Hunter of Dayton, Republican; Byron Sutcliffe of Denmark, Progressive Democrat.

Prosecuting Attorney—Henry H. Smith of Caro, Republican; Wm. L. Brooks of Millington, Progressive Democrat.

Circuit Court Commissioners—Jas. D. Brooker of Cass City and Harry P. George of Caro, Republicans.

County Surveyor—George B. Felton of Kingston, Progressive Democrat.

Coroners—Sherman F. Chase and Carroll W. Clark, both of Caro. Republicans; Arthur L. Seeley of Mayville and John E. Handy of Caro, Progressive Democrats.

The board of county election commissioners appear to be in doubt about the petitions for the Progressive Democrat nominations complying with the new primary law and intend submitting the matter to some higher legal authority than the board, to decide as to their legality before being placed on the official ballot.

The board has taken the position that the Progressive Democrat is a new party and candidates of a new party are required to have at least 100 signatures on each candidate's nomination petition to have the name placed on the ballot. The number of signatures secured by the Progressive Democrat nominees is said to be less than 100.

Sanilac County Petitions.
The following candidates have filed petitions in Sanilac county:

For Sheriff—Thomas Dunphy, Republican; Wesley Davidson, Democrat; Owen F. Teeple, Democrat.

For County Treasurer—Richard J. Loree, Republican; George Donaldson, Republican; William J. McCaren, Democrat.

For Register of Deeds—L. Edmond Warner, Republican; William J. Kennedy, Democrat.

For Prosecuting Attorney—Fred A. Farr, Republican; H. O. Babcock, Republican; Alex B. Simonson, Republican; Wilford Macklem, Republican; Fred S. Viets, Democrat.

ATTENTION EXCHANGES!

A number of Thumb newspapers have taken the dates of Thumb fairs from the state fair premium list and have printed the Cass City Fair dates for 1914 as Aug. 17-20. This is incorrect. The correct dates are Sept. 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Editors will confer a favor upon the local fair officials by calling attention to the correct dates.

ON LAST LEGS.

After causing losses to Michigan farmers approximating $2,000,000, the army worm invasion of the state has been put down, though in a few districts the worm is still at work.

That the worst is over, however, is vouched for by Dr. G. D. Shafer and G. C. Woodin, of the Agricultural college. These men, who were dispatched to the affected districts to aid farmers in their fight against the pest, have returned to M. A. C. with the report that their services in the field are no longer required. The worm, according to the East Lansing experts, is "on its last legs."

REDPATH MEETINGS NORTH SEEGER ST.

$2 SEASON TICKETS TO BE RAISED TO $2.50.

Those Desiring Tickets at $2.00
Must Act Promptly. Fine
Program

Those who attend the Cass City Chautauqua will have a program that cannot be matched except at another Redpath Chautauqua. The talent is of the very highest. When in one week the people of any community can have the privilege of hearing Dante's Band, the Bolander Orchestra, Geo. L. McNutt, the American Quartette, Wells Watson Ginn, Kirk Towns, Governor Eberhart, the McCord Trio, besides other attractions of the highest order; when any village can have such a feast all in five days for $2.00, it is certainly very highly favored.

Nothing but the Chautauqua plan, devised by the Redpath Bureau which controls the best talent in the country, could bring such a feast of good things for so little money. As one can learn by computing the cost of single tickets for each event, the cost would exceed $4.00, while the whole can be had for $2 by those who have a season ticket.

Only 600 tickets will be sold at the price of $2. The tickets are on sale at practically every business place in Cass City and those desiring them at the price of $2 should act promptly. Season tickets will later be advanced to $2.50.

The Chautauqua entertainments will be given under a big tent on North Seeger St., between the Robinson Laundry and the S. F. Bigelow residence—a central location, easily accessible.

CRAMTON SCORES TREASURY DEPT.

CONGRESSMAN SAYS MANY UN-JUSTLY PENALIZED.

Many Organizations Fined $50 For Failure to File Income Tax Returns.

Congressman Cramton of Lapeer, directed his colleagues attention in a forcible speech to the drastic way in which the income tax law provisions are being enforced. He said that they were bearing too severely and unjustly upon many corporations such as mutual fire and life insurance companies, co-operative dairies, telephone and farmers' organizations.

He pointed out that in numerous instances farmers' organizations and similar bodies, which from the nature of their organizations cannot act promptly, have been penalized $50 for failure to file returns.

In almost all instances these bodies have consulted lawyers and been informed that they were not liable to pay income taxes.

He presented a letter from Oklahoma alleging there are 1,000 such corporations in Oklahoma unjustly compelled to pay unfair penalties.

Chairman Underwood of the resolutions committee, replied that the treasury department has entire discretion regarding penalties and can accept one as low as a dollar, and he suggested that action lies with the treasury rather than by Congress.

To that Cramton retorted that inasmuch as the treasury declines to exercise a reasonable discretion, congress ought to give the desired relief. Many Michigan corporations have thus been penalized.

THE COUNTRY BOY'S CREED

FARMING AS SCIENTIFIC AS ANY PROFESSION.

Opportunity Comes to Farm Boy as Often as City Lad Says Manager State Fair.

"We cannot do too much for the country boy and the country girl; they should stay on the farm and we must make them realize it is the best place to be," says G. W. Dickinson, Secretary-Manager of the Michigan Fair. "Nowadays, with the telephone, the automobile, the rural free delivery and the centralized school, children in the country enjoy all the advantages of city children and they are not brought into constant contact with the evils of city life. Many young people think farming is just work, like ditch-digging. The State Fair School, which will be one of the features of this year's Fair, serves to correct this impression. The boys are taught that farming is as scientific and as highly organized as any business or profession and that a person can get to the top by it as quickly as by any other way.

"In every schoolhouse in Prince Edward County, Va., the following creed for the American country boy is posted. To me it puts the matter in a nutshell as I was brought up on the farm, and I would like to see the 'Country Boys' Creed' posted in every rural school in Michigan."

"I believe that the country which God made is more beautiful than the city which man made; that life out of doors and in touch with the earth is the natural life of man. I believe that work with nature is more inspiring than work with the most intricate machinery. I believe that the dignity of labor depends not on what you do but how you do it; that opportunity comes to a boy on the farm as often as to a boy in the city; that life is larger and freer and happier on the farm than in the town; that my success depends not upon my location, but upon myself; not upon my dreams, but upon what I actually do; not upon luck but upon pluck. I believe in working when you work and playing when you play, and in giving and demanding a square deal in every act of life."

HERE AND THERE AROUND THE THUMB

OPENING OF WILMOT BANK POSTPONED.

Criminal Cases Few in Tuscola in Last Six Months; Other Items of Interest.

Dr. H. McCrea, pioneer physician of Marlette, is dead. He settled there in 1776.

The Gagetown Times was 17 years old last week and is as snappy and newsy a sheet as many published in many larger towns.

Rev. A. Caldwell has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Marlette Presbyterian church. He has been offered the pastorate of the Ewart church and will take up his work there the first week in August.

Ealy & Co. have decided to postpone opening a new bank at Wilmot until further notice. They had been assured that an elevator would be built there in time for handling farm produce the present season, but as no steps have been taken to carry out that plan, they don't think it advisable to open a bank until there is a greater demand for it than now appears.

Prosecuting Attorney H. H. Smith has forwarded his semi-annual report for Tuscola county to the attorney general, showing that criminal cases have been comparatively few. However, he remarks that over 20 warrants have been issued since July 1, and that the business runs in "streaks." Total number of cases, 48; convictions, 45; settled by marriage, 2; discharged on examination, 1.

Miss Elsie Ford of Snover had a rather exciting experience while accompanying a party of young people on their way to a marshmallow roast on the banks of Cass river. The young ladies saw what they thought was a level piece of sand in the moonlight, and running down the railroad grade, Miss Ford, who was in the lead, made a jump for the sand and landed into a ditch with five feet of water in it. The young lady was finally rescued by the male members of the party, and seemed none the worse for the plunge.

EXPERIMENTAL MAIL DELIVERY SERVICE

A reply to a local citizen from the Post Office Department at Washington to a recent inquiry regarding the "Crist Bill" reads as follows:

In answer to your letter of the 30th ultimo, which the Postmaster General has referred to me, in behalf of the establishment of experimental delivery service at Cass City, I beg to state that the appropriation available for this service is sufficient to permit its operation at only a small percentage of the towns where the requirements of the Department can be met. These requirements include sidewalks, street lights and signs, and house numbers, and that the patrons shall provide receptacles for the mail. This service is already in operation at a number of towns in Michigan, but your letter will be placed on file for consideration when the matter of establishing the service at additional offices is taken up.

In this connection it should be stated that the postal regulations have been amended so as to provide that—"All persons, except those residing within the city delivery limits of a city where city delivery service is in operation, may be served by rural carriers, provided they have erected approved boxes on the established lines of the route in the manner required by the Department."

JAS. S. BLARSLEE,

LETTER FROM MRS. I. B. AUTEN

DISCUSSIONS OF CHAUTAUQUA
WOMAN'S CLUB.

Summary of Good Things Presented in Five Days at Chautauqua, N. Y.

Chautauqua, N. Y.

Would the ladies of the Woman's Study Club care to learn something of the discussions by the members of the Chautauqua Woman's Club? I venture to think so, and will write a little of what we have heard here this past week.

On Monday, Dr. Van Kirk, who attended the Peace Conference at the Hague, talked on the World's Peace and showed us a flag, originated by himself, which he seemed to think would be adopted to represent that movement. It consists of a globe, a series of the seven spectrum colors which converge to form a belt of white around the world. This is on a field of blue containing stars which represent the peace making nations. One hears much about the Peace Movement here. Two ladies have also given addresses to the Club. Mrs. Duryea said that at the Second Hague Conference there were literally all the peoples of the world collected under one roof and the results of their deliberations have been seen in the conferences for mediation which have been held to settle disputes between nations since that time. If progress is made in a decade, it is satisfactory, for all great movements come slowly.

In the last analysis, it becomes a personal matter for each one. From an economic point of view, war is the greatest of all burdens. No woman would think of spending three-fourths of her income for bolts and bars, but that is just what the nations of the earth are doing. The entire contents of five hundred college libraries, the books which have been collected during a period of 270 years are valued at $16,000,000. This is less than the cost of one first class battle ship and the annual up keep of such a ship is a million more. If the amount spent on one warship were taken for the education of negroes of the South, a Tuskegee Institute could be equipped in every Southern State. If the amount spent in this country for armament were spent to fight the white plague, enough institutes and hospitals could be established to cover the country well.

On Tuesday, Dr. Mabel Ulrich of Minneapolis spoke on Present Day Interest in Social Hygiene. The correct way to approach the subject will include a training of the child's mind in all the great ramifications of the idea of sex, which means far more than the subject of disease or immorality. It includes the ideas of the home, of the development of the world, of chivalry and of true love. True sex education is not a sentimentality, nor is it a biological fact; but it is a carrying out of the constructive possibility which will develop the mind and consciousness of the child in the right direction and will give a strong, positive and well built up character. Dr. Ulrich gave seven lectures to young girls, teachers and parents at different hours. I wish every woman in Cass City could have heard what she had to say. There are so many problems concerning our children which puzzle and baffle us. Two lectures were on Adolescence, explaining the dangers of crushes, of spooning, of extreme styles of dressing, of wrong methods of dancing the modern dances, and of evening parties for students of high school age. Don't be alarmed, she said, if your girls are silly, irritable and hard to control; or if your boys are impatient and inclined to "break over the traces."

"BETTER BABIES!"
FAIR'S SLOGAN

Michigan's Great Exhibition
Supplements Nation's Effort.

NOTED WOMAN AT THE HEAD

Instruction Given to Mothers In Care of Children—Child Welfare Exhibit to Be on Display—Babies From All Over Michigan In Health Contest.

If the men and women of the Michigan of tomorrow are to be the happy, healthy, normal persons that make the best of citizens they must be happy, healthy and normal babies, and they must have the best of care and training through the perilous days of childhood. The management of the State Fair believes that while thousands of dollars have been spent—and well, too—in instruction to enable farmers to improve their flocks and herds, far less attention has been given the babies than is their due.

It has been only within the past two years that the United States government has realized the necessity of such instruction and has sought to provide it. The federal children's bureau has been established and is doing splendid work. The fair management has decided to supplement this each year with an effort of its own, and a better babies' department has been added to its activities. This fall, at the fair which will be held Sept. 7-18, instruction will be given to mothers in the care and training of their children, and a child welfare exhibit will be on display. In addition babies will be entered in a health contest, children from one to three years being eligible. Mrs. George G. Caron, president of the Detroit board of the Michigan Children's Home society and a recognized authority on child welfare, will be superintendent, and Dr. Mary Thompson Stevens of Detroit, judge.

Mrs. Caron is the wife of a physician and for many years has been a recognized authority on child welfare. She is a mother, and she brings to her work an experience rich in understanding and in knowledge of child life.

All children between one and three years of age are eligible to entry, there being three classes. Babies from rural districts and towns of 1,000 population or less will be in Class A, those from cities and towns between 1,000 and 15,000 population in Class B, and those from cities of over 10,000 population in Class C. In addition, the fair management offers special prizes for triplets six months and under twenty-four months old. The entries must be in Saturday, Sept. 5; the examinations will begin Wednesday, Sept. 9, and continue through to Sept. 16, the award of premiums being made Thursday, Sept. 17, at 11 a. m. The contest and the welfare exhibit will be held in the new Clara Barton hospital.

"The contest will be entirely educational," says Mrs. Caron. "It will be our effort to bring to the attention of the mothers of Michigan the importance of caring for their babies properly, of giving them the right kind of food and of dressing them in the clothing best suited to the seasons and to their needs. When babies are well started in life, when they get safely past those first few years, half the battle has been won. Boys and girls are of just as much account as cattle and horses, if they are not more so, and we owe it to our state to do the best we can for them."

RECOGNIZE STATE'S PROGRESS

Six National Hog Breeders' Associations Offer Premiums at Fair.

An idea of the merit of the swine exhibit at the Michigan State Fair, Sept. 7-18, may be gained from the fact that no less than six national organizations have offered premiums and trophies for the various breeds. While Michigan has not been one of the most prolific hog producing states in the Union, it has taken rapid strides in the past five years, and the announcement of the national trophies is evidence that its progress is being recognized.

The American Berkshire association offers a solid silver trophy valued at $50 to the owner of the best herd of Berkshires consisting of a boar and three sows under one year. The animals must be bred and shown by a Michigan exhibitor, and the entries must be made with the secretary of the American Berkshire association, as well as with the secretary of the Fair. In addition, the Michigan Berkshire association offers a silver trophy valued at $25 to the owner of the best four Berkshire pigs, either sex, under six months old.

The American Hampshire Record association offers a special silver trophy for the best four pigs of either sex under six months old shown by a Michigan exhibitor.

The National O. I. C. Chester White Record association will give cash premiums for the best boar and best gilt over six and under twelve months, the best boar and best gilt under six months and grand champion boar and grand champion sow.

The American Yorkshire club will award a special cash premium for the best young herd—boar and three sows under one year—bred by the exhibitor, who shall be a member of the American Yorkshire club.

The National Duroc-Jersey Record association offers three cash prizes for the best boar and three sows owned by the exhibitor, a silver trophy for the best young herd under one year old consisting of a boar and three sows, three cash premiums for the best barrow under one year, and three cash premiums for the three best pens of barrows.

The American Duroc-Jersey Swine Breeders' association offers five special premiums for the best Duroc-Jersey herd under one year old.

These special premiums are in addition to the many premiums offered by the fair management for the winners in the various classes in the swine department.

An Odd Postcard.

The most curious post card ever produced, according to a leading philatelist, was one which the Japanese government put out in 1873.

In describing it he says it is "really a sheet of paper folded so as to form four pages of a narrow book. On the front page is a border inclosing an impressed stamp for the postage rate and a space for the address. On the second page are printed in native characters only minute directions for use. On the third page are ruled a number of vertical lines, between which the sender was to write his communication, and the fourth page was a blank." They remained in use until 1875.

Missed the Combination.

He is one of those gushing old beaux who think flattery the key to favor with the gentler sex. The other evening he was at a reception with his wife, and they met the handsome Miss Blank, at whom he fired a whole battery of compliments. Then, turning to his wife, he said, "It's a good thing I didn't meet her before I married you, my dear."

"Indeed it is," she smiled sweetly—"for her. I congratulate Miss Blank."—Exchange.

Whispering.

What is the most arresting noise—the human shout, the fire bell, the toot or scream of the motorcar? Not a bit. A doctor will tell you that the human whisper is the wakener. A patient may sleep through all the noises but that, which some people think secret, in a railway train. And the first thing a nurse has to learn is not to whisper, for you can waken the soundest sleeper with that when a conscientious carpenter's hammer would leave him sound asleep.—London Standard.

He Had a Reason.

"Boy, why did you give me the signal to duck out of my office yesterday afternoon? Did you not know that the lady inquiring for me was my wife?" "Yes, sir; that was why."—Houston Post.

THE HIGHER LIFE.

The one prudence in life is concentration, the one evil is dissipation, and it makes no difference whether our dissipations are coarse or fine, property and its cares, friends and a social habit or politics or music or feasting. Everything is good which takes away one playing and delusion more and drives us home to add one more stroke of faithful work.—Emerson.

Languages of the World.

A very precise computation has been made by Adelung, representing the number of languages in the world at 3,424—937 Asiatic, 587 European, 276 African and 1,624 American. This number is far too small. It is impossible as yet to reckon the number exactly until we are sure that each unknown tribe of savage man has been brought within the knowledge of the world, but it is not an overstatement to estimate the languages of the world at more than 5,000.—New York Sun.

Very Interesting.

"What do you find so very interesting about society?" asked the ordinary person.

"Watching people trying to get in," answered Miss Cayenne.—Washington Star.

And You Get Taken In

"What is this kleptomania I read about in the papers. Is it catching?" "No; it is taking."—Boston Transcript.

Floyd R., four year old son of Curtis Cooper, fell down cellar Friday at his home at Fostoria, crushing his skull. He died Monday from concussion of the brain and the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the M. E. church in Novesta township. The Cooper family formerly lived in the Leek school district.

Henry C. Hackett of Union Springs, N. Y., writes: "I see that I am again in arrears with my subscription to the Chronicle. I think it expired June 7, 1914. Enclosed please find $1 for same. I have been so long away from Cass City (25 years), that there are many new names mentioned. Still I find many things that interest me."

"In conversation with a lady residing on a farm near Colwood the other day she remarked that she was going to attend the Chautauqua at Cass City next month if she had to walk all the way here," said Stanley Waldon to the Chronicle. The Chautauqua entertainments with their high class talent are worth walking the eight or nine miles too, if one hasn't a better mode of transportation.

Saturday, July 25, was the 50th birthday of John Tewksbury of Novesta township and Mr. Tewksbury will long remember that anniversary and its pleasant associations. A host of relatives gathered from far and near, at his home and "made merry" all day Saturday. Dinner was served on the lawn beneath the willows and here was conceived the name of the farm and it was dedicated the "Weeping Willow Farm." Mr. Tewksbury was presented with many gifts with which to remember his arrival at his half-century milestone. One that he especially prizes is a gold watch in which each member of the company "had a hand" in purchasing. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Tewksbury, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Tewksbury, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Macklam, Frank Walcott, all of Romeo, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. LETTER FROM MRS. I. B. AUTEN

Continued from first page. They are beginning to feel new in pulses within them, and at this time parents must be very patient and wise to ease over this period of unrest. Let the mother beware lest a barrier grow up between her and her daughter that may never be broken down. Youth usually thinks it is "misunderstood" which is all most trying for parent and child. The parent can never remember that he or she was ever like this. She told of a mother who went to Stanley Hall, a teacher along this line, and wanted him to look at her daughter's dairy. She couldn't understand such idiocy in an apparently sensible girl as was expressed in that book. Mr. Hall explained to her how unnecessary was her distress and said that probably the mother had done the same thing in her youth. The mother knew that to be impossible, but it happened that she chanced upon an old dairy of her own in the attic. Therein the sentiments were almost the same. The mother was frank enough to carry her own dairy to Mr. Hall. This is the time when young people run away from home. So she warned parents to study their children, and not to think animal spirits were necessarily depravity, but be careful to guide as wisely as possible and be very patient. The women of Chautauqua expressed the greatest appreciation of Dr. Ulrich's work and especially appreciated her frankness and direct exposition of subjects usually inadequately and vaguely treated and her correction of many ideas commonly held. On Wednesday, Mrs. Vincent spoke concerning the Travellers' Aid Society. This is a society formed for the purpose of furnishing protection for women and girls travelling alone. In the past year 1,600 girls have been reported as having been lost between New York and Chicago. The aim of the society is to furnish one or more capable women for every railroad station in the country. There are many organizations interested in this work, particularly the Society of Jewish Women, the W. C. T. U., the Y. W. C. A., the Home Missionary Society and the Catholic church. This Society hopes to consolidate the interests of these various societies. Mrs. Wilson of Philadelphia spoke on "A Woman's View of the Immigration Question." She stated that in the first ten months of the last fiscal year 1,038,956 immigrants came into this country. Of these 350,000 were females. These all need the sympathy of our women. They are lonely and homesick, and it is not so much money they need as a kind word and a sympathetic interest in them; for true charity gives far more than dollars. These people must be made desirable members of Society if the future of the nation is to be protected. On Thursday, Miss Mary Downey, Director of the Chautauqua Library Training School, spoke of Influence of Club Women on Library Work, which I will not enter into; but, she made it plain that every town should have a library well supported and patronized. Miss Gill spoke for the Board of Censorship of Motion Pictures of which she is a member. This Committee consists of 125 members divided into groups of eight. One group meets in the morning and another in the afternoon of each day in the week. So there is always a committee sitting to view the pictures. They refuse to pass films which appeal to the lower emotions, films which excite any morbidity or which unnecessarily lengthen scenes of disaster, death or suffering. In few cases is the film condemned entirely. It may be modified in some way, the name changed, etc. More than 90 per cent of the films are submitted to this Board. Friday morning, Mrs. Cawein, wife of the poet, read several of Mr. Cawein's poems very acceptably. Mrs. Frank Beard read two of her own poems, and Mrs. Alden, author of the "Pansy" books, told the story of how her first Chautauqua book "Four Girls at Chautauqua" came to be written. Such is a summary of the five club days of this week—just a hint of the good things presented. We meet at nine o'clock each morning except Saturday, in the Classic Hall of Philosophy. Mrs. Vincent, president for fourteen years—opens the meeting with a prayer or a message of ome from some writer, when the work of the morning proceeds after the usual manner of Clubs. One joins by the payment of twenty-five cents and is given a card which admits her to any federated Club in the United States. This season there are so far about four hundred members. ELIZABETH H. AN APOLOGY. An apology to Mr. Ray Yakes, Senior 1914, not because of the threat of terrible (?) bodily harm, but because Mr. Yakes assured the undersigned that he did not read my article "Why Is It?" July 3 and also that he did not have anything to do with writing the communication signed "The Senior Class"; in fact did not even see it. If Mr. Yakes will read both articles, he will readily see that "Why Is It?" gives the general conduct of the public towards the musicians who freely give their money and time to learn to be able to help elevate mankind, by singing and playing at church and other public occasions, and that the communication of "The Senior Class" makes a personal attack upon the author of "Why Is It?" simply because he has a bad (?) habit in exposing the wrongs inflicted by the unthinking public on our deserving brothers and sisters. Mr. Yakes can also realize that the writer was under great provocation when he wrote "spouting." It is cheerfully admitted that a more euphonious expression should have been used. F. LENZNER, Cass City Mich., July 26, 1914. (Advertisement.)

Dante and His Band Coming to Our Chautauqua

ONE of the big features of Chautauqua week here will be the appearance of Signor E. Forcelatti Dante and his band, each member of which is a real musician, well trained and with a keen appreciation of his art. Signor Dante, at the age of seven, was a student in the Conservatory of Naples and graduated from that college at the age of seventeen. Ten years later he began his work as a band leader. Signor Dante is also a great soloist, his skill with a trombone being widely commented upon by leading musicians. That Dante has a good band, strong in its individual features, is evidenced by the beauty and fineness of special solos. Extreme care is taken in the arrangement of Dante's programs. Popular music will be played, but special attention will be directed to classical pieces. Grand opera selections will be presented with brilliancy and power. At Venice, in Southern California, where from 80,000 to 100,000 people gather each Sunday to hear band music, Dante is a favorite, and at Denver also his concerts were enjoyed each afternoon and evening for weeks.

SCRAP BASKET

Aids to Weather Conjecture.
Sunset Colors—A gray, lowering sunset, or one where the sky is green or yellowish-green, indicates rain. A red sunset with clouds lowering later in the morning also indicates rain. Halo (Sun Dogs)—The large circles or parts of circles about the sun or moon. A halo occurring after fine weather indicates rain. Corona—The small colored circles frequently seen around the sun or moon. A corona growing smaller indicates rain; growing larger, indicates fair weather. Rainbows—A morning rainbow is regarded as a sign of rain; an evening rainbow of fair weather. Sky Color—A deep blue color of the sky, even when seen through clouds, indicates fair weather; a growing whiteness, an approaching storm.

Wise and Otherwise.

The heart is most sensitive to neglect when it is very young or very old. Unfortunately some mothers-in-law forget that they once were daughters-in-law. The real sensible people we know are those whose opinions agree with our own. There seems to be nothing new in vacation advice this year merely the same old admonitions to look out for the drinking water and not to spend more than you can afford, neither of which anybody has the slightest intention of heeding.

Kitchen Kinks.

To make pies brown and crisp looking, brush top crust with milk. Plunge tomatoes in very hot water, then into cold. The skin will come off easily, and they will remain firm. To clean a pan in which sirup or candy has been cooked, put cold water in it, place cover tightly over and set on stove to boil. The steam will dissolve sugar. Into the boiling water used for poaching eggs, put one teaspoon of vinegar. Stir the water with circular motion, drop in eggs, and you will find they are round in shape and look inviting, as well, when taken out.

Of Interest to Women.

An apron made with a bit of table oil cloth is a great saver when washing dishes. It is a good plan to pepper a carpet thickly just where any heavy piece of furniture has to rest on it, as this helps to keep moths, etc., away. Gilt frames and mountings soon lose their lustre. They should not be rubbed. If very dirty wipe gently with little borax water and dry carefully. To remove oil from marble take finely powdered pumice and vinegar. Wash entire surface with mixture and leave it for six hours, brush hard and wash with clear water. When dry rub with whitening and chamois.

Chautauqua Week at Cass City, August 14 to 18

DEFORD.

Another gale with cyclone intentions visited our town last week. In olden times a certain number of righteous saved the place. Have we got the count? That's the problem for Deford after two visitations. The prize gravel road east of here progresses. Miss Joyce Retherford is spending a week at Ubyly with an old school-mate. School Dist. No. 6 frl., Kingston, will have a new fence from present indications.

Miss Vera Retherford took the old end of last week and the new end this week and spent them both at Cass City. Loda Kennedy has commenced his new barn. It will replace the one razed by the cyclone. Wheat good berry. One-fourth of the beans cooked before the time. Potatoes badly injured. Do we notice that corn will live longer with hot water on the ground than any other crop we raise? All heavy oats lie low and are twisted in the shape of a woman's hat. Some insane person has been bothering on telephone line No. 158, Independent phone. We met brother and sister Jones on the way to town. No words were on their close pressed lips, their faces wore a frown. We said, "Look up, the crops are good, money this fall to burn". But they gave their heads a dubious "shook" and cried out, "The army worm." Yes, we have made a discovery. While casting on the "Spanish green" we found a peculiar bug devouring a potato beetle. It had destroyed many and their wings lay on the soil. The creature is about double the size of the potato beetle, dark ground work, with yellow stripes on its back so arranged as to show the picture of the flag of Ireland—A cloud may hover over "Home Rule" but plenty of potatoes for the good people is assured. Mrs. Rene McConnell and daughters, Jennie and Mable, visits in the vicinity of Lum. About two weeks ago Guy Sweet was kicked with a horse and has been unable to labor since. But don't feel bad for him for it may be the best thing that happens to a man like Guy. He has always been such a worker that couldn't find time to ask some man's daughter to help him, and now that he has spare moments he may "pop the question" to some of the many who are "watching and waiting."

Mrs. Clark Courliss has gone to Oakland county and Detroit to visit friends. Mrs. John Retherford and Mrs. J. D. Funk spent the 24th at North Branch visiting Mrs. Geo. Gidings, an old schoolchum of the early days of Troy, Oakland county. Her maiden name was Blanch Robinson. Sure, good water! Day has completed a well on the Ben Sharp farm that will never grow less. Depth, 111 feet.

All new things that come to us are forced to fight their way for a time to an establishment and then we take to them kindly. For instance, when the auto came our horses were scared and we said a law must be passed to keep the "buzzers" off the highway, etc. No one thinks of such a thing today. Joseph Inglehart, father of John Inglehart of Novesta, visits the latter. Mr. Inglehart is the richest man who has come among us for many years. He is in possession of treasures that the so-called wealthy of the world may be but poor in comparison. Joseph Inglehart, in his 95th year, walked from the R. R. station to his son's, a distance of 3 1/2 miles, as well as a younger man. He can drive the team on the hay fork and do light work as well as a kid. In connection with this is a thought, Mr. I. was born with health, and if we inherited no disease and violated no laws of nature in life there is no reason why we could not all be centenarians. 'Tis sin, inherited or otherwise, that makes us physical and mental "screws".

Mrs. Abel Koppleberger spent Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lewis.

Mrs. Ray Franklin visited from Monday until Wednesday at her parental home here.

Russel Bettes' father visited here for a few days; also his son, Harold, at Owendale.

Mrs. Mason Wilson returned to her home at Vassar after spending a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sargent. She was accompanied by her little niece.

Mrs. Lafayette Sargent left Friday for her home in Pontiac after spending three weeks with relatives here and at Cass City and Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lewis left Friday for Lum where they will visit Mr. Lewis' sister for a short time.

R. Kennedy has carpenters at work building his barn in town, lately blown down by cyclone.

Mrs. Frank Crawford and children were in town Friday.

Mrs. Frank Striffler accompanied her uncle, Joseph Frutchey, home Friday by motor car.

CEDAR RUN.

Mrs. Charles Ruby of Flint is visiting her sister, Mrs. Herbert Houghton.

Wm. Ware, sr., has gone to visit his daughter at Oxford. Wm. Ware, Jr., accompanied him.

Miss Marie Martin has been spending a few days at Caseville. She returned Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Hartwick, who has been ill, is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown of Cass City visited at Bay Crane's Sunday.

Home Industries.

"You'll have to do some work mending fences," said one statesman. "I've got clear past thinking about fences," replied the other. "I'm drawing plans and specifications for a cyclone cellar."—Washington Star.
