

CASS CITY FAIR WAS A SUCCESS

BIG EXHIBITS, BIG CROWDS AND A FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

List of the Prize Winners in All Departments Are Printed Below.

"Very well!" "Fine!" "A great fair!" Was much pleased with attractions and exhibits.

The unanimity of opinion of the thousands in attendance at the Cass City Fair is shown in the above expressions which are a few of the many favorable comments heard in praise of the exposition last week.

The weather up to Friday evening was very favorable, the attractions pleased the crowds, the races were hotly contested and interesting, and the exhibits in all departments were good with the exception of the poultry where but few entries were made.

The night carnival proved to be a popular feature with its special free attractions and fireworks. Many who were unable to leave their work during the day found it convenient to come to the fair at night and the night crowds probably equalled the number of day visitors.

The night shows helped out well on the financial end. After all the expenses of this year's fair are paid the association will have a nice surplus left.

Thursday was the "big day." Eight thousand paid admissions were recorded on this day and that number was augmented by many children who were admitted without charge.

The cashing of premium awards on the last afternoon of the fair and the prompt payment of expense bills by the association meets with hearty approval of all fair patrons.

The fair association will hold its annual meeting for the election of officers and directors at the council rooms Tuesday evening, Sept. 14.

All those holding membership tickets are urged to be present and participate in this business session of the society.

OPEN LETTER

To the Republican Electors of Tuscola and Lapeer Counties:

It being impossible for me to see and personally thank the many republicans of Tuscola and Lapeer counties that have so loyally supported my candidacy for senator, I take this means of expressing to each of them my sincere appreciation for such kindness.

I have endeavored to conduct my campaign in a fair and gentlemanly manner and believe no one can accuse me otherwise. It is admitted by all that the coming primary is for the sole purpose of choosing our nominees and no fair minded candidate will deny each voter that privilege.

While many rumors detrimental to my candidacy have been brought to my attention, many of them untruths, I can not feel it was with any malicious intent but was said and done, if at all, in the excitement and anxiety of the campaign.

I desire to emphasize the fact that my candidacy was not promoted by any man or set of men, that I have made no promises to nor have I any understanding with any man or set of men, directly or indirectly, pertaining to my action should I be nominated and elected except the promise to the people of this district to fulfill the duties to the best of my ability. This I reiterate, will be my sole aim and purpose.

Often in the heat and excitement near the close of a campaign matters are brot up prejudicial to this or that candidate and for such purpose only when it is too late to answer them. Such tactics, if any, I hope will not be successful.

I trust and hope every republican voter possible will register their choice on primary day and still more important, be at the polls at the election and help to make the republican majority in this district the largest in our history, regardless of who are the successful candidates. Such a result is much more desirable than the personal ambition of any candidate.

Respectfully yours, Dr. O. G. JOHNSON, Candidate for State Senator.

BURDEEN BURSE HOOVER APPRECIATES THE GREAT AID GIVEN VOLUNTARILY BY HER FRIENDS.

I am deeply grateful to my many friends who have voluntarily assisted me in my canvass for treasurership. The many assurances of support received from all parts of the county make me confident that I shall be nominated. If nominated I can see a door of opportunity opening for myself and sister which will make it possible for us to recover from the adversities which for years have been hanging over us. It has brought joy to our patient mother to know that friends all over the county are supporting my candidacy. You know my story as related by so many of my good friends, and I can add nothing further, only to again thank one and all for their loyal support which is appreciated by our family more than words can express.

BURDEEN BURSE HOOVER. —Adv.

SANFORD L. UTLEY FOR COUNTY CLERK

The wide scope of county business handled by the county clerk is not generally known. The clerk is a county agent with work requiring much skill and judgment. No other office is in so close contact with the welfare of the people. Each new citizen, each birth, death and marriage is permanently recorded by him. All county funds, totalling hundreds of thousands of dollars, are disbursed through orders or warrants of the county clerk. He guards the expenditure of out tax money, refusing to honor incorrect bills and charges against the county.

He is also clerk of the Circuit Court and is charged with the care, filing and recording of all actions at law and suits in chancery. The various and intricate orders, decrees and other proceedings of the Circuit Court he records at length in its journals and calendars. He is skilled in the law of court procedure, and is able to furnish the general public with much information obtainable only through lawyers. An experienced clerk expedites the work of the court, saves time for litigants and money for taxpayers.

He is also clerk of the Board of

DR. O. A. NEWLIN

Who will commence the Newlin tent meetings on the grounds west of the Cass City Schools next Sunday, Aug. 29, at 10:30 a. m., under the auspices of local churches. Three services will be held Sunday—10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Sunday Schools will convene at the respective churches at 9:30 a. m.

COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS THROUGH WHICH OFFICE ROAD BUILDING OF THE VALUE OF FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS IS NOW BEING HANDLED WITH DAILY INCREASING SKILL AND EFFICIENCY.

And now that the county clerk has become familiar with the intricate procedure of the Covert Road Law, with its complicated ten-year tax rolls and bond issues, why should we begin again to educate a new man? That is not common sense.

He is also Clerk of the Board of Supervisors to whom his knowledge of county affairs is of value. He has charge of the preparation and distribution of all election ballots and is clerk of the Board of County Canvasers of Elections.

Under the recent Uniform Accounting Law he is required to maintain six extra sets of accounts and to balance these books each day as banks do. This requires judgment, skill and a wide acquaintance with all doing business with the county. No business man willingly changes a good bookkeeper, cashier or manager. It is too exasperating and expensive to train a new one. That is why all counties endeavor to retain the services of an able clerk.

Sanilac County is simply a business corporation, organized for the welfare of the people, and you, Mr. Voter, are a stockholder and director. On Tuesday you will hire a man to work for you as clerk.

A man of proven worth and training is worth more to the people than any other.

The people need Sanford L. Utley for their clerk.—Adv.

TO THE VOTERS OF TUSCOLA COUNTY.

A final word before the primaries to be held next Tuesday. I wish to thank you one and all for the support and encouragement given me in my candidacy for the office of County Clerk. I believe you are going to stick by me to the finish, as the job will not be complete until the close of the polls next Tuesday. I have refrained from saying any unkind things about my opponent. I am appealing to your sense of justice and fair play in this matter, as to whether a candidate for an important office, should be expected to live up to his pre-election pledges or not, as you are all aware of the pledges made by my opponent in 1916, in a similar contest at that time.

If in your opinion a candidate should be made to honor his pledges made to his constituents when seeking their support for an important office, the best way to register that opinion is to give me your undivided support for the office of County Clerk, next Tuesday; and if nominated and elected, I will pledge you my very best efforts will be used to see that the important duties of that office will be discharged in a capable and efficient manner.

Don't forget to get out to the Polls, as nothing but votes will be counted. Respectfully yours, GUY HILL, Gilford Township.

THE FARMERS' CAMPAIGN CLUB

The campaign of 1920 in Sanilac county is without equal. There never was a time when there were more candidates seeking office. There never was a time when a county campaign was more expensive. There never was a time when as much time and money was spent by candidates in advertising their virtues. There never was a time when candidates and their friends were more free to circulate reports intended to injure another candidate and exalt themselves. There never was a time when the truth was as little regarded as a virtue. There never was a time when it was more difficult for a poor man to get public consideration. There never was a time when Sanilac County was more thoroughly organized by office seeking candidates.

For all these reasons, the chairman of the Sanilac County Farmer's Campaign Club has been very much interested in this campaign. Many reasons could be given which would have a more personal nature but we hope enough has been said to suffice and that we will be able to abstain from casting any personal reflections.

It has been tried for some weeks to stem the tide of political corruption, but instead of getting better, the conditions seem to continually go from bad to worse.

The people, the plain people of Sanilac county, have been crying for relief but all means available seemed inadequate to meet the situation.

The chairman has recognized a vision which has inspired him with a belief that by cooperation of the independent voters Sanilac county can be lifted from the mire, from the depths of political pollution to which she has fallen. And the initial steps in the present organization have been taken with a view to crystallize the vote of free thinking men and women of the county in a concrete body to accomplish that which is impossible without organization.

It was this which prompted the call of a meeting to which some citizen in each township in Sanilac county was invited. At this meeting a ticket was selected by a committee representing five townships: Elmer, Flynn, Maple Valley, Washington and Watertown. Each member of this committee was selected by members of each delegation present who without instructions or recommendations from the chairman or any person present selected the following ticket which was unanimously approved by the house.

Governor—Milo D. Campbell. State Senator—John Hunt, Bad Axe. Probate Judge—Grant H. Smith. Sheriff—John A. Johnson. County Clerk—Garfield Benedict. Recorder of Deeds—Wm. Robinson. Treasurer—Geo. Donaldson. Drain Commissioner—Bert Walker. Prosecuting Attorney—Robt. J. West.

This is a suggestion for every voter who has no special reason for voting for another candidate to cast his ballot for men thus selected and thereby crystallize the vote of the unorganized, giving them a chance equal to the organized. There is no man asked to pledge his support to this ticket, each man will act on his own free will initiative.

The idea is a 50-50 game in selecting county officers. This has been the demand of the unorganized voter for years but without avail. The cities and villages are represented by four and the farms by six men, which is in about proportion to the population as compared in city and country, also as to location, no two candidates from same township or city, the 50-50 plan. I suggest that you take a copy of this list with you to the booth.

Hoping that this matter will receive your honest consideration and that you will mark your ballot having in view the undivided and best interest of Sanilac County.

Yours for cooperation, Jno. W. Goodwine. Origin of the Sanilac County Farmers Campaign Club.

Sandusky, Mich., August 24, 1920. To Whom It May Concern:

In order to inform those wishing to know the truth, I make the following statements:

The movement of the Sanilac Co. Farmer's Campaign Club was started without encouragement or suggestion from any candidate or friend of candidate. The first meeting was called and plans made public without knowledge of any candidate or his friend. Also that the Sanilac County Farm Bureau was not in any way connected with this movement and that no officer of the Bureau was asked for advice or gave suggestions in this matter.

That I am a Republican, having never voted the Democrat ticket.

That I am not receiving money or promise of money for promoting this movement but am acting upon my own free will in the interest of public welfare.

Yours for the betterment of Sanilac County. Jno. W. Goodwine.

At the age of twelve she united with the Primitive Methodist church of which she was a faithful member until 1895 when she was transferred to the Novesta Baptist church of which she was a member at the time of her death.

She leaves to mourn her loss an aged husband, two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Mason Leek of Saginaw, Robert at home, Sanford and Anna of Detroit, fourteen grandchildren and a host of friends.

TO THE LADY AND GENTLEMAN ELECTORS OF TUSCOLA COUNTY

This is a picture of Ex-County Clerk Robt. P. Reavey—the actual farmer candidate for Representative in the State Legislature for Tuscola County, who feels just as much at home and just as pleased to present himself to the farmers and laboring men and women of Tuscola County in his actual working clothes for their consideration and votes at the primaries, as tho he were dressed with white collar and shirt and a one hundred dollar suit of clothes.

Wish also to state that owing to the scarcity of farm labor I will be somewhat handicapped in making as thoro a canvass and seeing as many of you as I would like to, but in this connection I am pleased to be informed by many farmers and laboring men that they would rather know of me being at home on my farm at work than chasing around the country and bothering them and neglecting my own business. —Adv.

TO THE LADIES.

This, your first attempt, you are given your greatest privilege—equal rights. We want you to be sure and vote right. We appeal to your intelligence as a voter. Here is a man not fostered by the ring (who are trying to force a man on you that they want)—an independent man, an experienced man, a man in the prime of life, active and a doer. He does not appeal to any special clan or class of people. He will give everyone the same square deal. A true Republican. DO YOUR DUTY RIGHT VOTE FOR

NO BETTER DAY, NO BETTER TIME

TWO M. E. S. S. HAD BIG TIME AT BAY PORT RESORT TUESDAY.

Everyone Agrees That He Had the Best Time Ever at Bay Shore Gathering.

No better day than Tuesday could have been found for the Methodist Sunday School picnic. The crowd including both young and old from Bethel and Cass City, gathered at their respective churches at nine o'clock, were packed into autos, and whisked to Bay Port where the day was to be spent.

A most bountiful basket dinner was the first thing on the program for the day for everybody felt hungry after the long ride. The Cass City boys who are spending a few days at the Y. M. C. A. camp and their leaders, were guests of the picnickers for dinner and the afternoon sports.

In the afternoon, there were sports of all kinds and description. The older boys played the younger ones in a game of base ball and won from them 11-8. While this game was on the married ladies and girls were engaged in playing indoor base ball. Though the latter game was not as fast as the first, it was no less hilarious. Then there were other contests staged in the grove after which a short program was given which consisted of recitations by several of the little folks, brief talks by the superintendents of the two schools, E. W. Jones and James Profit, by the pastor of the two churches, Rev. O. R. Grattan, and by the Presbyterian pastor, Rev. Edwards, who is conducting the Y. M. C. A. camp, and a dramatic solo by Mrs. Hoxie.

When the program was over, everyone was treated to ice cream by the Sunday Schools, after which they all went out on the dock to view the water sports. There were three watermelon races, one for boys from 12 to 14 which resulted in a tie between Grant Pinney and Garrison Moore; the second for boys from 14 to 16 was won by Bert Law; and the third for those over 16 was won by Glenn Profit. The older boys again played and won from the younger ones in a game of water ball.

By the time all these things had taken place, it was time to return home. Everyone agrees that they had the best time ever. The two schools found the fellowship together so satisfying that the combined sessions to be held in the town church at 9:30 are sure to be a great success.

A FINAL WORD

To the Lady and Gentleman voters, especially the Soldier boys: The right or wrong of the third term is not the question at this time. It is a question of justice and fairness.

I entered this campaign with the encouragement and endorsement of the majority of our Board of Supervisors, our Circuit Judge and hundreds of other fair minded men throughout the County, who think that the last two terms should not be compared with any two terms of the past; and that I should not under the circumstances, be held to statements made at a time when none of us anticipated such conditions.

I fully realize what arguments my opponents would use against my candidacy but I feel confident that the majority of the voters of this county are not so enslaved to any political custom that they will turn me down without giving me something near as good an opportunity as other County Clerks have had. The coined phrase, "It's a good thing, pass it around," cannot possibly apply this time. At least one term has been literally "shot to pieces" by excessive work, extra expense for help, the unheard-of jump in the cost of living, with a comparatively small increase of pay; and I am only asking for this extra term as an effort to give me a show equal to what other clerks have had, and probably will have in the future. Is that unreasonable?

My opponents say "Frank has been an extra good clerk," some saying "the best clerk we ever had." Now if they believe what they say, why should they insist upon holding me to statements made when none of us even dreamed of war, with the work and worry day and night which was my task for two years. It is true that many others worked hard too

TO THE ELECTORS OF TUSCOLA COUNTY. I am a candidate for the office of representative in the State Legislature. I am a farmer and have been practically all my life. I was a candidate four years ago. At that time I was told it would be impossible for me to win as the political organization was against me. I lost by 80 votes, having received a majority of all the votes cast in the county outside of Caro.

I am again a candidate with the political organization against me. If elected there will be no strings on me, and I will be in a position to serve all the people. I will greatly appreciate your support.

PRIMARY ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that a general primary election will be held in the Township of Elkland, County of Tuscola, State of Michigan, at Township Hall, within said township on Tuesday, Aug. 31, A. D. 1920 for the purpose of placing in nomination by all political parties participating therein, candidates for the following offices, viz:

State—One candidate for Governor; one candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Congressional—One candidate for Representative in Congress for the Congressional district of which said Township forms a part.

County—Also candidates for the following county offices, viz.: Judge of Probate, Sheriff, County Clerk, County Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Prosecuting Attorney, 2 Circuit Court Commissioners, one County Drain Commissioner, one surveyor, two coroners.

Delegates to County Conventions. There shall also be elected as many delegates to the county convention of the several political parties as said Township or Precinct is entitled to under the call of the county committees of said political parties, which number will be indicated by the number of blank lines printed on the official primary ballots used at said election under the heading, "Delegates to County Conventions." The Board of Primary Election Inspectors will furnish delegates with credentials, entitling them to seats in the county conventions, except that where there is more than one precinct in a Township and the county committee requires the election of delegates from the Township as a whole, such delegates should be admitted without credentials. The elector must name the political party of his choice when asking for a ballot and in marking his ballot must make a cross in the square to the left of the name of each elector for whom he desires to vote, and can vote for only one candidate except where two candidates are to be elected, in which case he should vote for two.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. J. Riggs from Toronto, Ont., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cleland Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor and family expect to go to Saginaw next Sunday to visit friends in that city.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. E. W. Keating at three o'clock this (Friday) afternoon.

An admirer of Scotch reels calls the Chronicle's attention to the omission of mention of the dancing of Neil Martin, David Tyo and Jacob Hurley and the bag pipe playing of M. Ferguson in the Nestle's Co.'s picnic write up. The Chronicle inadvertently omits mention of program numbers occasionally and this was one of the times.

The Cass City Sand and Gravel Co. has received an American steam pump which is being installed at their plant. This pump has a capacity of a thousand gallons of water a minute and will be used in the company's screening and washing plant. A quantity of eight-inch pipe needed for connections to the pump was excavated from the old power house site owned by J. A. Caldwell, a member of the company. The company has made several car lot shipments of pit-run gravel recently.

Wm. Martus and son, William, Miss Leamore Linck and their guests, Sylvester and Helen Elsey, of Detroit motored to Imlay City Sunday, where they enjoyed a basket picnic with the following—John Linck and family of Brown City, Peter Linck and family of Burnside, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Elsey and Mrs. Nellen Back of Detroit. Sylvester and Helen Elsey returned to their home in Detroit Sunday and will long remember the pleasant weeks spent at the Martus farm.

P. S. McGregory, who sold his business block and his interest in the T & M Quality Store last week, has been identified with Cass City business interests for 36 years. Mr. McGregory has witnessed many changes in this community in the period of time which extends from the day of ox teams to that of aeroplanes. He started in business here in 1884 with his partner, J. S. McArthur, and operated many years under the firm name of Two Macks. Later the firm dissolved partnership and divided the stock, Mr. McArthur taking the dry goods and Mr. McGregory retaining the clothing and shoes and with this line Mr. McGregory has been identified in Cass City until the present time. He paid strict attention to his business affairs, but contributed his share of time and talent towards the improvement of the community. For many years, he was a member of the board of education and has always been identified with the upbuilding of the local Baptist church. After 36 years in the harness, Mr. McGregory is entitled to a real vacation and here's hoping he enjoys it.

A FINAL WORD.

during part of this time; but in nearly all cases it was in township units with several to put on the drives at intervals; but the draft work began some considerable time before any drives started, continuing day after day and month after month with no let up. It included the whole county of 23 townships and the nature of the work was far more trying and worrisome.

I desire at this time to express my appreciation and extend my sincere thanks to all, especially the soldier boys, who are helping me in this fight for a square deal. I have failed to find one soldier of the late war who is opposed to my candidacy, for which I cannot find words to express my gratitude.

Don't fail to be in at the finish on August 31st and bring all your friends. Votes will count that day.

Who would not feel confident with these boys boosting?

Sincerely yours,
—Adv. FRANK W. BOWLES.

BOOTLEGGERS LEAVES HAT, COAT AND JUG

At the county jail at Bad Axe awaiting the owner to call for them is a man's hat and coat, a five gallon jug, partly full of whisky and a harness and buggy. They are all supposed to be the property of a bootlegger recently operating in the vicinity of Pigeon.

The capture was made in this way: Al Smith of Pigeon heard a disturbance in front of his residence at about two o'clock Tuesday morning of last week. He went out and found a buggy overturned in the ditch and a horse struggling beneath it. A man was there too, apparently the worse for liquor. Mr. Smith went for a neighbor to help get the horse untangled and out of the ditch, but when he returned, the strange and unknown man had gotten the horse out of the ditch, taken the harness off and ridden it away. The man had evidently pulled the cork out of the jug and tried to tip it over so the contents would run out. The jug only leaned over a little and only a part of the booze ran out. The sheriff is looking for the man who left Pigeon on horseback without a hat or coat.—Tribune.

Flies Make Profits Fly

What effect they have on unprotected cows is aptly told in the following paragraph which appeared in a well known farm journal:

"If a cow is obliged to fight flies all day and mosquitoes all night and be constantly on the go to satisfy her appetite, she is likely to rest after she has produced a maintenance ration and naturally has no surplus to turn into milk and butter fat. The normal cow under such circumstances will produce a certain quantity of milk, but this is done by drawing on her own resources and will gradually decrease as her resources become impaired."

Flies suck one pint of blood per day from each cow during August and September. Can you afford this loss?

BUILD YOUR SILO NOW!

Before Your Corn Ripens

RIGHT NOW—before corn cutting time is one day nearer, build a silo. It will give you feed with all the milk-producing, beef-building qualities of June pastures the year around. More milk, quicker feeding, better manure—actual dollars in your pocket. It will pay for itself in one year.

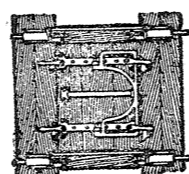

Build a Tecktonius Wood Stave Silo. It makes silage right, and keeps it right. No waiting for deliveries. We have Tecktonius Silos here, now—and with the foundation in, you can

Build the Tecktonius in 1 or 2 Days

The vital silage making processes are absolutely dependent upon the heat generated in the silo not being allowed to escape, and the outside air not being allowed to enter. The silo must be air-tight. This is where wood proves its superiority for silos. Of all building materials, it is the very best non-conductor of heat. Held air-tight, the wood silo keeps the heat in and cold out. Here is where the Tecktonius excels all others—its patented fixtures hold the staves rigidly locked together, keeping the silo absolutely air-tight the year around.

TECKTONIUS SILO Makes Silage Right Keeps it Right

Self-Adjusting Hoop Fastener Its take-up spring automatically exerts a constant pull on the hoops that keep the silo air-tight regardless of stave shrinkage.

Perfecting Fitting Hinge Door You can put it on with one hand, and have one free to hold to the ladder—locks securely at 4 corners, insuring perfect fit; swings into silo clear of door opening, allowing you to get in or out easily.

Can't Twist, Creep, Lean or Blow Over

Tried and proven—it has been the leader in wood silos for years.

Built of perfectly matched staves, the Tecktonius is kept air-tight 12 months in the year—and the staves can't buckle or warp out of shape. Its patented Self-Adjusting Spring Hoop Fasteners take up all shrinkage of the staves.

The Tecktonius can't creep, twist, lean or blow over, for it is securely bolted, and anchored, inside and out, in a rock-like concrete foundation, and tied down with staunch, steel cables.

Immediate Delivery

No waiting—we have Tecktonius Silos here ready for you—and 2 days after you take one home, you can have it up and completed. Come in, and see how easily and quickly you can build this silo, and how much better it is than any other silo you have ever seen. See what you get before buying!

James Oliver Curwood's best story of The Great Northwest

"The Courage of Marge O'Doone"

This girl, heedless of the danger, rushed into the fray and tried to tear the great beasts apart. A group of fiendish men and Indians stood by enjoying the sport. Not one raised a finger to aid the girl. She was frantic. The fight must be stopped or her life would be endangered. What happened is shown in "The Courage of Marge O'Doone."

This girl was sold to a brute. She fled from this man and ran into the arms of another. Did the second man carry her back to the infernal hole from which she escaped? Did he force her to face her enemies and again fight her way to freedom? He did. And the events that followed are of a calibre that will make you long remember "The Courage of Marge O'Doone."

See BAREE, a ferocious outlaw dog that had torn and bitten a score of men, brutally beaten and injured to subdue his viciousness. The animal was chained to a tree. David Raine, who loved all dumb creatures, ventured close to this savage beast and to the horror of its owner reached down and patted Baree, the outlaw. It was an unheard of thing! The animal cowered and made friends with this fearless youth. They understood each other and in this Curwood story this dog plays an important part. The story begins on a transcontinental train snowbound on the edge of the arctic, a scene that already summons a thrill. David Raine, a young man who has "lost himself," is running away from the misery and tragedy of a shattered romance.

Then comes thrill on thrill, adventure topping on adventure in that vast white arena of the frozen north that breaks the hearts and sinews of men. It is smashing story of surprise and suspense, of primitive men, beautiful, courageous women, fierce huskies and malemutes, a thrilling fight between grizzly bears, a grueling battle between men for the possession of a woman, the flight with the girl, the last stand—and then a thundering climax beyond all anticipation.

A masterpiece of dramatic writing that has been turned into a masterpiece motion picture.

This is "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," the powerful story by James Oliver Curwood, which Vitagraph has made into a wonderful picture, a gem of the first water.

THE PIONEERS.

Many paragraphs in our poem are the thoughts of Henry Dodge of Caro, who kindly consented that the writer might use them for the occasion.

Read before the "Old Folks" meeting at Novesta Aug. 20, 1920.

The Pioneers they love to meet and take each other's hand, And talk about the olden time, when they were clearing land

Then through the woods at early morn, they heard the axes ring

For all must work, none dared to shirk, when "Johnnycake was King."

That we old Pioneers can meet is for our social good

For many of the rank and file have crossed beyond the flood,

We know they tried to do their best, where 'ere their lot was cast,

They proved their grit in many ways, those heroes of the past.

Their humble home among the trees, was corked with moss and clay,

One door shut out the rain and snow, one window greeted day,

And when at last the home was earned, it banished all their fears,

And helped their hearts to stronger beat, those brave old Pioneers.

They built log cabins in the woods and guarded well the place,

The wolf of hunger, want and care, they met him face to face;

They blazed the trails and cleared the land, their tasks they bravely done

The fields of grain we see today is what their valor won.

The gray haired mother beside us now was once the maiden fair,

That left the sumptuous roof-tree, a woodman's fate to share,

Left scenes of happy childhood's days, the scenes she held so dear,

And prayed for strength to fill the place—wife of a Pioneer.

We have seen her cabin by the trail, with lilacs at the door,

But as she pictured future homes, we could not deem her poor,

And when the scanty store seemed gone and want was pressing hard

She hummed the lines of Cowper—old Albion's sweetest bard.

"Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, but trust Him for His grace, Behind a frowning Providence, He hides a smiling face."

The streams that thread our level lands, now murmur soft and low,

Where the giant pines once held their banks, now choicest cereals grow,

But the woodman's axe is silent now, no more it's sound we hear, Still in our heart will ever live, the brave old Pioneer.

They'll tarry on a few more years, before their forms are clay,

They now are moving down life's stream and waiting for the time,

When they can meet the ones they loved, who have long since crossed the line.

Their creeds come down from those that hold, all trials cease here,

To those that do their duty well on this terrestrial sphere,

Hence the light upon the other shore brighter grows with closing years,

Where it shines to light to their last home—the brave old Pioneer.

JOHN McCracken, Deford, Mich., 1920.

WHY DOES SLOCUM REFUSE TO PRINT THE WAREHOUSE RESOLUTION?

More than a month ago I wrote the editor of the Business Farmer, asking him to print the Warehouse Resolution, but all I got back was ridicule and slander.

The resolution called for five million dollars, "for the construction of Terminal Warehouses," and after that the state was to operate, and finance them. Who can tell what the cost would have been?

More than a year ago a call was sent out in the Business Farmer for money to prepare and circulate petitions to submit the question to the people. We have seen no report of the amount collected, have heard of no petitions being circulated, and the time is now passed for filing petitions to bring on a vote this fall. If the people were so anxious about this matter, they must have sent in a lot of money. Who has this money? and why was it not used for the purpose collected?

The supply of printer's ink is unlimited to insult and besmirch those sixteen farmers who stood firm to the last trench, and won the fight; but not one drop to print the resolution. All "the common people" need to know, is that Slocum ordered us to vote for it, and we refused.

The plain truth is, that we sixteen fellow farmers, were tried on the charge of "Lese Majesty," at a secret session, in the inner court of King Slocum's temple, and condemned to political death.

I am appealing to the court of last resort, the voters of Sanilac county. —Adv. JOEL C. MERRIMAN.

ORDER THAT SILO NOW

We have on hand ready for quick shipment a few Interlocking Cement Stave Silos.

These silos were made up when cement was much cheaper than it is today. There is no hope of cement being lower in price for some time, and this means you can buy a silo cheaper now than you can next season. It also means on your saving in high price hay and from the benefits you will get from next summer's silage when the pastures dry up, that you will just about save enough extra to pay for your silo.

Our prices are lower than others and we can give you a guaranteed job, and complete it for you in time providing we get the order now. Without any obligation on your part, write me for prices on the size silo you are interested in. We will give you liberal terms.

Many of these silos have been in use near Imlay City for past 6 years and about 100 will be erected in that vicinity during 1920 which is evidence of the satisfaction they are giving.

Today and Tomorrow MILK

Old fashioned ways give place to modern improvements. Bottled milk and cream give place to Nestlé's Every Day Milk, in coffee, on cereals, for cooking, baking and for all milk and cream purposes. Every Day is so much richer than bottled milk because the useless water has been taken out. Of course it's much more convenient, for you don't have to depend on the milkman. No wonder it's the milk of today. And it will be the milk of tomorrow. Ask your grocer.

Mrs. Lois Matoon of Pontiac came to the pioneer meeting in Novesta. Went home Saturday. You will remember her as Lois Sole.

Old lady Daugherty is quite feeble. She was 101 years old on Dec. 29 and did not attend the "Old Folks" gathering in Novesta Aug. 20.

Sanford Horner of Detroit, son of John Horner, 1 1/2 miles east of here, is called to the parental home on account of the illness of his mother.

We read in Detroit that Sam Bettis, who was the "Billie Sunday" of this "neck o' woods" thirty-five years ago, is coming back to these parts to spend his last days.

Thomas O'Rourke of "all over" is in this vicinity seeing everybody. He is one of the few that can say "The world is my country, I am at peace with all mankind."

Mr. and Mrs. Len Patch and son, Clare, came from Detroit Saturday, visited at Deford and Novesta until Tuesday and went back pleased with the crops they saw.

The Gages—that is, Lorenzo Gage and family, William Gage and family and the latter's brother-in-law and wife—all went to Ross Island for a night's fishing. They speak fairly well of the fishing, but the roses are only in the tourist's brain.

If all went well, Mr. and Mrs. Loda Kennedy are now in Calumet, U. P. Mrs. K. was in a weak condition when she went away, but she can go to her brothers when she reaches Calumet and rest up before she is operated upon.

Twenty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Clark kept a general store here, where now is located Johnson's hardware. They moved to Chicago and Mr. C. went into a law office to learn "tricks upon tricks and twists upon twists." They were here the past week and are now located at Yankton, S. D. They have nine children, a fair practice and are accumulating wealth.

The pioneers met with Mr. and Mrs. M. Snover, one-half mile north of Novesta Corners, Aug. 20. It was the last day of the Cass City fair and was out on all sides so that only 67 were present, but the grub was plenty and good. They had a short program and good cheer. Voted to hold the next meeting on the third Thursday in June, 1921, at the home of Loren Churchill.

The teamster was in the bank while the horses stood attached to the wagon, when the advice of Horace Greely, "Westward go," prompted their instinct and they lit out. But behold our athletic P. M. was near and he shot through space like an arrow, overtook them and halted their work of destruction. No damage done, but as we noted his legs were hung on spiral springs and his head was built for instant action, we deem a more logical one should count the letters and lick the stamps. Let the city have the use of the "long fellow" to run down the speeders and get their numbers, then we'll learn them how to dance in the high courts.
