DEFORD.

Miss Neva Cones is sick with pleurisy.

Gardening is now begun in dead earnest in town.

Mrs. Isadore Retherford spent a part of the past week here.

Samuel Sherk and son, Warren were Carlo callers on Saturday.

Howard Silverthorn is painting the dwelling house of Mrs. Balch.

Mrs. T. L. Stewart is enjoying a week's visit at Durand and vicinity.

Farmers say that spring seeding of clover was injured by the last freeze.

Report says that Lorenzo Gage is negotiating for the old parsonage barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pease of Koylton called at the home of R. D. Lewis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cones and youngest daughter were in Saginaw last Thursday.

Plans are under way that will locate two egg farms within the limits of our city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of Dearborn visited in this vicinity a few days last week.

About the middle of May the minister will be permanently settled in the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Detroit came on the 23rd for an extended visit in this locality.

R. Jacoby is tinning up behind his store awning so as to keep south rains in their proper boundaries.

The steel beams to bind the sand block structure in process of erection by Amos Webster are at the depot.

Wm. Courliss of Deford Heights is negotiating with George Roberts for the purchase of the Roberts farm east of town.

Wm. Courliss of Deford Heights is somewhat improved in health, but the warm sunshine is what he needs to feel elevated.

Bean picking is dead for a time. Eight or ten dollars per cwt. for the American talkers would make lively times in the burg.

Albert Wilson of Pontiac came to Wilmot with household goods for Martin Sole, so he ran his truck over here to see how all prospered.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Pt. Huron, nephew and niece of Wm. Courliss of the Heights came to stay two days at home of the latter.

Although the corners of the Webster building are made of white sand brick, it will require more than 4,000 cement blocks to build the walls.

As much as possible forget the unpleasant things of the past, and let your mind dwell on scenes that are like the memories of a pleasant dream.

Elder Beynon the new minister came on the 23rd with his wife and three children. They hail from Toronto, Canada, and are a healthy looking people.

Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Flora Camps and Mrs. Charles Bixby of Cass City were full day visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Shaw on Thursday 21st.

We kindly ask our burgers to place all items that they wish to see in print in box 11 at the post office on or before Saturday of each week with name signed to each article. We will keep the name shady—just want to know who you are.

Mrs. Mary Spencer, sr., and Mrs. L. Bartek spent Saturday with Mrs. Alice Curtis. Many readers will get more out of this item when they learn that Mrs. Bartek is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Spencer, formerly of this place.

In last issue by some news from Deford, readers would think Wm. McCracken was helping on Croop's store. 'Tis a mistake. Wm. has never worked on the brick. 'Tis the sand block majestic of A. Webster that the boy bends to.

Michigan roads are not all good at this season of the year, neither can they all be suitable for years to come for they are many, but 'tis worse than taking medicine to hear men who don't pay any tax asking why "in sanko" they don't make better roads.

The solicitors for beet acreage inform us they have enough and more than a sufficiency having to turn down would be growers and when one of our eyes unconsciously blinked they produced letters from the company saying "stay your hand, no more acreage."

Mrs. Balch and Amos Webster spent a part of past week in Lapeer county on account of sickness and death of an aunt who was buried on the 22nd at Dryden Center. Don't confound Dryden village and Dryden Center. Dryden Center is two miles west and one mile south of Dryden village and was on the map before Dryden village was christened.

Readers of the Chronicle will remember Mr. and Mrs. David Harris, who once lived about a mile north of here—preached and did evangelistic work among the early settlers. They were Protestant Methodists and when they moved from here Mr. H. labored for said denomination in Illinois and Kansas 'till failing health of Mrs. H. caused them to move back to Michigan where she died Apr. 19. Deceased was buried from the Dryden Center church on the 22nd and the remains were laid in Dryden Center cemetery near where she was born 65 years ago. Mrs. Balch and Amos Webster of Deford, near kindred of the deceased, attended the funeral.

Mrs. Anna Webster Harris was born near Dryden Center, Lapeer county, Mich., 1857. She was full sister to Edward Webster of Novesta and half sister to Wm. Webster (deceased) one of Novesta's first settlers.

SCHOOL NOTES

Kathryn Cridland and Helen Craig, reporters.

Kindergarten.
Florence Schenk is absent from school on account of the mumps.

Second Grade.
All of the pupils are back in school again, making an enrollment of forty.

We have made drawings of the luna moth this week and are making May baskets.

We are reviewing Stevenson's poems and will finish reading through the Beacon Readers for the second time.

Third Grade.
We are learning to carry in multiplication.

We are still working on our scrap books in which we are defining a fire and pasting pictures of the same.

The third grade are comparing sentences and paragraphs and the story of Mrs. Noun and her family and Mr. Verb and his family is being told to them.

Each row in our room is taking care of a flower box. The row producing the prettiest box at the end of the year will receive a prize. Some of the seeds are already up and one pansy blossom already out.

Fourth Grade.
Friday afternoon the girls and boys in our grade had another spell-down and Harriet Tindale was again successful in spelling down her classmates.

Doris Bliss and Fern Benkelman, who have been absent on account of the mumps, have returned.

We have been studying fables this week, giving special study to "The Ant and the Grasshopper." We are then going to write it in the form of a play after which the grade will dramatize it.

Fifth Grade.
Alta Hartwick is absent on account of illness this week.

We are very much interested in making designs for linoleum for our drawing work.

We are becoming better acquainted with South America and find it a very rich and wonderful neighbor.

Sixth Grade.
We are having oral compositions selected by the children such as "How to Raise a Garden."

Last week oral reports were given from newspapers for language.

We have finished the study of diacritical marks.

Various color schemes have been worked out in the study of interior decorating and also drawings have been made concerning the same.

The following special reports have been given: "Grape Industry", Edna Robinson; "Orange and Lemon Industry", Winnifred Sabourin.

For opening we are reading "Beautiful Joe's Paradise" by Marshall Saunders.

High School.
Friday (today) there will be a ball game (here) between Akron and Cass City.

The show "Pollyanna" given by the Athletic association, proved very successful, the total proceeds amounting to $87.10 which were partly due to the large number of tickets sold by the high school. The classes divided into two groups, forming two separate contests, the seniors against the juniors, and the sophomores against the freshmen. The juniors and sophomores were the winners. The losing sides will give the winners a party soon.

Bernice Wager is absent from school this week on account of the mumps.

Mary Rutherford was a visitor in high school this week.

Ruba Marshall left Wednesday for Mt. Clemens where she will take part in the oratorical contest.

Tuesday afternoon the high school, junior high, and the sixth grade pupils received a rare treat. Mr. Brooks Fletcher gave a delightfully entertaining talk on "Paying Attention"—an extremely "dry" talk as he called it, but we found it otherwise. He spoke of a certain class of people as "grasshoppers"—on the way without paying attention to where they are going. He summed up the various classes and kinds of people in the statement, "everything we do looks like what we are." In order that we might "see ourselves as others see us" he used much of the ordinary school-boy slang and ungrammatical English. The talk was very instructive as well as entertaining and aroused great enthusiasm among the boys and girls for the lecture in the evening.

ARBOR AND BIRD DAY PROCLAMATION

Governor Alex J. Groesbeck has issued the following proclamation:
"The observance of Arbor Day at this season of the year is a custom long since established. Its purpose is to foster the conservation of our tree and forest resources, both as an aesthetic and economic necessity. Suppose some great disaster should rob the world of its trees. It is almost unthinkable. A treeless world is well nigh beyond our power to conceive. To an extent seldom realized, our comfort and our happiness are dependent upon the trees. They furnish food and shade and shelter for man and beast. They build our homes and fill them with furniture. They help to conserve our water supply. They satisfy our sense of beauty. In innumerable ways they contribute to our well-being.

"Trees, too, are the natural home of most of our birds, and what a dreary, cheerless place this world would be with either birds or trees lacking.

"Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Michigan, I do hereby designate and set aside Friday, May 6th, 1921, as Arbor and Bird Day and I request that exercises appropriate to the day be held in all our schools and that teachers seek to impress their pupils with the importance of maintaining our shade trees and protecting our song birds. I suggest further that the boys and girls in school be encouraged to study the characteristics and habits of Michigan birds."

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Brown spent the week-end at Caro.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Vader and family of Cass City spent Sunday at Jos. Fulcher's.

The SAMSON Model M Tractor

When you buy your tractor you want heavy draft horsepower, both for the drawbar and belt, but at the right price in first cost and upkeep cost as well. This is what the designers, engineers, and producers had in mind when they developed the Samson Model M. You want a tractor that will take the place of and perform the duty of a barn-full of expensive horses without costing you a small fortune to buy or a big part of your crop to maintain. That's exactly the kind of a tractor you get in the Samson Model M.

The Samson Model M is the last word in modern tractor construction. It is not like the average I-beam and channel-steel frame tractor that weighs so much it takes a large per cent of its own power for self-propulsion—it is a coupled power unit all by itself from radiator to rear wheels. Every working part is enclosed and protected against dust, mud, or rain.

The even distribution of weight, compact design, and low center of gravity give to the Samson perfect traction, great stability and insures its hugging the ground under all conditions.

It has no lost motion for it is built and lubricated throughout like a high priced automobile, insuring great efficiency, ease of operation, maximum length of life and service, and the price is right.

PRICE FULLY EQUIPPED—$1060.00.
Delivered to the user.

WHAT WE READ IN THE PAPER 25 YEARS AGO

Items Taken from the First Page of the Cass City Enterprise.

From the Issue of May 1, 1896.

Chauncey Campbell is doing quite a business repairing bicycles and is becoming quite an expert at that business.

Wm. Ball has moved into the Piney Bldg. on Main St., formerly occupied by E. Killins, and has opened up a bakery therein.

Robt. Burling has purchased the butcher supplies of Henry Becker and has opened up a meat market in the Stevenson Bldg., at the west end of town.

Miss Kate Miller has been teaching Miss McKenzie's department in our schools this week, rendered necessary by the severe illness of the latter's moth.

Miss Ella Atwell took her departure Monday morning for Land of Promise, Virginia, to stay with her sister, Mrs. James Gooden.

The closing assembly of Miss Kit Clarke's dancing class occurred last Friday evening. There were about 25 couples present.

Odd Fellows of Tuscola county celebrated the 78th anniversary of Odd Fellowship of America at Vassar Monday. Lodges from Caro, Cass City, Mayville, Marlette and other places were in attendance to the number of 500.

The phonographic entertainment at the M. E. church Tuesday evening was well attended. Pleasing features of the evening program were the singing of Miss Fenn and Mr. Squire's daughter and the recitations by the latter.

Heller Bros., our enterprising millers, have purchased the DeWitt planing mill property, west of their mill and will move the buildings away to lessen the danger of fire to their roller mill.

A sad accident happened to mar the otherwise very pleasant Odd Fellow's celebration at Vassar this week. Justice of the Peace, Levi P. Oldfield, of Bay City was one of about a hundred Odd Fellows to go to Vassar in a special train and on his return trip which was made at night, he, in some manner, fell from the train and was literally ground to death on the rails. He was not missed until the delegation reached the city, but his horribly mangled body was found the next morning a few miles out of Vassar.

MY AUTO.

My auto, 'tis of thee, short cut to poverty—of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you two years ago, and you quite refuse to go, or won't or can't. Through town and countryside, you were my joy and pride; ah happy days. I loved thy gaudy hue, thy nice white tires so new, but now you're down and out for true, in every way. To thee, old rattle box; came many bumps and knocks, for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn, the whooping cough affects the horn, I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, while good folks choke and sneeze, as we pass by. I paid for thee a price 'twould buy a mansion twice, now everybody's yelling "ice"—I wonder why? The motor has the grippe, thy spark plug has the pip and woe is thine; I, too, have suffered chills, ague and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills since thou were mine. Gone is my bank roll now, no more 'twould choke the cow, as once before. Yet if I had the mon', so help me John—amen, I would buy myself a car again and speed some more.—Exchange.

Putting on Gloves.

The correct way to put on silk gloves is to work each finger and the thumb down separately. The gloves should never be forced down by the fingers of the other hand into the crotch of the fingers.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

But there are 800,000 other farmers who feel that they couldn't be without it—that's why this unmatched farm service costs you but a single dollar for a whole year—less than 2 cents a week!

Your lone dollar couldn't buy the services of fifty trained investigators who travel all over the United States in search of just the ideas and plans that will be most useful and profitable to you. It couldn't buy the genius and effort of master story-tellers—men like ZANE GREY, HENRY OYEN, ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE—who write the distinctive and interest-compelling fiction that each issue contains. It couldn't buy the time and thought of the many experts on farm home economy who are always ready to help your wife with her problems—or the work of widely-known artists and cartoonists. The Tractor That Stays

It is pretty generally accepted now that the farm power of the future will be generated by kerosene and other low-grade, low-priced fuels. A tractor that operates successfully on these fuels, insuring dependable power at drawbar and belt, is the tractor that will stay because it will pay.

International 8-16 Tractor has established its reputation for satisfactory performance in the school of experience. It has passed successfully through long and rigid tests under actual field conditions in all sections of the country.

Belt work is becoming more and more important. The use of small threshers, ensilage cutters, etc., combined with a suitable tractor, is making the farmer more and more independent.

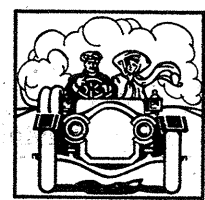

All of this emphasizes the value to you of an International 8-16 tractor that is designed to do tip-top belt work as well as taking care of field and road jobs.

Place your order now and avoid shipping delays.

More Price Reductions by Harvester Company

Entire Line of Implements Now at LOWER PRICES

In view of the recent reduction in the price of steel, we now announce lower prices for our entire line of farm machines and implements not covered by reductions previously announced.

All lower prices take effect at once

The reduction in the price of steel comes after all the material for the machines and implements we will sell this year has been provided, and will therefore have no bearing on the manufacturing costs of such machines. However, it does enable the Company to buy materials at lower prices for future manufacture, and in accordance with our announced policy we now quote those prices, the Company taking the loss on machines already finished and materials on hand.

Full information regarding our lower prices on binders, mowers, and all other harvesting, haying and corn machines, tillage implements, tractors, engines, and all other I H C farm machines can be obtained from any International Dealer.

RECORD OF SERVICE IN PAYING BONUS

Continued from first page. will be ready within a few days. The card indexing is being rushed to completion in order to have the record in the hands of the adjutant general before he begins the process of verifying the bonus applications.

The various county directors have exhausted every means to obtain the records of their men. Thousands of blanks and postcards have been mailed and some have received no attention or have been returned unclaimed because of faulty addresses.

Any Tuscola county veteran who has not filled out a record blank or is not sure he has done so should immediately make application for a blank to Mrs. William M. Stebbins, 318 South Park-St., Hastings, Michigan.

In a letter to the Chronicle, Mrs. Stebbins says: "Mrs. J. D. Evans at Millington was county director in Tuscola county to compile a record of all the men connected with your county who served in the late war."

"Your record shows 1045 men in service. We have nearly complete records of all but 134 of these men. Letters to 37 have been returned unclaimed and the other 97 have paid no attention to our communication."

"I am enclosing to you the list of men credited to your county to whom we are unable to deliver letters and another list of the 97 who have not sent in their war record blanks. If you would be kind enough to publish these two lists it might be possible that some people in your county would send us proper addresses or would communicate with the men and would advise them to send for their blanks."

"As the record came from Mrs. Evans it was in excellent shape. We had to send out a few double postal cards for lacking items and these were pretty generally returned. There are still some of them in the hands of men who ought to return them to me and I hope may do so if the matter is brought to their attention through your paper."

"Your record contained five (5) men who entered Canadian or other Allied service and I rather imagined you might have had more. We have been very anxious to get these Allied service men for the reason that the War Department has no record of Michigan men who fought under Allied flags and we have tried to build up such a record of our own Michigan men. When completed it will be a somewhat surprising document. In Wayne County alone we have the record of 1500 Michigan men who entered Canadian or other Allied service."

"We are bending every energy toward having a complete record in Lansing before they begin to pay the bonus checks in order that they may have our record for reference. The card file of the Michigan War Record will contain in round numbers 175,000 names."

against the Armenians by the Turks was deliberate, and accomplished by army orders issued by Turkish officials, because every Turk hates and despises a Christian. The great war broke out and left the Armenians absolutely at the mercy of the Turks who swore to annihilate the race. The nation has been reduced from over five to less than two million souls.

Armenia was a cultivated, educated and refined people long before this country was discovered. The worst forms of outrages and abuse possible to conceive was visited upon the womanhood of Armenia, and not a single Christian nation has struck a blow to stop it. The Armenians were our ally in the war having fought with Russia, and suffered comparably, the greatest loss of lives and property of any participant. Armenia has given more Christian martyrs than all the nations of the world combined.
