large farm barn and the other burning a pile of railroad ties, created considerable excitement late Sunday night and early Monday morning. The cause of both fires is unknown and all are interested in learning origin.

The barn destroyed belonged to Wm. J. Schwegler and was located on his farm three miles north of Elkland cemetery. The building was filled to the peak with this season's hay and grain and the building and and silo situated next to the barn were totally destroyed. The fire occurred about eleven o'clock and was visible for miles. Neighbors hurried to the farm and lent every assistance possible. Aided by a favorable wind, the firefighters by hard work saved the machine shed and other outbuildings in close proximity. All live stock except one calf was in the pasture and this was the only animal that lost its life in the flames.

The barn was a basement structure 40x54 in size, with a straw shed 24x60. Insurance was carried on both barn and contents. Mr. Schwegler is planning to erect another barn

Mr. Schwegler and his neighbors do not know the cause of the fire and everyone in the community is puzzled regarding it. The theory which is generally advanced and accepted is that the blaze started from spontan-

CHANGES IN BOUNTY LAWS IN EFFECT ON AUG. 18

Only Rats, Crows, Woodchucks and Sparrows Will Have Prices on Their Heads.

Bounties on some noxious animals and birds will not be paid after August 18. A letter to county clerks from the state auditor general points out the changes which the last legislature made in the bounty laws.

Wolves, wild cats, foxes and coyotes will be allowed to run free. Since these animals are not exactly plentiful in several sections, the changes will not affect many. Only four noxious animals or birds are left for which bounties will be paid. They are rats, woodchucks sparrows and crows. NEWBERRY'S BAND AT The amount for each will be the same as now paid, rats ten cents per head, crows and woodchucks, each 25 cents. Business has its ups and downs as does the pendulum. In many respects day. business expansions and depressions are almost as regular as is the ticking of the clock, says Successful Farming. When business reaches the peak of its climb we can always rest assured that there will be a decline at least nearly as far. The world war really served as a vigorous push rather than a light tap on the business pendulum of the world and sent it up and up almost to its zenith, in fact, many feared the force of the impact would cause it to Friday. dash from the beaten path and crash to destruction. But the upward swing Elmwood spent Sunday at John Neistopped before the break, and for the last year and a half we have been witnessing the backward swing.

Many facts indicate that it is now about time for the business pendulum of the United States to return in the direction of business recovery. And in the revival of business which is sure to occur, we anticipate that farming will be one of the first lines of business to be benefited.

There are several reasons why the City Sunday. farmer now should take an optimistic view of his business situation. The wheat carry-over from this season has been the smallest in years. MINNESOTA'S CHALLENGE FOR A GREAT GOVT. SAVINGS CONTEST ACCEPTED BY STATE OF MICHIGAN

'Wolverines" Quickly Snap at Defi From the "Gophers," Promising to Run Up Larger Total Purchases of Uncle Sam's Savings Securities Than the Challengers—Count on Investment Sense of Their People to Prompt Buying of the Safe and Profitable Treasury Savings Certificates— Contest to Begin Aug. 1st and End Dec. 1st

POSTMASTERS TO LEAD IN STATE PRIDE FIGHT

Predicted That New $25 Treasury Savings Certificates Will Be Bought by Thousands of the Rank and File of Michiganders on Lookout for Bargains—"Big Fellows" Expected to Take Larger Denominations—Government's Reward to Purchasers Very Attractive.

hurled at it by Minnesota for a government savings contest, to be begun August 1st and concluded December 1st. The postmasters of the two states will lead in the struggle, which each state believes it will win, and they now are arranging the plans preliminary to clearing the decks for action.

The Michigan postmasters are going to enlist the support of every man, woman and child in the "Wolverine State." They feel that the glory of the commonwealth is at stake and they will leave no stone unturned to build a structure of total purchases that will make that of the "Gophers" small in comparison. City folk and country folk alike will be expected to join the ranks fighting for victory, and with such support, the postmasters do not believe they can lose.

Government savings securities of all denominations will be urged for purchase, but the postmasters plan to "push" the new $25 Treasury Savings Certificates for the rank and file of the population. This denomination is of convenient size and carries all the advantages of the larger denominations-$100 and $1,000. The "big fellows" are counted on to take the $100 and $1,000 Certificates, which will figure so strongly in swelling the total.

"The contest should prove of great value to our people," said one of the Michigan postmasters, who has been active in all the government's securityselling campaigns, "inasmuch as it will afford the people a fine opportunity to invest in absolutely safe securities which pay a fine profit. Many of our people have become regular purchasers of government savings securities, and the number who are buying the new $25 Treasury Savings Certificates is rapidly on the increase. With the fruits of a big contest at stake, we believe that a very large number of our people will join the regular purchasers and aid materially in winning the blue ribbon.

"Minnesota made a fine record in wartime in the purchase of War Savnominations. Her farmers have dore states of the Seventh district: much to bolster up the fine showing | Illinois, $75,000,000; Indiana. $55,-

Michigan has accepted a challenge | forthcoming contest. Workers in the industrial plants of Minnesota have been good buyers of the new $1 Government Savings Stamps, taking them every week.

"A great many of our people," said another Michigan postmaster, "are convinced that for investment purposes the Treasury Savings Certificates represent everything safe and desirable. The fact that they are direct obligations of the government and are fully insured against loss of any kind is one of the big appealing considerations. Their exemption from all state, local and county taxes and from the normal income tax: the fact that they may be redeemed before maturity, in case of need, and the yield of 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly, if held till maturity January 1, 1926, also fit into the attractive plan.

"Our people can be counted on to roll up their sleeves with us in this contest. They know that the more the government is aided at this time the better things in general will be. The advantages which the Treasury Savings Certificates carry are in the nature of a government reward for thrift and the willingness to invest money with the government.

"Of course, our success in this contest depends upon the active co-operation of all classes of our population. Everybody must get in and help, and by helping us to win from Minnesota he will be helping to feather his own nest. Our postmasters have sufficient state pride to give their best and untiring efforts in this campaign, and we know that every one of them, from the smallest to the largest, will put in his best 'licks.' "

Indiana now is leading the Seventh Federal Reserve district states per capita in its purchases of government savings securities. Its purchases are averaging about 24 cents "per head." or as much as Illinois. New York and Connecticut combined. In the great wartime sale of War Savings Stamps Nehraska led the nation. Ohio running second and Iowa third. In proportion to population, a number of foreign countries exceed this nation in numbers of depositors, according to a statement given out by the savings division of the United States Treasury department. Through centuries of struggle for mere existence, many European peoples have been trained to the most rigid economy, while Americans have found the fight for a livelihood a comparatively easy matter. Until quite recently, the average American family operated on the plan of "paying expenses first and saving what's left-if there is anything left."

One of the objects of the savings division of the United States Treasury department is to increase the number of savers in this country, and the government is offering the safest and most profitable means to help the people along to independence. It is offering securities, backed by the full strength of the nation, in denominations attractive to rich and poor alike. Twenty-five-cent Thrift Stamps, $1 Treasury Savings Stamps, $5 War Savings Stamps and the $25, $100 and $1,000 Treasury Savings Certificates represent the savings securities available at any time.

HALF BILLION LOST TO STOCK SHARPERS

Americans Duped Out of Huge Sum in the Last Year.

Half a billion dollars was lost to the American people in the last year through fraudulent stock and oil deals and other swindles.

Think of it! This vast amount of money taken from the arteries of legitimate trade and industry and converted to the nefarious uses of unprincipled men who live upon the gullibility of the people!

The savings division of the Treasury department has this to say on the body has been cheating you out of more than $4.50 a year. They have been doing it by selling fraudulent and worthless stocks to the American people. You personally may not have bought a share of these offerings by unscrupulous promoters, but the fact remains that half a billion dollars has been lost by your fellow countrymen through those 'insecurities.'

"You may not know it, but some for them."

"The surest protection that can be offered against the attack of sharpers and peddlers of worthless stocks is the safe, conservative and profitable investment of surplus funds in government savings securities. They are adaptable to any income, ranging in price at maturity from the $1 Treasury Savings Stamp to the $1,000 Treasury Savings Certificate, and are absolutely guaranteed against depreciation or loss, as they always may be redeemed for more cash than was paid line as early as 1525.

Of the Family of Smiths.

The man who spells his name with "y" and a final "e" is not the bombastic Smith that many suppose; the name was originally spelled in this manner. Gold and silver smiths, of course, were men who worked in these metals; brownsmith was a man who worked in bronze; a greensmith worked in lead. The word name Nasmith is thought to be derived from nailsmith.

ve more lime for

Fordson"

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine -and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work-

And don't forget-it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows with ease.

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways. There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson-and a true one-come in and get the facts.

Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card

RULES FOR FEEDING CALVES

Desired Nutrients Furnished by Giving Young Animal Variety-Avoid Sudden Changes.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Feeding is an important factor in developing a good breeding animal, or a favorite in the show ring. There are many points to be remembered. These points may be called rules of the United States Department of Agriculture give the following:

1. Provide a variety of feeds at all times, if possible. It is easier to supply the proper amounts of the desired nutrients which the calf needs if several different feeds are used. The ration will also be more palatable.

2. Do not make sudden changes in the feeds used or in the amounts given. If it becomes necessary to change feeds from, say, clover to alfalfa hay,

In fact, the calf does not begin to pay for feed until it is given more than enough to make some gain.

5. Do not annoy or disturb the calf unnecessarily. It requires more feed to keep it growing while standing or moving about than while lying down

6. Do not feed moldy, musty, or spoiled feeds. To do so may cause into the thousands. A public meetserious digestive disorders. THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and achy backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Read this statement:

Mrs. David McComb, W. Houghton St., Cass City, says: "Several years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and received great benefit. I had a dull heavy ache in the small of my back; Mrs. Wm. Brown entertained her just a dragging pain that didn't go away. I couldn't do much stooping over and the least effort was agony. I always felt tired out mornings. Knowing that Doan's Kidney Pills had helped others, I thought I would give them a trial. The first few gave me relief and two boxes of Doan's that tired, languid feeling and helped me in every way. I could get a good night's rest after that.
