CASS CITY SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 6

SIX NEW FACES ON THE TEACHING STAFF FOR THIS YEAR.

Agriculture Course Made Attractive and Practical with Field and Experimental Work.

Cass City schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 6, with the following corps of teachers: H. W. Holmes, superintendent; Harry Huller, principal and science; Violet Elliott, English; Helen Grimm, language; Flora Reynolds, history and public speaking; Etta Reid, mathematics; Mrs. F. A. Bigelow, music and art; Willis Campbell, principal junior high; Gladys Jackson, junior high assistant; Margaret Hurley, sixth grade; Mrs. Blanch Ferguson, fifth grade; Mrs. P. E. Fleming, fourth grade; Edith Culp, third grade; Mae Benkelman, second grade; Mrs. Dora Fritz, first grade; Mrs. Chas. Day, kindergarten.

Mr. Holmes, the Misses Elliott, Grimm, Reid and Jackson and Mesdames Ferguson, Fleming, Fritz, Day and Bigelow were members of the teaching staff the past year.

Mr. Huller, the new principal, comes from Climax, Mich., and has had three years' experience in teaching in junior and senior high schools. He is a graduate of the H. S. Life Dept. of the Kalamazoo Normal, has specialized in science and is prominent in school activities.

Miss Reynolds is a Normal graduate and has had five years' experience in teaching. This year she graduated from the Northwestern University at Chicago where she specialized in history and public speaking.

Mr. Campbell, principal of the junior high, received his degree at the M. A. C. He will have full charge of the agriculture courses in the junior and senior high. Special emphasis will be placed on the agriculture course for the benefit of country pupils and it will be made very practical with field and experimental work.

The Misses Hurley, Culp and Benkelman are all graduates of the state normal schools. Miss Hurley has taught very successfully in schools in this vicinity, Miss Culp has had three years' experience in rural and town schools and Miss Benkelman has been a successful instructor in the Sebewing public schools.

Music and art will be taught full time this year by Mrs. Bigelow instead of half time as in the past year.

The athletic coaching will be divided among three teachers. Mr. Holmes will have charge of base ball, Mr. Huller of basket ball and Mr. Campbell of foot ball.

Carpenters and decorators have been busy for several days in making repairs and improvements in both school buildings. Seats and desks in the fourth and fifth grade rooms and in the junior high have been repainted, the basement has also been repainted and decorators have made improvements in nearly all of the other rooms. S. H. Brown, who has given excellent satisfaction as janitor, will continue in that position.

CRIDLAND-SMITH NUPTIALS

Pretty Wedding at Geo. R. Cridland Home on August 11.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Cridland on Garfield Ave. when their daughter, Esther Leila, was united in marriage to Mr. Louis S. Smith of Detroit. The Rev. Wm. Richards of the M. E. church officiated.

At twelve o'clock, during the strains of Lang's "Thine Own" played by Miss Caroline Keating, the bridal party took their places before a latticework of pink and white banked with ferns. The bride was becomingly gowned in white georgette and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair ferns. Miss Kathryn Cridland, a sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Mr. David Smith of Detroit, brother of the groom, served as best man.

After the ceremony a delicious three-course luncheon was served by the Misses Kate Cameron, Anna Mitchell, Helen Craig and Mildred Fritz. The color scheme of pink and white was used in the decoration of the tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the afternoon train for Detroit where they took the boat for a week's honeymoon to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. They will be at home to their friends at 4304 Larchmont Ave., Detroit, after September 1.

Mrs. Smith is well known in this community, having attended the local high school and taught in the rural schools for three years. Mr. Smith is employed as a bookkeeper in the Bosman Steel Metal Co. of Detroit. The best wishes of many friends go with them to their new home.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, Chas. Moore and Mrs. Barbara Smith of Detroit.

HOW ABOUT YOUR NEXT WINTER'S COAL?

YOUR WINTER'S SUPPLY OF COAL SHOULD BE BOUGHT NOW.

Secretary Hoover Warns Consumers of Coal to Stock Up While They Can.

The following appeared in a recent issue of the New York Times:

"Secretary Hoover and Interstate Commissioner Clark warn consumers of coal to stock up while they can, or carry their own risks of shortage and higher costs. That is cold comfort for hot days, but it is the situation as it stands, and long has been evident. Coal could have been bought cheaper a month ago, and will probably cost a little more in succeeding months. There is a chance that it may cost a great deal more if the official advice is rejected, and there should be a buyers' panic during a winter storm and interruption of supplies. The coal companies cannot mine coal for storage. It ties up wage money too fast, and the storage problem which is small for individual consumers is unmanageable on a great scale.

"It is a curious situation. Anthracite has been produced more abundantly than last year, and some small operators are selling about the official price of the large producers. Bituminous has been under-produced compared with recent years, and buyers are indifferent. They see that there are plenty of cars and plenty of coal, in fact too much coal for profit by high cost producers, who are idle. They fail to consider that, nevertheless, a season's supply cannot be mined and carried in a month or two, and that belated buyers will have to pay what the market asks and this year will get no sympathy. They are gambling on the chance that if they make enough trouble government intervention in some way will lower costs and prices. Experience has shown that government intervention is a doubtful benefit, and if beneficial is too slow to cheapen this year's supply."

TO MAKE CASS CITY-CARO ROAD A TRUNK LINE

Highway Through Caro and Cass City Villages to Be Constructed of Concrete.

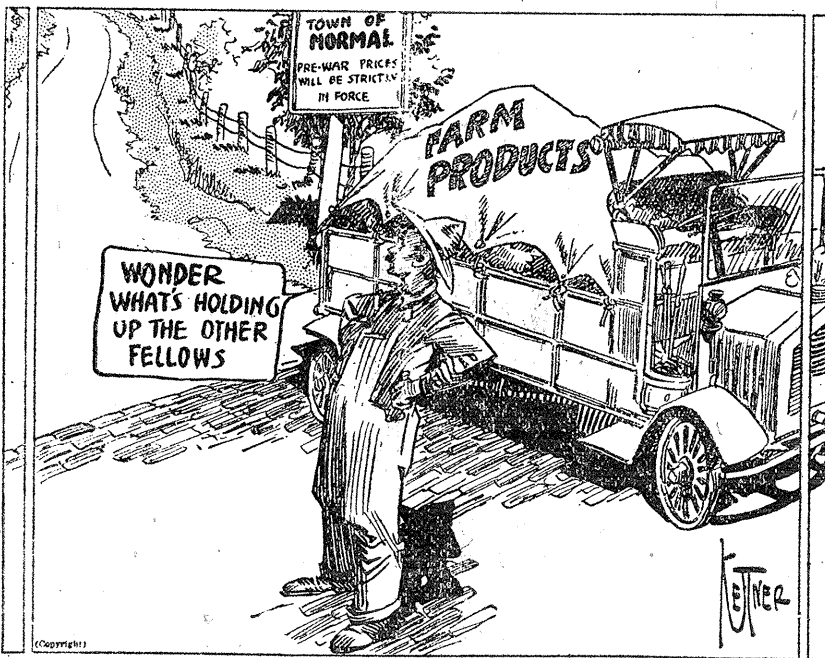

Frank Rogers, state highway commissioner, and Mr. Roberts, district engineer, have given assurance to members of the Tuscola Co. Road Commission that they will take over the county roads running from Wah-jamega through Caro and Cass City to a point intersecting the Earle Memorial highway east of Cass City and convert them into a state trunk line.

This action will mean a concrete road 20 feet wide and one mile long down Main St. of Cass City, from corporation line to corporation line, and a similar improvement to that part of State St. of Caro which has not already been paved. The concrete work will be done next year. That part of the state trunk line lying outside of the villages is already a good gravel road but will be improved by making it a wider highway. Gravel construction will be maintained.

First to Arrive

FINISH THE JOB.

A man died recently. Nothing especially unusual about it. He was ready to die. He had made a will. This was the unusual thing about this particular demise.

The rush for his safe deposit box revealed the will. In the presence of his widow, a self-possessed lawyer read the will in pussy-foot tones. "I appoint as my pall-bearers, the following men—" and the list was composed of six local bankers. "These men," he continued, "have carried me for twenty years. They might as well carry me the rest of the way."

WONDERFUL ATTRACTIONS AND BIG STOCK EXHIBIT

The Showing of Pure Bred Cattle Is Large and of High Quality.

The large showing of live stock at the Cass City Fair this week found the association unprepared to provide accommodations for all and workmen were hurriedly summoned Tuesday to prepare temporary sheds for the overflow. The exhibits are very good in all departments and the showing of cattle is especially fine.

An exhibit of pet stock of Mortenson & Sons of Ann Arbor located between the poultry and agricultural halls is attracting much attention. The showing includes peacocks, pheasants, squirrels, guinea pigs, pigeons, skunks and other animals.

The special attractions are giving excellent satisfaction, the fireworks are fine and the midway is crowded to the limit. The outlook is for the best fair in the history of the association.

ITEMS FROM NEIGHBORING TOWNS IN THE THUMB

No Motive Known for Attempted Murder Near Richville; Other Items of Interest.

An attempt to take the life of J. Mechealis, a beet worker who resides on the Ed Bauer farm, one-half mile east and one-half mile south of Richville, is a mystery. As near as could be found out, an unknown man, weighing about 150 pounds, fired shots from his revolver through the bedroom window of the abode of the said Mechealis, who arose and went to the door. Upon opening the door the man outside fired a shot into Mechealis' body, just below the heart. The unknown man entered the room bound the wounded man hand and foot and placed a pillow under his head. He then held up the man's wife. The 18-year-old son of the wounded man came home about this time, which was about 10 o'clock on Wednesday night, and the would-be assassin made his escape through a window and then through the cornfield. E. Humes, deputy sheriff, of Vassar, was called and immediately proceeded to the scene of action, notifying Sheriff Morris who arrived later. Both officers of the law worked diligently but no clue was found up to Thursday noon of the whereabouts of the would-be murderer. Mr. Mechealis was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Saginaw, Thursday morning and it is thought that there may be a chance of saving his life.—Vassar Pioneer.

Saginaw street of Reese, the village's main thoroughfare, will be paved from the west county line east to the village limits nearly a mile long with concrete 24 feet wide, the contract for the job being let Monday. Schultz & Likens of Sebewing were the successful bidders estimating $36,192.06.

District Engineer for the state highway department, R. W. Roberts of Saginaw, and county road commissioners, J. D. Brooker and G. F. Schultz, let the contract. The paved street is a part of state trunk line No. 31, running from Saginaw to Bad Axe, passing thru Reese, Fairgrove, Akron and Unionville this county. The cost of 20 feet of the width is paid by the state and the remaining is to be paid by the village. Contractors will begin work at once as November 1, 1921, is the date when the work shall be completed.—Caro Advertiser.

At about eight o'clock Sunday evening fire was discovered in the horse sheds on the Bad Axe fair grounds. Trainer Nelse Sherman and his aids had left the stables about 15 minutes before the fire broke out and no one was present at the time. There are no hose connections on the fair grounds but the chemical engine made quick work of subduing the flames, but 16 stalls had been burned before the engine got there. The loss on the sheds is about $1,000. Mr. Sherman says that he also lost $600 worth of equipment.—Tribune.

Joseph Scarborough, aged 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Scarborough, former residents of Deckerville, committed suicide at his home at 1222 West Lenawee street, Lansing, last Saturday shortly after noon by inhaling gas, while his wife was on a shopping tour down town. Young Scarborough was born and raised in Deckerville, his family moving to Lansing several years ago. He was married and is survived by his wife and a little daughter three years old. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Scarborough, one brother, Clifford, and two sisters, Mrs. Archie Bollman and Miss Genevieve, all of Lansing.—Recorder.

The Harbor Beach Times appeals for the services of a state police officer to put a crimp in the automobile law violations in that town. The paper says the laws are so flagrantly disregarded that drastic means will be required to show the violators their places. One night last week when the local marshal boarded a moving car to make an arrest, he was pushed off and sustained severe bruises by falling on the pavement.

The Huron County Agricultural Society are making improvements to their grounds preparatory to the coming fair, August 30 and 31 and September 1 and 2. A new and roomy vegetable hall is being erected, a new platform for the free attractions, having a cement foundation, is in the process of construction, and 150 feet of bleachers are being built for the base ball games. The hall diamond will be improved and by the opening of the fair it is expected that everything will be in readiness for what is expected to be the best exposition the society has ever held.

Marlette votes for selling her lighting plant to Messrs. Green and Blackmore, who are interested in the formation of an electric power company. They propose to build in Marlette a power plant to supply electricity to Marlette, Mayville, Silverwood, Clifford, North Branch and Brown City, but this building will depend upon whether they secure the plants of the other towns. They will take over the Marlette plant at $15,000.

Two dry throats, strange to say, saved an auto from burning when Oswald and Edward Butler hustled out between reels at Neptune theatre to get a drink. As they passed their car they discovered it was on fire.—Port Austin Herald.

Prof. J. K. Osgerby of Vassar has signed contract as superintendent of schools at East Tawas and Mrs. Osgerby as principal of county normal of that city.

POTATOES AND APPLES POOR CROPS

POTATO OUTLOOK IS FOR FIFTY PER CENT OF A CROP.

Winter Wheat Shows an Average of 16 Bushels to Acre in State.

All important crops, except corn, grown in the state are below the ten-year average. Heat and drought have been responsible for this condition. The unprecedented period of extreme heat that continued during a part of June and throughout the month of July seriously injured the most of the grains and some of the minor crops. It has reduced the prospective production of some crops to a point below the returns received by Michigan farmers in any recent year, according to the joint report issued by Verne H. Church, Agricultural Statistician, U. S. Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, and Herman H. Halladay, Commissioner, State Department of Agriculture. Perhaps the chief consolation lies in the fact that Michigan has not suffered more severely than most of the other northern states, and not as much as some. The diminished production for the country as a whole will be conducive to better prices, which will compensate in part for the lower yields.

Corn is well advanced and is in generally good condition over the State. In the southwestern counties, where the weather is very dry at present, and on light soils in other sections, it is rolling and firing more or less. More moisture during the last two weeks would have produced a larger yield. The outlook is for a crop of 60,479,000 bushels as compared with 65,000,000 last year.

Winter wheat shows an average yield of 16 bushels per acre, which is about one bushel below the ten-year average. The forecasted production is 13,088,000 bushels, or about 700,000 less than last year. There is much shrunken and light weight grain, the quality being 84 per cent as compared with an average of 90. Spring wheat is a poor crop, the estimated yield being only 53 per cent of normal.

The oat crop was almost a failure in the northwestern counties. In many parts of the state, the straw was too short to cut with a binder. Some fields were too poor to harvest, and some that were harvested were not threshed. The estimated production is only 55 per cent of a crop, or 31,042,000 bushels, the smallest for the state since 1907. The United States crop is the smallest since 1913, being 1,137,032,000 bushels.

The outlook for potatoes is very discouraging. Hot weather during and following the planting season destroyed much seed. Many fields were replanted with no better results, and some have been abandoned and utilized for other crops. The stand is relatively poor in every part of the state, and the outlook is for only 50 per cent of a crop, or 18,870,000 bushels, as compared with 35,700,000. Continued on page two.

UNIONVILLE GAVE CASS CITY HOT CHASE TUESDAY

Local Team Won from Fostoria at Millington Home-coming Friday.

Cass City, standing at the head of the Tuscola County League, was given a hot chase in winning Tuesday's game at the Cass City fair by Unionville, one of the tail ends of the league. The score stood 3-2 in the sixth, was tied in the seventh and not until the last half of the ninth were the locals assured of victory when the extra score was secured. The score:

Cass City . . . 0 0 2 0 0 4 0 1—7
Unionville . . . 0 0 0 1 0 2 3 0 0—6

Fostoria was defeated by Cass City at the Millington home-coming Friday. The score:
Cass City . . . 0 2 1 3 0 2 0 2—10
Fostoria . . . 0 0 0 2 1 1 0 1 0—5

CASS CITY GETS NATIONAL ADVERTISING

IN BOOKLET, "TO EUROPE IN A CORRUGATED FIBRE BOX."

Pamphlet by Views and Story Tells of Trip from Cass City to London, England.

Cass City, through the Nestle's Food Co.'s products, is receiving national and international advertising by a pamphlet entitled "To Europe in a Corrugated Fibre Box," recently issued by the National Association of Corrugated and Fibre Box Manufacturers. This association, being desirous of demonstrating to steamship authorities the fact that a fibre box is a safe and dependable container for overseas shipments, arranged for a trial shipment of Nestle's Food Co.'s condensed milk from the local plant and the booklet is an illustrated story of the shipment from Cass City, Michigan, to London, England, with a report enroute.

The pamphlet shows one view of the exterior of the Nestle Co.'s Cass City plant and several views of the interior of the factory building. In one of them are shown Superintendent W. L. Mann and Asst. Supt. Russel J. Rogers. Other views show the following scenes: Boxes ready to be put in the car; corrugated boxes in railroad car at the Nestle's plant; trucking from railroad car to Weehawken Pier; boxes piled on pier ready to be loaded into lighter; boxes stowed in lighter Yorktown; trucking boxes from lighter to ship's side; loading platform slings with corrugated boxes; slings being lowered into hold of ship; view of hatchway opening into hold of steamship K. A. Victoria; boxes being unloaded in box sling at Huskisson Dock, Liverpool; boxes being loaded into freight car for transportation to London; and other pictures. In all 26 views are shown in the pamphlet.

This shipment consisted of 1,000 boxes of Nestle's Food Co.'s condensed milk, 900 of which were wood and 100 were of corrugated fibre. The saving of space of the 100 corrugated boxes over the same number in wood was approximately four cubic feet.

The shipment left Cass City in G. T. car 15017 on Dec. 20, 1920, arriving at the New York Central Yards in Weehawken, N. Y., without transfer enroute, on Dec. 27. This car was unloaded the following day and on Jan. 10, 1921, the shipment was loaded into the New York Central Lighter Yorktown and on Jan. 13 into the ship K. A. Victoria which sailed for Liverpool Jan. 15 and docked there on Jan. 24. The shipment arrived in London, billed to the Nestle's and Anglo-Swiss Condensed Milk Co. on Jan. 26.

At the present time the steamship lines have no uniform rules governing the acceptance of merchandise in fibre containers. If a shipper wishes to send his goods overseas in fibre containers, he is obliged to submit samples to the steamship traffic officials, who pass upon each case individually. This is a source of considerable expense and the cause of a great deal of delay in making such shipments. The national association believes that uniform specifications can and should be drawn by the steamship companies covering shipments in fibre boxes and through the facts and figures shown in the booklet present evidence that the fibre container can be used safely and demonstrate the practicability of uniform rules being established similar to those now in effect for railroad transportation of goods in fibre boxes in the United States.

Miss Dorothy McPhee, who has spent the summer with her father, Murdock McPhee, in Chicago, returned to Cass City Monday night. Mrs. Murdock McPhee of Chicago accompanied her and will visit with relatives here.

Mrs. L. V. Mulholland and son, James, of Luther came Monday to spend two weeks with Mrs. Mulholland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tyo.

bushels last year. The crop for the United States is estimated at 315,797,000 as compared with 430,458,000 bushels, last year. Since 1908, only two smaller crops have been produced, those of 1911 and 1916.

The estimated hay production is 69 per cent of a full crop; last year there was 83 per cent of a crop, and the ten-year average is 86 per cent. Timothy shows a condition of 67 per cent. The yield of clover is 0.9 of a ton per acre, or less than two-thirds of normal. Alfalfa has withstood the drought well and shows a condition of 90 per cent. Two cuttings have been harvested and a third crop will be made in most sections.

The extremely hot weather blasted many blooms on early beans and there are many empty or poorly-filled pods. Harvesting and threshing of the early crop has commenced, but the yields are disappointing. The late crop is now blooming and shows a much better prospect under the present favorable weather conditions. The present outlook is for 75 per cent of a crop, or 2,212,000 bushels. Last year's crop was 3,575,000 bushels.

The condition of sugar beets is 80 per cent as compared with 83 per cent last month, and an average of 85 per cent. The weather is favorable for the storing of sugar, and if rains are sufficient during the latter part of the season the beets will undoubtedly attain satisfactory size.

There is a prospect for a 39 per cent crop of apples in Michigan; it is chiefly in the commercial orchards. Some of the northwestern counties will probably ship more than last year because of the prevailing higher prices, and the fact that all will be harvested, which was not the case last year. The percentage for the United States is 34.8. The prospective production for the United States is 109,453,000 bushels. This is the smallest production since 1890, when the population of the country was only about one-half as large as it is now. There is only 22 per cent of a normal crop of peaches in the state. The crop is principally confined to the western fruit belt, and ranges from less than ten per cent in the extreme southwestern counties to 50 per cent in some of the orchards of Mason and Oceana counties. Pears show a condition of 41 per cent; grapes, 35; blackberries and raspberries, 70; watermelons, 78; cantaloupes, 77; plums, 20.

PINGREE.

Bennett Crocker is home assisting with the farm work in general. Everybody has been and is still going to the Fair at Cass City this week.

Plowing for wheat still advancing, notwithstanding the land being very dry.

John Fox has a tract of low land plowed ready for fall seeding of timothy. A good time of the year to utilize such land as a hay producing figure.

Another large shipment of cattle took place at New Greenleaf Friday. Eight three-year-old steers, weighing around 1200 lbs. apiece, were in one lot that was sold by Wm. Gardner, living near Wickware.

The heavy rain Saturday caused an Irishman to smile that potato digging in near future would be worth while.

It is reported that the L. O. L. are doing some fine degree work at Cass City during the month of August.

The appearance of large and covered trucks passing back and forth on the Memorial Highway No. 53, indicates that a wonderful amount of freight and baggage is being handled this time of the year.

THE RIGHT THING AT THE RIGHT TIME
By MARY MARSHALL DUFFEE

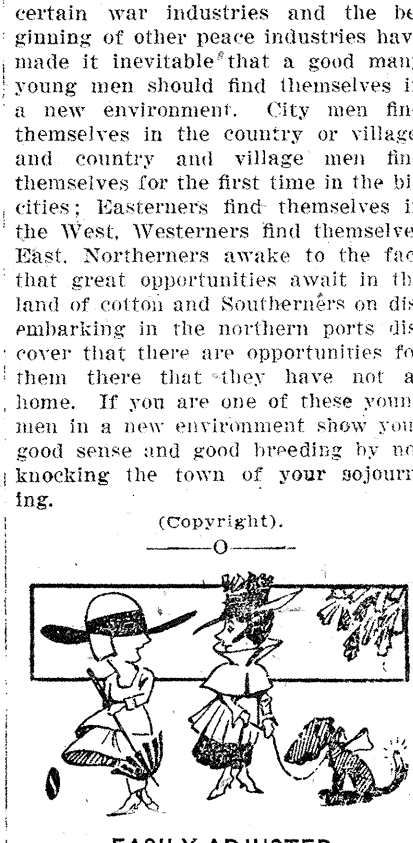

IN A STRANGE TOWN.

"I am not a Virginian—but an American."—Patrick Henry.

IT IS always a bad idea to knock the other man's home town. Especially poor policy is it when you are making your living there. Yet there are always young men—and women, too—who seem to take peculiar satisfaction in passing uncomplimentary comments on the city or town of their adoption. They don't seem to remember that the man or woman who is at home in that town is in a position of host and that to make scathing remarks about the town is almost as rude as to make scathing remarks about the house of the man whose guest you are. Especially is this so when the town is small. The stranger in a town like New York or Chicago really harms no one but himself when he continues to pour forth his disgruntlement over the city of his temporary sojourn. No one takes offense. At most they are bored or amused. But when a stranger in a small town assures the natives that it is away behind the times, that the buildings are atrocious, the streets the worst paved in the country, the restaurants and hotels the worst run, the women the plainest and the movies the oldest he is giving real offense, besides, of course, making himself very unpopular.

It really indicates nothing more than a person's own narrowness to "knock" another town in this way. If the man from a large city goes to a small one he should take it for granted that things would be different. If a Northerner goes South he should bear in mind that Southern climates make people more indolent and he should remember that if he remains there long enough he, too, will possess something of that indolence. And if a Southerner goes North he should remember that the natives of the northern cities have really nothing to do with the ray climate and that the very progressiveness which has brought him North to do business robs daily intercourse of some of the charming courtesies that makes Southern life so different.

The real man of the world soon forgets any local prejudices he may have, or rather he is wise and well bred enough to forget them. He realizes that it is through no fault of the natives of the town where he sojourns that he has to remain among them and that theoretically at least he is free to leave the town if he does not like it. Just at present there are a good many shifts in business and industry. The end of the war and demobilization of the soldiers and the closing of certain war industries and the beginning of other peace industries have made it inevitable that a good many young men should find themselves in a new environment. City men find themselves in the country or village, and country and village men find themselves for the first time in the big cities; Easterners find themselves in the West, Westerners find themselves East. Northerners awake to the fact that great opportunities await in the land of cotton and Southerners on disembarking in the northern ports discover that there are opportunities for them there that they have not at home. If you are one of these young men in a new environment show your good sense and good breeding by not knocking the town of your sojourning.

which pays you well and offers a good chance for advancement, if you will complete The Business Institute training.

"There is always room at the top", and there is always a place for the thoroughly trained young man or woman in business life.

The Business Institute is by far the largest business school in Michigan, and it is one of the leading schools of the kind in America. It has more well-qualified, capable teachers and a much larger equipment than any other business school in Detroit. It is the only business school in Detroit occupying an entire building. These statements can be readily verified.

The remarkable success of The Business Institute is the result of modern courses of study, thorough instruction, and good positions secured for graduates. The success of The Business Institute is the direct result of the success of Institute graduates.

MAKE WHIPS AND CUSTARD DISHES

Eggs Form Basis of Many Delicious Desserts During Early Spring and Summer.

SOME SIMPLE RECIPES GIVEN

Thrifty Housewives Take Advantage of Plentiful Supply of Eggs to Convert Them Into Nutritious Concoctions.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
In early spring and summer, when eggs are plentiful and cheap, the thrifty among the housekeepers utilize plenty of them for desserts. When this is done the rest of the meal does not need to be quite so "hearty."

The following recipes are recommended by food specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture:

Soft Custard.
1 cup milk 2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon vanilla 1-16 teaspoon salt
1 egg

Heat the milk in a double boiler. Mix the eggs in a bowl with the sugar and salt. Add hot milk slowly, stirring, and return mixture to the double boiler. Cook until custard will coat a silver spoon. Strain and serve. If the custard curdles set the pan into cold water and beat the custard until smooth.

Steamed or Baked Custard.
1 pint milk 1/4 cup sugar
2 eggs 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg or cinnamon

Mix eggs as for soft custard. Strain into custard cups and steam until firm over hot water, which is boiling gently. To bake, strain the custard into cups and place in a pan of warm water. Bake in a moderate oven until the custard is firm. To test a steamed or should be beaten light and two tablespoons powdered sugar added for the meringue. When the custard is cool it may be poured into sauce dishes and the meringue dropped in large spoonfuls into it.

Custard Pudding.

1/2 cup pearl tapioca 1/2 cup sugar
or rice 2 cups milk
2 eggs (yolks) 2 eggs (whites)
1/2 teaspoon vanilla 1/4 teaspoon salt

Soak the tapioca in enough cold water to cover it until it absorbs the water. Add the milk and cook in a double boiler until the tapioca is soft and transparent. Combine the yolks of eggs with sugar and salt and add to the mixture in the double boiler. Cook until it thickens. Add stiffly beaten whites and flavoring, and when cold serve. Rice must be cooked in boiling water until soft.

Apple Whip.

2 cups apple sauce Cream for serving
3 eggs (whites)

Cook six or eight medium-sized tart apples until soft in just enough water to keep them from burning. Add sirup to sweeten sufficiently and one-eighth teaspoonful grated nutmeg. Cool. Press the apple sauce through a strainer and add to it the stiffly beaten whites of eggs. Beat until light and foamy. Pile onto saucers and serve with fresh cream or a custard sauce made of the egg yolks. This sauce may be prepared by the same method as for soft custard, omitting the whites of eggs. Canned fruit, such as peaches, figs, cherries or guava, may be substituted in the same proportion for the apples.

LEMONS CONDUCE TO HEALTH AND PLEASE

Have New Importance in Diet, Say Specialists.

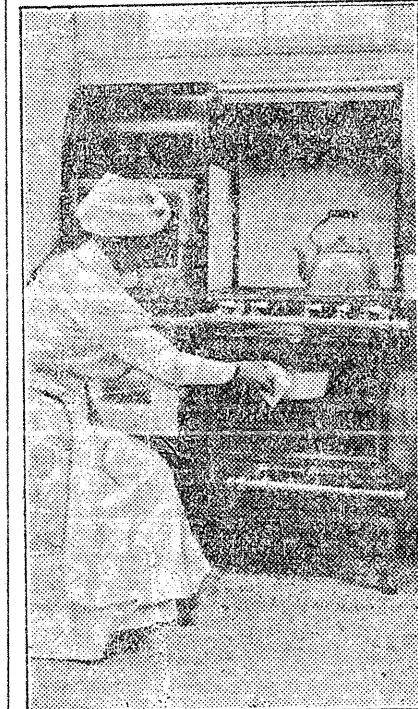

Long List of Beverages and Desserts in Which Juice Can Be Used, as Well as in Number of Sauces — for Fish and Meat.

In the olden times sailors who took long trips and ate no fresh vegetables and fruits for weeks or months were likely to fall victims to scurvy. Finally a cure or a partial cure for it was found in lemon juice.

Of late years scientists have been making a study of scurvy, its cause and its cure and of the conditions that make the body proof against this disease. They have discovered a substance called vitamin C, which seems to prevent and even to cure this disease. It is found in many foods, among them tomatoes and such citrus fruits as oranges, grapefruit and lemons.

Lemons, therefore, have a new importance in the diet, according to food specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture, office of home economics. They are no longer to be valued simply for their flavor, but also as a source of one of these necessary substances.

Lemons can be prepared in all sorts of ways in the preparation of meals. There is a long list of beverages and desserts in which lemon juice is used, as well as a number of delicious sauces that expert cooks have invented to serve on fish and meat. Many of these sauces the busy housekeeper has no time to make, but she can cut a lemon in two and put it on the table to serve with fish, oysters, or meat. Some people think that a little lemon juice adds just the zest needed to make eggs on toast a tasteful dish. Lemon juice is also good on spinach and other green vegetables, on many kinds of salads, and also as flavoring for pudding sauces and cakes.

CLUB GIRL'S WORK RESULTS IN BUILDING NEW HOME FOR FAMILY

Home Demonstration Agent Assisting Girls' Club Members in the Selection of a Garden Spot.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Three years ago Irene Garner of Madison county, Ala., joined a girls' gardening and canning club. Each year since she has cleared a good profit on her work. She gave this to her parents on condition that they build themselves a new home as soon as possible. The time before they decided on the step seemed long to the little club girl, but meanwhile she kept industriously at the club work and followed her leader's instructions. Soon the results of her efforts became apparent in the home. Then she persuaded her father to take up new lines of development on his farm, and last year he built the modern, attractive country home which had been promised her.

Irene learned from her club leader how to finish floors and woodwork and how to paper a wall. Then she and a small brother put the lessons into practice, and the whole interior of the house was finished by their efforts.

Her own room she furnished with a quaint old suite of furniture which she made over. The rag rug on the floor she made herself as well as the curtains at the window. Little money was expended, but much taste and ingenuity were put into the room.

Besides being an expert gardener and canner, this Madison County girl can embroider and sew, can cook nicely, and serve a properly-balanced meal. Last but not least, she finds time to be a leader of her community in all social affairs.

Diminutive Only in Stature.

It is related of Philetas of Cos, distinguished about 330 B. C. as a poet and grammarian, that he was so diminutive in size and avoirdupois that he carried metal weights in his clothing to prevent his being blown away by the wind. He was the preceptor of Ptolemy Philadelphus.

Fox Climbs Tree.

Another of the red fox's accomplishments is his ability to climb certain trees, where the inclination of the trunk and the accessibility of the lower limbs admit of it, says the American Forestry Magazine. His being able to perform this feat often saves his life, as does also his knowing how to swim.

Trout a Cannibal.

The trout is cannibalistic, feeding upon its own kind when necessity compels, says the American Forestry Magazine, and in numerous instances when necessity does not compel.

Archie, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Davenport, had his leg broken, received a severe cut in his scalp and was badly bruised when he was struck by an automobile driven by Geo. Finkle Saturday. The lad was rolling a hoop near his home on West St. and was out of the path of the automobile when he suddenly turned again and ran in front of the machine. Intent on his task of hoop-rolling, he failed to see the machine in time to avoid the danger. No blame is attached to Mr. Finkle as he is a careful driver and the accident was unavoidable.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hall and daughter, Mildred, and Mrs. Anna Patterson returned Friday from a 1350 mile motor trip to Canada and the Falls. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall and family of Caro. On starting from Cass City two weeks ago, they travelled north thru Michigan and crossed into Canada at the Soo. At Muskoka Lakes they stopped to visit Mr. Hall's brother, Wm. Hall. Leaving there they went to Toronto, Hamilton, Niagara Falls, London and Park Hill, crossed into Michigan at Pt. Huron and thus home again. During all the time they were indeed lucky for they escaped with no tire or motor trouble. The party took their camping outfit with them and slept and ate along the road.

B. L. Middleton returned from Ann Arbor Saturday greatly improved in health.

Mervin Keyser and family of Flint are visiting relatives in this vicinity during the fair.

HOW DO YOU SAY IT? By C. N. LURIE

Common Errors in English and How to Avoid Them

"TO ENJOY POOR HEALTH."

THIS is one of the incorrect phrases which have somehow crept into common usage in the English language, although a moment's thought will show the speaker or writer that it is absurd to say that a person "enjoys" poor health. "To enjoy" means "to experience joy or pleasure in; receive pleasure from the possession or use of or participation in; delight in" (Standard Dictionary). Why, then, should a person say, "I have enjoyed poor health during the past year?" You can enjoy only that which brings you pleasure or profit; and surely ill health brings neither.

Of course, it is quite proper to say, "I have enjoyed good health," since good health, being the greatest of human blessings, is to be appreciated and enjoyed.

A similar error it to be "agreeably" disappointed. If you are disappointed, the experience cannot be agreeable.

How It Started

THE WORD "RUBBER."

THE material which we now know as "rubber" was formerly called elastic gum. One of the earliest uses of this gum had been to erase marks on paper, and the chemist, Priestly, in about 1770, suggested that the material which erased or "rubbed" so effectively should be called "India rubber." His suggestion was adopted, and the name soon became universal.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

AN AVERAGE JOB.

ARE you going to be content with an average job, which can be filled by any girl, or do you want a career? If the latter, you must recognize the importance of sound training.

Take two girls. Both determine that stenography is the opening they will seek. One takes the usual course and enters an office at the ordinary salary. She can do the average thing, and that is all.

The other girl isn't satisfied with such a future. She takes Spanish and French, and studies English, both commercial and cultivated. She studies the requirements of a big position, and works for it. She puts in an extra year of work before accepting a position and once at work she continues her studies.

She will be one of the few thoroughly equipped women for the position she has in mind. She will get that position in time. And she will be making two or three times what her friend is at the end of ten years, and have, moreover, the assurance of a permanent position and real recognition. Because the thoroughly trained person is rare, and the firm who secures her won't let her go if it can help itself.

A girl can specialize in bank work, in technical work, secretarial work or for big business. And this is only in the one line of stenography. There are hundreds of other lines, and in each the trained and ambitious worker will be at a premium. Don't be content with the average job.

BUSINESS ON FEET, SAYS BANK REPORT

Business is getting its feet back on solid ground again, although the process is slow, according to the annual business and crop report assembled by the Continental and Commercial National bank, of Chicago. With a bumper harvest in prospect and business back to sixty per cent of its 1920 peak volume, the outlook is reassuring. General resumption of activities in various lines and a concerted turn towards prosperity, however, are not expected before the fall of 1922.

last year, but the crop outlook is good enough to warrant the anticipation of reasonable business activity. "Other factors influencing the degree of this activity" continues the report, "are conditions in foreign lands and government policies at home. Indefinite government policies increase uncertainty. Transportation, taxation, tariff and fear of more and different interference by government, have had an adverse influence on business. All correspondents agree that less government interference in business, would be more helpful than anything else."

DAIRY FACTS

DISPOSING OF MILK SURPLUS

Conditions Likely to Exist in Well-Developed Dairy Districts During Summer.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

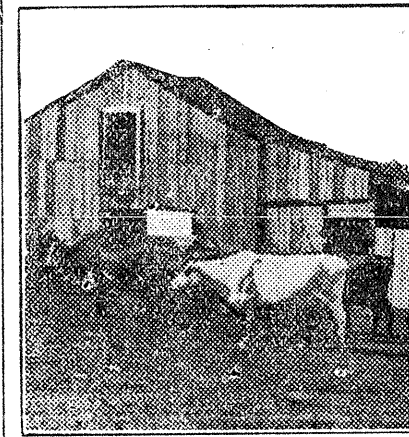

For the first time since the beginning of the World war there is developing in this country a surplus of milk, according to reports recently received by the United States Department of Agriculture. Specialists of the department state that this condition probably will be only temporary during the "flush" of the season, and that it is most apparent in well-developed dairy districts. It may continue during the summer months, but is expected to adjust itself by fall, when demand will overtake the surplus of supply. The situation is largely due to the falling off in the demand for milk in the manufacture of condensed products, milk powders, casein, and similar products, for which there was a large export outlet.

The department points out the advisability of using as much milk as possible, in fluid form and otherwise, as a human food. Within the last generation an increased knowledge of the value of milk in the diet has resulted in an almost doubled per capita consumption of milk, and consumers who purchase milk freely thereby encourage production. This is believed to be the best safeguard against a milk shortage and high prices resulting from the withdrawal of dairymen from the business during periods of large production and low farm prices for milk.

But when the limit of human utilization is reached dairy producers necessarily must decide how to dispose of the remainder. In many cases this will be a decision between selling whole milk, selling cream, or even to use a moderate quantity of whole milk for feeding, especially to young animals. In any event, a more liberal use of milk on farms should reduce the surplus, even though not solving the problem entirely.

As a guide to persons deciding to utilize surplus milk as a live stock feed, the department makes the following recommendations, which may be supplemented with literature issued by the department:

Milk from a dairy herd which is not definitely known to be free from tuberculosis should be scalded before being fed. An ordinary feed cooker is a practical means for scalding milk. This process is approximately equivalent to pasteurization, which most large cities require as a safeguard to public health. Metal pails that can be kept clean by washing and scalding are preferable to wooden containers or others that are difficult to clean.

In calf feeding it usually pays well to feed one pound of whole milk for each ten pounds that the calf weighs, for a period of two weeks, and at the end of that time to change gradually to an equal amount of skim milk. The skim milk should be gradually increased as the calf grows until about 15 pounds per day is fed at the end of three months. Feed the milk warm and regulate the quantity according to size and vigor of the calf.

For pigs three weeks old or more, three parts of skim milk mixed with one part of shorts, is useful in keeping them growing. Skim milk may be fed with corn and other hog feeds in various practical combinations.

In poultry feeding both skim milk and buttermilk are excellent feeds, and can now also be purchased as a nonperishable commercial feed, which is sold in large barrels as semisolid buttermilk. Skim milk and buttermilk may be fed alone or mixed with other feeds, but feeders should observe their flocks carefully to avoid giving too much milk, or bowel trouble may result. This is caused principally by fowls eating spoiled clabbered milk remaining from a previous feeding.

While to live stock owners unaccustomed to the use of milk as a stock feed it may appear somewhat expensive, there are advantages which milk feeders quickly recognize. In addition to utilizing the surplus milk that would otherwise be wasted, young stock generally make a very rapid growth. This means early maturity and early usefulness, compared with stock that have developed more slowly. At least as a temporary measure there is a real opportunity to improve farm live stock, in addition to relieving a local milk surplus, by using skim milk rather liberally in proper combination with other feeds.

Hesitate to Attack Mankind. Dr. Rodi of the Italian Somaliland gives an account of lion and leopard bites in the Giornale di Medicina Militare. Many deaths occur annually—almost entirely among the indigenous—in which either one of the feline or the crocodile is accused. There is a notable difference between the wounds inflicted by the feline and the reptile in question, for the former, which attack living victims only, inflict clean wounds. The crocodile, on the contrary, secretes its carcasses until they become decomposed.

In Benadir—the Italian Somaliland—the lion does not attack mankind by choice, preferring cattle and goats; but nevertheless the beast is greatly feared by the natives, who use reason in dealing with the leopard and crocodile, but are thrown into panic by the larger cat.

Memory and Instinct. In the higher animals, we can see evidences of the possession of some faculty similar to human memory, which is made use of particularly by animal trainers. It is obvious that instinct alone would not enable these animals to perform such feats. While we cannot investigate the animal mind as we do the human mind, we can judge of its processes by the outward signs and these point to the possession of what we may call animal memory. Some students of the subject deny that animals have imagination and assert their memory is only associative—something the animal sees, smells or hears, recalling a group of facts connected with it, and it being impossible for it to recall this group without some concrete suggestion.

THE TECKTONIUS SILO

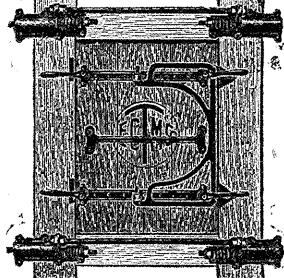

The silo with Superior Silo Fixtures so Infinitely Better That They Have Set a New Silo Construction and Service Standard

Advantages of Silage

If weather conditions are unfavorable in haying time and the owner of a silo finds it will be impossible for him to cure his crop, every particle of it can be picked up dripping wet, run thru his cutter, placed in the silo and saved. In a general way it may be stated that regardless of what the crop is, it can be made into silage and its feeding value as silage will be in exact proportion to what its feeding value at that time would have been under any other method of curing. The value of a crop preserved by the use of a Wood Stave "Tecktonius" Silo is increased about 40 per cent over that of a crop harvested in the usual way. At a conservative estimate, two cows can be kept by feeding silage at the cost of one cow from the same acreage, fed on hay or other rufage. Another important advantage of Silage is convenience in feeding and economy of storage room. Ten tons of silage can be stored in the same space as one ton of hay. When properly taken care of, there is absolutely no waste to any part of the corn crop. By providing a succulent forage, winter dairying is made profitable and no reduction of stock is caused by a dry season. Still another advantage of silage is the reduction of the acreage needed for pasture; consequently more land can be brought under cultivation. Silage is the cheapest feed that can be produced, as well as the best. It is a certain supply, notwithstanding the drought or the flood.

Tecktonius Perfect Fitting "Hinged" Silo Door

Door LOCKS at each of Four corners. Wedge-shaped door jamb causes hand lever to grip and hold each of the four corners tightly against door frame. MALLEABLE-IRON DOOR HANGER, with four points of suspension. Double braced. Prevents door sagging or binding. Door lifts from Hanger—also Hanger from Casing Bearing. "Hinged" door easily swings inside silo, clear of door opening. As easily handled and tightly locked as refrigerator door.

Stave Base Anchors, (6 in number) serve to hold staves firmly in place and, at the same time, provide an adjustment for contraction and expansion. The base of the average silo does not provide for contraction and expansion in unison with the balance of the silo. This serious defect is entirely overcome in the TECKTONIUS. 4, 5 or 6 cable anchors used according to size of silo.

Place your order early for Base Forms

Silos can be erected in one or two days after foundation is completed.

9 inch spring with approximately 2 inch take up. Requires 2500 pounds pressure to make taut. Gives each hoop from 6 inches to 10 inches take up according to size of silo. Only one nut to tighten; being at highest point of contact, insures hoop easily drawn taut. Gives 3/4 turn of wrench. SPRING made of best open hearth spring steel, oil tempered, with all permanent set removed. Malleable iron casting has 11 inch bearing surface, against about 4 inches on others. Absolutely STRAIGHT PULL ON ROD. No bending, twisting, kinking, or binding of hoop.

ARE YOU NEEDING REPAIRS FOR YOUR SILO?

We are prepared to furnish you with Fir Staves, Hoop Supports, Lugs, Anchors, Cable, etc. Get your repairs as early as possible to avoid an unlooked for delay.

Jay Crittenden wears a bumblebee eye. The eye looks as if gone into winter quarters.

S. Sherk exhibits two tomatoes—little one, 1 lb.; large one, 1 3/4 lbs. Good for Aug. 13.

Edward Hartwick of the Almont locality spent Saturday and Sunday in these parts.

"Art" Legg of Pontiac was in this section past week in search of live stock and fowls.

Mrs. Brown of Wickware visited at R. D. Lewis' Saturday. Mrs. B. is an aunt of Mrs. R. D.

C. J. Malcolm has potatoes planted in July that bid fair to be champion yielders in the settlement.

Kreiner family is unfortunate for bangs, bruises and felons. Three had their paws dressed in white linen past week—old gent, old lady and oldest son.

There is no authentic history of the gypsy tribes. They claim Little Egypt as home of ancestry but history furnishes nothing to sustain the claim. Stringent laws of Europe have slain them by the thousands.

'Tis admirable to be a good worker, but the trouble is many good workers are great worriers and that does harm. Just now we hear the expression every day, "Going to be just as hard times as under Cleveland."

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men, A little whiskey, corn juice pure Our nation's ills would just now cure."

State official called saying "Sell no more of the St. Louis fly destroyer. 'Tis dangerous to public health, gather in what you have sold, pay back the 'filthy' that our voters may live and act." Some surmise the plates will be sent to democratic strongholds.

While Robert Jacoby was telling us of visiting in three counties on Sunday, John Clark chipped in and told of eating bread in three different counties same day last week. It is indeed worthy of notice the manner in which humanity moves itself around these days. The writer drove Bill and Jack in the yoke and when we chewed grub in three sections same day, that we went some.

The writer attended the old fashioned Presbyterian Sunday school in his youthful days. Their blame for all wrongs were charged back to Adam and Eve. Now after being on top of the soil for more than 70 years, we conclude us creatures will improve faster if we blame ourselves for wrongs done and mistakes made and honestly try each day to improve over yesterday.

Twenty-six years ago a house was built in this town with a wall so tight that only a two-inch creature could go beneath. A hen went under at that time and layed an egg for a joke. Now a cellar is placed under the domicile and they investigated. Shell white, light as vanity, but smells as sweet as a Primrose of old Ireland. All doubters can see the antiquated hen fruit at 99 East Main St.

On Thursday the afternoon train was nearly due when a large car from Cass City came into the depot at wild bird speed. It was filled with youngsters and middle aged whose hearts were yet young. It was evident that two Cass Cityites had joined destined and were planning to leave by train without a rice blessing by their friends who caught them here and showered them well, then sent them on their way rejoicing.

Six months ago the South Novesta Farmers' Club arranged matters to create interest and help members to help cultivate themselves. Two captains were selected, who in turn chose fourteen on a side, leaders included, who brought to the monthly meeting an essay, a reading or something to make a program. The essay having a greater value than the reading in numbers which were added at close of dates and the side having the least sum paid the ice cream for the house. The contest on the 12th of August closed satisfactorily to all. Mack Wentworth and Mrs. John Retherford were the leaders, latter winning by 17 points. But like all other contestants a return match is called for.

ELMWOOD.

The annual Hawley-Galloway reunion was held Aug. 10 at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. McNeil near Colwood. There were 52 relatives and friends present who came from Detroit, Marlette, Ann Arbor and Bellville. The day was spent in auto trips and visiting. At high noon the guests were seated in the dining room at two long tables spread with a sumptuous dinner, after which singing and prayer and the regular business meeting of the reunion was held. Later all departed for home reporting a fine time. The reunion will be held next year in Wayne.

Mrs. Thomas Smith of Colwood is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hiram McKellar.

CARO FAIR OFFERS UNLIMITED FEATURES

Day and Night Attractions to Surpass Anything Ever Shown in Michigan.

Elaborate plans are being made for the amusement features of Caro Fair and Night Carnival Aug. 22-26 and the T. A. Wolfe Shows which have engaged to furnish the midway attractions will come to Caro with thirty carloads of show equipment and over 400 people. The big double midway which will be the most beautiful and extensive yet shown, will offer many novelties in the way of attractions and there will be over twenty different features including six monster riding devices and many interesting shows. There will be a big minstrel show and with a big company of entertainers and a Hawaiian theatre where a troupe of genuine native Hawaiians will sing the songs of the sunny South Seas and play the native steel guitar and ukelele and the other fascinating instruments of that far-away-land. Native dances and ceremonies will be depicted and portrayed and vocal and musical solo and ensemble numbers will be among the many offerings on the big program. There will be many circus side shows where giants, midgets, living skeletons, fat folks, fire and glass eaters and other bizarre people will be on exhibition and there will be music by several brass bands and jazz orchestras.

Added to these will be innumerable features on the huge outdoor stage free to visitors. Circuit harness and running races daily and entirely new and still more elaborate fireworks displays every day and night. And best of all, the admission will not be increased for this event.

Last Friday night, Wm. Mills was taking Mrs. Geo. Copland, Mrs. Geo. Mills and family and Mrs. O'Rourke to the Copland home after spending the day in town at the picnic. At Robt. Fordon's they were run into by a car coming from the west driven by Zulka and Nowiski. In the Mills car were eight people and a box of groceries which is thought to have saved them from a more serious accident. One little girl had her head cut open about four inches by being hurled against the top. Mrs. Geo. Copland, sr., was pinned beneath the seat and bruised and cut considerable but no bones broken. Her condition owing to her age is the most serious, but she is improving. The car is a wreck. Just what the penalty will be to the reckless drivers has not yet been determined.—Ugly Courier.

LOOK WHAT HE GOT.

A miser was scoring a hired man for his extravagance in wanting to carry a lantern when calling on his girl.

"The idea," he scoffed. "When I was courtin' I never carried no lantern." "Yes," he said sadly, "and look what you got."
