MUCH INTEREST IN H. S. BASE BALL

PROSPECTS POINT OUT EN-TRANCE OF 10 SCHOOLS FOR COUNTY CONTEST.

Supt. Schank of Mayville Elected President of Co. Ass'n and
T. M. Clay Sec.-treas.

County athletic officers anticipate a large number of schools entering into the contest for the county championship in base ball next season in Tuscola county. Present prospects point out the entrance of 10 schools. If that many are ready to begin the season next spring, officials of the county association, according to present plans, will divide the county into two sections geographically, the winners of one section to compete with the leaders of the other for the county championship.

Supt. Philip Schank of the Mayville school, was elected president of the county athletic association, Thursday evening. Supt. F. R. Davis of the Fairgrove school was elected vice president and T. M. Clay of the Caro school, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided at this meeting to engage a league umpire for base ball games and to adopt the M. I. A. A. rules. Events in the track and field will be the same as this year and the date for the field meet will be fixed on the same day as that chosen for the county eighth grade graduation exercises.

BEANS COMING IN RAPIDLY AT ELEVATORS

Farm Produce Co. Receive Close to $12,000 Worth of Beans in Two Days.

Beans have been coming in quite rapidly at the local elevators the last few weeks and they are placing considerable sums of money among local farmers.

At the time beans reached the peak price of $6.25 per cwt. last week, on two days—Tuesday and Wednesday—the Farm Produce Co. received close to five carloads. This represents approximately $12,000.00 for this amount of beans.

The highest check drawn thus far this season for beans by this company was made payable to J. J. Spence and John Reagh and called for $1,050.00. Approximately 300 bushels have been sold by them and this represents but a portion of the crop grown by Mr. Reagh on the Spence farm.

JOHN HORNER, 90, ANSWERS FINAL CALL

Has Lived in Novesta Since 1888;
Funeral Held on Tuesday Afternoon.

John Horner, who had reached the ripe old age of 90 years, 3 months and 18 days, passed away at his home in Novesta township on Sunday, Oct. 29. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Free Will Baptist church of Novesta, Rev. Willerton officiating.

Mr. Horner was born near Toronto, Ont., on July 11, 1832. In 1863, he was united in marriage with Sarah Ann Drinkall and to this union eight children were born, four of whom preceded the father in death. In 1888, Mr. Horner and his family moved to Michigan, locating near Novesta Corners. This has been his home since that time.

Two years ago, he buried his life companion and since that time he has been waiting his summons home. In early life, Mr. Horner was converted. To his faith he has ever been steadfast down through the changing years. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Novesta F. W. B. church.

He leaves to mourn two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Leek of Ann Arbor, Robt. Horner of Novesta, and Sanford and Anna Horner of Detroit, together with several grandchildren.

PAGED!!

PICTURESQUE FOX FARM IN HURON CO.

Skins Sell at a Price as High as That Obtained for Those of Wild Animals.

If you will drive thirteen miles north, two miles east and half a mile north again you will find a farm which will amaze you, for there lives Chas. Little, an interesting character, who has for six years managed a fox farm. Mr. Little is more than glad to explain his industry.

The charm of the place is the picturesqueness of it. For a background nature has furnished a rather large woods of birch trees. Just at this time of year the dark sky, bright leaves and white trunks of the trees present a very striking picture. Nineteen silver-gray foxes rather detract your attention, however, from the background. They are apparently very tame but require much caution in the care and handling.

They are beautiful beasts with their luxurious coats and huge bushy tails. They are kept in large wire cages furnished with a clay floor, plentifully covered with rocks and stones.

It is queer the people in this vicinity, generally, would hear of Mr. Little more while in New York City than right at home, but it is true, for the furriers in that city know him well.

The foxes are fed almost entirely on horse flesh, both in summer and winter. For summer use the meat is dried, $1.50 buying enough meat for the entire flock for two or three months. Milk is also fed to them plentifully.

The skins are sold at a price as high as that obtained for those of the wild animals and Mr. Little not only sells the skins but the animals for breeding purposes. Recently Mr. Duffy, of the firm Duffy & Co., furriers of New York, visited the farm and offered Mr. Little $2,700 for a family of seven, but Mr. Little declined the offer and Mr. Duffy is still hot on his trail.

The old belief, which has been put before the public in many ways, such as in the lecture "Acres of Diamonds" that you will find the most wonderful things in the world in your own vicinity is certainly true in this case.

BOVINE TUBERCULOSIS CAMPAIGN UP TO VOTERS

Huron County Board of Supervisors Will Let People Pass on It in Spring.

The board of supervisors of Huron county passed a resolution that the question of appropriating $15,000 to fight bovine tuberculosis be left to the voters of the county at the annual spring election next April. The action was taken by the board because the sentiment in the county seemed to be so divided on the question. Many members believed that an appropriation which would mean an expenditure of possibly $30,000 or $35,000 in the three years should receive the consent of the voters.

In urging the passing of the appropriation County agent E. E. Twining presented a petition signed by seven hundred farmers.

Huron county will have $20,000 less taxes to pay this year than last.

The supervisors have voted to be spread this year a total of $340,492.84.

Last year's tax was $360,006.58.

The Huron supervisors increased the prosecuting attorney's salary from $1,000 to $1,500, reduced the road commissioners' salaries from $250 to $150 per year and allowed $1,400 for county parks.

MOVE TO MODERN HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dilman Occupy
Semi-Bungalow of Stucco.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dilman are moving this week into the modern residence which has just been completed for them on their farm 1 1/4 miles west of Cass City. The house is a semi-bungalow with an outside finish of stucco. The lower floor contains living room, sun parlor, dining room, bedroom, breakfast room, kitchen and small hall and the second floor has three bedrooms and bath. The living room, dining room and sun parlor are finished in oak and the remaining rooms in pine. An abundance of light and plenty of closet room are features of the dwelling.

Electric lights and a hot air furnace add to the comfort and convenience of this pleasant home.

NO FUNDS TO PAY WIDOWS' PENSIONS

Poor Winter Outlook for Those Who Depend upon This Assistance.

The general fund of Sanilac county is exhausted and County Clerk Benedict has been notified by the county treasurer to draw no more orders, as the fund is now overdrawn to a large amount.

With the order to stop further drawings on the general fund, which is now exhausted, widows of the county who have no other means of support than the widow's pension will be penniless, as it will be some time in January, next year, before the paying of the pensions can be resumed. The widow pensions that were paid in October amounted to $1700 which shows the large number in the county who are dependent on this pension. With the coming of winter and high fuel prices the stopping in payment of this fund, there can be nothing less than intense suffering among many of the families of the county this winter.—Republican.

CASS CITY DEFEATS CARO ELEVEN 12-7

Halfback Hamilton Featured as Frequent Ground Gainer in Cleanest Game of Year.

Cass City high school met the Caro schools on the county seat gridiron last Thursday afternoon, and in one of the cleanest games of the season, the locals brought home the long end of the 12-7 score. There were no arguments from either side and very few penalties were inflicted.

Caro's eleven manipulated a variety of shift plays which worked successfully early in the game when the county seat boys gained the most ground.

Caro secured possession of the ball on a punt fumble on Cass City's 15-yard line and then carried the ball over in the next few plays for a touchdown. This occurred in the first 10 minutes of play.

Caro put up a good brand of football, but after their success in the first quarter, the local team buckled down to business and held their opponents, keeping Caro's gains down to short distances and few of them. Cass City played its best game of the year and players showed very good interference in blocking end runs.

Both Higgins and Seed showed up well as ground gainers and Cole received a pass which he made count for about 30 yards. The feature of the game were the frequent gains of Halfback Hamilton, who made from 4 to 15 yards in each play.

Cass City will play at Vassar next Monday. The locals expect a stiff game as Vassar administered a defeat to the local team here two weeks ago by a 13-6 score.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS ORGANI- ZATION EFFECTED

Society Members Consider Their Health a Sacred Thing; Elect Officers.

Girls of the Cass City high school formed a Camp Fire Girls organization Thursday evening and elected the following officers: secretary, Velma Warner; treasurer, Mildred McKenney; program committee, Bernice Wager, Vera Flint, Elsie Campbell, Alvina Lang.

The girls in the organization are very enthusiastic and are looking forward to their hikes, camps and other forms of athletics. As some of these activities cannot be carried on during the winter months, the girls will be instructed in first aid, personal hygiene and so forth.

Camp Fire Girls learn to share, to work together. The basis of the Camp Fire organization is the home. To believe that Camp Fire limits its activities to the out-of-doors and that its members spend their free-time sitting about camp fires is absurd. The work of the home, even if it amounts to only small tasks, is made interesting by awarding honor beads for these tasks. By living the law of the Camp Fire and following the slogan "Give Service" the girls grow in spirit and mind.

Camp Fire Girls consider their health a sacred thing, and so the love of out-of-door life is stimulated. They learn to love the pleasures of picnicking, of tramping along the road or sleep out of doors. Ninety thousand Camp Fire Girls go camping each year for a week or two and they come back happier and healthier. At a camp it is the girl herself that counts; if she cannot swim or hike or prepare a creditable meal when it is her turn, she will not be popular. It is not popular with Camp Fire Girls to "enjoy poor health." Cleanliness, outdoor exercise and plenty of sleep are habits which the Camp Fire program insists upon.

The Camp Fire Girls and their leader need the co-operation of every citizen of Cass City to make their organization a success and to enable the girls to help their community.

FIVE FARM SALES FOR NEXT WEEK

Ralph Kleinedler has sold his farm 1 1/2 miles north of Gagetown and will sell his personal property at auction on Monday, Nov. 6, with L. S. McEl-donney as auctioneer.

On the same day, Jacob M. Wise will sell a farm 3 miles east and 1 1/2 miles south of Cass City. Mr. Wise is preparing to move to Indiana. F. A. Donaldson will cry the sale.

Oscar Gustafson, having decided to quit farming, announces a sale for Wednesday, Nov. 8, on the A. A. Hitchcock farm, 5 miles east, 1/2 mile south and 1/4 mile west of Cass City. R. N. McCullough is the auctioneer.

Lon Hartwick will quit farming and is advertising an auction on Thursday, Nov. 9, 7 miles east of Cass City. R. N. McCullough is in charge of the sale.

On Friday, Nov. 10, W. R. Delong will have a sale 2 miles south, 1 mile west and 1/2 mile south of Cass City, on the Dougald Livingston farm. R. N. McCullough will cry the sale.

Full particulars regarding these sales are printed on pages 7, 8 and 9.

Two auctions are planned for Wednesday, Nov. 15—J. W. Mudge in Novesta township and J. L. Clark in Greenleaf township. Look for particulars regarding these sales in next week's Chronicle.

MAYVILLE LOSES HOTEL BY FIRE

HOT FIRE FOR SHORT TIME;
BUILDING AND CONTENTS
WERE INSURED.

Fire Fighters Hampered by Lack of Water at Commencement of Struggle.

The Mayville Inn, a frame building and the only hotel in operation in Mayville, was destroyed by fire with its contents Monday afternoon. The fire was discovered about three o'clock and it is thought that its origin was from a spark from the chimney. It is reported that insurance to the amount of $4,000 was carried on the hotel building and $1,600 on the contents.

The fire was a real hot proposition for a short time and two houses standing in the direction of the wind from the burning building caught fire, but prompt work of citizens put out the flames before any great damage resulted to the residences.

Fire fighters were hampered by a lack of water in their start to fight the flames, but after it was discovered that the hydrant was only half turned on, the trouble was remedied and the supply of water was all that could be expected. A call was sent to the Caro fire department and the county seat men responded promptly to aid in subduing the conflagration.

Mayville has another hotel which discontinued operating about a year ago.

MILK PRICE IS UP 25c PER CWT.

Another Increase Indicates a Continuation of the Upward Trend in Price.

Another increase in the price of milk indicates the continuation of an upward trend in the price of farm products which is encouraging.

The Nestle's Co. announced recently an increase of 25 cents in milk bringing the price to $2.15 per cwt.

ELKLAND LOSES PIONEER SETTLER

LUKE H. WRIGHT ANSWERS FI-NAL SUMMONS AT AGE OF 78 YEARS.

Ever Active and of Great Endurance,
He Performed Well the Work of a Pioneer.

Elkland township lost a pioneer settler and a respected citizen Monday afternoon in the death of Luke H. Wright, who passed away at his residence in Cass City, at the age of 78 years. He has been ill several months with asthma and dropsy, but the immediate cause of death was paralysis.

Mr. Wright was born in Dereham, Ont., on June 12, 1844. On Dec. 25, 1865, he was united in marriage with Miss Almira Withey. Two years later, they left Ontario for Michigan, settling in the northeastern part of Elkland township, near Cass City. Here Mr. Wright cleared a home in the midst of the virgin forest, cleared away the big pine trees and replaced their stations with cultivated and fertile fields. Ever active and of great endurance, he was well fitted for the work of the pioneer—a task he performed well and willingly.

Mr. Wright retired from his farming operations several years ago and came to Cass City to reside. After several years' residence in the village, he again engaged in farming, purchasing land near Rescue. Five years ago, he returned to Cass City where he again purchased a residence and spent his remaining days.

Eleven children came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wright. Three of them preceded the father in death. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father, his wife and eight children, Mrs. Harry Guppy of California, John W. Wright of Alberta, Mrs. Elizabeth Powell of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. J. D. Tuckey, Chas. Wright and Luke E. Wright, all of Cass City, Mrs. Wm. Heller of Bad Axe and Mrs. John Day of Grant township.

Funeral services were held at the Evangelical church Thursday afternoon, Rev. F. L. Pohly officiating. Interment was made in Elkland cemetery.

Hazen Beecher Reavey, 26, Almer; Mildred Isabelle Culbert, 23, Fairgrove.

Bad Axe—Dog taxes paid to the county last year amounted to $4,322.65, according to a recent report. Of this amount $1,493.59 was returned to farmers as compensation for sheep killed by dogs, leaving a net gain of $2,829.06. The dog tax is used to pay for geese and sheep killed by dogs, and any balance that is left after this is done is turned into a general county fund.

Bargain Week in Cass City Will Soon Be Here

The spirit of co-operation among Cass City business houses will be demonstrated again in Cass City's Bargain Week which will be held from Saturday, Nov. 11, to Saturday, Nov. 18, inclusive.

This event promises to be one of the best that has ever been held in Cass City. The stores will feature a number of unusual values in seasonable goods and the bargains include many lines, from articles for the table to wearing apparel and hardware.

Watch next week's Chronicle for announcements of bargains offered by Cass City merchants.

Great Variety of Bananas.

There are over 60 varieties of the banana, with as great, or greater, variations in character as to the different kinds of apples. Hawaii is said to have something over 40 distinct varieties of the fruit, most of which have been introduced by the whites. Some of these are extremely delicious in flavor, while other kinds are used, if at all, only when cooked in various ways. There is scarcely a city house lot or country homestead which does not have a clump or two of bananas, which grow with practically no care, new plants or suckers shooting up to replace the ones which have fruited and been removed.

Richard Lloyd Jones tells

How Wisdom will Win

QUITE to its amazement Wall Street woke up on morning recently to find Henry Ford the richest man in the world. What amazed them most was that he had grown rich in spite of them. Time was when Wall Street refused to help Ford, when it looked upon him as a questionable risk and wanted eleven per cent. Now Ford is propping up the plutocrats of wobbly Wall Street with a loan of nearly $200,000,000. With finer spirit he is letting them have it at four per cent.

Mr. Ford made his mammoth fortune in a clean and splendid way. It is no crime to be rich. It is not ethically wrong to acquire the greatest fortune if you have gained that fortune by helping men instead of hurting them.

John D. Rockefeller acquired a great fortune. Much of his fortune was made by the most despicable practices. He brazenly defied the laws of the land. He was not a man-helper. To gain his own ends he would cruelly crush. His ambition was to corner a commodity. He bought up hundreds of patents and suppressed them because they economized for the consumer on oil consumption.

Ford created something. He made an instrument that consumes more Rockefeller gasoline than all the oil-consuming devices known before. By his inventive mathematical and mechanical genius Mr. Ford caused an enormous increase in the Rockefeller wealth. Compared to him John D. was a one-cylinder affair.

Rockefeller is not a loved name. He is not revered. He is a very old man now. His face is crisscrossed with lines. Years ago a troubled conscience overtook him and he set out to square himself. It is possible for a man to do that—that is, if our Christian faith is practicable.

Polluted water will run itself pure; so will tainted money. Rockefeller began his substantial philanthropies by the endowment of a theological school in Rochester, New York. Then he hurled a great university into one city and a hospital into another. Since then he has been bolting up weak colleges, creating great pedagogical and research foundations, and splendidly subsidizing a benignant life-rescue work through bacteriological laboratories, hospitals and feeding stations the wide world over.

With all his undeniable iniquities, the Rockefeller who defied our courts will die. The Rockefeller who is trying to save life all around the world and after saving it to lift it up to higher and finer altitudes, is the Rockefeller who is going to live.

What will Henry Ford do with all his fabulous wealth? Unlike Rockefeller, he has not cramped his character to get his money. He is not burdened with Rockefeller's handicap. But with all Rockefeller's handicap, Rockefeller may yet overtake Ford in the enduring race, unless Ford does more wisely with his greater wealth.

When wealth reaches beyond the proportions of supplying rational personal needs, it becomes not an asset but a responsibility.

Henry Ford has proven himself to be 100% the right-minded fortune builder. Future generations will measure him not by his ability to acquire but by his power to serve through spending.

The Rockefeller-Ford race for riches is over. Ford wins. Now the race for wise spending is on. In this great race wisdom will win.

Poem by UNCLE JOHN

If there's ever a pastime a feller holds dear, it's gatherin' nuts, in the fall of the year. The forest, arrayed in its purple an' gold, appeals to the hearts of the young an' the old. . . . A call that's resistless floats out from the trees, when the trophies drop down, at the toss of the breeze. O, there GATHERIN' ain't any pleasure that's any more dear, than gatherin' nuts—in the fall of the year.

The big, juicy shrapnel, from walnutty ranks—the shell-barks, a-shellin' the roisterer's tanks. . . . The hazel machine-guns, in hid-away dell, bombard the invaders with many a shell,—all, army maneuvers, with nothin' to fear—campaignin' fer nuts in the fall of the year.

Then, forward,—with baskets an' gunnysacks, too,—charge on, past the medder—the fortress in view! We'll pillage the stronghold of kernel an' pod, and win, by the grace of a bountiful God. . . . Each brown-fingered trooper busts loose with a cheer, when we go after nuts, in the fall of the year.

For your own John.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY for 1922

DR. BASIL G. GILDER-SLEEVE, 91 years old, greatest of Greek Scholars, once professor of Johns Hopkins University, in splendid health, telling the world he does not like to be 91. It is an ugly number. Ninety is divisible by 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, and 10, whereas 91, well, one must multiply the jinx 13 by the sacred number 7, and this jars him. Then the mellowed sage says he grows no less old-fashioned with the years. He loves the classics, but he has learned there is really such a thing as a gentleman. An optimist? No, nor yet a pessimist. He has seen the country go to the dogs so often and come back that he is not in despair. The professor has learned much since he left college and absorbed the teaching of old man Time—don't grow excited.

High Grade Securities

IT is very seldom, if ever, that stock salesmen make an effort to sell you securities in old, time tested companies, with a history of satisfactory earnings covering a period of years.

Here is the reason: If they sold you securities of an old established public utility, industrial or railroad company, their commission would only be about $1.50 on each $1,000. On doubtful new promotion and wild cat stocks the salesman's commission often runs as high as $100 or perhaps $150 on each $1,000. That is why they can camp on your trail for days and even weeks to sell you worthless stocks. Have this bank investigate thoroughly before purchasing.

He Got the Point.

A teacher was explaining proper and improper fractions to her pupils. To impress them she said a proper fraction was like a proper person, allowing the smaller number to be on top; while the improper fraction, like an improper person, is rude and puts the heavy or larger number on top. Thinking she had used an apt simile, she asked the class next morning what kind of fractions there were. "I know," piped up a youngster, "polite and impolite."

Death and Birth.

What a ridiculous thing it is to trouble and affect ourselves about taking the only step that is to deliver us from all misery and trouble. As our birth brought us the birth of all things, so in our death is the death of all things included. And, therefore, to lament and take on that we shall not be alive a hundred years hence is the same folly as to be sorry we were not alive a hundred years ago. Death is the beginning of another life.—Montaigne.

Mr. Greenlaw gave several pleasing numbers including "King of the Forest Am I" by Henry Parker, "Goodbye" by Tosti, and "Where the Sweetest Flowers Bloom," one of his own compositions. Mrs. Greenlaw added to the variety of the program by giving several readings which were rendered in a fine manner. It is not often that the people of this town have an opportunity to hear such a program and those who took the advantage were highly repaid.

STATE G.O.P. HAS STRONG TICKET

CANDIDATES ALL WELL KNOWN TO VOTERS; FULLER GETS DEMOCRATIC O. K.

EARNED THEIR RE-ELECTION Service Already Performed Proves High Calibre of Men Named By Party.

The Republican state ticket this year that will go before the voters of Michigan November 7 is made up entirely of men whom the public know because of the service they already have rendered. Every man on the ticket is a candidate for re-election to the office he now holds and every one has well earned the right to re-election.

In addition to Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck the candidates are Lieut. Gov. Thomas Head, of Shelby; Secretary of State Charles J. DeLand, of Jackson; Auditor General Oramel B. Fuller, of Ford River, Delta county; Attorney General Merin Wiley, of Sault Ste. Marie; State Treasurer Frank E. Gorman, of Sanilac county; and Supreme Court Justice John S. McDonald, of Grand Rapids.

The calibre of all these candidates is such as to assure the voters of the party throughout the state that they will be represented by officials who will be a credit to the party and to the commonwealth. The veteran auditor general, O. B. Fuller, nominated at the Muskegon convention for an eighth term, has the unusual distinction of being the first Republican that the Democrats have endorsed for a state office in the history of Michigan.

The Democrats, at their state convention in Bay City the day after the Republican state convention in Muskegon agreed that Mr. Fuller was entirely satisfactory to them as auditor general of Michigan. So they named no candidate to oppose him and the space on the ballot opposite Fuller's name in the Republican column will be blank.

Two years ago the Democratic state committee recommended Mr. Fuller to the party's state convention, but when that body assembled one leader took the floor and declared that when the Democratic party ran out of available candidates for state office it would be time enough to begin endorsing or nominating Republican state officers. Then the convention nominated a Saginaw valley Democrat for auditor general and he got the lowest vote on the Democratic state ticket.

WOMEN STUDYING ISSUES

"What is your impression of women's interest in politics?" was asked in Washington of a senator just returned from touring his state.

"They are taking lots of interest," was his reply. "I believe the women are studying the issues more than the men are."

In most states women have taken a very active interest in the primary elections. Republican women's organizations are flourishing everywhere, even in the south. From Maine to California women are turning out in great numbers to political meetings to hear the orators. They are not doing all the listening, either, for almost every program includes at least one woman speaker. These hold up their end very satisfactorily.

Nobody is surprised at the announcement that several thousand swivel chairs are for sale in Washington. This is not a swivel-chair administration. But you didn't hear of any bargain sales of this kind between 1912 and 1920.—Kansas City Journal.

A Spoiled Child.
"There is not a woman who does not, deep down in the bottom of her heart, look upon man as a species of child, to be spoiled or scolded, cosseted or slapped, according to the mood of the moment, and—at all times—requiring to have his buttons sewn on for him!"—From "A Vagrant Time," by Bryant T. Holland.

Knows Not Happiness.
Some persons I know estimate happiness by fine houses, gardens and parlors—others by pictures, horses, money and various things wholly remote from their own species; but when I wish to ascertain the real felicity of any rational man, I always inquire whom he has to love. If I find he has nobody, or does not love those he has, even in the midst of all his profession of finery and grandeur, I pronounce him a being in deep adversity.—Mrs. Inchbald.

Civil Service.
The word "civil," which has its origin in the Latin word "civis," is used to distinguish the service from the military or naval service of the government. The civil service is that branch of national service to which clerks and others required by various departments of the government belong.

Moray Firth.
Moray firth is an indentation of the North sea, on the northeast coast of Scotland, measuring twenty-one miles across its entrance from Tarbat-Ness, in Ross-shire, to Stotfield head, in Elginshire, and thirty-nine miles thence to the mouth of the River Beaulieu. The name is applied in a wider sense to the whole extent of the sea between Kinnaird's head in Aberdeenshire and Duncansbay head in Caithness.

School Was Reward.
The famous Leyden university was founded by William of Orange in 1575 as a reward for the heroism of its citizens during the long siege by the Spaniards.

Thomas A. Edison made a pilgrimage to Schenectady, N. Y., last week, the first in 25 years. He was met there by Dr. Chas P. Steinmetz, the only man in the world his equal in electrical knowledge. Photo shows Edison examining parts of tree and porcelain insulators shattered by Steinmetz a few moments before with his newest invention—a lightning making machine. It is the first picture of the two great inventors together. Edison is now 75 years old and Steinmetz is 57.

Last Friday was an eventful day in the life of Pauline Sandham for it was the eleventh anniversary of her birthday. Not only this made the day long memorable but the fact that fourteen of her friends and her teacher, Mrs. Earl Brooks, helped her celebrate. Most of the time was spent in playing out-of-door games which were enjoyed by all. Afterwards the girls were well fed.

Teachers of the Cass City schools are attending the teachers' convention at Detroit this week-end. Cass City belongs to District No. 2 which held its convention in Saginaw the first of the week, but as a majority of the local instructors preferred to go to Detroit, which is the headquarters of Dist. No. 1, plans were made accordingly.

The Chronicle was misinformed when it stated last week that Mrs. Geo. Bond and two children expected to spend the winter in Cass City. Mr. Bond expects to come here from Detroit Saturday and Mrs. Bond and children, who are visiting at the E. W. Keating home, intend to return with him to their home in Detroit next Monday.

Roy Brown brought in a freak potato to the Chronicle office from his farm in Novesta. It consists of six tubers grown in one and one wonders how the digger got the potato out of the soil without breaking it. J. D. George Matzen and H. L. Pinney arrived here Monday from their homes in Seattle, for a few days' visit with friends. These men are brothers-in-law. Mr. Matzen being the husband of Mr. Pinney's sister, formerly Miss Irene Pinney. These three persons and also Mr. Pinney's wife, formerly Miss Alice Joy, were all at one time residents of Cass City. Mr. Matzen in the old days conducted a mercantile business here for several years. He began business in Seattle over twenty years ago and from a very small beginning now owns a large woolen factory through which industry he has become one of Seattle's most prominent business men. H. L. Pinney, who for years served as cashier in the Pinney Exchange Bank, where he was in company with his father, E. H. Pinney, left Cass City soon after Mr. Matzen's departure. After working in connection with Mr. Matzen for some years, he engaged in brokerage and real estate on his own resources. Mr. Pinney now enjoys an enviable reputation as a finely remunerative business chosen line among the citizens of Seattle.

The contestants were Mildred Dodge, Thelma Warner, Annabel Tibbals and Eva Cole, Thelma Warner receiving the medal. Music was provided by Letha Spurgeon, Annabel and Truman Tibbals. Mrs. Samuel Striffler accompanied the party reading a paper at the afternoon session of the convention on child welfare.

Malcolm Whale, now a student in Mt. Pleasant was delighted to learn last week that he would have an opportunity of spending a few days with his parents. One of his college chums, Ray Fritz of Akron, promised to bring him home for the week-end. When this was mentioned, Malcolm immediately began formulating plans for a grand surprise. Saturday evening as "Mac" approached the old town he began to realize that it was about the nicest place on earth and when he neared home he felt like humming "Mid pleasures and palaces ". He stepped on the porch, rushed at the door but found it locked. After a little exploring he discovered that all the doors were in the same condition. He flew to the neighbor's, "Gee! Where's ma?" They told him his mother and father had gone to see their other son "Charlie" at Kalamazoo. "Hang the luck!" said "Mac." He returned to Akron with his friend.

Mary Cummings of Caro and Mrs. T. L. Tibbals were also present. The happy company indulged in a pot luck supper in the park before separating.

The home of Mrs. G. A. Tindale was the scene of an interesting musicale last Saturday afternoon, given by eight pupils of Mrs. Jean Whitcomb-Fenn. The following presented the program which was varied in character: Harriet Tindale, Pauline Sandham, Virginia Day, Margaret Landon, Agnes Marshall, George and Harry Bohnsack and Glenford Straube. The parents and friends of those participating were guests.

B. H. McComb, Tuscola county commissioner of schools, was honored at the first annual conference of the second district of the Michigan State Teachers' association held at Saginaw the first of this week by being elected vice chairman of the district. Among the delegates chosen to the Michigan State Teachers' association are B. H.

Vandenbelt, Bad Axe; H. W. Wickett, Marlette; F. E. Schall, Caro; F. R. Phillips, Crosswell; H. Z. Wooden, Sebawaing; W. P. Gee, Millington.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

In the case of Wm. Geoit vs. Dr. F. L. Morris of Cass City and Dr. C. B. Morden of Bad Axe, in circuit court last week, the jury disagreed Friday afternoon after deliberating four hours. The plaintiff alleged that he was operated on for hernia at the Bad Axe hospital, spent several months in the institution following the operation, and that when he was discharged was in a worse condition than when entering. The case was before the court for four days.

Divorce decrees were granted in the following cases: Laura J. Dale vs. Andrew J. Dale; Hazel M. Atkins vs. Linton Atkins; Eunice Spencer vs. Earl Spencer; Chas. Andrews vs. Mary Jane Andrews; Lila M. Winters vs. Melvin S. Winters; Mary Mooth vs. Frank Mooth; Margaret Norrington vs. Burnet Norrington.

CHURCH CALENDAR

Methodist Episcopal—Ira W. Cargo, Pastor. The following are the announcements for the week. Sunday services—Morning worship at 10:30; Sermon, "The Christian Citizen." Sunday school 12:00 m. Epworth League 6:30; subject, "The Church and Her Young People"; led by the pastor. Evening service 7:30; sermon "Temptation's Approach." Prayer meeting Thursday 7:30. "Letters of Paul I Cor."

You are most cordially invited to attend these services or the church.

Baptist—10:30 Morning worship; subject, "What the Lord Teaches by the Sacred Supper." 12 m. Bible school. 6:30, B. Y. P. U. 7:30, evening service; subject, "May a Person Escape Temptation To Do Evil?" To these services we cordially invite you.

A. G. NEWBERRY, Pastor.

Presbyterian—Services on Sunday both morning and evening. Young people's service at 6:45 and Sabbath school at 12 o'clock sharp.

Morning worship at 10:30; sermon, "Prophecy of Righteousness." Evening at 7:30 p. m.; topic, "Have Women Souls?"

Mr. George Harvey, American ambassador to England, said recently in a speech that women are soulless, and consequently they are not bound by the ten commandments. Ambassador Harvey, is an author of note, a man of exceptional ability—therefore we cannot ignore his astounding statement because he claims the Bible as authority. The preacher will not mince words in handling the subject. Strangers and visitors are cordially invited.

WILLIAM W. EDWARDS, Pastor.

Evangelical—In accordance with a special general conference of the Evangelical Association and the general conference of the United Evangelical church taking place in Detroit Oct. 5-21, these two societies were reunited into one, after a division of some thirty years. Their new name is: "The Evangelical Church." The young people's organization is now called the "Evangelical League of Christian Endeavor" and becomes in a larger measure than previously a part of the World Christian Endeavor movement. The literature and activities of the societies will however, function under their old name until January 1, 1923.

The following is the schedule of services for the local church:

10:00 a. m., Bible school.

11:00 a. m., Divine worship and sermon. Subject, "A Spiritual Revival."

6:45 p. m., Junior and senior E. L. C. E. Subject for seniors, "Following, Finding, Bringing." Find and bring some one to the meeting with you.

7:30 p. m. Evangelistic sermon. This day will mark the opening of a series of special evangelistic meetings. Services of praise, prayer and preaching will be held nightly excepting Saturday. The public is invited to "feel at home" among us. More about this next week.

A Sunday school workers' conference will be held in the church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

HISTORY'S MYSTERIES

"NUMBER 88"

IN the Potter's field just outside the gloomy walls of the Asylum for the Criminally Insane at Mattewan, N. Y., there is a headpiece which bears the number "88"—and, back of this simple inscription, is a story of identity concealed even in the face of the law's most determined efforts which makes fiction appear pale and commonplace by comparison.

All that is known of the early history of "Mrs. Henrietta Robinson," the palpably assumed name of the woman whose body rests beneath the numbered headstone at Mattewan, is that she was of either English or Canadian origin and that she came to Troy, N. Y., in 1851, being always well supplied with funds from a source which remained concealed even during the rigid investigation which followed her arrest on the charge of murder.

Some months after "Mrs. Robinson" settled in Troy a strange and apparently inexplicable tragedy occurred. A merchant and a young woman who was living with his family dropped dead at the table. A post-mortem examination showed that they had been poisoned and, despite the absence of motive, "Mrs. Robinson," who had been present, was arrested, but refused to say a word even to her lawyer.

To add to the air of mystery which surrounded the entire case, the defendant insisted upon appearing in court shrouded in a heavy black veil which effectually concealed her features. All during the trial she sat, impassive and unmoved, apparently taking not the slightest interest in the conduct of the proceedings. When the state had concluded its case, a comparatively flimsy structure of circumstantial evidence, the counsel for the defense arose and, admitting that he had not a shred of direct evidence to offer, introduced the plea of insanity.

At the conclusion of the trial and before delivering his charge to the jury, the presiding judge called attention to the fact that no one in the court had seen the defendant's face and requested "Mrs. Robinson" to lift her veil.

Slowly and with great dignity she arose, but made no effort to comply with the court's request.

"I am here," she stated, in a voice which penetrated to every corner of the crowded courtroom, "to undergo a most painful ordeal, not to be gazed at."

The request was not repeated and, after a deliberation of several hours, the jury returned a verdict of "Guilty" and the prisoner was sentenced to death—a decree which was later commuted to life imprisonment by order of the governor, though not before "Mrs. Robinson" had made her one formal statement in the shadow of the gallows:

"When I am dead," she declared, "all will die with me. I have promised to be silent, to die without betraying anything."

The first 18 years of her life sentence were passed in Sing Sing penitentiary. She was then moved to the Auburn State Prison for the Insane, where she remained for 17 years, and finally to the Asylum for the Criminally Insane at Mattewan, where the woman of mystery finally died on May 4, 1905, after 32 years in prison. During all this time, however, she never wrote a letter nor spoke a word, save to her lawyer who visited her at regular intervals and who admitted that his services had been paid for by "certain influential personages" whom he was not at liberty to name.

All that was known of "Henrietta Robinson" was that she played the organ at Sing Sing with the touch of a master musician and that she died as she had lived—in silence, utter and absolute, leaving as a heritage some of the most puzzling questions in the history of criminal proceedings:

What was the woman's real name and where had she come from?

Had she poisoned the merchant and his young guest and, if so, with what motive?

Why had she insisted upon concealing her face during the trial?

If she were innocent, why did she refuse for more than half a century to make any plea for leniency?

What did she mean by her statement that she "had promised to be silent, to die without betraying anything?"

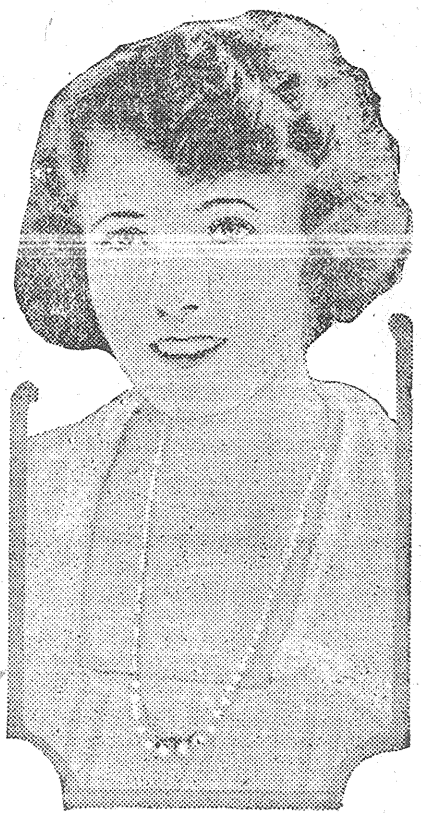

Who supplied the funds with which the lawyer was paid?

The answers to these and as many more unsolved riddles connected with this woman of mystery lie concealed beneath that simple headpiece in the Potter's field at Mattewan, a headstone bearing only the number "88."

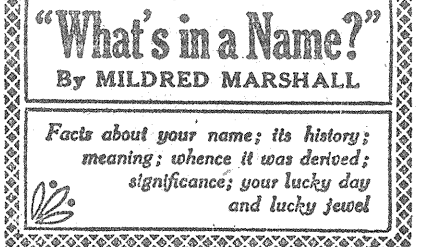

St. Philip Founded Oratory.

The memory of St. Philip should be treasured by all music lovers, as being largely responsible for the institution of oratorios, a form of composition employed by the greatest of musicians. St. Philip founded in 1551 the religious order of the Oratory or praying place, and with the intention of drawing youths to the church, the old fathers of the Oratory instituted oratorios, pieces divided into two parts, the one performed before, the other after the sermon. These early oratorios, which shortly gained renown, bringing the Oratory into repute, dealt with such Biblical subjects as the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and Tobit and the Angel.

Claire Windsor

Pretty Claire Windsor, whose splendid interpretation of a prominent role in a recent popular production placed her among the undisputed "movie" stars of the day. Miss Windsor was discovered some time ago by a prominent producer, who offered the young lady a small part in one of his pictures, and then followed a phenomenal rise to stardom. This is one of her latest pictures.

LEILA

THE original Leila must have been a "vamp." It is distinctly a Moorish name—in fact it is translated to mean "Moorish"—and it was usually bestowed upon the loveliest of the always beautiful Moorish maidens.

In reality, it is generally supposed to be one of the feminine names derived from the lily. As the lily is the fairest of flowers, perhaps Leila as the most beautiful of her tribe came thus to be used as a proper name. Etymologists are frankly puzzled by her origin, since it seems that only the Hebrew and Slavonic tongues give names really taken from flowers.

But however that may be, and though the lily is as difficult to trace as the rose, it must still be contended that Leila had her origin in the pure white chalice of the most fragrant of all flowers. Liliola Gonzaga of Italy was perhaps one of lily-names which preceded Leila. There was a Lillias Ruthven in Scotland in 1557. The Queen of Naples about whom the Scottish ballad of "Roswal and Lillian" was woven was named after the lily and, curiously enough, was called Cecelia by the Italians.

Occasionally historians have thought that Leila and Lillian, and Lillias were only contractions of Elizabeth, but there seems little to bear out this contention, so the lily must remain raison d'être of all such names. Certainly its heritage of beauty is well borne out by the lovely women who have claimed the name, among them Lillian Russell, the most beautiful woman of the American stage, and Lillie Langtry, famous Jersey Lily, and long the center of romance and gossip of two continents.

Leila's talismanic gem is the ruby, the "elixir of life," which gives courage, and freedom from harm, and strength of purpose to its wearer. Friday is her lucky day and 5 her lucky number. The lily signifying purity is her flower.

Lord Byron said of Leila in "The Giaour":

"Her eye's dark charm 'twere vain to tall,
But gaze on that of the gazelle,
As large, as languishingly dark,
But soul beamed forth in every spark
It will assist the fancy well;
That darted from beneath the lid,
Bright as the ruby of Giamschid."

CASS CITY

Hallowe'en Festivities

The junior class of the high school held a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening at the home of Hilda Richards, east of town.

One hundred ten enjoyed Hallowe'en festivities at a masquerade party at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jaus Tuesday evening. Games were played by young and old and a happy time resulted after which supper was served to the large company. Guests included mainly attendants of the Evangelical church, the party being held under the auspices of the Young People's society.

The party held in the M. E. church parlors Monday evening for the young people of the church was well attended. The crowd was divided into four groups, each division choosing representatives for the several contests. The prizes given to each group for the points won were such valuable articles as candy and peanuts. To add a pleasing conclusion to the evening's entertainment, coffee and pumpkin pie were served.

Marjorie and Dorothy Boyes had the pleasure of entertaining many of their friends at a weenie roast on Monday evening. As the party was designed to have the adjective "hallowe'en" attached, the guests came clad in the most grotesque costumes and made a very fantastic picture clustered about the camp fire. The girls thoroughly enjoyed themselves and went home very tired as the results of such a good time.

Frances Middleton celebrated her 9th birth anniversary when she entertained a dozen little girls and her teacher, Mrs. P. E. Fleming, at a party Saturday afternoon. After the usual fun in games, the company sat down to a birthday supper in which a birthday cake proved the center of attraction. A candle which was placed in the cake of Frances' great grandfather, who celebrated his 87th anniversary just two weeks before, found a place in the little girl's cake on Saturday.

The usual and unusual doings of Hallowe'en were quite evident on Wednesday morning when the town awoke and were quite apparent also on the eve of the great event. Many people were alarmed by "tick-tacks" and still others were frightened by exceptionally queer noises of different varieties. The "Lost" column contained such things as "steps" causing the losers to do a little jumping, the "Found" advertising such things as wagons, buggies, plows and implements of all kinds. However, the "kids" were only out for fun and did no serious damage.

Mrs. Clarence Burt, the Misses Florence and Alice Bigelow, Marie Martin and Bess Ruggles were hostesses at a Hallowe'en party held at Doerr's hall Tuesday evening. In each invitation a picture portraying the character of some immigrant was found to be imitated by the guest. Some very clever characters were present due to this method. The evening's entertainment was not of the usual type, one of the amusements being an impromptu debate, the question, "Resolved—That pins are more useful than buttons." Some excellent lines of thought were given on both sides of the question. The party was brought to a close after cider, sandwiches and doughnuts were served.

Last week Thursday evening Cass City opened a new avenue of activity in the capacity of a Hallowe'en ball at the opera house, the prime object being the organization of a dancing class. Two hundred invitations were sent out to persons interested not only in town but also in other places, several being present from Saginaw, Crosswell, Harbor Beach, Caro, Bad Axe, Gaytown, Kingston and Deford. Excellent music was furnished by Mack's Wolverines, an orchestra of five pieces, from Saginaw. The opera house was transformed by an abundance of Hallowe'en decorations, the opera chairs having been removed and the floor put in excellent condition for "tripping the light fantastic." The following ladies were instrumental in arranging the affair—Mrs. B. L. Middleton, Mrs. Roy Bricker, Mrs. E. Hunter, the Misses Isabel and Mary McIntyre and Etta Schenck. This is the first of a series of dances under the auspices of the Cass City Dancing club.

Hallowe'en festivities were realized October 25 when Miss Marie Martin entertained fourteen of her friends at her home. The scene of the party was found by the only means of admission, a pumpkin lantern. After many laughs and screams, the guests were ushered to a room where each guest, dressed in a garb of a ghost, found his way to the parlor where games were played and stories were told. A ghost walk found all guests with fluttering sheets hurrying in all directions. They returned to the house to find Meredith and Alice, the "slow ghosts." Unmasking, they found a mighty, congenial party assembled in rooms artistically decorated for a Hallowe'en party. They were summoned by the hostess to the dining room where every one enjoyed delicious chop suey. The girls were given party caps, while the boys were favored with candy witches. Midnight urged the party to make way to their respective homes with thanks to the hostess for their pleasant evening.

Founder of Yale College Held Auction. One of the oldest methods of transacting business is the auction sale which, according to the early writers, was known among the Romans, and is specifically mentioned by Petronius Arbiter in 66 A. D. The first auction sale in England took place about 1700 and was conducted by Eli Yale, the founder of Yale college, who thus disposed of goods he had brought home from the East Indies. Such sales were first taxed in England in 1779.

GERMANY IS TOPPLING AGAIN

Threatens Voluntary Bankruptcy and

ing Is Upheld—News From the Near East.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE, forced out of the British prime ministership by the attitude of the Conservative party, seeks re-election to parliament and return to power. He opposes the radical demands of labor, and advocates the fostering of friendly relations with the United States and with Russia. In this instance especially British politics affects the world at large. Is it your opinion that Britain would be wise again to put the helm of the ship of state in Lloyd George's hands?

THOUGH he has not fulfilled prophecy by trying to form a new party, David Lloyd George is making a pretty fight for return to parliament and to power. He declares his object is to secure the dominance of a party or group that will keep the government in a middle course of safety and moderation. Addressing a gathering of the National Liberal party, he took a firm stand against recent radical demands of the Labor party, and also made it clear that one of his chief claims for support was his friendly relations with the United States. He asserted all reasonable concessions must be made to induce this country to enter the League of Nations, which would be crippled without it. And he said Britain must pay her war debt to the United States in full. "Working with the United States," declared he, "ought to be one of the chief purposes of the government. If these two nations would work together, it would be the surest guarantee for a just peace, and a just peace is the only lasting peace."

The ex-premier's quarrel with the Labor party is in a way international, for that party, in a manifesto issued last week, not only demands the creation of a "war debt redemption fund by a special graduated levy on fortunes exceeding £5,000," but also declares for the revision of the peace treaty and German reparations, for an international conference to arrange the freedom of the straits, for independence in Egypt and self-government in India.

Andrew Bonar Law, having been elected head of the Conservative party, accepted the post of prime minister and on Tuesday announced his cabinet. It is a respectable list of names, with quite a number from the peerage, but most of the new ministers are considered rather nonentities. The mainstay of the cabinet is Marquis Curzon, secretary for foreign affairs. Lord Cave, the lord chancellor, and Stanley Baldwin, the chancellor of the exchequer, are men of proved ability. It is taken for granted that Bonar Law will make many changes in the ministry if he is returned to power at the general election, which is set for November 15. He is a candidate for Glasgow, and is opposed by a Labor candidate and also by Sir George Paish, noted economist.

The last named gentleman is now in the United States and, addressing the convention of the American Manufacturers' Export association, gave a lot of economic advice concerning production and trade. He scolded our government for hoarding gold, and urged that the tariff barriers and other trade restrictions be removed as the first step in the restoration of foreign exchange. Sir George also wants America to throw open her doors to unrestricted immigration—an unwelcome suggestion in view of our experience with certain classes of immigrants in recent years.

BEING refused the cabinet positions they demanded, the Italian Fascisti in convention in Naples made preparation for militant action that threatened to become revolutionary. Thereupon Premier Facta and his cabinet resigned. Former Premier Giolitti conferred with Benito Mussolini, chief of the Fascisti, and it was believed he would be called on to form a new ministry. The Fascisti are now the strongest organization in Italy and have announced that they will assume control of the government, legally or otherwise.

GERMANY, whose mark made a new low record of 2 1/4 cents a hundred last week, is again threatening to go into voluntary bankruptcy by defaulting in her reparations payments in material as well as in cash. Chancellor Wirth, whose political life is in great danger, has begun hedging and now has adopted the slogan of "First bread, then reparations," and has put the problem up to the cabinet. The Socialists are calling for more drastic measures, including confiscation of foreign money in the hands of private persons, and on the other hand the bourgeoisie demand the suppression of the decree against speculation and the agriculturists insist on higher official prices for German wheat and corn. The allied reparations commission went to Berlin to consult with the government. The British commissioner, Sir John Bradbury, said he would vote to declare Germany in voluntary default of its agreement if it should refuse to carry out within a reasonable time requests for internal reforms. This was a considerable concession to the French demands. It may be that in return France will agree to the indefinite postponement of the Brussels financial conference, leaving the entire reparations matter in the hands of the commission.

French, Belgian and Italian exchange rates dropped sharply last week, going to the lowest prices of the year on the New York exchange.

FEDERAL JUDGE HAND in New York upheld the ruling of the attorney general prohibiting the carrying of liquors on vessels entering American waters, and the case brought by a number of steamship companies is now to go before the Supreme court, which probably will not hand down a decision for six or eight weeks. Meantime Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has informally instructed his agents not to enforce the order against foreign vessels whose supplies of liquor are sealed when they enter our ports. American ships, however, must obey the ruling. The French government has indicated that it will not comply with the request, presented unofficially by Ambassador Herrick, that it cooperate in preventing liquor smuggling from the St. Pierre et Miquelon islands off the southern coast of Newfoundland. According to French officials, the islanders trade French liquor for food at Newfoundland and Prince Edward island ports, and do not themselves smuggle the booze into the United States. It is said this liquor trading is essential to the fishermen of the islands.

SAMUEL GOMPERS, Frank Morrison and James O'Connell, the executive committee for the national non-partisan campaign of the American Federation of Labor, have issued a manifesto denouncing the present congress as reactionary and calling on the voters to "put progress in" at the November election. The appeal says the congress has performed no service for the people, but has "tried by every trick and device to serve predatory interests." Its action in removing the excess profits tax and reducing the surtaxes and concerning the soldiers' bonus is especially condemned.

TEN members of the I. W. W. are on trial in Sacramento for violation of the California criminal syndicalism law, and last week the state produced a witness who told a starting story of "wobblies" plots during the war. He is W. E. Townsend and says he was the right-hand man of W. D. Haywood, head of the organization. He testified that he and several hundred other wobblies were employed in the Chicago packing houses and, under orders from the I. W. W., conspired to send to our troops spoiled and poisonous canned foods. He also told of sabotage plots on railroads and in harvest fields.

NAVY DAY was celebrated throughout the United States on Friday—which also was the anniversary of the birth of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. The occasion brought forth many appeals for the maintenance of the efficiency of the navy personnel, which, according to Rear Admiral Rogers, should number not fewer than 120,000 men. To maintain our ratio under the Washington treaty, said the admiral, we should build fifteen or twenty cruisers of 10,000 tons each in the course of the next few years, besides large submarines. President Harding in a letter to Secretary Denby said: "It is well for us to have in mind that under a program of lessening navy armaments there is a greater reason for maintaining the highest efficiency, fitness, and morale in this branch of the national defensive service. I know how earnestly the navy personnel is devoted to this ideal, and want you to be assured of my hearty concurrence."

PREMIER POINCARÉ is to send out invitations to the Near East peace conference, which is to be held in Lausanne, Switzerland, but at this writing the date of the meeting is uncertain. Lord Curzon, British foreign minister, insists that the United States should participate. Italy says that Russia must be permitted to sit in the conference and also to sign the treaty, and France may consent to this in view of her improved relations with the soviet government. Evacuation of Thrace by the Greek civilians continues amid considerable disorder, though the allied forces are doing their best to prevent trouble. The Greeks carry off all they can and often destroy the rest of their possessions, including crops. The American Red Cross has announced that it will care for 800,000 of the refugees. The press of Athens complains bitterly that the United States is the only nation that is giving aid. George Horton, American consul general at Smyrna, is on his way home to report on the destruction of that city and the attending circumstances. His statement as to the origin of the conflagration is awaited eagerly as the payment of insurance may depend upon it. Mr. Horton gave no advance information as to his report, but in his conversation there was an indication that he would tell the State department that the Smyrna fire was started by looters and not by Turkish soldiers.

TEN big transports steamed out of the port of Vladivostok last Wednesday, bearing all the Japanese troops that have held that city and most of the Japanese civilians as well. The forces of the Far Eastern Republic—the Chita government—at once entered the place and took control. The commander of the Red army is said to have ordered the British and American marines to leave Vladivostok and all foreign warships to leave the harbor.

THE constitution of the Irish Free State was adopted by the provisional parliament Wednesday and was taken to London for approval by the new British cabinet, which certainly will not be withheld as no changes that could be offensive to the English government have been made in the draft as approved in June by the Lloyd George ministry. Eamon de Valera is in Dublin again but is suffering from a serious nervous disorder and the authorities therefore will not molest him. His condition is so serious that a priest is in constant attendance.

ONE noted American died last week—Dr. Lyman Abbott, the venerable editor of Outlook. For many years he has been prominent as a preacher, editor, author and lecturer and he was the associate and friend of the greatest Americans of his time.

were other enjoyments of the evening, after which a delicious supper was served. Everyone enjoyed a fine time.

Thackeray.
He faces posterity as a great figure of rich genius and honest purpose, a purpose occasionally obscured by the force of imagination and the irresistible promptings of humor; weighing mankind in a gloomy balance, but not without hope; and bequeathing to us rich and various treasures of literature, which may well survive, if anything survives, Lord Rosebery.

Improving on Solomon.
Our late and lamented friend, King Solomon, said: "He that wasteth his father and clareth mother is a son that causeth shame and bringeth reproach." But more than that, he is a son considerably worse than an egg in an advanced stage of decay.—New Orleans States.

Shoes Wear Out—
So Do
Batteries!

When a pair of shoes wear out you have been notified in advance by the thinness of soles or cracking of the uppers—or some other easily recognized sign.

But when a battery wears out you may be taken by surprise, because batteries often go strong until the last minute.

The way—and the only way—to cut trouble and worry and cost to the limit is to buy the best battery—the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. Its Threaded Rubber Insulation gives you the most miles of uninterrupted service per dollar.

Michigan Happenings

After two weeks, during most of which time he hovered between life and death John Lorist, 13 years old, was removed from a Kalamazoo hospital to his home in Sturgis. The little boy was almost entirely scalped, July 31, by the accidental discharge of a shotgun which tore away the top of his head. Two weeks ago he submitted to a difficult operation by which 12 square inches of skin was grafted from one of his legs to the top of his head entirely replacing the lost scalp. Physicians say he will regain his mental faculties.

"I got tired of carrying my money around," is the explanation of Nathan Rubenstein, 25-year-old Russian millionaire—in rubles—for his journey to America. Rubenstein arrived in Owosso jauntily attired in a 148,000, 000 ruble suit, which translated into United States currency means $28. It was necessary, Rubenstein said to pay for the garments on the installment plan because he couldn't get the entire 148,000,000 rubles into his wheelbarrow pocketbook at once.

Daniel Carney, 65 years old, a wealthy business man of Maumee, O., and his grandson, Junior Carney, 3, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their cottage at Evans Lake, a summer resort 15 miles northwest of Adrian. Four other cottages completely furnished were burned to the ground in addition to the Carney cottage. The origin of the fire has not been determined.

Dr. C. Burton Stevens, of Detroit, was elected president of the Michigan State Osteopathic association, at the two-day convention held in Detroit. Dr. C. J. Jennings, Grand Rapids, was named vice-president, Dr. E. G. Sluyter, Alma, secretary-treasurer. The retiring president, Dr. C. J. Manby, Battle Creek, and Drs. C. B. Root, Greenville, and J. C. Simons, Grand Rapids, were elected trustees.

Authority to enter into a contract for purchase of a new site for the county poor farm was voted, to a special committee of the Oakland county board of supervisors. It had been recommended that the present farm be sold as it is too valuable for poor farm purpose, lying on the edge of Pontiac. No authorization for the sale was voted.

Hillsdale county's new school commissioner, to succeed R. C. Young is a woman, Mrs. Viola Moore, of Pittsford. The appointment was made by the county clerk, F. O. Hancock; Judge of Probate A. L. Guernsey and Prosecuting Attorney W. D. Grommon. Mrs. Moore will hold office under this appointment until the spring election.

George Convis, 72, a farmer living just outside of the village of Hart, was gored to death by a Jersey bull. Mr. Convis had just sold the animal to a butcher and they were about to load him on a wagon when he suddenly turned upon them giving no chance for escape.

Walter Westenfelder, manager of a Standard Oil company filling station, at Muskegon, facing the muzzle of a holdup man's pistol, frustrated a robbery by calling to an assistant he never had. The gunman hastily pocketed his weapon and fled, leaving $500.

Because regulations prohibit a postal employee from taking part in politics, O. J. Reynolds, Democratic candidate for sheriff of Shiawassee, has resigned from the Owosso postoffice force. He has served 12 years.

William Oakwaad, 70, had an arm crushed when he became caught between an elevator and a shaft at the store of the Rademacher-Dodge Grocery company at Grand Rapids, where he is a watchman.

Brigadier-General George V. H. Mosely, of Camp Custer, is in command of the Sixth corps area pending retirement November 30 of Major-General Bell, Jr., now on leave of absence.

Moonshine caused the death of John Greygo, 50, prominent Kent county farmer, Coroner Hilliker announced after an investigation. Greygo is the father of five children.

Beta Phi Sigma fraternity's club house at Walled Lake, one of the largest on the west shore of the resort, burned, causing $10,000 damage.

The University of Michigan has enough coal to properly heat its building until the first of next year, it was announced.

Arraigned before Lee Smith, justice of the peace, Charles Otto Bryan, 28, Monroe, stood mute to the charge of having killed his wife, Myrtle May Bryan. He was bound over to the November term of the Circuit court without bail.

Fire at the railroad bridge at Berry, Mich., on the Pere Marquette railroad, held up for an hour a special train on which were President Frank Alfred of the P. M., and a party of officials on an inspection trip.

Michigan packs of nearly all the fruits have been sold, according to A. R. Todd, Grand Rapids, secretary of the Michigan Cannery association, who adds there are a few small operators who have lost money this year because of lack of cost accounting. The semi-annual meeting of the state association scheduled for November 6-7, at Grand Rapids, has been postponed until later in the month because of the convention of the western Michigan cannery the same week.

An extensive road building program for 1923—one that will give Michigan better through state trunk lines than ever before—is planned by the state highway department. A total of 933 miles of highway will be built in 1923, according to present estimates. This will be divided as follows: 282.31 miles of pavement; 80.85 miles of stone (macadam); 449.5 miles of gravel, and 120.6 miles of grading and culvert work. The total estimated cost is $14,522,300.

Judge Frank L. Covert in circuit court in Pontiac expressed disapproval of the "Kangaroo court" as an institution in the county jail. Wilfred Griffith was before the court charged with failure to pay alimony to his divorced wife. Griffith said the Kangaroo court had taken $5 as a "contribution" while he was in jail. The circuit judge overruled the decision of the Kangaroo judge and ordered return of the money and its payment to Mr. Griffith.

The fast army aeroplanes used in the Pulitzer air races at Selfridge field near Mt. Clemens, are being packed in readiness for shipment to McCook field, Dayton O., where they will undergo a further testing at the Army Air service engineering field. It is said by army officers that the winning planes, which traveled more than 200 miles an hour, will be fitted out as regular pursuit ships for experimental work.

Discussion of three new problems, the legal background of public health, the Sheppard-Towner law and the prevention of goitre, will occupy a large share of the program for the second annual conference of health officers and public health nurses to be held in Lansing Dec. 4 to 8 under the auspices of the Michigan Department of Health in co-operation with the Michigan Public Health Association.

Seven brands of Yuletide posters and several million Christmas seals are going out from the office of the Michigan Tuberculosis association at Lansing to its affiliated county organizations. In all, the state association will handle 40,000,000 of the health seals. The largest single order in the state is from Detroit, which last year took 12,000,000 seals and this year ordered 21,000,000.

Five tractor plows are ready to battle snow on Kent county's roads next winter. The last one, recently purchased from the government at a low price, was set up a few days ago. V-shape plows are to be placed on the front of these tractors and road officials promise the worst snow that ever has covered Kent county can be effectively removed with this combination.

Tentative plans for an All-Michigan horse show, to be held at M. A. C. at East Lansing in the spring, now are being made by Lieutenant Colonel T. L. Sherburne, commandant of the R. O. T. C. Invitations to enter mounts will be extended to riding and hunt clubs, mounted National Guard organizations of the state, state constabulary and all individuals interested.

Thomas L. Handy, railroad builder and operator, coal operator and manufacturer and one of the men who, in the last 36 years, has had a great deal to do with the development of Bay City, died at his home there after an illness of several weeks. Handy came to Bay City about 1885, as a youth and engaged in the box manufacturing business.

GENERAL ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that a general election will be held in the Township of Elkland, County of Tuscola,
State of Michigan, at Town Hall,
within said Township on Tuesday, Nov. 7 A. D. 1922,

For the purpose of voting for the election of the following officers, viz.:

Senatorial—United States Senator.
State—Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor General, Attorney General, Justice of the Supreme Court, to fill vacancy, for the term ending December 31, 1925.

Congressional—Member of Congress for the congressional district of which said Township forms a part.

Legislative—One Senator in the State Legislature for the Senatorial District of which said Township forms a part, one Representative in the State Legislature for the Legislative District of which said Township forms a part.

County—Sheriff, County Clerk,
County Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Prosecuting Attorney, Circuit Court
Commissioner, County Drain Commissioner, County Surveyor, two Coroners.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution.

There will also be submitted at said election three proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Michigan as follows:

A proposed Amendment to the Constitution providing that Article XIII be amended by adding a section to be known as section 5, to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Subject to this Constitution the legislature may authorize municipalities, subject to reasonable limitations, to condemn and to take the fee to more land and property than is needed in the acquiring, opening and widening of parks, boulevards, public places, streets, alleys, or for any public use, and after so much of the land and property has been appropriated for any such needed public purpose, the remainder may be sold or leased with or without such restrictions as may be appropriate to the improvement made. Bonds may be issued to supply the funds to pay in whole or in part for the excess property so appropriated, but such bonds shall be a lien only on the property so acquired and they shall not be included in any limitation of the bonded indebtedness of such municipality.

This proposed amendment, if adopted, will empower the legislature to authorize municipalities to acquire land and property in excess of that needed for parks, boulevards, streets, etc., and issue bonds for the payment of same.

A proposed amendment to section
3 of Article X to read as follows:

Sec. 3. The legislature shall provide by law a uniform rule of taxation, except on property paying specific taxes, and taxes shall be levied on such property as shall be prescribed by law. Provision may be made by law for a tax of not to exceed four per centum upon or with respect to the net gains, profits and incomes, from whatever source derived, which tax may be graduated and progressive and which may provide for reasonable exemptions. For the purposes of such tax, property and persons, firms and corporations, upon which such tax may operate may be classified: Provided, That the legislature shall provide by law a uniform rule of taxation for such property as shall be assessed by the state board of assessors, and the rate of taxation on such property shall be the rate which the state board of assessors shall ascertain and determine is the average rate levied upon other property upon which ad valorem taxes are assessed for state, county, township, school and municipal purposes.

This proposed amendment, if adopted, will authorize the enactment of an income tax law providing for a tax of not to exceed four per centum upon net gains, profits and incomes, and providing for a classification of property and persons upon which such tax may operate.

A proposed amendment to Article VIII, by adding section 30, to read as follows:

Sec. 30. The legislature may provide for the incorporation of ports and port districts, and confer power and authority upon them to engage in work of internal improvements in connection therewith.

This proposed amendment, if adopted, will authorize the legislature to provide for the incorporation of ports and port districts with power to engage in work of internal improvements in connection therewith.

Relative to Opening and Closing of the Polls

Sec. 1. On the day of any election the polls shall be opened at seven o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as may be, and shall be continued open until five o'clock in the afternoon and no longer: Provided,
That in townships the board of inspectors of election may, in its discretion, adjourn the polls at twelve o'clock noon, for one hour, and that the township board in townships and the legislative body in cities and villages may,
by resolution adopted fifteen days prior to the election and published with the notice of the election, provide that the polls shall be opened at six o'clock in the forenoon and may also provide that the polls shall be kept open not later than eight o'clock in the evening of the same day.

The polls of said election will be open at seven o'clock a. m. and will remain open until five o'clock p. m., of said day of election, unless the Board of Election Inspectors shall, in their discretion, adjourn the Polls at 12 o'clock, noon, for one hour.

PLEASANT HOME AT MODEST COST

Neat, Graceful One-Floor Type
That Has Strong Appeal.

SUITABLE FOR SMALL FAMILY

This Design Provides Well-Built, Artistic Home That Will Afford Joyous Spot for Any Family—Pergola Splendid Feature.

By WILLIAM A. RADFORD
Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 137, Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only inclose two-cent stamp for reply.

One of the factors which has restricted home building is the popular feeling that "a home of your own" is solely the privilege of the moneyed class. Now it is true that one can well invest $15,000 or $25,000 in a modern home. But it is equally true that a comfortable well-built home can be had for far less money. Those persons who are standing on the side lines and watching their neighbors acquire a home of their own ought to open their eyes to the fact that they, too, can build a home which will fit their financial situation.

In deciding on the moderately priced home there is no need to resort to shoddy construction. In fact, such a policy can never be considered wise. It is possible to have a home that is plainly stamped with quality and at the same time keep the investment down to a reasonable figure.

A design that will appeal to all who want a home, but who are not able to build one costing a small fortune is shown here. There is no need to make any apologies for this really delightful little home. It is well built, artistic in style and will afford a joyous spot for any family.

This style is of the ever popular and most frequently followed frame construction, the preponderant material in all home building. It has been transformed from plain lines into a most pleasing contour by the curved window roof treatment, a type of bay window that is sure to please. This effect is accomplished by an overhanging roof, which adds so little to the cost that it seems immaterial when the grace and beauty of the effect is considered. Another touch of adornment is given in the pergola effect at the side. Pergolas are in vogue, very much so, and add a great deal to the pleasing lines of the home.

Any woman will be delighted with the interior arrangements, which are compact without being crowded. The living room is a combination living and dining room of splendid size, measuring 27 feet by 15 feet. The kitchen is well planned and the two bedrooms at the rear of the home are a pledge of quiet and convenience.

Besides individual closets in the bedroom, provision has been made for a roomy closet for which there are always a thousand uses in every home.

The pergola, of course, will be a popular spot during the outdoor weather, and there is also a useful rear porch. Those who adopt this style for their home will have a pleasant place in which to live, and one which may be built without excessive cost.

ONLY MAN-POWER IN CHINA

Human Lives and Labor About Cheapest Thing in That Vast Eastern Country.

Life and labor are so cheap in China that men are still used for heavy work instead of machinery or beasts of burden, writes Robert Dollar in The Nation's Business.

"This was brought home to me very forcibly in the handling of the big timbers which I donated for the rebuilding of the famous Ling Ying temple near Hangchow. This temple was first built in 336 A. D. Marco Polo tells of it. There are caves and shrines of all descriptions.

"His excellency Sheny Kung Pao, learning that Americans were planning to erect a college nearby for the education of Chinese boys, decided to rebuild the central hall of the temple—in its day it was the most magnificent of all Chinese temples. For this purpose he ordered 28 of the largest round timbers that could be found in America. I donated these timbers and sent them over on the deck of the M. S. Dollar. They ran in size as long as 125 feet, and 48 inches in diameter at the butt; they were perfectly straight, and as fine pieces as ever left America.

"At Shanghai the timbers were put on a raft and taken up the Grand canal to Hangchow. From there they were carried by coolies over the five miles to the site of the temple. Two hundred and fifty men, 125 to each side, handled these great logs. A bamboo pole for each man was tied to the timber by a small rope, the poles angling slightly to permit the man on one side to carry on his right shoulder, and his associate on the other side, on his left shoulder."

Youngster Knew All About Him.

My sister and her young son, Walter, came home for a visit. Shortly after their arrival my sister began sounding me out on the subject of my matrimonial prospects and pleaded the cause of a young man who had been paying me considerable attention. I admitted his virtues, but always came back to the significant fact that he had been without employment for some time, a fact which I felt reflected upon his ambition. My little nephew was playing about the room apparently oblivious to our conversation.

Later in the week the young man in question called to see me, and said to Walter, "Well, I've heard a lot about you. My name is Joe, but I don't suppose you ever heard of me before, did you?"

To my amazement the child answered calmly, "Oh, yes, I know all about you. You want to marry my aunt and you haven't a job or anything."—Detroit Free Press.

Here's Another PENINSULAR Sheep Skin Coat No. 51

If you want comfort, warmth, roominess and wearability in an excellent sheep skin lined coat, ask for the Peninsular. The illustration shows Peninsular No. 51 belted and sheep-lined to the edge, made of selected, long wool, "live" skins—and it's a dandy—as you can readily see. Full cut—reinforced—best of material—highest grade of workmanship—and guaranteed. Just the thing for those real cold days. Sizes 38 to 50, price $13.50. Also see Peninsular No. 26, priced at $12.00, both styles 36" long.

Men! It's Time To Wear

Peninsular Flannel Shirts

For 48 years Peninsular shirts have led the field for comfort, roominess and durability. Today, Peninsular shirts are made with the arm holes cut as deep, sleeves as full and the quality as high as they were 48 years ago. Peninsular flannel shirts are straight cut at bottom—double stitched throughout—made with pointed yoke, allowing the shirt to fit over the shoulders without wrinkling. The side seams are reinforced and guaranteed not to rip. There is more cloth in a Peninsular shirt than in any other shirt on the market. Shirt like cut is made from U. S. government standard khaki cloth. Has two buttoned flap pockets. Double elbows. Sells for $5. Other styles at $2.50 and up.
