DEFORD.

We notice the wrinkles on our business men's brows and think conclusion is that ice shipped from Caseville will cost only a trifle more than home variety and be much better article.

No Ku Klux Klan in our city. We are fully civilized, and allow each to worship as he sees fit.

Mr. Shaw, who has been poorly in the past, is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Patterson is home after one week's heavy visiting. Now they go to labor in the bargain house to rest up.

No, sir, our pump didn't freeze that cold night, because we didn't leave an open space around it four feet deep to invite zero temperature.

Foster Van Blaricom was favored with a ten days' rest up from street car labors. He went back to Detroit on Saturday evening.

Wm. McCracken does carpenter work for Ben Hicks.

Word came to us that death had called away two near by mortals on the 19th. Old Mr. Weeks near Novesta Corners, a very aged man; and Mrs. N Phillips of Novesta, a woman near middle age in life, which prompted the lines of Grimm—"All things have their season, but thou, O Death, comes at all times."

Word comes from Royal Oak of death of Sylvester Robbins, old friend of the writer, and visited here on several occasions. He was in his 78th year at time of death.

Snow came morning of 20th that made sleighing good where road was level.

We owe sympathetic pity to every creature that goes wrong. The Free Methodist preacher who preached in this locality and then turned away from right to wrong is but a poor weak minded man. None have a right to say "I told you so." He lacked that principle of "stand by the right" which God gives none without they continue to ask for. Preacher Crouch was not different from men of other avocations in life. Let us be sorry that he fell. If we claim his fall is greater than the man without a profession then we admit he stood higher. None have grounds for anything but sorrow in the case.

Roderick Kennedy has been ailing for two weeks past. 'Tis grip that holds him within the doors.

Thomas O'Rourke has gone back to Inkster, west of Detroit, where he will spend balance of winter with brother Drumm.

Seventeenth was a cold day. A team at sheds for coal lit out for home before the driver adjusted his great coat. In a sleepy town they would have spilled the goods but we are all a lively people and halted them in half a furlong.

William Bartell has pressed hay on Town Line. A heavy job. Able-bodied men required and he found them in our burg.

Phones rang the fire alarm on 17th. It was Fred Hartwick's house, 1 mile east and 1/2 mile north. Caught by spark from chimney falling on roof. Four cars took all our loose denizens to scene, but the blaze was under control when they arrived on the ground. After looking over of conditions, all returned pleased no greater damage had accrued. Mr. Hartwick is working in Detroit.

How many readers of Chronicle remember the "Cold New Years Day"? The writer was old enough to be in dancing trim, and risked life and limb to attend a frolic. Those who remember, write or tell your scribe. 'Tis a day to be recalled—when we partook of good whiskey in icicle form.

Well may hope be compared to the sweet bird of spring, for hope bears mortals upward and onward in darkest night and most painful sufferings. We have an object of pity in our town. William McCartney has been afflicted with rheumatism many years. Past five years, he has been helpless on his bed. Cannot move hand or foot. Still he cheerfully hopes for his spring time of recovery. "O Blessed Hope," may it continue to sing while mortal ear can hear.

'Tis vanity that makes so many poor.

Morning of 17th made all men who wished to move early with car, call for boiling water. Motor needed hot drink.

Willie Justin, youth that makes his home with Dr. Merriman, suffers with a broken arm. Break is near the shoulder.

Weather man concluded soft spell of 14th might not impress all as a jam up good January thaw—so the 18th was added which made the ice harvest men cry spare thy hand more than a sufficiency is upon us.

News was received here on Sunday that Julia Valentine, wife of David Valentine, of Oxford, passed away on the 20th and that the remains would reach Deford on noon train Tuesday (23). Burial in Novesta cemetery. Deceased was a resident in this locality for many years and has one son buried in Novesta but of late years has resided at Oxford. She leaves a husband and two children, Orson Valentine and Mrs. Fred McCain, both of Oxford.

Amos Webster was a Detroit caller on Monday.

E. R. Bruce was a business caller at Cass City Monday.

A fine turnout at the Farmers' Club at Charles Kilgore's on the 19th. Seventy young and old present.

One mile east and 1/2 mile north is where the mishap occurred to the former Wells' car on Sunday. Driver's escape was miraculous.

Mrs. Alex Vance of Clifford, who was so ill for a long time, is so far recovered as to be able to visit her sister, Mrs. Rolla Bruce, of this place.

Two burials in one day seldom take place in a country cemetery, but such was the case at Novesta cemetery on the 23rd. Burial of Mrs. N. Phillips of Novesta and Mrs. David Valentine of Oxford.

We received a welcome letter from Dr. N. L. McLachlin of Findlay, Ohio, in which he writes of being interested in obituary of Hiram W. Goodrich. Not only of one but all the old settlers he hears of through the Chronicle. We item writers should bear in mind that a word in regard to the old settlers is always interesting to subscribers afar.

Nearly 34 years since Doc left Cass City and he pictures the roads we have now in contrast of what they were in his day, when he made calls part way on horse back and finished on foot. His letter shows he remembers full many a pioneer day when he traded pills for a promise and got buckwheat for pay.

Amos Webster is on the sick list.

Mrs. Elmer Bruce and Mrs. C. J. Malcolm are on the sick list.

Mrs. Bohms of Flint came Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. William Owens and returned on Thursday of last week.

The Novesta Farmers' Club met at the Chas. Kilgore home on Friday. There were about 60 present. A very nice time was had by all. The club will meet next month at the Grover Pratt home for an oyster dinner. Those from out of town who were present Friday were A. J. Knapp and son, Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ashley of Cass City.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilson of Cass City called at Mrs. M. Parks on Sunday. Mrs. Wilson expects to go to the hospital for an operation. She will be remembered as Mary Sargent.

N. R. Kennedy received word on Saturday night that a cousin passed away in Ontario. He left on Monday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Colwell of Marlette called at the latter's mother's on Sunday afternoon and also on Mr. Colwell's father, Thos. Colwell.

Chas. Silverthorn and son, Howard, and wife and Benj. Gage left on Saturday for Pontiac. They returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paterson returned to their home on Friday. Her father, Mr. Harris, of Imlay City accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McPherson of Noko spent Monday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Green of Snover and Mr. Harris of Imlay City spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Shaw.

Byron Schmulh of Cass City was in town on Sunday and visited his cousin, Warren Sherk.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Vanderkooy entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Green and children of Wilmot.

Mrs. Mary Parks left on Monday for Cass City to stay with her niece's little girl while she is away at the hospital.

Sam Sherk was a business caller at Cass City Friday.

Mrs. Fred Lester and Sam Sherk visited their sister, Mrs. Bessie Holt, at Cass City over Sunday.

Mrs. Don Nutt was a caller at Cass City Saturday.

Clinton Bruce spent a few days at Richmond last week.

The body of Mrs. D. A. Valentine of Michigan City, Ind., was brought here Tuesday noon, and interment was made in Novesta cemetery. Rev. Smith, pastor of the M. E. church at Oxford, officiated. Miss Julia Ballard was united in marriage with D. A. Valentine in 1878 at Lapeer City. To this union three children were born, of whom Ray, the eldest, died at the age of 17 years, and Louisa and Orson are left to mourn their mother's death. Three brothers and one sister-in-law accompanied the body. Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Ballard of Niles, and William and Charles Ballard of Michigan City, Ind. Other relatives and friends who attended the funeral were the husband, D. A. Valentine, of Michigan City, Ind.; a daughter, Mrs. F. B. McCain, and husband, and a son, Orson Valentine, wife and daughter, Leona, all of Oxford; Mrs. Gladys Harrington, Dryden; Fred Valentine, Flint; Mrs. Tina Lewis, Rochester; Mr. Loreman, George Pardo, Marie Davis and Mrs. Garfield Smith, Caro; Mr. vis and Rev. Smith, all of Oxford. and Mrs. Roy Colwell, Lum; Mrs. Chas. Silverthorn, Pontiac; and Alex. Advertise it in the Chronicle.

Everything Points to the Greatest Spring Demand for Ford Products in Company's History

1,202,517 Ford Cars and Trucks were delivered to retail purchasers in the United States alone during 1922—

Actual deliveries for last month greatly exceeded any previous December in the history of the Ford Motor Company—

It was the ninth consecutive month in which more than 100,000 Ford cars and Trucks were retailed—keeping the Ford Plants working at capacity to meet dealers' requirements—

In many parts of the country dealers are already finding it necessary to specify later delivery dates on certain types because there are no reserve stocks to draw from—

Commercial users, business houses and farmers, anticipating their future requirements, are placing orders and taking delivery of Ford cars, Trucks and Fordson Tractors to insure against delay—

Everything points to the biggest shortage of Ford Products this Spring that has ever existed—

The only way you can be sure of obtaining delivery of a Ford Car, Truck or Fordson Tractor is to list your order immediately—

We have given you these facts as they actually exist so that if you are planning to purchase a Ford Car, Truck or Tractor for use this Spring or Summer, you can list your order now and take advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery.

We have completed the construction of a rocking horse and expect to make and dress a boy doll.

We are reading on the fifth page of the chart this week.

There is great sport in learning and dramatizing our new skating song.

Thirteen were absent this week on account of sickness.

First Grade.

We are enjoying our new Elson Readers very much.

We are working out Eskimo life in the sand table and have made a small village.

Mrs. Nesbit visited our room on Monday.

Second Grade.

Mrs. Dodge was a caller on Friday. We are reading in our Beacon readers, having finished the Elson.

Third Grade.

We have taken great interest in weaving rugs.

Mrs. P. A. Schenk was a caller on Friday.

We are starting short division in one number class.

Fourth Grade.

Mrs. P. A. Schenk and Mrs. Stephen Dodge were callers on Friday.

We had a very enjoyable sleigh-ride party on Thursday afternoon and can thank Ernest Barnes for our pleasant time.

We are reading the story of Robinson Crusoe for opening exercises.

Our study of the lumber regions in geography is made very interesting by the pictures brought by Milton Schiedel.

Clarence Merchant and Belva Ferguson are absent on account of sickness.

Fifth Grade.

John Taylor, Don Lorentzen, and Betty Seed are absent because of sickness.

We had five tardy marks last month but hope to have none this month.

Sixth Grade.

We received the punctuality for this month and our attendance averaged 96.7 per cent.

We find "The King of the Golden River" a very interesting story.

Junior High.

The seventh grade received the attendance banner for this month with an average of 99.19 per cent. This is the highest average in two years.

There have been only four tardy marks in the last two months.

We expect Chas. Bigelow, who is absent, to be with us within a short time.

GAGETOWN.

He was a very patient and long suffering Gagetown young man, but when at last she arrived at the bank corner where they had arranged to meet he ventured a remonstrance. "Darling, you are late," he said mildly. "Only a few minutes," she protested in an injured tone. "I said I'd be here at 7 o'clock and it's twenty minutes past." "Oh," sighed the young man, "then you must have mistaken the day, I've been waiting here since last night."

SOUTH NOVESTA.

South Novesta Farmers' Club held their January meeting at the home of Charles Kilgore on the 19th. After a bountiful dinner, the meeting was called to order by the president, all joined in singing America after which Rev. Hubbard offered prayer. Minutes of the last meeting read, roll call was answered to by Scripture verse. The program was short but much enjoyed by all.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Howard Retherford; vice pres., Charles Kilgore; sec., Mrs. Arthur Van Blaricom; treas., Arthur Van Blaricom; chaplain, Rev. Hubbard. It was voted that we charge 50c per family for the oyster dinner to be held at the home of Grover Pratt the third Friday in February. After that month 25c will be the membership fee.

Mrs. Arthur Van Blaricom, Sec.

Deford Church Notes.

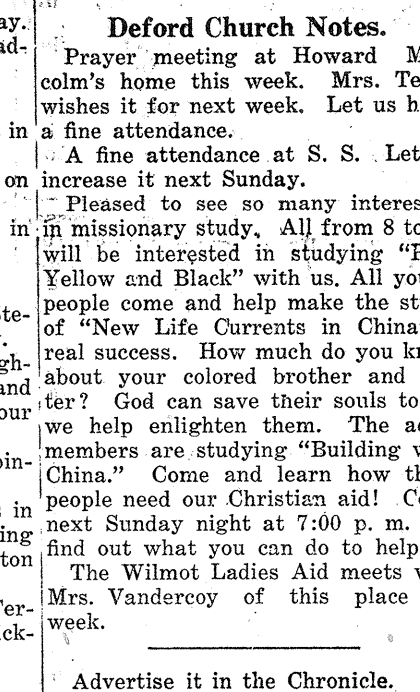

Prayer meeting at Howard Malcolm's home this week. Mrs. Terry wishes it for next week. Let us have a fine attendance.

A fine attendance at S. S. Let us increase it next Sunday.

Pleased to see so many interested in missionary study. All from 8 to 16 will be interested in studying "Red, Yellow and Black" with us. All young people come and help make the study of "New Life Currents in China" a real success. How much do you know about your colored brother and sister? God can save their souls too if we help enlighten them. The adult members are studying "Building with China." Come and learn how these people need our Christian aid! Come next Sunday night at 7:00 p. m. and find out what you can do to help.
