

INCOME TAX MAN HERE FEB. 23-24

DEPUTY I. B. RICHARDSON WILL INSTRUCT TAXPAYERS AS TO MANNER OF MAKING RETURNS TO GOVERNMENT.

The annual income tax "drive" is now on and it is proposed by Collector Fred L. Woodworth of Detroit to have one of his field deputies visit every town in the district, if possible, before the close of the campaign to instruct taxpayers as to the manner of making returns and to render such assistance as they can in the short time that can be spent in each place.

Deputy Collector I. B. Richardson, will visit Cass City on Feb. 23 and 24, making his headquarters at the Gordon hotel where taxpayers may meet him. Much time will be saved if figures will be carefully compiled and classified as to receipts and expenses before visiting the deputy.

Forms for making reports have been mailed to all those who last year reported for income tax, and these forms should be brought by the taxpayer when he visits the deputy collector. Every single person whose income in 1922 was $1,000.00, or more, and married person whose income was $2,000.00, or more is required to make return.

100 VOLUMES GIVEN TO SCHOOL LIBRARY

Campaign Is Still in Force and Many More Contributions Are Expected.

One hundred volumes have been contributed by local citizens in the campaign to increase the library at the high school. The campaign is by no means ended and Supt. Holmes expects that there will be many more contributions by patrons of the school. Look through your library today and select one, two, three or more books for the school and assist in making the school library still more complete and useful.

Several excellent books were received during the past week, the total number contributed in that time being 38. Contributors of the week include Mrs. A. J. Knapp 2, Mrs. G. E. Reagh 4, Phyllis Lenzner 2, Mrs. E. W. Kercher 10, Mary Striffler 8, Mrs. James Whale 8, Dr. J. T. Redwine 4.

FUNERAL OF JOHN MAUNE HELD MONDAY

The funeral of John Maune of Detroit was held at St. Paterius church Monday morning, February 19, Rev. Fr. Carolan officiating. The remains were taken to Detroit Monday afternoon for burial beside those of his wife in Mt. Elliott cemetery.

Mr. Maune passed away quietly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. Keeney, near New Greenleaf on Feb. 14, after a long illness. The cause of death is given as heart trouble.

He was born in Limerick, Ireland, in 1850 and came to this country at the age of 17 years. Later he settled in Detroit where he married Miss Elizabeth Gore of that city. Three children blessed this union. Two of them survive the father, Mrs. Keeney, and Wm. Maune of Detroit.

DEATH REMOVED TWO FROM HOME IN WEEK

Death visited the home of Louis A. Holtz in Novesta township twice within the past week, taking from that place Barnabus Bertrand, a friend of the family and for several years a resident there, and Louis A. Holtz.

Mr. Bertrand's death occurred on Thursday, Feb. 15, and was caused by an attack of lagrippe. Short funeral services were held at the home Monday and the body was placed in the vault at Elkland cemetery until spring when it will be removed to the family lot at Hersey, Mich.

Mr. Holtz passed away at his farm home, Tuesday, Feb. 20, following a severe attack of bronchial asthma. He was a highly respected citizen of the Novesta community and served that township two years as treasurer. Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ on Thursday.

TUSCOLA DEMOCRATS SELECT 4 DELEGATES

Tuscola county Democrats met in convention at Caro and selected delegates for the state convention to be held Friday at the Elks' temple, Detroit.

Those chosen are: R. J. Putman, Caro; W. G. S. Miller, Cass City; Neil Jacoby, Deford; James McPherson, Tuscola.

HOME OF COLLISON FAMILY BURNED SUNDAY

Fire destroyed the home of Alfred Collison, residing 3 miles west and 3 miles south of Cass City on Sunday afternoon. The fire was discovered while the family were eating dinner and it had already gained such headway that they were able to save only the sewing machine and a few bed clothes.

Mr. and Mrs. Collison have a family of 12 children, 10 of whom reside at home. Neighbors are contributing liberally towards their comforts and many in this community are aiding them with gifts of various kinds.

WITH THE STATE LEGISLATURE

ECONOMY IS BACK OF PROJECTED LEGISLATION TO AMEND OR REPEAL THE COVERT ROAD ACT.

Once more a Michigan house of representatives has gone on record against a state law compelling the establishment of the 8-hour day for all workers. Following a debate on Rep. John Holland's bill for the 8-hour day, the house voted it down 71 to 17. Two years ago the house showed only eight members favorable to the proposition.

The time honored amendment calling for the application of the 8-hour day principle to farms and farm labor was attached as usual to the Holland bill, over the introducer's strenuous objections. But there was other opposition to the measure, including that of Rep. Charles Bartlett, Detroit labor man, who declared he did not believe legislation could afford a cure for economic and moral problems such as are included in the fundamental idea of the 8-hour bill.

House members had a hot debate in committee of the whole over the Kirby bill to authorize supervisors to employ veterinarians to inspect cattle for tuberculosis and to fix the state indemnities at the amounts named in the federal statutes, $25 for grade cows and up to $50 for registered cattle. The bill is a department of agriculture measure.

The bill would limit indemnity for destroyed cattle to one-third of the difference between the appraised value and the salvage. Rep. Holland will attempt to amend the bill to agree with one he introduced and which provides that the appraised value be set by a committee of freeholders and that the farmer be reimbursed 100 per cent.

Should a death penalty bill for murderers be put through this legislature it most likely will carry a provision also calling for a vote by the people of the state on its merits. Bills in both the senate and house to provide the death penalty now are on the calendar.

MOSES BECKETT INJURED BY ANGRY BULL

Animal Attacked Farmer Sunday Evening, Breaking His Ribs and Injuring Him Internally.

Moses Beckett, aged 60 years, residing 3 miles west and 2 1/2 miles north of Cass City, had several ribs broken and suffered internal injuries when attacked by a bull Sunday evening.

Mr. Beckett had gone to the barn to water his cattle, and while about to untie the bull and take him from his stall, the animal struck Mr. Beckett with his shoulder and knocked him down, trampling the man with his knees. Mr. Beckett finally managed to crawl from the stall and out of reach of the enraged animal.

The animal has been on the Beckett farm for a year and never gave any trouble before Sunday.

DEATH OF MOSES POWELL.

Funeral services of Moses Powell, a former Novesta township resident, were held on Saturday, Feb. 17, at the Deford M. E. church, Rev. W. S. Hubbard officiating. Interment was made in the Novesta cemetery.

Moses Powell was born July 15, 1844, near Armada, McComb county. He was married at the age of 23 to Elizabeth Meaker. To this union eight children were born, three of whom preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn their loss, three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Whitley McLean of Cass City, Mrs. Albert Wilson, Mrs. Clarence Foster, Eugene Powell and Samuel Powell of Pontiac with whom he made his home the past four years. He also leaves 26 grand children and ten great grandchildren, and a number of friends.

PASSING OF A GREENLEAF PIONEER

SIDNEY DAVIS CAME TO GREENLEAF 60 YEARS AGO AND HOMESTEADED LAND; WAS NEARLY 90 YEARS OLD.

Sidney Davis, a pioneer settler in Greenleaf township, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Martha McConnell, at Cass City on Thursday, Feb. 15, at the age of 89 years. Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. W. Edwards of the Presbyterian church, who spoke from the text in Job 5:26: "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age." Interment was made at Elkland cemetery.

Sidney Davis was born in Watertown, N. Y., on April 16, 1833. On April 30, 1859, he was united in marriage with Miss Hannah Hartwick in Canada. To this union, 11 children were born.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis came to Greenleaf township about 60 years ago and were among the early settlers in that community. They homesteaded land on their arrival and remained residents of that township until 3 1/2 years ago when they came to Cass City to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. McConnell.

Mr. Davis, at the time of the Civil War, enlisted in the Union army, but he was disappointed six weeks later by receiving his discharge which came because of his defective hearing. Intense patriotism ever remained with him and he loved to display Old Glory whenever occasion offered. Politically, he was a staunch Republican.

Mr. Davis was a great reader and of a very cheerful disposition. For a man nearing 90 years of age, he displayed unusual activity.

Besides his wife, with whom he enjoyed 65 years of companionship, he leaves seven children, James Davis of Eureka, California, Mrs. Mercy Cherry and Mrs. Thos. Sheridan, both of Detroit, Mrs. Martha McConnell of Cass City, Perry Davis, Lafayette Davis and Mrs. Ella Wisner, all of Detroit; also 17 grand children and 4 great grand children.

VILLAGE OFFICERS ARE NOMINATED FRIDAY

Six of Seven Officers Named Are Nominated to Succeed Themselves.

One hundred sixty-six electors crowded into the council rooms Friday night to attend the village caucus. The gathering proved to be a very harmonious one.

M. B. Auten was chosen chairman, Roy Bricker secretary, and H. D. Schiedel, Stanley Striffler and R. D. Keating were made tellers. Officers of the caucus were sworn in by G. A. Tindale.

On the first ballot for the nomination of village president, Fred A. Bigelow was nominated for that office, securing 115 of the 146 ballots cast. J. M. Dodge received 8 votes, J. A. Caldwell 7, S. B. Young 5, P. A. Schenck 3, and scattering 8.

For clerk, Miss Lura DeWitt was nominated by acclamation.

Five were in the race for village treasurer and two ballots were necessary to decide the contest. On the first ballot, James Tennant received 55, E. W. Jones 41, P. S. Rice 40, Clarence Burt 14, B. J. Dailey 6, scattering 2. The second ballot revealed the choice of James Tennant as the nominee. Mr. Tennant received 94, Mr. Rice 38, Mr. Jones 29, and scattering 5.

The remainder of the candidates on the ticket were all placed in nomination by acclamation. I. W. Hall was named as assessor, G. A. Tindale, Geo. W. West and M. B. Auten were named as trustees for two years.

The ticket as nominated shows only one change from the officers as they now stand. James Tennant is the only new candidate, he having been named to succeed Ernest Croft, who is now completing the second term as treasurer.

DR. EBEN MUMFORD WILL SPEAK AT ELLINGTON

M. A. C. Man Will Deliver Addresses at Annual Meetings of Local Farm Bureaus.

During the week beginning Feb. 26, there will be a series of farmers' meetings held in various places in Tuscola county. Dr. Eben Mumford of M. A. C. has been secured to give address on "The Farm Outlook" and will speak at Ellington on Tuesday, Feb. 27, at 7:30 p. m.

These talks will be given at the annual meetings of the local farm bureaus but all sessions are open to the public and it is hoped that the people of the vicinity, especially farmers, will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing one of the best posted men, along agricultural lines, in Michigan. Those who have heard Dr. Mumford will need no urging to attend the meetings.

Dr. Mumford will also speak at the Union Farmers' Club meeting which will be held in Caro, Thursday, Mar. 1st.

SOD ORCHARDS NEED MORE FERTILIZATION

Many Factors Govern Rate of Application for Michigan Fruit Trees.

The rate of application of commercial fertilizers in Michigan orchards, an important question for state fruit growers, must be determined after consideration of many vital factors, according to Prof. R. E. Marshall, of the M. A. C. horticultural department. Fertilizer requirements must be based on the individual orchard, but there are certain recommendations which can be used as a guide.

"The age and size of the trees, the lengths of annual twig growth, the amount and color of foliage, the plumpness of spurs and fruit growths, and the yields of fruit must all be considered in planning rates of application," says Professor Marshall.

"Sod orchards should have a higher rate of application than cultivated ones. Where fruit trees are growing in sod, the nitrogen applications should be fully 50 per cent higher. If plants are in poor state of vigor, the applications should be 50 to 100 per cent greater than those given for average, normal trees and plants.

"One-half pound of nitrate of soda per tree per year should be sufficient for apple trees until they are about two years old, when the amounts may be gradually increased until they amount to one and one-half pounds per tree at five or six years of age. At this age, and until the tree comes into full fruit production, fertilizers should be used sparingly, if at all. Trees from ten or twelve to twenty years old can generally use about three pounds of nitrate of soda. The rate of application may be gradually increased to about five pounds as the maximum for old trees. However, it is not uncommon to apply as much as ten pounds to old trees of low productivity which are growing in sod.

"The above rates are for nitrate of soda. If sulphate of ammonia is used as the carrier of nitrogen, the rate of application would be about 25 per cent less."

DAIRY INDUSTRY HIGHLY DEVELOPED IN STATE

Has Given Michigan Farmers a Strong Economic Position in Corn Belt.

The farms of Michigan produced crops to the approximate value of $215,000,000, in 1922, an increase of 17 per cent over 1921 when the valuation dropped to $184,004,000. The crops of 1920 had a valuation of $312,394,000 and those of 1919, the exceptionally high value of $404,015,000. The valuations as far as practicable were computed on the basis of the average prevailing prices on December 1 of each year. Each grain crop, sugar beets, beans and clover seed showed a higher price on December 1 this year than one year ago. The fruit crops, potatoes and hay were lower than one year ago. All crops except winter wheat, buckwheat, potatoes and wild hay gave a larger monetary return per acre this year than last. While this improvement in condition is naturally encouraging to farmers, yet, their buying power is improving rather slowly, as the cost of production is still high in proportion to prices obtained for farm products. The principal encouraging factors are the diversified nature of Michigan's crops and the high degree of development of the state's dairy industry, which have given its farmers a much stronger economic position than occupied by many of the other corn belt states, especially those which have suffered from the distress caused by inflated land values.

The combined yields of all crops in the state were 7.4 per cent better than the average of recent past years. Only four other important states fared as well this year. Hay was relatively the best crop of the year, although corn, potatoes, clover seed and most of the fruits yielded above the average. The poorest crops were winter wheat and rye, although, for the state as a whole, these were fair both in yield and quality. All main crops were larger in volume than last year except corn, rye and sugar beets, and had a greater total value except potatoes, sugar beets and clover seed.

LOOKS LIKE REAL OIL AT BURNSIDE

DRILLERS SEEM TO HAVE PIERCED PETROLEUM POOL AT DEPTH OF OVER 2,600 FEET.

(From North Branch Gazette).

The drilling operations at the syndicate well in Burnside township had reached a depth of over 2,600 feet last Saturday night, when, according to the operators in charge, the long sought for "pay dirt" had been penetrated and drilling was to be suspended and preparations made at once for "shooting" the hole. The substance procured from the hidden depths at this stage of proceedings was of a decidedly oily consistency and gave forth a strong odor of crude petroleum.

Bottles of the cherished substance were carried away from the workings by interested visitors and the exhibitions of these samples has created much excitement through the Thumb district, where thousands of acres of land are held under leases by the syndicate in the name of the Thumb Oil & Gas Development Company, and the final act, which will reveal whether or not the promises of the promoters shall be verified, is awaited with much expectancy by those who have contributed in more or less amounts to an aggregate sum reaching into thousands of dollars to finance this initial exploration of the bowels of the earth in the territory controlled by the company.

The convincing evidence at hand that there are at least decidedly encouraging prospects in the treasure-trove have aroused optimism where erstwhile scepticism prevailed, and that a real oil boom for this locality is near at hand is now very generally and confidently believed.

The well is located between this village and Brown City, a short distance to the south of the trunk line highway connecting the two towns.

Jacob Locke of Peck, Sanilac county, and Col. J. C. Games of Detroit, took the initiative in organizing for the oil quest in the Thumb district and they have steadfastly and enthusiastically maintained and proclaimed that they would surely develop an oil field here.

HARMONY PREVAILED AT G. O. P. STATE MEET

Republicans at Flint Renominate all Officers Seeking Re-election.

Harmony was the dominant note at the gathering of Michigan Republicans in state convention at Flint on Wednesday.

Without contest they renominated all state officers who were running for renomination, adopted the platform brought to the convention by representatives of Governor Groesbeck and returned Burt D. Cady, as chairman of the state central committee.

The platform approved by the gathering lauded the state and national republican administration. It praised the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, and commended Governor Groesbeck for his appointment of James Couzens to the United States senate. The efficiency of the centralized form of government installed in Michigan was praised and a legislative program to encourage reforestation by providing for light taxes on land devoted to timber crops was urged. The convention favored the state department of agriculture's land certification bill which is before the legislature, and indirectly, endorsed the state corporation tax law because it affords a means of "financing the growth and development of the state's educational institutions."

The nominations made by the convention were: Thomas E. Johnson, renominated for superintendent of public instruction; Clark L. Brody, of Lansing, re-nominated for membership on the state board of agriculture; Herbert Gowdy, of Berrien county, nominated to replace Jason Woodman, who is retiring, on the agricultural board; Howard Wiest and Grant Fellows, re-nominated as justices of the state supreme court; Allen M. Freeland, of Grand Rapids, re-nominated as member of the state board of education and Junius Beal, of Ann Arbor, and Ralph Stone, of Detroit, renominated for regents of the University of Michigan.

RADIO NEWS.

Wednesday evening a peculiar message was received by one of Cass City's radio fans from KDKA, Pittsburgh, Penn. The message was for Mrs. S. D. Creighton, "Your father died last night." The announcer explained that they hoped to reach Manadoso, a small town in California by relaying this message, as the town has no telegraph station.

Many exceptional things are floating through the air nowadays. On Wednesday evening a Pittsburg station broadcasted a program from the Carnegie Hall given by Louise Lurch, coloratura soprano and Senor Baroni, flutist. Some of Cass City's fans enjoyed the entire recital.

LARGE SPORT PROGRAM COMING FOR COLLEGES

U. OF M. IS REPRESENTED BY NINE VARSITY TEAMS IN INTER-COLLEGIATE COMPETITION.

Larger sport programs are coming more and more into prominence in colleges and universities each year while the interest in Physical Education has reached heights that were never dreamed of twenty years back. A score of years ago a football, baseball and track team were placed in competition by an institution and in many cases the same small group of men participated in each sport. Today teams in football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, swimming, golf, wrestling and hockey represent the institutions and in nearly every case the athlete participates in only the one sport. Besides all this varsity competition, intra-mural activities have reached such an elaborate scale that practically every man in the larger institutions takes part in some competitive game. These enormous programs can best be realized by citing a specific example. The University of Michigan is represented by nine varsity teams in intercollegiate competition which are composed of approximately 550 men. The intra-mural department has provided means by which 6,000 students of the University participate in competitive games, either in inter-fraternity, inter-class or in teams composed of different independent groups on the campus. This makes an approximate total of about 6,550 men which includes practically every man on the campus.

Every week is crowded full of athletic competition taking place at such a time that it does not in the least interfere with the collegiate work of the students but on the contrary better fits them to meet the strenuous professional or business life. In eight school days, from January 19th to 27th, inclusively, Michigan varsity teams participated in nine intercollegiate contests besides 208 intra-mural contests. With the completion of the new field house on Ferry Field this total will greatly increase and Michigan will take a well deserved place among the foremost schools in giving the student a thorough physical training as well as the recognized collegiate.

With the State Legislature

endar awaiting final decision on third reading. The senate bill carries a referendum clause and such a clause is likely to be attached to the house bill before it goes to final roll call. The senate last week by a decisive majority voted to table the bill.
With the presiding officer in each house, and the governor as well, hostile to the death penalty the chances of such a bill passing and becoming law appeared remote, but the attaching of the referendum is thought to give the idea more chance to go through the legislative mill and await the decision of the people of the state on whether or not it actually goes into effect.

Economy figured in a house debate over the Read bill to allow township school bonds to be issued for a period of 30 years, instead of 15 years, as at present. Other school bonds are legal for 30 year periods, Rep. Read contended, so township bonds also could be put on the same basis. Rep. David Butler, of Lapeer, led the opposition to the Read bill and pointed out that he had introduced a bill to limit all school bonds to 15 years, as a measure of economy. He and other speakers argued that the longer period caused school boards to be too liberal in their expenditures of bond money and that many of the things they spent money for were used up completely long before the people were called upon to settle for the bonds.

Voters of Michigan will be asked to decide again at the April election on the creation of port districts in the state, if the senate follows the lead of the house of representatives. Only seven of the hundred house members opposed resubmission of this matter, which will be a vital thing to all lake cities when the St. Lawrence waterway is established. The port district amendment failed by a narrow margin last November, and its defeat is laid to the fact that several other measures were up at the same time on which "no" votes were being cast.

Radical changes in the conduct of the Michigan State Fair are proposed in a bill introduced by Senator Brower, of Jackson, accompanied by another bill appropriating $100,000 for reorganization and conduct of the fair. The "midway" would be wiped out from the fair under the Brower bill, the appropriation being designed partly to care for revenue lost from midway concessions. It is understood that the Brower plan has the backing of Gov. Groesbeck and the state department of agriculture.

The house showed a majority of those voting on the Read bill to be in favor of it, but they were three short of the number required to pass a bill, having only 48 yeas to 41 noes and 51 votes being required to adopt any measure in the house. Rep. Read had the bill tabled and may make another effort later to get it through.

The house has passed the Wade bill to prohibit fishing in inland waters from which the public is barred and in which the state plants fish. This bill is designed to break down barriers which sport clubs have put up against the public in places where they control all adjoining land. The house stood 72 to 14 in favor of the measure.

More economy is back of projected legislation to either amend or repeal the Covert road act. Thus far nothing has reached the floor of either house in regard to the Covert act, but the talk concerning action was given considerable impetus following a meeting here of the state association of supervisors. Of the latter those from sparsely settled districts wanted the Covert act left alone, but others were in favor of doing away with it, partly or entirely, and obtaining enough income from gasoline and income taxes to meet road expenses.

Lobbyists at the legislature have become worried since the passage of the Holland resolution by the house for a committee, headed by the speaker, to control admission to the floor of the house of all persons not members. Various legislative agents have requested Chairman Culver, of the rules committee, for a hearing before rules excluding them from the floor are adopted. He has not yet intimated whether he will order such a hearing or not. Members are inclined to think that this hearing, if held, is apt to be most interesting.

Rep. Howard Baxter, of Kent, put in a bill to open the way for public schools to undertake special training of blind and deaf pupils. Rep. Gillett, of Kalkaska, introduced a bill to authorize the state director of conservation, with approval of the state administrative board, to suspend or abridge the open season for hunting in any county or counties in the state. A closed season would be limited to five years and hearings are provided for on petition of 25 or more freeholders.

Opposition to the plan proposed by Senator Henry, of changing the circuit court districts of Michigan from 40 to 10, with enough judges in each to care for all the work, has been of such volume as to make it appear that it will not go through. Senator Wood, of Detroit, has introduced another bill seeking four additional circuit court judges for Wayne. These would have been provided by the Henry plan, but Senator Wood is proceeding on the theory of "safety first" in his proposal.

The senate has passed two banking bills introduced by Senator Walter Hayes, of Detroit. One provides for the appraisal of bank-owned real estate every five years, with increased values included in the bank assets. The other, designed to help people build homes, aims to allow banks to loan up to 60 per cent of the value of real estate. The present law makes the limit for loans 50 per cent of the value of the property.

Tactful understanding has been had between senators and representatives in regard to the bills reapportioning the seats in each house. Each will thresh out its own problem and the other will accept the decision. It is declared that Wayne will be given reasonable treatment in regard to the increased representation to which its population figures entitle it.

Teachers' certificates will be subject to suspension, under the terms of a bill introduced by Rep. Leedy, where teachers break their contracts with school boards. The revoking power is placed in the hands of county school examiners, regents of the University, the state superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education.

The big taxation bills are remaining in committee for the present, where they are being given careful consideration and signs of probable opposition to them are being watched for. It is likely that they will stay in committee for a few more weeks and that the first to emerge will be the Warner bill for a tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline.

Rep. Gillett, Rapid City, has introduced a bill to limit the authority of consolidated rural school boards in disposing of school property taken over in the consolidation. All such property should be protected in the five-year period in which the consolidated district tries out this plan of operation, he believes.

Rep. Wardell, of Detroit, wants meters put on telephones which are charging so-called meter rates and has introduced a bill in the house to compel this to be done. At present, he asserts, there is no way for the subscriber to tell whether he is called upon to pay for the right number of calls or not.

Among recent new bills in the house is a department of conservation measure offered by Rep. Miles, of Mecosta, which would make public hunting and fishing grounds of all submerged and swamp lands except the St. Clair Flats. The provisions of the bill would not cover islands, it was said.

The senate put a much-debated bill to sleep by a 15 to 7 vote when it was called upon to act on the proposal of Senator Bahorski, of Detroit, to pension members of the state supreme court after the age of 72 or after 25 years of service on the bench. Economy was the plea that killed this bill.

Rep. John Stevenson, of Detroit, introduced a bill to provide that state game laws shall not prevent transportation and sale of rabbits legally caught or killed in other states if the consignee is able to show the invoice covering their shipment.

Music.

Von Stroheim knows women, and he knows what women who imagine themselves in love do. He shows just how they suppress or demonstrate love. All the peculiar twists and tangles that upset even the proudest women. He depicts this in a background of splendor such as the eye of a camera has not looked upon since first the movement of human beings were recorded in action, in this Million Dollar Miracle Manuscript of the Screen.

DEFORD.

Ah, the olden time snowdrifts, how well I remember, When the present small drifts recall them to mind. The dog house drifted over, we dug out old Rover, And the little log hen house was labor to find. 'Twas sport to dig the stuff out in those boy years of ten Now we sigh when we think they will ne'er come again.

Mrs. E. A. Cones is still very poorly. 'Tis Mr. Shaw that is poorly, not Mrs. S. as stated in Chronicle.

Mrs. Mary Spencer, the aged lady, has passed through a bad sick spell, but better at present.

Two days without mail past week. Mrs. Croop has been ill for some days past.

When we can't ship milk, we skim it, and ship cream after the blockade. Milk comes from the four points of the compass, and we receive it gladly.

We notice William Cooper out on street again. The United Riverside and Novesta Farmers' Club has been christened anew. Now this cognomen should hold them forever and a day. They have no right to change without permit "from the powers that be."

Although not sick abed, Roderick Kennedy has been very poorly since cold weather came. George Martin of Town Line is milk hauler from that line locality.

At this writing (Monday), Mrs. E. A. Cones is up and around. Don Nutt, who has been poorly, is much improved in health.

Owens children are better. George Taylor is seriously ill. He is alone in his little house and help is being looked for.

Miss Mae Bruce had sick spell Saturday. Better on Monday.

Mrs. Samuel Sherk in poor health. Bert Curtis home from Owosso Sunday. Will go back Tuesday.

Already there is a political undercurrent moving in our township affairs. From the early bird a lesson is taking. "Let it come. I repeat it sirs, let it come."

Samuel Powell of Pontiac spends a few days here. The John Clark family are much improved in health.

Make hay when sun shines but saw wood when frost is out of the timber. Some mail was delivered on foot, but our mail carriers got there, singing "Try, Try Again."

All the people supplicating for a change in weather. Our school has kept open but with a light attendance. All have done well, all things considered.

We admire the energy of our preacher to keep the Sunday school moving so well these discouraging times. Readers will remember Geo. Pratt who lived two miles east of here years ago. His home of late has been near Dryden. He burned out the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt are both sick at present.

Seventy years ago thermometers were few and far between, but the country people had their way of measuring when very cold. We remember the older ones saying, "the snow drifts will hold up the horses, cold nights boys." And now I hear people saying, "Snow drifts bear up the team," hence we can all say, "Cold nights boys and girls."

The remains of Moses Powell were brought here Saturday from Pontiac where he died. His last days were spent with his son, Samuel. The burial was in Novesta cemetery. Elder Hubbard preached the funeral sermon. Deceased was born in June, 1844, and spent his life in Michigan except two years in state of Missouri. He raised a large family and battled and triumphed over pioneer days.

Lester Day is up north above Bay City cutting logs for E. A. Cones. Those who were away with their cars when the blizzard of 14th came, spent 15th sending word home, "Come back when I can."

The railroad companies should not shock people too much by running their trains on time. Readers of Chronicle will remember one Richard Davis who lived south of here some years ago and had 40 acres of land. He was single and peculiar, brother of Thomas Davis and Mrs. William McCartney of this place. Word has been received of his death. He left some property to be divided among his heirs who are three in number, Mrs. William McCartney, Thomas Davis and a niece, daughter of James Oatout, once a resident of Wilmot.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owen returned on 16th from funeral of Mrs. Owen's father at Flint. They returned on train by way of Imlay City. Mrs. Robert Jacoby cared for the children while they were away. The children have been poorly but some better at present.

The highest attribute of man—is simple independent honesty.—Wm. E. Gladstone.

The 14th was some day in our settlement. How was it in your "neck of woods"?

We are told St. Valentine, Bishop of Rome, was martyred Feb. 14th, 270 A. D., because he labored to spread the doctrine of Christianity. The date happened at the time when a pagan feast was held each year, when the young men drew their affiances by lot, hence the custom, as we have it now. But every epistle sent should be of a kind or loving nature. Those of a scurrilous make-up often sent as a slur is not only an ignorant thrust but an injury to a Christian custom.

Church Notes.

Our prayer meeting will be held at the home of Roland Bruce this week. Owing to the storm, we were not able to attend last week. Mrs. Edna Malcolm's class or the Royal Daughters, met at the home of Myrtle D'Arcy last Tuesday evening. Had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Hubbards' class, or the "Upstreamers," are planning to give a pageant, entitled "He is the Son of God" to be given at Easter time. The W. F. M. S. will be postponed until next Thursday, March 1, at 2:00 p. m. We are planning a very interesting program, at the home of Mrs. Edna Malcolm.

The Ladies' Aid served dinner in the lodge hall Wednesday, Feb. 21. A mistake was made in the date of the Washington and Asbury Sunday program. It should have been Feb. 25th. Everybody come.

The Upstreamers class have planned a home bake sale to be Mar. 3 beginning at 10:00 a. m. Everything in pasty line also candy, will be for sale at Mr. Jacoby's store. Remember the date and let us do your baking for you. The Misses Effa Cuer and Bell Spencer are the committee in charge so if you would like to place an order in ahead, just notify them.

The Misses Marguerite McTavish and Margaret Reagh spent last week in Caro the guests of Miss Gertrude Striffler, who is a student in the Tuscola County Normal school. J. A. Caldwell was in Flint last week expecting to remain but a short time but the tie-up of trains and bad condition of roads necessitated his remaining the larger part of the week. The Sunday evening congregations of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Evangelical churches met with the Baptist congregation Sunday evening to listen to Rev. Gilbert Miles, who is conducting an evangelistic campaign at that church. A. E. Goodall has been elected president of the local Farm Bureau and H. W. Cooper, vice president. Directors are Wm. Rev. I. W. Cargo and Rev. W. S. Hubbard left Tuesday morning for Marlette, North Branch and Kingston where they have gone on a two days' canvass for the Methodist Educational Fund in the interest of the Methodist students of the University and colleges of Michigan. This drive includes Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Kalamazoo, Mt. Pleasant and Albion. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Auten and Stuart Wilsey motored to Caro Sunday, bringing Chas. Wilsey on the return trip. Mr. Wilsey has been under medical care for a few weeks in Detroit and finding himself much improved, started Tuesday for home. He arrived safely at Caro, but the weather dictated that he should spend a few days with relatives there. Paul Bien, formerly of Cass City, had a rather thrilling experience one day recently while in his barber shop located in Detroit. His place of business, situated on Stanley Ave., was entered in broad daylight by two masked men armed with revolvers. Mr. Bien and a gentleman in the chair being the only occupants of the place, it was an easy matter for the men to take the money ($45.00) from the till and relieve the man in the chair of a fine diamond ring he was wearing. The thieves made their escape by automobile which was waiting with a driver at the door. No one was injured.

H. T. Crandell left Tuesday afternoon on a business trip to Detroit. George and H. J. McKay returned this week from a week's visit in Detroit. Miss Mildred Parker, from west of town, visited her aunt, Mrs. A. T. Craft, Monday. The Misses Jennie McIntyre and Blanche McLean of Argyle were callers in town Wednesday. This (Friday) evening is the date of the big games with the Crosswell high school teams on the local floor. The second team of the high school was compelled to cancel a game with Kingston last week owing to drifted roads. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Craft of Detroit, who visited Mr. Craft's mother last week, returned home Sunday afternoon. A meeting will be held at the schoolhouse Wednesday, Feb. 28, at 7:45 p. m., to re-organize the Parent-Teachers' Association. A Heller's Bakery truck made a delivery of bread to Bay Port Monday. Drifted roads made it necessary to travel 87 miles to make a trip where 30 miles will do the trick under normal conditions. Sunday's Detroit Free Press contained a picture of the Varsity Debaters of Kalamazoo college. Among the debaters was Randall Lamb of Cass City. Ralph Tindale, manager of the group, was a former Cass City lad. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Martus left on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Jas. F. Martus of North Branch, whose death occurred Sunday. The funeral was held Wednesday. Wm. Martus, jr., came from Almont to take care of the Martus farm during his father's absence. The funeral of the late Mrs. Donald Lamont was held at Caro Saturday and the body placed in the mausoleum until her brother, Curtis McPhail, who is ill, recovers to attend to burial services. Mrs. Lamont was formerly Miss Helen McPhail and died Tuesday evening at Calumet. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ricker left Monday to spend several days with Lansing friends. Mr. Ricker will also attend the sessions of the retail merchants' and meat dealers' state convention. E. W. Jones left Cass City Tuesday to attend the convention. Mr. Jones responded to the Lansing mayor's address of welcome. Mrs. Richard Bayley has received word of the recent marriage of her sister, Miss Frances McBurney, to Mr. Russell Gravatte at Youngstown, O. The bride is a member of the Class of 1908, C. C. H. S. She went to Youngstown in 1909 to enter the employ of the Mazda Lamp Co. and has since resided in that city. She held the position of paying clerk with the Mazda Lamp Co. Miss Nancy McArthur and Miss Catherine McLarty, both teachers in Flint, motored here to spend Sunday, Feb. 11. Miss McLarty was the guest of her parents, and Miss McArthur visited her sister, Miss Margaret McArthur. A nephew of Miss McArthur, Gerritt Masselink, a student of the U. of M., came with them. The Bad Axe high school affirmative debating team debated with Cass City high school negative team here Tuesday afternoon. The Bad Axe team arrived on the four o'clock train from the north, coming directly to the school for the debate. Both sides realized that they were very closely matched, making an interesting conflict. Bad Axe star was Cornelius McIntyre, who is an exceptional debater. The judges' decision proved Bad Axe superior, being two to one in their favor. Rev. W. D. Braby and Mr. McFarlan from Caro and Miss Kellogg, head of the English department in the Gageton schools, judged the debate. The senior play "The Copperhead" which was to be presented at the opera house last week Monday and Tuesday and was postponed on account of the many cases of the grip in town, will be given Tuesday, February 27. As the play is a Lincoln drama, the dates were purposely set near Lincoln's birthday but the patriotism will appeal to everyone regardless of the time of its presentation. The reserved seat sale will be at the E. W. Jones' grocery store on Saturday from three to six and from eight to nine and from four to six Monday and Tuesday. A matinee will be given for children in the afternoon.

Mrs. E. Hunter returned this week from a few days' stay in Detroit. Miss Bertha Zemke, who has been visiting relatives in Caro, returned to Cass City this week. James Hutchinson from Elmwood was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Turner Wednesday. The Art Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Weldon enjoying a delightful afternoon. Mrs. John Somerville returned home Wednesday after spending some time with her daughter in Sandusky. Tuesday of last week eight young people were entertained at the home of the Misses Vera and Irma Flint at a delightful little party. The mission study classes at the M. E. church Sunday were abandoned on account of so much sickness. They will be resumed next Sabbath. Miss Bessie Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hayes of Orion, formerly of Cass City, was recently married to Jack Cole of that city. The early part of the week the doctors found themselves suddenly dependent on our faithful old friend, the horse, for means of transportation. Grant Pinney entertained Cornelius McIntyre and Sam Beauchamp, young men from Bad Axe and both members of the senior class debating team of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bricker entertained a few friends at a St. Valentine's party last Wednesday. The young people enjoyed the evening greatly in spite of the rough weather. Miss Teresa Lenaway of Bad Axe visited at the home of Miss Elyne Bigelow Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Lenaway is one of the members of the Bad Axe high school debating team. It took thirty-five town men Wednesday armed with snow shovels to level the four foot snow banks in the vicinity of the south river bridge before the road in that section was in condition for travel. There are many localities where the highways are in the same impassable state. Near the P. A. Koepfgen premises, west and north of town, it is reported, stand some heaps of snow deeper than have ever been known about this part of the country. On the Bethel road travellers have been obliged to drive long distances through the fields in order to reach Cass City. This state of affairs has not existed before for many years.

Bible Thoughts for the Week. Sunday. HOW TO OVERCOME EVIL.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; in honour to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.—Romans 12:10, 17, 21. Monday. EARTHLY TREASURES.—Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.—Matthew 6:19. Tuesday. SAVING GRACE.—By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God.—Ephesians 2:8. Wednesday. FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT.—Love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.—Gal. 5:22, 23. Thursday. LIFE AND GOOD DAYS.—He that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.—I Peter 3:10. Friday. SEEK TODAY.—Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.—Isaiah 55:6. Saturday. THE ETERNAL GOODNESS.—O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.—Psalm 107:1. The automobile speeders have not so far manifested any objection to having near sighted policemen.

Richard Lloyd Jones tells ABOUT TOWN BUILDING. WHEN Chicago burned, its bankers and builders were in despair, until its leading real estate operator, who at the time was in California, was reached by wire with the question, "What shall we do?" The one word answer came back, "BUILD." It was that faith in the future that remade the inter-ocean metropolis. Every city is as great as the faith of its staunchest citizens. No greater. The real asset of a city is not its past but its future. Complacency is as deadly to a community as to an individual. The town that waits to be discovered has hardly a gambler's chance of growth. The town that has discovered itself has opened future's door to greatness. The city that would find for itself a future must utilize the NEW and not the old. Each age demands improvement on the past. The merchant who so respects ancient methods that he ignores the newest ideas in merchandising, must lose his lead to the merchant who is eager to employ the latest in salesman efficiency. The town that holds fast to obsolete ideas and ideals surrenders supremacy. The community that expects to fall by accident into industrial greatness through no effort of its own, has a child-like faith in modern miracles, and has a little chance of its hope's fulfillment as has the youth who, by wishing, would see the river change to honey. The wish is worthless without the will. Imagine.

SEEK TON WEIGHT FOR BIG LITTERS. State Swine Raisers Start Unique Competition on March 1, with Opening of "Ton-Litter" Club. A total weight of a ton for a single litter of pigs, and within six months of time pigs are born, will be the aim of Michigan swine raisers in a unique contest which will be thrown open in the state on March 1, to be known as the "Michigan Ton Litter Club." The contest, which is being handled jointly by the leading swine breeders associations of the state and the animal husbandry department at the Michigan Agricultural College, is open to every farmer in the state, provided he follows out the prescribed rules of enrollment, marking, inspection, etc., required in the competition. Owners of all litters which reach a ton weight at six months of age will be awarded certificates in the contest, while prizes will be given in different weight classes that reach 1,600 pounds or more. "Large litters are essential for economical production," says V. A. Freeman, extension specialist at M. A. C. and state leader of the ton-litter clubs. "Good feeding mixtures and the use of minerals and good pasture, along with feeding for rapid gains, make for economy of production. Parasites and unsanitary conditions work against economy. These are the things which the ton-litter contest will bring out and emphasize in the state." Enrollments, which should be sent in at once to Mr. Freeman as leader of the clubs, will not be received after April 1. Detailed instructions and information on the contest will be sent out by the college extension division on request.

DEATH OF MRS. GEO. H. BANKS. Mrs. George H. Banks passed away at the home of her son, Charles Banks, at Ann Arbor, on Feb. 8. The body was brought to Evergreen township and the funeral was held at the Free Methodist church at Hay Creek. Interment was made at Elkland cemetery. Lovdy Mark was born in Cromwell, England, June 17, 1826. She was united in marriage with George Henderson Banks Aug. 3, 1850. They came to the states in 1869 and resided in Almer, Mich., until 1899, when they moved to Evergreen township, Sanilac county. Mr. Banks passed away on Dec. 17, 1911. Since that time Mrs. Banks has made her home with her son, Charles. The family moved from Evergreen township to Ann Arbor last fall. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Banks was blessed with eleven children. Eight of them survive the mother. They are Frederick Banks of Clare, Mich., John Banks of Bennett, Miss., Wm. Banks of Superior, Wis., Frank Banks of Fairgrove, Mich., Geo. Banks of Minnesota, Charles Banks of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Anna Henderson of Canada and Mrs. Caroline Fox of Sterling, Mich. Good Time Coming for Benny. We have often said of a certain little boy in the neighborhood whose mother is dead that his dad was both mother and father to him. The father married recently, and Benny, on hearing the news, clasped his hands and said: "I'm so glad for Benny; he'll have a woman mother now."—Exchange. Law That Never Fails. Short measure in the market-place may slightly increase the bank account for the time being, but will not in the long run. For out of human experience came the admonition: "With what measure ye mete, the same shall be meted unto you." Men are finding this so today.—Grit. How It Looked. "I've been down by the river," announced little Marjory, "and I saw a man sit there and drown three worms."

people invited. Evening preaching at 7:30. Special music by young people's chorus, good bright gospel singing, all yours for the accepting.

The pastor's address is one of vital interest to all. Theme: "What Kind of a Place Would Cass City Be Without Love?" Are we as a community growing loveless? What is there when love is gone? When love departs out of the world what is left. We sometimes sing "The world is dying for a little bit of love"—is this true?

No sentimental "stuff" but real "horse-sense," sound logic, pretty hard facts, but the gospel we all need, if we are going to make a better community—with less prejudice, hatred, and with more sincere affection for the brotherhood.

A hearty welcome to all. WILLIAM W. EDWARDS, Pastor.

Four Reasons Why You Should Buy Your Ford Car This Month

I. The unprecedented demand for Ford Cars throughout the winter months has taken the entire output of the Ford plants working at capacity, indicating that the demand this Spring will be far in excess of the number of Ford Cars that can possibly be built.

II. January was the tenth consecutive month in which retail deliveries exceeded 100,000 Ford Cars and Trucks. Requirements for February, the month when preparations are already under way for Spring business, called for 148,407 Cars and Trucks—more than 24,000 in excess of the number we can possibly produce.

III. Ford dealers in many parts of the country are already finding it necessary to specify future delivery dates on Ford Products because there are no reserve stocks to draw from.

IV. Your order placed now will protect you against delay or disappointment later on—It is the only way you can be assured of reasonably prompt delivery.

We consider it important to give you these facts, so that if you are planning to purchase a Ford Car, Truck or Fordson Tractor for use this Spring or Summer you can list your order at once and take advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery.

THE EDITOR MADE A MISTAKE.

The editors of small town papers are merely human, and they are therefore quite apt on sundry occasions to make mistakes. Such a man is the editor of the Glen Elder Sentinel, who said: "We made a mistake in last week's issue of The Sentinel. A good subscriber told us about it. The same day there was a letter in our postoffice box that didn't belong to us. We called for 98 over the phone and got 198. We asked for a spool of No. 50 thread and when we got home found that it was No. 60. The train was reported thirty minutes late. We arrived at the depot twenty minutes after train time and the train had gone. We got the milk bill and there was a mistake of 10 cents in our favor. We felt sick and the doctor said we were eating too much meat. We hadn't tasted meat for two months. The garage man said the jitney was missing because it needed a new timer. We cleaned a spark plug and it's run fine ever since. Yes, we made a mistake in last week's paper."
