STUDY BEET GROWING IN TUSCOLA CO.

U. S. TARIFF COMMISSION COLLECTS DATA FROM SEVERAL HUNDRED FARMERS.

The United States Tariff Commission has begun a study of the cost of growing sugar beets in Michigan. A group of ten employees of the commission began work in Shiawassee county last Tuesday and will proceed to Caro Saturday of this week, or a few days thereafter. The commission's field men plan to interview personally several hundred farmers in various townships of this county and obtain from them answers to a list of questions covering all the items entering into the cost of sugar beets.

The United States Department of Agriculture and the Michigan Agricultural College, as well as the county agricultural agents are cooperating with the Tariff Commission in this work.

The purpose of this investigation is to obtain information for the use of Congress and the Tariff Commission in fixing the import duty on sugar. The commission is not concerned over controversies between the growers of sugar beets and the factories, but will make every effort to obtain cost data which will be impartial and representative of conditions now existing in this area.

Local Poultry Farm Takes Three Firsts and Other Prizes at the State Fair.

At the state fair which is in full swing this week at Detroit, the six entries of Leghorns made by the Landon Poultry Farm of Cass City were placed among the prize winners, taking three firsts, one third and two fourth premiums.

As an experiment, a few choice birds were selected and entered in their different classes and the Landons are very much pleased with the results, as the competition was very keen in the Leghorn classes, and many breeders from the western part of the state where the baby chick industry is carried on extensively were there with several entries in each class.

Landon's S. C. White Leghorn cock bird which has an egg record of 280 eggs for one year behind him was given first in the production class. Their S. C. Buff Leghorn cock bird also received first premium in his class. The other first prize which they received was on an S. C. Buff Leghorn pullet. This is the pullet that was shown at the Cass City fair and among a few of the early layers in this section, laying her first egg at the age of 3 months and 26 days.

The other three entries were placed as follows: 3rd and 4th on S. C. White Leghorn cockerels and 4th on S. C. Buff Leghorn cock.

A pen of S. C. Buff Leghorn hens were also entered in the laying contest which is one of the interesting features in the big poultry building. The contest continues through the 10 days of the fair which closes Sunday evening at seven o'clock. At the close of the 4th day, the Landon pen was two eggs behind the leading pen. There are 23 pens entered in this contest.

This showing is considered very good when the number of entries were so small. Another year, a larger line may be shown by the Landon Poultry Farm.

IMPORTANT BUT FEW GAME LAW CHANGES

Duck Shooting Season Opens Sept. 16 and Continues to Dec. 31, Inclusive.

Several important additions and changes were made by the last state legislature in the game and fish laws of Michigan.

Contrary to the general belief there has been no open season declared on male Chinese Ring-necked pheasants. Their hunting is still prohibited.

The open season on ruffed grouse, commonly called partridge, has been changed in the Upper Peninsula to Oct. 15 to Nov. 9, inclusive. The season in the Lower Peninsula remains from Oct. 15 to Nov. 20, inclusive. Bob White or quail remain protected indefinitely but are still classed as game birds. The season on Sora Rail opens Sept. 16, instead of Sept. 1. Cotton tailed rabbits may now be hunted until Jan. 31.

The season on ducks and coots opens Sept. 16 and closes Dec. 31. The bag limit is 25 in one day. It is also unlawful to have ducks in possession more than 10 days after the season closes. Ducks may be hunted one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

The season on geese and brant is the same as that for ducks. The bag limit is as follows: 15 in one day; 6 in possession at one time; 25 in one season.

VASSAR LEAGUERS WIN TWO FROM CASS CITY

Vassar Leaguers defeated the Cass City team twice within the past week. On Friday afternoon, on the local diamond, the southern team had things pretty much their own way. Frequent hitting by the visitors combined with many errors by local players gave Vassar a long lead. The score:

Vassar 2 1 3 2 1 0 5 0 2—16

These two teams put up a better game at the tournament at Fairgrove on Labor Day when Vassar won by a 7-3 score. Cass City players are credited with 8 hits and Vassar 16.

of the happy fellowship we had with the Cass City people.

"Although we have been absent from Cass City for nearly three years and a great geographical distance separates us, yet we feel close to our warmhearted friends, and are always interested in the things that interest them.

"Possibly you have heard of the severe sickness through which I have passed. On Apr. 30, I had my left kidney removed at the Rockefeller hospital in Peking. The operation was performed by a specialist in this line of surgery, Dr. George Y. Char. He is a Chinese gentleman, who was born in Honolulu and educated there. He took his medical course at Harvard and then practiced his special line of surgery in two New York hospitals. When Mr. John D. Rockefeller and son gave that magnificent gift of six million dollars for these medical school and hospital buildings at Peking a few years ago, Dr. Char's services were secured for this hospital where he can work chiefly among the people of his own nationality. Rockefeller and son also pay over a million a year for the maintenance of the school and hospital. The hospital ranks as one of the best in the world with a staff of specialists in all lines of surgery and medical practice. It is a great boon to Americans and Europeans who reside in China as well as to thousands of Chinese who receive medical and surgical treatment there annually. Had it not been for

Warner, manager of the Cass City Oil and Gas Co., says: "Last week we sold 12,000 gallons of gas, 6,000 gallons of kerosene, 300 gallons of lubricating oil and $250 worth of tires and tubes, making the largest business of any one week since we commenced business. Total sales amounted to approximately $3,300 per day."

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. James Peddie pleasantly surprised the newly-weds by giving them a reception Tuesday evening. Each person brought a basket filled with delicious eatables and many added to the refreshments lovely presents. Not only did Mr. and Mrs. Peddie appreciate the kind greeting but everyone set about to enjoy themselves and accomplished it easily.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fairweather of Imlay City and their daughter, Mrs. Roy Gifford of Toronto with her two children greeted Cass City friends here Monday. Myers of the Chicago Athletic club won first place at the Chicago meet last week, going 13 ft., 1 in.

Miss Lena Gallagher gave a very absorbing talk on her trip to Alaska at the M. E. Sunday School Sunday. Among other interesting facts, she stated that no concrete is used in Alaska, but wood is used entirely as a substitute. Even the roads are made of wooden slabs placed one on top of the other. She related how she passed a road which was just being constructed and asked one of the workmen why he did not send some of that wood which was apparently being wasted to some of the other states upon which he replied that if we would send up all the apples which we allow to rot under our trees they would in turn send back the lumber we desired.

this hospital I would doubtless have been obliged to come home to U. S. A. for treatment. This way I hope to spend the months of convalescence here, and resume my missionary work upon complete recovery.

"For ten weeks after this severe operation I occupied a private room in the hospital, and Dr. Char as well as the chief surgeon, Dr. Taylor, gave me daily attention. By July 9th, I had recovered sufficiently to be able to travel, so we came here to Kuling, our mountain missionary summer home. We traveled on a fast train from Peking to Hankow, a distance of 800 miles, requiring two days and one night. The road bed not being any too smooth, the jolting of that train was a bit rough on a fellow with a big operation wound in the side still trying to heal. But we came through without any difficulty, and are greatly delighted to be up here among our many friends and acquaintances where the summer climate is agreeable.

"Since my operation wound is tardy in healing completely, it looks as if I would be spending the autumn and possibly also the winter months here at this health resort for convalescence. There is a small private hospital here and also a medical mission doing work all the year among the Chinese population. Besides the American school and the British school, a goodly number of people spend the year here among the mountains recovering from

CHAS. SCHENCK INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Had Three Ribs Broken When Automobiles Collide East of Reese Sunday.

While driving from his home in Saginaw to visit Cass City relatives Sunday morning, Chas. Schenck received three cracked ribs, a serious artery cut in one hand, and many sore spots and bruises in an automobile accident at Carr's Corners, six miles east of Reese, and is now a patient in a Saginaw hospital. Nicholas Retzler of Detroit received a broken arm and several other persons minor injuries.

Mr. Schenck driving east in a Studebaker touring car had his automobile hit "amidship" by a Ford sedan driving north as they were passing a highway intersection. The Studebaker went into the ditch and turned over twice. Mrs. Schenck and two children were with Mr. Schenck and the three received many bruises but escaped serious injury.

His right arm broken and seriously cut about the chest and abdomen, Chas. Carney was lifted from a gravel machine, into which he was blown, by fellow workers. Carney, who was working on a gravel machine in a pit six miles south of Sandusky, leaned over the top of the machine to release a stone that was caught in the screen; the high wind which was blowing at the time, unbalanced him and he fell into the machinery. The machinery was brought to a stop before his body was ground by the cogs.—Republican.

Dr. C. O. Campbell, dentist, of Bay City, formerly of Unionville, died recently in Ontario. While playing ball at a family reunion July 4, the doctor fell and broke a leg. Failure of the break to mend prompted an X-ray examination, which disclosed a ligament between the two pieces of bone. The doctor died from shock resulting from the operation that was deemed necessary to correct the trouble.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Sanilac County Red Cross Chapter held Aug. 27, it was voted to continue the nursing program for at least six months, and longer if the board of supervisors will assist. Miss Norma Eskil, county health nurse, is being urged to remain.

160 ENROLL IN HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY

MORE PUPILS EXPECTED; DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPT. ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

When the school bell rang Tuesday morning, it called to studies about 160 pupils in the high school and from 21 to 45 to each of the under grades. Supt. Holmes states that although he expects more pupils to come in before next week, he feels that the present enrollment is exceedingly good considering the fact that about 15 more students graduated last year than have previously.

The fresh paint throughout the buildings pleased the students greatly as the work has been needed for some time. Many changes have been made among which the new agricultural and domestic science rooms are the most outstanding improvements. A partition dividing the laboratory into two parts will be built Saturday, the front section to be used for the agricultural department for which quite a little new equipment has been purchased.

However, the thing that is new and novel always draws one's attention first so a visitor turns to the home economics department which is under the direction of Miss Smith. This division of study will be taken up in two departments: 1st, domestic science (being given the first semester); 2nd, domestic art (being offered during the last term). Under domestic science, the following heads are included:

A—Dietetics and nutrition. (Study of food and relation to health. What we should eat to keep well). 1. Needs of the family. 2. Food economy. 3. Marketing with an eye for saving. 4. Fruit and vegetable preserving.
B—Breakfast unit. 1. Beverages. 2. Fruit. 3. Cereals. 4. Division of food. 5. Etiquette (table setting and serving).

C—Luncheon unit. 1. Serving of luncheon. 2. Preparation and serving of hot lunch. This will be done in connection with other domestic science lessons.

Beginning in November, two girls will be responsible for the luncheon each day. One hot dish and perhaps salad and dessert will be served to the pupils as the work develops. The card system will be used and anyone wishing to furnish foods, vegetables, and milk for hot lunch will be given credit for this food on their meal. Lunches will cost from six cents to 20 cents, the cafeteria plan being used. Pupils preferring to help with dishes and clearing away will be allowed so much on their lunch.

D—Dinner division. (This course is offered to seniors only). 1. Meat cookery. 2. Pastry cookery. 3. Fancy salads. 4. Fancy desserts. 5. Nutrition (Balanced menus).

The following is an outline of the domestic art program for the second semester:

A—Study of design. 1. Applying it to clothing. 2. Applying it to color.
B—Study of budgets. 1. Clothing for school girl. 2. What to wear and where to wear it. 3. Making accessories. 4. Making of five garments which introduce all simple principles. Making of graduating dresses for senior girls.

Four classes of this subject are being offered; one to the seventh grade, one to the eighth grade, another to ninth, tenth and eleventh grades and one to the seniors.

The splendid equipment in the rooms used for this course will accommodate 24 girls at once. Mrs. Edward Pinney is to be thanked for the careful supervision of the remodeling and buying equipment.

At present, the kindergarten is situated in the pleasant rooms above the Copland confectionery store, extra space being demanded by the "home econ" department in the school building.

To attack men's opinions that we don't like and do it openly is manly, but to try to destroy them secretly is cowardly, and especially so in religious matters. If I ask the privilege of believing as I see fit and will not grant that privilege to fellow men then I am not a good citizen for that is the doctrine of our constitution. Any class or course that arraigns one religion against another is wrong and should not be tolerated in a government of the people. How can we be a government of the people unless we have equal rights? If the other man's doctrine is better than mine, let the people have it; if poorer, let them reject it, but let each one be his own judge, for to "convince a man against his will, he is of the same opinion still."

Geographical isolation makes the Railroads of Michigan a transportation system like that of no other state. Most of our traffic either originates or ends in Michigan.

Bridge the Great Lakes with car-ferries and tunnel under the mighty connecting rivers, though we may, such accomplishments merely better our service to you; we are Michigan Railroads more than trans-continental traffic lines. Our train schedules are for Michigan, not for New York and San Francisco.

To a degree greater than any other state, Michigan's welfare, and the welfare of her Railroads, are therefore one and inseparable. You cannot fall back on trans-continental lines for emergency help; we must always rely on you for our chief support.

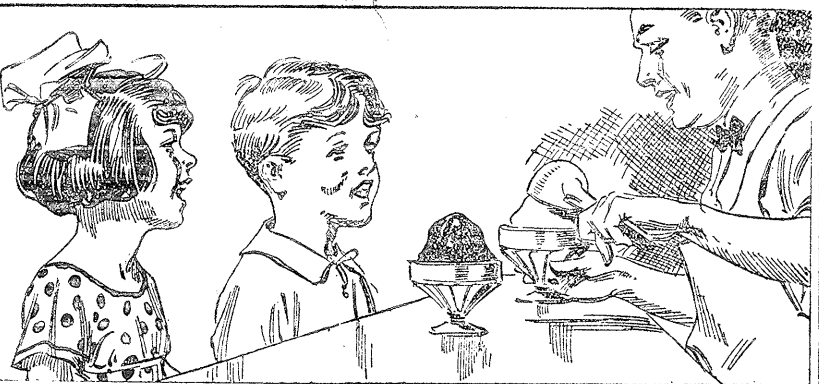

We can prosper only together.

Because of this mutual dependence, the twenty-four Railroads operating in Michigan have formed this Association with the purpose of strengthening the relations of the Railroads with the People of the State, by providing you with a clearing house for the exchange of ideas, relative to the transportation problems so vital to the prosperity of our Peninsular State.

We invite your suggestions toward bringing about a better understanding and closer cooperation between the Public and the Railroads. Communicate with this Association.

An Official Statement by the Governor of South Dakota

On August 29, Governor McMaster, of South Dakota, issued the following statement:—

"At a meeting with Colonel Stewart, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and other Standard Oil Officials, held in Pierre this morning, Mr. Stewart expressed unqualifiedly the willingness of Standard Oil to comply with the wishes of the consumers of the State of South Dakota in so far as those wishes could be expressed and interpreted by the governor of this state. These Standard officials, although they contend that the present prices do not properly reflect the costs of production, refining and distribution, plus a reasonable profit, were willing, at my request, to do one of two things—raise the price of gasoline immediately in the State of South Dakota where it would represent a six and six-tenths cent reduction over former prices, or maintain, for the time being, sixteen cent gasoline in the State of South Dakota, using Mitchell as a base.

"After due consideration, the Standard Oil officials were asked by the governor to maintain the present price of 16 cents for the time being. I wish to accept full responsibility for this situation and state that Standard Oil, by deed and act, is working in fullest co-operation with the governor of this state and therefore can in no respect be blamed for 16 cents gasoline from this date.

"I realize that the independents who have viciously assailed and attacked me will raise bitter complaint against this condition. However, after due consideration and investigation, I wish to say that if the former gasoline prices of this state were excessive, the independents of this state were just as responsible for that condition and were just as guilty of taking excess profits as was Standard Oil.

"At no time during the period which former gasoline prices prevailed did any independent of this state raise one objection or bring one complaint to this office in an effort to bring about any reduction in price but they were perfectly willing to profit to the fullest extent.

"I realize that all sorts of charges will be made against me because of this action, but in view of the fact that gasoline can be purchased at various refineries today for approximately seven cents a gallon, it will not work injury to the public cause if the Independents are forced for the time being to do business on a small margin of profit. There is no particular reason why the State Government should guarantee to the Independent Oil Dealers of this state, at least for the time being, fixed profits, especially in view of the fact that they were perfectly willing and were a party to take excessive profits from the people."

This clearly defines the position which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has maintained throughout this controversy.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Cass City people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on their statements.

O. A. Withey, farmer, Main street, Cass City, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on and they always give me wonderful relief from backache. I had a lame back brought on by continuous stooping and hard work. I suffered from a dull ache over my kidneys and they acted irregularly. My kidneys were so weak and I was so run down that twenty minutes' work in the field used me up and I had to sit down and rest. Mornings when I got up I had such a backache I could hardly get around to do my work and I felt tired and languid all day. After taking a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was rid of these awful backaches and my strength returned so I could do any amount of work."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Withey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement

Dear Editor:
Feeling that I have been imposed upon by the charges that were recently made when I had occasion to have some abstracting done, I want to ask you and any others who may happen to have had a similar experience why should every county have an abstract office composed of persons who are not county officials?

Not to have county officials do this work which is in a nature public work, at least the public is interested in it, seems to me to be the wrong system. After the abstracting is done you are not sure that it is correct and unless the work is done by a concern that guarantees its work there may be grievous mistakes with no come-back by the one who had to pay the high abstracting fees.

I cannot but help thinking that our system is fundamentally wrong and should be corrected. The two glaring faults of our present method is that of the outrageous charges, and then of the fact that you do not know that your abstract is correct. I recently had occasion to get an abstract of eight acres of land which lies partly in the Village of Cass City and partly in Elkland township, outside of Cass City. I went to Caro and called at the recording office only to be told that I would have to go to the abstract office. These people wrote the abstract and then forwarded it to one of the Cass City banks with a charge of fifty dollars. Now money talks and it is this charge of fifty dollars that is making me talk because such a charge can only be described as exorbitant, and even then what I have isn't worth much and I am not sure that it is correct.

Now I want to ask you, what is the value of this abstract and wasn't the charge of fifty dollars altogether too much. Let some interested person answer this, even some practical abstracter.

A certain good business man has just told me that I should have had the abstract cover only the last twenty years. That seems strange to me; it is like telling them what to do, that is to tell them just what to put in the abstract. To my mind such a paper would not be at all complete and would not tell the whole story of that particular piece of land. I may be wrong, and if so, I am ready to be enlightened; that's why I have solicited answers to my questions. To have the abstract curtailed would, no doubt, also curtail the cost, but it would also curtail the narrative as to whose hands the land has gone through and this might be objectionable to some future buyer. Again I solicit enlightenment.

I can not see why the clerks in the abstract office could not have gone to the recorder's office and there secured the records regarding the piece of land and then transferred these records of the abstract books in a very short time. In regard to my eight acres, I'm sure this could have been done in much less than 1/2 day and that much work certainly would not have cost anything like fifty dollars. If it would, the abstracting charges certainly need revising downward, like some other things the public has to pay for.

Other lands have different systems which work out perfectly and with none of the abuses which I have tried to point out which are so apparent in our American way of doing this work. Ontario has a much more direct and responsible method and when you get an abstract there from the proper government office you know you have something that is correct and will stand any test. I am not a knocker to tear down, but a constructive one, and when I think I see an evil I want to be shown that I am wrong or else do something to remedy the defect. That's what we all should do, and I think you will agree with me. Abstracting costs our people millions of dollars annually with no adequate return as I can see.

None of us should object to paying well for a real service but when we have to hand out our dollars for a practical value, I think it is time we made a change. But even granting that an abstract is necessary, and also that it is executed correctly, why can not some means be adopted so we can have an abstract made without the present exorbitant charges being attached to it? That is the crux of the whole question and the whole country is ready to give any man a high place who can suggest some adequate and practical scheme whereby abstracts can be obtained that are dependable and at reasonable cost. I am

Yours truly,
EPH. KNIGHT.

REV. BUTZBACH ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Concluded from first page. sickness. So we will probably swell the ranks this year. "We were fortunate in getting here to Kuling in time for our annual mission meeting of our East Hunan Mission. I attended some of the business sessions, as well as a number of important committee meetings which for my convenience were held at our home at my bedside. But the important date of the season was Aug. 1 when the marriage of the two missions of the Evangelical Church in China transpired. The joint meeting of all Evangelicals here at Kuling this summer, thirty-six in number, was held here at our bungalow, and as the late Theodore Roosevelt would have said we had a "bully time." The union of our church at home was effected at the Detroit conference last October, but owing to unavoidable administrative delays, the union of our two missions in China was put off until this date. We are very happy, and of course it is always delightful for people who love each other to work in close co-operation.

"Some of you may wonder how it happens that the Chinese bandits did not get us while traveling about in China. Well they probably knew that it would be very close picking anyway if they should get us, and then too, hitched to the rear end of the train on which we came from Peking to Hankow were two freight car loads of bugling soldier guards, about 70 of them, and they evidently succeeded in scaring and keeping the bandits away from our train, although we traveled right through the bandit infested districts of Honan province (not Hunan.)"

MRS. W. J. ELSEY.

Mrs. W. J. Elsey passed away at a Detroit hospital on Saturday, Sept. 1. Funeral services were held at the Eucharistic church on Tuesday and the remains were laid to rest in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Rev. Fr. Stapleton officiated at the funeral.

Helen Elizabeth Linck was born in Burnside township, Lapeer county, Sept. 2, 1878. In 1903, she was wedded to W. J. Elsey. Four children came to bless this home and all remain to mourn a kind and loving mother. The children are Walter, Jr., Mary Ann, Sylvester G., and Helen Catherine. She also leaves four brothers and three sisters, John H., Peter W., and Leo, all of Detroit, and S. J. Linck of Ravama, Mich., Miss Marie Linck and Mrs. Martha Nelken of Detroit and Mrs. W. J. Martus of Cass City.

Mrs. Elsey was loved and respected by all who knew her and will be greatly missed by her companion, children, brothers, sisters and a host of friends.

Riddell of Columbus, O., a lecturer, author, psychologist and Christian teacher, Rev. A. Giuliani of Milwaukee, Wis., superintendent of the Italian work of the church in that city, and C. M. Cook, a business man of Bay City.

ENVIES SMALL TOWN MAN.

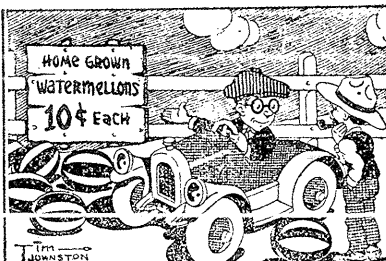

J. N. Simmons returned to Detroit last Friday after spending a week visiting relatives and friends here. Jim had a wonderful time meeting old timers and recalling reminiscences of the early days. He is now employed in the U. S. Internal Revenue office in Detroit, but envies the man who lives in the small town, far from the thugs, pickpockets and bandits of the large city. Jim says Detroit has become so congested that a dog can't wag his tail sideways, but is compelled to wag it up and down.—Decker-ville Recorder.

"Turn Again."

Dick Whittington and his cat are known to every British child. How they were leaving London and heard Bow bells ring "turn again Whittington," and how he did return to fame and fortune. Yet Italy, Brittany, Norway and Russia have similar tales with a differently named hero. Did they borrow them from us? The same story appeared in a book written by a Persian about 60 years before our Dick Whittington was born.
