

SUNDAY SCHOOL HYMN CONTEST

TO BE CONDUCTED IN THE FOUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF CASS CITY.

Feeling that there is a great need for more knowledge of the good old hymns of the Christian church, the Cass City Music Club has prepared plans for a local campaign to be called "The Sunday School Hymn Contest." This is to be conducted in the four Sunday Schools of the village in much the same way that the schools have been sponsoring the regular memory contests during the past few years.

Twenty-five hymns have been chosen for study which represent the greatest and best hymns of the Christian church. They should be known by every child in the home as well as in the Sunday School.

For this contest, the children will be divided into three groups as follows: 1st—Fourth and fifth grades. 2nd—Sixth, seventh, eighth grades. 3rd—High school. If the Sunday School is not graded as to the school grades, it should be remembered that the day school grading is the one used in the contest.

At the contest, the hymns will be played by a single instrument such as a piano or organ. Children will be asked to write down the title of the hymn, author and composer. The children will also be asked to learn the first two verses of the hymns, the verses only being required in three or four hymns, which will be selected by the examiner. This contest will fall during the last of May but drilling and preparation will begin at the several churches next Sunday.

The list below gives first the title of the hymn and then the tune.

1. Abide With Me—Eventide.
2. How Firm a Foundation—Portuguese.
3. All Hail the Power of Jesus Name—Coronation.
4. Blest Be the Tie That Binds.—Boylston.
5. Come Thou Almighty King.—Italian.
6. Faith of Our Fathers.—St. Catherine.
7. From All that Dwell Below the Skies.—Old Hundred.
8. He Leadeth Me.—He Leadeth Me.
9. Holy, Holy, Holy.—Nicaea.
10. In the Cross of Christ I Glory.—Rathbun.
11. Jesus Lover of My Soul.—Martyn.
12. Joy to the World.—Antioch.
13. Just As I Am.—Woodworth.
14. Lead Kindly Light.—Lux Benigna.
15. Love Divine, All Love Excelling.—Love Divine, All Love Excelling.
16. My Faith Looks Up to Thee.—Olivet.
17. Nearer My God to Thee.—Bethany.
18. Onward Christian Soldiers.—St. Gertrude.
19. Rock of Ages—Toplady.
20. Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us.—Bradbury.
21. Silent Night, Holy Night.
22. The Son of God Goes Forth to War.—Cutter.
23. Savior Again to Thy Dear Name We Raise.—Eilers.
24. Sun of My Soul.—Hursley.
25. Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult.—Jude.

All these hymns may be found in the hymnals of the four local Protestant churches. The program which the club has outlined has been recommended by the General Federation of Women's Club's music division and is similar to other programs that are being put on in many places.

Prizes to the winners in each group will be given by each Sunday School and similar prizes by the Music Club. Other special prizes will also be awarded. However these have not yet been decided upon.

ARTHUR WALKER FIRST INTRAMURAL POLE VAULT

Is One of the Best Men on the Michigan State Normal Track Team.

Two Cass City boys competed in the intramural indoor meet at the Michigan State Normal College Feb. 20. Arthur Walker took first in the pole vault with 10 ft. 3 in. and Donald Seed took third with 9 ft. 3 in.

Walker is one of the best men on the Michigan State Normal track team.

PICKS FOUR GREATEST MEN OF 20TH CENTURY

Pres. Marion L. Burton, of the University of Michigan, believes that the four greatest men of the twentieth century are Theodore Roosevelt, Henry Ford, Thomas A. Edison, and Orville Wright. The men named were selected because of their service to society.

Mr. Edison was named because of his inventive genius; Mr. Ford because of his industrial achievements and the sociological value of his product; Roosevelt for his statesmanship and ability as a leader of men; and Mr. Wright for his creative achievement in the scientific field in the development of the flying machine.

President Burton feels that the War is too recent to enable one accurately to judge the work of the men concerned with it. He considered Wilson and Lloyd George, however, close contenders for a position equal to that of the four named.

NEW TRUNK LINE MARKERS ON STATE HIGHWAYS

State Highway Department Putting Up New Signs.

Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, has announced a new system of trunk line warning signs which will be put up in the lower peninsula beginning Apr. 1 and in the upper peninsula beginning March 1. Twenty thousand of the signs will be posted, the work to be completed July 1.

The present diamond shaped markers and mileage posts will not be changed and with the addition of the new warning signs Michigan will have a new system of state trunk line markers second to none. The sign just adopted by the state highway department has been approved by eight other state members of the Mississippi Valley association of highway departments. G. G. Dillman, deputy commissioner, has been active at recent meetings of the association in support of this type of sign.

The signs will have a white background with black up-raised lettering. Twenty-one different signs will be used.

Square signs mean caution, such as no parking, loose gravel, school buildings, etc.

Diagonal signs mean a warning such as slow curves, trunk line junction, hills, narrow roads, etc.

Two hexagonal signs will be used, one of them to denote through trunk line passage and the other to be a stop signal to be used on approaching a trunk line. The through signs will be placed on the trunk lines at road intersections.

Round signs will mark the approach to a single track crossing. A round sign with one line through the center will mean the approach to a single track crossing and one with two lines through the center will mean the crossing will have two or more tracks.

FLEMING AND SMITH LISTED AMONG WINNERS

Cass City Men Help Western Normal Win Indoor Meet from the M. A. C.

Again Western State Normal took all three places in the shot put and third place went to Pearl Fleming when the Kalamazoo teachers engaged M. A. C. in a dual indoor track meet at East Lansing last Saturday.

No Aggie shot putter could cope with the weight men on the Normal squad and the team of which Fleming is a member defeated M. A. C. much the same as it did Ohio Wesleyan University the week before. The score for the meet was 56 to 30.

Harry Smith of Cass City, who failed to qualify for the Ohio Wesleyan meet, came in third in the 40-yard dash. He won his "W" on the Kalamazoo track team last year.

TO ORGANIZE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY HERE MAR. 5

The next meeting of the Adams-Seger Post, American Legion, will be held on Wednesday, Mar. 5, at the M. E. church. Women eligible to membership are requested to be present to organize a women's auxiliary.

Supper will be served to Legion members and ladies interested in the organization of the auxiliary. Those wishing to attend the supper are requested to call either Clarence Burt or A. H. Kinnaird before Saturday night.

Gov. Groesbeck says: "From my observation the American Legion is a most worthy organization. It has accomplished much that is of benefit and the longer it exists the more good I believe it will bring about. It should not be a difficult matter for the organization to secure the application of every man entitled to a place on its rolls. Through a greater membership you will not only be able to better your own conditions but can be of much more assistance in every effort which has for its purpose a better and more patriotic citizenship."

Sugar beet growers are now receiving their 1923 bonus checks. The Sebawaing factory has paid out $93,000 in bonuses for the year's crop. Payment of the bonus is computed on the average price of sugar during November, December and January and this year amounts to $2.29 per ton. This brings the price of beets to the grower who delivered direct to the plant to about $10 per ton. A change has been made in the contract in that the company guarantees $7 per ton of beets instead of $6 as the original contract read.—Sebawaing Blade.

"Letters" of two sizes were presented, the larger or six inch "letter" going to the eight who were active players in the season's games. The smaller five inch "letters" were presented to 14 reserve men. These tokens of honor are cherished by the athletic club members not only because of their significance but also because of their beauty.

THREE MICHIGAN TRACK STARS PLACED ON MYTHICAL TEAMS

James Brooker of Cass City Selected for Pole Vault on All-College Team.

(From the Michigan Daily).

Two members of Michigan's 1923 track squad and one member of the 1922 squad were among the athletes to be selected on the All-American and All-college track teams for 1922 by Frederick W. Rueben, secretary of the American Olympic committee, according to the latest edition of Spaulding's official almanac. DeHart Hubbard, for broad jumping, and Howard Hoffman, in the javelin throw were the two men selected on the All-American squad while in addition to these men James Brooker was selected for the pole vault on the All-College team.

DeHart Hubbard was selected in the broad jump principally because of his showing in the National A. A. U. championships held at Stagg field, Chicago, last September, when he made a jump of 24 feet 7 3/4 inches, beating out some of the best jumpers in the country, including Bob Legendre of the Newark A. C. and E. O. Gourdin, holder of the world's record for the event. Hubbard also is regarded as the foremost hop-skip-and-jumper of the country. His best record for the broad jump is 25 feet 4 inches, made in practice on Ferry Field and therefore not an official record. The present record in the event is 25 feet 3 inches.

Howard Hoffman, a member of the Varsity track team in 1922 was also selected on both the collegiate team and the All-American. During his career at Michigan he consistently threw the wand better than 190 feet and was holder of the Western Conference record at 202 feet, 3 inches, until last year when Angiers, of Illinois, established his record of 203 feet, 5 inches. Since his graduation from college Hoffman has been performing under the tri-color of I. A. C. and has been a consistent performer, being selected over Angiers, of Illinois, for that reason. He won the event in the National A. U. U. championships in Chicago last fall with a heave of 194 feet, 7 1/2 inches.

The third selection to represent Michigan on the All-college team is James Brooker, star pole vaulter on the Varsity squad for the past two seasons. Last season he was regarded as the foremost college performer in America and is expected to be a consistent point winner for the Michigan squad during the coming season. He was not defeated in a single meet last year up until the Western Conference outdoor meet last spring and was a consistent 12 foot jumper. At the National Collegiate Athletic association meet held at Stagg field last June, he tied McKnown, of the Kansas State Teachers college at 12 feet, 11 inches. His only defeat of the season came at the Big Ten meet at Ferry field when Brownell of Illinois leaped 13 feet, 3-4 inch, breaking an intercollegiate record.

Clayton Palmer Tells of Odd Experience at Barbados Island

Clayton Palmer of Gagetown, enroute to Santo Amaro, Brazil, wrote the following letter to friends regarding his trip.

S. S. "Vauban," Thanksgiving Day, November 29, 1923.

Dear Folks:

Thanksgiving day on the ocean! Seems and feels queer to think of cold snappy weather in Michigan and hot summer heat here. For we're rolling along through the tropics and will soon reach the equator and it is so warm that we've all just about wilted today. We certainly had a nice dinner this evening. I must say, Hurrah for the British, for they got up a regular Thanksgiving dinner, even prepared individual menus.

The temperature as recorded today is 80 degrees air and 82 water. So you can imagine what it must be on land. We've left Barbados and are now sailing due east, southeast to be exact and are making for a point off South America where we will begin to make back west and south. I mailed you a long letter at Barbados yesterday and have nine days in which to prepare this as Rio is our next stop and first opportunity to send mail.

Now for some details about our visit at the Island of Barbados. Reached the island at 10 yesterday morning. I say reached the island but they had to anchor out about a mile from shore as it was too shallow for our liner to navigate. Before we had run out our anchor we saw a score of small row boats making for us from shore. Then off to one side fully as many dugouts coming our way. Why they got in plain view, we saw they were manned by naked darkies (with the exception

NEW TEACHERS' LAW IN EFFECT NEXT YEAR

IMPORTANT POINTS IN NEW RULING GIVEN BY SCHOOL COMMISSIONER.

W. H. Sparling, Huron county's school commissioner, in response to letters received at his office regarding the new teachers' certificate law, gives the salient points of the new ruling which becomes operative Sept. 1, 1925.

The law provides that on and after that date, to receive a certificate a person must have had at least one year of professional training in addition to the completion of an approved four-year high school course. This does not mean, however, that all persons who have not complied with the above requirements by Sept. 1, 1925, must quit teaching. There are important exceptions as follows:

1. Any teacher who can furnish proof of having taught five years previous to August 1925, the last three years of which were continuous, may have a renewal of a certificate without completing the professional training if such teacher has been continuously and successfully teaching and has attained an average of 85 per cent on two previous examinations.

2. Any person holding a third grade, a second grade or a first grade certificate, renewable because the person has had the required average as stated above, may have a third grade or a second grade renewed by completing twelve weeks of professional training and may have a first grade certificate renewed by completing 18 weeks of professional training.

Who will be compelled to quit on Sept. 1, 1925? A person who cannot qualify under any of the above requirements. Or in other words, any person who has not taught five years previous to August 1925 or who does not hold a renewable certificate under (2) above.

One important feature of the law is that after September 1, 1925, no regular teachers' examinations shall be held and the county commissioner may not grant special certificates. The law provides that in the event of a shortage of teachers when the law becomes operative, the superintendent of public instruction may hold a special examination in any county where it may be necessary. Candidates taking this examination are only required to have six weeks of professional training.

The last regular teachers' examinations will be held in April and August 1925. Third grade certificates, second grade certificates and first grade certificates issued in April or August of that year, will run for one, three and four years respectively, under the law as it is operative today.

Certificates That Will Be Issued Under the New Law.

Third Grade—A person who completes one year of professional work is granted a third grade certificate by Turn to page 4.

CLAYTON PALMER TELLS OF VISIT AT BARBADOS ISLAND

Concluded from first page.

Old Fords about 1912 model but shining like new. I saw Chevrolets, Willys-Knights, Studebakers and a Buick. All right hand drives too. And they drive on the opposite side of the street from us. The sidewalks were 2½ feet wide but most of the people walked in the street. Everywhere were native women carrying huge loads on their heads. How they balanced them I don't know. And beggars! Will tell you about them later. My darkey boatman and his two assistants were right with me all the time. I said I wanted to look around a little so they took me down Broad St. Hot! You never saw heat in the U. S. come up to this. White dust everywhere and the Englishmen dressed in white with white helmets. I felt foolish in my blue suit and warm cap. I bought a new straw hat and I felt better wearing that down the street and my darkey carried my cap. Well, I hadn't paid any attention to my other boatmen and when one nudged me and asked for a coin I passed one over without looking. I hadn't gone but a few steps when my boatman said someone wanted me. I turned around and there was another colored fellow and well dressed and had one of the ragged darkeys by the arm. I did not know one from another and did not know what the fellow wanted and couldn't understand him, but my pilot said, "He is a detective and wants to know if this fellow is annoying you." It was then explained that the fellow I had given the coin to was not our boatman at all but one of the many beggars who saw a chance and joined with us and I never knew the difference. The detective wanted to arrest him but I told him he wasn't bothering me and so he let him go. A crowd had gathered around and several donkey carts stopped and an auto and all were staring at our little circle with great attention. In fact I was stared at more than I have been for a long time but I don't think I looked or acted any more queer than the islanders themselves. It was so hot that I was glad to get into our rowboat and go back to the Vauban. After stepping on the gang plank, I paid my boy with American money which pleased him.

I could spend a day at Barbados looking around, for it is different than anything I have ever seen. They say the residential district is beautiful and so it looked from the boat—palms everywhere. At the very end of the island a white lighthouse stood strikingly. I watched them load trunks and boxes in a big boat, also propelled by long oars by four men each standing on a corner of this square or rather rectangular boat. How they jabbered and fought and cursed each other. They would wave their arms and you would think some one was going to be hurt but it was all tongue, nothing else. The epic and span of officers of the Vauban looked on in tolerant amusement, once in awhile barking out an order to hurry. Finally all baggage was taken care of, fresh water taken on (also a lot of stronger stuff), the company's ship cast loose and we steamed out to the high seas again. And now it is everlasting water again.

Tuesday, Dec. 4—You will notice a little lapse of time since I wrote the above. Too heavy eating combined with the heat of the tropics compelled me to rest for a day or two and leave off the eats. Am feeling my usual self now and eating mostly oranges, apples, and bread and butter. We expect to reach Rio on the 8th. I am sending a wireless today for them to meet us. I was tempted Thanksgiving day to send you a wireless greeting. It would have been delivered at Gagetown in three hours. It cost only 29 cents per word to any place in Michigan. Will enclose one of the Thanksgiving menus. Pretty good for the British to remember us that way. O, but these British seamen are sure stuck on their country! Was surprised to find out that many of them have taken out American citizenship papers.

How is everything up there? Can't believe you are having cold weather. We crossed the equator at noon yesterday. But the strange thing is that it is actually cooler than it was when we struck the tropics.

Later—Have just had a most interesting talk with two or three Brazilians, thanks to Perry's help as interpreter. Was asking all about living conditions there and they all say that it is not as high nor as strenuous as in the U. S. They also say I am going to a good place, Santo Amario. This is a suburb of Sao Paulo and has a population of about 10,000. Sao Paulo has 700,000. I asked about food and they said it's easier to get and cheaper than in the states. Of course, as I told you, such things as manufactured foods, cereals, etc., are high when imported. Their fruit must be excellent if what they say is true. They say you do not know what real oranges, pineapples and bananas taste like until you try theirs.

Guess will have to close and add to it before we dock at Rio. We have four New York boys (genuine Yankees) who comprise the orchestra and I sure do enjoy them. They can talk "United States" and they know who Babe Ruth is and a thousand other things which are dear to the heart of a Yankee. These British chaps don't get our point of view at all, although I like both our bedroom and dining room stewards.

Friday, Dec. 7.—Will put finishing touches on this so as to mail tomorrow. Great excitement today as we are due to reach Rio de Janeiro about 10 tomorrow morning. Everyone is making out his baggage declaration and soon we'll be in the worst part of the trip—Customs. Don't know how we will come out but one of the Brazilians has promised to help us out with interpreting, etc. I can't tell you how we hate to leave the good old ship. The baby is better now and we are all able to enjoy the trip at the same time.

We have made some good friends and sure hate to part company. We live and move and have our being about as comfortably as on land, and I know a lot cooler than on land. O, the sea breeze is certainly refreshing these hot days, and it is such a delightful life. The seamen are working like mad today painting, polishing and scrubbing. For the boat must look shining when they pull into port and the company's man comes on board. She sure looks pretty with her new white paint on masts and upper works. A pretty picture against the blue of the ocean.

Sixteen days of continual going with only one stop, all the time the swish, swish of the water against her side and the throb of the engines. But we are so used to it we do not notice it. It's hot and the sun beats down with some intensity for at noon it is directly over our heads. Now that we're getting away from the equator it will change its position but for several days it has passed directly over our heads at noon. Caught our first sight of the South American continent a day or two ago as we rounded the point. It was just a low haze on the horizon, like a cloud. We are passing boats quite often now.

Am anxious to hear from you all and to know how things are going. Expect you have thought of us a good many times on this long voyage. We have been wonderfully protected from all harm and have never had a day of real rough passage. We are certainly hoping Steens will meet us at Rio tomorrow morning. I sent them a wireless. Surely wish you all a very Merry Christmas and wish we could join you. Best regards to all the friends.

Michigan Happenings

Members of the Michigan Potato Shippers' association, in conference at Grand Rapids, viewed with alarm the tightening of car supply at a time when it is important that shippers have liberal equipment, but declared strict enforcement of the potato grades have profited the growers more than any other single move in many years. With the resultant improved reputation of Michigan potatoes, has come an increased market value, higher prices and removal of the discrimination against Michigan potatoes in the country's markets.

The steady downward trend of the State's ad valorem tax on real and personal property and the contrasting upward trend of the tax levied by cities, counties and school districts on the same classes of property was shown again here by a series of tax totals and significant percentages made public by George Lord, state tax commissioner. Mr. Lord's totals disclose that the $50,714,816 raised by Michigan cities for municipal purposes in 1922, rose to $57,494,532 in 1923.

Two new courses will be established at Michigan Agricultural College as a result of action taken by the state board of agriculture. One of the new courses offered, and the most important from the standpoint of the college, is the liberal arts course. This will place M. A. C. in direct competition with the University of Michigan and other colleges of the state offering literary courses leading to a degree of bachelor of arts.

June 13 has been set by the alumni association, of the University of Michigan, as reunion day for this year. Sixteen classes will return for reunions under the Dix plan, which brings each class back at three or four-year intervals. Included in the classes expected this year are: '63, '64, '65, '66, '82, '83, '84, '85, '01, '02, '03, '04, '21, '22 and '23.

Professor M. M. McCool, head of the soils department at M. A. C. was granted a four months' leave of absence from April 1 to August 1, by the state board of agriculture, in session here. McCool will go to Europe to study agricultural conditions. He also will represent Michigan at an agricultural conference to be held in Rome during May.

Owing to the great depth of snow in woods and swamps, wild deer have lost their footing places. Various hunting clubs around Alpena are hauling tons of hay in the accustomed feeding places. At this time of the year, the deer are so tame they come to lumber camps and are fed on the ground around the camps.

Two of the oldest residents of Kalamazoo County died recently. Edward P. Titus, 95 years old, one of the best known builders of Kalamazoo in pioneer and later days, and Mrs. William H. Morgan, 85 years old, who last December celebrated with her husband the sixty-eighth anniversary of their wedding.

How International Special Dairy Feed Is Made...

International Special Dairy Feed is composed of oil meal, cotton seed meal, corn gluten feed and grain products. These materials are finely ground, then mixed with molasses by our exclusive patented process and heated to render the feed dry and granular. It is then packed in 100-pound sacks.

The molasses in this feed supplies the cow with natural digestive juices. By using this feed according to the directions given here you can do what thousands of other dairymen are doing—save money on your feed bill and increase your milk production.

You are told that International Special Dairy is composed of Corn Gluten Feed, Wheat Bran, Cottonseed Meal, Linseed Oil Meal, Ground Grain Screenings and Molasses. But do you know that International Special Dairy Feed is worth at least $15 per ton more than corn, oats, barley or wheat feed for dairy use? It's a fact that any feeding authority will endorse.

Every experienced dairyman knows that cottonseed meal, linseed oil meal and corn gluten feed are worth more than wheat feed or grain. Molasses is also worth more.

International Special Dairy contains 18 per cent Protein before Molasses is added. The addition of molasses reduces this protein percentage because molasses contains very little protein. The addition of molasses, however, decidedly increases the milk producing value of the feed. International Special Dairy 15 per cent to 16 per cent protein (after molasses is added) will accordingly produce more milk than can be obtained from any dry mixture running 20 PER CENT PROTEIN.

It pays to feed International Special Dairy as a straight grain ration, or mixed with grain, or with any ration you are now using. Fed any way you may choose, International Special Dairy always results in a decided increase in milk production, ranging from one to three quarts per day.

The Price of This Feed Is $38 per ton

Let us furnish you with the names of those that are feeding this feed with the very best results.

Remember that we give tickets on the big prize drawings. Get your tickets.

Women are made the laughing stock of the nation for the simple reason that it is to their liking to push the season's along a notch when it comes to clothes, particularly hats. Gentlemen are always known to laugh at this time of year when any lady mentions that she hasn't got around yet to get her spring hat but now the ladies have a fine argument. By some kind hands the snow on west Main street sidewalks was pretty well abolished on Monday. Here about fifty, perhaps more, gentlemen between the ages of seven and fourteen, had gathered in such dense masses that traffic was hindered. It was here amid towering snow banks that the boys gave proof that spring at least should be here, by playing marbles.

Miss Margaret Jondro entertained ten of her girl friends at a Washington's birthday party on Friday evening. However, all the honor of this celebration should not be given the dead statesman for it was also the birthday of Miss Margaret's brother, "Bobbie," of Detroit. The last meeting of the Cass City Music Club which was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Pinney, proved to be very interesting to the goodly number that were present. Although it was unfortunate to have a late start, it seemed to detract no enthusiasm or interest from the meeting. Mrs. G. A. Striffler, being unable to attend, the paper which she prepared was read by Miss Johanna McRae. The title of this absorbing and informing paper was "Patriotic Songs" with which no records were played on account of the familiarity of the tunes. The second and last paper, "Folk Songs" given by Mrs. Hooper was exceptionally fine and was illustrated by several unique records. The next meeting will be held Monday evening, March 10, at the home of Miss Johanna McRae.

A thrilling feature not previously advertised or thought of by anyone was witnessed by the large crowd of shoppers Wednesday afternoon when Chas. Watson's horse decided to run away. Mr. Watson was dragged under the cutter for half a block and Mrs. Watson was thrown from the cutter as the horse left Main St. and turned south at the Chronicle corner. Mrs. Edward Mark was sitting in a sleigh holding the reins of a team of horses on Oak St. The Watson horse leaped over the sleigh between Mrs. Mark and the team of horses she was holding, knocking the reins from her hands and leaving the cutter which he was pulling by the side of the sleigh. With so many opportunities for serious injuries, no one was hurt to speak of and very little damage done to cutter or sleigh.

Mr. Rogers was busy with several other local men Monday afternoon in opening up the roads west of town. On Tuesday, the crew numbered 14 men and they made their way as far as Caro that day.

The inspiration received makes one eager to promote the interests of the Y. M. C. A. in general.

By MARY MARSHALL DUFFEE

SUMMER ETIQUETTE

THERE is always the temptation in warm weather to let down a little in matters of etiquette. It is easier to sit up properly at the table and manage one's knife and fork with care when it is cool enough for comfort than when the mercury stands ninety in the shade and you are fairly melting with heat. The heat is enervating and has taken from you that starch which is necessary to achieve really perfect manners.

But remember this summer that manners are far less difficult than they used to be. One can now be suitably clothed for any time of day and still be comfortable. A man can wear a Palm Beach suit suitable anywhere in extremely warm weather. When he had to stick to his heavy dark woolen suits then there may have been reason why he should go in shirt sleeves but with the Palm Beach coat this is not necessary. Moreover it is quite possible for him to wear an unstarched shirt and a belt strap, thus eliminating the necessity for suspenders, and this get-up passes muster for almost any informal daytime wear in summer.

Remember, too, that it is far better to wear a negligee soft collar and to wear it fastened than to wear a stiff collar undone at the neckband.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"HOOSIER"

WHILE Indiana is known throughout the country as the "Hoosier State," the origin of the term "hoosier" is lost somewhere in the strange changes which came over the English language as spoken in this country during the early part of the last century. When the number of uneducated persons and the different nationalities which comprised the United States at this time is remembered, it is not strange that some words slipped into the colloquial tongue without proper parentage.

Etymologists, however, are about equally divided as to whether "hoosier" is a contraction of the phrase "Who's there?" commonly used as a challenge among the early settlers of the Middle West or whether it comes from "Husher," frequently lengthened to "hoosher," a nickname for the lumbermen who were skilled in hushing or stilling their opponents during an encounter. The word "whoosier" appears in American literature as early as 1659 and appears to be derived from the Scotch "whush" or "whisper," possibly with the added American meaning connected with the lumbermen, many of whom settled in the section now known as Indiana.

How Sects Grow.

Probably many religious sects rest on just as trivial differences in belief. Two men, prominent in church work were traveling through a sparsely settled community when they noticed two churches immediately opposite each other. Stopping a native they inquired why there were two churches for so few people.

"Well, it's like this," he replied. "The church members on the right believe that Eve tempted Adam, the one on the left believe that Adam was a rascal from the beginning."—Columbus Dispatch.

Honey Bees After Stinging.
Honey bees die within a day or two, and sometimes sooner, after stinging. This is due to the fact that the "stinger" remains in the body of the person stung, and is torn from the bee with such injuries that the bee cannot live. Bumble bees, wasps and hornets do not die after stinging.

Sometimes.

Some of us are so much accustomed to disguise ourselves to others, that at length we disguise ourselves to ourselves.

Seven Saints.

The seven champions of Christendom were St. George for England, St. Andrew for Scotland, St. Patrick for Ireland, St. David for Wales, St. Denys for France, St. James for Spain and St. Anthony for Italy.

Hears Only One Side.

"What mystifies me 'bout dishere radio," said Uncle Eben, "is dat some of my friends is satisfied to sit an listen so long to such a onesided argument."

THE DESERT AND THE MILK OF HUMAN KINDNESS

"The locality is irrelevant" is the dictum of a successful woman of Tucson, Ariz., when asked whether she thinks the business college graduate should go to a big city for work. "I advise her not to go if she can find work at home," Mrs. Reynolds continues. "There's just one provision that is important. It is that the girl can adhere to a standard of morality which will always preclude loss of self-respect."

This is no preaching from a professional reformer. Novella Routh Reynolds has learned that "an honest code pays in the end" from the many-sided business world that the Reynolds Commercial school keeps her in touch with.

World war need found Mrs. Reynolds and other business women of Tucson just as readily as if they had hurried to Washington or New York. It even brought legitimate prosperity since her service lay in equipping an unparalleled number of students for government work.

Tucson holds, Mrs. Reynolds has found, an extra appeal to the heart of any employed woman who has a spark of the maternal fire. The hordes of health seekers need cheery suggestions on how to adapt themselves to arid surroundings, unaccustomed conditions and homesickness. Mrs. Reynolds declares this chance for service where service is so sorely and so constantly needed is the most interesting part of being a business woman in Arizona.

Like many successful women, Mrs. Reynolds has developed outside her business an association that keeps her in touch with what women are doing everywhere. In her case the doorway to world interests is membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is historian, Tucson chapter, and member at large on the national historical research committee. In April she was sent as delegate from the D. A. R. to Washington for a conference of the Woman's Universal alliance, a world organization.

MUNICIPAL HOUSEKEEPING

Of all the part-time jobs that have recently developed for women, those connected with "municipal housekeeping" seem to have proved the most interesting. Local political tasks ordinarily pay so little that they can be undertaken only by the woman who has sufficient income to meet her needs, plus some time that she would like to put to service outside her home.

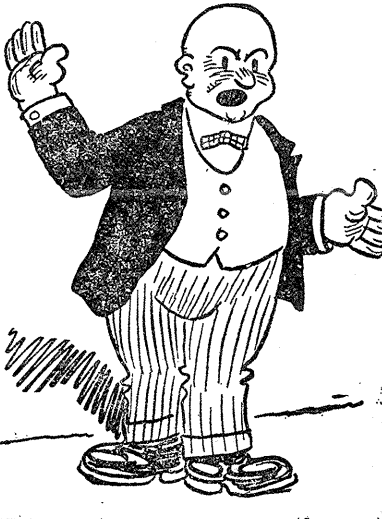

A book which modestly announces itself as the "Who's Who and What's What of the Woman's World," lists Mrs. E. E. Brown's work as member of the town council of Oakdale, La., as a real achievement. To get the background of her work it is said, it's almost necessary to have visited Louisiana; to know the force that old French plus old Southern tradition is still exercising to keep out innovations; and to have felt the power exerted by the dictum, "We want our women to be ladies of the old type."

The first councilwoman in Louisiana trained herself in knowledge of parliamentary law, public questions, etc., by serving in the State Federation of Women's Clubs. She organized and has for nine years been president of the Oakdale Civic league. "Meanwhile, she kept the devotion of husband, children and neighbors. The young people of Oakdale know that her home is always open for parties. She finds time to produce two or three plays a year for charitable purposes that bring all the civic spirits of town and parish together. Withal she is a most perfect hostess of a charming home which is never neglected."

To all this, Mrs. Lottie Fitzgerald of Oakdale who thus describes her neighbor, adds courage. In the city government questions arose which Mrs. Brown could settle neither by tact nor by parliamentary skill. Politics ranged itself on one side. Mrs. Brown's belief in how it ought to be done ranged itself on the other side. Influence sided sometimes with politics. If politics was wrong on the one question, "Will this thing leave a mark for good on the city?" Mrs. Brown consistently voted against politics.

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

"SAY, FOLKS, I'M STARTING A HATCHET CEMETERY, SO IF YOU'VE BEEN LUGGING A LIL' HATCHET AROUND, WAITING FOR A GOOD CHANCE TO SOAK SOME CERTAIN GUY IN THE NECK, SAID HATCHET IS HEREBY DECLARED DEAD AND READY FOR BURIAL IN BILL BOOSTER'S HATCHET CEMETERY!"

WINTER TRIP

"I'm going on a little winter trip today," said Billie Brownie to Peter Gnome.

Hugged Each Other.

He had just met Peter Gnome right on the outskirts of Brownie land.

"What are you about to do, Peter?" Billie asked. "I don't mean to be rude, but I'm always interested in your adventures."

"I have a meeting today of the Every-Day-Is-Nice-Day club," said Peter. "Sorry you cannot come to the meeting. But, of course, you don't need to come! You think every day is nice, anyway."

"Sorry, too, I can't come," said Billie Brownie. "You see, I am taking so many trips these days—getting to know so many of the children of dear old Mother Nature."

"Today she suggested that I should take a winter trip and meet some of the winter birds, I believe. Couldn't you come, too?"

"I don't believe I possibly could," said Peter Gnome. "But when you come back from your trip, won't you come and give us a talk about winter birds?"

"Gladly, gladly," said Billie Brownie. And then they shook hands, hugged each other and went in different directions, each shouting after the other:

"Then I'll see you soon again!" "Hello, Billie Brownie!" said a voice, and, looking about, Billie Brownie saw his friend, Judge Just Praise.

Judge Just Praise is a great believer in praising and encouraging. He doesn't think there is enough praising of creatures. He says it makes people do much better in their work and in their studies and in their conduct—in everything—to be praised and encouraged once in a while.

"Hello, Judge!" said Billie Brownie. "I just saw a lovely collie dog being given a collar with a silver plate attached, upon which was the collie's name and some nice words about the dog," said the judge.

"That collie," Judge Just Praise continued, "saved a great many people in a bad fire. Oh, that dog was a splendid hero, and it delighted my heart to see the reward being given."

"And then I also saw a big St. Bernard dog—they're so splendid!—save a cat from burning."

"The dog had awakened the different members of the family, after discovering smoke, which soon became flames. Then he had noticed that the cat was missing. Back into the burning house he had gone to come forth a little later carrying his cat friend in his mouth. The cat was frightened, but not hurt."

"And that dog is going to be rewarded for saving the lives of all the family—the cat, too! I heard some one say that he would be given a medal. If he had not awakened the family when he did the flames would have kept them from being able to escape out of the house."

"But now I must be on my way. Hope to see you soon, Billie."

Then Billie Brownie met groups of the winter birds.

"We're the American Crossbills," the American Crossbills chirped. "We sing and we twitter and we fly off and then fly back again without any special reason—just for fun."

"We don't believe in doing everything for a special reason. But we are fond of pine cones and our crossed bills or overlapping bills make it easy for us to pull the pine cones apart so we can reach the seeds."

"We're somewhat alike," said the White-Winged Crossbills, "only you don't see so many of us. Some winters we don't appear at all."

"I wear a lovely rose-colored costume," said Mr. White-Winged Crossbill, "and the Mrs. White-Winged Crossbills wear yellow. It is something the same with the American Crossbills, though the Mr. American Crossbills wear more of a brownish-red costume, and my favorite color is rose."

Then Billie Brownie met the Chickadees, the Song Sparrows and the Cedar Waxwings, and they all told him they liked to be about in the winter, but they did love to have some delicacies left about for them.

Dad's Limited Knowledge.

The minister's little boy was having trouble with his go-cart, and a neighbor who came along stopped and said to him:

"Why don't you take it to your father? He'll know what's the matter."

"Oh, daddy won't know," remarked the little fellow in disgust. "Daddy don't know anything 'cept about God."

Whereas, I, as State Highway Commissioner of Michigan, have heretofore determined that the highway commencing at the west section corner common to section 35, town 15 north, range 11 east, Grant Township, Huron County and fractional section 2, town 14 north, range 11 east, Elkland Township, Tuscola County; thence east on the Huron-Tuscola County line between sections 35 and 36, said Grant Township and fractional sections 2 and 1, said Elkland Township to the east section corner common to said section 36 and said fractional section 1; shall be improved in accordance with the specifications now on file; and

Whereas, I, as such commissioner, did heretofore determine the boundaries of the special assessment district No. 244 for said highway known as assessment district road No. 244 to be as follows: Said district includes all lands within the following boundaries in the townships of Sheridan and Grant in Huron County, Elkland in Tuscola County and Greenleaf in Sanilac County, to-wit:

Commencing at the ¼ post on the east side of section 36, town 15 north, range 11 east, Grant Township, Huron County; thence west 2½ miles on the east and west ¼ line of sections 36, 35 and 34 to the center of said section 34; then south ½ mile on the north and south ¼ line of said section 34 to the ¼ post on the south side of said section 34; thence continuing south ½ mile on the north and south ¼ line of fractional section 3, town 14 north, range 11 east, Elkland Township, Tuscola County, to the center of said fractional section 3; thence east 2½ miles on the east and west ¼ line of fractional sections 3, 2 and 1 to the ¼ post on the east side of said fractional section 1; thence continuing east ½ mile on the east and west ¼ line of fractional section 6, town 14 north, range 12 east, Greenleaf township, Sanilac County to the center of said fractional section 6; thence north ½ mile on the north and south ¼ line of said fractional section 6 to the ¼ post on the north side of said fractional section 6; thence continuing north ½ mile on the north and south ¼ line of section 31, town 15 north, range 12 east, Sheridan Township, Huron County, to the center of said section 31; thence west ½ mile on the east and west ¼ line of said section 31 to the place of beginning.

And all lands in the townships of Sheridan and Grant in Huron County, Elkland in Tuscola County, and Greenleaf in Sanilac County within the boundaries above described, will be liable to an assessment for benefits for the improvement of said highway and also the townships of Sheridan and Grant in Huron County, Elkland in Tuscola County, and Greenleaf in Sanilac County, and the Counties of Huron, Tuscola and Sanilac at large.

Now, therefore, all owners of lands within the above described boundaries in the townships of Sheridan and Grant in Huron County, Elkland in Tuscola County, and Greenleaf in Sanilac County, and all persons interested in said lands and the townships of Sheridan and Grant in Huron County, Elkland in Tuscola County, and Greenleaf in Sanilac County and the Counties of Huron, Tuscola and Sanilac are hereby notified that on the 12th day of March, A. D. 1924, at 11:00 o'clock A. M. Central Standard Time, I will be present at the southeast corner of Section 35, town 15 north, range 11 east, Grant Township, Huron County, along the said highway to be improved, and announce my assessment of benefits upon the lands within said boundaries constituting said special assessment district and upon the townships of Sheridan and Grant in Huron County, Elkland in Tuscola County, and Greenleaf in Sanilac County, and upon the Counties of Huron, Tuscola and Sanilac, at large, and the said assessment of benefits will be open to review. All persons, said Townships or Counties may appear and be heard with respect to their several apportionments of benefits for said highway.

Given under my hand at Lansing, Michigan, this 15th day of February, A. D. 1924.

State Highway Commissioner.

is more acreage for sugar beets than ever before.

Old Mr. Bell apparently on the gain. Where is the man that gave away his cutter for a song?

There must be some easy money in the county offices. The names of those who want one are legion. Will there be offices enough to go round? If not, let us create more offices. We are a progressive people in a progressive age.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. C. J. Malcolm on Thursday afternoon, March 6, at two o'clock. Subject for the meeting will be "Medical Temperance" in charge of the superintendent of that department. An invitation is extended to all to attend.

Charles Cook was able to come to Deford Monday. First time away from home since he fell from the hay mow six weeks ago.

John Pringle is our informant that he has received settlement with the County Mutual Insurance Co. for loss of home by fire. Well pleased with prompt and fair treatment he received from the officials.

E. R. Bruce and Samuel Sherk are the sugar beet contract persuaders of this locality. Both men have bad colds—about half sick, but belong to different companies and striving which will be greater, so they keep under motion regardless of health or weather.

Mrs. Bessie Holt, who has been in poor health since Mrs. S. Sherk died, is much better now. Her home of late has been with his sister, Mrs. Fred Lester.

Debate at schoolhouse did not take place as expected last Thursday evening. A shortage of coal does not allow to soak up any unnecessary heat until business matters are normal. No coal on sale at elevator just now. Some are getting the warmer from Kingston.

Horses and sleighs go merrily by, but not a car is seen on highway. All bear it well—singing "The old time religion is good enough for me."

Mrs. Peter Daugherty didn't really like it because the news from Deford said she was seriously ill. Mrs. D. has been in active life for more than sixty-six years and the slowing down process has come. 'Tis hard for her to see the serious side.

The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderkooy is sick at present.

They aim at improving the singing in church work at present.

Three of our most aged men are in a bad condition. Don Nutt suffers from bowel trouble aggravated by a rupture, Alfred Shaw has a stroke of one side that leaves him in a feeble condition, Peter Bell is crippled in both feet with that strange trouble that often afflicts the aged. They have all passed the "three score and ten" mark.

Neil Kennedy receives word from Hot Springs, Ark., that his wife arrived there in safety. 'Tis not a small tramp. Ticket from Detroit to the Springs, $59.00 and some cents.

We have an indicator on the side of the domicile and gaze upon it in early morn. Saturday and Sunday mornings the spirits had gone below zero line.

It is surface judgment for us to sneer at the man who will not go with public opinion. Public opinion has often been on the wrong side and persecuted the honest individual who had brains was in advance of the masses.

A woman that entertains company by telling them the short comings of her husband—should be gathered to the graves of her ancestors.

If Ramsey MacDonald enjoys his vision that he will see the day that all men are free from hunger and cold, the drink habit must be driven from the British Islands. We have lived among a drinking people; seen homes suffer with both hunger and cold. Seldom was the cause indolence, rarely was the cause want of employment, but in nearly all cases intemperance invited the wolf to the door. It is only truth to say that in every land where the drink habit is tolerated a portion of the heads of families drink till want enters the home.

Mrs. Ella Ellsworth, who has made her home with E. A. and Persis Bruce for some time past, went to son's home at Pontiac on evening train Saturday. Could not make the journey before on account of bad weather. Her health is much improved under advice of physician and good care at her brothers.

Last Wednesday Deford had got hungry to go to Cass City. Must go by R. R.—no other way—hence they broke loose to such an extent that on return trip the engine tired out a mile north of the burg. Passengers got out completed their journey on foot. Train came on when it got its second wind.

We hear there was a convert to the wolf allegory up here from East Green last week. And he spoke in pity of Deford's skeptical scribe. Had we met a treat of peppermint drops would have been in order. That's best we can do now. The nation won't "give the poor Irish a chance."

Americans joke about the Irish walking in middle of the street. For past two weeks we were forced to be Irish or be foolish. The middle of road was the only place to find safe footing.

The debate at schoolhouse Thursday evening read "Resolved, That Female Suffrage Should be Abolished."

Looks as if E. A. Cones was preparing to establish a wood yard in our city. Well—'tis needed.

The eleven-year old miss of the Paul school who gave us the essay on Novesta did well. If her mother or some other friend helped that does not detract from the noble effort. Our president is surrounded by helps and good advisors when he gives the nation an essay. Of course it comes to us with more frills, but it is really an essay from the "higher up" and we meditate and wonder what brand of "wisdom wine" does our chief executive sample.

Our meat man ran shy of mutton, tripe and liver on Thursday. Nothing but pork. When asked for a variety had to own up, "I'm all hog; nothing more."

Mrs. Neil Kennedy visits her sister at Hot Springs, Ark. Her mother is there spending the winter.

Don Nutt still in poor health.

If we don't get the paper for one day there is a low growl. If we fail to receive it for two days there is a howl. The writer kicks as bad as others 'till he remembers back sixty years ago when newspapers came only once a week.

Saturday was our mail day and we were contented with the conditions. Miller born in Massachusetts in 1782. Detroit Tribune and Detroit Free Press were the newspapers for Michigan.

The Tribune was Republican and the Free Press was Democratic, and if those old Democrats of that time could get a message that the Free Press was now a Republican sheet they would cry out, "Tis a mistake." Pontiac in Oakland county sent out a little sheet weekly called Pontiac Gazette. Soon we got a tri-weekly from Detroit and the family that could afford it was considered "some pumpkins." Scripps of Detroit started the Evening News Daily, then we thought we had the world by the foretop. Pictures were scarce so that when parents went to city the children begged, "Bring me home some pictures." Three score years have changed all things 'till now we are proud and exacting people.

When you find a spiritualist of today if questioned in regard to ancestry, he will tell you of one William Wm. Miller was a man of ability and a great student of "Book" believing that the second advent would come in 1844. But by misapplication of scripture, he was mistaken. His converts were scattered in all parts of the United States and after the mistake they became infidels. But as all mankind must have a religion when the spirit rappings came, they fell for that peculiar doctrine. In our younger days, our lot fell among them and we were impressed with their kindness to fellow creatures. As "Love is the fulfillment of the law" the spiritualists may have more to their credit than other creeds allow them.

Michigan Happenings

That sugar beets paid the largest gross return to Michigan farmers of any field crop grown in the state last year, and that the United States continues to import about one-fourth of the sugar consumed from foreign nations, are reasons advanced for an increase in the Michigan acreage by Prof. J. F. Cox, head of the farm crops department at Michigan Agricultural College. From the standpoint of soil and climate, Michigan is particularly adapted to the growing of this crop.

A second "ton litter contest" will be staged by Michigan swine breeders during the coming season, according to announcement, by Verne A. Freeman, leader of the state Ton Litter Club and extension specialist in animal husbandry at the Michigan Agricultural College. Valuable results along education and demonstrational lines were obtained in the contest which was held last year, which was won by a litter weighing a total of 2,840 pounds at the end of the 180-day period.

The Democratic State Central Committee met in Lansing and designated May 15 as the time and Flint as the place for the state convention that will elect delegates-at-large and alternates to the National Convention in New York, June 17, and to nominate candidates for Presidential electors. Michigan is entitled to four delegates-at-large, but eight will be elected, four men and four women, and each will have half a vote in the convention.

Dr. J. D. Munson, of the Traverse City state hospital, has tendered his resignation effective next July 1, has been announced at the governor's office. Dr. Munson was made superintendent when the institution was established and has been at its head about 35 years. He had the record of being one of the most efficient institutional heads in the state service.

Veterans of the Civil, Spanish-American and World wars, aided by other patriotic organizations, have organized a committee for a joint observation of Memorial day at Grand Rapids, May 30. In all, 19 organizations are represented in the Memorial day federation, of which Major Stephen W. Collins is president.

The Michigan Sugar Beet Growers' association has gone on record opposed to the "45-55" contract starting at $7 a ton, which the Michigan Sugar company proposed to offer this year. The association cites the contract of the Owosso Sugar company, which offers a 50-50 split and has also a $7 a ton basis to start.

Never in the history of Alpena, has winter fishing been carried on to the extent that it has been this year. Five tugs have been fishing from Rockport and Presque Isle harbors and record catches have been reported. Five tons of trout were shipped from Alpena in one day recently.

The Grand Haven Farm Bureau at its annual meeting, declared an eight per cent dividend on all stock issued prior to Dec. 31, 1923. The bureau went on record in favor of the gasoline tax, a graduated income tax and sufficient funds to carry on the bovine tuberculosis work in the state.

Dr. William Samuel Hess, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, the largest in Grand Rapids, has been chosen chairman of the executive committee for entertaining the 1924 annual general assembly of the Presbyterian church to open here May 23.

Fred Knapp, Sr., retired farmer of Raisinville, and the last surviving member of the Sixth Cavalry, which did gallant work during the Civil War, celebrated his eighty-second birthday recently.

Because many of the Monroe ordinances were out of date, the city commission authorized the city attorney to have them revised. They were last revised in 1901.

Thomas M. Legg, 90 years old, Michigan's oldest funeral director, who having directed funerals for 75 years, died at the home of his daughter, in Detroit, last week.

A scratch on his hand suffered while he was closing the postoffice door at White Pigeon two weeks ago has proved fatal to Daniel Grosse, mail carrier.

The Pere Marquette railroad will rebuild the line between Pentwater and Muskegon this year. An 80-pound rail will replace the present track.

Members of the various Masonic bodies, in Alpena, have pledged their support in financing extensive improvements to their property. The plans call for ground floor club rooms.

Masonic delegations from all parts of the state were in attendance at the grand commandery funeral service last week for Edmund S. Rankin, past grand commander of Michigan, and one of Kalamazoo's three thirty-third degree Masons.

SCHOOL NOTES

We were very pleasantly surprised on Tuesday morning with a chapel hour. Rev. Wm. Schnug of the Presbyterian church was the speaker. He chose the very interesting topic, "Our Minds, Our Kingdom." He brought out points showing how much good books and amusements mean in our lives.

Prof. W. D. Henderson of Ann Arbor, who was to speak at the high school Wednesday of last week, has sent word that due to the storm and blockaded roads, he was unable to come but he expects to make up the date in April.

Prof. H. W. Holmes is busy at present compiling a list of 800 words which are commonly misspelled. Copies of this list are to be sent to all the near-by rural schools who will use them in spelling contests. In the near future, it is planned to have the four best spellers from each school, from the eighth grade down, come to the local school, from which the four best spellers will be taken, for a spelling match. Suitable prizes will be awarded the winners.

The sixth grade was awarded both punctuality and attendance banners for the month of February. Their splendid record was no tardy marks and 98.5 per cent attendance.

A few days following the games which our teams played with Pigeon at Pigeon, they informed us by long distance that precaution against smallpox should be taken as 25 cases had been reported in their village. Accordingly each member of the teams was vaccinated on Thursday. Many are already favoring sore arms. Roads permitting, they will journey tonight (Friday) to Caro to play their high school teams.

The domestic science classes are now busy drafting patterns. In class work, they are taking up the study of cotton.

The culmination of the sense of humor of the sophomores in the initiation of the freshmen, who, we must admit, are all mighty good sports, was held Friday evening. The freshmen, obeying the stern laws laid down by their upper classmen, compelled the fun loving sophomores to get down to work and get a "feed" together for their benefit. This the sophomores cheerfully did and acted as host at a supper held at the M. E. church Friday evening. There were about 90 present including members of the faculty and their wives, Rev. and Mrs. I. W. Cargo and the members of both freshman and sophomore classes. Clever readings were given by Thelma Warner and Aletha Spurgeon after which games were played. Some very skillful contests were staged between the faculty and pupils, in which the faculty showed up splendidly. At ten o'clock, all departed declaring that they had had one of the best times ever.

Kindergarten—This week ye are having a wonderful time studying about the Dutch or Holland people. And a little later on we are going to make little windmills. Won't that be too much fun?

We are also very interested in the blacksmith and we are learning the blacksmith song and are reading a story about a little grey pony.
