EVERGREEN.

Last Friday morning, Mrs. F. A. Jones locked her doors and drove to Cass City to meet her husband who had been away for a few days and was returning on the noon train. Imagine her surprise, on reaching home again, to find her house open and occupied by a goodly number of friends and neighbors who were busily engaged tying a worsted crazy quilt which when finished was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Jones as a small token of the esteem with which they are held in this community. At the last annual conference of the M. B. in C. church, held at Brown City in March, Rev. Jones was elected presiding elder of the Port Huron district. They expect to move to Bad Axe where Mrs. Jones would take charge of the work at that place. They have been with us five years and have made many friends who will miss them, and who wish them God's favor and richest blessings in their new fields of labor.

(Delayed letter).

George Darling, jr., and Clinton Mitchell, who have been working in Pontiac, have come home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell have been spending the past two weeks in Detroit visiting their daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond from near Yale visited at T. Stitt's last Sunday.

Lloyd Bigham of Pontiac has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy and family, Mrs. F. A. Jones and Ray and Roy, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kitchin and family and Edith Kitchin attended the conference at Brown City Sunday.

Rev. F. A. Jones and A. W. Kitchin returned home from Brown City on Tuesday. Eld. Jones was elected presiding elder of the Port Huron district for the coming year. They have not yet decided where they will move. Elder Allen Herman from Bad Axe is our new pastor and L. Surbrook is helper.

Mrs. Jack Agar and son, Forest, of Owendale are spending a few days with Mrs. A.'s father, John Kitchin. On Tuesday a number of neighbors came to a quilting as a complete surprise on her. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all. A bountiful dinner was served, and a taffy pull after the quilting. They were planning on another quilting Wednesday.

PINGREE.

Come spring, gentle spring, thou art welcome.

Clair Craig is among us again. We hope for the summer.

It is reported R. C. Thane and Wm. Gardner will farm together for the coming season.

Earl Vance is home at present on a vacation from Pontiac where he has been employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Read of Greenleaf township are moving to a farm near Pt. Huron.

Quite a number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Read as a token of their well wishes. Presents were presented to them. Music and dancing and a social good time was enjoyed by all. A delicious luncheon was served at 1:30. Friends joined in wishing Mr. Read and his family success in their new location near the lake shore.

Marvin Harrington, one of Evergreen's respected residents, passed away last week. Funeral services were held at the Menmonite church on Monday.

The young Condor is the only bird that must be fed by the older ones for one year after hatching. We have human chickens that must be fed 'till the parent birds go to the "boneyard."

Mrs. James Spencer, who has been at Pontiac for some time because of derangement, seems on the eve of full recovery. Her friends hope she will be able to come home this spring.

I shall know but one country. The ends I aim at shall be my country's, my God's and truth's. I was born an American; I live an American; I shall die an American.—Daniel Webster.

Special meetings in the M. E. church commenced Sunday evening, Mar. 30, and will continue 'till Easter. The local pastor will have help occasionally from Cass City, Kingston and perhaps other points.

Our hair is now white as the driving snow and ever since we can remember have heard the cry "all things are knocked agog on presidential year"—which prompts a thought. Let us make the president's term of longer duration.

Our teacher cranked his tin lizzie Saturday and went toward a point near East Dayton to visit his wife's girlhood home. Two miles of a side road intervened. When reached, the car refused to go forward and the youthful pedagogue returned to Deford crestfallen but apparently in good temper.

"I am getting sick of winter, ain't I glad it's on the wane
For I've had my fill of snowdrifts,
and I'm longing for the rain;
I've done my turn in shovels and I'm praying for a thaw
For I'd rather be a duckling than a blooming Esquimaw."

Howard Retherford was called to Almont Saturday, the 29th, to the funeral of his cousin, William H. Retherford, who has been ill with cancer of the face for some years. Deceased died at his daughter's home in Pontiac but burial was at Almont. He leaves an aged wife, three daughters and one son, Mrs. Wesley McCain of Pontiac, Mrs. Frank Weithly of Pontiac, and Eber, without an abiding place. William H. Retherford was born near Almont, Mich., 74 years ago where he lived 'till about 1880 when he came to Tuscola county and settled on section 3, Kingston. About twenty years ago he moved back to the vicinity of Almont where his home has been since. William was a whole hearted soul who would divide his last meal with a fellow creature and trust to luck for tomorrow.

We have enjoyed a visit past week with one Norman Rowley whose father settled three miles north of what is now Cass City 59 years ago. James N. Rowley may be remembered by some of the old settlers. Norman moved to Caro when a child and spent a roving life. Was in the navy in 1898 and 99. Now owns a ranch in western Oklahoma and was here calling on kindred. Has been somewhat of a globe trotter. He went to China, Japan, South America and the South Sea Islands. Was in the Samoan Island, the home of Robert Lewis Stevenson, author of Treasure Island. He had descriptive pictures of nearly all these places. Gave a vivid description of the head hunters of South Seas whose religion is when a man has captured 13 heads of his enemies by individual effort he is made chief of a village. He visited the place where Normal Edsall, a Michigan boy of Greenville, was killed and beheaded. Young Edsall was killed defending the life of his lieutenant who was wounded. One of our war vessels is now named Norman Edsall after the dead hero. Said Edsall has a connection in Sheridan, Mich. Norman Rowley is now a man of years but apparently time has treated him gently. He has held important positions in Oklahoma of which he has the credentials as proof. He is a small rancher of 200 acres in Oklahoma and conducts a mixed farming, cotton as principal crop. Was taking a swing around for a rest up. He lives close by the oil regions of that locality and is liable any time to change from a rancher to a "Coal oil Johnny." He is a distant relative of Mrs. E. D. Lewis and made her a call. Mrs. Fred Orr, Miss Emma O'Kelly and Oscar O'Kelly are his first cousins. Norman Rowley is an entertainer of no mean ability. He has seen much of the world, has preceptive organs well out over his eyes, but with all his ability did not learn why the "Head hunters" selected the Satanic number 13 to honor their leading men. Perhaps it is one of the secrets of a God forsaken people.
