

DEFORD NEWS

Thirty-one sugar beet workers dropped into our town Monday morning. E. R. Bruce seemed to expect them. They are Mexicans and a fine looking lot of workers. Came about four in the morning. Mrs. Joseph Hack informs us that all told she got breakfast for 45 young and old, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Case of Detroit were here over Sunday.

Word comes from Pontiac that Mrs. Ella Ellsworth is not improving in health as expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson visited Akron on Sunday.

Roderick Kennedy reached 68th milestone on the 25th of May. Hence a lot of old friends thought he might forget and came to jog his memory and unawares the following dropped in: Mr. and Mrs. Archie McPhail of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Kelly of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Fox and daughter of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McPhail of Bay City, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPhail and two sons of Bay City, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith and daughter of Bay City, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McPhail and son of Sterling, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Martin and three sons and Gladys Clark of Coling spent Sunday here at the homes of John Clark and Neil Martin.

Sim Pratt has returned from Ann Arbor. He informs us that when you enter the institution they take what money you have and the cash is used up, unless the county you belong to becomes good for the further expense.

There is sadness and sorrow in some part of the world at all times.

For past week our town has been saddened. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Retherford were called to Detroit, word coming to them that their son, Kieth, who works in the city, was stricken with the small pox. He was taken sick at home of his sister, Mrs. Coleman, who is now under quarantine. Kieth was sent to Cottage Hospital, dangerously ill. His father and mother have been in the city for past week waiting and watching for the change. The word has come here from them sometimes favorable and at other times discouraging. Latest is that he is holding his own. He had been sick ten days on May 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little and Mrs. Balch spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Amos Webster.

When an ignorant man raises his voice and hand in favor of strong drink, we can overlook and forgive, but when a preacher of the gospel declares for a league with death and covenant with hell, "Old Adam" is aroused and we feel to take issue with the universalist doctrine and aver if there isn't a hell there ought to be one for just such "critters."

Mrs. King, formerly of this locality, visited here last week and attended the Farmers' Club.

Mrs. Alice Curtis is visiting for a week in Detroit.

Mrs. Hiram Wilson of Saginaw came Saturday for a week's stay in the locality. Hiram will join her during this week.

Word comes from Mrs. Francis McCracken, formerly of this place, now of the west, who had a slight stroke two months ago, that she has recovered so as to take a few steps at a time.

Time makes wrinkles on the face, That no person can erase; Bends the back and halts the limb, Causes eyesight to grow dim. Over such, we have no control, But we can keep wrinkles from our soul.

Robert Jacoby handles the paint brush. He is now laboring west of Caro.

We remember when the "Pest House" was placed at least 3/4 mile from a habitation. Now Dr. Vaughn of Detroit, head medicine man, says 20 feet is far enough in small pox cases. The old ideas are exploded.

Let all men with life blood remember that the aged will be gathered at M. H. Quick's in Novesta June 18th and brother Q. will have an elm spring board ready that they may leap therefrom. All that have passed their sixty-fifth birthday can jump and see how much spring has evaporated from the limb since their palmy days. None barred if they have reached the 65th milestone of life. We have a few antiquated springers here in this town. Elmer Bruce and John McCracken are conceded that they can make the long distance. Neither are able to risk much legal tender on the trial, but both are chuck full of grit and fortunately about same size, and if out of all kinds of money, they can wager their clothes.

Kinsmen of the writer, no small number in Detroit had planned to spend "Decoration Day" with us in honor of our departed ones, and because they could get away from the factory. We sent them word not to come. You may not know it, but I hear people express fear of contact with Detroiters at present time. Let travel cease till small pox has subsided.

The South Novesta Farmers' Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bruce on 23rd. A small attendance but a good meeting. They voted to hold next meeting at home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Quick in Novesta June 18th. Said date is the time of "Old Folk's meeting" and club and pioneers will consolidate for that day. Everybody regardless of nationality, politics or religion are invited to come and partake of the Christian spirit that will prevail on the occasion.

William Owens of Detroit, formerly of this place, a master of vocal song, gave us a favor over the radio on the evening of 23rd. Merchant Patterson has the machinery that wafts the sound to our rural burg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary King of Marlette spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Emily Warner. Mr. King's mother, Mrs. C. E. King of Highland Park who has spent the week visiting here, returned home with them.

The porches of Kennedy home are re-constructed by the artistic hand of Wm. Randall and now the whole structure will be painted.

The level land farmer moans over too much rains.

Mrs. C. E. King of Highland Park has been spending past week with her sister, Mrs. Emily Warner.

Ice on water trough morning of May 22, 1924.

R. E. Johnson and family have come here again and moved in above his hardware store. He moved from Allegan county by van. Cost of van, $110.

We did not go out on the 22nd, but are informed that Bad Axe kilties made us a call to promote a good feeling between wholesalers and retailers. They moved with the style showing the "ball of the leg"—and discoursed sweet music on the bagpipes.

We are asked to correct—Our school went with their drama to Kingston on 17th, a rainy night, and the people met them with a smile and the collateral. The result was after all expenses paid, there were $19.50 to put in the till.

In obituary of Benjamin Sharp of last week did not get names of those attending funeral from a distance. Hence ask Chronicle to print them in this issue. Retherford and Mrs. Wesley McCain of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Keilitz of Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glover, James McTyre of Almont, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fritchie, Mrs. Libbie Schenck of Inlay City, Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sharp and son of Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Willis, Mrs. Catherine Yakes and daughter, Mary, and Hiram Willis of Cass City, Mrs. James Plainer of North Branch, Mrs. Russell Baker of Pt. Huron, Verne Kyle, Elton Kyle, Miss Sara Sefton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathews and family of Detroit, Mrs. D. C. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Johnson of Pontiac, Jane Willis of Ortonville, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Willis and daughter of Deckerville, Jacob Hilderbrand of Yale. Possible some other names have been overlooked but writer has tried to get them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Jones of Standish and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Mathews of Caro were Sunday callers at the home of E. H. Spencer.

Mrs. E. H. Spencer was called to Clifford Sunday afternoon by the illness of her granddaughter, Vernita Wiltse.

Coolidge has not tried to be popular, but he has tried to be right. He is more popular than any other politician who is trying to be popular. Perhaps the greatest factor in winning popularity is to think a thing through, and say it, and stay by it—as the late Mr. David Crockett suggested, in fewer words than are here used.—Battle Creek Enquirer.

Michigan and Her Railroads

Since 1920, when the Government returned Railroad operation to private enterprise, service in Michigan has become yearly more dependable—more nearly adequate.

That Service is today the best Michigan has ever enjoyed.

As a result there has come into being between the State's 24 steam Railroads and the public they serve, a spirit of pride and mutual good will.

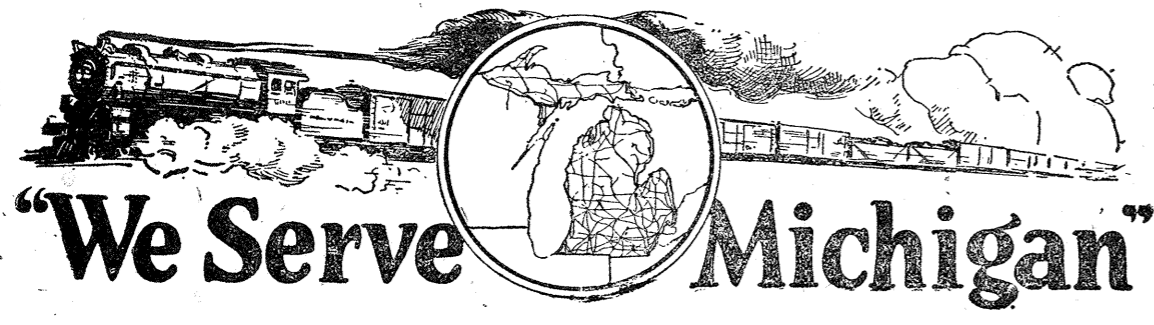

Geographical isolation has made railroad service a local more than a national problem in both Peninsulas of Michigan. Within the enveloping barriers established by our Great Lakes, Michigan and her Railroads can prosper only by prospering together. State and carriers become thus members of a close community of interest.

Michigan Railroads realize this fact and make it fundamental in all details of management and operation.

The public can also recognize this situation by neighborly cooperation and by insisting that the roads be repaid by receiving, in national and state supervision, the same square deal.

We invite from you any suggestion of more ways in which we can consistently better our service.
