BROOKER MAKES OLYMPIC TEAM

ELECTED CAPTAIN OF U. OF M. TRACK TEAM FOR COMING YEAR.

Saturday at the Harvard Stadium during the final tryouts for the Olympics, Jas. K. Brooker tied with three others for first place in the pole vault at 13 ft. giving him a place on the U. S. Olympic team with whom he sailed from New York on the S. S. America Monday for France. The team will go to Paris and be stationed in a beautiful old chateau loaned to the American team by the U. of M. track team. Brooker is a field event man, a precedent of many years' standing was broken, as it is customary to give this honor to a dash or distance track man.

Olympian Games.

In 1896, the finest amateur athletes of the world, representing many nations, assembled at Athens to engage in a series of international contests. This event, the first modern celebration of the Olympian games, represented the revival, after a lapse of 15 centuries, of the most important Greek festival of ancient times. Farther back than history records, some of the people of the Peloponnesus began to hold a contest in foot racing, in honor of Zeus, on the plain of Olympia, in Elis. Gradually the festival became an affair of national importance.

FUNERAL OF JOHN ZINNECKER WILL BE HELD TODAY

Well Known Citizen Noted for His Industry Passed Away Wednesday Morning.

John Zinnecker, who has been very seriously ill for the past two months, passed away at his home on South Seeger St. on Wednesday morning, June 18, at the age of 75 years. Funeral services will be held at the family residence this (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. C. F. Smith, pastor of the Evangelical church officiating.

Mr. Zinnecker was born at Pirmesens, Germany, on Nov. 25, 1848. At the age of 20, he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Wagoner. He came to the United States in 1865, his wife and baby daughter following him a year later. The family first settled at Ionia and later at Carson City. Mr. and Mrs. Zinnecker came to Cass City in 1880 and started farming operations on a farm three miles east of town, on the Tuscola-Sanilac county line. In the fire of 1881, they lost their barn and farm produce, but were fortunate in saving their home.

Mr. Zinnecker found it expedient to work at his trade as shoemaker in order to support his family about the second year of his residence in this community. He walked from his farm to Cass City, a distance of three miles, over poor roads, every morning to work at his trade and his farming operations were conducted early in the morning and late at night. Not long after this, he moved to Cass City and for 21 years he was employed by J. D. Crosby to conduct a shoe repair shop. Later he entered the business for himself.

Honesty and thrift have been characteristics prominent in Mr. Zinnecker's life and his industry has been an outstanding feature. He believed it is better to wear out than rust out and he proved to be an indefatigable workman.

Besides his wife, he leaves seven children, Mrs. W. D. Striffler and Mrs. Lester Bailey of Cass City, Geo. Zinnecker of Brunelda, Mont., Wm. Zinnecker of Deford, Mrs. C. W. Clark of Caro, Mrs. Grover Blades of Big Creek, California, and Mrs. John Thiel of Hobart, Indiana. Two children preceded the father in death.

MUCH TALK, LITTLE DONE BY CONGRESS

HOWEVER, THE SESSION MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE FROM FARMERS' STANDPOINT.

(By Michigan Farm Bureau.)

Michigan farmers will be interested in checking up the performance of the recent session of Congress alongside the legislative program of their farm organizations. While it is generally recognized that Congress fell far short of carrying out the expectations of the American public, yet it should be recognized that some constructive legislation was enacted and many pitfalls were avoided.

After surveying the situation, we are inclined to say that Congress, which completed its session June 7, gave a generous amount of consideration to special agricultural matters, but this consideration resulted in very little action. The McNary-Haugen bill was defeated in the House, the vote being 154 in favor of the bill and 224 against it. The Ford Muscle Shoals offer was considered favorable in the House, but did not reach a final vote in the Senate. The matter will be brought up again when Congress convenes in December. "Truth-in-Fabric" legislation was given consideration by both House and Senate Agricultural Committees although without final action.

Despite this rather negative side of the record of Congress, there is much which we might well commend. A restrictive immigration law was passed which was in practical conformity with the desires of organized farmers. This measure is regarded by many students of public affairs as being the outstanding achievement of the recent session. There can be no question but that its enactment was most timely and its principles sound and constructive.

Congress took strong action toward economy and tax reduction, taking 25 per cent off this year's taxes and making very material reductions elsewhere. The Prohibition Law was not weakened, efforts through investigation were made to strengthen it.

The Department of Agriculture was properly supported and attacks on it defeated. The Dairy Bureau Bill was passed and the Bureau established. Continued good roads work was assured. Free seeds were again defeated. The tax on telephone messages was repealed. The sales tax showed its "hydra head" but was never given a chance to put into effect. Further efforts to put more land into use by government help and subsidies were defeated.

TUSCOLA CO. CREDIT BUREAU.

Business and professional men of Tuscola county are being interviewed by R. A. Ripley of Saginaw for the purpose of organizing for their mutual benefit a credit bureau to be known as the Tuscola County Credit Bureau to be owned by its members and operated under the supervision of a board of directors.

Henry W. Beecher, who retires from the register of deeds office the end of this year, has been appointed the manager of the county bureau and will maintain an office at Caro, opposite the court house. The bureau affords members protection from credit losses, collects old accounts and allows members to do an extended credit business with safety.—Adv.1

Mr. and Mrs. Zhar and two children of Saginaw visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Warner.

TO BOOST USE OF STATE MARL BEDS

Special M. A. C. Demonstration Train Will Tour Many Counties during July and August.

Increased utilization of the many marl beds which are known to be present on Michigan farms will be sought in a special "marl extraction" campaign to be put on during July and August, by the Agricultural Engineering department at the Michigan Agricultural College.

A demonstration team will travel by motor truck from one location to another carrying complete equipment to set up and operate marl extraction machinery. Marl will actually be dug at the different demonstration points, in order that the assembled farmers may see the actual process.

The chief feature will be the showing of a small, individual marl extraction outfit, which is said to be suitable for use of the individual farmer or the small neighborhood group. High overhead expense connected with large outfits is said to have been in the past a hindrance to widespread use of the natural marl deposits in the state. The Michigan Agricultural College has worked out designs for a small outfit which has proved to be a practical success, and this will be shown during the campaign.

Vast areas of Michigan soil need lime applications, and the use of local marl deposits is expected to result in more general treatment and lower expense. Marl, of course, is used for the same purpose that lime is used—in treating acid soil.

Many counties in central, southern and southwestern Michigan are included on the tentative schedule for the campaign, plans for which are being completed by L. F. Livingston, M. A. C. specialist in Agricultural Engineering.

LEGION BILLET FORMALLY OPENED AT OTTER LAKE

Other News from Thumb Towns Gleaned from the Chronicle's Exchanges.

A crowd estimated at 5,000 people witnessed the dedication of the Otter Lake billet for the orphans of World War veterans Sunday. In spite of the inclement weather, the program was carried through with a great display of enthusiasm by the legionaires.

Yeggs entered the Farmers' elevator at Harbor Beach and blew the safe, securing $200 early Friday morning.

E. C. Gordon of Clifford has been engaged as superintendent of the Caseville schools.

Bad Axe merchants have signed an agreement to close their business places Thursday afternoons beginning July 10 until the week of the Bad Axe fair.

The Verona Hills golf course of Bad Axe is rapidly being whipped into shape and will be ready for regular playing within a few days. The membership of the club is limited to 100.

The creamery at Kingston was damaged by fire at midnight Monday. Some of the boiler room equipment was damaged but the churns and other dairy machinery were not harmed.

Caro high school graduated the largest class in its history this week when 51 seniors received diplomas.

The Salvation Army band of Detroit, an organization of 56 members, will be an attraction at Harbor Beach on July 4, 5 and 6. Members of the band will be accompanied by their wives and sweethearts, and by higher officials of the army and will be entertained in private homes at the beach town. The band goes to Harbor Beach under the auspices of the Baptist church of that city.

Lapeer is about to suffer an epidemic of hospitals, as it were. Some weeks ago Clarence Butler of Marlette purchased the former Tomlinson property of the Robert White estate and began work at once of renovating and improving the place with a view to opening a private hospital. Last week the Watkins place on South Main street was sold to Mr. and Mrs. John Reno of Mount Morris, who also announce their intention of starting a private hospital. Both parties are experienced in the business.—Clarion.

The semi-annual meeting of the county board of supervisors will meet in Sandusky on Monday, June 23. This session is a short one and will last only one week. The board will transact the usual routine of business and pass on all the criminal and civil bills to date. At the present time no special order of business is in the way to take up the time of the supervisors.

When boys are placed in homes by the state it is a crime to entice them away. Frank Tebo of Saginaw paid a fine of $35 and goes on a year's probation on a charge of interfering and inducing a ward of the state to leave the home of Oscar Pawlitz, near Port Hope. A Coldwater boy, Raymond Comter, aged 19, was indentured to Pawlitz by County Agent Deady four years ago. Tebo, is the boy's uncle, and plead guilty to the charge.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Sanilac County Red Cross society held in Sandusky Dan Leslie, of Defcor, was elected chairman. Other officers are vice chairman, Mrs. F. A. Corbishley, of Sandusky; secretary, Mrs. Dan Leslie; treasurer, Chas. L. Bell, of Snover. Atty. R. W. McKenzie has been named chairman of the home service committee with Mrs. Grace Kelly as secretary and Mrs. Wm. Gleason, of Marlette, director of nursing.

The W. R. Roach Canning Co. at Crosswell expects to start about July 1 to can peas for which contracts for 3,700 acres are held. A large majority of the peas contracted are in Sailac county. Spinach, beets and sweet corn will follow during August.

MANY ATTENDED SETTLERS' REUNION

LARGE GATHERING OF NOVESTA PIONEERS AND FRIENDS AT M. H. QUICK FARM.

The largest gathering in the history of the Novesta township settlers' reunions marked the 1924 meeting which was held at the residence of M. H. Quick on Wednesday, June 18. The weather was ideal and the day passed most pleasantly.

Two hundred fifty sat down to the sumptuous dinner served at the noon hour and more came in the afternoon to increase the size of the crowd.

At the election of officers, Loren Churchill was elected president, Mrs. Jesse Soles secretary and Lewis Retherford treasurer. Committees were also named to look after various features of the gathering in 1925.

At the beginning of the afternoon program, the secretary read letters from several who regretted their inability to be present. N. W. Bridges, who came to Novesta in 1868, reviewed conditions in the early days and told several humorous incidents. Mrs. S. Stowbridge, pastor of the Novesta Church of Christ, gave an interesting address, John McCracken read a paper on "Early Days in Oakland County" and Wilbur Lockwood of Kingston spoke on his experiences as a soldier in the Civil War.

David H. Butler of Lapeer gave a stirring talk on state issues. He was obliged to make his address brief owing to the lateness of the hour, a fact much regretted by his hearers. The addresses were interspersed with several readings and musical selections which were greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Not a little of the pleasure of the gathering was derived from the opportunity afforded to greet old friends and acquaintances and spend some time in reviewing incidents of early days in Novesta. Mr. and Mrs. Quick proved hospitable hosts and the pleasures of the 1924 gathering will linger long with the old settlers and their friends.

Michigan Farm Colony Has High Record Cow In Tuscola County Cow Testing Association

Wahjamega Korndyke Marmay owned by the Michigan Farm Colony of Wahjamega produced 1873 pounds of milk and 77.5 pounds of butter fat. This is 20 pounds beyond her nearest competitor. Her nearest competitor was Lindale Aaggie Canary, a 2 year old recently purchased by the Farm Colony from Livingston county for a price of $300. Lindale's record for thirty days was 14.6 pounds of milk and 56.7 pounds fat.

Geo. Walls of Kingston holds high herd butter fat average for the third consecutive time. An average of 37.33. This is something very unusual and is a point to be considered when purchasing stock.

Michigan Happenings

Manistee's gas rate was automatically reduced from $1.75 to $1.60 at a special meeting of the city commission, when Mayor John H. Rademaker ordered the city attorney and city manager to put into effect a resolution adopted by the commission, January 22, 1924, declaring that the gas rate should be reduced within 90 days if the Consumers Power company did not take action toward the construction of a new city gas plant.

The five-year-old son of William Barnett pulled the trigger of a rifle which was lying on a bed in a lumber camp building at Strongs. In another camp building two houses away, the owner of the gun, George Sheppard, 54 years old, of Newberry, was struck by the bullet and instantly killed, the shot having gone through the two buildings. Sheppard was a visitor at the camp and had aid his gun on the bed in one building while he was inspecting the camp. His body was brought to the Soo by Sheriff Arza Swart.

Mayor David R. Cuthbertson of Flint was recalled in a special election by a majority of 2,327 votes. There were 14,281 votes cast, with 3,304 favoring the recall and 5,977 voting to retain the mayor. In a statement made immediately after the final returns of the election were communicated to him, Mayor Cuthbertson declared he would use his right to become a candidate for reelection at the election which now is necessary.

Permission to abandon the Kalamazoo, Lake Shore & Chicago railway, known as the Fruit Belt line, has been granted by the interstate commerce commission. The company has operated the old route of the Michigan Central railroad between this city and Lawton. Operation of motor buses cut so deeply into the passenger business of the road that passenger trains were abandoned about a year ago.

Three thousand pine trees have been planted in parks and along the country road in Iron county by the parks commission of Iron Mountain. Fifteen hundred were planted in the fair ground park at Iron River. This is the result of the offer of the state to sell pine trees and seedlings at a low cost to those interested in reforestation. A large number were planted successfully last season.

Sale of a controlling interest in 47,000 acres of timber land in Hodgins and Whitman township, Algoma district, Ontario, containing 350,000,000 estimated feet, principally birch and maple, to J. E. Bennett, of Free Soil, and Dirk Schurer, of Gaylord, has been announced at Ludington. The new owners will erect a mill at Northland, 20 miles north of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

The Adrian street railways, one of the oldest street railway lines in the country is to suspend operation on or before July 1, it was announced after a conference between representatives of the company and the city commission. The line began operation in 1889 and is said to be the oldest (electrically operated) one in Michigan and the fifth oldest in the United States.

John Powers, 65, surface foreman for the Oliver Iron Mining company, at Iron Mountain, is dead from injuries suffered in an automobile accident. Power's automobile was demolished by a Northwestern railroad passenger train, entering the city. The accident occurred at a crossing leading to the Chapin mine. The victim had been surface foreman for 40 years.

A "syndicate" of Iron Mountain sportsmen will experiment in crossing breeds of rabbits this summer, in an effort to develop a giant wild rabbit. Blooded Belgian hares have been purchased for the experiment. The offspring will be set loose in the woods of the county as soon as they reach a size that will insure ability to shift for themselves.

In 10 years Detroit has added 51 square miles to its territory, and the assessed valuation of the city, or the property value, has jumped $1,837,045,010. The city's budget has jumped from $10,267,999 in 1914 to $51,476,676.73 in 1924 all of which is raised by taxation. This year the city added to the assessed valuation $349,000,000, which brings the property value of Detroit up to $2,455,989,000. The new tax rate has not been definitely determined, but will be with a few cents of $21 per $1000 of assessed valuation. Last year the rate was $22.46.

Activity in building construction was maintained in May according to the monthly report of Frank Burton, commissioner of the Detroit department of buildings and safety engineering, which shows 4,811 permits issued for work of a total estimated cost of $16,790,708. This is an increase of 379 permits and of $3,814,947 in expenditure over May, 1923, when 4,432 permits were taken out for work amounting to $12,976,761. The May figures fall short, however, of the April, 1924 showing of 4,924 permits for work to cost $20,128,862.

John W. Reid, commissioner of public works, who recently made a tour of eastern cities in an effort to find a proper solution of Detroit's rubbish and garbage problems, has assigned an engineer to prepare a plan for a more efficient operation of this department. The various methods employed throughout the country will be considered in the report, together with the possibilities of using the street railway department during the night to haul garbage and rubbish, instead of the present motor truck system.

The allotment of $2,226,824 by the federal government to Michigan for road building for 1914 is an increase of more than a quarter of a million dollars over the 1923 allotment, which was a few dollars less than $2,000,000. It is only exceeded by the allotment of 1921, which was $2,249,000. The 1923 allotment was $1,500,000. BANKERS' VIEW ON CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

The attitude of the American Bankers Association on co-operative marketing favors proper organization to facilitate the orderly movement of farm products, but holds that the co-operatives are as amenable to economic laws as any form of business and cannot be used to gain special benefits for the farmer contrary to the influences of supply and demand and other normal factors. This view was formulated recently by Frank W. Simmonds of the Association before the National Council of Farmers Co-operative and Marketing Associations at Washington. "It would be unfortunate for the farmer if he becomes imbued with the idea that co-operative marketing in itself is a panacea for all agricultural ills," Mr. Simmonds said. "Co-operative marketing, well organized and wisely managed, can be most helpful in solving market problems. It may prevent untimely dumping, it may secure better credit facilities, it may extend existing markets, it may even create new markets, but obviously its operations will be as amenable to economic law as those of other business enterprises.

What It Cannot Do

"Co-operative marketing cannot prevent other countries with cheaper land and labor from selling in foreign markets at a price unattractive to us. It cannot successfully override the law of supply and demand or maintain for any length of time an artificially high price by withholding a product from market or unduly limiting production. Sane, orderly marketing must be accompanied by sane, orderly thinking.

"We may wisely take a leaf from Danish experience and emphasize efficient, economical, maximum production of standard grade products, for however important co-operative marketing may be in solving the exigencies of the present time, it is only one link in the chain of agricultural problems."

The American Bankers Association, Mr. Simmonds said, believes that solutions of farm problems "should be sought through private enterprise and not through government aid," and approves the endeavors of farmers for orderly marketing.

Pastime Theatre

CASS CITY
FRIDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY, JUNE 20, 21, 22.

"On the Banks of the Wabash"
(Inspired by Paul Dresser's famous song.)

The rescue ship sailed down Main Street when the dam broke at Spinxville. The water rose to the second story windows and many climbed to roof tops to escape the flood. Then the fire started and the boat caught fire. Who can resist Capt. Hammond of the Sarah Jane, who was always ready to lend a helping hand and fight for right? Full of thrills from start to finish.

Also see a good funny comedy. Children 10c. Adults 30c.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24-25.

"Making a Man"

He who has forgotten the holly-hocks by the cabin door, the morning glories by the rustic porch, the tree under whose shade he played in childhood, cannot enjoy life in declining years, we care not how beautiful the surroundings.

It must be more slack in Detroit and Pontiac than a year ago. We meet men who say "We come to work thru haying and harvest."

We have had four lemonade days in June at present writing, but hope for rest of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Patch of Detroit visited at Deford over Sunday.

In the name of religion rivers of blood have been shed. But let us remember that there are many religions, but only one Christianity, and that is to love your neighbor as yourself. To deviate from that may be a religion, but a religion of Satan.

R. E. Johnson's hardware now looks from the distance like a mountain of gold. Let it be known as the golden bazaar.

Edward Patch has moved back to Novesta. Has worked in Detroit for some time but his health is not good in the city.

Word comes from authentic source that the "Big Lamb" known here as "Deb" has taken unto himself a wife among "the daughters of men."

Warm days and cool nights are our best grain seasons.

Amuel Frutchee accompanied by his daughter, Alice, and granddaughter, Mrs. Schwaderer, and baby called on us past week. Mr. F. is fairly well since his return from Florida. In our visiting on Florida, a thought was prompted which we cannot forget. When I farmed a piece of land I fought Quack grass by day and lay awake nights to cuss it, wondering what good it was to the world. Now we find we're it not for the despised plant, Florida would be minus green lawns. 'Tis the only grass that will take hold of her barren sand. Hence we were forced to recall the old adage, "Nothing made in vain."

Intoxicated in mind is worse than being intoxicated in body.

Our school closed with a picnic dinner on the banks of White Creek one mile north of town, on June 13th.

On Saturday, the 14th, leaflets were distributed over our burg which read as follows: "Be sure and be in Deford Sunday night, June 15, at 8:30 p. m." Nothing more on the leaflet to show who was behind the venture. But wise ones thought it would be an open air meeting with three K's on the banner. 8:30 p. m. came and a Scotch mist was falling. Cars from neighboring towns came in but no orator arrived so the plans fell thru. A small cross was burned in the center of our wondering town and the callers departed without throwing any light on mystified brains why the cross is consumed by fire or what lesson it is intended to teach. Verily 'tis a strange age—and we can only say in the language of old, strange things transpire inside the House of Israel, as well as outside the House of Israel.

The Anker-Holth Self-Balancing Bowl Cream Separator

Individuality

EXTRAORDINARY FEATURES THAT MAKE IT SUPREME

In reading about the Anker-Holth you have discovered it is not a copy of some other separator. Here is the ONE Cream Separator of the age that stands out conspicuously from all others, and is in a CLASS BY ITSELF. Where other separators end, the Anker-Holth begins. What they hoped to accomplish, the Anker-Holth actually achieved. It is the finale in the cream separator drama—the LAST word of experts in mechanical cream separation. May we group a few of the INDIVIDUAL features that has given the Anker-Holth such an exclusive birthright:

- A SELF-BALANCING BOWL.
- INTERCHANGEABLE discs that point downward.
- A Sanitary Dirt Chamber.
- New Type of Bowl Spindle.
- Patented Curved Wings and Feed Shaft.
- Perfect Power Transmission.
- A Sanitary, Easily Cleaned Bowl Housing.

- A Perfect Self-Oiling System.
- Adjustable Cream and Milk Shelves.
- A Clutch that has no Equal, and one that at all times is ready to take hold.
- By Delivering the Cream at the Bottom and Skim Milk at the Top of the Bowl, forever prevents the intermingling of the cream and skim milk in the bowl while in the act of separation.

The Anker-Holth is a REAL Cream Separator, and once separation takes place in the bowl, it is delivered separately in the cream or milk receptacle with no fear of mixing.

Words are inadequate to describe just what the Anker-Holth actually is, or what it will do when in operation. It must be seen and used to comprehend fully its superiority; and after the "user" has seen for himself, he too will join in the Anker Holth acclaim—"The half has not been told."

SNOW STORM

"Come on Sir Freeze-the-Ponds," said King Snow. "Come on Mr. Wind," he added.

"We're waiting for you, too, Lovely Snowflake children," he called.

"And we hope you'll not be late," he shouted to the Jeweler Brothers known as the Diamond-Snow Jewelers.

"I want to have a storm party," King Snow said, "and I'd like to have you all come."

"Of course the jewelers don't have to come right away. But I hope they'll come soon after the party and won't be late in taking their places in the great winter reunion."

"You all know that a reunion means a gathering together once more so we all want to gather together to show that Old Man Winter is here."

"I'm here," Old Man Winter shouted. And Mr. Wind blew through his long fingers a great cold breath of air and whistled as he said:

"He's here all right. Old Man Winter is here."

"Oh, it's so nice to have a reunion," said King Snow.

"Would you like me to come, too, Your Majesty?" said an icy voice and there was Prince Storm dressed in lovely jewels of icicles and a crown of little snow peaks which had been frozen into shape by Prince Sleet's friend, Mr. Freezing-is-Fun.

"We want you, of course we want you," said King Snow.

So Prince Storm joined the party. "And we want Mr. Freezing-is-Fun, too," King Snow added. "He is always such a nice one to have at a party. Some creatures go to a party and never say a word and don't make the slightest effort to help have a good time."

"For those who don't get into the fun of things don't enjoy themselves either. That is only fair of course. But it is so much nicer when they do enter into the fun of a party and enjoy it themselves and help others have a good time."

"Mr. Freezing-is-Fun is a splendid creature at a party."

"And we must ask Prince Sleet. Prince Sleet would help a great deal."

"I'm here," said Mr. Freezing-is-Fun. Mr. Wind had offered him a free ride to the party and Mr. Freezing-is-Fun had accepted with great eagerness and pleasure.

"Well, well, well, this is nice to see the old friends again."

"How do you do, Snowflake children? Why, hello, Old Man Winter. I might have known I would have seen you here. This is nice, ha, ha, ha, this is nice."

"And I'm powerfully pleased to see you, Sir Freeze-the-Ponds. I'm such an admirer of yours."

So Mr. Freezing-is-Fun went around greeting all his friends and they were all glad to see him, too.

Then along came Prince Sleet.

"I met some one on the way who wants to come to the party," said Prince Sleet.

"Tell me who wants to come," said King Snow.

"It's the whole Blizzard family. Old Boy Blizzard wanted to know if he could come and bring the others. He said it was the nurse's day out and there was no one with whom to leave the children if all the older ones went off, too."

"As a matter of fact I think they sent that word as an excuse to bring the whole family but they don't mind if you know how very anxious they are to come—so long as you will let them come."

"Oh, yes," said King Snow, "have them come."

"I'll tell them they're invited," said Mr. Wind.

"Thank you kindly, thank you kindly," said King Snow.

And soon, oh so soon, the Blizzard family came and such a snow-storm and blizzard and wild time as there was at the big reunion of King Snow and of Old Man Winter and their friends!

VACATIONS

THREE young girls came hastily and noisily into the car as the train moved out of the station. They had just barely escaped being left. The vacation was over, and they were going back to work. As they disposed of their various belongings, settled back in their seats, mused up their hair a little more becomingly, and made discriminating use of their powder puffs, fragments of conversation began to float through the car. I buried myself in the book I was reading, but I found it impossible not to hear something of a "peach of a vacation" mingled with grand opera and Farrar in Carmen, with New Year's eve at the Congress hotel, with a lovely formal party at Northwestern university, and with an all-night party at the Country club.

"I am simply dead," one of them said, "and I have a pack of back work to hand in tomorrow." The babble of conversation ceased shortly, and the silence became so great that I turned to find the cause. They were asleep, their tired, pallid faces and the dark rings under their eyes showing all too well what a lovely, restful vacation they had had.

The man who said that it takes the strongest constitution to stand the average trip for the health might have added that it takes the strongest man to stand the ordinary vacation. A woman whom I once knew when asked if she employed a servant girl, remarked that she had one, but that she was just then doing her own work. She hoped as soon as she was strong enough to try one again. I have often felt that it might be a good thing to require young people to pass a physical test to determine whether or not they are strong enough to indulge in the dissipations of a vacation. A line of pale, sad-eyed, tired, and physically knocked-out undergraduates who come into my office after every vacation may have had a "peach of a time," but they very seldom reveal much of the bloom on their return.

There is no more severe test of a man's character than the way in which he spends the time that is his own and the way in which he puts in the hours or days of leisure and vacation. Most of the moral delinquents whom I know strayed away from the path of virtue and self-control first when they had nothing else to do—when they were having a vacation.

Lost Only Two Games.

Cass City high school has hung up a proud record during the past season under the able coaching of Earl Brooks.

Only two games were lost during the year. One by one run and the other by two runs. One team, Bad Axe, was blanked 6 to 0. A record-run scoring game was produced when Cass City defeated Vassar 29 to 4 in seven innings. Millington pitchers walked 14 Cass City men in a game earlier in the year at Cass City. Hutchinson and Allen both struck out 16 men in a game. Allen's victim was Akron while Hutchinson's feat was against Bad Axe. Moore, Cass City's first baseman, twice scored four hits in a game, once against Mayville and the other time against Millington.

Larry Hutchinson, captain and pitcher of the team, starred in every game. He led in batting with an average of .455, in stolen bases with 12, and second in runs scored with 20.

Perry Allen, shortstop, was second in batting with .382, and led the team in sacrifice hits with four.

Garry Moore, first baseman, was third in batting with .347. This is his first year in baseball and he improves with every game. Great things are expected of him next year.

Alf West, centerfielder, batted .341, for the year. He will be back one more pitcher.

Bud Wayne, leftfielder, finished the season with a .298 average. An injury year to raise havoc with the opposing to his back, handicapped his batting in the last three games played. He was second in stolen bases with 11 to his credit, second in sacrifice hits with three and was given 11 bases on balls. He is the only member of the team who graduated.

Dutch Benkelman, second baseman, batted .292, and was given 13 bases on balls during the year. He will be back for two more years and great things are expected of him.

Bob Dilman, third baseman batted .250 and led the team in runs scoring with 22 and in bases on balls with 16.

Cal Patterson batted .238, and will be back for two more years.

Harland Bond, catcher, batted .200. He hung up a great fielding average with only one error in accepting 117 chances.

Geo. Dillman, rightfielder, batted .200 and will be back one more year to spear the hot liners back of first base.

Pat Keenoy, utility player, looked good when given a chance. He will be back for three more years to show his worth.

The season's record:

- Cass City 6, Akron 7.
- Cass City 10, Fairgrove 2.
- Cass City 14, Mayville 4.
- Cass City 12, Millington 3.
- Cass City 12, Unionville 2.
- Cass City 6, Flint 8.
- Cass City 13, Postoria 3.
- Cass City 6, Bad Axe 0.
- Cass City 29, Vassar 4.
- Cass City 10, Caro 5.
- Cass City 10, Reese 1.
- Cass City 13, Millington 7.

Total runs scored 141, opponents 46.

portance, celebrated by all the Hellenic states, and in 776 B. C. the Greeks began to keep a record of the names of victors. This date is the starting point in Greek chronology. The games were celebrated every fourth year. In the course of time, boxing, wrestling, discus throwing, chariot racing and other athletic exercises were added to the original foot race. Those who entered the lists were compelled to undergo special gymnastic training and to show a name free from civic or personal dishonor. Until the conquest of Greece by the Romans, contestants had to be of pure Hellenic blood, but under the Roman regime both Greeks and Romans participated.

In A. D. 396, the Roman Emperor Theodosius issued a decree forbidding the celebration of the games.

The modern revival, in 1896, therefore, occurred exactly 15 centuries later. This series of games was especially interesting because the members of the royal family of Greece took part in the festivities and the awards were distributed by the king in person. Probably no event attracted more interest than the long-distance foot race from Marathon to Athens, held in honor of the messenger who brought to Athens the news of the victory at Marathon and died after telling his story. It was planned to make this great international meet the first of an indefinite number of series, and accordingly other contests were held at Paris (1900), at St. Louis (1904), at London (1908), and at Stockholm (1912). The games for 1916 were scheduled at Berlin, but their celebration was made impossible by the outbreak of the War of the Nations.

The Marathon races have been won as follows: in 1896 by a Greek; in 1900 by a Frenchman; in 1904 by a Canadian; in 1908 by an American; and in 1912 by a South African.

FORD LUBRICATION

The Ford lubricating system is a combination of simplicity and ingenuity unsurpassed in any car. It saves the Ford owner many an hour "going over the greas cups" a painful necessity with most other cars. But it does require some attention.

Because the oil you put in your Ford crank-case performs so many duties,—for this reason greatest care should be taken in selecting the right oil. Yet we venture to say more bootleg oil is poured into defenseless Fords than any other car.

Your Ford is a loyal friend, give it a square deal. No oil is too good for "Lizzie" and, because we know it's true, we tell you

Staroline
NON-CHATTER
a motor oil for Ford cars only, is the best.

Special Rug Sale

If you are intending to buy a rug any time this year, it will be of great advantage to you to buy during this sale, even though you have to hire the money to buy with, for your saving will pay the interest on the money and leave you a snug little profit besides.

We have cut the price on every rug in the store from five to fifteen dollars.

I find by taking inventory of my rug stock that I am carrying altogether too much money in rugs and have told Mr. Crosby to sell regardless of cost or profit.

There's a large assortment of Wilton Velvets, Palisade Velvets, Axminsters, Brussels, and Fiber rugs for you to choose from. We have practically any make or pattern you may desire. But don't wait. We have made prices that will sell every rug in the store in the next few days.
