CITY AND DRAINAGE BOARD ARE UNABLE TO AGREE

Deadlock Over Cut-off Plans of Flint River Project in which Injunction Is Involved.

(From Saginaw News).

Establishment of the proposed Flint river cut-off drain district was blocked Wednesday by the refusal of the city of Saginaw to agree to unconditional removal of the injunction, secured in 1916 by the city and other interested townships and individuals to restrain Lapeer, Tuscola and Sanilac counties from deepening and widening the Flint river, and the refusal of the drainage board to proceed unless the city agreed to unconditional removal of the injunction.

City attorney Frank A. Picard, representing the city, proposed an agreement for a temporary removal of the injunction, pending the findings of a survey and investigation of the flood conditions that would result. If this survey showed that the flood danger to Saginaw would not be increased, the city would then agree to permanent dissolution of the injunction, according to Mr. Picard's proposal, but if it showed there would be an increased flood menace here, the city would reserve the right to withdraw from the agreement and have the injunction restored.

Drain commissioners of Saginaw, Midland, Gratiot, Lapeer, Sanilac, Tuscola, Livingston, Oakland, Shiawassee, Genesee and Huron counties compose the drainage board for the cut-off project, which was originally proposed by farmers of Albee and Spaulding townships, Saginaw county, which were plaintiffs, along with the city, in the original injunction petition in 1916.

This drainage board refused to accept the conditional suspension of the injunction, as proposed by Mr. Picard on behalf of the city council, and adjourned indefinitely until some court action is taken.

FIRE THREATENED WHALE'S FEED BARN

Fire threatened to destroy James Whale's feed barn at a late hour Saturday night when the Ford touring car belonging to John Towle of Evergreen township burst into flames. Prompt assistance of willing hands in shoving the burning car into the street prevented a big fire. The roof rafters were scarred by the flames and Mr. Whale considers himself very fortunate that the damage is so slight.

Mr. Towle drove into the barn shortly before nine o'clock to store the car for a few hours. The fire was discovered about 11:00 p. m. Cause of fire is unknown. The car's cushions and top were burned, but Mr. Towle found the "going parts" in good order and drove the machine home that night.

SUGAR BEET CROP OUTLOOK BEST IN SEVERAL YEARS

Three Plants in Thumb District Expected to Have Runs of Three Months' Duration.

The sugar beet crop outlook in the Thumb of Michigan is better than it has been for some years and sugar factories are expecting to start their campaigns early this month with the prospects of long runs.

The Sebawaing plant of the Michigan Sugar Co. will begin operating about Oct. 15. The actual acreage to be harvested for this plant this year is 8,560, which is about 3,000 acres more than were harvested last year. Judging from the crop stand, Manager Deegan expects that 80,000 tons will be harvested and a run of 75 days or more is anticipated.

At Croswell, a campaign of at least 100 days is anticipated.

The Caro plant expects to start the work of slicing beets next week and a 90-day run is anticipated. Two more truck weigh stations have been opened this year in the territory of the Caro plant. One has been located two miles east and 1½ miles north of Colwood, the other 3 miles east of Marlette in the Germania neighborhood. These make three such stations as one was established at Elmwood last year. Farmers will deliver their beets to these points where company trucks will deliver them direct to the plant except at Germania where they will be taken to the railroad.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OCT. 5-11

SAFEGUARD YOUR FAMILY AND HOME BY BEING MORE CAREFUL.

Three of Every Four Fires Are Due to Public Carelessness and Ignorance.

Fire Chief Geo. West has received announcements from the Department of Public Safety stressing the importance of observing fire prevention week Oct. 5-11 which has been declared a national event by President Coolidge. Although the observing of the week is a national proposition in which whole communities take part, the work in a large part is up to the individual.

Governor Groesbeck has issued the following proclamation:

Year by year the national destruction of life and property by fire has been mounting until the total loss of material now approximates the enormous sum of $506,540,000.00. This means the wiping out of needed resources at the rate of about $1,387,700.00 daily.

"More than 15,000 lives are lost each year by fire. Most of the victims are women and little children. Safeguard your family and your home by being careful.

"Fires occur in American homes at the rate of 359 every 24 hours—a fresh outbreak every four minutes. At least three out of four need not start for they are due to public carelessness and ignorance—both correctable.

"Careless smokers cause many fires. Be careful with your lighted match and cigarette.

"Since most fires are preventable, the regrettable devastation by burning that takes place day after day is largely unnecessary. It goes without saying that every effort should be made to relieve the people of the self-imposed burden represented by preventable fire.

"Therefore, I, Alexander J. Groesbeck, Turn to page 5.

GETTING OUT OF SNARLS

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

CORNELIA, a little twelve-year old neighbor of mine this summer, had had her hair washed, and now as I sat outside on the porch of our cottage trying to compose a letter, she was inside with Nancy getting the snarls out. This was a result wrought with no little expenditure of time and pain, for the child's hair was long and heavy and furnished infinite possibilities for tangles.

I gathered from the conversation as it came to me rather disconnectedly through the open window that Cornelia had an engagement that required her immediate attention. She was going horseback riding, or was driving into the village for a sandwich, or had something much more pleasant in mind than getting the snarls out of her hair. She was of the opinion that if the surface were brushed lightly ultimately the deeper seated tangles would work themselves straight. She objected to sticking until the work was done.

But Nancy was firm. "It's got to be done now," she insisted. "If you don't get 'em out at the start, they get worse and worse, and they hurt more by and by." And so Cornelia submitted and came out in due time, her blond hair all wavy and shining.

There are a good many people who hate to get all the snarls out at the beginning. There was Higgins, for example, drifted along at the first of the semester slighting his conjugations and his declensions and paying little attention to his idioms and his irregular verbs until finally he found himself in such a mental tangle that the snarls wouldn't come out, and he ignominiously flunked the course.

It was the same way with Simons. He was a fine athlete with every prospect of making the team, but he didn't quite understand the beginning of his analytics. He trusted to chance to work out his difficulties, and the result was that when fall came he was ineligible and his absence probably lost us the conference championship.

The time to do a piece of work is when it is assigned. The time to solve a difficulty is when it arises. Well begun is often very much more than half done, and this is especially true of the beginner in business. If there are any snarls in your work get them combed out immediately. Otherwise the result is failure.

It's Worry That Kills

Hard work, with a peaceful, harmonious mind, will never kill anyone; and when it is accompanied by serenity, hope and joy, it builds up the system and prolongs existence instead of shortening it; but worry kills, and not to stop it is slow but certain suicide as well as the destruction of much of the joy in the lives of one's best and choicest friends.—Aaron Martin Crane, Illinois Central Magazine.

Study Bacteria

It was the famous French scientist, Pasteur, who laid the foundation of modern knowledge of bacteria, and of the studies which will result, without doubt, in further great and useful discoveries. He not only discovered that there are good bacteria, but that among the bad the dead could be used to fight the living. Hundreds of laboratories and thousands of students are now busy with the subject.

A certain very alert young man from Cass City who is attending the state normal school at Ypsilanti had a somewhat embarrassing experience recently. After spending the week-end in Detroit, he was awaiting the Ypsilanti car. When he reached for his bill-fold, it was gone. Now this young man had always prided himself on his ability to keep track of his belongings. This may account for a part of his chagrin, but the more important cause follows. A few days later, he received an envelope containing several receipts and his automobile operator's license, which had been in his bill-fold. Of course, the bill-fold and the bills were not returned. The young man is now of the opinion that the normal school needs to offer a new course in mental telepathy.

CHURCH CALENDAR.

Erskine U. P. Church—The subject next Sabbath morning is "The Church of God." In the evening we will continue "The Foundations of Our Faith." You are especially invited to attend next Sabbath. On that day begins the great "Come to Church" movement which is to continue until next April and we hope will become permanent. This is to be general among the churches. The object is first, to re-interest those who have been neglecting the church and second to bring the non-church goers to the house of God. Christian people are asked to call on their neighbors and invite them to church. The good old custom of calling on your neighbors has gone out of style. Let us revive it. It has been said that "A community going church makes a church going community." Try it. Make many glad because you said to them "Let us go unto the house of the Lord." Try it. See what would result if all the churches in the Thumb country were filled next Sabbath. Come to church and receive a blessing.

Lapeer Lad Electrocuted; Owendale Man Injured; Other Items of Interest.

Lapeer—Charles Stier, 17, was electrocuted Saturday night at about 7 o'clock while putting up a radio set in his home in Lapeer. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Stier and was a nephew of Charles Stier, county clerk. He and his father were putting up the aerial for a radio outfit. Young Stier was holding the wire as his father threw it across a power line. Instantly there was a crash and the boy dropped. In attempting to pick up his son, Mr. Stier was severely shocked and is still in a critical condition.

Owendale—Henry Lintner, living three miles west and one mile north of Owendale was badly scalded about the breast and face Wednesday afternoon. He was running a tractor with the fan belt off and when he discovered the water in the radiator was too hot he removed the radiator cap with the result that the boiling water was blown over his breast and face.

Bad Axe—Dr. Watson Beach, son of Wilbur Beach, will leave Friday for Rochester, Minnesota, where he will begin a three year Fellowship in Surgery, with the Mayo Foundation. Dr. Beach is a graduate of the Detroit College of Medicine and Surgery and was an instructor in the Anatomy Department there during the past year.

Caro—Tuscola county Democrats chosen to attend the state convention at Grand Rapids Oct. 1 are R. J. Putman, Geo. Taggart, Caro; Joseph M. Dodge, Cass City; Robert Jacoby, Bedford; Neil Burns, Kingston; Maurice Eveland, Mayville. The county committee was organized with the following officers: Geo. Taggart, chairman; Joseph M. Dodge, vice chairman; R. J. Putman, secretary; Robt. Jacoby, treasurer.

Sandusky—Sanilac county Democrats elected to attend the state convention are: Wm. McCaren, F. J. Erwin, T. E. Roberts, Wm. Bettis. Alternates—W. J. Walker, R. J. Rasmussen, Wm. Cronin, Chas. Cook.

Bad Axe—Seventy road signs showing directions and distances to towns and cities in Thumb district have been received by the Huron county road commission and will be placed on prominent road intersections throughout the county in the spring. Raised letters on pressed metal plate make the signs easily read and durable. As the tourist traffic is practically over for the season it was considered unnecessary by the road commission to place the markers this fall. Metal warning signals for railroad crossings, cross roads, school zones, trunk line junctions and curves were placed in the county this summer.

Deckerville—A special election will be held at Deckerville Monday, October 6, for the purpose of granting a franchise to the Great Lakes Power Company and to determine whether or not the council will be authorized to dispose of the city power plant and equipment to the Great Lakes company.

Crosswell—That Dick Holdburg is a hard hearted fellow, particularly when he gets out on his highway job. He arrested Archie Nugent of Roseburg, for driving with one arm around his girl on the way to the fair, and Justice Hayward thought the hug was worth ten dollars. Had Archie refrained from the one arm work, until on his way home there is a chance the eagle eye of Dick would not have seen him and there would have been ten dollars more toward starting up housekeeping. It is said that Holdburg is so darned homely himself that there is no possibility of his ever breaking this particular regulation so he gets the handsome boys every chance he gets. Moral—do your hugging in the old hammock and give the Ford your whole attention while driving.—Jeffersonian.

FIND DUSTING GOOD

WHEAT SMUT CONTROL

Copper Carbonate Recommended in Treatment of Seed Wheat—Said Safe by M. A. C.

That copper dusts are satisfactory and safe in treatment of seed wheat to prevent "stinking smut" is indicated by experiments and later practical tests carried out under the direction of the Michigan Agricultural College, and this treatment is being recommended this fall by Dr. George Coons, of the college botany department.

"Many farmers tried copper dusting in the fall of 1923," says Dr. Coons, "and reports are satisfactory. Stinking smut causes heavy losses, and its control is important. The new copper-dust treatment has advantages over the old formaldehyde treatment which merit consideration."

Detailed information on treatment by the copper-dust method may be had by writing to Dr. G. H. Coons, M. A. C. Botany Dept., East Lansing.

THREE PROPOSED

AMENDMENTS

Concluded from first page.
at the rate of 8 per centum.
"All incomes above $80,000 up to and including $100,000, shall be taxed at the rate of 9 per centum.
"All incomes above $100,000 shall be taxed at the rate of 10 per centum.

"The income tax law, herein authorized shall be administered by a board of state tax commissioners.

"All moneys paid to a board of state tax commissioners under the provisions of this amendment shall be paid into the state treasury and shall then be credited to the general fund of the state, and shall be used for defraying the general expenses of the state government and for the payment of principal and interest on state bonds.

"On or before the first day of September of each year, the auditor general shall deduct from the total amount directed by the legislature to be included in the state tax, for that year, the amount of money received under the provisions of this amendment and credited to the general fund of the state for the current year and the balance if any shall be deemed to constitute the state tax to be apportioned among the various counties of the state in accordance with the provisions of the general tax law."

The effect of this proposed amendment, if adopted, will be to authorize the enactment of a graduated income tax law.

A proposed amendment to Article V of the constitution dividing the state into senatorial and representative districts, and to read as follows:

"Section 2. The Senate shall consist of thirty-two members elected for two years and by single districts. Such districts shall be numbered from one to thirty-two inclusive, each of which shall choose one senator. The House of Representatives shall consist of one hundred members elected for two years and by single districts. Such districts shall be numbered from one to one hundred inclusive, each of which shall choose one representative."

"Section 3. The secretary of state, the attorney general, and the lieutenant governor, acting as a board of review, shall on or before the first day of April, 1925, and every eighth year thereafter, divide the territory of the state into thirty-two senatorial districts. Such districts shall consist of convenient and contiguous territory with regular boundaries following the county, city, or township lines as nearly as possible and shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of registered and qualified voters. The secretary of state, the attorney general, and the lieutenant governor, acting as a board of review, shall on or before the first day of April, 1925, and every eighth year thereafter, divide the territory of the state into one hundred representative districts. Such districts shall consist of convenient and contiguous territory with regular boundaries following the county, city, or township lines as nearly as possible and shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of registered and qualified voters. Provided, that in the formation of such districts no township shall be divided thereby."

"Section 4. On or before the first day of January, 1925, and every eighth year thereafter, the clerks of the several counties, cities and townships shall cause to be filed with the secretary of state a certified statement of the number of registered and qualified voters resident therein at the last presidential election."

The effect of this proposed amendment, if adopted, will be to authorize a division of the state into senatorial and representative districts by a board of review consisting of the secretary of state, the attorney general, and the lieutenant governor.

STATE TO ENTERTAIN

CROP AND SOILS MEN

American Society of Agronomy Will Meet at M. A. C. in Summer of 1925.

Leading farm crops and soils specialists of the country, members of the American Society of Agronomy, will visit Michigan in the summer of 1925, their annual meeting being scheduled for the Michigan Agricultural College.

More than 200 men, drawn from practically every state in the union, from Canadian provinces, and from the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington, will be included in the list of visitors, according to Prof. J. F. Cox, of the M. A. C. crops staff, through whom the invitation was extended to the agronomists.

The co-operative state and government sugar beet and field bean work being carried on at the M. A. C. station will be one of the features studied at the convention, along with the large development work with alfalfa and sweet clover at the East Lansing plats. Special soil tests will also be available, while a planting of all leading wheat varieties of the central and northern states will be set especially to provide material for the visiting crops men.

FIRE PREVENTION

WEEK OCT. 5-11

Concluded from first page.
beck, Governor of the state of Michigan, by the authority in me vested, do designate and proclaim the period from October 5 to 11, 1924 as fire prevention week.

"And I earnestly request that the proper city departments, cooperating with Chambers of Commerce and other civic organizations, shall arrange interesting and educational exercises that will impress the importance of the occasion upon the public mind. I hope that every resident of the state will actively take part in the observance and that they will remove rubbish and litter and other hazards about their homes and places of business; that they will inaugurate the personal habit of carefulness. I ask that our churches by means of sermons and addresses, and the newspapers by editorial mention shall help to spread the doctrine of carefulness; that our boy and girl scouts will lend their assistance in inspections and cooperation with their local fire chief and that our schools shall adopt systematic instruction in fire prevention to the end that our State may be made a safer and better place in which to live."

In a communication to fire chiefs of the state from the Chief Fire Marshal's department, attention is called to the large number of arson and incendiary fires occurring in Michigan annually which have made the fire losses over $20,000,000 greater, and fire chiefs are urged to use every means possible to apprehend those guilty of these felonies.

ATTENDANCE IMPROVES, TARDY MARKS INCREASE

of the third quarter, second half, with defeat apparent, Cass City woke up and began working the ball toward their own goal. In the last twenty minutes of the game, the local men made four more touchdowns, bringing the final score 12-30, Cass City's favor.

On the local team, A. West showed exceptional ability in plunging thru the line, making several touchdowns. J. Benkelman showed up well in line plunging, and made several good gains. G. Hartwick, a new man this season in football, showed up very well in making long gains. At one time, he made thirty-five yards, nearly getting away for a touchdown. A. Gowen played a good "head" game. On the line, W. McBurney and G. Moore caught several passes, netting extensive gains. The line as a whole played well, very few gains being made through it. Except for the two touchdowns, Deckerville would never have made Cass City's thirty-yard line.

Deckerville played a good game the first half, holding our men down to few runs. Their full-back showed up well, making the two touchdowns following the fumbles.

Cass City's schedule is one of the heaviest this year that it ever has carried. Today (Friday), Harbor Beach plays here. Tuesday, October 7, Marlette comes here, and Friday of the same week, Sebawaing and Cass City play on the local field. All out now!

Agriculture.

This year's agriculture class will emphasize potato culture at the high school fair this year. They will show the results of using certified seed, and the advantages of choosing seed potatoes by the following methods: Hill selection, mass selection, tuber unit selection. They will also illustrate the disadvantages of using diseased hill potatoes. Students are preparing exhibits of apples for the fair. The class room work in the study of apples is for the purpose of learning the identification of varieties, storage of varieties, and the planning of the home orchard.

Kindergarten.

We are studying domestic animals, and are having an interesting time trying to draw them. It is quite a problem for little hands to learn to use scissors. We received the primary attendance banner this month, having had only three absent. We are very proud of the banner, for it seems that sometimes parents under-estimate the importance of kindergarteners reaching school on time. We know that it is just as important for us to be here promptly as it is for the high school students, and we are going to try very hard to be here always on time. We have twenty-four enrolled this year.

Fourth Grade.

We have the primary tardy banner this month, not so much because we had less persons tardy, but because our larger enrollment brought the percentage less. We are having a contest in arithmetic to help us to learn to know our tables perfectly. We are studying the continents and oceans and begin to think that we know all about them.

Fifth Grade.

We are very well pleased with our new text-books, Arithmetical Essentials, Book Two, Drushel, Noonan & Withers. In reading class we are reading the story of the Golden Touch. For art we are painting brown-eyed Susans, and think they are so pretty.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Miss Vida Smiley of Bad Axe was operated on Thursday for removal of tonsils.

Mrs. Perry Ducolon was brought to the hospital Thursday and operated on that evening for appendicitis.

Geo. Kellar of Snover was operated on Friday for removal of tonsils.

Mrs. A. Bittner of Detroit and Henry Rifenbach of Elkton are other patients at the hospital. They are getting along nicely.

ARE YOU GUILTY OF MOTOR-SLAUGHTER

A well-known used car dealer said to us the other day "Some of the guys driving cars these days ought to be jailed for motor-slaughter."

Then he went on to tell us some interesting things about the used car business. Among others, he said "When I'm offered a car which has been kept well doped and oiled I can pay a third more money for it."

Then we talked with his appraiser, the foreman of his shop, "What's your thought about this changing oil every so often?", we asked him. "The man who keeps good oil in his car and changes it every 500 miles adds 50% to the life of his motor." Said this man, who overhauls many cars a week of every sort shape and condition.

IS YOUR WORK HARD?

Many Cass City Folks Have Found How to Make Work Easier.

What is so hard as a day's work with an aching back?

Or sharp stabs of pain at every sudden twist or turn?

There is no peace from that dull ache.

No rest from the soreness, lameness and weakness.

Many folks have found relief through Doan's Pills. They are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Cass City people recommend Doan's.

Fred Bardwell, farmer, W. Houghton St., Cass City, says: "Heavy work brought on backache and a heavy, depressed feeling. My kidneys also acted irregularly. Mornings, I felt worse than before going to bed. However, I always found great relief in Doan's Pills. A box or two fixed me up in fine shape."

Mr. Bardwell is only one of many Cass City people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Pills, the same that Mr. Bardwell had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all dealers. DEFORD NEWS

The carpenters inform their work will be completed on beanery in two weeks from Sept. 29.

Mr. Douglass of Detroit, former owner of the William Cooper farm in Novesta, is here this week.

Samuel Sherk spent last two days of past week in Flint.

There is a rumbling of the law. "There is thunder gathering on the brow and lightning flashing from the eye." There must be a collision; it is unavoidable. "Let it come. I repeat, sirs, let it come."

Our aged ones seem to enter the cold in good condition. All but Mr. Bell can use their limbs fairly well.

Mrs. Emory Cone's mother has come to stay with her through the winter.

Mrs. Wm. Bentley returned Wednesday after a few days' visit at Pontiac.

The W. T. C. U. mets with Mrs. E. R. Bruce Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bruce were callers at John Retherford's in Caro last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bruce were callers at Dr. Bates in Kingston and home of Edward N. Hart. Ed. is recovering finely and the attending physicians think there is no danger of a relapse stroke.

We have a coal situation in the town this week. Dare not explain the fine points at present.

Mrs. Alice Curtis spent Sunday at John McArthur's.

The R. C. Jacoby family were callers at Bay City and Caro Sunday.

Miss Neva Cones, who teaches at Lexington, was home on Sunday accompanied by a friend, a Miss Point.

Mrs. C. Silverthorn visited a few days in Pontiac last week.

Visitors from Detroit inform that times are fairly brisk in the great city.

Mrs. Howard Retherford receives word from Detroit that sick kindred improves as well as can be expected.

The work on the beanery goes rapidly on.

The change of R. R. pleases some and displeases others. Such things must needs be, because of our head build.

Sunday's rain found late beans in the field.

Unfortunate fall for bean raisers, but a fortunate season for the bean pickers.

A committee of the longest headed men to the east of us have been to Detroit to find the Marlette milk swindler who let them down from $50.00 to $200.00 according to the cow value of the men.

Pitching quoits is the exercise that keeps some of aged men in robust health. Up to date, N. B. Daugherty is king winner at the sport.

William Randall has beautified his residence 'till it would grace a larger city.

George Spencer has rented his 80 acres on north side of highway to a foreigner for $375.00. About 70 acres are fit for the plow. 'Tis beet soil beyond question.

You may do a thousand foolish things and expect forgiveness if truly penitent. But if you search a novel for a name for the baby, you tread on dangerous ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patch of Detroit spent Saturday night and Sunday here.

Frank O'Rourke, who has been absent from these parts two and a half years, has returned again.

We have often heard strangers remark of the beauty of Cass City because of her wide streets, but we did not know 'till we read article in last Chronicle that much of the credit should be awarded to Travis Leach now gone to his happy home. Narrow streets are the great mistake made in laying out most all new towns. Cass City should do something to commemorate the name of Travis Leach. A something that would teach future generations that wide streets are the beauty and honor of a town.

A man so unrighteous as to kick his own town should be corrected righteously.

If we make mistakes in our jottings at times, forgive and remember perfection is not of this world.

Our new beanery will be an improvement over anything of the kind Deford has ever had.

Our minister is returned to a welcome people.

Yes, we had frost but it fell on us gently.

Deford has a candidate for sheriff. That means business.

We dare wager a boiled shirt that Deford entertains more drummers than any town of its size in the Thumb.

Mrs. Howard Retherford has returned after a two weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. Joyce Smith, who has undergone an operation and seems to be well on the way to recovery. Peter.

Peter Daugherty is filling low spots in the town, both highway and streets.

C. J. Malcolm informs us while at M. E. conference last week he met 12 ministers who had labored at Deford.

In this locality a good beet crop is reported, notwithstanding some rust and drowned outs.

So far our school moves smoothly and when the school is pacific it speaks well for the piety of the people.

Although Wm. Gage has sold his residence, he will remain here for the winter.

When the writer was young phenology was called a rule to go by. They call it a joke now. But if the bumps on head of the Marlette milk man had been examined before he was allowed to establish business, perhaps the wailing of farmers, east of us, would not be heard.

When court opens at Caro next month. Deford will be heard from with no small voice.

Elisha Allen spent part of last week in Deford. He divides his time between here and Cass City.

The friendship of a friend we should faithfully keep. His welfare as our own, we should diligently seek.

If found a friend indeed. But if found a sham, practising the hypocrite's play, From him we must turn, as from the blight of a wintry day And as a stranger pass him by.

Neil Kennedy is excavating under the dwelling. A cellar and furnace will be the results.

E. L. Patterson brought in a carload of soft coal and furnished many of the people with fuel for the winter.

The beanery is being painted as fast as erected.

We have our boiling corn now and will "when the frost is on the pumpkin and the corn is in the shock."

Ben Hicks is considered an all-round sharp man and aims at keeping everything sharp within his jurisdiction. He carries a jack-knife with razor edge. Not locating place of fingers just right when closing the keen cutter, he tipped end off one the appendages, but he weighs enough yet for ordinary business.

THE PURPOSE OF THE PUREBRED.

By John W. Sims, Co. Agricultural Agent.

Since 1907 the Iowa Experiment Station, Ames, Iowa, has conducted what is now known as "The Iowa Purebred Sire Investigation" to determine the influence of purebred sires in increasing the production of milk and butterfat from a foundation of scrub cows.

Fifteen years of careful record keeping on feed cost, milk and fat production, persistency of milk cow, environment and other factors on a constantly increasing number of offspring, has established the fact that a good producing and highly profitable herd may be built up from a foundation of common cows. The offspring resulting from mating a good purebred dairy sire with common cows will show greater production in both milk and fat than will their dams.

Many farmers milking a string of scrub cows want to own better cattle but fear the cost. They are anxious to improve the milking qualities of their herds and really enter into the dairy business. They fear to "buy in" and do not "grow in" because they are unaware of the rapid progress possible in grading up. The Iowa investigation shows that a herd of profitable producers can be built from a foundation of common cows where the initial expense is a good purebred sire.

Cows used in the investigation: The cattle used by the Iowa investigators were purchased in 1907 in Arkansas in a section where no purebred bulls had previously been used. The animals were scrubs, small, no vein development, poor individuality. They were as poor prospects for improvement as could be found.

The sires used on these cows were the herd bulls in use at the College dairy farm, where purebred cattle of the different breeds are maintained.
None of these sires were high priced, but they were well bred for type and yearly production. Three breeds were started in the investigation.

The determining value of a bull is a comparison of the production of his daughters with that of their dams.

The sire of each breed at once improved the producing qualities of the offspring over their dams.

What the offspring Should Be: The offspring in nearly every case showed improvement also in body conformation, persistency of milk flow and more economical production. A good flow of milk for a short period is not desirable. Animals which have a large milk flow and a long sustained milking period are always to be preferred.

The superiority of purebreds and grades over scrubs in actual average monthly production is clearly proved by the figures. One of the main reasons the scrubs showed such poor production was their lack of persistence. The improvement in the offspring in this respect is due entirely to the pure blood of the sire.

Checking each animal carefully:
Careful checks of the production were made from the very first year. Each cow's milk was weighed each milking and a composite sample taken from which the percentage of fat was determined. For the last seven years the cows themselves have been weighed weekly so that every factor of proper feeding could be considered.

Results also showed that the scrubs were the least economical producers; that half bloods by purebred sires were more economical, and three quarter bloods gave the cheapest milk production.

The Iowa investigation has definitely established the value of the purebred sire and his place in our agriculture. Under the conditions that have been as fair and equitable to the common cow as only an experiment station can provide, the purebred sire has been tried and he has not been found wanting. The pure blood of his ancestors who for centuries have been selected for large economical and persistent milk and butter fat production, improved the off-spring of these scrubs.

That is the purpose of the purebred: He will do this in every case, no matter how small the annual yield or how poor the body conformation of such cows may be.

What the Iowa station has proved will be practised in thousands of herds within the next years. Bull associations and cow testing associations are adding more proof every month. How long will you delay improving the average production of your herd?

Wild Flower Millinery
for Winsome Buds

All the little buds in the rosebud garden of girls have to be hatted, and if blossoms that gladden the earth have counterparts anywhere in apparel, they are to be found in millinery. Here is a winsome bud—sometimes called a flapper, wearing a wildflower hat—as pretty as the wee, crimson-tipped flowers that Bobbie Burns loved and sang of. It is a scratch felt—in any color—and it is very becoming. And one can see in the eyes of the little maid that she loves it.

Honeymoon

The tradition of keeping a so freely of wine mixed with honey that he had a marriage

Too Ambitious

The colonel was delivering an address to junior officers up for examination. He dwelt with much emphasis on the fact that each officer should devote the intervening time to prepare for the final examination. "The examination papers are now in the hands of the printer. Are there any questions to be asked?" Silence prevailed.
Suddenly a voice from the rear quietly inquired: "Who's the printer, sir?"

MORE COW-TESTING ASSOCIATION WORK

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A detailed report of cow-testing association work in the United States and of the increase in number of associations will not be due until January 1, 1925; but figures now on file in the Bureau of Dairying, United States Department of Agriculture, indicate that on July 1, 1924, there were about 730 cow-testing associations in active operation, as against 627 a year ago. This is a gain of over a hundred during the past year, or a gain within the year of a little more than 16 per cent.

Though there was some increase in the number of associations in many states, the big gains were in a few states. Those having the largest actual increases are given in the following table:

State	1923	1924	Incr.
Michigan	53	81	28
Minnesota	55	93	38
Iowa	47	61	14
Wisconsin	151	163	12
Kentucky	10	20	10
South Dakota	4	10	6

Michigan ranks first in increased number of associations with a gain of 38, but Minnesota is a close second with a gain of 35. Wisconsin still leads in the number of associations, but Michigan and Minnesota are gaining on Wisconsin. Iowa, Kentucky, and South Dakota are also making substantial gains.

This increase in the number of cow-testing associations is very encouraging. It means that year by year more of our dairy cows are being placed on yearly test. More testing means more economical production, and more economical production benefits both the producer and the consumer.

Not Profitable to Feed

Dairy Calf Whole Milk

It is readily recognized that at present prices of dairy products, dairy calves cannot be fed economically on whole milk over a long period. It is also true that approximately 45 per cent of the dairy cows in the United States are found on farms producing whole milk for condenseries, cheese factories, powdered milk factories and for the market milk trade. On these farms the milk brings a high price; in many cases $3 to $4 a hundred pounds—sometimes more.

A calf requires an average of about 15 pounds of whole milk a day until four months old. This amounts to 1,800 pounds. If valued at even such a low price as $3 a hundred, the milk alone costs $54. This does not include the cost of hay and grain consumed in addition to the milk.

Farmers making a business of selling whole milk do not have skim milk for feeding purposes and the common practice is to kill the bull calves at once or sell them for veal. Unfortunately, too often the heifer calves are also disposed of in the same way. In such cases the herd must be replenished by buying mature cows.

Excellent Fly Spray

An excellent fly spray recommended by the Iowa State College of Agriculture is as follows: Four and one-half quarts coal tar dip; 4½ quarts fish oil; 3 quarts coal oil; 3 quarts whole oil; 1½ quarts of oil of tar. Dissolve 3 pounds laundry soap in water, add the ingredients of the spray and bring the whole up to 30 gallons with lukewarm soft water. The cows should be sprayed twice a day—in the morning after milking, and in the afternoon when in the barn for silage or green feed.

Dairy Notes

- Milk in a small-mouth pail.
- Ship cream to the nearest creamery.
- Never mix warm cream with cool cream.
- Keep the cream cool until it is sent to the creamery.
- Correct feeding of good cows will increase dairy profits.
- Ship cream testing between 30 and 40 per cent butterfat.
- Use a fly repellent on your cows. Good cows pay for it.
- Rinse utensils after rinsing with live steam or scalding water.
- Off flavors in milk and cream may come from uncleanliness.
- Protect utensils from dust and flies after they have been sterilized.
- Keep the cream as near 50 degrees F. as well or spring water will cool it.
- Stir cream every 15 minutes for an hour after being placed in cooling tank.
- When cream of different ages is mixed, stir them together thoroughly.
