RELATIONSHIP OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

COMMUNITY CLUB HEARD STIR- RING TALK ON TUESDAY EVENING.

Largest Gathering of Members Since Club's Organization; 30 New Names Presented.

"Of the 25,000 agricultural towns in this country which were founded in the days of short team hauls and buggy transportation, 36 per cent have been dying in recent years, while others are dead, and don't know it," said Dr. Eben Mumford of the Michigan Agricultural college in an address before the Community club at the Baptist church Tuesday evening.

Fifteen years ago there were very few automobiles, but recent years have brought wonderful changes in transportation and farmers go past a dead town these days to trade in a live one even if the distance is greater. It will be a survival of the fittest. The small cities and villages which survive will prosper in a greater degree than ever for these will be the centers of the new era upon which we are entering, said the speaker.

Dr. Mumford said the greatest movement in America today is meetings like that of Tuesday evening which bring about a better understanding between town and country. He spoke of the rapid growth of the cities of the world in the last half century because of the age of steam which means concentration. Only 29 per cent of the people live on the farms today. Now all is changing. Electric power is now distributed everywhere which spells decentralization. Ten cities in the United States have suburban populations which are growing more rapidly than the city itself. The cities are moving out and the country is moving in. Distances are vanishing and there is no isolation on the farm today.

Prof. Mumford urged the proper interpretation of the values of the country community to the youth. He pointed out how closely interdependent is the farm and village and the absence of competition between the two. The prosperity of one depends in great measure on the prosperity of the other.

Michigan will be the second state in the Union in wealth in fifteen years, the speaker predicted. Michigan farmers have today and will have in the future the richest market for their foodstuffs. The farmers must recognize this situation and study their markets. The towns located in agricultural sections should be equally concerned. Their future depends on it.

"Not long ago a gentleman went into several stores in a Michigan city to buy some apples for a company of boy friends," the speaker related. "He asked for Michigan apples of uniform size and variety, but was unable to procure them. There were some fine western apples on sale, however, all nicely boxed, graded and wrapped. This is an example of a number of instances of the disregard of the demands of our closest and richest outlet for farm products. All these present-day and imminent problems demand close study and special training to place standardized products on the market."

Our educational outlook is most hopeful, said the speaker. Fifty-four per cent of the high school pupils in Michigan towns of 350 to 5,000 come from the farms. The percentage of country pupils in the high schools 15 years ago was very, very small compared with that of today. The future lies with the youth of the agricultural communities and Mr. Mumford made a strong plea for better schools in the villages and small cities of Michigan.

Mr. Mumford's address was one of the finest and most constructive given before Community club audiences.

Prof. H. W. Holmes, president of the club, said that Tuesday night's gathering was the largest since its organization. Thirty new members were added to the membership list at this meeting. At the request of the Women's Study club, a committee was appointed from the Community club to co-operate with a committee of the Study club to further community projects in which both are interested. Roy Bricker, chairman of the civic committee, was asked to name two other members to act with him as representatives of the Community club on the joint committee of the two societies. He chose John Marshall and P. A. Schenck. Rev. I. W. Cargo presented the speaker of the evening to the audience.

Tables and dining room were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and leaves and the 140 members present did full justice to the fine banquet prepared by the ladies of the church.

The Women's Home Missionary society will hold the October meeting at the home of Mrs. L. I. Wood today (Friday.)

FUNERAL OF ELIZABETH MARSHALL HELD SATURDAY

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Marshall was held Saturday afternoon at the home of John Marshall, Rev. Wm. Schnug officiating. Interment was made in Elkland cemetery.

Elizabeth Marshall was born June 21, 1885, in Elkland township and passed away October 9, 1924, at the age of 39 years, 8 months and 12 days. She is survived by her step-mother, Mrs. Nancy Marshall of Cass City; four brothers, John and Neil Marshall of Cass City, Alex Marshall of Kingston, and Arch Marshall of Bear Lake; and one sister, Miss Isabel Marshall of Los Angeles, California.

Those from a distance in attendance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Arch Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hopkins of Bear Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Marshall of Kingston.

FOUR STATE S. S. CONVENTIONS IN OCTOBER

Held at Traverse City, Saginaw, Kalamazoo and Ann Arbor This Month.

The 64th annual state convention of the Sunday schools of Michigan is due this year to be divided into four conventions and all will be held within the last two weeks of October. The first one at Traverse City, October 20, 21, 22; the second at Saginaw, October 22, 23, 24; the third one at Kalamazoo, October 27, 28, 29; and the fourth one at Ann Arbor, October 29, 30, 31.

It was because of the large number of people desiring to attend the convention, and because only a few cities of the state could accommodate the gathering, that the executive committee of the Michigan Sunday school council, under whose auspices the conventions are held, arranged the present series.

The State Council of Religious Education is an inter-denominational organization representing officially seventeen of the Protestant Evangelical denominations of the state. The conventions, therefore, are authorized by these bodies and will be attended by delegates from most of the churches of Michigan.

The following talent has been secured:

M. A. Hinkle, Pasadena, California, lecturer on Religious Pedagogy.

W. O. Thompson, President International Council of Religious Education, late president Ohio State University, Columbus.

John L. Alexander, American Youth Foundation, Chicago, Vocations and Avocations of Youth.

A. M. Locker, Field Superintendent International Council of Religious Education, Chicago.

Miss Cynthia Pearl Maus, Christian Board, St. Louis, Specialist with Adolescents.

Miss Florence Norton, Presbyterian Board, Philadelphia, National Director of Children's Work.

Herman U. Leedy, Youngstown, Ohio, Director in Music and Pageantry.

GOSPEL CAMPAIGN.

Special evangelistic services are being conducted in the Wickware M. E. church, seven miles east of Cass City, by Evangelist R. J. Traynor, conference evangelist for the Methodist Episcopal church. The meetings are growing in interest and numbers.

One of the largest audiences ever assembled in the church heard the evangelist Sunday night deliver an old-fashioned sermon on "Repentance."

Rev. R. J. Traynor.

The evangelist does not ride any hobbies. He says the people are not tired of the old-fashioned Gospel, but they are tired of a substitute for it. Meetings every night except Monday, at eight. Come and bring others.

MATURING OF LATE CROPS DELAYED

SEASON UNUSUALLY FAVORABLE FOR OATS AND YIELD IS LARGE.

Favorable Weather Permitted Growers to Harvest Much of Their Bean Crop in Good Condition.

The cold and backward season has delayed the maturing of late crops. Notwithstanding the absence of a general killing frost during September, but few crops have reached a normal maturity. While the yield is quite satisfactory in most cases, except some of the fruits, the quality of many is not up to the average, according to the October report issued by L. Whitener Watkins, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, Agricultural Economist, U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. A lack of sunshine and warm weather during the growing season is responsible for this condition.

Very little corn has matured in northern counties but a considerable portion is in fairly good condition in the southern half of the Lower Peninsula. It is estimated that the State's total production will be approximately 44,346,000 bushels, the smallest since 1917. Last year's crop was estimated at 58,167,000 bushels. The present condition is 62 per cent as compared with 83 per cent last year and a ten-year average of 79 per cent. Cutting did not begin until the closing days of September.

The outlook for the nation's crop has declined still further during the month, the present estimate being 2,458,809,000 bushels, about 600,000,000 Turn to page 2.

ASK MORE SEVERE SENTENCES.

There has been circulated in Brown City during the past two weeks, a petition which will be presented to Judge X. A. Boomhower asking for more severe sentences for those who are found guilty or plead guilty to violation of the liquor laws. The petition has been liberally signed by the citizens in that part of the county. Monday at Port Huron, Judge Law had the following to say in regard to liquor law enforcement in St. Clair county: "No Pole from Hamtramck convicted of liquor law violations is going to get a fine in St. Clair county. Every last one of them is going to serve a term in state's prison. We are going to stop them from running booze through this county. You can tell your friends, they may want to know."

AND EVERYBODY HAD A GOOD TIME

ALL WELL SATISFIED WHO ATTENDED PAVEMENT OPENING CELEBRATION.

Fine Parade, the Hungry Fed, Good Program of Sports and Entertainment.

"Had a fine time!" "Best celebration Cass City has had in years!" "Everybody satisfied!"

Such expressions of delight and satisfaction are heard on every side regarding the pavement opening celebration and home-coming at Cass City on Friday, Oct. 10.

Those who feared that the crowd would be small because of the busy season had their apprehension dispelled early in the afternoon when auto loads came from every direction and crowds soon lined the streets to view the sports and parade.

In the pavement contests which started shortly after one o'clock, the winners were as follows:

Boys' bicycle race—1st, Maurice Dailey; 2nd, Geo. Dillman.

Boys' race, 14 years and under—1st, Keith McConkey; 2nd, Frederick Brown.

Free for all run—1st, Harry Smith; 2nd, Harold Cole.

Fat man's race—1st, Herman Doerr; 2nd, J. H. Holcomb.

Egg race—1st, Myrtle Dodge; 2nd, Mrs. John Simmons.

Potato race—1st, Lee Hendrick; 2nd, Robt. Wallace.

40-yard dash for girls under 14—1st, Leona Hawksworth; 2nd, Mary Whalen.

The parade, hurriedly gotten together after but a day's preparation, exceeded all expectations. It was led by a Buffalo surrey, a vehicle right up in style 20 or 25 years ago, drawn by the fine span of blacks driven and owned by Dugald Krug. In the surrey were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Striffler. The former was an auctioneer and implement dealer in this community many years and probably enjoys a larger acquaintance in this section than any other man. Mr. Striffler wore a tall silk hat won by him 50 years ago in a salesman's contest. About 20 business houses were represented by floats in the parade in addition to Amsden's Saginaw band, beautifully

BROWN CITY BOARD OF COMMERCE VISITS CASS CITY

Twenty-seven Members Made Trip to Dozen Towns in Thumb on Tuesday.

Members of the Brown City board of commerce to the number of 27 visited Cass City Tuesday noon, taking dinner at the Gordon Hotel. Eighteen of the best looking fellows had seats in the classy new bus just added to the Thomas Burnell bus line which makes daily trips from Imlay City to Cass City and return. The trip in which about a dozen towns in the Thumb were visited was in the nature of a "howdy-do neighbor" affair and stops were made just long enough to permit members of the party to shake hands and pass the time of day with men engaged in similar lines of business. Places included in the itinerary were Marlette, Kingston, Deford, Cass City, Elkton, Bad Axe, Harbor Beach, then down the shore road to Lexington and Crosswell.

Cass City folks were glad to see their Sanilac county neighbors and trust that on their next visit here the Brown City representatives will have more time to spend.

Property owners at the south end of Woodland Ave. have been busy the past few weeks in adding improvements to their residences. Clarence Burt has replaced the roof of his house with a new one, Miss Ethel Reader has added a new porch and roof, Wm. Akerman has built a new porch and Hiram Willis has placed a furnace in his home.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN ANSWERS FINAL ROLL CALL

George E. Perkins Came to Tuscola County in 1866; Many Years a Cass City Citizen.

The remains of Geo. E. Perkins, who passed away at the home of his son, James Perkins, at Argyle on October 8, were brought to Cass City Friday for interment in Elkland cemetery. Mr. Perkins was born at Collins, Erie county, New York, on Dec. 27, 1842. He was enrolled as a private in Co. G, 154th Regiment of New York Volunteers on August 14, 1862 and was discharged from the service on Jan. 5, 1863 at Fort Hamilton, N. Y., by reason of enlistment in Regular Army Battery E, 6th Regiment, U. S. Artillery, remaining until the end of the war. He was in the Army of the Potomac during the Peninsula campaign fighting under Gen. McClellan at Antietam, with Gen. Burnside at Fredericksburg Heights, and later under Gen. Meade at the Battle of Gettysburg, and continued in the service until the disbanding of the Union Army at Washington in 1865.

He was married to Miss Elizabeth Allard in Hanover, Chautauqua county, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1866, coming to Michigan about 1868 and settling on a farm in Almer township, Tuscola county. He moved to Caro in 1881 and engaged in buying timber with A. C. Young. In 1884, he moved to Gageton and in 1890 to Cass City. In his early residence here, he was employed as timber inspector and buyer for the M. C. R. R., and later engaged in the insurance business at Cass City. Mr. Perkins was honored by his fellow citizens by election to various positions of trust in the village and township. For several years, he served as justice, assessor and in other positions. Mr. Perkins went to Argyle in 1917 to live with his son.

He is survived by six children, Wm. I. and Lon Perkins of Bad Axe, James Perkins of Argyle, Mrs. Lulu Seeley of Newark, N. J., Mrs. J. C. Herkstreet of Detroit, and Geo. E. Perkins of Point Richmond, California.

REAPPORTIONMENT AMENDMENT HAS HIDDEN DANGERS

Concluded from first page.

A large number of the states have enacted the same principle into their fundamental constitutional law. Practically every state which has one or more great cities has taken steps to limit the representation from these metropolitan areas in either one or both of the legislative chambers. By these safeguards the state as a whole protects itself against being dominated by any congested centers of population.

The moiety clause in the constitution as it exists today offers some such protection in regard to the make-up of our Michigan House of Representatives. There are 100 representatives, so an exact mathematical division of representatives would allow one to each area having a ratio of one one-hundredth of the total population. But here is where the moiety clause steps in. This clause provides that any county having a moiety, or one-half of a full ratio, should have an independent representative. It is thus evident that passage of the proposed amendment will take away the independent representation now enjoyed by several counties and will group two or three such counties together to form districts. In the more sparsely settled regions these districts will be very large, making it difficult for a man to fairly represent his district in an intimate and intelligent way.

It is evident that if Wayne county should have 35 per cent of the representatives in each branch of the Legislature we would have a rule of an organized minority, instead of the rule of the majority. Thirty-five members of the House from one county who would get together and caucus and all vote alike could practically control legislation, especially if the same condition existed in the Senate. A representative of a congested city area can find out on short notice what his constituents think about any issue, while if a man is supposed to represent the same number of constituents scattered over several counties, it is much more difficult to find out accurately what his people back home think.

A further provision of the proposed amendment which merits careful consideration is that which provides for taking the whole matter of apportionment out of the hands of the Legislature and turning it over to a board consisting of the Secretary of State, the Attorney General and the Lieutenant Governor.

At the last annual meeting of the State Farm Bureau Board of Delegates a resolution was passed urging that reapportionment be made on the basis of citizenship rather than total population, recommending that the moiety clause be retained and extended to apply not only to individual counties, but to groups of small counties as well and favoring the limitation of the number of law-makers from any one county to five senators and sixteen representatives.

Much more might well be said about this situation, but we trust that the above is sufficient to insure that this matter will have the earnest and intelligent consideration of every voter. Again we say, this is a matter of the most far-reaching importance and should not be passed over lightly.

MATURING OF LATE CROPS DELAYED

less than in 1923, and the smallest production since 1913.

The season was unusually favorable for oats and threshing returns exceeded expectations. An average yield of 42 bushels per acre, or a total production of 63,546,000 bushels, is indicated. This yield has never been exceeded and was only equalled by the bumper crop harvested in 1915. Last year, 48,896,000 bushels were produced in the state. The grain is heavy but some was discolored by rains during harvest. The quality is rated at 94 per cent.

The United States' production is estimated at 1,509,409,000 bushels, the largest since 1918. Last year it was 1,299,823,000 bushels.

The barley crop is estimated at 4,536,000 bushels as compared with 3,600,000 last year. The average yield is placed at 31.5 bushels per acre, the largest on record. The quality is reported as 94 per cent as compared with an average of 89. As in the case of oats, more or less of the grain was discolored by rains during the harvest period.

The combined production of all states is placed at 200,958,000 bushels.

This is an increase of slightly less than three million over last year.

The average of spring wheat is reported as 19 bushels per acre, or a total crop of 152,000 bushels. The crop in 1923 was estimated at 120,000 bushels. The quality is rated at 85 per cent of normal, as compared with a ten-year average of 80 per cent.

Later reports have increased the estimated production of spring wheat in the United States to 266,456,000 bushels, or about 53,000,000 more than last year's.

Early potatoes and early-planted late varieties are yielding well. The late crop is slow in ripening and has been injured by blight in some sections, as a result of which the yield may be disappointing in some localities. The present condition of 86 per cent represents a total production of 33,911,000 bushels as compared with 35,796,000 bushels last year. The quality of those harvested to date has been excellent. The percentage of hollow and small potatoes is much less than last year.

While the increase over one month ago has been very slight in the state, the total increase for the country as a whole amounts to nearly eleven million bushels, the October 1 reports indicating a total crop of 423,508,000. This quantity has been exceeded only twice, in 1917 and 1922.

Favorable weather during the last half of Sept. permitted bean growers to harvest much of their crop in good condition. The injury by anthracnose proved to be less serious than expected and the pick is not as heavy as anticipated. The tabulated returns from growers indicate an average yield of 11 bushels per acre from the harvested acreage, which is believed to be about eight per cent less than the planted, or 511,000. This gives a total production of 5,621,000 bushels, as compared with 6,532,000 produced in 1923. The average pick is reported as 6.5 per cent.

The total production for the United States is estimated at 12,782,000 bushels, the average yield being 9.2 bushels per acre.

The wet season promoted a thrifty growth of tops and the majority of stands were good, but sugar beets did not make the usual growth and a smaller yield is predicted. The present condition is 84 per cent which forecasts a production of 1,189,000 tons. The 1923 crop totaled 883,000 for the state.

HAPPINESS
By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

EVANS had been born in New York and had lived there all his life. He was about as provincial as most people who have been reared in a large city and who think they have seen the world. His first view of Nebraska as his train rolled slowly along the valley of the Platte was not a very alluring one. The level farms stretching parched and treeless to apparently limitless distances, the low, bare unpainted farmhouses in the midst of the haystacks and cattle sheds, the absence of everything beautiful or comfortable, seemed to him to make life there hideously impossible.

"Do men and women choose to live in such a place?" he asked me. "How do they spend their leisure time if they have any? Nothing to do, nothing to see, nothing to go to! With all this level ground, I haven't seen a tennis court since I left New York."

Evans had played tennis ever since he was a boy in "prep" school and he could not understand how with such wonderful opportunities for the sport no one seemed inclined to take advantage of them.

"They have their household duties," I answered, "very laborious ones at times, and they have their children."

"I should think they'd go insane," he continued.

"Well, some of them do," I answered, "as women do in the city, worn out by society and too much leisure; but in general they work as regularly and as hard as their husbands."

"It seems hell to me," Evans said.

On our way back from Denver business required that we visit one of the despised farmhouses. The man of the house was gone, but his young wife was able to transact the business for which we came. She was an attractive young woman with a shy little youngster hiding behind her skirts. Both she and her husband had been to college, we discovered; they had traveled some, and much to Evans' surprise, they had even been to New York.

"How do you live in such a place?" Evans asked.

"It isn't so bad," she replied simply. "We have each other, we are going to have a home, and we have him," she said tenderly, laying her hand on the child's head. "I'm very happy."

Genoa has been known as "The City of Palaces." Vienna has long been known as "The City of Harmony," a name of affection which is about all that the late war has left to the once brilliant capital of the empire of the Hapsburgs. It refers to the great part that music and dancing have played in the life of music that it has given to the world.—New York Times.

Spanish Modes for Fall

Stylists travel to all quarters of the earth in search of inspiration for new modes. This year the costume of ancient and modern Spain caught their fancy and now we see reflections of these Spanish styles in our present-day apparel. In millinery the Spanish sailor and the toreador hat grace the heads of many Americans in adaptations first made welcome by the Parisians. One of these dashing sailors is shown here in black haters plush. Gorgeous fringed and embroidered scarfs and shawls, lace dresses and the large Spanish combs that distinguish evening modes, show that fashion's eyes lingered long on the romantic apparel of Spain.

When We Deteriorate
A man begins to deteriorate, to go toward failure, not when he loses all of his material possessions, not when he falls in his undertakings, but when he loses faith in himself, in his ability to make his dreams come true.

A Self-Medicator
Francis Bacon, the philosopher, was another self-medicator. When it rained he would ride out in an open coach with bared head to receive the benefit of irrigation, as he put it.

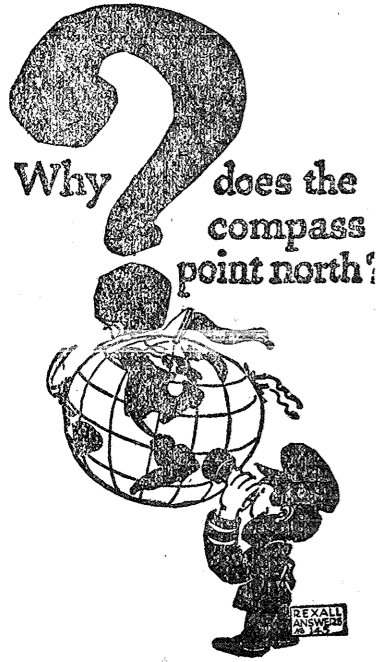

Your Conversation
"ORPHEUS"
Orpheus was a legendary Thracian musician and hero who popularly was supposed to have invented the lyre. His music is said to have been so magically beautiful that the wild beasts crowded about him to listen. He is also famous for his journey to Hades to recover his wife, Eurydice. Since he is a patron of music, musical clubs are often called by his name.

AND EVERYBODY HAD A GOOD TIME

decorated automobiles and some very dilapidated ones, and several grades of the public school. The parade passed up and down Main St. to the fairgrounds and around the race track. Judges awarded the following prizes:

Best decorated automobile—1st, American Legion; 2nd, Clifton Champion; honorable mention, Miss Marie Martin and Brown & Son.

Most dilapidated car running under its own power—John West and Ben Benkelman, jr.

Ford touring car taking largest number persons over 16 years of age to fairgrounds—Miss Elizabeth Doerr.

Oldest couple in automobile—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Baxter.

In the game of foot ball with Sebe-waing high school, the score stood 73-0 in favor of Cass City. Sebe-waing is probably the weakest team which the local squad has met so far this season. At the end of the first half, the score stood 25-0 in Cass City's favor. This game was witnessed by the largest crowd ever in attendance on the field. Approximately thirty-five hundred were on the grounds Friday. It is difficult to pick out any individual stars, but Moore, Gowen, West, and Fiddymont played excellent football, while on the line, Keenoy, Hutchinson, McBurney, and Urquhart did good work for the local team.

Apple eating and pie eating contests were conducted between halves of the football game, but no record was kept of the winners' names. In the tug of war, the side captained by J. Wells Spencer were proclaimed victors.

Those who doubted the probability of the tomato throwing contest being held had their doubts removed as the warriors lined up in battle array, clad in their full regalia. The judges had a hard time deciding who made the most hits, rendering an early decision for one side and later reversing it. It has been suggested that the contest be repeated in order that the judges may have a better opportunity to render a satisfactory decision. Of one thing all are sure—the spectators enjoyed the fray immensely.

Sandwiches, donuts and coffee were served free late in the afternoon and there was a grand rush until the last donut disappeared. The free movies drew large crowds in the afternoon and evening and Amsden's band was liberal with good music during the day.

Prince Nelson, a wire walker, gave two exhibitions that were thrillers in every sense of the word. The performances were wonderful feats and Nelson satisfied the crowds as an entertainer. A free dance on the pavement and in Doerr's hall completed the celebration's program.

Celebration Notes.

The celebration cost Cass City citizens approximately $750.00 in cash besides plenty of hard work. An encouraging feature to committees was the hearty co-operation of business people in assisting in putting the thing across.

The committee regrets that in publishing the names of contributors last week, the name of S. Champion was not included in the list. This was an oversight on the part of the committee.

Fakirs were conspicuous by their absence.

Cass City citizens are indebted to Bay City for the use of the beautiful street decorations in evidence here on Friday. I. D. McCoy, who secured them from that city, says the Bay City officials were most generous in offering them and refused to accept any remuneration whatever for their use. Some miscreant tore down the welcome sign and stole a flag from the decorations at the east end of town Friday night.

Deputy Sheriff Hurley brought John West before Justice Robt. Spurgeon during the afternoon, the claim being made that the prize winning dilapidated car of West's in the parade had been driven under a license belonging to another party. As John had purchased the car but a few days before and transfer papers had not been executed, John took the matter seriously until the justice proposed holding court in front of the grandstand filled with people. Then John tumbled to the joke and said he'd take the jail sentence rather than pay the $50.00 fine suggested by the officers.

FAKE STOCK SALESMEN BUSY.

Robert J. Eustace, of the General Business Organization, in an address in Detroit last Wednesday stated that swindlers took $20,000,000.00 out of Detroit in 1923. "Plimflam stock propositions did the most of it." But Detroit is not alone as the city of easy marks. Fake stocks are peddled right and left in every city and hamlet in the country. There has been enough fake stock sold in and around Peck in the last few years to build a new community house and equip it complete from top to bottom. There has been stock sold in Sanilac county in the past three years that is not worth ten cents on the dollar and in many cases people have put the savings of a lifetime in these forlorn propositions. The lure of easy money and big returns always brings disaster.—Peck Times.

IN JUSTICE COURT.

John Bielski of Akron township collided with Martin Honeywell near Quanicasee where both parties were driving automobiles on Sunday, doing considerable damage to both cars and injuring several occupants of the Honeywell car. Bielski was arrested and pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated in Justice Brown's court on Monday where he paid a fine of $75.00 and costs amounting to $38.00.

John Bush was arrested in Detroit on complaint made by his wife charging nonsupport. Bush pleaded guilty and was released on suspended sentence after payment of $25.00 costs and agreeing to take proper care of his family.

Albert Hill of Sanilac county was arrested at Cass City on the night of Oct. 10th by Sheriff Colling charged with being drunk and disorderly. He was arraigned before Justice Brown Saturday when a plea of guilty was entered. Sentence was suspended until Tuesday for the purpose of investigation by the court, and when brought into court for sentence, Hill, after consulting his attorney, asked to have his plea of guilty withdrawn and a plea of not guilty entered. A hearing was set for October 28th and defendant gave bonds for his appearance at that time.

John O'Brien of Flint was arrested by Sheriff Colling at Reese on Monday night. O'Brien apparently was finishing up a "real time" by indulging in a quantity of denatured alcohol and was only disappointed by the appearance of the sheriff who brought him to the county jail, where he was arraigned in justice court and pleaded guilty to a "drunk" charge. He was ordered to pay a fine and costs amounting to $25.00 or take 30 days in jail. He chose the 30 days.

Eli Kauffman paid costs of $8.00 in justice court on Monday for stretching the speed limit on the streets of Caro, on Saturday night, Oct. 4. The officer requested the young man to halt but he stepped on the gas instead, and was only located by the license number which was taken by the cop.

GET RID OF THAT BACKACHE!

Cass City People Point the Way.

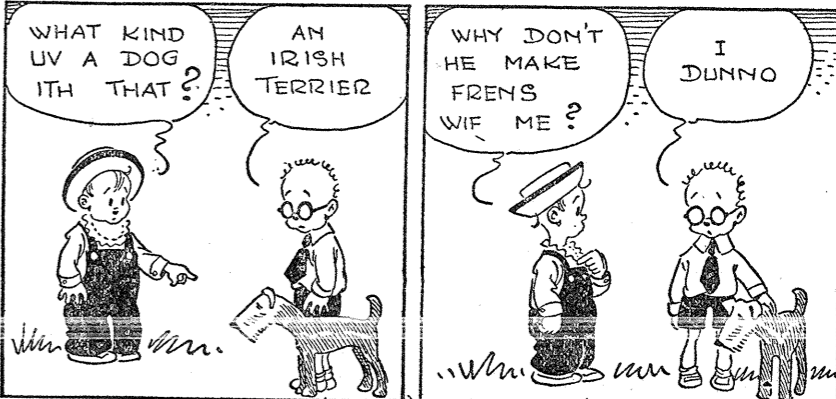

The constant aching of a bad back, The weariness, the tired feeling; Headaches, dizziness, nervousness, Distressing urinary disorders— Are often signs of failing kidneys And too serious to be neglected. Get rid of these troubles! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Hosts of people recommend Doan's. This is a Cass City case. You can verify it. Mrs. E. A. Geitgey, Fourth St., Cass City, says: "There is something wonderful about a remedy that will rid a person of such backache as I had. It was a dull, nagging ache in the small of my back. Doan's Pills regulated my kidneys and cured me of backache. I have never been bothered since."

Mrs. Geitgey is one of many Cass City people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Pills, the same that Mrs. Geitgey had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 60 cents at all dealers. A Good Sign to Follow

DEFORD NEWS

Geo. McIntyre has a new car. Beets are coming in rapidly now. Chas. Elliot, west of Caro, was in town Monday. On Oct. 8, the gay danced at Webster hall in the evening. James Jacoby of Detroit visited at the home of Robert Jacoby Sunday. Agent Vanderkoooy and family were Kingston visitors over Sunday. Kindred from Birmingham visited Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Osburn Sunday. The sugar beets that were struck in wet weather are growing well now. A. Webster takes the throw away dirt from the beet wagons to fix up his front. The R. D. Lewis family spent Sunday at Caro, guests of a brother-in-law by name of Gee. Howard Retherford was home over Sunday from Bay City where he is on jury duty. Went back Tuesday. A man comes well recommended to add harness making and shoe repairing to the Johnson hardware business. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bixby and Mrs. Thomas Colwell of Cass City were callers at A. Shaw's on Thursday. Mrs. Ordella Shaw of Snover spent the week-end at A. Shaw's.

Evil can't ever betide him that has truth for his creed and God for his guide. Our business firms have their places wired, ready for the light when the juice is turned. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Titus and children of Flint spent the week-end at E. L. Patterson's. Lewis and Harry Locke of Imlay City were Sunday callers at E. L. Patterson's. Mrs. Emily Warner visits her daughter, Mrs. Will Schirmer of Romeo, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Royal Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hill and son of Clifford and Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan of Pt. Huron were entertained at dinner at the home of Henry Cuer on Sunday. Never waste time disputing with the person that compresses his lips, shakes his head and declares, "I know." He has a settled conviction of his infallibility. The Roderick Kennedy dwelling house is having new chimneys built. Mr. Shaw had a sick spell past week. Better at present. The beet delivery will be rushed because of good roads just now. Our town was saddened on Thursday when word came that Mrs. Surprenant who lived here for some time died on the 9th inst. Mr. Surprenant has the sympathy of us all.

Edward Lee, old resident here, now of Flint, was in town past week. The elevator company takes in grain and keeps in the store rooms for the present. Mrs. Margaret H. Livingston was a caller in this locality latter part of past week. Mrs. E. R. Bruce returned Saturday night from attending W. C. T. U. convention at Detroit. Word comes from Detroit that the babe of Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin is very sick. Mrs. McL. will be remembered as Goldie Martin here. Mr. and Mrs. Case of Detroit and Mrs. Florence Lamb of Flint, the last Curtis, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Curtis. The lighting plant men disfigured some shade trees, but made deep apologies. E. L. Patterson is the chicken dealer in our city. He selected Friday as taking in day which proves he is not superstitious. Roderick Kennedy still expects to leave first of November for Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Patch of Highland Park were callers here on Sunday. Our light men who were off to Gagetown are back again rodding dwellings. The writer spent three months of his valuable time crossing the Atlantic. Now the trick can be turned in 100 hours. A day was required then to do what is done in an hour now. A. L. Bruce will commence to assist in taking in beets at the weigh station. E. R. Bruce commences his 23rd season of taking in beets for Michigan Sugar Beet Co. for Caro plant here. Elisha Allen, well known in this locality, is about to leave us for a time. He will go to Wyandotte, 12 miles west of Detroit, to stay for the winter at least, with a step-daughter, who is expected to come for him this week. Elisha has entered his 75th year in life and not in robust health. We are this season accorded a pleasure to say that saint and sinner, Jew and Gentile, were of one voice in greeting our minister on his return. If they had spoken aloud, "Welcome among us for another year." The township of Wells seems to go wrong more than others in the county. The farmers raise the "Satanic Brew." But look at their soil and be candid. The poor fellows can't raise much else. Let their punishment be tempered with mercy. Many Defordites went to Cass City on the 10th to the Gala Day. They speak in highest terms of the entertainment. Well may Cass City be proud of her wide streets. As far as we know there is not a town in Michigan that equals Cass City for beauty and width of thoroughfare. Traveling men we have talked with bear us witness. When Deford was laid out for a town there was a swale passed thru the lands from the east side to northwest corner discharging into R. R. drain. None thought at that time that house would be built with cellars under them to keep the winter vegetables warm and dry, but such is the case at present. Time has made the change and our people rejoice gladly. Benjamin Gage plans to raise his dwelling and put a cellar underneath. The sugar beet weigh stations opened up on morning of the 9th. William Ingelhart brought first load to Michigan Sugar Company and Wells Spencer first load to Marine Sugar Co. E. R. Bruce is best man for Michigan Co. and S. Sherk for Marine Co.

Michigan Happenings

A hearing on the contention of Upper Peninsula copper interests that intra-state rates are excessive and unjust has been held before the State Public Utilities Commission. According to the petition for an investigation and revision of tariffs on all the Michigan railroads carrying copper, the Upper Peninsula industry is severely handicapped in attempting to meet outside competition in the markets of its own state. It is claimed that copper can be shipped from Ohio to Detroit cheaper than it can be transported from copper producing points in the Upper Peninsula. Five suits totaling $125,000 and based on the four deaths which resulted when a section of the chimney atop the Charlevoix hotel at Detroit, tipped, crumbled and fell 10 floors to the street July 31, killing four people, were filed by Ernest L. Morey, Sr., as administrator of the estates of those who were killed. The Moreys and Lehighs were in an automobile on West Elizabeth street on their way to Belle Isle when the heavy steel and iron chimney pitched down, smashing the car to bits and killing all but one of the occupants. The increase in interstate freight rates on beet sugar has been postponed until Nov. 8, the Interstate Commerce Commission has advised the Michigan Public Utilities Commission. An order to increase the Michigan rate was issued by the federal commission after an investigation. Protests on the part of Michigan manufacturers resulted in the postponement which will permit them to handle this year's crop at the lower rate. Orville Atkinson was instantly killed, the target of a stream of bullets from the upper windows of the Roadside inn at Oakwood. Carl Spano, Highland Park, was arrested after the slaying and is said to have confessed. He was traced through a marsh about a mile from the inn and arrested with the aid of the shotgun he is alleged to have used in the killing. Dr. Preston M. Hickey, professor of Roentgenology in the medical school of the University of Michigan, has been named executive head of the department of internal medicine, by action of the faculty of the school. Dr. Hickey will serve in the new capacity in the absence of Dr. Louis M. Warfield, who has been granted a leave of absence until June 30, 1925. To lighten the burden on the Southern Michigan Telephone Co., which is in the hands of a receiver, the state administrative board has granted it permission to pay about $72,000 in back taxes in installments. The levy for 1925, amounting to about $18,600 will be paid at once and the rest will be spread out in payments of $1,000 a month. Surveys to establish the route of the pipe line from the Deindorfer woods to the Clare district to bring Saginaw's new water supply to the city will be started soon, it has been announced. The distance from the woods to the test plant in Clare is 42 miles but it is probable that the collecting reservoir will be built much nearer Saginaw. An anonymous donor who already has made three $10,000 gifts toward the erection of the boys' dormitory at Calvin college at Grand Rapids, has presented another similar donation. The building is just being completed at a cost of $150,000. This donor already has presented several thousand dollars in addition toward dormitory expense. Henry Hawkins, 52 years old, of Saginaw, died of injuries suffered when his automobile skidded after blowing out a tire and threw him to the pavement. He was the father of Harry Hawkins, a student at the University of Michigan and candidate for the foot ball team. Mace Hanson, 15-year-old Lansing high school boy, died of injuries suffered when he was shot by a friend, Roland A. Foote, as the two boys were hunting, about four miles north of the city. Foote, in a statement to the police, said the gun went off as he was handing it to Hanson. Michigan graduates will gather at noon, October 28, at the Hotel Statler, Detroit, for the first of a series of seven alumni meetings to be held throughout the state this fall, Hawley Tapping, alumni secretary, has announced. Ray McDonald, 7 years old, of Harbor Springs, was struck by an automobile driven by Fred Gasco and killed. Gasco is under arrest. It is charged that he did not stop his automobile after striking the child. A recent canvass of Albion's local chamber of commerce, bore fruit when 15 alien residents went to Marshall in a body and were examined in circuit court for their first naturalization papers. Six nationalities were represented in the 15.

Simple Day Dresses Sure of Approval

The pretty wearer of this demure daytime frock may not know just where she is going—before the day is over—but she is on her contented way. Wherever she may find herself there is one thing that she may be sure of and that is the fitness of her dress for all usual daytime requirements. It is made of crepe satin in the straight-line mode, and has a panel at the front of the material laid in impeccable knife plaits. There is a girdle, also made of the material. It is used as a covering for cord, which is worked up into small medallions and sewed together. Such a frock makes a background for pretty accessories—as costume jewelry and neckpieces—that tone it up when necessary, and almost any sort of hat looks well with it.

Marlette Completed 2 1/2 Miles of Pavement; Other Items of Interest.

Ninety days in the county jail was the sentence meted by Justice John Hyslop to Purl Dorland, Sandusky, who pleaded guilty Monday to using indecent and profane language in the presence of women.

The Bad Axe Tribune learns, indirectly, that the Pere Marquette is soon to put on another train between Bad Axe and Port Huron. This train will leave at about 8 o'clock in the morning and return in the evening but will not go farther north than Bad Axe.

David J. Doherty, mail carrier on Route 1 at Marlette, has been appointed postmaster of that village. Mr. Doherty was formerly assistant postmaster at Decker.

Marlette's 2 1/2 miles of pavement was completed last week. The job was started April 15, and concrete laying commenced July 2. Forty-four thousand square yards of concrete were laid. Marlette's home-coming and pavement opening celebration will be held Wednesday, Oct. 22.

The Deckerville Construction Co. completed their $67,000 paving contract at Carsonville and moved their machinery and equipment to the job through the village of Forestville where they have the contract for building a mile and a third of pavement. The Carsonville job consists of two miles of pavement varying in width from 20 feet on the outskirts of the village to 52 feet in the business section.

D. B. C. & W. RAILROAD HAS DISCOURAGING OUTLOOK

While in Detroit last week The Times editor had the pleasure of again meeting Chas. R. Ruttle, the man who was general superintendent of the D. B. C. & W. railroad for many years and was in active charge while the railroad was operated as a part of the Pere Marquette system during the war. He was quite outspoken against the management that allowed the railroad to be divided and operated as two separate units, from Port Huron south and Pt. Huron north. It was his opinion that there was no way possible to save the railroad and that it eventually would be sold for junk. This is not printed for any reason than to give the facts as they are and not hold out any false illusions to those who are interested in property along the line. The railroad, according to Mr. Ruttle, has been losing money rapidly ever since it has been in the hands of a receiver and this condition of affairs cannot continue indefinitely even with a railroad. It really seems too bad that the property cannot be sold to a going concern, but as the old saying goes, it takes two to make a bargain and outside of the Detroit United Railway no other company to our knowledge has even looked over the property. At the present time the railroad is doing a splendid freight business and probably will do so until the first of the year, but after that it is not known what will be done. The road has operated no passenger trains for months and the freight service has been spasmodic.—Sanilac County Times.

TEAMWORK FOR OUR TOWN.

In every city, town and hamlet we may find strong competition in business, difference in politics and religion, social rivalries and personal antagonisms—and these will probably always exist to a greater or less extent.

But there is one common ground on which all should be willing to meet, laying aside personal grievances and prejudices—that is, where the common welfare of "our town" is concerned.

In other words, no matter how much we may disagree and fight among ourselves, we should stand up for our town against all opposition. This sort of teamwork is what makes a town worth while, insures its progress and a better understanding among its people.

By joining with an enemy or rival in some movement for the betterment of the community, we often find him to be a pretty good sort of a fellow, after all.

Development of a strong community spirit is essential to community advancement and no personal feelings should be permitted to stand in its way. Loyalty and teamwork are the things that count.—Ex.

DON'T WORRY GIRLS SAYS BACHELOR EDITOR

The National Hair Goods and Cosmetic Manufacturers' Association, no doubt feeling keenly the loss its clients have sustained by reason of the bobbed-hair craze, is seeking publicity through the country press in the interest of the industry it represents. In the article being circulated it is alleged that the Prince of Wales has refused to dance with girls of abbreviated tresses, and therefore implies that there should be a return to the unshorn with artificial means filling the gap which nature's process would impose.

The bachelor editor of the North Branch Gazette, commenting on the article, says:

"His Royal Highness, of course, has a right to his tastes, and notwithstanding the wide-spread popularity of the 'bobbed' there is sure to be enough of the 'bobless' to keep him from being a wall flower and there is just as sure to be enough red-blooded American gents to provide partners for short-haired femininity. We have observed that a head of hair is neither here nor there when it comes to falling for a damsel fair, and while, at least, the bobbed ones continue in the ascendancy, we'll stick with the majority and pass up the clever propaganda which the long-hair promoters have submitted for use without price. God bless the girl who has head enough to wear her hair as she pleases, regardless of royal criticism. However, the Prince, according to all accounts, is a regular fellow, and we have our doubts about so good a sport intentionally snubbing our lovely bobbed ones."

CASS CITY SCHOOL NEWS.

High School.

School will be closed Thursday and Friday, Oct. 23-24, to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the teachers' institute. Most of the teachers will attend the Bay City district institute at Bay City.

Committees are busy arranging for the school fair to be held at the school house Friday, Nov. 7.

The Campfire Girls held their first meeting in their new council rooms over the Wiley & Cathcart store.

The High School Athletic association organized this week, electing the following officers: President, George Dillman; vice pres., Florabelle Urquhart; treasurer, Robt. Dillman; secretary, Laura Wright. A constitution, written by H. Duke, principal of the high school, was voted upon and adopted by the association.

Today (Friday) the football team plays Sandusky at Sandusky. On Tuesday, Oct. 21, Cass City plays Pigeon there. Pigeon's team is one of the strongest teams in the Thumb, having won every game so far this season.

Agriculture.

The field crops class visited the Geo. Caister farm on Monday, inspecting hill selection of potatoes. The boys growing certified seed are planning to enter exhibits at the State Potato show at M. A. C. in January. They will enter club and individual exhibits.

The Michigan Business Farmer in a recent issue printed the picture of James McTavish with his champion Holstein calf and states the following: "The above Holstein was grand champion female in the club class at the State Fair and stood third in the open class. In addition to this, she was first in her class and junior champion at Bay City, Saginaw, Caro and Cass City. Two heifers placed ahead of her in the open class at Detroit, but were owned outside the state, which gives her a fine record against Michigan animals."

Kindergarten.

We were very much disappointed Friday at the small number of pupils who came for the march. There is one little girl in the kindergarten who has been tardy six times this fall. She is the only one who has been tardy this month. The rest of us feel badly, because we wish the banner so much.

First Grade.

We have had only one person absent one-half day during the past week. Elaine Reid and Billy Wilson have moved away. We are always sorry to lose any from our room.

Second Grade.

We expect to purchase a large play ball with the three dollars which we won Friday.

Third Grade.

As our enrollment has been reduced to thirty, we are having some seats taken out. We are planning what we shall do with our three dollars prize-money.

Fourth Grade.

John Chapelo has entered the fourth grade, making our enrollment thirty-six. We are sorry not to have won three dollars Friday. In arithmetic we are climbing stairs, and some of us can go to the very top.

Fifth Grade.

We are very busy thinking how we can best invest the three dollars which we won Friday. We are working to attain a higher rate of speed in the use of the fundamentals in arithmetic. During our story hour, we are reading Kipling's Jungle Book.

Athletics.

Cass City is much elated over the victory over Marlette in the game Tuesday. This is the first time in about five years that the local men have been able to win against the Marlette school. The score was 25-6. Cass City made two touchdowns each half. They were made by Moore, Gowen and Benkelman. Although Marlette outweighed our team ten pounds to a man, they probably could have been held to a 25-0 score but for an untimely fumble. Cass City had the ball in the mid-field when a fumble was made; whereupon Knapp, Marlette's speedy half-back, picked up the fumble and made a fifty yard run for a touchdown. It is very difficult to choose any particular star, as all on the Cass City team played a very good game. The men showed a decided improvement in tackling, all of the tackles being low. This is in direct contrast to Marlette's tackling, which was high in all instances. Each week the local men seem to be improving in strength, due to a large extent to Hutchinson being shifted to the line from the back field, and in this position he has become a pillar of strength. H. Keeney, playing at tackle along with Hutchinson, succeeded in breaking up many plays and throwing the opponents for a loss of five to ten yards. On the line, McBurney and Moore were the shining lights. The backfield as a whole showed up well, although a little more effective blocking on their part would have resulted in gaining much more ground.

The following appeared on the sport page of a daily paper this week: "One hundred per cent for the Marlette high school football squad." The above phrase represents the sentiment of the village of Marlette including both old and young, regardless of the knowledge of the game, toward the crack Marlette football machine. Seldom in a small town is such interest manifested toward an athletic body, regardless of the merits of the game. Although the spirit of loyal support has been in evidence in former years, Marlette this year is stronger than ever behind their team both on foreign soil and at home. The fact that seven letter men from last season's Thumb championship eleven are back in togs with a nucleus of substitutes that can fill any hole is one of the things that cheer the local fans."

Cass City has several hard games ahead, including Sandusky, Pigeon, Bad Axe and Caro.
